(b) A program loan must have:

1. A term of at least 120 days, but not more than 36 months, for a loan with a principal balance upon origination of at least $300, but not more than $3,000.

2. A term of at least 12 months, but not more than 60 months, for a loan with a principal balance upon origination of more than $3,000.

(c) A borrower may not receive a program loan for a principal balance exceeding $5,000 unless:

1. The borrower has paid in full the outstanding principal,
interest, and fees on a previous program loan;

2. The borrower’s credit score increased from the time of application for the borrower’s first consummated program loan; and

3. The borrower was never delinquent for more than 7 days on a previous program loan.

(d) A program loan may not impose a prepayment penalty. A program loan must be repayable by the borrower in substantially equal, periodic installments, except that the final payment may be less than the amount of the prior installments. Installments must be due either every 2 weeks, semimonthly, or monthly.

(e) A program loan must include a borrower’s right to rescind the program loan by notifying the program licensee of the borrower’s intent to rescind the program loan and returning the principal advanced by the end of the business day after the day the program loan is consummated.

(f) Notwithstanding s. 516.031, the maximum annual interest rate charged on a program loan to the borrower, which must be fixed for the duration of the program loan, is 36 percent on that portion of the unpaid principal balance up to and including $3,000; 30 percent on that portion of the unpaid principal balance exceeding $3,000 and up to and including $4,000; and 24 percent on that portion of the unpaid principal balance exceeding $4,000 and up to and including $7,500. The original principal amount of the program loan is equal to the amount financed as defined by the federal Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. In determining compliance with the maximum annual interest rates in this paragraph, the computations used must be simple interest through the application of a daily periodic rate to the actual unpaid principal balance each day and may not be added-on interest or any other computations.

(g) If two or more interest rates are applied to the principal amount of a program loan, the program licensee may charge, contract for, and receive interest at that single annual percentage rate that, if applied according to the actuarial method to each of the scheduled periodic balances of principal, would produce at maturity the same total amount of interest as would result from the application of the two or more rates otherwise permitted, based upon the assumption that all payments are made as agreed.

(h) The program licensee shall reduce the interest rates specified in paragraph (f) on each subsequent program loan to the same borrower by a minimum of 1 percent, up to a maximum of 6 percent, if all of the following conditions are met:

1. The subsequent program loan is originated within 180 days after the prior program loan is fully repaid.
2. The borrower was never more than 15 days delinquent on the prior program loan.
3. The prior program loan was outstanding for at least one-half of its original term before its repayment.

(i) The program licensee may not induce or permit any person to become obligated to the program licensee, directly or contingently, or both, under more than one program loan at the same time with the program licensee.

(j) The program licensee may not refinance a program loan unless all of the following conditions are met at the time the borrower submits an application to refinance:
1. The principal amount payable may not include more than 60 days’ unpaid interest accrued on the previous program loan pursuant to s. 516.031(5).

2. For a program loan with an original term up to and including 25 months, the borrower has repaid at least 60 percent of the outstanding principal remaining on his or her existing program loan.

3. For a program loan with an original term of more than 25 months, but not more than 60 months, the borrower has made current payments for at least 9 months on his or her existing program loan.

4. The borrower is current on payments for his or her existing program loan.

5. The program licensee must underwrite the new program loan in accordance with subsection (7).

(k) In lieu of the provisions of s. 687.08, the program licensee or, if applicable, its approved access partner shall make available to the borrower by electronic or physical means a plain and complete receipt of payment at the time that the borrower makes a loan payment. For audit purposes, the program licensee must maintain an electronic record for each receipt made available to a borrower. The electronic record must include a copy of the receipt and the date and time that the receipt was generated. Each receipt made available to the borrower must show all of the following:

the payment.

principal, interest, and fees.

size equal to or larger than the type size used to display the other items on the receipt: “If you have any questions about your loan now or in the future, you should direct those questions to ...(name of program licensee)... by ...(at least two different ways in which a borrower may contact the program licensee)....”

(1) A program licensee may make program loans only to residents of Broward, Miami-Dade, and Palm Beach Counties.

(m) At least 85 percent of program loans annually issued by a program licensee must be provided to borrowers whose gross monthly income is less than $6,250.

The program licensee, or any wholly owned subsidiary of the program licensee, may not sell or assign an unpaid debt to an independent third party for collection purposes unless the debt has been delinquent for at least 30 days.

(5) CREDIT EDUCATION.—Before disbursement of program loan proceeds to the borrower, the program licensee must:
(a) Direct the borrower to the consumer credit counseling services offered by an independent third party; or (b) Provide a credit education program or seminar to the borrower. The borrower is not required to participate in the education program or seminar. A credit education program or

(7) PROGRAM LOAN UNDERWRITING.—
(a) The program licensee must underwrite each program loan to determine a borrower’s ability and willingness to repay the program loan pursuant to the program loan terms. The program licensee may not make a program loan if it determines that the borrower’s total monthly debt service payments at the time of origination, including the program loan for which the borrower is being considered and all outstanding forms of credit that can be independently verified by the program licensee, exceed 50 percent of the borrower’s gross monthly income for a loan of not more than $3,000, or exceed 36 percent of the borrower’s gross monthly income for a loan of more than $3,000.

(b)1. The program licensee must seek information and documentation pertaining to all of a borrower’s outstanding debt obligations during the loan application and underwriting process, including loans that are self-reported by the borrower but not available through independent verification. The program licensee must verify such information using a credit report from at least one consumer reporting agency or through other available electronic debt verification services that provide reliable evidence of a borrower’s outstanding debt obligations.

2. The program licensee is not required to consider loans made to a borrower by friends or family in determining the borrower’s debt-to-income ratio.

(c) The program licensee must verify the borrower’s income to determine the debt-to-income ratio using information from:

1. Electronic means or services that provide reliable evidence of the borrower’s actual income; or

2. The Internal Revenue Service Form W-2, tax returns, payroll receipts, bank statements, or other third-party documents that provide reasonably reliable evidence of the borrower’s actual income.

communicate with, the office, a court, or any other governmental entity. The exercise of a person’s right to refuse to waive any
