PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by The Most Reverend Bernardito Auza, Apostolic Nuncio, Permanent Observer of the Holy See to the United Nations and Organization of American States, Rank of an Archbishop, New York:

Grace and peace be to this Senate.

Almighty God, we ask you to bless each and every member of the Senate of the State of Florida as they come together to examine and deliberate on the issues and concerns affecting the people and the state. Grant them wisdom to make decisions that redound to the common good of all, the courage to discuss with serenity even the most challenging and divisive issues of the day, and the capacity to love and respect one another in spite of their political differences. Inspire them to foster a political culture that is always of service and not of dominion, charity and not opposition, and respect and not dishonor of the other.

God of wisdom, inspire them to be public servants with a lofty sense of their duties, attentive listeners to the concerns and needs of the citizens of this state, uplifting examples and preserving the credibility of the office, passionate caretakers of this bountiful and beautiful land, and compassionate protectors of those left behind in society.

Bless all their endeavors and plans to make this State of Florida ever more just, peaceful, and prosperous—where the young look to the future with confidence, where the equal dignity of all is fully guaranteed, where the vulnerable are defended, and where all Floridians are proud to be stewards of their state’s enormous natural beauty, resources, and people.

We ask these things in your holy name. Amen.
