COURT AND COUNTY COURT JUDGES.—The State Constitution currently prohibits a person from serving as a circuit court judge unless the person is, and has been for the proceeding 5 years, a member of The Florida Bar. This same prohibition applies to county court judges, except in counties having a population of 40,000 or fewer, where a person need only be a member in good standing of The Florida Bar. This proposed amendment increases to 8 years the period of time that a person must be a member of The Florida Bar before serving as a circuit court judge or a county court judge in any county, to take effect January 1, 2013. The increased qualifications do not apply to county court or circuit court judges qualified to hold office and in office on January 8, 2013, or to persons seeking to be elected to the office of county court or circuit court judge during the November 2012 general election or any special election held prior to such general election.
