800 home.

801 (5) When vacating the premises, remove any debris and other
802 property of any kind which is left on the mobile home lot.

803 Section 22. Subsection (5) of section 723.031, Florida
804 Statutes, is amended to read:

805 723.031 Mobile home lot rental agreements.—

806 (5) The rental agreement must ~~shall~~ contain the lot rental
807 amount and services included. An increase in lot rental amount 808 upon expiration of the term of the lot rental agreement must 809 ~~shall~~ be in accordance with ss. 723.033 and 723.037 or s.
810 723.059(4), whichever is applicable; ~~it~~ provided that, pursuant to 811 s. 723.059(4), the amount of the lot rental increase is 812 disclosed and agreed to by the purchaser, in writing. An 813 increase in lot rental amount shall not be arbitrary or 814 discriminatory between similarly situated tenants in the park. A 815 lot rental amount may not be increased during the term of the 816 lot rental agreement, except:

817 (a) When the manner of the increase is disclosed in a lot
818 rental agreement with a term exceeding 12 months and which 819 provides for such increases not more frequently than annually.

820 (b) For pass-through charges as defined in s. 723.003.

821 (c) That a charge may not be collected which results in 822 payment of money for sums previously collected as part of the 823 lot rental amount. The provisions hereof notwithstanding, the 824 mobile home park owner may pass on, at any time during the term
825 of the lot rental agreement, ad valorem property taxes, non-ad
826 valorem assessments, and utility charges, or increases of 827 either, provided that the ad valorem property taxes, non-ad
828 valorem assessments, and utility charges are not otherwise being 829 collected in the remainder of the lot rental amount and provided
830 further that the passing on of such ad valorem taxes, non-ad
831 valorem assessments, or utility charges, or increases of either,
832 was disclosed prior to tenancy, was being passed on as a matter
833 of custom between the mobile home park owner and the mobile home
834 owner, or such passing on was authorized by law. A park owner is 835 deemed to have disclosed the passing on of ad valorem property
836 taxes and non-ad valorem assessments if ad valorem property
837 taxes or non-ad valorem assessments were disclosed as a separate
838 charge or a factor for increasing the lot rental amount in the
839 prospectus or rental agreement. Such ad valorem taxes, non-ad
840 valorem assessments, and utility charges shall be a part of the 841 lot rental amount as defined by this chapter. The term "non-ad
842 valorem assessments" has the same meaning as provided in s.
843 197.3632(1)(d). Other provisions of this chapter
844 notwithstanding, pass-on charges may be passed on only within 1
845 year of the date a mobile home park owner remits payment of the 846 charge. A mobile home park owner is prohibited from passing on 847 any fine, interest, fee, or increase in a charge resulting from 848 a park owner's payment of the charge after the date such charges
849 become delinquent. A mobile home park owner is prohibited from

850 charging or collecting from the mobile home owners any sum for 851 ad valorem taxes or non-ad valorem tax charges in an amount in
852 excess of the sums remitted by the park owner to the tax
853 collector. Nothing herein shall prohibit a park owner and a
854 homeowner from mutually agreeing to an alternative manner of 855 payment to the park owner of the charges.

856 (d) If a notice of increase in lot rental amount is not
857 given 90 days before the renewal date of the rental agreement,
858 the rental agreement must remain under the same terms until a
859 90-day notice of increase in lot rental amount is given. The 860 notice may provide for a rental term shorter than 1 year in
861 order to maintain the same renewal date.

862 Section 23. Subsection (1) and paragraph (a) of subsection
863 (4) of section 723.037, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

864 723.037 Lot rental increases; reduction in services or
865 utilities; change in rules and regulations; mediation.—

866 (1) A park owner shall give written notice to each affected
867 mobile home owner and the board of directors of the homeowners'
868 association, if one has been formed, at least 90 days before any 869 increase in lot rental amount or reduction in services or 870 utilities provided by the park owner or change in rules and 871 regulations. The park owner may give notice of all increases in 872 lot rental amount for multiple anniversary dates in the same 90-
873 day notice. The notice must ~~shall~~ identify all other affected
874 homeowners, which may be by lot number, name, group, or phase.
875 If the affected homeowners are not identified by name, the park
876 owner shall make the names and addresses available upon request.
877 However, this requirement does not authorize the release of the 878 names, addresses, or other private information about the

385228

879 homeowners to the association or any other person for any other
880 purpose. The home owner's right to the 90-day notice may not be 881 waived or precluded by a home owner, or the homeowners'
882 committee, in an agreement with the park owner. Rules adopted as 883 a result of restrictions imposed by governmental entities and 884 required to protect the public health, safety, and welfare may 885 be enforced prior to the expiration of the 90-day period but are 886 not otherwise exempt from the requirements of this chapter.
887 Pass-through charges must be separately listed as to the amount
888 of the charge, the name of the governmental entity mandating the 889 capital improvement, and the nature or type of the pass-through
890 charge being levied. Notices of increase in the lot rental
891 amount due to a pass-through charge must ~~shall~~ state the 892 additional payment and starting and ending dates of each pass-
893 through charge. The homeowners' association shall have no
894 standing to challenge the increase in lot rental amount,
895 reduction in services or utilities, or change of rules and
896 regulations unless a majority of the affected homeowners agree,
897 in writing, to such representation.

898 (4) (a) A committee, not to exceed five in number,
899 designated by a majority of the affected mobile home owners or 900 by the board of directors of the homeowners' association, if
901 applicable, and the park owner shall meet, at a mutually
902 convenient time and place no later than 60 days before the 903 effective date of the change to discuss the reasons for the 904 increase in lot rental amount, reduction in services or
905 utilities, or change in rules and regulations. The negotiating
906 committee shall make a written request for a meeting with the 907 park owner or subdivision developer to discuss those matters

385228

908 addressed in the 90-day notice, and may include in the request a
909 listing of any other issue, with supporting documentation, that 910 the committee intends to raise and discuss at the meeting. The 911 committee shall address all lot rental amount increases that are
912 specified in the notice of lot rental amount increase,
913 regardless of the effective date of the increase.

915 This subsection is not intended to be enforced by civil or 916 administrative action. Rather, the meetings and discussions are 917 intended to be in the nature of settlement discussions prior to 918 the parties proceeding to mediation of any dispute.

919 Section 24. Subsections (5) and (6) are added to section
920 723.041, Florida Statutes, to read:

921 723.041 Entrance fees; refunds; exit fees prohibited;
922 replacement homes.—

923 (5) A mobile home park that is damaged or destroyed due to 924 wind, water, or other natural force may be rebuilt on the same
925 site with the same density as was approved, permitted, and built
926 before the park was damaged or destroyed.

927 (6) This section does not limit the regulation of the 928 uniform firesafety standards established under s. 633.206, but
929 supersedes any other density, separation, setback, or lot size
930 regulation adopted after initial permitting and construction of 931 the mobile home park.

932 Section 25. Section 723.042, Florida Statutes, is amended
933 to read:

934 723.042 Provision of improvements.—A No person may not
935 ~~shall~~ be required by a mobile home park owner or developer, as a 936 condition of residence in the mobile home park, to provide any

937 improvement unless the requirement is disclosed pursuant to s.
938 723.012(7) ~~s. 723.011~~ prior to occupancy in the mobile home
939 park.

940 Section 26. Section 723.059, Florida Statutes, is amended
941 to read:

942 723.059 ~~Rights of Purchaser of a mobile home within a~~
943 mobile home park.-

944 (1) The purchaser of a mobile home within a mobile home
945 park may become a tenant of the park if such purchaser would
946 otherwise qualify with the requirements of entry into the park
947 under the park rules and regulations, subject to the approval of 948 the park owner, but such approval may not be unreasonably
949 withheld. The purchaser of the mobile home may cancel or rescind
950 the contract for purchase of the mobile home if the purchaser's
951 tenancy has not been approved by the park owner 5 days before
952 the closing of the purchase.

953 (2) Properly promulgated rules may provide for the 954 screening of any prospective purchaser to determine whether or 955 not such purchaser is qualified to become a tenant of the park.

956 (3) The purchaser of a mobile home who intends to become

958 this section has the right to assume the remainder of the term
959 of any rental agreement then in effect between the mobile home
960 park owner and the seller and may assume the seller's
961 prospectus. However, nothing herein shall prohibit a mobile home
962 park owner from offering the purchaser of a mobile home any 963 approved prospectus shall be entitled to rely on the terms and
964 conditions of the prospectus or offering circular as delivered
965 to the initial recipient.

966 (4) However, nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit 967 a mobile home park owner from increasing the rental amount to be
968 paid by the purchaser upon the expiration of the assumed rental
969 agreement in an amount deemed appropriate by the mobile home
970 park owner, so long as such increase is disclosed to the 971 purchaser prior to his or her occupancy and is imposed in a
972 manner consistent with the purchaser's initial offering circular
973 ~~or~~ prospectus and this act.

974 (5) Lifetime leases and the renewal provisions in 975 automatically renewable leases, both those existing and those 976 entered into after July 1, 1986, are not assumable unless
977 otherwise provided in the mobile home lot rental agreement or 978 unless the transferee is the home owner's spouse. The right to 979 an assumption of the lease by a spouse may be exercised only one
980 time during the term of that lease.

981 Section 27. Paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section
982 723.061, Florida Statutes, is amended, and subsection (5) is
983 added to that section, to read:

991 1. The park owner gives written notice to the homeowners'
992 association formed and operating under ss. 723.075-723.079 of

1019 after the date of the mailing of the initial notice under sub-
1020 subparagraph a.

1048 noncompliance, but not for any subsequent or continuing
1049 noncompliance. Any rent so received must be accounted for at the 1050 final hearing.

801 of the lot rental agreement, ad valorem property taxes, non-ad

811 deemed to have disclosed the passing on of ad valorem property
812 taxes and non-ad valorem assessments if ad valorem property
813 taxes or non-ad valorem assessments were disclosed as a separate 814 charge or a factor for increasing the lot rental amount in the 815 prospectus or rental agreement. Such ad valorem taxes, non-ad
816 valorem assessments, and utility charges shall be a part of the 817 lot rental amount as defined by this chapter. The term "non-ad
818 valorem assessments" has the same meaning as provided in s.
819 197.3632(1)(d). Other provisions of this chapter

820 notwithstanding, pass-on charges may be passed on only within 1
821 year of the date a mobile home park owner remits payment of the 822 charge. A mobile home park owner is prohibited from passing on 823 any fine, interest, fee, or increase in a charge resulting from 824 a park owner's payment of the charge after the date such charges
825 become delinquent. A mobile home park owner is prohibited from 826 charging or collecting from the mobile home owners any sum for 827 ad valorem taxes or non-ad valorem tax charges in an amount in 828 excess of the sums remitted by the park owner to the tax
829 collector. Nothing herein shall prohibit a park owner and a
830 homeowner from mutually agreeing to an alternative manner of 831 payment to the park owner of the charges.

832 (d) If a notice of increase in lot rental amount is not
833 given 90 days before the renewal date of the rental agreement,
834 the rental agreement must remain under the same terms until a
835 90-day notice of increase in lot rental amount is given. The 836 notice may provide for a rental term shorter than 1 year in
837 order to maintain the same renewal date.

838 Section 22. Subsection (1) and paragraph (a) of subsection
839 (4) of section 723.037, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

840 723.037 Lot rental increases; reduction in services or

844 association, if one has been formed, at least 90 days before any 845 increase in lot rental amount or reduction in services or 846 utilities provided by the park owner or change in rules and
847 regulations. The park owner may give notice of all increases in 848 lot rental amount for multiple anniversary dates in the same 90-

849 day notice. The notice must ~~shall~~ identify all other affected
850 homeowners, which may be by lot number, name, group, or phase.
851 If the affected homeowners are not identified by name, the park
852 owner shall make the names and addresses available upon request.
853 However, this requirement does not authorize the release of the 854 names, addresses, or other private information about the
855 homeowners to the association or any other person for any other
856 purpose. The home owner's right to the 90-day notice may not be
857 waived or precluded by a home owner, or the homeowners'
858 committee, in an agreement with the park owner. Rules adopted as 859 a result of restrictions imposed by governmental entities and
860 required to protect the public health, safety, and welfare may 861 be enforced prior to the expiration of the 90-day period but are
862 not otherwise exempt from the requirements of this chapter.
863 Pass-through charges must be separately listed as to the amount
864 of the charge, the name of the governmental entity mandating the

868 additional payment and starting and ending dates of each pass-
869 through charge. The homeowners' association shall have no
870 standing to challenge the increase in lot rental amount,
871 reduction in services or utilities, or change of rules and
872 regulations unless a majority of the affected homeowners agree,
873 in writing, to such representation.

874 (4) (a) A committee, not to exceed five in number,
875 designated by a majority of the affected mobile home owners or 876 by the board of directors of the homeowners' association, if 877 applicable, and the park owner shall meet, at a mutually

878 convenient time and place no later than 60 days before the
879 effective date of the change to discuss the reasons for the 880 increase in lot rental amount, reduction in services or
881 utilities, or change in rules and regulations. The negotiating
882 committee shall make a written request for a meeting with the 883 park owner or subdivision developer to discuss those matters
884 addressed in the 90-day notice, and may include in the request a
885 listing of any other issue, with supporting documentation, that 886 the committee intends to raise and discuss at the meeting. The 887 committee shall address all lot rental amount increases that are
888 specified in the notice of lot rental amount increase,
889 regardless of the effective date of the increase.

891 This subsection is not intended to be enforced by civil or 892 administrative action. Rather, the meetings and discussions are 893 intended to be in the nature of settlement discussions prior to 894 the parties proceeding to mediation of any dispute.

900 wind, water, or other natural force may be rebuilt on the same
901 site with the same density as was approved, permitted, and built
902 before the park was damaged or destroyed.

903 (6) This section does not limit the regulation of the 904 uniform firesafety standards established under s. 633.206, but
905 supersedes any other density, separation, setback, or lot size
906 regulation adopted after initial permitting and construction of

907 the mobile home park.

909 to read:

910 723.042 Provision of improvements.—A No person may not
911 ~~shall~~ be required by a mobile home park owner or developer, as a

915 park.

916 Section 25. Section 723.059, Florida Statutes, is amended
917 to read:

923 under the park rules and regulations, subject to the approval of 924 the park owner, but such approval may not be unreasonably
925 withheld. The purchaser of the mobile home may cancel or rescind
926 the contract for purchase of the mobile home if the purchaser's
927 tenancy has not been approved by the park owner 5 days before
928 the closing of the purchase.

929 (2) Properly promulgated rules may provide for the

936 park owner and the seller and may assume the seller's
937 prospectus. However, nothing herein shall prohibit a mobile home
938 park owner from offering the purchaser of a mobile home any
939 approved prospectus shall be entitled to rely on the terms and
940 conditions of the prospectus or offering circular as delivered
941 to the initial recipient.

942 (4) However, nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit
943 a mobile home park owner from increasing the rental amount to be
944 paid by the purchaser upon the expiration of the assumed rental

1062 lot rental amount for multiple anniversary dates in the same 90-
1063 day notice. The notice ~~must~~ ~~shall~~ identify all other affected
1064 homeowners, which may be by lot number, name, group, or phase.
1065 If the affected homeowners are not identified by name, the park
1066 owner shall make the names and addresses available upon request.
1067 However, this requirement does not authorize the release of the 1068 names, addresses, or other private information about the
1069 homeowners to the association or any other person for any other
1070 purpose. The home owner's right to the 90-day notice may not be
1071 waived or precluded by a home owner, or the homeowners'
1072 committee, in an agreement with the park owner. Rules adopted as

1076 not otherwise exempt from the requirements of this chapter.
1077 Pass-through charges must be separately listed as to the amount
1078 of the charge, the name of the governmental entity mandating the 1079 capital improvement, and the nature or type of the pass-through
1080 charge being levied. Notices of increase in the lot rental
1081 amount due to a pass-through charge ~~must~~ ~~shall~~ state the 1082 additional payment and starting and ending dates of each pass-
1083 through charge. The homeowners' association shall have no
1084 standing to challenge the increase in lot rental amount,
1085 reduction in services or utilities, or change of rules and
1086 regulations unless a majority of the affected homeowners agree,
1087 in writing, to such representation.

1088 (4) (a) A committee, not to exceed five in number,
1089 designated by a majority of the affected mobile home owners or 1090 by the board of directors of the homeowners' association, if
1091 applicable, and the park owner shall meet, at a mutually
1092 convenient time and place no later than 60 days before the 1093 effective date of the change to discuss the reasons for the 1094 increase in lot rental amount, reduction in services or
1095 utilities, or change in rules and regulations. The negotiating
1096 committee shall make a written request for a meeting with the
1097 park owner or subdivision developer to discuss those matters
1098 addressed in the 90-day notice, and may include in the request a
1099 listing of any other issue, with supporting documentation, that 1100 the committee intends to raise and discuss at the meeting. The 1101 committee shall address all lot rental amount increases that are
1102 specified in the notice of lot rental amount increase,

1105 This subsection is not intended to be enforced by civil or 1106 administrative action. Rather, the meetings and discussions are 1107 intended to be in the nature of settlement discussions prior to
1108 the parties proceeding to mediation of any dispute.

1109 Section 24. Subsections (5) and (6) are added to section

1115 site with the same density as was approved, permitted, and built
1116 before the park was damaged or destroyed.

1117 (6) This section does not limit the regulation of the 1118 uniform firesafety standards established under s. 633.206, but
1119 supersedes any other density, separation, setback, or lot size
1120 regulation adopted after initial permitting and construction of 1121 the mobile home park.

1136 otherwise qualify with the requirements of entry into the park
1137 under the park rules and regulations, subject to the approval of 1138 the park owner, but such approval may not be unreasonably
1139 withheld. The purchaser of the mobile home may cancel or rescind
1140 the contract for purchase of the mobile home if the purchaser's
1141 tenancy has not been approved by the park owner 5 days before
1142 the closing of the purchase.

1143 (2) Properly promulgated rules may provide for the

1151 prospectus. However, nothing herein shall prohibit a mobile home
1152 park owner from offering the purchaser of a mobile home any
1153 approved prospectus shall be entitled to rely on the terms and
1154 conditions of the prospectus or offering circular as delivered
1155 to the initial recipient.

1158 paid by the purchaser upon the expiration of the assumed rental
1159 agreement in an amount deemed appropriate by the mobile home
1160 park owner, so long as such increase is disclosed to the

 1165 automatically renewable leases, both those existing and those
 1166 entered into after July 1, 1986, are not assumable unless 1167 otherwise provided in the mobile home lot rental agreement or 1168 unless the transferee is the home owner's spouse. The right to 1169 an assumption of the lease by a spouse may be exercised only one
 1170 time during the term of that lease.

1171 Section 27. Paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section
 1172 723.061, Florida Statutes, is amended, and subsection (5) is 1173 added to that section, to read:

1178 (d) Change in use of the land comprising the mobile home
 1179 park, or the portion thereof from which mobile homes are to be

 1182 association formed and operating under ss. 723.075-723.079 of 1183 its right to purchase the mobile home park, if the land
 1184 comprising the mobile home park is changing use from mobile home
 1185 lot rentals to a different use, at the price and under the terms
 1186 and conditions set forth in the written notice.

1187 a. The notice shall be delivered to the officers of the 1188 homeowners' association by United States mail. Within 45 days

1190 association may execute and deliver a contract to the park owner
 1191 to purchase the mobile home park at the price and under the 1192 terms and conditions set forth in the notice. If the contract
 1193 between the park owner and the homeowners' association is not
 1194 executed and delivered to the park owner within the 45-day
 1195 period, the park owner is under no further obligation to the 1196 homeowners' association except as provided in sub-subparagraph

 1201 association, the homeowners' association has an additional 10
 1202 days to meet the revised price, terms, and conditions of the 1203 park owner by executing and delivering a revised contract to the 1204 park owner.

1205 c. The park owner is not obligated under this subparagraph
 1206 or s. 723.071 to give any other notice to, or to further

 1209 after the date of the mailing of the initial notice under sub-
 1210 subparagraph a.

1211 2. The park owner gives the affected mobile home owners and 1212 tenants at least 6 months' notice of the eviction due to the 1213 projected change in use and of their need to secure other
 1214 accommodations. Within 20 days after giving an eviction notice
 1215 to a mobile home owner, the park owner must provide the division

1231 use.

1232 (5) A park owner who accepts payment of any portion of the 1233 lot rental amount with actual knowledge of noncompliance after 1234 notice and termination of the rental agreement due to a
1235 violation under paragraph (1) (b), paragraph (1) (c), or paragraph 1236 (1) (e) does not waive the right to terminate the rental 1237 agreement or the right to bring a civil action for the
1238 noncompliance, but not for any subsequent or continuing
1239 noncompliance. Any rent so received must be accounted for at the 1240 final hearing.

1241 Section 28. Subsection (1) of section 723.076, Florida
1242 Statutes, is amended to read:

1248 association by personal delivery upon the park owner's
1249 representative as designated in the prospectus or by certified
1250 mail, return receipt requested. Thereafter, the homeowners'
1251 association shall notify the park owner in writing by certified 1252 mail, return receipt requested, of any change of names and 1253 addresses of its president or registered agent. Upon election or 1254 appointment of new officers or members, the homeowners'
1255 association shall notify the park owner in writing by certified
1256 mail, return receipt requested, of the names and addresses of 1257 the new officers or members.

