PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Monsignor Thomas J. Skindeliski, St. Vincent Ferrer Catholic Church, Delray Beach:

Blessed are you, Lord God of the universe. You have made us in your image and likeness with great love and care. You are wonderful and are the consolation of many hearts. We thank you for the many blessings and gifts you constantly pour forth on us in this great State of Florida.

Today, we call upon you once again as we begin this legislative session. We seek your aid in using our collective wisdom as we deliberate the issues that truly affect the lives of our people. Grant us your wisdom to use prudently the talents with which you have blessed us. Open our minds to better understand the needs of those who have chosen us to serve them. Teach us how to craft laws that will better the lives of millions of people who are counting on our efforts to serve them well.

Let justice and peace be foremost in our minds as we endeavor to legislate in ways that will benefit all our people. Direct our efforts to preserve the life and liberty of all we represent, including the most vulnerable members of our society, especially the very young and the very old.

Help us to be respectful in our attitudes toward each other, to be diligent in our work, courteous in our speech, and humbly aware of your presence when we debate those issues that affect our people. Encourage us in our struggle to be examples of integrity, honesty, and trust. Guard our minds and hearts from the power of the evildoer, especially when he tempts us to stray from your God-given direction.

Watch over and protect us and our families from all harm, especially when we are apart. As we pray for ourselves and our families, we ask you to look after the men and women of our state who are serving abroad in our armed forces. Return them safely to their loved ones as soon as possible. Grant us a sense of serious purpose in our work, so that we may not take our responsibilities and duties lightly; but teach us how to balance that with a sense of humor, so that we may not take ourselves too seriously.

Finally, gracious God, show us how to look upon the poor with compassion and mercy and to justly share with them the abundance of your blessings, especially in their time of need. May all of our actions reflect your goodness to us, and may we, in turn, reflect it toward those who have need of that goodness. All of this we ask of you, mighty God, who guides and governs all of us. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senate Pages, Parker Bevis of Tallahassee; Leighanna Goldman of Saint Johns; Katherine Gramling of Tampa; and Ameion Hamlet of Tallahassee, led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

DOCTOR OF THE DAY

The President recognized Dr. Richard Tempel of Winter Garden, sponsored by Senator Bracy, as the doctor of the day. Dr. Tempel specializes in emergency medicine.

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTIONS

At the request of Senator Perry—

By Senator Perry—

SR 340—A resolution recognizing April 2019 as “Landscape Architecture Month” in Florida.

WHEREAS, landscape architecture encompasses the analysis, design, planning, management, and stewardship of the natural and built environment, and

WHEREAS, Floridians benefit from the licensed practice of landscape architecture, which assures the design of healthy, equitable, safe, and resilient public and private outdoor spaces, and

WHEREAS, landscape architects are responsible for protecting the public health by creating accessible spaces, such as public plazas, parks, schools, residential common areas, playgrounds, and trails that lead to active lifestyles and healthy communities, and

WHEREAS, landscape architects are also responsible for promoting public safety by applying land design skills, technical knowledge, and conservation techniques that ensure the safety of individuals and communities, and for protecting the public welfare by purposefully designing public and private spaces that provide economic, social, and environmental benefits for people of all ages and abilities to enjoy, and

WHEREAS, there are more than 1,200 landscape architects in Florida who are licensed by the Florida Board of Landscape Architecture through the Department of Business and Professional Regulation and have met the education, examination, and experience requirements imposed by the board, and

WHEREAS, science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) knowledge is at the core of the professional practice of landscape architecture and informs landscape architects as innovators, educators, researchers, and leaders who can solve the most pressing challenges facing Florida's communities, and

WHEREAS, landscape architects promote security and safety through transportation design and planning of multi-use transportation corridors that accommodate all users, including pedestrians, bicyclists, motorists, and people who use public transportation, including people with disabilities, while also protecting sidewalks, public plazas, and other vulnerable outdoor areas from potential attackers and security threats, and

WHEREAS, landscape architects are leaders in creating resilient and green infrastructure designs that address erosion and sediment control, stormwater management, and strategies to mitigate the effects of sea level rise and flood waters, thus allowing communities to better withstand and respond to severe weather events and lessening the need for state and local funds and resources in disaster-recovery efforts, and

WHEREAS, landscape architects are leaders in creating sustainable landscapes, helping to reduce water demand and energy consumption, conserve and restore natural resources, preserve wildlife habitats, improve air quality, and regulate climate, and

WHEREAS, landscape architects believe in and prioritize the fair treatment and meaningful involvement of all people regardless of race, national origin, education level, or income with regard to the development and implementation of public designs and plans, and

WHEREAS, Florida's economy benefits from licensed landscape architects through the creation of inviting and safe spaces for the public, residents, and tourists alike, while simultaneously protecting the environment and associated ecological systems, and

WHEREAS, the University of Florida and Florida International University have accredited landscape architecture programs, preparing students to be the next generation of leaders and innovators in landscape architecture in Florida, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That April 2019 is recognized as "Landscape Architecture Month" in Florida.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.

SR 1336—A resolution to recognize the lifetime achievements of legendary tennis coach Nicholas J. "Nick" Bollettieri.

WHEREAS, Nicholas J. "Nick" Bollettieri, president emeritus of IMG Academy in Bradenton, is one of the most influential people in the world of tennis, and

WHEREAS, in 1978, Nick Bollettieri created the academy model of training and founded the Nick Bollettieri Tennis Academy (NBTA) in Florida, which was the first full-time tennis boarding school to combine intense training on the court with a custom-designed academic curriculum, and

WHEREAS, NBTA successfully blended technical and strategic on-court tennis training with specialized physical and mental conditioning, an approach that not only builds athletes on the court, but also prepares them for a successful life off the court, and

WHEREAS, Nick Bollettieri used this method to coach 10 No. 1 players who are household names in the sport — Agassi, Becker, Courier, Hingis, Jankovic, Rios, Seles, Sharapova, and Venus and

Serena Williams, as well as a multitude of other world-class players who include Nishikori, Haas, Kournikova, and Arias, and

WHEREAS, in 1987, Nick Bollettieri joined forces with IMG to turn NBTA into a multi-sport training facility known as IMG Academy, which spans 500 acres and trains more than 13,000 athletes from more than 75 countries annually, and

WHEREAS, IMG Academy is an economic force in Florida, bringing families to this great state, building businesses, and growing communities in and around Manatee County, and

WHEREAS, now, at age 87, Nick Bollettieri still gets up at 5 a.m. every day for a schedule of teaching, coaching, and overseeing the progress of numerous professional players, elite juniors, and academy groups, in addition to his traveling and public speaking, and

WHEREAS, honored with many tennis awards and accolades, Nick Bollettieri brings a passion, energy, and commitment to all he pursues, and he makes a special point to support programs for youth and charitable foundations that provide opportunities for less fortunate children, and

WHEREAS, through his work and his many accomplishments, Nick Bollettieri has proven that personal resilience, hard work, and a positive attitude form a winning foundation not only in tennis, but in life, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That legendary tennis coach Nicholas J. "Nick" Bollettieri is recognized for his lifetime achievements.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution, with the Seal of the Senate affixed, be presented to Nicholas J. "Nick" Bollettieri as a tangible token of the sentiments of the Florida Senate.

—was introduced, read, and adopted by publication.
