

Senator Gibson visits with students participating in the Charlton Camps for Aviation, Science, and Technology Training (CCASTT), at Jacksonville Executive at Craig Airport

The Charlton Camps for Aviation, Science, and Technology Training (CCASTT) ACE Academies is a one-week program, designed to introduce youth to the world of aviation by exposing them to the many challenging careers and opportunities the industry has to offer. The curriculum is built around five core competencies: Airport Operations, Air Traffic Control (ATC) Operations, Flight Operations, Professional Development, and Team-building. Students learned firsthand experiences at Jacksonville Executive at Craig Airport, which is located in my district.

Community Partners include:

125th Fighter Wing, Florida Air National Guard, Florida State College at Jacksonville, Jacksonville Aviation Authority, Jacksonville University, Communities in Schools, United States Coast Guard. Senator Gibson was invited by partner, the Ribault Alumni Group.