1258 Section 29. Paragraphs (b) through (e) of subsection (2) of 1259 section 723.078, Florida Statutes, are amended, and paragraph 1260 (i) of that subsection is reenacted, to read:

1261 723.078 Bylaws of homeowners' associations.—

1262 (2) The bylaws shall provide and, if they do not, shall be
1263 deemed to include, the following provisions:

1264 (b) Quorum; voting requirements; proxies.—

1265 1. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, 30 percent of 1266 the total membership is required to constitute a quorum.
1267 Decisions shall be made by a majority of members represented at 1268 a meeting at which a quorum is present.

1269 2.a. A member may not vote by general proxy but may vote by 1270 limited proxies substantially conforming to a limited proxy form
1271 adopted by the division. Limited proxies and general proxies may 1272 be used to establish a quorum. Limited proxies may be used for 1273 votes taken to amend the articles of incorporation or bylaws
1274 pursuant to this section, and any other matters for which this 1275 chapter requires or permits a vote of members. ~~A, except that no~~

1277 board members in general elections or elections to fill
 1278 vacancies caused by recall, resignation, or otherwise. Board
 1279 members must be elected by written ballot or by voting in 1280 person. If a mobile home or subdivision lot is owned jointly,
 1281 the owners of the mobile home or subdivision lot must be counted
 1282 as one for the purpose of determining the number of votes
 1283 required for a majority. Only one vote per mobile home or 1284 subdivision lot shall be counted. Any number greater than 50
 1285 percent of the total number of votes constitutes a majority.
 1286 Notwithstanding this section, members may vote in person at 1287 member meetings or by secret ballot, including absentee ballots,
 1288 as defined by the division.

1289 b. Elections shall be decided by a plurality of the ballots
 1290 cast. There is no quorum requirement; however, at least 20
 1291 percent of the eligible voters must cast a ballot in order to 1292 have a valid election. A member may not allow any other person
 1293 to cast his or her ballot, and any ballots improperly cast are 1294 invalid. An election is not required unless there are more
 1295 candidates nominated than vacancies that exist on the board.

1296 c. Each member or other eligible person who desires to be a
 1297 candidate for the board of directors shall appear on the ballot
 1298 in alphabetical order by surname. A ballot may not indicate if 1299 any of the candidates are incumbent on the board. All ballots
 1300 must be uniform in appearance. Write-in candidates and more than 1301 one vote per candidate per ballot are not allowed. A ballot may 1302 not provide a space for the signature of, or any other means of 1303 identifying, a voter. If a ballot contains more votes than 1304 vacancies or fewer votes than vacancies, the ballot is invalid
 1305 unless otherwise stated in the bylaws.

1306 d. An impartial committee shall be responsible for 1307 overseeing the election process and complying with all ballot
 1308 requirements. For purposes of this section, the term "impartial 1309 committee" means a committee whose members do not include any of 1310 the following people or their spouses:

1311 (I) Current board members.

1312 (II) Current association officers.

1313 (III) Candidates for the association or board.

1314 e. The association bylaws shall provide a method for 1315 determining the winner of an election in which two or more
 1316 candidates for the same position receive the same number of 1317 votes.

1318 f. The division shall adopt procedural rules to govern
 1319 elections, including, but not limited to, rules for providing 1320 notice by electronic transmission and rules for maintaining the 1321 secrecy of ballots.

1322 3. A proxy is effective only for the specific meeting for 1323 which originally given and any lawfully adjourned meetings
 1324 thereof. In no event shall any proxy be valid for a period
 1325 longer than 90 days after the date of the first meeting for 1326 which it was given. Every proxy shall be revocable at any time
 1327 at the pleasure of the member executing it.

1328 4. A member of the board of directors or a committee may 1329 submit in writing his or her agreement or disagreement with any 1330 action taken at a meeting that the member did not attend. This 1331 agreement or disagreement may not be used as a vote for or 1332 against the action taken and may not be used for the purposes of 1333 creating a quorum.

1334 (c) Board of directors' and committee meetings.-

1335 1. Meetings of the board of directors and meetings of its 1336 committees at which a quorum is present shall be open to all 1337 members. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the 1338 requirement that board meetings and committee meetings be open
 1339 to the members does not apply to meetings between the park owner
 1340 and the board of directors or any of the board's committees,
 1341 board or committee meetings held for the purpose of discussing
 1342 personnel matters, or meetings between the board or a committee
 1343 and the association's attorney, with respect to potential or 1344 pending litigation, when ~~where~~ the meeting is held for the 1345 purpose of seeking or rendering legal advice, and when ~~where~~ the 1346 contents of the discussion would otherwise be governed by the 1347 attorney-client privilege. Notice of all meetings open to 1348 members shall be posted in a conspicuous place upon the park
 1349 property at least 48 hours in advance, except in an emergency.
 1350 Notice of any meeting in which dues assessments ~~against members~~
 1351 are to be considered for any reason shall specifically contain a 1352 statement that dues assessments will be considered and the 1353 nature of such dues assessments.

1354 2. A board or committee member's participation in a meeting
 1355 via telephone, real-time videoconferencing, or similar real-time
 1356 telephonic, electronic, or video communication counts toward a
 1357 quorum, and such member may vote as if physically present. A
 1358 speaker shall be used so that the conversation of those board or 1359 committee members attending by telephone may be heard by the 1360 board or committee members attending in person, as well as by 1361 members present at a meeting.

1362 3. Members of the board of directors may use e-mail as a
 1363 means of communication but may not cast a vote on an association

1364 matter via e-mail.

1365 4. The right to attend meetings of the board of directors
 1366 and its committees includes the right to speak at such meetings
 1367 with reference to all designated agenda items. The association
 1368 may adopt reasonable written rules governing the frequency,
 1369 duration, and manner of members' statements. Any item not 1370 included on the notice may be taken up on an emergency basis by 1371 at least a majority plus one of the members of the board. Such 1372 emergency action shall be noticed and ratified at the next
 1373 regular meeting of the board. Any member may tape record or 1374 videotape meetings of the board of directors and its committees,
 1375 except meetings between the board of directors or its appointed
 1376 homeowners' committee and the park owner. The division shall 1377 adopt reasonable rules governing the tape recording and 1378 videotaping of the meeting.

1379 5. Except as provided in paragraph (i), a vacancy occurring
 1380 on the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote
 1381 of the majority of the remaining directors, even though the 1382 remaining directors constitute less than a quorum; by the sole
 1383 remaining director; if the vacancy is not so filled or if no
 1384 director remains, by the members; or, on the application of any 1385 person, by the circuit court of the county in which the 1386 registered office of the corporation is located.

1387 6. The term of a director elected or appointed to fill a
 1388 vacancy expires at the next annual meeting at which directors
 1389 are elected. A directorship to be filled by reason of an 1390 increase in the number of directors may be filled by the board
 1391 of directors, but only for the term of office continuing until 1392 the next election of directors by the members.

1393 7. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by 1394 reason of a resignation effective at a later date, may be filled
1395 before the vacancy occurs. However, the new director may not 1396 take office until the vacancy occurs.

1397 8.a. The officers and directors of the association have a
1398 fiduciary relationship to the members.

1399 b. A director and committee member shall discharge his or 1400 her duties in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent
1401 person in a like position would exercise under similar 1402 circumstances, and in a manner he or she reasonably believes to 1403 be in the best interests of the corporation.

1404 9. In discharging his or her duties, a director may rely on 1405 information, opinions, reports, or statements, including 1406 financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or 1407 presented by:

1408 a. One or more officers or employees of the corporation who 1409 the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in 1410 the matters presented;

1411 b. Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as 1412 to matters the director reasonably believes are within the 1413 persons' professional or expert competence; or

1414 c. A committee of the board of directors of which he or she 1415 is not a member if the director reasonably believes the 1416 committee merits confidence.

1417 10. A director is not acting in good faith if he or she has 1418 knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance
1419 otherwise permitted by subparagraph 9. unwarranted.

1420 11. A director is not liable for any action taken as a
1421 director, or any failure to take any action, if he or she

1422 performed the duties of his or her office in compliance with 1423 this section.

1424 (d) Member meetings.—Members shall meet at least once each
1425 calendar year, and the meeting shall be the annual meeting. All 1426 members of the board of directors shall be elected at the annual 1427 meeting unless the bylaws provide for staggered election terms
1428 or for their election at another meeting. The bylaws shall not 1429 restrict any member desiring to be a candidate for board
1430 membership from being nominated from the floor. All nominations
1431 from the floor must be made at a duly noticed meeting of the 1432 members held at least 27 ~~30~~ days before the annual meeting. The 1433 bylaws shall provide the method for calling the meetings of the 1434 members, including annual meetings. The method shall provide at 1435 least 14 days' written notice to each member in advance of the 1436 meeting and require the posting in a conspicuous place on the 1437 park property of a notice of the meeting at least 14 days prior 1438 to the meeting. The right to receive written notice of 1439 membership meetings may be waived in writing by a member. Unless 1440 waived, the notice of the annual meeting shall be mailed, hand
1441 delivered, or electronically transmitted to each member, and 1442 shall constitute notice. Unless otherwise stated in the bylaws,
1443 an officer of the association shall provide an affidavit
1444 affirming that the notices were mailed, ~~or~~ hand delivered, or 1445 provided by electronic transmission in accordance with ~~the~~ 1446 ~~provisions of~~ this section to each member at the address last 1447 furnished to the corporation. These meeting requirements do not 1448 prevent members from waiving notice of meetings or from acting
1449 by written agreement without meetings, if allowed by the bylaws.

1450 (e) Minutes of meetings.—

596-03780-20

2020998c2

1451 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the minutes
 1452 of board or committee meetings that are closed to members are 1453 privileged and confidential and are not available for inspection
 1454 or photocopying.

1455 2. Minutes of all meetings of members of an association and 1456 meetings open to members of, the board of directors, and a 1457 committee of the board must be maintained in written form and 1458 approved by the members, board, or committee, as applicable. A 1459 vote or abstention from voting on each matter voted upon for 1460 each director present at a board meeting must be recorded in the 1461 minutes.

1462 3.2. All approved minutes of open meetings of members,
 1463 committees, and the board of directors shall be kept in a
 1464 businesslike manner and shall be available for inspection by 1465 members, or their authorized representatives, and board members
 1466 at reasonable times. The association shall retain these minutes
 1467 within this state for a period of at least 5 7 years.

1468 (i) Recall of board members.—Any member of the board of 1469 directors may be recalled and removed from office with or 1470 without cause by the vote of or agreement in writing by a 1471 majority of all members. A special meeting of the members to 1472 recall a member or members of the board of directors may be 1473 called by 10 percent of the members giving notice of the meeting
 1474 as required for a meeting of members, and the notice shall state
 1475 the purpose of the meeting. Electronic transmission may not be 1476 used as a method of giving notice of a meeting called in whole
 1477 or in part for this purpose.

1478 1. If the recall is approved by a majority of all members
 1479 by a vote at a meeting, the recall is effective as provided in

1480 this paragraph. The board shall duly notice and hold a board
 1481 meeting within 5 full business days after the adjournment of the 1482 member meeting to recall one or more board members. At the 1483 meeting, the board shall either certify the recall, in which 1484 case such member or members shall be recalled effective
 1485 immediately and shall turn over to the board within 5 full 1486 business days any and all records and property of the 1487 association in their possession, or shall proceed under 1488 subparagraph 3.

1489 2. If the proposed recall is by an agreement in writing by 1490 a majority of all members, the agreement in writing or a copy
 1491 thereof shall be served on the association by certified mail or 1492 by personal service in the manner authorized by chapter 48 and 1493 the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. The board of directors
 1494 shall duly notice and hold a meeting of the board within 5 full 1495 business days after receipt of the agreement in writing. At the 1496 meeting, the board shall either certify the written agreement to 1497 recall members of the board, in which case such members shall be
 1498 recalled effective immediately and shall turn over to the board,
 1499 within 5 full business days, any and all records and property of 1500 the association in their possession, or shall proceed as 1501 described in subparagraph 3.

1502 3. If the board determines not to certify the written
 1503 agreement to recall members of the board, or does not certify
 1504 the recall by a vote at a meeting, the board shall, within 5
 1505 full business days after the board meeting, file with the 1506 division a petition for binding arbitration pursuant to the 1507 procedures of s. 723.1255. For purposes of this paragraph, the 1508 members who voted at the meeting or who executed the agreement

1509 in writing shall constitute one party under the petition for 1510 arbitration. If the arbitrator certifies the recall of a member 1511 of the board, the recall shall be effective upon mailing of the 1512 final order of arbitration to the association. If the 1513 association fails to comply with the order of the arbitrator,
 1514 the division may take action under s. 723.006. A member so
 1515 recalled shall deliver to the board any and all records and 1516 property of the association in the member's possession within 5
 1517 full business days after the effective date of the recall.

1518 4. If the board fails to duly notice and hold a board
 1519 meeting within 5 full business days after service of an 1520 agreement in writing or within 5 full business days after the 1521 adjournment of the members' recall meeting, the recall shall be 1522 deemed effective and the board members so recalled shall 1523 immediately turn over to the board all records and property of 1524 the association.

1525 5. If the board fails to duly notice and hold the required
 1526 meeting or fails to file the required petition, the member's
 1527 representative may file a petition pursuant to s. 723.1255
 1528 challenging the board's failure to act. The petition must be 1529 filed within 60 days after expiration of the applicable 5-full-
 1530 business-day period. The review of a petition under this 1531 subparagraph is limited to the sufficiency of service on the 1532 board and the facial validity of the written agreement or 1533 ballots filed.

1534 6. If a vacancy occurs on the board as a result of a recall
 1535 and less than a majority of the board members are removed, the 1536 vacancy may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of 1537 the remaining directors, notwithstanding any other provision of

596-03780-20

1538 this chapter. If vacancies occur on the board as a result of a 1539 recall and a majority or more of the board members are removed,
 1540 the vacancies shall be filled in accordance with procedural 1541 rules to be adopted by the division, which rules need not be
 1542 consistent with this chapter. The rules must provide procedures
 1543 governing the conduct of the recall election as well as the 1544 operation of the association during the period after a recall
 1545 but before the recall election.

1546 7. A board member who has been recalled may file a petition
 1547 pursuant to s. 723.1255 challenging the validity of the recall.
 1548 The petition must be filed within 60 days after the recall is 1549 deemed certified. The association and the member's
 1550 representative shall be named as the respondents.

1551 8. The division may not accept for filing a recall 1552 petition, whether or not filed pursuant to this subsection, and 1553 regardless of whether the recall was certified, when there are 1554 60 or fewer days until the scheduled reelection of the board
 1555 member sought to be recalled or when 60 or fewer days have not 1556 elapsed since the election of the board member sought to be 1557 recalled.

1558 Section 30. Paragraphs (d) and (f) through (i) of 1559 subsection (4) and subsection (5) of section 723.079, Florida
 1560 Statutes, are amended to read:

1561 723.079 Powers and duties of homeowners' association.—

1562 (4) The association shall maintain the following items, 1563 when applicable, which constitute the official records of the 1564 association:

 1566 an association and meetings open for members of, the board of 1568 retained within this ~~the~~ state for at least 5 7 years.

1569 (f) All of the association's insurance policies or copies
1570 thereof, which must be retained within this state for at least 5

1573 association is a party, including, without limitation, any 1574 written agreements with the park owner, lease, or other 1575 agreements or contracts under which the association or its 1576 members has any obligation or responsibility, which must be 1577 retained within this state for at least 5 7 years after the

1587 account for each member, designating the name and current 1588 address of each member who is obligated to pay dues or 1589 assessments, the due date and amount of each assessment or other
1590 charge against the member, the date and amount of each payment
1591 on the account, and the balance due.

1596 (i) All other written records of the association not 1597 specifically included in the foregoing which are related to the 1598 operation of the association must be retained within this state
1599 for at least 5 years or at least 5 years after the expiration 1600 date, as applicable.

1601 (5) The official records shall be ~~maintained within the~~
1602 ~~state for at least 7 years and shall be~~ made available to a
1603 member for inspection or photocopying within 20 ~~10~~ business days
1604 after receipt by the board or its designee of a written request
1605 submitted by certified mail, return receipt requested. The 1606 requirements of this subsection are satisfied by having a copy
1607 of the official records available for inspection or copying in 1608 the park or, at the option of the association, by making the 1609 records available to a member electronically via the Internet or 1610 by allowing the records to be viewed in electronic format on a
1611 computer screen and printed upon request. If the association has 1612 a photocopy machine available where the records are maintained,
1613 it must provide a member with copies on request during the 1614 inspection if the entire request is no more than 25 pages. An 1615 association shall allow a member or his or her authorized
1616 representative to use a portable device, including a smartphone, 1617 tablet, portable scanner, or any other technology capable of 1618 scanning or taking photographs, to make an electronic copy of 1619 the official records in lieu of the association's providing the 1620 member or his or her authorized representative with a copy of 1621 such records. The association may not charge a fee to a member
1622 or his or her authorized representative for the use of a
1623 portable device.

1624 (a) The failure of an association to provide access to the

1625 records within 20 ~~10~~ business days after receipt of a written 1626 request submitted by certified mail, return receipt requested,
 1627 creates a rebuttable presumption that the association willfully
 1628 failed to comply with this subsection.

1629 (b) A member who is denied access to official records is 1630 entitled to ~~the actual damages or minimum~~ damages for the 1631 association's willful failure to comply with this subsection in 1632 the amount of. ~~The minimum damages are to be~~ $10 per calendar
 1633 day up to 10 days, not to exceed $100. The calculation for 1634 damages begins ~~to begin~~ on the 21st ~~11th~~ business day after 1635 receipt of the written request, submitted by certified mail,
 1636 return receipt requested.

1637 (c) A dispute between a member and an association regarding 1638 inspecting or photocopying official records must be submitted to 1639 mandatory binding arbitration with the division, and the 1640 arbitration must be conducted pursuant to s. 723.1255 and 1641 procedural rules adopted by the division.

1642 (d) The association may adopt reasonable written rules
 1643 governing the frequency, time, location, notice, records to be 1644 inspected, and manner of inspections, but may not require a
 1645 member to demonstrate a proper purpose for the inspection, state 1646 a reason for the inspection, or limit a member's right to 1647 inspect records to less than 1 business day per month. The 1648 association may impose fees to cover the costs of providing 1649 copies of the official records, including the costs of copying
 1650 and for personnel to retrieve and copy the records if the time
 1651 spent retrieving and copying the records exceeds 30 minutes and 1652 if the personnel costs do not exceed $20 per hour. Personnel
 1653 costs may not be charged for records requests that result in the 1654 copying of 25 or fewer pages. The association may charge up to 1655 25 cents per page for copies made on the association's 1656 photocopier. If the association does not have a photocopy

 1657 machine available where the records are kept, or if the records
 1658 requested to be copied exceed 25 pages in length, the 1659 association may have copies made by an outside duplicating
 1660 service and may charge the actual cost of copying, as supported 1661 by the vendor invoice. The association shall maintain an 1662 adequate number of copies of the recorded governing documents,
 1663 to ensure their availability to members and prospective members.
 1664 Notwithstanding this paragraph, the following records are not 1665 accessible to members or home owners:

1666 1. A record protected by the lawyer-client privilege as 1667 described in s. 90.502 and a record protected by the work-
 1668 product privilege, including, but not limited to, a record
 1669 prepared by an association attorney or prepared at the 1670 attorney's express direction which reflects a mental impression,
 1671 conclusion, litigation strategy, or legal theory of the attorney
 1672 or the association and which was prepared exclusively for civil 1673 or criminal litigation, for adversarial administrative 1674 proceedings, or in anticipation of such litigation or 1675 proceedings until the conclusion of the litigation or 1676 proceedings.

1677 2. E-mail addresses, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers,
 1678 emergency contact information, any addresses for a home owner
 1679 other than as provided for association notice requirements, and 1680 other personal identifying information of any person, excluding 1681 the person's name, lot designation, mailing address, and 1682 property address. Notwithstanding the restrictions in this

1683 subparagraph, an association may print and distribute to home
 1684 owners a directory containing the name, park address, and 1685 telephone number of each home owner. However, a home owner may 1686 exclude his or her telephone number from the directory by so
 1687 requesting in writing to the association. The association is not 1688 liable for the disclosure of information that is protected under 1689 this subparagraph if the information is included in an official
 1690 record of the association and is voluntarily provided by a home
 1691 owner and not requested by the association.

1692 3. An electronic security measure that is used by the 1693 association to safeguard data, including passwords.

1694 4. The software and operating system used by the 1695 association which allows the manipulation of data, even if the 1697 association. The data is part of the official records of the 1698 association.

