A bill to be entitled

An act relating to homeowners' associations; amending s. 720.305, F.S.; prohibiting certain fines, special assessments, and interest and late charges from being imposed against certain parcels; providing liability for attorney fees and costs; providing notice requirements; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Paragraph (c) is added to subsection (2) of section 720.305, Florida Statutes, to read:

720.305 Obligations of members; remedies at law or in equity; levy of fines and suspension of use rights.—

(2) The association may levy reasonable fines. A fine may not exceed $100 per violation against any member or any member's tenant, guest, or invitee for the failure of the owner of the parcel or its occupant, licensee, or invitee to comply with any provision of the declaration, the association bylaws, or reasonable rules of the association unless otherwise provided in the governing documents. A fine may be levied by the board for each day of a continuing violation, with a single notice and opportunity for hearing, except that the fine may not exceed $1,000 in the aggregate unless otherwise provided in the governing documents. A fine of less than $1,000 may not become a lien against a parcel. In any action to recover a fine, the prevailing party is entitled to reasonable attorney fees and costs from the nonprevailing party as determined by the court.

(c)1. A fine or special assessment may not be imposed by the board of administration against any parcel during the first 6 months after the death of the parcel owner.

- 2. Interest and late charges incurred by the association incident to the collection process to secure the payment of assessments may not be imposed by the board of administration against any parcel during the first year after the death of the parcel owner.
- 3. An association that violates subparagraph 1. or subparagraph 2. is liable for reasonable attorney fees and costs, as determined by the court, to a prevailing party in any successful action to enforce such subparagraph.
- 4. If a board imposes a fine or assessment against a parcel that becomes due after the death of the parcel owner, the board must provide written notice of such fine or assessment to the executor of the parcel owner's estate at least five times by certified mail, return receipt requested.
 - Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2017.
