insert:

(b) Any insurance company that is obligated to report and remit the excise tax on commercial casualty insurance premiums imposed under s. 185.08 and is unable, after due diligence, to assign an insured property to a specific local taxing jurisdiction for purposes of complying with paragraph (a) shall remit the excise tax on commercial casualty insurance premiums using a methodology of apportionment in a manner consistent with the remittance for the 2001 calendar year. Any change in the total amount of proceeds remitted from the tax imposed under s. 185.08 should be apportioned proportionately between the state and any participating municipality.
