12 enter an order upon such motions without hearing, unless good 13 cause for hearing is shown. Dismissal of any petition or portion 14 of a petition under this subsection is without prejudice.

15 (b) Upon motion that a petition or portion of a petition be 16 dismissed for lack of specificity, the judge of compensation 17 claims shall enter an order on the motion, unless stipulated in writing by the parties, within 10 days after the motion is 18 19 filed, or, if good cause for hearing is shown, within 20 days 20 after hearing on the motion. When any petition or portion of a petition is dismissed for lack of specificity under this 21 22 subsection, the claimant must be allowed 20 days after the date 23 of the order of dismissal in which to file an amended petition. 24 Any grounds for dismissal for lack of specificity under this 25 section which are not asserted within 30 days after receipt of 26 the petition for benefits are thereby waived.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 440.34, a judge of compensation claims may not award attorney attorney's fees payable by the employer or carrier for services expended or costs incurred before prior to the filing of a petition that does not meet the requirements of this section.

A The judge of compensation claims shall 72 not approve a compensation order, a joint stipulation for lump-73 sum settlement, a stipulation or agreement between a claimant 74 and his or her attorney, or any other agreement related to benefits under this chapter which provides for an attorney's fee 75 76 in excess of the amount permitted by this section. The judge of 77 compensation claims is not required to approve any retainer agreement between the claimant and his or her attorney is not 78 subject to approval by a judge of compensation claims but must 79 80 be filed with the Office of the Judges of Compensation Claims. 81 Notwithstanding s. 440.22, attorney fees are a lien upon 82 compensation payable to the claimant. A retainer agreement may 83 not place any portion of the employee's compensation into an 84 escrow account until benefits are secured. The retainer 85 agreement as to fees and costs may not be for compensation in 86 excess of the amount allowed under this subsection or subsection 87 (7).

(2) (a) In awarding a claimant's attorney fees attorney's fee, a the judge of compensation claims must shall consider only those benefits secured by the attorney. An Attorney is not entitled to attorney's fees are not due in any of the following circumstances:

93 1. For representation in any issue that was ripe, due, and 94 owing and that reasonably could have been addressed, but was not 95 addressed, during the pendency of other issues for the same 96 injury;

2. On claimant attorney hours related to a benefit upon which the claimant did not prevail; or

99 3. On claimant attorney hours that the judge of 100 compensation claims apportions to benefits upon which the 101 claimant did not prevail, pursuant to paragraph (5)(d).

102 (b) The amount, statutory basis, and type of benefits 103 obtained through legal representation shall be listed on all 104 attorney attorney's fees awarded by a the judge of compensation 105 claims. For purposes of this section, the term "benefits 106 secured" does not include future medical benefits to be provided 107 on any date more than 5 years after the date the petition claim is filed. In the event an offer to settle an issue pending 108 109 before a judge of compensation claims, including attorney 110 attorney's fees as provided for in this section, is communicated 111 in writing to the claimant or the claimant's attorney at least 30 days before prior to the trial date on such issue, for 112 113 purposes of calculating the amount of attorney attorney's fees to be taxed against the employer or carrier, the term "benefits 114 115 secured" includes shall be deemed to include only that amount 116 awarded to the claimant above the amount specified in the offer 117 to settle. If multiple issues are pending before a the judge of 118 compensation claims, said offer of settlement must shall address 119 each issue pending and shall state explicitly whether or not the 120 offer on each issue is severable. The written offer must shall 121 also unequivocally state whether or not it includes medical 122 witness fees and expenses and all other costs associated with 123 the claim.

124 (3) If a any party prevails should prevail in any 125 proceedings before a judge of compensation claims or court, 126 there shall be taxed against the nonprevailing party the 128 attorney's fees. A claimant is responsible for the payment of 129 her or his own attorney attorney's fees, except that a claimant 130 is entitled to recover attorney fees an attorney's fee in an 131 amount equal to the amount provided for in subsection (1), 132 subsection (5), or subsection (6) (7) from a carrier or 133 employer:

(a) Against whom she or he successfully asserts a petition for medical benefits only, if the claimant has not filed or is not entitled to file at such time a claim for disability, permanent impairment, wage-loss, or death benefits, arising out of the same accident;

(b) In a any case in which the employer or carrier files a response to petition denying benefits with the Office of the Judges of Compensation Claims and the injured person has employed an attorney in the successful prosecution of the petition;

(c) In a proceeding in which a carrier or employer denies that an accident occurred for which compensation benefits are payable, and the claimant prevails on the issue of compensability; or

(d) In cases in which where the claimant successfully prevails in proceedings filed under s. 440.24 or s. 440.28.

151 Regardless of the date benefits were initially requested, 152 attorney attorney's fees do shall not attach under this 153 subsection until 45 30 days after the date the carrier or 154 employer, if self-insured, receives the petition.

