34	Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
35
36	Section 1. Paragraph (f) of subsection (2) of section
37	14.32, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
38	14.32 Office of Chief Inspector General
39	(2) The Chief Inspector General shall:
40	(f) Coordinate the activities of the Florida Public
41	Whistleblower's Whistle-blower's Act pursuant to chapter 112 and
42	maintain the whistleblower's whistle-blower's hotline to receive
43	complaints and information concerning the possible violation of
44	law or administrative rules, mismanagement, fraud, waste, abuse
45	of authority, malfeasance, or a substantial or specific danger
46	to the health, welfare, or safety of the public.
47	Section 2. Paragraphs (a), (b), and (f) of subsection (7)
48	of section 20.055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:
49	20.055 Agency inspectors general
50	(7) In carrying out the investigative duties and
51	responsibilities specified in this section, each inspector
52	general shall initiate, conduct, supervise, and coordinate
53	investigations designed to detect, deter, prevent, and eradicate
54	fraud, waste, mismanagement, misconduct, and other abuses in
55	state government. For these purposes, each inspector general
56	shall:
57	(a) Receive complaints and coordinate all activities of the
58	agency as required by the Florida Public Whistleblower's
59	Whistle-blower's Act pursuant to ss. 112.3187-112.31895.
60	(b) Receive and consider the complaints which do not meet

24-01355-16 20161648 236 executive officer as defined in s. 447.203(9) or other 237 appropriate local official. 238 (7) EMPLOYEES AND PERSONS PROTECTED.-This section protects 239 employees and persons who disclose information on their own 240 initiative in a written and signed complaint; who are requested 241 to participate in an investigation, hearing, or other inquiry 242 conducted by any agency or federal government entity; who refuse to participate in any adverse action prohibited by this section; 243 244 or who initiate a complaint through the whistle-blower's hotline or the hotline of the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit of the 245 246 Department of Legal Affairs; or employees who file any written 247 complaint to their supervisory officials or employees who submit 248 a complaint to the Chief Inspector General in the Executive 249 Office of the Governor, to the employee designated as agency 250 inspector general under s. 112.3189(1), or to the Florida 251 Commission on Human Relations. The provisions of this section 252 may not be used by a person while he or she is under the care, 253 custody, or control of the state correctional system or, after 254 release from the care, custody, or control of the state 255 correctional system, with respect to circumstances that occurred 256 during any period of incarceration. No remedy or other 257 protection under ss. 112.3187-112.31895 applies to any person 258 who has committed or intentionally participated in committing 259 the violation or suspected violation for which protection under 260 ss. 112.3187-112.31895 is being sought. 2.61 (7) (8) REMEDIES.-262 (a) Any employee of or applicant for employment with any 263 state agency or an independent contractor of a state agency, as the term "state agency" is defined in s. 112.3187(3) 216.011,

24-01355-16 20161648 265 who is discharged, disciplined, or subjected to other reta 266 adverse personnel action, or denied employment, because he or 267 she engaged in an activity protected by this section may file a 268 complaint with, which complaint must be made in accordance with 269 s. 112.31895. Upon receipt of notice from the Florida Commission 270 on Human Relations. The complaint must be made in accordance 271 with s. 112.31895 of termination of the investigation, the 272 complainant may elect to pursue the administrative remedy 273 available under s. 112.31895 or bring a civil action within 180 274 days after receipt of the notice. 275 (b) Within 60 days after the action prohibited by this

276 section, any local public employee protected by this section may 277 file a complaint with the appropriate local governmental authority, if that authority has established by ordinance an 278 279 administrative procedure for handling such complaints or has 280 contracted with the Division of Administrative Hearings under s. 281 120.65 to conduct hearings under this section. The 282 administrative procedure created by ordinance must provide for 283 the complaint to be heard by a panel of impartial persons 284 appointed by the appropriate local governmental authority. Upon 285 hearing the complaint, the panel must make findings of fact and 286 conclusions of law for a final decision by the local 287 governmental authority. Within 180 days after entry of a final 288 decision by the local governmental authority, the public employee who filed the complaint may bring a civil action in any 289 290 court of competent jurisdiction. If the local governmental 291 authority has not established an administrative procedure by ordinance or contract, a local public employee may, within 180 292 days after the action prohibited by this section, bring a civil 293

