Amendment No. 2

15	(3) The secretary may create divisions within the
16	department and allocate various functions of the department
17	among such divisions.
18	(4)(a) The headquarters of the department shall be located
19	in Tallahassee. However, the department may establish regional
20	offices throughout the state as the secretary deems necessary
21	for the efficient operation of the department in accomplishing
22	its purpose.
23	(b) The purpose of the department is to enforce s. 24,
24	Art. X of the State Constitution, s. 448.110, and any other law
25	that the department has enforcement authority over as designated
26	by the Legislature.
27	(5) The department may adopt rules as necessary to carry
28	out the functions and purposes of the department.
29	Section 2. Paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of section
30	448.109, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
31	448.109 Notification of the state minimum wage
32	(3)(a) Each year the Department of Labor Department of 33	Economic Opportunity shall, on or before December 1, create and
34	make available to employers a poster in English , and in Spanish,
35	and any other languages, as necessary. The poster must give
36	notice of all of the following:
37	1. The right to the minimum wage as provided by s. 24,
38	Art. X of the State Constitution and s. 448.110.

39	2. The right to be protected from retaliation for
40	exercising in good faith any right protected under s. 24, Art. X
41	of the State Constitution and s. 448.110.
42	3. The right to file a complaint with the Department of 43	Labor or bring a civil action in a court of competent
44	jurisdiction for a violation of s. 24, Art. X of the State
45	Constitution or s. 448.110. which reads substantially as
46	follows:
47	NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES
48	The Florida minimum wage is $(amount) per hour, with a
49	minimum wage of at least $(amount) per hour for tipped
50	employees, in addition to tips, for January 1,(year),
51	through December 31,(year)
52	The rate of the minimum wage is recalculated yearly on September
53	30, based on the Consumer Price Index. Every year on January 1
54	the new Florida minimum wage takes effect.
55	An employer may not retaliate against an employee for exercising
56	his or her right to receive the minimum wage. Rights protected
57	by the State Constitution include the right to:
58	1. File a complaint about an employer's alleged
59	noncompliance with lawful minimum wage requirements.
60	2. Inform any person about an employer's alleged
61	noncompliance with lawful minimum wage requirements.

111	(d) "Employee" has the same meaning as established under
112	the federal Fair Labor Standards Act and its implementing
113	regulations in effect on July 1, 2024.
114	(e) "Employer" has the same meaning as established under
115	the federal Fair Labor Standards Act and its implementing
116	regulations in effect on July 1, 2024.
117	(f) "Judgment debtor" means each person who is liable on a
118	judgment or order to pay a sum of money that remains
119	unsatisfied.
120	(g) "Labor contractor" means a person or entity that
121	supplies, with or without a contract, a client employer with
122	employees to perform labor within the client employer's usual
123	course of business. The term does not include a bona fide
124	nonprofit, community-based organization that provides services

X of the State 137 Constitution and this section. Sections 213 and 214 The 138 provisions of ss. 213 and 214 of the federal Fair Labor 139 Standards Act, as interpreted by applicable federal regulations 140 and implemented by the Secretary of Labor, are incorporated 141 herein.

142 (5)(a)(4)(a) Beginning September 30, 2005, and annually on 143 September 30 thereafter, the department of Economic Opportunity 144 shall calculate an adjusted state minimum wage rate by 145 increasing the state minimum wage by the rate of inflation for the 12 months prior to September 1. In calculating the adjusted 146 147 state minimum wage, the department of Economic Opportunity shall use the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical 148 149 Workers, not seasonally adjusted, for the South Region or a 150 successor index as calculated by the United States Department of 151 Labor. Each adjusted state minimum wage rate shall take effect 152 on the following January 1, with the initial adjusted minimum 153 wage rate to take effect on January 1, 2006.

154 The Department of Revenue and the department of (b) 155 Economic Opportunity shall annually publish the amount of the adjusted state minimum wage and the effective date. Publication 156 157 shall occur by posting the adjusted state minimum wage rate and 158 the effective date on the Internet home pages of the department 159 of Economic Opportunity and the Department of Revenue by October 15 of each year. 211	(d) The protections provided under this section apply to
212	any employee who alleges a violation of s. 24, Art. X of the
213	State Constitution or this section in good faith. Any complaint
214	or other communication by an employee alleging a violation of s.
215	24, Art. X of the State Constitution or this section triggers
216	the protections under this section even if the complaint or
217	communication does not specifically reference this section.
218	(e) An employee who believes he or she has been
219	discriminated or retaliated against for exercising a right under
220	s. 24, Art. X of the State Constitution or this section may file
221	a complaint with the department or a civil action in a court of

233	(c) The person is customarily engaged in an independently
234	established trade, occupation, profession, or business.
235	(8) A person or entity may not enter into a contract or
236	agreement with an independent contractor for labor or services
237	if the person or entity knows or should know that the contract
238	or agreement does not include funds sufficient to allow the 239	independent contractor to comply with all applicable local,
240	state, and federal laws or regulations governing the labor or
241	services to be provided.
242	(9)(a) The department may commence investigations,
243	actions, and proceedings necessary to enforce this section. The 244	department has the sole discretion whether to investigate an
245	employer to determine if a violation of this section has
246	occurred.
247	(b) In order to encourage a person or organization to
248	report a suspected violation of this section, the department:
249	1. Must keep the name and other identifying information
250	about the reporter confidential to the extent permitted by law.
251	The department may disclose the reporter's name or
252	identification with the written consent of the reporter.
253	2. Must provide a notice form to an employer being
254	investigated, which must be posted in a conspicuous and
255	accessible location at the workplace, notifying the employees
256	that the department is conducting an investigation under this
257	section. The notice form must be in English and any other

