d. What are the direct services to be provided to citizens by the appropriations project?

The feasibility study will determine whether a PACE program can be sustainable in a newly established catchment area of Clay, Bradford, and Putnam Counties. If established, the PACE program will serve frail elderly age 55+ and allow them to remain in the community for a longer period of time, and avoid costly institutionalized care.

e. Who is the target population served by this project? How many individuals are expected to be served?

Frail Elderly who are eligible for long term care but are able to receive support to be able to remain in their home. The project will identify the number of individuals who will be served.

f. What is the expected benefit or outcome of this project? What is the methodology by which this outcome will be measured?

The expected outcome is a project plan by which PACE services can be expanded to these counties.

g. What are the suggested penalties that the contracting agency may consider in addition to its standard penalties for failing to meet deliverables or performance measures provided for in the contract?