294	action in a court of competent jurisdiction. For the purpose of 295	this paragraph, the term "local governmental authority" includes
296	any regional, county, or municipal entity, special district,
297	community college district, or school district or any political
298	subdivision of any of the foregoing.
299	(c) Any other person protected by this section may, after
300	exhausting all available contractual or administrative remedies,
301	bring a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction
302	within 180 days after the action prohibited by this section.
303	(8) (9) RELIEF.—In any action brought under this section,
304	the relief must include the following:
305	(a) Reinstatement of the employee to the same position held
306	before the retaliatory adverse action was commenced, or to an
307	equivalent position or reasonable front pay as alternative
308	relief.
309	(b) Reinstatement of the employee's full fringe benefits
310	and seniority rights, as appropriate.
311	(c) Compensation, if appropriate, for lost wages, benefits,
312	or other lost remuneration caused by the adverse action.
313	(d) Payment of reasonable costs, including attorney
314	attorney's fees, to a substantially prevailing employee, or to
315	the prevailing employer if the employee filed a frivolous action
316	in bad faith.
317	(e) Issuance of an injunction, if appropriate, by a court
318	of competent jurisdiction.
319	(f) Temporary reinstatement to the employee's former
320	position or to an equivalent position, pending the final outcome
321	on the complaint, if an employee complains of being discharged
322	in retaliation for a protected disclosure and if a court of

323	competent jurisdiction or the Florida Commission on Human
324	Relations, as applicable under s. 112.31895, determines that the
325	disclosure was not made in bad faith or for a wrongful purpose
326	or occurred after an agency's initiation of a personnel action
327	against the employee which includes documentation of the
328	employee's violation of a disciplinary standard or performance
329	deficiency. This paragraph does not apply to an employee of a
330	municipality.
331	(9) (10) AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES.—It shall be an affirmative
332	defense to any action brought pursuant to this section that:
333	(a) The retaliatory adverse action was predicated upon
334	grounds other than, and would have been taken absent, the
335	employee's or person's exercise of rights protected by this
336	section ; or
337	(b) The employee or person disclosed information that was 338	known, or reasonably should have been known, to be false.
339	(10) (11) EXISTING RIGHTSSections 112.3187-112.31895 do
340	not diminish the rights, privileges, or remedies of an employee
341	under any other law or rule or under any collective bargaining
342	agreement or employment contract; however, the election of
343	remedies in s. 447.401 also applies to whistleblower whistle-
344	blower actions.
345	Section 4. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (2) of
346	section 112.3188, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:
347	112.3188 Confidentiality of information given to the Chief
348	Inspector General, internal auditors, inspectors general, local
349	chief executive officers, or other appropriate local officials
350	(2)
351	(b) All information received by a local chief executive

381	2. Notwithstanding sub-subparagraph 1.a., an investigation
382	ceases to be active when:
383	a. The written report required under s. 112.3189(9) has
384	been sent by the Chief Inspector General to the recipients named
385	in s. 112.3189(9);
386	b. It is determined that an investigation is not necessary
387	under s. 112.3189(5); or
388	c. A final decision has been rendered by the local
389	government or by the Division of Administrative Hearings
390	pursuant to s. 112.3187(7)(b) s. 112.3187(8)(b) .
391	3. Notwithstanding paragraphs (a), (b), and this paragraph,
392	information or records received or produced under this section
393	which are otherwise confidential under law or exempt from
394	disclosure under chapter 119 retain their confidentiality or
395	exemption.
396	4. Any person who willfully and knowingly discloses
397	information or records made confidential under this subsection
398	commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as
399	provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.
400	Section 5. Section 112.3189, Florida Statutes, is amended
401	to read:
402	112.3189 Investigative procedures upon receipt of
403	whistleblower whistle-blower information from certain state and
404	independent contractor employees
405	(1) This section only applies to the disclosure of
406	information as described in s. 112.3187(5) by an employee or that reasonable grounds exist to believe that a violation of a law, rule, or regulation has occurred, other than a criminal violation or a prohibited action under this section, the commission may report such violation to the head of the agency involved. Within 30 days after the agency receives the report, the agency head shall provide to the commission a certification that states that the head of the agency has personally reviewed the report and indicates what action has been or is to be taken and when the action will be completed.

829 (g) (i) During any investigation under this section, 830 disciplinary action may not be taken against any employee of a 831 state agency, as the term "state agency" is defined in s. 832 112.3187(3) 216.011, for reporting an alleged prohibited 833 personnel action that is under investigation, or for reporting 834 any related activity, or against any employee for participating 835 in an investigation without notifying the Florida Commission on 836 Human Relations.

837 (h) (j) The Florida Commission on Human Relations may also 838 petition for an award of reasonable attorney's fees and expenses 839 from a state agency, as the term "state agency" is defined in s. 840  $\frac{112.3187(3)}{216.011}$ , pursuant to s.  $\frac{112.3187(8)}{5.112.3187(9)}$ . 841 (4) NOTICE OF TERMINATION.
