

Committee on Rules

CS/SM 1174 — Power Plant Carbon Dioxide Emissions

by Environmental Preservation and Conservation Committee and Senator Gibson

CS/SM 1174 urges the United States Congress to allow Florida to develop its own performance standards for regulating carbon dioxide emissions from existing coal-fired power plants, which take into account the unique policies, energy needs, resource mix, and economic priorities of the state.

Vote: Senate Adopted; House Adopted