PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Senior Pastor Dr. Evon Horton, Brownsville Assembly of God, Pensacola:

O Lord, I pray for the members of the Florida Senate to find your peace and direction, and for these men and women to act and lead according to your word.

A house divided against itself cannot stand; therefore, I pray for them to be unified in righteousness for the sake of our great State of Florida. I pray for your protection to cover all our law enforcement officers and the men and women of the military. I ask for godly counsel and wisdom for judges across our state.

I pray for our state’s leaders—mayors, city council members, county commissioners, state Representatives, state Senators, and our Governor, Rick Scott. I pray that each one will lead in righteousness, rightness, right decisions, and godly decisions, and that we would be willing to stand for what is right, not just what is politically right.

I pray our leaders will prosper in their leadership, their families, and their personal lives. I pray the blessing of God would come upon them so they will find joy in their public service. I pray our Senators today would look out for each other, so if they are prospering, they will be willing to be generous in their prosperity and care for the “least of these.”

I pray you will give this Senate a legacy; yes, Lord, a legacy, that they will look out for the good of our state, Florida. As we are blessed, we will bless others, and we will be known as a state that is blessed and blesses. As our blessings increase and our legacy increases, we then will have greater influence over this nation and other nations. Not from force, but from compassionate influence.

And lastly, Lord, I pray these Senators will be leaders who praise God; that we won’t be caught in our own adulation but we will give credit to God. When we give credit to our creator, then others will look to you as their creator, redeemer, savior, and sustainer.

In quoting a prayer of President Reagan, I pray: “Without God, there is no virtue, because there’s no prompting of the conscience. Without God, we’re mired in the material, that flat world that tells us only what the senses perceive. Without God, there is a coarsening of the society. And without God, democracy will not and cannot long endure. If we ever forget that we’re one nation under God, then we will be a nation gone under.”

In the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Senate Pages, Jonathan Saladino of Merritt Island; Jacob Baxley of Ocala, grandson of Senator Baxley; Emma Lightsey of Fort Meade; and Abby Burroughs of Jacksonville, led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

CS for SR 1440—A resolution acknowledging the abuses experienced by children confined in the Arthur G. Dozier School for Boys and the Florida School for Boys at Okeechobee and expressing the Senate's regret for such abuses and its commitment to ensure that the children of this state are protected from the abuses and violations of fundamental human decency.

WHEREAS, the Florida State Reform School, also called the Florida Industrial School for Boys and later known as the Arthur G. Dozier School for Boys, referred to in this resolution as "Dozier School," was opened by the State of Florida in 1900 in Marianna to house children who had committed minor criminal offenses, such as incorrigibility, truancy, and smoking, as well as more serious offenses such as theft and murder, and

WHEREAS, many of the children who were sent to Dozier School were sentenced without legal representation before the court, often without a known basis for being sent to the school or a specific duration of confinement, and

WHEREAS, within the first 13 years of Dozier School's operation, six state-led investigations were conducted in response to reports of children being chained to walls in irons, severely beaten, and used for child labor, and

WHEREAS, throughout Dozier School's history, reports of abuse, suspicious deaths, and threats of closure plagued the school, and

WHEREAS, many former students of Dozier School have sworn under oath that they were beaten at a facility located on the school grounds known as the "White House," and

WHEREAS, a psychologist employed at Dozier School testified under oath at a 1958 United States Senate Judiciary Committee hearing that boys at the school were beaten by an administrator, that the blows were severe and dealt with a great deal of force with a full arm swing over the head and down, that a leather strap approximately 10 inches long was used, and that the beatings were “brutality,” and

WHEREAS, a former Dozier School employee stated in interviews with law enforcement that, in 1962, several employees of the school were removed from the facility based upon allegations that they made sexual advances toward boys at the facility, and

WHEREAS, a forensic investigation funded by the Florida Legislature and conducted from 2013 to 2016 by the University of South Florida found incomplete records regarding deaths and burials that occurred at Dozier School between 1900 and 1960, and that families were often notified after the child was buried or denied access to their remains at the time of burial, and

WHEREAS, the excavations conducted as part of the forensic investigation yielded 55 burial sites, 24 more sites than reported in official records, and

WHEREAS, given the lack of documentation and contradictions in the historical record, questions persist regarding the identity of persons buried at Dozier School and the circumstances surrounding their deaths, and

WHEREAS, in 1955, the State of Florida opened a new reform school in Okeechobee, called the Florida School for Boys at Okeechobee, referred to in this resolution as “the Okeechobee School,” to address overcrowding at Dozier School, and staff of Dozier School were transferred to the Okeechobee School where similar practices were implemented, and

WHEREAS, many former students of the Okeechobee School have sworn under oath that they were beaten at a facility on school grounds known as the “Adjustment Unit,” and

WHEREAS, former Governor Claude Kirk toured Dozier School in 1968 and stated, “If one of your kids were kept in such circumstances, you’d be up there with rifles,” and

WHEREAS, Dozier School was closed in 2011 after investigations by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement and the Civil Rights Division of the United States Department of Justice, and

WHEREAS, more than 500 former students of Dozier School and the Okeechobee School have come forward with reports of physical, mental, and sexual abuse by school staff during the 1940s, 1950s, and 1960s, and resulting trauma that has endured throughout their adult lives, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That the Senate regrets that the treatment of boys who were sent to the Arthur G. Dozier School for Boys and the Okeechobee School was cruel, unjust, and a violation of human decency, and acknowledges this shameful part of the State of Florida’s history.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Senate apologizes to the boys who were confined to Arthur G. Dozier School for Boys and the Okeechobee School and their family members for the wrongs committed against them by employees of the State of Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Senate expresses its commitment to ensuring that children who have been placed in the State of Florida’s care are protected from abuse and violations of fundamental human decency.