157 lien upon compensation payable to the claimant, notwithstanding s. 440.22. 158 (4) (5) If any proceedings are had for review of any claim, 159 160 award, or compensation order before any court, the court may, in 161 its discretion, award the injured employee or dependent attorney 162 fees an attorney's fee to be paid by the employer or carrier, in 163 its discretion, which shall be paid as the court may direct. 164 (5) (a) As used in this subsection, the term: 1. "Attorney hours" means the number of hours necessary for 165 166 the claimant's attorney to obtain the benefits secured, as 167 determined by a judge of compensation claims. The term only 168 includes hours expended by the claimant's attorney reasonably 169 related to claimed benefits upon which the claimant prevailed. 170 2. "Customary fee" means the average hourly rate that an 171 attorney for a claimant customarily charges in the same locality 172 for similar legal services under this chapter, as determined by 173 a judge of compensation claims. 174 3. "Departure fee" means the amount of attorney fees calculated by a judge of compensation claims in place of the fee 175 176 allowed under subsection (1) when attorney fees are due under 177 this section. 178 (b) A departure fee under this subsection is in place of, 179 not in addition to, the amount allowed under subsection (1) or 180 subsection (6). 181 (c) Upon a petition for a departure fee, a judge of 182 compensation claims may depart from the attorney fees amount set 183 forth in subsection (1) upon a finding that the attorney fees 184 provided for in that subsection are less than 60 percent or 185 greater than 125 percent of the customary fee when the amount

186	allowed under subsection (1) is converted to an hourly rate by
187	dividing that amount by the attorney hours necessary to obtain
188	the benefits secured.
189	(d)1. When resolving a petition for a departure fee under
190	this subsection, a judge of compensation claims must determine
191	the number of attorney hours by making detailed findings that
192	specifically allocate and account for the attorney hours to each
193	benefit claimed by the claimant's attorney that, in the 194	independent discretion of the judge of compensation claims,
195	reasonably relate to:
196	a. Benefits upon which the claimant prevailed;
197	b. Benefits upon which the claimant did not prevail; and
198	c. Multiple benefits, regarding which the judge of 199	compensation claims shall exercise independent discretion and
200	apportion such hours by percentage, in whole numbers, to each
201	benefit claimed.
202	2. A judge of compensation claims must reduce the number of
203	attorney hours if the judge of compensation claims independently
204	determines that the number of attorney hours is excessive.
205	(e) A judge of compensation claims may determine the 206	customary fee and is not limited to an average hourly rate or 207	number of attorney hours pled by a party. In determining the 208	customary fee, the judge of compensation claims may rely on
209	evidence or take notice of credible data, including attorney fee
210	data on file with the Office of the Judges of Compensation
211	Claims or The Florida Bar. The judge of compensation claims may
212	not exceed the amount or hours pled by the claimant's attorney.
213	(f) If a departure is permitted pursuant to paragraph (c),
214	a judge of compensation claims must consider the following

Florida Senate - 2017 Bill No. CS/HB 7085, 1st Eng.

215	factors when departing from the amount set forth in subsection
216	(1):
217	1. The time and labor reasonably required, the novelty and 218	difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill required to
219	properly perform the legal services as established by evidence
220	or as independently determined by the judge of compensation
221	claims.
222	2. The customary fee.
223	3. The experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney
224	or attorneys providing services.
225	4. The time limits imposed by the circumstances.
226	5. The contingency or certainty of a claimant's attorney
227	fee, taking into account any retainer agreement filed under this
228	section.
229	6. The volume of hours expended by the claimant's attorney
230	which were devoted to issues upon which the claimant prevailed,
231	and the volume of hours expended devoted to issues upon which
232	the claimant did not prevail.
233	7. Whether the total fee available under this section in
234	relation to the amount involved in the controversy is excessive.
235	8. Whether the total fee available under this section in
236	relation to the amount of benefits secured is excessive.
237	9. Whether the departure fee sought by the claimant's
238	attorney is excessive.
239	10. Whether the departure fee sought by the claimant's
240	attorney shocks the conscience as excessive.
241	(g) A judge of compensation claims shall determine the 242	hourly rate used to compute the departure fee awarded under this 243	subsection, in $1 increments, based upon consideration of the Florida Senate - 2017 Bill No. CS/HB 7085, 1st Eng.

598244

244	factors in paragraph (f). A judge of compensation claims may
245	exercise independent judgment in setting the hourly rate and is 246	not limited to an hourly rate pled by a party. However, the 247	hourly rate may not exceed $150 per hour.
248	(h) The departure fee must be the attorney hours determined
249	under paragraph (d) multiplied by the hourly rate determined
250	under paragraph (g). The claimant is responsible for attorney
251	fees pursuant to his or her retainer agreement which exceed the 252	departure fee.
253	(i) The employer or carrier may contest the departure fee
254	awarded under this subsection within 20 calendar days after the 255	entry of the departure fee award if the number of attorney hours
256	determined by the presiding judge of compensation claims under 257	paragraph (d) exceeds 125 percent of the number of hours the 258	employer's or carrier's attorney attests were devoted to the 259	defense of the benefits secured. Upon the filing of a request by
260	the employer or carrier, the departure fee award must be vacated
261	and reviewed de novo upon the existing record by a judge of 262	compensation claims in a different district as assigned by the
263	Deputy Chief Judge of Compensation Claims. The reviewing judge
264	of compensation claims must issue an order determining the
265	departure fee, making all determinations and findings required
266	under this subsection. The judge of compensation claims must 267	issue the order within 30 calendar days after receiving the 268	assignment. This paragraph does not apply to cases settled under 269	s. 440.20(11) or if a stipulation has been filed resolving the
270	claimant's attorney fees.
271	(6) A judge of compensation claims may not enter an order
272	approving the contents of a retainer agreement that permits

274	escrow account until benefits have been secured.
275	(7) If an attorney attorney's fee is owed under paragraph
276	(3)(a), a the judge of compensation claims may approve an
277	alternative attorney attorney's fee not to exceed $1,500 only
278	once per accident, based on a maximum hourly rate of $150 per
279	hour, if the judge of compensation claims expressly finds that
