Remove lines 304-319 and insert:

(b) 1. An insurer that provides automobile liability insurance policies under part XI of chapter 627 for a personal vehicle or driver engaged in transportation network company service may exclude any and all coverage afforded under the vehicle owner's or driver's automobile insurance policy for any loss or liability arising from the use or operation of the personal vehicle and for injury and damages caused to the occupants of the personal vehicle while a driver is logged into a transportation network company's digital network or while a driver provides transportation network company service.
