SPONSOR: Rep. Jones

GOVERNOR'S ACTION: Approved

COMPANION BILLS: CS/SB 438

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

CS/CS/HB 563 passed the House on April 14, 2011, and subsequently passed the Senate on April 29, 2011. The bill was approved by the Governor on June 21, 2011, chapter 2011-187, Laws of Florida, and becomes effective July 1, 2011.

Sections 741.30 and 784.046, F.S., currently provide the following in relation to the service of injunctions for protection against domestic violence, repeat violence, sexual violence, or dating violence:

- Within 24 hours after service of process of a protective injunction upon a respondent, the law enforcement officer must forward the written proof of service of process to the sheriff with jurisdiction over the petitioner's residence;
- Within 24 hours after the sheriff receives a certified copy of the protective injunction, the sheriff must make information relating to the injunction available to other law enforcement agencies by electronically transmitting such information to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE); and
- Within 24 hours after the sheriff or other law enforcement officer makes service upon the respondent and the sheriff has been so notified, the sheriff must make such information relating to the service available to other law enforcement agencies by electronically transmitting such information to the FDLE.

CS/CS/HB 563 amends ss. 741.30 and 784.046, F.S., to require the Florida Association of Court Clerks and Comptrollers (association), subject to available funding, to develop an automated process by which a petitioner may request notification that a respondent has been served with a protective injunction against domestic violence, repeat violence, dating violence, or sexual violence. Notice must be made within 12 hours after the sheriff or other law enforcement officer has served the injunction upon the respondent. Such notification must include the date, time, and location in which the protective injunction was served.

The bill also provides that the association may apply for any available grants to fund the development of the automated process.

I. SUBSTANTIVE INFORMATION

A. EFFECT OF CHANGES:

Injunctions

Current law provides the following in relation to the service of injunctions for protection against domestic violence,¹ repeat violence, sexual violence, or dating violence²:

- Within 24 hours after service of process of a protective injunction upon a respondent, the law enforcement officer must forward the written proof of service of process to the sheriff with jurisdiction over the petitioner's residence;
- Within 24 hours after the sheriff receives a certified copy of the protective injunction, the sheriff must make information relating to the injunction available to other law enforcement agencies by electronically transmitting such information to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE); and
- Within 24 hours after the sheriff or other law enforcement officer makes service upon the respondent and the sheriff has been so notified, the sheriff must make such information relating to the service available to other law enforcement agencies by electronically transmitting such information to the FDLE.³

Victim Notification

Section 960.001, F.S., provides guidelines for the fair treatment of victims and witnesses involved in the criminal and juvenile justice systems. Victims have the right to be informed, to be present, and to be heard when relevant, at all crucial stages of a criminal or juvenile proceeding, to the extent that this right does not interfere with constitutional rights of the accused.⁴

Victims⁵ of specific offenses⁶ must be notified within 4 hours by the chief administrator, or a person designated by the chief administrator, of a county jail, municipal jail, juvenile detention facility, or residential commitment facility concerning:

- The release of an offender from incarceration in a county jail, municipal jail, juvenile detention facility, or residential commitment facility; and
- The release of an offender following sentencing, disposition, or furlough.⁷

In any case where an offender escapes from a state correctional institution, private correctional facility, county jail, juvenile detention facility, or residential commitment facility, the institution of confinement must immediately notify the state attorney of the jurisdiction where the criminal charge or petition for delinquency arose and the judge who imposed the sentence of ¹Section 741.28, F.S., defines "domestic violence" as any assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, false imprisonment, or any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death of one family or household member by another family or household member.

²The terms "repeat violence," "sexual violence," and "dating violence" are defined in s. 784.046, F.S.

³See ss. 741.30 and 784.046, F.S.

⁴Section 960.001(1)(a), F.S.

⁵Section 960.001, F.S., provides that notification can be requested by the victim or the appropriate next of kin of a victim or a designated contact of the victim.

⁶These offenses include homicide, pursuant to ch. 782, F.S.; a sexual offense, pursuant to ch. 794, F.S.; an attempted murder or sexual offense, pursuant to ch. 777, F.S.; stalking, pursuant to s. 784.048, F.S.; and domestic violence, pursuant to s. 25.385, F.S.

⁷Section 960.001(1)(f), F.S.

incarceration.⁸ The state attorney must make every effort to notify the victim, material witness, parents or legal guardian of a minor who is a victim or witness, or immediate relatives of a homicide victim of the escapee.⁹

The Department of Corrections (department) is also required to notify within 30 days, and upon request, the state attorney, the victim, and the personal representative of the victim when an inmate has been approved for community work release.¹⁰ The department is also required to notify the victim six months before the release of an inmate from the department.¹¹ If an inmate is a sexual offender,¹² the department is required, if requested, to notify the victim of the offense, the victim's parent, legal guardian, or lawful representative if the victim is a minor, or the next of kin if the victim is a homicide victim, within 6 months prior to the anticipated release of a sexual offender, or as soon as possible if the sexual offender is released earlier than anticipated.¹³

Effect of Proposed Changes

CS/CS/HB 563 amends ss. 741.30 and 784.046, F.S., to require the Florida Association of Court Clerks and Comptrollers (Association), subject to available funding, to develop an automated process by which a petitioner may request notification that a respondent has been served with a protective injunction against domestic violence, repeat violence, dating violence, or sexual violence. Notice must be made within 12 hours after the sheriff or other law enforcement officer has served the injunction upon the respondent. Such notification must include the date, time, and location in which the protective injunction was served.

The bill also provides that the Association may apply for any available grants to fund the development of the automated process.