 1707 submitted to mandatory binding arbitration with the division.
 1708 The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with this 1709 section and the procedural rules adopted by the division.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/CS/CS/SB 1066 imposes new requirements related to impact fees. The bill:

- Prohibits the application of a new or increased impact fee to pending permit applications unless the result is to reduce the total impact fees or mitigation costs imposed on the applicant.
- Authorizes local governments with charters that contain provisions providing for school capacity to require contributions related to public education that are used to mitigate impacts not otherwise funded by impact fees or other exactions related to public education facilities, under certain circumstances.
- Provides that impact fee credits are assignable and transferable at any time after establishment within the same impact fee zone or impact fee district, or an adjoining zone or district within the same local jurisdiction.

The Revenue Estimating Conference determined that a prior version of the bill (CS/SB 1066) had an indeterminate, positive or negative, impact on local government impact fee revenues beginning in Fiscal Year 2020-2021. Staff estimates that the changes made by the current version of the bill (CS/CS/CS/SB 1066) do not change the fiscal impact.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

Local Government Authority

The Florida Constitution grants local governments broad home rule authority. Specifically, non-charter county governments may exercise those powers of self-government that are provided by general or special law.¹ Those counties operating under a county charter have all powers of self-government not inconsistent with general law or special law approved by the vote of the electors.² Likewise, municipalities have those governmental, corporate, and proprietary powers that enable them to conduct municipal government, perform their functions and provide services, and exercise any power for municipal purposes, except as otherwise provided by law.³

Local Government Impact Fees

Pursuant to home rule authority, counties and municipalities may impose proprietary fees,⁴ regulatory fees, and special assessments⁵ to pay the cost of providing a facility or service or regulating an activity. As one type of regulatory fee, impact fees are charges imposed by local governments against new development to pay for the cost of capital facilities made necessary by such growth.⁶ Impact fee calculations vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction and from fee to fee. Impact fees also vary extensively depending on local costs, capacity needs, resources, and the local government's determination to charge the full cost or only part of the cost of the infrastructure improvement through utilization of the impact fee. With respect to a school impact fee, the fee is imposed by the respective board of county commissioners at the request of the school board.

Section 163.31801(3), F.S., provides requirements and procedures for the adoption of an impact fee. An impact fee adopted by ordinance of a county or municipality or by resolution of a special district must, at minimum:

- Require that the calculation of the impact fee be based on the most recent and localized data;
- Provide for accounting and reporting of impact fee collections and expenditures. If a local government imposes an impact fee to address its infrastructure needs, the entity must account for the revenues and expenditures of such impact fee in a separate accounting fund;
- Limit administrative charges for the collection of impact fees to actual costs; and
- Require that notice be provided at least 90 days before the effective date of an ordinance or resolution imposing a new or increased impact fee.

Examples of proprietary fees include admissions fees, franchise fees, user fees, and utility fees.

⁵ Id. Special assessments are typically used to construct and maintain capital facilities or to fund certain services.

⁶ See supra note 4 at p. 13.

Some local governments impose impact fees specifically for local school facilities.⁷ School districts have authority to impose ad valorem taxes within the district for school purposes⁸ but are not general purpose governments with home rule power⁹ and are not expressly authorized to impose impact fees.¹⁰ Local governments imposing specific impact fees for education capital improvements typically collect the fees for deposit directly into an account segregated for funding those improvements.¹¹ Local government ordinances creating the impact fee also typically stipulate that the funds be used only for education capital improvement projects.¹² The credit imposed for impact fees imposed for public educational facilities must be based on the total impact fee assessed and not limited to the impact fee imposed for a particular type of school.¹³

Section 163.31801(4), F.S., provides that any contribution for public education facilities must be credited against education-based impact fees on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

Section 163.31801(5), F.S., provides that if a local government increases its impact fee rates, the holder of any impact fee credits, whether such credits are granted under concurrency, developments of regional impact, or otherwise,¹⁴ which were in existence before the increase, is entitled to the full benefit of the intensity or density prepaid by the credit balance as of the date it was first established.¹⁵

Section 163.31801(7), F.S., provides that in any action challenging an impact fee or the government's failure to provide required dollar-for-dollar credits for the payment of impact fees, as provided in s. 163.3180(6) (h) 2.b., F.S.,¹⁶ the government has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the imposition or amount of the fee or credit meets the requirements of state legal precedent and s. 163.31801, F.S. The court may not use a deferential standard for the benefit of the government.

Chapter 2019-165, Laws of Fla., amended s. 163.31801, F.S., to codify the 'dual rational nexus test' for impact fees, as articulated in case law. This test requires an impact fee to be proportional

¹¹ In Miami-Dade County, the education facility impact fee is paid to the County Planning & Zoning Director, who must then deposit that amount into a specific trust fund maintained by the county. See Miami-Dade County Code of Ordinances, ss. 33K-7(a), 33K-10(c). In Orange County, the school impact fee is paid to the county or municipality (if the land being developed is within a municipality), which then transfers the funds collected at least quarterly to the Orange County School District. The District is responsible for maintaining the trust into which the impact fee revenues must be deposited. See Orange County Code of Ordinances, s. 23-142.

¹³ Section 163.3180(6)(h)2.b., F.S.

¹⁵ This subsection shall operate prospectively and not retrospectively.

¹⁶ With respect to school concurrency applied by a local government, when a contribution of land; the construction, expansion, or payment for land acquisition; the construction or expansion of a public school facility, or a portion thereof; or the construction of a specified charter school is used as proportionate-share mitigation, the local government is required to credit such contribution, construction, expansion, or payment toward any other impact fee or exaction imposed by a local ordinance for the same need, on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

and have a reasonable connection, or rational nexus, between 1) the proposed new development and the need and the impact of additional capital facilities, and 2) the expenditure of funds and the benefits accruing to the proposed new development.¹⁷ Local governments are prohibited from requiring the payment of impact fees prior to issuing a property's building permit.¹⁸

Additionally, ch. 2019-165, Laws of Fla., established that impact fee funds must be earmarked for capital facilities that benefit new residents and may not be used to pay existing debt unless specific conditions are met.¹⁹ Provisions also authorized a local government to provide an exception or waiver for an impact fee for affordable housing. If a local government provides such an exception or waiver, it is not required to use any revenues to offset the impact.²⁰ Impact fee provisions in s. 163.31801, F.S., do not apply to water and sewer connection fees.

Concurrency and Proportionate Share

Concurrency requires public facilities and services to be available concurrent with the impacts of new development. Concurrency was formerly required for transportation, schools, and parks and recreation, but in 2011, the Legislature made concurrency for these facilities optional with the passage of the Community Planning Act (CPA).²¹ Concurrency on a statewide basis is required only for sanitary sewer, solid waste, drainage, and potable water. However, any local government is authorized to extend the concurrency requirement to additional public facilities within its jurisdiction.²² "Area" or "area of jurisdiction" within the CPA means the total area qualifying under the act, whether this be all of the lands lying within the limits of an incorporated municipality, lands in and adjacent to incorporated municipalities, all unincorporated lands within a county, or areas comprising combinations of the lands in incorporated municipalities and unincorporated areas of counties.²³

Many local governments continue to exercise the option to impose concurrency on transportation and school facilities. If a local government elects to apply concurrency to either transportation or school facilities, or both, its comprehensive plan must provide principles, guidelines, standards, and strategies, including adopted levels of service,²⁴ to guide its application of concurrency requirements.²⁵ Concurrency is tied to provisions requiring local governments to adopt level-of-service (LOS) standards, address existing deficiencies, and provide infrastructure to accommodate new growth reflected in the comprehensive plan.²⁶ Local governments are charged with setting LOS standards within their jurisdictions. The local comprehensive plan must demonstrate, for required or optional concurrency requirements, that the adopted LOS standards

²⁴ "Level of service" is defined in s. 163.3164(28), F.S., to mean "an indicator of the extent or degree of service provided by, or proposed to be provided by, a facility based on and related to the operational characteristics of the facility. Level of service shall indicate the capacity per unit of demand for each public facility."

can be reasonably met, and infrastructure needed to ensure that the LOS standards are achieved and maintained for a five-year period must be identified.²⁷ Generally, if the LOS standards are not met, development permits may not be issued without an applicable exception.

Proportionate share is a tool local governments may use to require developers to help mitigate the impacts of their development notwithstanding a failure to achieve and maintain the adopted LOS standards.²⁸ Proportionate share generally requires developers to contribute to costs, or build facilities, necessary to offset a new development's impacts.²⁹ Local governments may require proportionate share contributions from developers for both transportation and school impacts.³⁰

A local government applying the concurrency requirement to transportation facilities must comply with the statutory requirements in order to achieve and maintain the LOS standard adopted in the comprehensive plan.³¹ A local government that later repeals transportation concurrency is encouraged to apply statutory criteria to an alternative mobility funding system. A mobility fee-based funding system adopted by a local government must comply with the dual rational nexus test applicable to impact fees.³²

With respect to school concurrency applied by a local government, when a contribution of land; the construction, expansion, or payment for land acquisition; the construction or expansion of a public school facility, or a portion thereof; or the construction of a specified charter school is used as proportionate-share mitigation, the local government is required to credit such contribution, construction, expansion, or payment toward any other impact fee or exaction imposed by a local ordinance for the same need, on a dollar-for-dollar basis.³³

School Per-Student Station Costs

Each district school board must meet all educational plant space needs of its elementary, middle, and high schools.³⁴ Section 1013.64(6)(b)1, F.S., specifies maximum total costs per student station for each school level as of January 2006, adjusted annually to reflect increases or decreases in the Consumer Price Index. Chapter 2019-23, Laws of Fla., directed the Department of Education in conjunction with the Office of Economic and Demographic Research to review and adjust the cost per student station limits to reflect actual construction costs by January 1, 2020, and annually thereafter.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 amends s. 163.31801, F.S., to provide that unless the result is to reduce the total mitigation costs or impact fees imposed on an applicant, new or increased impact fees may not apply to current or pending permit applications submitted before the effective date of an ordinance or resolution imposing a new or increased impact fee.

The bill also allows certain local governments to impose both a contribution requirement related to public education facilities and an education-related impact fee without any offsetting credit. In order to qualify, the local government must be governed by a charter that was adopted and implemented before December 31, 2006, and the charter language must contain provisions for providing school capacity. Qualifying local governments must use the contributions related to public education facilities to fund impacts not otherwise funded by education-related impact fees, and the contributions must be based on the difference between the cost per student station as determined by the education facilities impact fee study on which the then-current education-based impact fee is based, subject to s. 1013.64(2)(a)6. and (6)(b), and the cost per student station funded by the education-based impact fee.

Lastly, the bill provides that impact fee credits are assignable³⁵ and transferable at any time after establishment from one development or parcel to another with the same impact fee zone or impact fee district. The credits may be transferred to an adjoining impact fee zone or impact fee district within the same local jurisdiction, but only if the adjoining impact fee zone or impact fee district benefits from the improvement or contribution that generated the credit.

Section 2 provides an effective date of July 1, 2020.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

Article VII, s. 18(a) of the Florida Constitution provides that municipalities and counties are not bound by general laws requiring them to spend funds or take action that requires the expenditure of funds unless certain specified exemptions or exceptions are met. However, the mandate requirement does not apply to laws having an insignificant impact,³⁶ which for Fiscal Year 2020-2021 is forecast at approximately $2.2 million.^{37,38}

Article VII, s. 18(b) of the Florida Constitution provides that except upon the approval of each house of the Legislature by a two-thirds vote of the membership, the Legislature

³⁵ Assignability is the quality or attribute which permits a thing to be transferred or negotiated. See BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY (6th ed. 1990).

may not enact, amend, or repeal any general law if the anticipated effect of doing so would be to reduce the authority that cities or counties have to raise revenue in the aggregate, as such authority existed on February 1, 1989. As in Subsection 18(a), the mandate requirement does not apply to laws having an insignificant impact.

Under this bill, municipalities and counties that assess impact fees may realize a reduction in impact fee collections (revenues) as a result of the prohibition of applying new or increased fees on pending applications and the requirement to allow the transfers of impact fee credits. If the reduction to collections is determined to exceed $2.2 million in the aggregate, and no other exemption or exception applies, in order to be binding on the municipalities and counties, the bill must contain a finding of important state interest and final passage must be approved by two-thirds of the membership of each house of the Legislature. If a reduction in authority to raise revenues is found and the reduction exceeds the aggregate threshold, final passage of the bill would require approval by two-thirds of the membership of each house of the Legislature.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

The Revenue Estimating Conference determined that a prior version of the bill (CS/SB 1066) had an indeterminate, positive or negative, impact on local government impact fee revenues beginning in Fiscal Year 2020-2021. Staff estimates that the changes made by the current version of the bill (CS/CS/CS/SB 1066) do not change the fiscal impact.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends section 163.31801 of the Florida Statutes.

IX. Additional Information:

- A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS/CS/CS by Appropriations on March 03, 2020:

The committee substitute

- Removes all issues from the bill, except for the following:
 - Retains, without amendment, the language in the CS/CS that provides that new impact fees can only apply to existing applications if the result is to reduce the total mitigation costs or impact fees imposed on an applicant.
 - Inserts new language that allows certain local governments to collect both public education facility contributions and school impact fees under certain circumstances.
 - Amends the impact fee credit transfer provisions to limit credit transfers within the same local jurisdiction.

CS/CS by Finance and Tax on February 18, 2020:

The committee substitute:

- Clarifies that the bill applies to a special district that adopts, collects and administers an impact fee.
- Expands the definition of “infrastructure” to include, for independent special fire control and rescue districts, new facilities as defined in s. 191.009(4), F.S.
- Provides that new impact fees apply to existing applications if the result is to reduce the total mitigation costs or impact fees imposed on an applicant.
- Limits the use of impact fee credits to the same type of public facility for which the impact fee applies located within the geographic boundary of the local government jurisdiction where the impact fee is imposed, as well as a zone or district that receives benefit from the improvement. The committee substitute applies these same restrictions to alternative mobility funding systems as provided for in s. 163.3180(5)(i), F.S.
- Requires, for purposes of impact fee credits, that a benefit be recognized within any zone or district located within five miles of the zone or district where the credit was generated.
- Clarifies that impact fee credits are intended to ensure that impact fees or equivalent contributions are not collected more than once for the same impacts.

- Clarifies that contributions related to the transportation system are creditable against impact fees, mobility fees, or other forms of exactions that are charged to mitigate transportation impacts.
- Further details the composition and duties of the impact fee review committee.

CS by Community Affairs on February 10, 2020:

The committee substitute:

- Provides impact fee related definitions for infrastructure and public facility.
- Establishes a 36-month age-of-data requirement for analysis sources used to calculate impact fees.
- Provides that new or increased impact fees may not apply to current or pending permit applications submitted prior to the effective date of an ordinance imposing new or increased fees.
- Includes contributions within exiting impact fee challenge provisions and makes the challenges applicable to all of ch. 163, F.S.
- Clarifies that impact fee credits are assignable and transferrable within the same impact fee jurisdiction.
- Provides directives on how and when contributions in lieu of impact fees are credited.
- Removes a requirement that an impact fee review committee select an impact fee consultant.

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete lines 57 - 247
and insert:
defined in s. 163.3164(39) and includes public libraries,
emergency medical services, and any fire and law enforcement
facility. For independent special fire control and rescue districts, the term "infrastructure" also includes new facilities as defined in s. 191.009(4).

(4) At a minimum, each county and municipality that adopts,

277762

11 collects, or administers an impact fee by ordinance and each
12 special district that adopts, collects, and administers an
13 impact fee by resolution ~~an impact fee adopted by ordinance of a~~
14 ~~county or municipality or by resolution of a special district~~
15 ~~must satisfy all of the following conditions:~~

16 (a) Require that the calculation of any new or updated ~~the~~
17 ~~impact fee must~~ be based on the most recent and localized data
18 collected within the last 36 months and excludes any cost that
19 does not meet the definition of infrastructure.

20 (b) Account for the revenues and expenditures of such 21 impact fee in a separate impact fee account, if the local
22 governmental entity imposes an impact fee to address its
23 infrastructure needs ~~The local government must provide for~~
24 ~~accounting and reporting of impact fee collections and~~
25 ~~expenditures. If a local governmental entity imposes an impact~~
26 ~~fee to address its infrastructure needs, the entity must account~~
27 ~~for the revenues and expenditures of such impact fee in a~~
28 ~~separate accounting fund.~~

29 (c) Limit administrative charges for the collection of
30 ~~impact fees must be limited~~ to actual costs. The cost per
31 student station established in school impact fee calculations
32 may not exceed that statutory total maximum cost per student
33 station calculated under s. 1013.64(6).

34 (d) ~~The local government must~~ Provide notice not less than 35 90 days before the effective date of an ordinance or resolution
36 imposing a new or increased impact fee. Unless the result is to 37 reduce the total mitigation costs or impact fees imposed on an
38 applicant, new or increased impact fees may not apply to current 39 or pending permit applications submitted before the effective

277762

40 date of an ordinance or resolution imposing a new or increased
41 impact fee. A county or municipality is not required to wait 90
42 days to decrease, suspend, or eliminate an impact fee.

43 ~~(e) Collection of the impact fee may not be required to~~
44 ~~occur earlier than the date of issuance of the building permit~~
45 ~~for the property that is subject to the fee.~~

46 ~~(f)~~ Ensure that the impact fee is ~~must be~~ proportional and 47 reasonably connected to, or has ~~have~~ a rational nexus with, the 48 need for additional infrastructure ~~capital facilities~~ and the
49 increased impact generated by the new residential or commercial
50 construction.

51 ~~(f)(g)~~ Ensure that the impact fee is ~~must be~~ proportional
52 and reasonably connected to, or has ~~have~~ a rational nexus with,
53 the expenditures of the funds collected and the benefits
54 accruing to the new residential or nonresidential construction.

55 ~~(g)(h)~~ The local government must Specifically earmark funds
56 collected under the impact fee for use in acquiring,
57 constructing, or improving infrastructure ~~capital facilities~~ to
58 benefit new users.

59 (5) Collection of the impact fee may not be required to
60 occur earlier than the date of issuance of the building permit
61 for the property that is subject to the fee.

62 ~~(6)(i)~~ Revenues generated by the impact fee may not be
63 used, in whole or in part, to pay existing debt or for
64 previously approved projects unless the expenditure is
65 reasonably connected to, or has a rational nexus with, the 66 increased impact generated by the new residential or
67 nonresidential construction.

68 ~~(7)(4)~~ Notwithstanding any charter provision, comprehensive

69 plan policy, ordinance, or resolution, the local government must 70 credit against the collection of the impact fee any form of
71 contribution, whether identified in a proportionate share
72 agreement or other form of exaction, related to public education
73 facilities, including land dedication, site planning and design,
74 or construction. Any contribution must be applied to reduce any
75 education-based impact fees on a dollar-for-dollar basis at fair
76 market value. This subsection does not apply to a local
77 government governed by a charter that was adopted and
78 implemented before December 31, 2006, which charter language
79 contains provisions for providing school capacity so long as the 80 funds collected pursuant to the charter provision are used to
81 mitigate impacts not otherwise funded by impact fees or other
82 local exactions relating to public education facilities and the 83 funds are applied in a manner that is proportional and
84 reasonably connected to, or has a rational nexus with, the need
85 for additional capital facilities, the need for which is
86 generated by the new residential development. Contributions to
87 mitigate impacts not otherwise funded by impact fees must be
88 based on the difference between the cost per student station as 89 determined by the educational facilities impact fee study on
90 which the then-current education-based impact fee is based,
91 subject to s. 1013.64(2)(a)6. and (6)(b), and the cost per
92 student station funded by the education-based impact fee. Such
93 contributions may not be collected before the issuance of a
94 building permit.

95 (8) ~~(5)~~ If a local government increases its impact fee
96 rates, the holder of any impact fee credits, whether such
97 credits are granted under s. 163.3180, s. 380.06, or otherwise,

277762

98 which were in existence before the increase, is entitled to the
99 full benefit of the intensity or density prepaid by the credit
100 balance as of the date it was first established. This subsection
101 shall operate prospectively and not retrospectively.

102 (9)-(6) Audits of financial statements of local governmental
103 entities and district school boards which are performed by a
104 certified public accountant pursuant to s. 218.39 and submitted
105 to the Auditor General must include an affidavit signed by the 106 chief financial officer of the local governmental entity or
107 district school board stating that the local governmental entity
108 or district school board has complied with this section and the 109 spending period provision in the local ordinance or resolution.

110 (10)-(7) In any action challenging an impact fee or the
111 government's failure to provide required dollar-for-dollar
112 credits for the payment of impact fees or for contributions made
113 as provided in this chapter s. 163.3180(6)(h)2.b., the 114 government has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the

116 meets the requirements of state legal precedent and this
117 section. The court may not use a deferential standard for the 118 benefit of the government.

119 (11) Impact fee credits are assignable and transferable at 120 any time after establishment from one development or parcel to 121 any other within the same impact fee zone or district or in an 122 adjoining zone or district which receives benefits from the 123 improvement or contribution that generated the credits.

129 required to use any revenues to offset the impact.

130 (13) To ensure impact fees or equivalent contributions are 131 not imposed more than once for the same impacts, a local 132 government shall provide impact fee credits or other forms of 133 compensation if a contribution is greater in value than the 134 applicable impact fee. Contributions related to the
135 transportation system are creditable against the combined total
136 of all impact fees, mobility fees, or other forms of exactions
137 charged to mitigate transportation impacts. This subsection
138 applies at the time any contribution is accepted, regardless of 139 when the contributions were agreed upon or committed to.

