WHEREAS, in 1970, Barney Brown was convicted in Miami-Dade County, then known as Dade County, of rape and robbery and was sentenced to life in prison despite an earlier acquittal of the same charges in juvenile court, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Brown served 38 years in prison, during which time he maintained his innocence, and

WHEREAS, in September 2008, the Circuit Court in the 11th Judicial Circuit in and for Miami-Dade County vacated the judgment and sentence of Mr. Brown as entered on September 11, 1970, because significant doubt existed as to his guilt, and

WHEREAS, the Legislature acknowledges that the state's system of justice yielded an imperfect result that had tragic consequences in this case, and

WHEREAS, this act is based on a moral desire to acknowledge those who are wrongfully convicted of a felony offense, incarcerated as a result of that conviction, and subsequently determined to actually be innocent, and is not a recognition of 33-00121-19 201926

a constitutional right or violation, and

WHEREAS, the Legislature is providing compensation to Mr. Brown to acknowledge the fact that he suffered significant damages that are unique to him, and

WHEREAS, the Legislature intends that any compensation made pursuant to this act be the sole compensation provided by the state for any and all present and future claims arising out of the factual situation described in the preamble of this act, including the wrongful incarceration of Mr. Brown for 38 years, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. The facts stated in the preamble to this act are found and declared to be true.

Section 2. The sum of $1.9 million is appropriated from the General Revenue Fund to the Department of Financial Services for the relief of Barney Brown for the injuries and damages he sustained.

Section 3. The Chief Financial Officer is directed to draw a warrant in favor of Barney Brown in the sum of $1.9 million upon funds of the Department of Financial Services in the State Treasury, and the Chief Financial Officer is directed to pay the same out of such funds in the State Treasury.

Section 4. The Legislature, by this act, does not waive any defense of sovereign immunity or increase the limits of liability on behalf of the state or any person or entity that is subject to s. 768.28, Florida Statutes, or any other law.

Section 5. This award is intended to provide the sole compensation for any and all present and future claims arising out of the factual situation in connection with Barney Brown's arrest, conviction, and incarceration. No additional award may be made for attorney fees, lobbying fees, costs, or other similar expenses to Barney Brown by the state or any agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision thereof, or by any other entity, including any county constitutional office, officer, or employee, in state or federal court.

Section 6. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
