SUMMARY ANALYSIS

CS/SB 146 passed the House on April 27, 2011. The bill was approved by the Governor on June 21, 2011, chapter 2011-207, Laws of Florida. Sections 1, 2, and 4 of the bill took effect on June 2, 2011. Section 3 of the bill is effective January 1, 2012.

The bill provides that restoration of civil rights cannot be required as a condition of eligibility for public employment or to obtain a license, permit, or certificate. It requires state agencies and regulatory boards to submit to the Governor and the Legislature a report that outlines current disqualifying policies on the employment or licensure of ex-offenders, and possible alternatives that are compatible with protecting public safety.

The bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local governments.

I. SUBSTANTIVE INFORMATION

A. EFFECT OF CHANGES:

Background

Restoration of Civil Rights

The civil rights of a convicted felon are suspended until restored by pardon or restoration of civil rights. The Florida Constitution specifies only the loss of the right to vote and the right to hold public office as consequences of a felony conviction.<sup>1</sup> Other civil rights that are lost in accordance with statute include the right to serve on a jury, to possess a firearm, and to engage in certain regulated occupations or businesses.<sup>2</sup>

The power to restore civil rights is granted by the Florida Constitution to the Governor with the consent of at least two Cabinet members pursuant to Article IV, s. 8(a) of the Florida Constitution. On March 9, 2011, the Governor convened a special meeting of the Board of Executive Clemency (Board) to discuss and vote on amending the rules of clemency for ex-offenders.<sup>3</sup> Changes made to the restoration of civil rights process require felons to demonstrate that they desire and deserve clemency by applying only after they have shown a willingness to abide by the law.

A person seeking restoration of civil rights must submit an application to the Office of Executive Clemency. The Board must review each application individually before deciding whether to grant restoration of civil rights. There are two ways an applicant may have his or her rights restored:

- 1) "Without a Hearing"- A person who has never<sup>4</sup> been convicted of specified offenses<sup>4</sup> is not required to attend a hearing if he or she has not been arrested for a misdemeanor or a felony for a period of five years after completion of his or her sentence.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Section 944.292(1), F.S., provides: "[u]pon conviction of a felony as defined in s. 10, Art. X of the State Constitution, the civil rights of the person convicted shall be suspended in Florida until such rights are restored by a full pardon, conditional pardon, or restoration of civil rights granted pursuant to s. 8, Art. IV of the State Constitution."

<sup>4</sup> "Restoration of Civil Rights or Alien Status under Florida Law Without a Hearing." Rule 9. Rules of Executive Clemency. An applicant is permitted to apply to have his or her civil rights restored without a hearing if he or she has never been convicted of the following offenses: murder, attempted murder, attempted felony murder, manslaughter (chapter 782, F.S.); DUI manslaughter, DUI serious bodily injury (s. 316.193, F.S.); leaving the scene of an accident involving injury or death; sexual battery, attempted sexual battery, unlawful sexual activity with a minor, female genital mutilation (chapter 794, F.S.); any violation of chapter 800, F.S.; lewd or lascivious offense upon or in the presence of an elderly or disabled person, attempted lewd or lascivious offense upon or in the presence of an elderly or disabled person (s. 825.1025, F.S.); sexual performance by a child, attempted sexual performance by a child (s. 827.071, F.S.); aggravated child abuse (s. 827.03, F.S.); failure to register as a sexual predator (chapter 775, F.S.) or sexual offender (s. 943.0435, F.S.); computer pornography, transmission of computer pornography, or any crime involving a minor in violation of (chapter 847, F.S.); kidnapping, attempted kidnapping, false imprisonment, or luring and enticing a child (chapter 787, F.S.); aggravated battery, attempted aggravated battery (s. 784.045, F.S.); felony battery, domestic battery by strangulation (s.784.041, F.S.); robbery, carjacking, attempted carjacking, home invasion, attempted home invasion (chapter 812 F.S.); poisoning of food or water (s. 859.01, F.S.); abuse of a dead human body (s. 872.06, F.S.); burglary of a dwelling, first degree burglary, or attempted first degree burglary (s. 810.02, F.S.); arson, attempted arson, or conspiracy to commit arson (s. 806.01, F.S.); aggravated assault (s. 784.021, F.S.); aggravated stalking (s. 784.048, F.S.); aggravated battery, battery, or aggravated assault on a law enforcement officer or other specified officer (s. 784.07, F.S.); trafficking or conspiracy to traffic in illegal substances (s. 893.135, F.S.); all other first and second degree felonies described in chapter 893, F.S.; aircraft piracy (s. 860.16, F.S.); unlawful throwing,