The Committee on Appropriations (Gruters) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete everything after the enacting clause
and insert:

Section 1. Section 163.31801, Florida Statutes, is amended
to read:

163.31801 Impact fees; short title; intent; minimum requirements; audits; challenges.—

(1) This section may be cited as the "Florida Impact Fee Act."

891604

11 (2) The Legislature finds that impact fees are an important
12 source of revenue for a local government to use in funding the 13 infrastructure necessitated by new growth. The Legislature
14 further finds that impact fees are an outgrowth of the home rule
15 power of a local government to provide certain services within 16 its jurisdiction. Due to the growth of impact fee collections
17 and local governments' reliance on impact fees, it is the intent
18 of the Legislature to ensure that, when a county or municipality
19 adopts an impact fee by ordinance or a special district adopts
20 an impact fee by resolution, the governing authority complies
21 with this section.

22 (3) At a minimum, an impact fee adopted by ordinance of a
23 county or municipality or by resolution of a special district
24 must satisfy all of the following conditions:

25 (a) The calculation of the impact fee must be based on the 26 most recent and localized data.

27 (b) The local government must provide for accounting and 28 reporting of impact fee collections and expenditures. If a local 29 governmental entity imposes an impact fee to address its
30 infrastructure needs, the entity must account for the revenues
31 and expenditures of such impact fee in a separate accounting
32 fund.

33 (c) Administrative charges for the collection of impact
34 fees must be limited to actual costs.

35 (d) The local government must provide notice not less than
36 90 days before the effective date of an ordinance or resolution
37 imposing a new or increased impact fee. A county or municipality
38 is not required to wait 90 days to decrease, suspend, or 39 eliminate an impact fee. Unless the result is to reduce the 891604

40 total mitigation costs or impact fees imposed on an applicant,
41 new or increased impact fees may not apply to current or pending
42 permit applications submitted before the effective date of an 43 ordinance or resolution imposing a new or increased impact fee.

44 (e) Collection of the impact fee may not be required to
45 occur earlier than the date of issuance of the building permit
46 for the property that is subject to the fee.

47 (f) The impact fee must be proportional and reasonably 48 connected to, or have a rational nexus with, the need for 49 additional capital facilities and the increased impact generated
50 by the new residential or commercial construction.

51 (g) The impact fee must be proportional and reasonably
52 connected to, or have a rational nexus with, the expenditures of 53 the funds collected and the benefits accruing to the new 54 residential or nonresidential construction.

55 (h) The local government must specifically earmark funds
56 collected under the impact fee for use in acquiring,
57 constructing, or improving capital facilities to benefit new 58 users.

59 (i) Revenues generated by the impact fee may not be used,
60 in whole or in part, to pay existing debt or for previously
61 approved projects unless the expenditure is reasonably connected
62 to, or has a rational nexus with, the increased impact generated
63 by the new residential or nonresidential construction.

64 (4) Notwithstanding any charter provision, comprehensive
65 plan policy, ordinance, or resolution, the local government must 66 credit against the collection of the impact fee any
67 contribution, whether identified in a proportionate share
68 agreement or other form of exaction, related to public education

69 facilities, including land dedication, site planning and design,
70 or construction. Any contribution must be applied to reduce any
71 education-based impact fees on a dollar-for-dollar basis at fair
72 market value. This subsection does not apply to a local
73 government governed by a charter that was adopted and
74 implemented before December 31, 2006, which charter language
75 contains provisions for providing school capacity, so long as 76 the funds collected pursuant to the charter provision are used
77 to mitigate impacts not otherwise funded by impact fees or other
78 local exactions relating to public education facilities, and the 79 funds are applied in a manner that is proportional and
80 reasonably connected to, or has a rational nexus with, the need
81 for additional capital facilities, the need for which is
82 generated by the new residential development. Contributions to
83 mitigate impacts not otherwise funded by impact fees must be
84 based on the difference between the cost per student station as
85 determined by the educational facilities impact fee study on
86 which the then-current education-based impact fee is based,
87 subject to s. 1013.64(2)(a)6. and (6)(b), and the cost per
88 student station funded by the education-based impact fee. Such
89 contributions may not be collected before the issuance of a
90 building permit.

91 (5) If a local government increases its impact fee rates,
92 the holder of any impact fee credits, whether such credits are 93 granted under s. 163.3180, s. 380.06, or otherwise, which were 94 in existence before the increase, is entitled to the full
95 benefit of the intensity or density prepaid by the credit
96 balance as of the date it was first established. This subsection
97 shall operate prospectively and not retrospectively.

891604

98 (6) Audits of financial statements of local governmental
99 entities and district school boards which are performed by a
100 certified public accountant pursuant to s. 218.39 and submitted
101 to the Auditor General must include an affidavit signed by the 102 chief financial officer of the local governmental entity or
103 district school board stating that the local governmental entity
104 or district school board has complied with this section.

105 (7) In any action challenging an impact fee or the
106 government's failure to provide required dollar-for-dollar
107 credits for the payment of impact fees as provided in s.
108 163.3180(6)(h)2.b., the government has the burden of proving by 109 a preponderance of the evidence that the imposition or amount of 110 the fee or credit meets the requirements of state legal 111 precedent and this section. The court may not use a deferential
112 standard for the benefit of the government.

113 (8) Impact fee credits are assignable and transferable at 114 any time after establishment from one development or parcel to 115 any other that is within the same impact fee zone or impact fee
116 district or that is within an adjoining impact fee zone or
117 impact fee district within the same local government
118 jurisdiction and receives benefits from the improvement or 119 contribution that generated the credits.

120 (9)~~(8)~~ A county, municipality, or special district may 121 provide an exception or waiver for an impact fee for the
122 development or construction of housing that is affordable, as 123 defined in s. 420.9071. If a county, municipality, or special
124 district provides such an exception or waiver, it is not
125 required to use any revenues to offset the impact.

126 (10)~~(9)~~ This section does not apply to water and sewer

891604

127 connection fees.

128 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2020.

73 certified public accountant pursuant to s. 218.39 and submitted
74 to the Auditor General must include an affidavit signed by the
75 chief financial officer of the local governmental entity or
76 district school board stating that the local governmental entity
77 or district school board has complied with this section and the
78 spending period provision in the local ordinance or resolution.

79 (10)~~(7)~~ In any action challenging an impact fee or the
80 government's failure to provide required dollar-for-dollar
81 credits for the payment of impact fees or for contributions made
82 as provided in this chapter s. 163.3180(6)(h)2.b., the
83 government has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the
84 evidence that the imposition or amount of the fee or credit
85 meets the requirements of state legal precedent and this
86 section. The court may not use a deferential standard for the 87 benefit of the government.

88 (11) Impact fee credits are assignable and transferable at
89 any time after establishment for the same type of public
90 facility for which the impact fee applies to any development or 91 parcel located within the geographic boundary of the local
92 government jurisdiction where the impact fee is imposed and
93 situated geographically within an impact fee zone or district
94 that receives a benefit from the improvement, dedication, or
95 payment which generated the credit to be transferred. If a local
96 government elects to use an alternative mobility funding system
97 as provided for in s. 163.3180(5)(i) in lieu of impact fees,

98 transportation credits are assignable and transferable at any
99 time after establishment to any development or parcel within the 100 geographic boundary of the local government jurisdiction where
101 the credit was established so long as the credit is applied to a
102 zone or district which is receiving a benefit from the 103 contribution to the alternative mobility funding system which 104 generated the credit. Under either system described in this 105 subsection, a benefit shall be recognized within any zone or 106 district located within 5 miles of the zone or district where
107 the credits were generated.

108 (12)-(8) A county, municipality, or special district may
109 provide an exception or waiver for an impact fee for the 110 development or construction of housing that is affordable, as
111 defined in s. 420.9071. If a county, municipality, or special
112 district provides such an exception or waiver, it is not
113 required to use any revenues to offset the impact.

114 (13) To ensure impact fees or equivalent contributions are 115 not imposed more than once for the same impacts, a local 116 government shall provide impact fee credits or other forms of
117 compensation if a contribution is greater in value than the 118 applicable impact fee. Contributions related to the
119 transportation system are creditable against the combined total
120 of all impact fees, mobility fees, or other forms of exactions
121 charged to mitigate transportation impacts. This subsection
122 applies at the time any contribution is accepted, regardless of 123 when the contributions were agreed upon or committed to.

124 (14) (a) Before enacting an impact fee, each county and 125 municipality must establish an impact fee review and advisory 126 committee.

127 (b)1. The committee shall be composed of the following
128 members appointed by the county commission or the governing body
129 of the municipality, as applicable:

130 a. Two members who represent the business community who are 131 not elected officials or employees of the local government
132 jurisdiction.

133 b. Two members who are local licensed general or 134 residential contractors, who are not elected officials or
135 employees of the local government jurisdiction.

136 c. One at-large member who is not an elected official or
137 employee of the local government jurisdiction.

138 2. The county commission or the governing body of the 139 municipality, as applicable, may appoint three alternate
140 members, consisting of one representative from each of the 141 categories described in sub-subparagraphs 1.a., b., and c., who 142 shall serve in the absence of their respective member.

143 3. Members and alternate members must be qualified electors
144 of the county or municipality, as applicable.

145 4. Members and alternate members shall serve at the 146 pleasure of the local government and shall serve until they are 147 replaced.

148 (c)1. Each committee meeting must be duly noticed and open
149 to the public as required by s. 286.011.

150 2. A meeting may not be held unless a quorum is present. A
151 quorum consists of a majority of members of the committee, but 152 an alternate member shall count toward the quorum when a regular 153 member is absent.

154 3. Members of the committee shall serve without
155 compensation.

590750

156 4. In lieu of establishing an impact fee review committee
157 as required in paragraph (a), a local governmental entity that 158 assesses an impact fee may use an existing committee that
159 contains representation from the building or development
160 community and reviews building or development projects.

109 benefit new users.

110 (5) Collection of the impact fee may not be required to
111 occur earlier than the date of issuance of the building permit
112 for the property that is subject to the fee.

113 ~~(6)(i)~~ Revenues generated by the impact fee may not be 114 used, in whole or in part, to pay existing debt or for 115 previously approved projects unless the expenditure is 116 reasonably connected to, or has a rational nexus with, the

117 increased impact generated by the new residential or
118 nonresidential construction.

119 ~~(7)(4)~~ The local government must credit against the 120 collection of the impact fee any contribution, whether 121 identified in a proportionate share agreement or other form of 122 exaction, related to public education facilities, including land
123 dedication, site planning and design, or construction. Any 124 contribution must be applied to reduce any education-based 125 impact fees on a dollar-for-dollar basis at fair market value.

126 ~~(8)(5)~~ If a local government increases its impact fee
127 rates, the holder of any impact fee credits, whether such
128 credits are granted under s. 163.3180, s. 380.06, or otherwise,
129 which were in existence before the increase, is entitled to the 130 full benefit of the intensity or density prepaid by the credit
131 balance as of the date it was first established. This subsection
132 shall operate prospectively and not retrospectively.

133 ~~(9)(6)~~ Audits of financial statements of local governmental
134 entities and district school boards which are performed by a
135 certified public accountant pursuant to s. 218.39 and submitted
136 to the Auditor General must include an affidavit signed by the 137 chief financial officer of the local governmental entity or
138 district school board stating that the local governmental entity
139 or district school board has complied with this section and the 140 spending period provision in the local ordinance or resolution.

141 ~~(10)(7)~~ In any action challenging an impact fee or the
142 government's failure to provide required dollar-for-dollar
143 credits for the payment of impact fees or for contributions made
144 as provided in this chapter s. 163.3180(6)(h)2.b., the 145 government has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the

146 evidence that the imposition or amount of the fee or credit
147 meets the requirements of state legal precedent and this
148 section. The court may not use a deferential standard for the 149 benefit of the government.

150 (11) Impact fee credits are assignable and transferable at
151 any time after establishment for the same type of public
152 facility for which the impact fee applies to any development or 153 parcel located within the geographic boundary of the local
154 government jurisdiction where the impact fee is imposed and
155 situated geographically within an impact fee zone or district
156 that receives a benefit from the improvement, dedication, or 157 payment which generated the credit to be transferred. If a local 158 government elects to use an alternative mobility funding system
159 as provided for in s. 163.3180(5)(i) in lieu of impact fees,
160 transportation credits are assignable and transferable at any 161 time after establishment to any development or parcel within the 162 geographic boundary of the local government jurisdiction where
163 the credit was established so long as the credit is applied to a
164 zone or district which is receiving a benefit from the 165 contribution to the alternative mobility funding system which 166 generated the credit. Under either system described in this
167 subsection, a benefit shall be recognized within any zone or 168 district located within 5 miles of the zone or district where
169 the credits were generated.

170 ~~(12)(8)~~ A county, municipality, or special district may
171 provide an exception or waiver for an impact fee for the 172 development or construction of housing that is affordable, as 173 defined in s. 420.9071. If a county, municipality, or special
174 district provides such an exception or waiver, it is not

175 required to use any revenues to offset the impact.

176 (13) To ensure impact fees or equivalent contributions are
 177 not imposed more than once for the same impacts, a local
 178 government shall provide impact fee credits or other forms of 179 compensation if a contribution is greater in value than the 180 applicable impact fee. Contributions related to the
 181 transportation system are creditable against the combined total
 182 of all impact fees, mobility fees, or other forms of exactions
 183 charged to mitigate transportation impacts. This subsection
 184 applies at the time any contribution is accepted, regardless of 185 when the contributions were agreed upon or committed to.

186 (14) (a) Before enacting an impact fee, each county and 187 municipality must establish an impact fee review and advisory
 188 committee.

189 (b) 1. The committee shall be composed of the following
 190 members appointed by the county commission or the governing body
 191 of the municipality, as applicable:

192 a. Two members who are employed by the county or 193 municipality. If a school impact fee is assessed or under 194 consideration, one of the two members shall be employed by the 195 school district.

196 b. Two members who represent the business community who are
 197 not elected officials or employees of the local government
 198 jurisdiction.

199 c. Two members who are local licensed general or 200 residential contractors, who are not elected officials or
 201 employees of the local government jurisdiction.

202 d. One at-large member who is not an elected official or
 203 employee of the local government jurisdiction.

593-03916-20

20201066c2

204 2. The county commission or the governing body of the
 205 municipality, as applicable, may appoint three alternate
 206 members, consisting of one representative from each of the 207 categories described in sub-subparagraphs 1.a., b., and c., who
 208 shall serve in the absence of their respective member.

209 3. Members and alternate members must be qualified electors
 210 of the county or municipality, as applicable.

211 4. Members and alternate members shall serve at the
 213 replaced.

214 (c) 1. Each committee meeting must be duly noticed and open
 215 to the public as required by s. 286.011.

216 2. A meeting may not be held unless a quorum is present. A
 217 quorum consists of a majority of members of the committee, but 218 an alternate member shall count toward the quorum when a regular 219 member is absent.

220 3. A member who fails to attend three consecutive meetings
 221 or fails to attend two-thirds of the meetings within a calendar
 222 year automatically forfeits the appointment, and the county
 223 commissioners or members of the governing body of the 224 municipality, as applicable, shall promptly fill the vacancy.

225 4. Members of the committee shall serve without
 226 compensation.

227 5. A small county as defined in s. 110.1228(1)(c) or a
 228 small municipality as defined in s. 110.1228(1)(b) which 229 assesses an impact fee may utilize an existing committee that
 230 contains representation from the building or development
 231 community and reviews building or development in lieu of the 232 impact fee review committee provided herein.

593-03916-20

20201066c2

233 (d) The committee shall meet as needed to examine impact
234 fee policies and provide recommendations on impact fee
235 decisions, including, but not limited to, reviewing all of the 236 following:

- 237 1. The selection of an impact fee consultant.
- 238 2. Impact fee studies and study recommendations.
- 239 3. Policies and methodologies for determining impact fees
240 on new developments and new construction.
- 241 4. Changes to impact fee calculations.
- 242 5. After each impact fee is adopted by the local government
243 and at least before a county or municipality adopts its budget,
244 the proposed budget for expending impact fees to ensure the fee
245 is used in accordance with this section and other pertinent
246 sections of state law.

247 (15)(9) This section does not apply to water and sewer
248 connection fees.

249 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2020.

defined in s. 163.3164(39) and includes public libraries,
emergency medical services, and any fire and law enforcement
facility. For independent special fire control and rescue districts, the term "infrastructure" also includes new facilities as defined in s. 191.009(4).

(4) At a minimum, each county and municipality that adopts,

277762

11 collects, or administers an impact fee by ordinance and each
12 special district that adopts, collects, and administers an
13 impact fee by resolution ~~an impact fee adopted by ordinance of a~~
14 ~~county or municipality or by resolution of a special district~~
15 ~~must satisfy all of the following conditions:~~

16 (a) Require that the calculation of any new or updated the
17 impact fee must be based on the most recent and localized data
18 collected within the last 36 months and excludes any cost that
19 does not meet the definition of infrastructure.

20 (b) Account for the revenues and expenditures of such
21 impact fee in a separate impact fee account, if the local
22 governmental entity imposes an impact fee to address its
23 infrastructure needs ~~The local government must provide for~~
24 ~~accounting and reporting of impact fee collections and~~
25 ~~expenditures. If a local governmental entity imposes an impact~~
26 ~~fee to address its infrastructure needs, the entity must account~~
27 ~~for the revenues and expenditures of such impact fee in a~~
28 ~~separate accounting fund.~~

29 (c) Limit administrative charges for the collection of
30 impact fees must be limited to actual costs. The cost per
31 student station established in school impact fee calculations
32 may not exceed that statutory total maximum cost per student
33 station calculated under s. 1013.64(6).

34 (d) ~~The local government must~~ Provide notice not less than
35 90 days before the effective date of an ordinance or resolution
36 imposing a new or increased impact fee. Unless the result is to 37 reduce the total mitigation costs or impact fees imposed on an
38 applicant, new or increased impact fees may not apply to current

277762

40 date of an ordinance or resolution imposing a new or increased
41 impact fee. A county or municipality is not required to wait 90
42 days to decrease, suspend, or eliminate an impact fee.

43 ~~(e) Collection of the impact fee may not be required to~~
44 ~~occur earlier than the date of issuance of the building permit~~
45 ~~for the property that is subject to the fee.~~

46 ~~(f)~~ Ensure that the impact fee is ~~must be~~ proportional and 47 reasonably connected to, or has ~~have~~ a rational nexus with, the 48 need for additional infrastructure ~~capital facilities~~ and the
49 increased impact generated by the new residential or commercial
50 construction.

51 ~~(f)(g)~~ Ensure that the impact fee is ~~must be~~ proportional
52 and reasonably connected to, or has ~~have~~ a rational nexus with,
53 the expenditures of the funds collected and the benefits
54 accruing to the new residential or nonresidential construction.

55 ~~(g)(h)~~ The local government must Specifically earmark funds
56 collected under the impact fee for use in acquiring,
57 constructing, or improving infrastructure ~~capital facilities~~ to
58 benefit new users.

59 (5) Collection of the impact fee may not be required to
60 occur earlier than the date of issuance of the building permit
61 for the property that is subject to the fee.

62 ~~(6)(i)~~ Revenues generated by the impact fee may not be
63 used, in whole or in part, to pay existing debt or for
64 previously approved projects unless the expenditure is
65 reasonably connected to, or has a rational nexus with, the
66 increased impact generated by the new residential or
67 nonresidential construction.

277762

69 plan policy, ordinance, or resolution, the local government must 70 credit against the collection of the impact fee any form of
71 contribution, whether identified in a proportionate share
72 agreement or other form of exaction, related to public education
73 facilities, including land dedication, site planning and design,
74 or construction. Any contribution must be applied to reduce any
75 education-based impact fees on a dollar-for-dollar basis at fair
76 market value. This subsection does not apply to a local
77 government governed by a charter that was adopted and
78 implemented before December 31, 2006, which charter language
79 contains provisions for providing school capacity so long as the 80 funds collected pursuant to the charter provision are used to
81 mitigate impacts not otherwise funded by impact fees or other
82 local exactions relating to public education facilities and the 83 funds are applied in a manner that is proportional and
84 reasonably connected to, or has a rational nexus with, the need
85 for additional capital facilities, the need for which is
86 generated by the new residential development. Contributions to
87 mitigate impacts not otherwise funded by impact fees must be
88 based on the difference between the cost per student station as
89 determined by the educational facilities impact fee study on
90 which the then-current education-based impact fee is based,
91 subject to s. 1013.64(2)(a)6. and (6)(b), and the cost per
92 student station funded by the education-based impact fee. Such
93 contributions may not be collected before the issuance of a
94 building permit.

95 (8) ~~(5)~~ If a local government increases its impact fee
96 rates, the holder of any impact fee credits, whether such
97 credits are granted under s. 163.3180, s. 380.06, or otherwise,

277762

98 which were in existence before the increase, is entitled to the
99 full benefit of the intensity or density prepaid by the credit
100 balance as of the date it was first established. This subsection
101 shall operate prospectively and not retrospectively.