259	employees in the workplace. If display of the notice form is not
260	feasible, the employer must provide it to each employee through
261	electronic means and also provide each employee a physical copy
262	of the notice form.
263	3. May certify the eligibility of a person for a visa
264	under 8 U.S.C. s. 1184(p) and 8 U.S.C. s. 1101(a)(15)(U),
265	subject to applicable federal law and regulations, and other
266	rules issued by the department.
267	(10) (a) During an investigation under this section, the 268	department has the power to:
269	1. Enter and inspect the workplace.
270	2. Inspect and make copies of papers, books, accounts,
271	records, payroll, and other documents necessary to further its
272	investigation.
273	3. Question witnesses under oath and in a private
274	location.
275	4. Issue subpoenas to compel the attendance and testimony
276	of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts,
277	records, payroll, and other documents necessary to further its
278	investigation.
279	5. Take depositions and affidavits.
280	6. Investigate any facts, conditions, practices, or 281	matters as the department deems appropriate to determine whether

Amendment No. 2

283	(b) If an employer fails to comply with a lawfully issued
284	subpoena or if a witness refuses to testify or be questioned,
285	the department may request that the court compel compliance by
286	initiating a proceeding for contempt. The court shall take
287	judicial notice under s. 90.202(13) of the department's seal,
288	"Department of Labor-State of Florida," and shall enforce any
289	subpoena issued by the secretary or his or her representative
290	under such seal.
291	(c) During an administrative or civil proceeding under
292	this section, an employer may not introduce any documentation as
293	evidence that was not provided to the department.
294	(11) (a) During the course of an investigation under this
295	section, the department or the Attorney General may seek
296	injunctive relief upon a finding of reasonable cause that a
297	violation has occurred.
298	(b) When determining whether injunctive relief is
299	appropriate, the court shall consider any direct harm to an
300	employee from a violation of this section and the chilling
301	effect on other employees attempting to assert their rights
302	under this section. Reasonable cause exists for a court to issue
303	an injunction if an employee has faced adverse action for
304	asserting his or her rights under this section.
305	(c) A temporary injunction remains in effect until the 306	department issues a citation to the employer or until the

309	does not prohibit an employer from taking adverse action against 310	an employee for conduct unrelated to an alleged violation of 311	this section.
312	(d) The court may issue a preliminary or permanent
313	injunction if it determines such injunction is just and proper.
314	(12)(a) If a violation of this section is found during an
315	investigation and the violation has not been remedied by the end
316	of the investigation, the department must issue a citation to 317	the employer. The citation must be in writing and describe the
318	nature of the violation and include any and all appropriate
319	relief. Appropriate relief includes requiring an employer to 320	cease and desist; to take any action necessary to remedy the
321	violation, such as rehiring or reinstating an employee,
322	reimbursing lost wages, or paying liquidated damages or other

Upon 333 334 receipt of a written request for review, the secretary shall 335 assign the citation to an administrative law judge to conduct a 336 hearing and issue a written decision. Hearings conducted under 337 this subsection are governed by the department and the rules of practice and procedure adopted by the department. 338 339 (c) An administrative hearing must commence within 90 days 340 after receipt of a timely submitted request for review. The 341 administrative law judge must render a written decision within 342 90 days after the conclusion of the hearing. The decision must 343 include a statement of findings, conclusions of law, and a 344 recommended order that specifies all appropriate relief as authorized under paragraph (a), including the amount required 345 346 for an appeal bond should the employer choose to obtain review of the order issued under this paragraph. The decision must be 347 348 served on all parties in a manner provided by the Florida Rules 349 of Civil Procedure. If the recommended order includes a monetary remedy, the amount is due 45 days after the written decision is 350 351 properly served on the employer. 352 (d)1. An employer may obtain review of the written 353 decision and order issued under paragraph (c) by filing a 354 petition for a writ of mandamus to a court having jurisdiction 355 within 45 days after the written decision is properly served on the employer. If a petition for a writ of mandamus is not filed 356

Amendment No. 2

407 (6) (a) Any person aggrieved by a violation of this section may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction 408 409 against an employer violating this section or a party violating 410 subsection (5). However, prior to bringing any claim for unpaid 411 minimum wages pursuant to this section, the person aggrieved 412 shall notify the employer alleged to have violated this section, 413 in writing, of an intent to initiate such an action. The notice 414 must identify the minimum wage to which the person aggrieved claims entitlement, the actual or estimated work dates and hours 415 416 for which payment is sought, and the total amount of alleged 417 unpaid wages through the date of the notice.

418 (b) The employer shall have 15 calendar days after receipt 419 of the notice to pay the total amount of unpaid wages or 420 otherwise resolve the claim to the satisfaction of the person 421 aggrieved. The statute of limitations for bringing an action 422 pursuant to this section shall be tolled during this 15-day 423 period. If the employer fails to pay the total amount of unpaid 424 wages or otherwise resolve the claim to the satisfaction of the 425 person aggrieved, then the person aggrieved may bring a claim 426 for unpaid minimum wages, the terms of which must be consistent 427 with the contents of the notice.