- 2) “With a Hearing” – A person who has been convicted of the specified offenses is required to attend a hearing if he or she has no new felony convictions for a period of seven years after completion of his or her sentence.<sup>6</sup>

If the Board denies the restoration of civil rights of an applicant without a hearing, the applicant may choose to pursue restoration through a hearing.<sup>7</sup>

Restrictions on Employment of Ex-Offenders

A person may not be disqualified from employment by the state, any of its agencies or political subdivisions, or any municipality solely because of a prior conviction for a crime, except for those drug offenses specified in s. 775.16, F.S.<sup>8</sup> An ex-offender may be denied employment by those entities by reason of the prior conviction for a crime if the crime was a felony or first-degree misdemeanor and directly related to the position of employment sought.<sup>9</sup> Some licensing boards have interpreted this statute to imply a requirement for restoration of civil rights.<sup>10</sup>

State agencies restrict occupational licenses and employment to ex-offenders based upon statute or administrative rule. The nature and variety of occupational licenses and employment with state agencies dictates that different standards apply to different types of employees and licensees.<sup>11</sup>

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill provides legislative intent that the Legislature seeks to make employment opportunities available to ex-offenders in a manner that serves to preserve and protect the general public.

Each state agency, including, but not limited to, state agencies responsible for professional and occupational regulatory boards, must submit a report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives by December 31, 2011, and resubmit the report every four years thereafter. The report must include:

placing, or discharging of a destructive device or bomb (s. 790.161, F.S.); facilitating or furthering terrorism (s. 775.31, F.S.); treason (s. 876.32, F.S.); possession of a firearm by a convicted felon (s. 790.23, F.S.) or possession of a firearm or ammunition by a violent career criminal (s. 790.235, F.S.); bribery, misuse of public office (chapter 838, F.S.); extortion by officers of the state (s. 839.11, F.S.); misappropriations of moneys by commissioners to make sales (s. 839.17, F.S.); any crime committed by an elected official while in office; illegal use of explosives; RICO; exploitation of the elderly; public corruption; any felony violation of an election law; any crime designated a “dangerous crime” under s. 907.041, F.S.; and any offense committed in another jurisdiction that would be an offense listed in this paragraph if that offense had been committed in the state; and the applicant has not been declared to be one of the following: a habitual violent felony offender under s. 775.084(1)(b), F.S.; a three-time violent felony offender under s. 775.084(1)(c), F.S.; a violent career criminal under s. 775.084, F.S.; a prison releasee reoffender under s. 775.082(9)(a), F.S.; or a sexual predator under s. 775.21, F.S.

<sup>6</sup> “Restoration of Civil Rights or Alien Status under Florida Law With a Hearing.” Rule 10. Rules of Executive Clemency.

<sup>8</sup> A person may be disqualified from employment if they have been convicted of the sale of or trafficking in, or conspiracy to sell or traffic in, a controlled substance.

<sup>10</sup> In the space of two months, three District Courts of Appeal overturned licensing board decisions to deny licenses based upon interpreting s. 112.011(1)(b), F.S., to require restoration of civil rights. See Yeoman v. Construction Industry Licensing Bd., 919 So. 2d 542 (Fla. 1st DCA 2005); Scherer v. Dep’t of Business and Professional Regulation, 919 So. 2d 662 (Fla. 5th DCA 2006); Vetter v. Dep’t of Business and Professional Regulation, Electrical Contractors’ Licensing Bd., 920 So. 2d 44 (Fla. 2d DCA 2005).

- A list of statutes or rules that would disqualify a person who has been convicted of a crime from employment or licensure;
- A determination of whether the disqualifying statutes or rules are readily available to the prospective employers and licensees; and
- The identification and evaluation of alternatives to disqualifying statutes or rules which protect the public health, safety, and welfare of the general public without impeding gainful employment of ex-offenders.

Effective January 1, 2012, the bill provides that the restoration of rights may no longer be used as a measure of fitness for public employment and licensure. It amends s. 112.011(1)(b), F.S., to exclude any reference to restoration of civil rights.

The bill authorizes a government entity to deny an application for a license, permit, or certificate to engage in an occupation, trade, vocation, profession, or business if the applicant was convicted of a felony or first degree misdemeanor that is directly related to the standards determined by the regulatory authority to be necessary and reasonably related to the protection of the public health, safety, and welfare for the specific position that requires such license, permit, or certificate. It precludes the disqualification of a person from receiving a license, permit, or certificate or from obtaining public employment solely on the grounds that his or her civil rights have not been restored. However, exemptions are retained for state, county, and municipal positions deemed to be critical to security or public safety, law enforcement agencies, correctional agencies, and fire departments.