102 (9)-(6) Audits of financial statements of local governmental
103 entities and district school boards which are performed by a
104 certified public accountant pursuant to s. 218.39 and submitted
105 to the Auditor General must include an affidavit signed by the 106 chief financial officer of the local governmental entity or
107 district school board stating that the local governmental entity
108 or district school board has complied with this section and the 109 spending period provision in the local ordinance or resolution.

110 (10)-(7) In any action challenging an impact fee or the
111 government's failure to provide required dollar-for-dollar
112 credits for the payment of impact fees or for contributions made
113 as provided in this chapter s. 163.3180(6)(h)2.b., the 114 government has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the 115 evidence that the imposition or amount of the fee or credit
116 meets the requirements of state legal precedent and this
117 section. The court may not use a deferential standard for the 118 benefit of the government.

119 (11) Impact fee credits are assignable and transferable at 120 any time after establishment from one development or parcel to 121 any other within the same impact fee zone or district or in an 122 adjoining zone or district which receives benefits from the
123 improvement or contribution that generated the credits.

124 (12)-(8) A county, municipality, or special district may 125 provide an exception or waiver for an impact fee for the

127 defined in s. 420.9071. If a county, municipality, or special
128 district provides such an exception or waiver, it is not
129 required to use any revenues to offset the impact.

130 (13) To ensure impact fees or equivalent contributions are
131 not imposed more than once for the same impacts, a local 132 government shall provide impact fee credits or other forms of 133 compensation if a contribution is greater in value than the 134 applicable impact fee. Contributions related to the

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

PCS/CS/SB 1070 clarifies the authority of Space Florida to issue bonds. Under the bill, Space Florida is authorized to issue revenue bonds or any other type of debt, including bank loans. The bill repeals both the requirement that Space Florida notify the presiding officers and appropriations chairs of both houses of the Legislature before presenting a bond proposal to the Governor and Cabinet and the requirement for the Governor and Cabinet to approve the bond's issuance.

The bill clarifies that Space Florida is subject to the minimum credit-worthiness requirements in section 189.051, Florida Statutes, and authorizes the entity to validate its bonds pursuant to chapter 75, Florida Statutes, which provides generally for government-issued bond validation. The term for which Space Florida may issue a bond is shortened to 30 years from 40 years.

Conforming changes to bond references are made to relevant sections of chapter 331, Florida Statutes, and statutes that address pledging the full faith and credit of Space Florida, the issuance of bond anticipation notes, and short-term borrowing are repealed.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

Space Florida was created as an independent special district,¹ a body politic and corporate, and a subdivision of the state, to foster the growth and development of a sustainable and world-leading aerospace industry in this state.² Space Florida is governed by a 13-member independent board of directors that consists of the same members of the board of directors of Enterprise Florida, Inc., that are appointed by the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Governor serves ex officio, or may appoint a designee to serve as the chair and a voting member of the board.³

The purpose of Space Florida is to promote aerospace business development by facilitating business financing, spaceport operations, research and development, workforce development, and innovative education programs. To accomplish its purpose, Space Florida advises, coordinates, cooperates, and, when necessary, enters into memoranda of agreement with municipalities, counties, regional authorities, state agencies and organizations, appropriate federal agencies and organizations, and other interested persons and groups.⁴ Space Florida may purchase or construct facilities; set rates, fees, and charges for the use of facilities; undertake joint financing with municipalities or private sector entities for any project; and issue revenue, assessment, or other bonds.⁵

Bonding Authority of Space Florida

Space Florida is authorized by law to issue bonds, which means revenue bonds, assessment bonds, or other bonds or obligations issued by Space Florida for the purpose of raising financing for projects. The board of directors, by resolution at a noticed and public meeting, authorizes the issuance of bonds, fixes the aggregate amount of bonds to be issued, and sets the terms, covenants, and conditions of the bonds, including the purpose, the interest rate, issuance and maturity dates, terms of execution, and redemption terms. However, the law specifies that a bond's term cannot exceed 40 years from the date of issuance.⁶

According to Space Florida, it and its predecessor organizations have entered into debt financing transactions with banks totaling nearly $1 billion.⁷ "Proceeds from these financings have been used to make infrastructure improvements, construct facilities, and acquire machinery, equipment and tooling necessary by Florida's aerospace and defense industrial base and government partners like NASA and the USAF."⁸ Space Florida's bonds can be used to pay all or part of the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, repair, improvement, or maintenance of any project or combination of projects to provide for any facility, service, or other activity of Space Florida. This includes payloads and space flight hardware and equipment for research, development, and educational activities.⁹

Pledging Revenues for Bonds

The issuance of revenue bonds by Space Florida may be secured by or payable from:

- The gross or net pledge of the revenues that are derived from any project or combination of projects.
- The rates, fees, rentals, tolls, fares, or other charges to be collected from the users of any project or projects.
- Any revenue-producing undertaking or activity of Space Florida.
- Any source of pledged security.¹⁰

Section 331.334, F.S., also contains similar language allowing the board of directors to pledge the revenues of any Space Florida project for a bond.¹¹ It also allows the board to pledge or mortgage any of the properties, rights, interest, or other assets of Space Florida.

Further, s. 331.334, F.S., allows Space Florida, pursuant to its powers as a special district, to hold an election to pledge its full faith and credit for any of its bonds. Pursuant to s. 331.331, F.S., unless bonds are secured by the full faith and credit of Space Florida, they do not constitute an indebtedness of Space Florida. Bonds issued by Space Florida are not secured by the full faith and credit of the State of Florida and do not constitute an obligation, either general or special, thereof.¹²

Pursuant to s. 331.335, F.S., all pledges of revenues and assessments made by Space Florida are valid and binding from the time the pledges are made and are immediately subject to the lien of the pledges upon collection. The lien attaches without further action and is considered valid and binding against all parties with any claims against Space Florida, irrespective of whether such parties have any notice of the pledge/lien.

Approval of Bonds

Space Florida is currently required to provide 14 days' notice to the presiding officers and appropriations committee chairs of both houses of the Legislature before presenting a bond proposal to the Governor and Cabinet. If either presiding officer or appropriations chair objects to the bonding proposal within the 14-day-notice period, the bond issuance may be approved only by a vote of three-fourths of the members of the Governor and Cabinet.¹³

Space Florida's predecessor agency was created in 1989 and this requirement for notice and approval was part of the enacting legislation.¹⁴ The legislation limited the amount of bonds that Space Florida could issue and specifically required approval by the Governor and Cabinet.

¹⁰ Section 331.331, F.S.

¹¹ This includes revenues from any project of Space Florida, utility service, assessments, and any other sources of revenue or funds, or any combination of the foregoing.

¹² Sections 331.331 and 331.334, F.S.

¹⁴ Chapter 89-300, L.O.F.

In 1991, the legislature allowed conduit bonds to be exempt from the notice and approval requirements.¹⁵ In 1999, the specific provision related to the amount of bonds that Space Florida could issue and approval of bonds by the Governor and Cabinet was repealed as obsolete.¹⁶

The 1999 repeal created an ambiguity in the statute. Space Florida states that the exact role of the Governor and Cabinet is unclear. Because the bonds that Space Florida issues do not pledge the full faith and credit of Space Florida (and do not pledge the full faith and credit of the state) and are typically revenue bonds for conduit financing, the “result of past requests for formal action by the Governor and Cabinet has been a resolution recognizing a valid exercise of statutorily-granted powers by the Board of Directors.”¹⁷

Validation of Bonds

Section 331.346, F.S., provides for the validity of bonds and the procedures by which bonds issued by Space Florida are validated. Chapter 75, F.S., also specifies the procedures for bond validation issued by entities of the state. While the provisions are similar, ch. 75, F.S., provides greater specificity as to jurisdiction over claims, notice, appeal, review, as well as commencement of actions after validation.

Borrowing Authority of Space Florida

Borrowing Against Anticipated Bond Proceeds

Section 331.336, F.S., authorizes Space Florida to issue bond anticipation notes. At any time after the issuance of bonds has been authorized by the Space Florida board of directors, Space Florida can borrow money to be used for the same purposes for which the bonds are to be issued and issue notes in anticipation of the receipt of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds.¹⁸ The principal amount of the bond anticipation notes which are issued cannot exceed the authorized maximum amount of the bonds to be issued. The notes must be repaid from the proceeds of the bonds when issued. However, the board can elect to repay the notes using current revenues or other assessments levied for the payment of the bonds, but, in such event, a like amount of the bonds authorized may not be issued.¹⁹

Short-Term Borrowing

Section 331.337, F.S., specifically allows Space Florida to obtain loans to pay its expenses or costs incurred in connection with a project. Loans may be issued as negotiable notes, warrants, or other evidences of debt signed on behalf of Space Florida by any board member. The board of directors may pledge any funds, revenues, or assessments of Space Florida to pay the loans and interest.

¹⁸ The notes must be in such denomination or denominations, bear interest at such rate or rates, mature at such time or times, be renewable for such additional term or terms, and be in such form and executed in such manner as the board prescribes. The notes may be sold at public sale, or if such notes are renewable notes, may be exchanged for notes then outstanding on such terms as the board determines. Notes are to be paid from the proceeds of such bonds when issued.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 amends s. 331.302, F.S., to clarify that as a special district, Space Florida is subject to s. 189.051, F.S., which provides minimum credit-worthiness requirements for bond issuance if a referendum is not required. Under s. 189.051, F.S., a special district must ensure that, at time of closing, the bonds meet at least one of the following requirements:

- The bonds were rated in one of the highest four ratings by a nationally recognized rating service;
- The bonds were privately placed with or otherwise sold to accredited investors;
- The bonds were backed by a letter of credit from a bank, savings and loan association, or other creditworthy guarantor, or by bond insurance, guaranteeing payment of principal and interest on the bonds; or
- The bonds were accompanied by an independent financial advisory opinion stating that estimates of debt service coverage and probability of debt repayment are reasonable. The opinion must be provided by an independent financial advisory, consulting, or accounting firm registered where professional registration is required by law and which is in good standing with the state and in conformance with all applicable professional standards for such opinions.

Space Florida states that it has been subject to this requirement and has fully complied with it in every instance of borrowing.²⁰

Section 2 amends s. 331.303(3), F.S., to revise the meaning of the term “bonds” to mean revenues bonds or any other type of debt, including bank loans, issued for financing Space Florida projects. The inclusion of “or any other type of debt, including bank loans,” allows Space Florida to continue to do short-term borrowing and conduit financing. Section 10 repeals s. 331.337, F.S., which specifically allows Space Florida to obtain loans.

The bill deletes reference to assessment bonds or other types of bonds in the definition of the term “bonds.” To conform to this change, Sections 3, 4, and 5 amend ss. 331.305, 331.331, and 331.335, F.S.

Section 3 amends s. 331.305(2), F.S., to specify that environmental mitigation is a cost that can be paid for as part of the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, repair, improvement, or maintenance of any project or combination of projects for which bonds are issued to provide for any facility, service, or other activity of Space Florida

Section 3 also amends s. 331.305(20), F.S., to repeal the provisions related to notice and objection requirements by the presiding officers and appropriations chairs of both houses of the Legislature and the approval of bonds by the Governor and Cabinet. These steps will no longer be required for Space Florida to issue bonds, similar to other independent special districts.

Section 4 also amends s. 331.331(2), F.S., to specify that state appropriations may not be used as a pledged revenue source and that revenue bonds may not be secured by the full faith and credit of Space Florida. Section 8 repeals s. 331.334, F.S., which allows Space Florida to pledge its full faith and credit for any of its bonds.

Section 6 amends s. 331.340, F.S., to reduce the maximum term for which a bond may be issued to 30 years from 40 years.

Section 7 amends s. 331.346, F.S., to authorize Space Florida, as an alternative, to validate its bonds pursuant to ch. 75, F.S., which is a process used by other Florida governmental entities and is more familiar to the bonding community.

Section 9 repeals s. 331.336, F.S., which allows Space Florida to issue bond anticipation notes.

The changes made to Space Florida's bonding authority allow Space Florida to issue bonds on its own behalf, as well as on a conduit basis, but Space Florida will not have the authority to issue general obligation bonds.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2020.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

The bill does not appear to require cities and counties to expend funds or limit their authority to raise revenue or receive state-shared revenues as specified by Art. VII, s. 18 of the State Constitution.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None identified.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

Businesses and individuals from the private sector working with Space Florida could benefit to the extent that these changes improve Space Florida's ability to issue bonds for projects. Space Florida states that as the aerospace industry expands across the state and transitions more to the private sector than government programs, bonding will be a more useful tool in developing the critical common-use infrastructure (commodities, road and bridge improvements, etc.) given the expected lower cost of capital bonds attributable to long-term fixed interest rates and longer amortization periods when compared to bank loans.²¹

C. Government Sector Impact:

The bill is not expected to create increased costs or generate additional revenues for Space Florida. The bill may reduce the time it takes Space Florida to issue bonds, which could result in some cost savings associated with the bond issuance. According to Space Florida:

[Space Florida] expects that issuing bonds would become a more viable and effective business development tool, allowing SF to solicit competitive financing proposals from bank and non-bank lenders (currently, the issuance of bonds has not been a widely utilized tool because the lack of clarity of roles and responsibilities could subject SF-issued bonds to invalidation). A competitive financing marketplace leads to lower cost of capital and better financing terms for SF and the industry it is supporting.²²

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

The bill repeals provisions under which either legislative presiding officer or appropriations chair could object to a bond issuance, triggering a higher vote requirement for the Governor and Cabinet approval. While this may seem to be a loss of oversight authority for both the legislative and executive branches, this may not be so. With the other changes in the bill, Space Florida is authorized only issue conduit bonds and bonds on its own behalf, which have no effect on legislative budgetary authority and do not undermine any governmental oversight. Additionally, the current practice is for the Governor and Cabinet simply to issue a resolution acknowledging Space Florida's authority to issue conduit bonds in accordance with and in furtherance of Space Florida's statutory purpose.²³ The bill may reduce the time it takes Space Florida to issue bonds by removing the notice and approval steps from the process. Space Florida expects that the resolution of the ambiguity will allow it to participate in more competitive financing, which will lead to a lower cost of capital and better financing terms for Space Florida and the industry it supports.²⁴

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 331.302, 331.303, 331.305, 331.331, 331.335, 331.340, and 331.346.

The bill repeals the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 331.334, 331.336, and 331.337.

IX. Additional Information:

- A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

Recommended CS/CS by Appropriations Subcommittee on Transportation, Tourism, and Economic Development on February 13, 2020:

The committee substitute adds environmental mitigation as an included cost that can be paid for as part of the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, repair, improvement, or maintenance of any project or combination of projects for which bonds are issued.

CS by Military and Veterans Affairs and Space on January 21, 2020:

The committee substitute provides for a litany of terms and conditions that the board may require for the bonds and includes: “the purpose or purposes for which the moneys derived therefrom shall be expanded.” As the term “expanded” does not make sense, the more appropriate term “expended” is substituted and the board may designate how the proceeds of the bonds must be spent.

- B. Amendments:

None.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/CS/SB 1070 clarifies the authority of Space Florida to issue bonds. Under the bill, Space Florida is authorized to issue revenue bonds or any other type of debt, including bank loans. The bill repeals both the requirement that Space Florida notify the presiding officers and appropriations chairs of both houses of the Legislature before presenting a bond proposal to the Governor and Cabinet and the requirement for the Governor and Cabinet to approve the bond's issuance.

The bill clarifies that Space Florida is subject to the minimum credit-worthiness requirements in section 189.051, Florida Statutes, and authorizes the entity to validate its bonds pursuant to chapter 75, Florida Statutes, which provides generally for government-issued bond validation. The term for which Space Florida may issue a bond is shortened to 30 years from 40 years.

Conforming changes to bond references are made to relevant sections of chapter 331, Florida Statutes, and statutes that address pledging the full faith and credit of Space Florida, the issuance of bond anticipation notes, and short-term borrowing are repealed.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

Space Florida was created as an independent special district,¹ a body politic and corporate, and a subdivision of the state, to foster the growth and development of a sustainable and world-leading aerospace industry in this state.² Space Florida is governed by a 13-member independent board of directors that consists of the same members of the board of directors of Enterprise Florida, Inc., that are appointed by the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Governor serves ex officio, or may appoint a designee to serve as the chair and a voting member of the board.³

The purpose of Space Florida is to promote aerospace business development by facilitating business financing, spaceport operations, research and development, workforce development, and innovative education programs. To accomplish its purpose, Space Florida advises, coordinates, cooperates, and, when necessary, enters into memoranda of agreement with municipalities, counties, regional authorities, state agencies and organizations, appropriate federal agencies and organizations, and other interested persons and groups.⁴ Space Florida may purchase or construct facilities; set rates, fees, and charges for the use of facilities; undertake joint financing with municipalities or private sector entities for any project; and issue revenue, assessment, or other bonds.⁵

Bonding Authority of Space Florida

Space Florida is authorized by law to issue bonds, which means revenue bonds, assessment bonds, or other bonds or obligations issued by Space Florida for the purpose of raising financing for projects. The board of directors, by resolution at a noticed and public meeting, authorizes the issuance of bonds, fixes the aggregate amount of bonds to be issued, and sets the terms, covenants, and conditions of the bonds, including the purpose, the interest rate, issuance and maturity dates, terms of execution, and redemption terms. However, the law specifies that a bond's term cannot exceed 40 years from the date of issuance.⁶

According to Space Florida, it and its predecessor organizations have entered into debt financing transactions with banks totaling nearly $1 billion.⁷ "Proceeds from these financings have been used to make infrastructure improvements, construct facilities, and acquire machinery, equipment and tooling necessary by Florida's aerospace and defense industrial base and government partners like NASA and the USAF."⁸ Space Florida's bonds can be used to pay all or part of the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, repair, improvement, or maintenance of any project or combination of projects to provide for any facility, service, or other activity of Space Florida. This includes payloads and space flight hardware and equipment for research, development, and educational activities.⁹

Pledging Revenues for Bonds

The issuance of revenue bonds by Space Florida may be secured by or payable from:

- The gross or net pledge of the revenues that are derived from any project or combination of projects.
- The rates, fees, rentals, tolls, fares, or other charges to be collected from the users of any project or projects.
- Any revenue-producing undertaking or activity of Space Florida.
- Any source of pledged security.¹⁰

Section 331.334, F.S., also contains similar language allowing the board of directors to pledge the revenues of any Space Florida project for a bond.¹¹ It also allows the board to pledge or mortgage any of the properties, rights, interest, or other assets of Space Florida.

Further, s. 331.334, F.S., allows Space Florida, pursuant to its powers as a special district, to hold an election to pledge its full faith and credit for any of its bonds. Pursuant to s. 331.331, F.S., unless bonds are secured by the full faith and credit of Space Florida, they do not constitute an indebtedness of Space Florida. Bonds issued by Space Florida are not secured by the full faith and credit of the State of Florida and do not constitute an obligation, either general or special, thereof.¹²

Pursuant to s. 331.335, F.S., all pledges of revenues and assessments made by Space Florida are valid and binding from the time the pledges are made and are immediately subject to the lien of the pledges upon collection. The lien attaches without further action and is considered valid and binding against all parties with any claims against Space Florida, irrespective of whether such parties have any notice of the pledge/lien.

Approval of Bonds

Space Florida is currently required to provide 14 days' notice to the presiding officers and appropriations committee chairs of both houses of the Legislature before presenting a bond proposal to the Governor and Cabinet. If either presiding officer or appropriations chair objects to the bonding proposal within the 14-day-notice period, the bond issuance may be approved only by a vote of three-fourths of the members of the Governor and Cabinet.¹³

Space Florida's predecessor agency was created in 1989 and this requirement for notice and approval was part of the enacting legislation.¹⁴ The legislation limited the amount of bonds that Space Florida could issue and specifically required approval by the Governor and Cabinet.

¹⁰ Section 331.331, F.S.

¹¹ This includes revenues from any project of Space Florida, utility service, assessments, and any other sources of revenue or funds, or any combination of the foregoing.

¹² Sections 331.331 and 331.334, F.S.

¹⁴ Chapter 89-300, L.O.F.

In 1991, the legislature allowed conduit bonds to be exempt from the notice and approval requirements.¹⁵ In 1999, the specific provision related to the amount of bonds that Space Florida could issue and approval of bonds by the Governor and Cabinet was repealed as obsolete.¹⁶

The 1999 repeal created an ambiguity in the statute. Space Florida states that the exact role of the Governor and Cabinet is unclear. Because the bonds that Space Florida issues do not pledge the full faith and credit of Space Florida (and do not pledge the full faith and credit of the state) and are typically revenue bonds for conduit financing, the “result of past requests for formal action by the Governor and Cabinet has been a resolution recognizing a valid exercise of statutorily-granted powers by the Board of Directors.”¹⁷

Section 331.346, F.S., provides for the validity of bonds and the procedures by which bonds issued by Space Florida are validated. Chapter 75, F.S., also specifies the procedures for bond validation issued by entities of the state. While the provisions are similar, ch. 75, F.S., provides greater specificity as to jurisdiction over claims, notice, appeal, review, as well as commencement of actions after validation.

