Most Holy One, we thank you for the blessing of this day. As we begin another day of legislative session, we especially give thanks for the blessings of freedom and security we all share that allow us to gather today and exercise the authority entrusted to us. We pray for all who govern and hold authority that there may be justice and peace in our city, in our nation, and in the world.

We pray that you be present among us in our deliberations this day. Preserve in us patience and respect for one another; in our agreements and more importantly, in our disagreements, that we may always respect the dignity of each one of us as living members of your creation. Give us the clarity and the courage to do what is right, keeping us ever mindful of those most in need of our attention and our compassion.

All these things we pray in your most holy name. Amen.
