DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICT

Pursuant to Senate Rule 1.39, a Senator must disclose the nature of any interest in any matter on which he or she votes, including votes at the subcommittee level, committee level, and on the floor, if the interest would inure to the special private gain or loss of certain, specified persons or entities listed in Rule 1.39.

DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICT

4/15/2015

Date

Pursuant to Senate Rule 1.39, I am disclosing that certain provisions in Senate Bill 1184 and

(Bill Number; Appointment; Suspension)

Amendments #448900 and 945472

(Amendment Barcode)

provide a special private gain or loss to (circle one):

1. A principal by whom I or my spouse, parent, or child is retained or employed;
2. A parent organization or subsidiary of a corporate principal by which I am retained or employed; or
3. An immediate family member or business associate of mine.

The nature of the interest and the persons or entities involved are specified below.

The passage or defeat of this bill and two amendments thereto will result in a special private gain or loss to American Traffic Solutions. ATS is a red light camera provider and my law firm client. The passage or failure of this legislation will not affect my compensation as counsel for that principal, and I will not personally receive a special private gain or loss from the passage or defeat of this bill.

As established by Senate Rule, I must vote on this matter.