Borrowing Authority of Space Florida

Borrowing Against Anticipated Bond Proceeds

Section 331.336, F.S., authorizes Space Florida to issue bond anticipation notes. At any time after the issuance of bonds has been authorized by the Space Florida board of directors, Space Florida can borrow money to be used for the same purposes for which the bonds are to be issued and issue notes in anticipation of the receipt of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds.¹⁸ The principal amount of the bond anticipation notes which are issued cannot exceed the authorized maximum amount of the bonds to be issued. The notes must be repaid from the proceeds of the bonds when issued. However, the board can elect to repay the notes using current revenues or other assessments levied for the payment of the bonds, but, in such event, a like amount of the bonds authorized may not be issued.¹⁹

Short-Term Borrowing

Section 331.337, F.S., specifically allows Space Florida to obtain loans to pay its expenses or costs incurred in connection with a project. Loans may be issued as negotiable notes, warrants, or other evidences of debt signed on behalf of Space Florida by any board member. The board of directors may pledge any funds, revenues, or assessments of Space Florida to pay the loans and interest.

¹⁸ The notes must be in such denomination or denominations, bear interest at such rate or rates, mature at such time or times, be renewable for such additional term or terms, and be in such form and executed in such manner as the board prescribes. The notes may be sold at public sale, or if such notes are renewable notes, may be exchanged for notes then outstanding on such terms as the board determines. Notes are to be paid from the proceeds of such bonds when issued.

¹⁹ Section 331.336, F.S.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 amends s. 331.302, F.S., to clarify that as a special district, Space Florida is subject to s. 189.051, F.S., which provides minimum credit-worthiness requirements for bond issuance if a referendum is not required. Under s. 189.051, F.S., a special district must ensure that, at time of closing, the bonds meet at least one of the following requirements:

- The bonds were rated in one of the highest four ratings by a nationally recognized rating service;
- The bonds were privately placed with or otherwise sold to accredited investors;
- The bonds were backed by a letter of credit from a bank, savings and loan association, or other creditworthy guarantor, or by bond insurance, guaranteeing payment of principal and interest on the bonds; or
- The bonds were accompanied by an independent financial advisory opinion stating that estimates of debt service coverage and probability of debt repayment are reasonable. The opinion must be provided by an independent financial advisory, consulting, or accounting firm registered where professional registration is required by law and which is in good standing with the state and in conformance with all applicable professional standards for such opinions.

Space Florida states that it has been subject to this requirement and has fully complied with it in every instance of borrowing.²⁰

Section 2 amends s. 331.303(3), F.S., to revise the meaning of the term “bonds” to mean revenues bonds or any other type of debt, including bank loans, issued for financing Space Florida projects. The inclusion of “or any other type of debt, including bank loans,” allows Space Florida to continue to do short-term borrowing and conduit financing. Section 10 repeals s. 331.337, F.S., which specifically allows Space Florida to obtain loans.

The bill deletes reference to assessment bonds or other types of bonds in the definition of the term “bonds.” To conform to this change, Sections 3, 4, and 5 amend ss. 331.305, 331.331, and 331.335, F.S.

Section 3 amends s. 331.305(2), F.S., to specify that environmental mitigation is a cost that can be paid for as part of the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, repair, improvement, or maintenance of any project or combination of projects for which bonds are issued to provide for any facility, service, or other activity of Space Florida

Section 3 also amends s. 331.305(20), F.S., to repeal the provisions related to notice and objection requirements by the presiding officers and appropriations chairs of both houses of the Legislature and the approval of bonds by the Governor and Cabinet. These steps will no longer be required for Space Florida to issue bonds, similar to other independent special districts.

Section 4 also amends s. 331.331(2), F.S., to specify that state appropriations may not be used as a pledged revenue source and that revenue bonds may not be secured by the full faith and credit of Space Florida. Section 8 repeals s. 331.334, F.S., which allows Space Florida to pledge its full faith and credit for any of its bonds.

Section 6 amends s. 331.340, F.S., to reduce the maximum term for which a bond may be issued to 30 years from 40 years.

Section 7 amends s. 331.346, F.S., to authorize Space Florida, as an alternative, to validate its bonds pursuant to ch. 75, F.S., which is a process used by other Florida governmental entities and is more familiar to the bonding community.

Section 9 repeals s. 331.336, F.S., which allows Space Florida to issue bond anticipation notes.

The changes made to Space Florida's bonding authority allow Space Florida to issue bonds on its own behalf, as well as on a conduit basis, but Space Florida will not have the authority to issue general obligation bonds.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2020.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

The bill does not appear to require cities and counties to expend funds or limit their authority to raise revenue or receive state-shared revenues as specified by Art. VII, s. 18 of the State Constitution.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None identified.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

Businesses and individuals from the private sector working with Space Florida could benefit to the extent that these changes improve Space Florida's ability to issue bonds for projects. Space Florida states that as the aerospace industry expands across the state and transitions more to the private sector than government programs, bonding will be a more useful tool in developing the critical common-use infrastructure (commodities, road and bridge improvements, etc.) given the expected lower cost of capital bonds attributable to long-term fixed interest rates and longer amortization periods when compared to bank loans.²¹

C. Government Sector Impact:

The bill is not expected to create increased costs or generate additional revenues for Space Florida. The bill may reduce the time it takes Space Florida to issue bonds, which could result in some cost savings associated with the bond issuance. According to Space Florida:

[Space Florida] expects that issuing bonds would become a more viable and effective business development tool, allowing SF to solicit competitive financing proposals from bank and non-bank lenders (currently, the issuance of bonds has not been a widely utilized tool because the lack of clarity of roles and responsibilities could subject SF-issued bonds to invalidation). A competitive financing marketplace leads to lower cost of capital and better financing terms for SF and the industry it is supporting.²²

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

The bill repeals provisions under which either legislative presiding officer or appropriations chair could object to a bond issuance, triggering a higher vote requirement for the Governor and Cabinet approval. While this may seem to be a loss of oversight authority for both the legislative and executive branches, this may not be so. With the other changes in the bill, Space Florida is authorized only issue conduit bonds and bonds on its own behalf, which have no effect on legislative budgetary authority and do not undermine any governmental oversight. Additionally, the current practice is for the Governor and Cabinet simply to issue a resolution acknowledging Space Florida's authority to issue conduit bonds in accordance with and in furtherance of Space Florida's statutory purpose.²³ The bill may reduce the time it takes Space Florida to issue bonds by removing the notice and approval steps from the process. Space Florida expects that the resolution of the ambiguity will allow it to participate in more competitive financing, which will lead to a lower cost of capital and better financing terms for Space Florida and the industry it supports.²⁴

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 331.302, 331.303, 331.305, 331.331, 331.335, 331.340, and 331.346.

The bill repeals the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 331.334, 331.336, and 331.337.

IX. Additional Information:

- A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS/CS by Appropriations on March 3, 2020:

The committee substitute adds environmental mitigation as an included cost that can be paid for as part of the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, repair, improvement, or maintenance of any project or combination of projects for which bonds are issued.

CS by Military and Veterans Affairs and Space on January 21, 2020:

The committee substitute provides for a litany of terms and conditions that the board may require for the bonds and includes: "the purpose or purposes for which the moneys derived therefrom shall be expanded." As the term "expanded" does not make sense, the more appropriate term "expended" is substituted and the board may designate how the proceeds of the bonds must be spent.

- B. Amendments:

None.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/CS/SB 1094 expands the scope of practice of professional pharmacists to include:

- Ordering and evaluating any laboratory or clinical testing;
- Conducting patient assessments;
- Modifying, discontinuing, or administering medicinal drugs pursuant to section 465.0125, Florida Statutes, by a consultant pharmacist; and
- Conducting “other pharmaceutical services,” which includes reviewing and making recommendations regarding the patient’s drug therapy and health care status to a patient’s prescribing physician, podiatrist, or dentist regarding the patient’s drug therapy and health care status, and initiating, modifying, or discontinuing drug therapy for a chronic health condition under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement.

The bill authorizes a consultant pharmacist to enter into a written collaborative practice agreement (CPA) with a health care facility medical director, or Florida-licensed physician, podiatrist, or dentist, who is authorized to prescribe medication. The bill also expands the locations where, under a CPA, a consultant pharmacist may offer his or her services, to include:

- Ambulatory surgical center;
- Inpatient hospice;
- Hospital;
- Alcohol or chemical dependency treatment center;
- Ambulatory care center; or

- Nursing home or nursing home within a continuing care facility.

A consultant pharmacist may only provide services to the patients of the health care practitioner with whom the consultant pharmacist has a written collaborative practice agreement. The bill requires both the consultant pharmacist and health care practitioner to maintain a copy of the collaborative agreement and make it available upon request or during an inspection. The bill also requires the consultant pharmacist to maintain all drug, patient care, and quality assurance records.

The bill adds provisions for pharmacists who are certified by the Board of Medicine to provide chronic health condition services under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement:

- Requiring the terms and conditions of the agreement be appropriate to the training of the pharmacist and the scope of practice of the physician;
- Requiring notification to the Board of Pharmacy (Board) upon practicing under the agreement;
- Requiring maintenance of patient records for a certain timeframe;
- Prohibiting certain actions relating to the agreement;
- Requiring specific continuing education for a pharmacist practicing under the agreement; and
- Requiring the Board of Medicine in consultation with the Board of Osteopathic Medicine and the Board to adopt rules.

The bill requires a licensed pharmacist, authorized under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement, to report any diagnoses or suspicions of the existence of a disease of public health significance immediately to the Department of Health (department).

The bill has an insignificant fiscal impact on the department that can be absorbed within existing resources.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2020.

Consultant Pharmacists

A consultant pharmacist is a pharmacist who provides expert advice on the use of medications to individuals and older adults.¹⁶ To be licensed as a consultant pharmacist, an applicant must:¹⁷

- Hold a license as a pharmacist that is active and in good standing;
- Successfully complete an approved consultant pharmacist course of at least 12 hours;¹⁸ and

Education and Training Requirements for Consultant Pharmacists

In addition to the training and education received as a part of a degree program in pharmacy, a consultant pharmacist is required to complete a consultant pharmacy course and a period of assessment and evaluation under the supervision of a preceptor. The Board has general rulemaking authority to adopt rules to implement the pharmacy practice act and specific authority to adopt rules related to the licensure of consultant pharmacists.¹⁹ The Board does not have specific authority to adopt rules related to the educational requirements for consultant pharmacists. Regardless, the Board has, by rule, established the minimum educational and training requirements for licensure as a consultant pharmacist.²⁰

The Board has specified the topics on which a consultant pharmacist may be trained in order to qualify for the designation. The consultant pharmacy course must provide at least 12 hours of education in the following areas:²¹

- Laws and rules including state and federal laws and regulations pertaining to health care facilities, institutional pharmacy, safe and controlled storage of alcohol and other related substances, and fire and health-hazard control;
- Policies and procedures outlining the medication system in effect and record-keeping for controlled substance control and record of usage, medication use evaluation, medication errors, statistical reports, etc.;
- Fiscal controls;
- Personnel management, including intra-professional relations pertaining to medication use and inter-professional relations with other members of the institutional health care team to develop formularies, review medication use and prescribing, and the provision of in-service training of other members of the institutional health care team;
- Professional responsibilities, including:
 - Drug information retrieval and methods of dispersal;
 - Development of pharmacy practice;

Scope of Practice

The scope of practice for a consultant pharmacist is broader than that of a pharmacist. A consultant pharmacist may order and evaluate laboratory testing in addition to the services provided by a pharmacist. For example, a consultant pharmacist can order and evaluate clinical and laboratory testing for a patient residing in a nursing home upon authorization by the medical director of the nursing home.²⁶ Additionally, a consultant pharmacist may order and evaluate clinical and laboratory testing for individuals under the care of a licensed home health agency, if authorized by a licensed physician, podiatrist, or dentist.²⁷

Pharmacist Collaborative Practice Agreements

A collaborative practice agreement (CPA) is a formal agreement in which a licensed practitioner makes a diagnosis, supervises patient care, and refers patients to a pharmacist under a protocol that allows the pharmacist to perform specific patient care functions.²⁸ A CPA specifies what functions beyond the pharmacist's typical scope of practice can be delegated to the pharmacist by the collaborating health care practitioner.²⁹ Common tasks include initiating, modifying, or discontinuing medication therapy and ordering and evaluating tests.³⁰

As of May 2016, 48 states, including Florida, permit some type of collaborative practice between a pharmacist and a prescriber.³¹ However, the laws and regulations of these states vary in areas such as the functions that may be authorized, the requirements for collaborative agreements, and the qualifications for participants.³²

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill amends s. 465.003, F.S., to expand the scope of the, "practice of the profession of pharmacy," to include:

- Ordering and evaluating any laboratory or clinical testing;
- Conducting patient assessments;
- Modifying, discontinuing, or administering medicinal drugs pursuant to s. 465.0125, F.S. by a consultant pharmacist; and
- Conducting "other pharmaceutical services," which includes reviewing and making recommendations regarding the patient's drug therapy and health care status with the patient's prescribing physician, podiatrist, or dentist regarding the patient's drug therapy and health care status, and initiating, modifying, or discontinuing drug therapy for a chronic health condition under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement.

²⁷ Section 465.0125(2), F.S. To qualify to order and evaluate such testing, the consultant pharmacist or doctor of pharmacy must complete 3 hours of board-approved training, related to laboratory and clinical testing.

The bill amends s. 465.0125, F.S., authorizing a consultant pharmacist to enter into a written CPA with a health care facility medical director, or a Florida-licensed allopathic physician, osteopathic physician, podiatric physician, or dentist, who is authorized to prescribe medication, to provide medication management services, which may include:

- Order and evaluate any laboratory or clinical tests to promote and evaluate patient health and wellness, and monitor drug therapy and treatment outcomes;
- Conduct patient assessments as appropriate to evaluate and monitor drug therapy;
- Modify, or discontinue medicinal drugs as outlined in the agreed upon patient-specific order or preapproved treatment protocol under the direction of a physician; and
- Administer medicinal drugs.

The bill defines a health care facility to expand the locations in which a consultant pharmacist services may be offered, to include:

- Ambulatory surgical center;
- Alcohol or chemical dependency treatment center;
- Inpatient hospice;
- Hospital;
- Ambulatory care center; or
- Nursing home or nursing home within a continuing care facility.

The bill prohibits a consultant pharmacist from modifying or discontinuing a medication if the consultant pharmacist does not have a written collaborative practice agreement with the consultant pharmacist; and clarifies that a consultant pharmacist is not authorized to diagnose any disease or condition.

The consultant pharmacist must maintain all drug, patient care and quality assurance records as required by current law; and, with the collaborating practitioner, must maintain written collaborative practice agreements that must be available upon request or during any department inspection.

The Board previously established, by rule, the additional training required for licensure as a consultant pharmacist under its general rulemaking authority.³³ The bill gives the Board express authority to establish additional education requirements for licensure as a consultant pharmacist.

The bill amends s. 381.0031, F.S., to require any licensed pharmacist authorized under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement to perform or order and evaluate laboratory and clinical tests, to report immediately to the department any diagnoses or suspicions of a significant disease of public health.

The bill creates s. 465.1865, F.S., establishing a collaborative pharmacy practice for chronic health conditions authorizing provisions for pharmacists who are certified by the Board of ³³ Supra note 21.

Medicine to provide chronic health condition services under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement. The chronic health conditions include the following:

- Arthritis;
- Asthma;
- Chronic obstructive pulmonary diseases;
- Type 2 diabetes;
- Human immunodeficiency virus or acquired immune deficiency syndrome; or
- Obesity.

To provide services under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement, a pharmacist must be certified according to the following rules of the Board of Medicine that he or she:

- Holds an active and unencumbered license to practice pharmacy in the state;
- Has earned a degree of doctor of pharmacy or has completed five years of experience as a licensed pharmacist;
- Has completed an initial 20-hour course approved by the Board of Medicine in consultation with the Board of Osteopathic Medicine and the Board of Pharmacy which includes, at a minimum, instruction on all of the following:
 - Performance of patient assessments;
 - Ordering, performing, and interpreting clinical and laboratory tests related to collaborative pharmacy practice;
 - Evaluating and managing diseases and health conditions in collaboration with other health care practitioners; and
 - Any other area required by Board of Medicine rule, adopted in consultation with the Board of Osteopathic Medicine and the Board of Pharmacy.
- Maintains at least $250,000 of professional liability insurance coverage; and
- Has established a system to maintain records of all patients receiving services under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement for a period of five years.

The terms and conditions of the collaborative pharmacy practice agreement must be appropriate to the pharmacist's education and training and the services delegated to the pharmacist must be within the collaborating physician's scope of practice. A copy of the pharmacist certification, as required according to the rules of the Board of Medicine, must be included as an attachment to the collaborative pharmacy practice agreement:

- A collaborative pharmacy practice agreement must include the following:
 - Name of the collaborating physician's patient or patients for whom a pharmacist may provide services;
 - Each chronic health condition to be collaboratively managed;
 - Specific medicinal drug or drugs to be managed by the pharmacist;
 - Circumstances under which the pharmacist may order or perform and evaluate laboratory or clinical tests;
 - Conditions and events upon which the pharmacist must notify the collaborating physician and the manner and timeframe in which such notification must occur;
 - Beginning and ending dates for the collaborative pharmacy practice agreement and termination procedures; and
 - A statement that the collaborative pharmacy practice agreement may be terminated, in writing, by either party at any time.

A collaborative pharmacy practice agreement must be renewed at least every two years. The pharmacist, along with the collaborating physician, must maintain on file the collaborative pharmacy practice agreement at his or her practice location and must make such agreements available upon request or inspection. A pharmacist who enters into a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement must submit a copy of the signed agreement to the Board before the agreement may be implemented.

A pharmacist may not:

- Modify or discontinue medicinal drugs prescribed by a health care practitioner with whom her or she does not have a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement; or
- Enter into a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement while acting as an employee without the written approval of the owner of the pharmacy.

A physician may not delegate to a pharmacist the authority to initiate or prescribe a controlled substance as described in s. 893.03 or 21 U.S.C. s. 812, F.S.

In addition to the continuing education requirements under s. 465.009, a pharmacist who practices under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement must, for each biennial licensure renewal, complete an eight hour continuing education course approved by the Board of Medicine in consultation with the Board of Osteopathic Medicine and the Board of Pharmacy which addresses issues related to the chronic conditions to be collaboratively managed. The pharmacist must submit confirmation of having completed the continuing education course when applying for licensure renewal. A pharmacist who fails to comply with these requirements is prohibited from practicing under a collaborative pharmacy practice agreement under this section.

The Board of Medicine in consultation with the Board of Osteopathic Medicine and the Board of Pharmacy must adopt rules pursuant to ss. 120.536(1) and 120.54 to implement the collaborative pharmacy practice for chronic health conditions.

 - Requiring the DOE and school districts to create an annual and five-year model calendar of state-mandated PD.
 - Requiring the DOE to maintain a statewide registry of approved professional development providers.
 - Creating the Professional Development Choice Pilot Program, subject to appropriation, to allow a teacher to receive a grant of up to $500 for PD aligned to standards.
 - Creating the Professional Education Excellence Resources (PEER) Pilot Program in Clay, Palm Beach, Pinellas, and Walton counties to allow a teacher extended time for PD, teacher collaboration, and teacher leadership opportunities. This program shall be implemented to the extent specifically funded and authorized by law.
- Modifies the eligibility requirements of the Family Empowerment Scholarship (FES) and the Florida Tax Credit (FTC) scholarship, and maximum annual growth in student participation for the FES, by:
 - Expanding FES eligibility to a student who received an FTC scholarship in the prior year and was in a public school the year prior to initial receipt of the FTC scholarship.
 - Aligning FES and FTC scholarship eligibility by allowing an FES student to participate in up to two courses from a virtual school, correspondence school, or distance learning program that receives state funding; and by providing that the FES is not subject to the maximum of one FTE for funding.
 - Providing that a student eligible for an FTC scholarship remains eligible to participate until the student graduates from high school or attains the age of 21 years, whichever occurs first, regardless of the student's income level.
 - Modifying the maximum annual growth in student participation in the FES to 1.0 percent of the state public school enrollment (rather than 0.25 percent) starting in the 2020-2021 school year.
- Modifies the charter school application process and enrollment limitations by:
 - Requiring a sponsor to receive and consider a charter school application submitted at any time during the calendar year.
 - Modifying enrollment limitations to prioritize a developer and charitable foundation that perform specified actions.
- Requires school districts to provide for the administration of the SAT or ACT to all students in grade 11, beginning in the 2020-2021 school year; with funding as provided in the General Appropriations Act (GAA).
- Establishes a series of school district Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) student bonuses for completion of general education core courses with a grade of "B" or higher through dual enrollment, and completion of an associate degree through dual enrollment.
- Requires the Commissioner to submit a report by December 1, 2020, meeting specified requirements, to determine the feasibility of implementing a Pathways in Technology Early College High School (P-TECH), or similar program, in Florida.

The Department of Education may experience decreased revenue from the loss of subject area examination fees and may incur costs related to developing model professional development calendars and a statewide registry of approved professional development providers and activities.

