Section 8. Paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 213.756, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

213.756 Funds collected are state tax funds.-

- (2) (a) In any action by a purchaser against a retailer, dealer, or vendor to obtain a refund of or to otherwise recover taxes, fees, or surcharges collected by the retailer, dealer, or vendor from the purchaser:
- 1. The purchaser in the action has the burden of proving all elements of its claim for a refund by clear and convincing evidence;

- 2. The purchaser's sole remedy in the action is damages measured by the difference between what the retailer, dealer, or vendor collected as a tax, fee, or surcharge and what the retailer, dealer, or vendor paid to the taxing authority, plus any discount or collection allowance authorized by law and taken by the retailer, dealer, or vendor; and
- 3. It is an affirmative defense to the action if  $\frac{1}{2}$ retailer, dealer, or vendor remitted the amount collected from the purchaser to the appropriate taxing authority, less any discount or collection allowance authorized by law; and-
- 4. It is an absolute defense to any claim if the retailer, dealer, or vendor collected the amount pursuant to an agreement with the Department of Revenue and remitted the amount collected from the purchaser to the appropriate taxing authority, less any discount or collection allowance authorized by law.
