¹ This is a new issue through the supplemental legislative budget request process.

² Amended from the original October 2016 legislative budget request submission through the supplemental legislative budget request process. The original issue included a placeholder based on the Fiscal Year 2016-17 certification of need for additional judges (SC15-1991, issued on November 19, 2015). The Supreme Court issued the Fiscal Year 2017-18 certification opinion on December 15, 2016 (SC16-2127).

The opinion for Fiscal Year 2017-18 certification also recommends the decertification of 6 existing county court judges. Pursuant to s. 9, Art. V, Fla. Const.: "A decrease in the number of judges shall be effective only after the expiration of a term." Therefore, expenditure impacts related to decertification of existing judges would occur over multiple fiscal years through attrition.

Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel

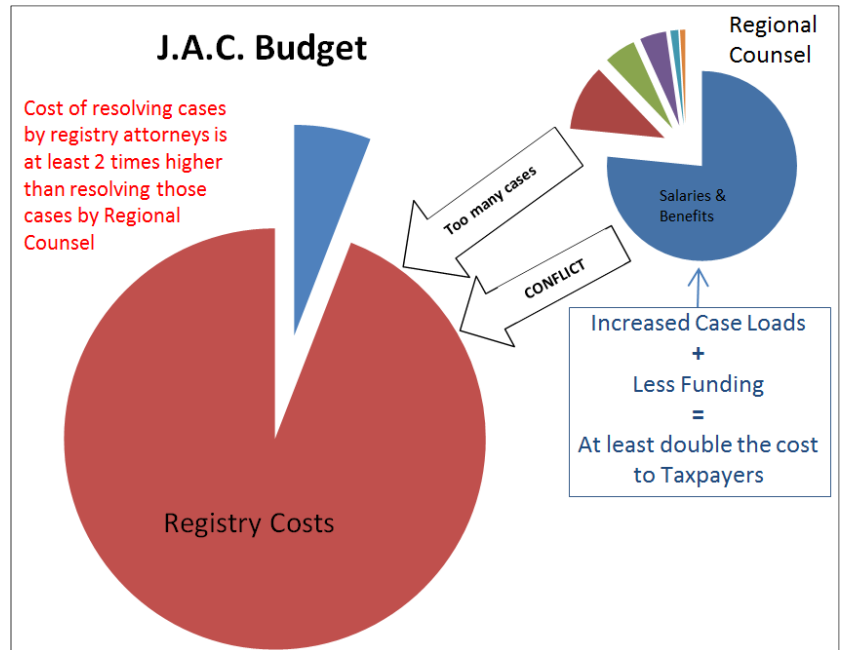

Offices of Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel

The Office of Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel was created by the Legislature (Sec. 27.511) in 2007 to provide legal representation to indigent persons and to control rising costs from the private court appointed registry attorneys. Regional Counsel's main 3 classes of cases are criminal conflict cases that the court grants the Public Defender's motion to withdraw and appoints the Regional Counsel, Dependency and civil cases, and certain statutorily authorized civil commitment proceedings. Regional Counsel also handles appeals and post-conviction motions. The five Regional Counsels are: Candice Brower, Ita Neymotin, Eugene Zenobi, Jeffrey Deen, and Antony Ryan.

Regional Counsel provides legal representation with substantial cost savings. It has been estimated that to date, the Regional Counsels have saved the State of Florida close to $306 million over private registry counsel.

2017-2018 LEGISLATIVE PRIORITIES

- 1: Salary increases for the five Regional Counsels
- 2: Graham Miller cases and work load
- 3: Salary parity and rate
- 4: 5% increase in pay for employees

More than half of our cases are in Dependency Court. Another way to save taxpayer dollars is safe and quicker reunification of families in dependency cases. Our opposing counsel is Department of Children and Families. Their attorneys are limited to a caseload of 80 children, whereas Regional Counsel attorneys represent over 100 parents each and have no maximum caseloads. Regional Counsel represents the parents and helps to reunite the family.

Due to the recent Supreme Court decisions of Miller, Graham, and Horsley, we are required to investigate, prepare, and litigate juvenile resentencing cases to the same degree of professionalism and competence expected of death penalty phase investigation. Records such as birth certificates, report cards, any intellectual assessments, and Department of Corrections' records become relevant for establishing mitigation during resentencing. The procurement and organization of those records may require hundreds of hours of work per client, as well as additional due process dollars. As a result, Regional Counsels will need additional due process dollars as well as additional attorneys.

Increased Case Loads + Less Funding = Double the cost to Taxpayers

We need salary parity with other state agencies. Due to the fact that death penalty attorneys can make 40% more working for other public agencies, we are losing those attorneys. We invest time and resources into every attorney that we train, and lose those resources when the attorney departs to another state agency, requiring the investment of more time and resources in training a new attorney. If we are unable to staff Regional Counsel with the proper number of attorneys and thus are unable to handle the cases, they will spill over into the private registry, which ends up costing the taxpayers much more money.

CAPITAL COLLATERAL REGIONAL COUNSELS

2017-2018 LEGISLATIVE BUDGET REQUEST

Florida Statute 27.702 requires the Capital Collateral Regional Counsels (CCRC's) to represent each inmate sentenced to death in the state and federal courts, including the United States Supreme Court, until relief is granted or the sentence of execution is carried out. Cases are assigned by the Florida Supreme Court after direct appeal and are based on the federal court districts.

There are three CCRC offices: North, Middle, and South. The CCRC-North office was recreated by the Legislature in 2013 in the Timely Justice Act. In 2014, the Florida Supreme Court implemented numerous changes to the post-conviction death penalty rules, including a substantial increase in the minimum standards for legal counsel in death penalty cases. All CCRC attorneys must have expertise in the highly complex area of Federal Habeas Corpus, as well as extensive experience in capital cases.

CCRC budget requests for the 2017-2018 fiscal year are:

CCRC-NORTH

- $33,649 competitive pay adjustment to recruit and retain legal staff

Justice Administrative Commission

Created in 1965, the Justice Administrative Commission (JAC) administratively serves 49 judicial related entities, as well as provides compliance and financial review of billings for services provided by private court-appointed attorneys representing indigent citizens and associated due process vendors.

In the most recently completed fiscal year, JAC processed approximately 285,217 accounting transactions, 66,366 court-appointed attorney and due process vendor invoices, 68,164 payroll and human resources related transactions, 11,367 budgetary transactions, and 460 public records requests; attended 1,150 hearings for state payment; and responded to over 13,000 legal motions for payment of costs by the state.

The Justice Administrative Commission accomplishes all this, and more, with 86 staff and a budget of $6,282,992 through its partnership with the Legislature, systemic cross-training its staff, and constantly developing and updating our processes for increased efficiency, accountability, and customer convenience.

JAC's Legislative Budget Request for the 2017-18 Fiscal Year includes:

- Human Resources Staffing - $54,276
