The Senior Meals Program at the David Posnack Jewish Community Center (DPJCC) serves a well-balanced and nutritious lunch to area residents 60+. Through a partnership with Meals on Wheels-South Florida meals from the grant are also served at the Daniel Cantor Senior Center and Daniel Cantor Adult Day Care/Alzheimer’s Respite Program. The program provides a pleasant atmosphere where seniors can come together for services and activities that enhance dignity, support their independence and encourage their involvement in and with their community. The LSP strives to meet the needs of the elder community so they can maintain an acceptable quality of life in their own homes and avoid or delay nursing home placement. The DPJCC has the facilities to promote healthy living and has specific classes designed to engage the 60+ community. Classes and support groups have been developed to encourage social interaction.