Revising the increase for maximum student participation in the FES from 0.25 percent (roughly 7,000 students) to 1.0 percent (roughly 28,000 students) annually may increase the FTE and state funding for the FEFP. In addition, expanding the Florida Empowerment Scholarship (FES) eligibility by including FTC students who were public school students before they took an FTC scholarship may increase FTE and state funding needed for the FEFP. In addition, exempting the FES scholarship amount from the 1.0 FTE requirement also has the potential to increase the FTE and funding needed for the FEFP.

Beginning in the 2021-2022 fiscal year, the bill may reallocate funds within the Florida Education Finance Program (FEFP) to those school districts with relatively more students successfully completing dual enrollment coursework; however, no appropriation is required.

See Section V.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2020, unless otherwise specified.

II. Present Situation:

The present situation for the relevant portions of the bill is discussed under the Effect of Proposed Changes of this bill analysis.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Educator Preparation Programs

Present Situation

Public and private universities and colleges throughout the state offer Initial Teacher Preparation (ITP) Programs. Many of the Florida colleges and universities have state-approved Educator Preparation Institutes (EPIs) through which they deliver alternative certification programs for baccalaureate degree holders. In addition, the majority of Florida public school districts offer Professional Development Certification Programs.

Initial Teacher Preparation Programs

ITP programs prepare candidates to demonstrate mastery of subject area knowledge in one or more specific subject areas, mastery of general knowledge, and mastery of professional preparation and education competence. There are currently 53 state-approved¹ ITP programs at Florida College System institutions, state universities, and independent colleges and universities,

¹ Section 1004.04, F.S., and Rule 6A-5.066(2), F.A.C., detail criteria for state approval of ITP programs.

which typically culminate in a bachelor's or master's degree.² ITP program completers are eligible for a Florida Professional Educator's Certification upon program completion.³

In order to be admitted into an ITP program, a student must, at a minimum:⁴

- Have a grade point average of at least 2.5 on a 4.0 scale for the general education component of undergraduate studies or have completed the requirements for a baccalaureate degree with a minimum grade point average of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale from an approved college or university.⁵
- Demonstrate mastery of general knowledge sufficient for entry into the program, including the ability to read, write, and perform in mathematics, by passing the General Knowledge Test of the Florida Teacher Certification Examination or, for a graduate level program, obtain a baccalaureate degree from an approved institution.⁶

Each ITP program may waive these admissions requirements for up to 10 percent of the students admitted, subject to requirements related to student success and state-level reporting.⁷

The State Board of Education (SBE) must adopt rules to establish uniform core curricula for each state-approved teacher preparation program.⁸ These rules must include, at a minimum, the following:⁹

- The Florida Educator Accomplished Practices.¹⁰
- The use of state-adopted content standards to guide curricula and instruction.
- Scientifically researched and evidence-based reading instructional strategies that improve reading performance for all students, including explicit, systematic, and sequential approaches to teaching phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and text comprehension and multisensory intervention strategies.
- Content literacy and mathematics practices.
- Strategies appropriate for the instruction of English language learners.
- Strategies appropriate for the instruction of students with disabilities.
- Strategies to differentiate instruction based on student needs.
- The use of character-based classroom management.

Continued approval of a teacher preparation program is based upon evidence that the program continues to implement the requirements for initial approval and upon significant, objective, and quantifiable measures of the program and the performance of the program completers.¹¹

The criteria for continued approval must include evidence that the program candidate has met admission and core curricula requirements, evidence of performance in specified outcome measures, and:¹²

- Results of the program completers' survey measuring their satisfaction with preparation for the realities of the classroom.
- Results of the employers' survey measuring satisfaction with the program and the program's responsiveness to local school districts.

Educator Preparation Institutes

EPIs are offered by approved postsecondary institutions¹³ or qualified private providers to provide instruction for baccalaureate or higher degree holders who did not earn an education-related degree, resulting in qualification for a temporary teaching certificate.¹⁴ DOE approval of a certification program requires the institute to provide evidence of the institute's capacity to implement a competency-based program that includes:¹⁵

- The core curricula areas that are required for ITP programs.
- An educational plan for each participant to meet certification requirements and demonstrate his or her ability to teach the subject area for which the participant is seeking certification.
- Field experiences in specified settings appropriate to the certification subject area specified in the educational plan.

Each EPI must submit to the DOE annual performance evaluations that measure the effectiveness of the programs, including the pass rates of participants on all examinations required for teacher certification, employment rates, longitudinal retention rates, and satisfaction surveys of employers and candidates. The satisfaction surveys must be designed to measure the sufficient preparation of the educator for the realities of the classroom and the institute's responsiveness to local school districts.¹⁶

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill modifies s. 1004.04, F.S., relating to prerequisites for admission to, and uniform core curricula of, each state-approved teacher preparation program. The bill:

- Changes the admission requirements to an ITP program to specify that the grade point average and General Knowledge Test requirements are not required for admission, but instead are required to be completed during the student's time in the program. Accordingly, the bill removes provisions relating to waivers of admission requirements that are not necessary under the bill modifications.

¹⁵ Section 1004.85(3), F.S.

¹⁶ Section 1004.085(5), F.S.

- Modifies the requirement for SBE rules establishing uniform core curricula to require:
 - Reading instructional strategies be evidence based, and removes the requirement that such strategies be scientifically researched.
 - A new provision for mental health strategies and support.

Such changes may enable students who have not met the GPA or general knowledge requirement to be admitted into a program and meet the requirement while in the program. Completion of the General Knowledge Test has been a barrier to student admittance to ITP programs, and such changes may enable more students to be admitted into ITP programs and increase the supply of available teachers.

In addition, changes to the uniform core curricula are consistent with the current designation of reading strategies¹⁷ and with the recent emphasis on school-based mental health supports for students and families.¹⁸

The bill modifies sections 1004.04, F.S., relating to ITP program initial state program approval, and 1004.85, F.S., relating to postsecondary EPIs, to require each program to include:

- The opportunity for the candidate to complete coursework toward obtaining an endorsement¹⁹ in the candidate's chosen teaching field.
- In addition to the core standards for effective education, instruction in the training required of certified instructional personnel, including, but not limited to:
 - Identification, intervention, and prevention of child abuse, abandonment, and neglect.
 - Integration of technology into classroom teaching.
 - Management, assessment, and monitoring of student learning and performance.
 - Skills in classroom management, violence prevention, conflict resolution, and related areas.
 - Developmental disabilities.
 - Youth suicide awareness and prevention.
 - Youth mental health awareness and assistance.

¹⁷ See s. 1001.215, F.S., and Rule 6A-6.053, F.A.C.

¹⁹ Educators who hold a currently valid Florida Temporary or Professional Certificate may be eligible to add another subject coverage or endorsement. An endorsement is a rider on a Florida certificate with a full subject coverage and denotes a particular expertise in an instructional level or methodology. To earn an endorsement, an educator must complete the course requirements listed in State Board Rule for the endorsement, or complete a Florida school district's approved inservice add-on program for the endorsement. Florida Department of Education, Certificate Additions, <http://www.fldoe.org/teaching/certification/additions/> (last visited Jan. 21, 2020). Endorsements include, but are not limited to, American Sign Language, English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL), Gifted, Reading, and Severe or Profound Disabilities. Florida Department of Education, Adding an Endorsement to a Professional Certificate, <http://www.fldoe.org/teaching/certification/additions/adding-an-endorsement.stml> (last visited Jan. 21, 2020).

The bill also specifies that the survey required as a part of continued ITP program approval must include the employer's assessment of the student's proficiency in the use of state-adopted content standards and general preparation for the classroom. The survey required of the EPI performance evaluation satisfaction must measure student's proficiency in the use of state-adopted content standards.

The changes to ITP programs may help graduates be better prepared as instructional personnel and for the classroom.

Educator Certification Requirements

Present Situation

The Legislature has established certification requirements to assure that educational personnel in public schools possess appropriate skills in reading, writing, and mathematics; adequate pedagogical knowledge; and relevant subject matter competence so as to demonstrate an acceptable level of professional performance.²⁰

Types of Educator Certificates

In order to seek educator certification, a person must meet general eligibility requirements, which include receipt of a bachelor's or higher degree from an approved postsecondary institution.²¹ Individuals must also demonstrate mastery of general knowledge, if the person serves as a classroom teacher; mastery of subject area knowledge; and mastery of professional preparation and education competence.²²

The DOE issues two primary educator certificates:²³

- A professional certificate is the highest type of full-time certificate issued. The professional certificate is a 5-year renewable certificate.²⁴
- A temporary certificate is a 3-year nonrenewable certificate issued to an applicant who has met general eligibility criteria, but has not yet demonstrated mastery of general knowledge or professional preparation and education competence.²⁵

Mastery of General Knowledge

In order to seek professional certification as a classroom teacher,²⁶ a person must, among other requirements, demonstrate mastery of general knowledge.²⁷ Florida law provides options for a teacher to demonstrate mastery of general knowledge.²⁸ Such options include achieving passing scores on all sections of the general knowledge examination required by SBE rule,²⁹ holding a specified teaching certificate from another state, completing specified postsecondary teaching experience, or achieving passing scores on the Graduate Record Examination.

The General Knowledge Test is a component of the Florida Teacher Certification Examination³⁰ and includes subtests in English language skills, reading, writing, mathematics.³¹ In 2018, there were 87,457 first-time and retake attempts, with a pass rate of 52 percent.³² Among examinees in a state-approved teacher preparation program, there were 11,924 first-time and retake attempts, with a pass rate of 60 percent.³³

Mastery of Subject Area Knowledge

Acceptable means of demonstrating mastery of subject area knowledge are:³⁴

- For bachelor's degree level subjects:³⁵ achievement of a passing score on the appropriate subject area examination³⁶ earned no more than 10 years prior to the date of application.³⁷
- For master's degree level subjects:³⁸ completion of the required degree and content courses for the subject and achievement of a passing score on the appropriate Florida subject area examination earned no more than 10 years prior to the date of application.
- For all subject areas: hold a valid standard certificate in the subject area applied for from a state or territory, or hold a specified valid national certificate in the subject area.
- For select world languages: passage of a specified foreign language proficiency examination.

²⁹ In 2014, the general knowledge test was redeveloped to match the increased rigor of competencies and skills required for teacher certification. The SBE also approved new higher passing scores for the examination. These new passing scores for all subtests of the General Knowledge Test became effective January 1, 2015. Certificate Renewal

All professional certificates, except a nonrenewable professional certificate, must be renewed every five years.³⁹ In order to qualify for renewal, the applicant must earn at least six college credits⁴⁰ or 120 inservice (professional development) points⁴¹ during the 5-year cycle.⁴² For each area of specialization to be retained on a certificate, the applicant must earn at least three of the required credit hours or equivalent inservice points in the specialization area.⁴³

Instructional personnel are required to undergo training related to teaching students with developmental disabilities⁴⁴ and training in youth mental health awareness and assistance.⁴⁵ In order to renew a professional certificate, other appropriate training topics include:⁴⁶

- Youth suicide awareness and prevention.⁴⁷
- Content or methods specific to the subject area.
- Methods of teaching reading and literacy skills acquisition.
- Computer literacy, computer applications, or computer education.
- ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages).
- Drug abuse, child abuse and neglect, or student dropout prevention.
- Classroom strategies.

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill modifies s. 1012.56, F.S., to add another acceptable method of demonstrating mastery of subject area knowledge. The bill authorizes that a person seeking an educator certificate in a subject requiring only a baccalaureate degree may demonstrate subject area knowledge with a baccalaureate degree with a major in the subject area, conferred within the last 10 years from an accredited or approved institution as defined in SBE rule.⁴⁸ The provision of an additional option to demonstrate mastery of subject area competence may allow more candidates for educator certification to meet the requirements. In 2018, there were 63,774 first time and retake subject area exams attempted,⁴⁹ but it is not clear how many such attempts were by individuals who could otherwise qualify with a specified bachelor's degree under the additional option authorized in the bill.

The bill modifies s. 1012.585, F.S., relating to the renewal of a professional certificate, to specify that a teacher may earn inservice points only once during each 5-year validity period for any mandatory training topic that is not linked to student learning or professional growth. Teachers and school districts may have to modify professional development programs in order for teachers to meet certificate renewal requirements.

The bill also modifies s. 1012.586, F.S., to provide a conforming cross-reference relating to completion of a subject area examination for addition of subject coverage or an endorsement to an educator certificate.

Education Practices Commission

Present Situation

Educator misconduct occurs in various forms and ranges in severity from allegations of direct harm to students (such as physical or sexual abuse) to an act detrimental to the education profession (such as falsifying documentation of continuing education courses or cheating on a professional exam).⁵⁰

The SBE has adopted standards for educator conduct, referred to as the Principles of Professional Conduct for the Education Profession.⁵¹ The Education Practices Commission (EPC or commission) interprets and applies the principles.⁵² If the Commissioner of Education (commissioner) determines the educator's conduct warrants disciplinary action, the EPC determines what penalty to issue against an educator's certificate. Penalties that can be issued against an educator's certificate include a letter of reprimand, fines, probation, suspension or revocation.⁵³

The EPC is composed of 25 members specified in law, who are appointed by the SBE based on nominations by the commissioner.⁵⁴ From among the commission members, the EPC elects a chair who presides over meetings and performs other duties as directed by the EPC or rules.⁵⁵ The EPC, by a vote of three-fourths of the membership, employs an executive director, who may be dismissed by a majority vote of the membership.⁵⁶

⁵⁰ Florida Department of Education, What is Educator Misconduct?, <http://www.fldoe.org/teaching/professional-practices/what-is-educator-misconducta.shtml> (last visited Jan 14, 2020). Section 1012.795, F.S., specifies the offenses for which the EPC may suspend or revoke an educator certificate.

⁵⁶ Section 1012.79(5), F.S.

The EPC is assigned to the DOE only for administrative purposes, and is not subject to control, supervision, or direction by the DOE.⁵⁷

The EPC is financed from educator certification fees; fines, penalties, and costs collected pursuant to law;⁵⁸ and general revenue.⁵⁹ The EPC may make expenditures as necessary in exercising its authority and powers and carrying out its duties and responsibilities, including expenditures for personal services, general counsel or access to counsel, and rent at the seat of government and elsewhere; for books of reference, periodicals, furniture, equipment, and supplies; and for printing and binding.⁶⁰

The bill amends s. 1012.79, F.S., to revise the selection and duties of the executive director of the EPC and to modify EPC accountability and allowable expenditures, which may increase collaboration between the DOE and the EPC, and may strengthen financial accountability of the EPC. Specifically, the bill:

- Removes from the EPC the authority to select and remove an executive director, and authorizes the commissioner, with the advice and consent of the EPC chair, to appoint and remove an executive director.
- Specifies that the executive director has administrative duties, as specified by the commissioner, and may not impact or influence decisions of the EPC.
- Specifies that the EPC is assigned to the DOE for not only administrative purposes, but also for fiscal accountability purposes.
- Removes the authorization for the EPC to make expenditures for a general counsel or access to counsel, and authorizes expenditures for legal services.

Professional Development

Present Situation

The purpose of professional development (PD) is to increase student achievement, enhance classroom instructional strategies that promote rigor and relevance throughout the curriculum, and prepare students for continuing education and the workforce.⁶¹

Professional Development System

Florida law requires the DOE, public postsecondary education institutions public school districts, state education foundations, consortia, and professional organizations to work collaboratively to establish a coordinated system of PD.⁶² The PD system must align to the standards adopted by ⁵⁷ Section 1012.79(6)(a), F.S.

⁵⁹ Section 1012.79(10), F.S.

Section 1012.985(1), F.S.

the state and support the framework for standards adopted by the National Staff Development Council.⁶³ The PD system must:⁶⁴

- Support and increase the success of educators through collaboratively developed school improvement plans.
- Assist the school community in providing stimulating, scientific research-based educational activities that encourage and motivate students to achieve at the highest levels, and that prepare students for success at subsequent educational levels and the workforce.
- Provide continuous support for all education professionals as well as temporary intervention for education professionals who need improvement in knowledge, skills, and performance.
- Provide training to teacher mentors as part of professional development certification and education competency programs.

Master Inservice Plans

District PD systems must include a master inservice plan (MIP) that identifies the educational training programs, called components of professional learning, that may generate inservice points toward recertification or add-on certification.⁶⁵ The MIP is also called the professional learning catalog.⁶⁶ Each district catalog must be updated annually by September 1, must be based on input from teachers and district and school instructional leaders, and must use the latest available student achievement data and research to enhance rigor and relevance in the classroom.⁶⁷

As a part of the MIPs, district school boards may develop add-on alternative teacher preparation programs to enable certified teachers to add an additional coverage to their certificates without having to take college courses. The program must be approved by the DOE.⁶⁸

In addition, MIPs may include Professional Education Competency (PEC) programs to assist teachers with a temporary certificate in demonstrating professional preparation and education competence required for a professional certificate. Such PEC programs may be offered through school districts or private organizations. Each PEC program must be based on classroom application of the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices⁶⁹ and instructional performance and, for public schools, must be aligned with the district or state teacher evaluation system.⁷⁰

Individual Professional Development Plans

Each school principal may establish an individual professional development plan (IPDP) for each instructional employee as a seamless component to the school improvement plan. An IPDP must be related to specific student performance data, define the inservice objectives and specific measurable improvements expected in student performance as a result of the inservice activity, and include an evaluation component that determines the effectiveness of the PD plan.⁷¹

DOE Responsibilities for Professional Development

In addition to approving school district PD systems,⁷² the DOE is required to disseminate:

- Research-based professional development methods and programs that have demonstrated success in meeting identified student needs, including a database of exemplary professional development activities, a listing of available professional development resources, training programs, and available assistance.⁷³
- Research-based best practice methods by which the state and district school boards may evaluate and improve the professional development system. The best practices must include data that indicate the progress of all students.⁷⁴
- PD in the use of integrated digital instruction at schools that include middle grades. The professional development must provide training and materials that districts can use to provide instructional personnel with the necessary knowledge, skills, and strategies to effectively blend digital instruction into subject-matter curricula.⁷⁵

Mentor Teacher Programs

Alongside ensuring the most effective teachers are eligible for teacher leadership roles, one important component of PD at the state level is to build both monetary and non-monetary incentives and supports into teacher leadership policies. Incentives (such as additional compensation) and supports (such as reduced course loads) can help ensure that teacher leadership roles are both attractive and sustainable.⁷⁶

In Florida, the DOE is required to create guidelines and identify best practices for the mentors of first-time teachers and for new teacher-support programs.⁷⁷ The DOE is required to disseminate to the school community proven model PD programs that have demonstrated success in increasing rigorous and relevant content, increasing student achievement and engagement, meeting identified student needs, and providing effective mentorship activities to new teachers and training to teacher mentors. The PD programs must include a database of exemplary PD activities, a listing of available PD resources, training programs, and available technical assistance.⁷⁸

Professional Development Funding

The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) of 2015⁷⁹ provides grants to state educational agencies and subgrants to local educational agencies to increase student achievement and improve the quality of teachers and school leaders.⁸⁰ Allowable expenses include teacher and school leader training, induction and mentoring, PD, and retention.⁸¹

For 2019-2020, school districts received $97,203,418 in ESSA funds.⁸² Amounts per district ranged from $4,389 for the FAMU Developmental Research School and $9,087 for Liberty County to $8,954,195 for Broward County and $12,911,792 for Miami-Dade County.⁸³

Current state funding⁸⁴ for administrator and teacher professional development includes:

- $7,000,000 for administrator professional development provided by regional professional development academies.⁸⁵
- $10,000,000 for computer science certification and teacher bonuses.⁸⁶
- $5,500,000 for mental health awareness and assistance training.⁸⁷
- A percentage of the Florida Education Finance Program base student allocation per full-time equivalent student or other funds must be expended for educational training programs, as determined by the district school board.⁸⁸

Each district school board is required to fund its PD system, and must direct expenditures from other funding sources to continuously strengthen the system in order to increase student achievement and support instructional staff in enhancing rigor and relevance in the classroom.⁸⁹

Issues in Professional Development

Providing teachers with data-driven feedback, aligned professional development and opportunities for advancement may help limit attrition, contribute to more effective teaching and improve student learning. However, national research shows that much of the professional development teachers currently receive does not improve either teacher or student performance. A 2016 national survey found that even though district and school leaders are committed to professional learning, teachers lack decision-making authority over their own professional development and are not receiving adequate time for job-embedded professional development.⁹⁰ In a recent PD redesign study, the University of Florida Lastinger Center found that:⁹¹

- Sixty-four percent of Florida teachers reported having little to no influence in determining the content of their in-service professional development programs.
- Teachers describe a serious disconnect between professional learning experiences and the real work of teachers.
- Only 26 percent of Florida teachers strongly agreed that their training helps them to do a better job.
- School districts spend as much as five percent of their budget on professional development and teachers may spend more than 70 hours a year participating in it, yet professional learning opportunities often receive low teacher ratings because of poor design and execution.

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill modifies the requirements for school district professional development in s. 1012.98, F.S.

Professional Development Funds

The bill requires each district school board to calculate a proportionate share of professional development funds for each classroom teacher and allow each classroom teacher to use up to 25 percent of the proportionate share on professional development that addresses the academic needs of students or an identified area of professional growth for the classroom teacher. The DOE must identify professional development opportunities that require the classroom teacher to demonstrate proficiency in a specific classroom practice.

