Senator Rodriguez moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete line 256

and insert:

United States Constitution or the State Constitution. A person aggrieved by a violation of this section may enforce any provision of this section by a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction on behalf of herself or himself or on behalf of others similarly situated, and in addition to any judgment awarded, the appropriate court must allow reasonable attorney fees to be paid to the aggrieved person. The remedies in this section are cumulative of other remedies and this section may not be construed as a limitation.

And the title is amended as follows:
Between lines 27 and 28
insert:
authorizing an aggrieved person to file a civil cause of action in a court of competent jurisdiction;
providing for the payment of reasonable attorney fees;