Professional Development Calendar

The bill requires the DOE, by August 1, 2020, to develop a model annual and 5-year calendar that incorporates all state-required professional development. In addition, the bill requires each school district, no later than January 1, 2021, to develop an annual and a 5-year calendar of professional development for inclusion in the professional development system approved by the DOE.

Teacher Choice in Professional Development

The bill requires the DOE to develop and maintain a statewide registry of approved PD providers and PD activities. The bill specifies that any PD provider seeking to be added to the registry must complete an application, which must describe the PD activities and instructor qualifications, require providers maintain specified information about the PD instruction, and ensure compliance with law and PD standards.

The bill stipulates that providers specified in law,⁹² as well as providers approved by authorized entities, are not required to be added to the registry. However, such providers that wish to offer statewide PD opportunities may seek department approval and be added to the registry.

The bill requires the DOE to review applications and inform the provider in writing within 90 days of the approval or denial of the provider. The approval is valid for a period not to exceed five years, after which the provider must reapply. In addition, the bill requires:

- Each school district accept an approved PD activity on the registry toward meeting the requirements for renewal of a professional certificate.
- The DOE to determine the number of inservice hours to be awarded for completion of each specified PD activity.

The bill creates a three-year Professional Development Choice Pilot Program (pilot program) in the DOE, subject to legislative appropriation. The purpose of the pilot program is to provide grants to eligible teachers to select professional learning opportunities that best meet each teacher's individual needs. The bill specifies pilot program requirements for teachers, as follows:

- An eligible teacher may use a pilot program grant for PD approved by a school district or by a DOE-approved provider that is aligned to PD standards and satisfies requirements for renewal of a professional certificate. An eligible teacher must:
 - Hold a professional certificate.
 - Be employed as a classroom teacher, as defined in law, excluding substitute teachers, by a district school board or by a charter school.
 - Apply for a grant in a format determined by the DOE. In addition, the application must require an applicant to describe how the professional development activity relates to and will improve instruction in the classroom.
- Pilot program activities may include, but are not limited to, in-person or online training; travel and registration for conferences or workshops; college credit courses; and district professional development certification and education competency programs.
- Each eligible teacher may receive a once-a-year reimbursement for training, not to exceed $500 per school year. The pilot program grants must be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.

The bill also establishes requirements for each school district and for the DOE, which specifies that:

- Each school district must review a proposed PD activity to determine alignment with district and individual professional development plans and determine the number of inservice credit hours to be awarded, and approve any PD opportunity included on the DOE's registry.

⁹² Providers not required to be registered are the DOE, public postsecondary educational institutions, public school districts, public schools, state education foundations, consortia, and professional organizations. Section 1012.98(1), F.S.

- The DOE must maintain a registry of approved providers and PD activities, and establish, no later than August 1, 2020, a grant application form.

The pilot program appears to be consistent with the President's education budget for the 2020 fiscal year, which proposes eliminating the Supporting Effective Instruction State Grants program⁹³ that provides formula grants to states and local education agencies to increase student achievement, primarily through professional development for teachers and class-size reduction. According to the budget summary, the program is largely duplicative; virtually all other Elementary and Secondary Education Act formula grant funds (e.g., Title I, Title III) may be used for teacher or staff professional development.⁹⁴

The modifications to school district PD systems and the provision of additional resources may improve teacher access to additional high-quality PD opportunities.

Professional Education Excellence Resources (PEER) Pilot Program

The bill creates s. 1012.981, F.S., to establish the Professional Education Excellence Resources (PEER) Pilot Program in the DOE to provide school district flexibility to increase opportunities for professional learning, collaboration with teachers and leaders, and teacher leadership. The program is established only to the extent specifically funded and authorized by law, and participation in the PEER Pilot program is limited to Clay, Palm Beach, Pinellas, and Walton Counties.

The bill specifies that school districts that participate in the PEER Pilot Program may:

- Extend the contract day or the contract year, or both, for participating teachers for PD, collaboration with colleagues, or instructional coaching. The bill requires a district that chooses to extend the contract day or year must, before the start of the 2020-2021 school year, negotiate with the certified collective bargaining unit for instructional personnel a memorandum of understanding to address participation requirements.
- Use program funds to:
 - Compensate teachers who are assigned to an extended school day or school year.
 - Hire additional instructional personnel to provide teachers with additional planning periods or other release time to complete PD, collaborate with colleagues, or perform other appropriate activities.
 - Provide content area specialists to provide support for teachers' individual needs and professional growth.
 - Provide instructional coaches for participating teachers.
 - Provide PD opportunities.

The bill requires participating school districts to collaborate with the DOE, postsecondary educational institutions, regional education consortia, the University of Florida Lastinger Center, or other appropriate organizations to develop high-quality online PD opportunities accessible to instructional personnel statewide.

⁹³ The program was appropriated approximately $2 billion in the 2019 fiscal year.

The bill also authorizes participating school districts to use program funds to establish a master teacher program to provide accomplished teachers the opportunity to innovate and improve classroom practices, facilitate improved PD, and improve instructional quality through collaboration with teachers and leaders. The bill specifies that each master teacher program must include, but is not limited to:

- Providing release time for planning and meeting with teachers and leaders.
- Additional PD opportunities.
- Monetary compensation.

The bill specifies that school districts may select highly effective teachers for the master teacher academy and may determine other selection criteria, such as peer reviews, principal recommendation, candidate interviews, or content expertise.

Each participating school district must collaborate with the department and with the University of Florida Lastinger Center to develop a master teacher academy to support instructional personnel statewide. The master teacher academy must provide recommendations for master teacher programs, create a bank of online PD, and provide instructional coaching for school-based leaders.

The bill establishes reporting requirements for school districts participating in the PEER Pilot Program. Each participant must annually, by August 1, report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the DOE on the performance of the pilot program. Each report must include information about the use of program funds, the impact on student achievement and teacher evaluation, satisfaction survey results, and recommendations for continuation of the pilot program.

Teachers in school districts that establish a PEER program may have additional options for PD and may be provided opportunities to provide support for school district teachers and curricula as a teacher leader, without leaving the classroom.

Private Education Choice

Present Situation

Many states are expanding school choice options to include private schools in addition to public schools. In total, 27 states and the District of Columbia have enacted policies designed to broaden access to a private education. The three primary policies states have adopted that expand private school choices include:⁹⁵

- School vouchers.
- Scholarship tax credits.
- Education savings accounts.

⁹⁵ School vouchers are state-funded scholarships that pay for students to attend private school rather than public school. Scholarship tax credits allow individuals and corporations to allocate a portion of their owed state taxes to private nonprofit scholarship organizations that issue public and private school scholarships to K-12 students. Education Savings Accounts are state-funded grants deposited into special savings accounts from which parents can withdraw funds for certain educational expenses. National Conference of State Legislatures, Private School Choice <http://www.ncsl.org/research/education/private-school-choice635174504.aspx> (last visited Dec. 18, 2019).

Private Education Choice in Florida

A private school in Florida is an individual, association, co-partnership, or corporation, or department, division, or section of such organizations, that designates itself as an educational center that includes kindergarten or a higher grade and is below college level. A private school may be a parochial, religious, denominational, for-profit, or nonprofit school. A home education program is not considered a private school.⁹⁶

Florida offers multiple private education choice scholarship programs for students who meet the eligibility requirements. In order to participate in Florida's state school choice scholarship program, private schools must comply with specified requirements.⁹⁷

Two of Florida's scholarship programs are focused on students from low income families:

- Florida Tax Credit (FTC) Scholarship Program.
- Family Empowerment Scholarship (FES).⁹⁸

Florida Tax Credit Scholarship Program

The FTC Scholarship Program allows for private, voluntary contributions from corporate donors to non-profit scholarship funding organizations (SFOs) that award scholarships to eligible children from low-income families.⁹⁹ State law requires the SFOs to use the contributions received to provide scholarships to eligible students for the cost of private school tuition or transportation to public school in which the student is enrolled that is different from the school to which the student was assigned.

To be eligible for an FTC scholarship a student must meet one or more of the following criteria:

- The student is on the direct certification list or the student's household income level does not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level.
- The student is currently placed, or during the previous state fiscal year was placed, in foster care or in out-of-home care as defined in law.
- The student's household income level is greater than 185 percent of the federal poverty level but does not exceed 260 percent of the federal poverty level.

A student who initially receives a scholarship as a result of being placed in foster care or in out-of-home care remains eligible to participate until the student graduates from high school or attains the age of 21 years, whichever occurs first, regardless of the student's household income level. A student who initially received a scholarship based on income eligibility before the 2019-2020 school year remains eligible to participate until he or she graduates from high school, attains the age of 21 years, or the student's household income level exceeds 260 percent of the federal poverty level, whichever occurs first. A sibling of a student who is participating in the scholarship program is eligible for a scholarship if the student resides in the same household as the sibling.¹⁰⁰

A student is not eligible for a scholarship while he or she is enrolled in a Department of Juvenile Justice program; receiving another state educational scholarship; or enrolled in a home education, private tutoring, virtual, correspondence, distance learning program; or enrolled in the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind.¹⁰¹

During the 2018-19 school year, FTC scholarships in the amount of $644.6 million were awarded to a total of 104,091 students enrolled in 1,825 participating Florida private schools.¹⁰² More than 109,000 FTC scholarships have been awarded for the 2019-2020 school year.¹⁰³

Family Empowerment Scholarship Program

Beginning in the 2019-20 school year, the FES Program provides educational options to eligible children of families with limited financial resources. A student who receives a scholarship remains eligible to participate until the student graduates from high school or attains the age of 21 years, whichever occurs first, regardless of the student's household income level.¹⁰⁴ Similar to the McKay Scholarship, the FES is funded through the Florida Education Finance Program (FEFP). The program is capped at 18,000 students for the 2019-2020 school year and can annually increase by 0.25 percent of the state's total public school student enrollment.¹⁰⁵

To be eligible for an FES, a student must meet the following criteria:¹⁰⁶

- The student is:
 - On the direct certification list pursuant to law or the student's household income level does not exceed 300 percent of the federal poverty level; or
 - Currently placed, or during the previous fiscal year was placed, in foster care or in out-of-home care as defined in law.
- The student is eligible to enroll in kindergarten or has spent the prior school year in attendance at a Florida public school. However, a dependent child of a member of the United States Armed Forces who transfers to a school in this state from out of state or from a foreign country due to a parent's permanent change of station orders or a foster child is exempt from the prior public school attendance requirement.
- The parent has obtained acceptance for admission of the student to a private school that is eligible for the program and the parent has requested a scholarship from the Department of Education at least 60 days before the date of the first scholarship payment.

Priority is given to students whose household income levels do not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level or who are in foster care or out-of-home care. A sibling of a student who is participating in the scholarship program under this subsection is eligible for a scholarship if the student resides in the same household as the sibling.¹⁰⁷

A student is not eligible for an FES while he or she is:¹⁰⁸

- Enrolled in a public school including the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind, College-Prep Boarding Academy, a developmental research school, or a charter school;
- Enrolled in a school operating for the purpose of providing educational services to youth in a Department of Juvenile Justice commitment program;
- Receiving any other educational scholarship pursuant to Florida law;
- Participating in a home education program;
- Participating in a private tutoring program; or
- Participating in a virtual school, correspondence school, or distance learning program that receives state funding pursuant to the student's participation.

As of December 2019, 17,795 FES scholarships were awarded to students for the 2019-2020 school year.¹⁰⁹

FTE Funding Limits in the FEFP

For purposes of the FEFP, all FTE student (course) enrollment is capped for funding at 1.0 FTE per student for the year except FTE reported by DJJ students beyond the 180-day school year. School districts report all FTE enrollment, and the department combines all FTE enrollment reported for the student by all school districts, including Florida Virtual School. The department then recalibrates all reported FTE student enrollment for each student to 1.0 FTE if the total reported FTE exceeds 1.0. This 1.0 FTE funding limit currently applies to the FES but not to the McKay Scholarship.¹¹⁰

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill modifies the eligibility and funding requirements of the FES and the FTC scholarship programs.

Scholarship Eligibility and Alignment

The bill expands scholarship eligibility for the FES to include a student who received an FTC scholarship in the prior year and was in a public school the year prior to initial receipt of the FTC scholarship. The bill also aligns the FES and FTC scholarship eligibility in the following ways:

- Allows an FES scholarship student to participate in no more than two courses from a virtual school, correspondence school, or distance learning program that receives state funding. In addition to the FTC Scholarship Program¹¹¹, the John M. McKay Scholarship for Students with Disabilities Program (McKay scholarship)¹¹² and the Hope Scholarship Program¹¹³ have similar provisions. Allowing FES students to annually take up to two courses from a virtual school, correspondence school, or distance learning program that receives state funding, may provide more flexibility for students to meet their educational goals.

- Modifies the FTC so that a student who receives an FTC scholarship remains eligible to participate until the student graduates from high school or attains the age of 21 years, whichever occurs first, regardless of the student's income level.

Scholarship Funding

The bill specifies that, beginning in the 2020-2021 school year, the maximum number of students participating in the FES must annually increase by 1 percent, rather than 0.25 percent.

The bill also adds a provision that the FES is not subject to the maximum value of one FTE for funding a student, which aligns the FES scholarship to the McKay scholarship, which is also funded through the FEFP.

Florida Standardized Statewide Assessments

Present Situation

Every Student Succeeds Act

The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA)¹¹⁴ is a federal law reauthorizing and substantially revising the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA). The ESSA is the successor to the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB).¹¹⁵ Like its predecessors NCLB and ESEA, the goal of the ESSA is to improve elementary and secondary education in public schools by conditioning the receipt of federal funds on the implementation of federal requirements.

Each state is required to submit a plan that demonstrates that the state educational agency, in consultation with local educational agencies, has implemented a set of high-quality, yearly student academic assessments that include, at a minimum, academic assessments in mathematics, reading or language arts, and science,¹¹⁶ and must:¹¹⁷

- Be the same academic assessments used to measure the achievement of all children.
- Be aligned with a state's challenging academic content and student academic achievement standards, and provide coherent information about student attainment of such standards.

The assessments must be administered annually as follows:¹¹⁸

- Reading or language arts and mathematics must be administered:

Any other subject area assessments are administrated at the state's discretion. Id.

- In each of grades 3 through 8; and
- At least once in grades 9 through 12.
- Science assessments must be administered in each of:
 - Grades 3 through 5;
 - Grades 6 through 9; and
 - Grades 10 through 12.

Exceptions¹¹⁹ to the requirement in the ESSA that state assessments be the same assessments used to measure the achievement of all students include:

- Advanced eighth grade mathematics assessments.¹²⁰
- Alternate assessments aligned with alternate academic standards.¹²¹
- Innovative assessments.¹²²
- Locally selected, nationally recognized high school academic assessments.¹²³

A local education agency is authorized under the ESSA to administer a locally selected assessment in lieu of the statewide, standardized high school ELA, math, or science assessments.¹²⁴ However, any such assessment must:¹²⁵

- Be approved by the state.
- Be nationally recognized.¹²⁶
- Be aligned to the state's academic standards, and address the depth and breadth of such standards.
- Be equivalent in its content coverage, difficulty, and quality to the state assessments.
- Provide comparable, valid, and reliable data on academic achievement, as compared to the state assessment, for all students and for each subgroup of students, with results expressed in terms consistent with the state's academic achievement standards.
- Meet the same technical requirements as the state assessments.
- Provide unbiased, rational, and consistent differentiation between schools within the state in order to meet the requirements of the state accountability system.

In 2019-20, eight states used the SAT to meet ESSA's high school testing requirement in math and English language arts. Eleven states used the ACT as a federal accountability test at the high school level. Five states allowed districts to choose between the two exams.¹²⁷

Florida’s Statewide, Standardized Assessments

Florida’s statewide, standardized assessments measure the extent to which students have mastered the Next Generation Sunshine State Standards.¹²⁸ The requirements for students in Florida are as follows:¹²⁹

| Standards | Assessment | Assessment Schedule |
|--|-----------------------------|--|
| Florida Standards Assessments (FSA) ¹³⁰ | English Language Arts (ELA) | Grades 3 through 10 |
| | Mathematics | Grades 3 through 8 |
| | Algebra I EOC | Upon completion of applicable course identified in the Course Code Directory (CCD) |
| | Geometry EOC | |
| Next Generation Sunshine State Standards | Science | Grades 5 and 8 |
| | Biology I EOC | Upon completion of applicable course identified in the CCD |
| | Civics EOC | |
| | U.S. History EOC | |

Effect of Proposed Changes

Beginning in the 2020-2021 school year, the bill requires each school district to provide for the administration of either the SAT or ACT for each public school student in grade 11 in the district, including students attending public high schools, alternative schools, and centers of the Department of Juvenile Justice. The bill specifies that funding for the provision of the SAT or ACT will be as provided in the General Appropriations Act (GAA).

Incentive Funding for Acceleration Programs

Present Situation

Florida Education Finance Program (FEFP)

The Florida Education Finance Program (FEFP) is the primary mechanism for funding the operating costs of Florida school districts. Under the FEFP, financial support for education is based on the full-time equivalent (FTE) student membership in public schools.¹³¹ The number of FTE students in each of the funded education programs is multiplied by cost factors¹³² relative to each program to obtain weighted FTE student values.¹³³ The base student allocation from state

¹³⁰ Beginning in 2014-15, assessments aligned to the Florida Standards replaced assessments aligned to the Next Generation Sunshine State Standards in mathematics and English language arts (formerly reading and writing). and local funds is determined annually by the Legislature in the GAA and is a component in the calculation of each school district’s base funding.¹³⁴ In addition to the base funding, the Legislature may appropriate categorical funding for specified programs, activities or purposes, such as for mental health assistance, and funding compression.¹³⁵

Dual Enrollment and Collegiate High School Programs

The dual enrollment program is the enrollment of an eligible secondary student or home education student in a postsecondary course creditable toward high school completion and a career certificate or an associate or baccalaureate degree. An eligible secondary student is a student who is enrolled in any of grades 6 through 12 in a Florida public school or in a Florida private school that is in compliance with s. 1002.42(2) and provides a secondary curriculum pursuant to s. 1003.4282.¹³⁶ The following table shows 2018-2019 academic year dual enrollment participation by public and private school and home education program students at Florida College System (FCS) institutions, state universities, and at eligible private colleges and universities.

| | FCS Institutions ¹³⁷ | State Universities ¹³⁸ | Private Colleges and Universities ¹³⁹ |
|----------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--|
| Public School | 73,408 | 9,250 | 6,908 |
| Private School | 2,607 | 688 | |
| Home Education | 3,818 | 113 | |

Collegiate high school programs are intended to provide an option for public school students in grade 11 or grade 12 participating in the program, for at least 1 full school year, to earn CAPE industry certifications and to successfully complete 30 credit hours through the dual enrollment program toward the first year of college for an associate degree or baccalaureate degree while enrolled in the program. Each Florida College System institution is required to work with each district school board in its designated service area to establish one or more collegiate high school programs.¹⁴⁰ In fall 2018, there were 11,146 students enrolled in a collegiate high school or collegiate high school program.¹⁴¹

Dual enrollment and collegiate high school program funding for public schools is included in the calculation of FTE students within the FEFP.¹⁴² There is no provision in law to allow for additional performance funding for students earning dual enrollment credit.

The FEFP provides a funding incentive for school districts with students in Advanced Placement (AP), International Baccalaureate (IB), and Advanced International Certificate of Education (AICE) courses who successfully complete AP, IB, and AICE examinations or earn an IB or AICE diploma.¹⁴³ The additional FTE is calculated as follows:

- A value of 0.16 FTE student membership is calculated for each student in each AP course who receives a score of 3 or higher on the College Board AP examination.¹⁴⁴
- A value of 0.16 FTE student membership is calculated for each student enrolled in an IB course who receives a score of 4 or higher on a subject examination. A value of 0.3 FTE student membership is calculated for each student who receives an IB diploma.¹⁴⁵
- A value of 0.16 FTE student membership is calculated for each student enrolled in a full-credit AICE course, and 0.08 FTE student membership for each student enrolled in a half-credit AICE course, for each student who receives a score of E or higher on a subject examination. A value of 0.3 FTE student membership is calculated for each student who receives an AICE diploma.¹⁴⁶

In addition, classroom teachers may receive bonus funds for the performance of their students on AP, IB, and AICE examinations. School districts must use the additional FTE funds for purposes specified in law.¹⁴⁷

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill adds new provisions for FEFP funding for students enrolled in dual enrollment courses and collegiate high school programs that are similar to FTE student membership incentives districts earn for students who complete AP, IB, and AICE examinations. Specifically, for the 2020-2021 school year and thereafter, the bill:

- Provides bonus FTE funding to public school districts for any student who completes a general education core course through dual enrollment with an earned grade of “B” or better. Specifically:
 - Students enrolled in a collegiate high school program pursuant to s. 1007.273, F.S., generate a 0.16 FTE student membership bonus.
 - Students not enrolled in a collegiate high school program pursuant to s. 1007.273, F.S., generate a 0.08 FTE student membership bonus.

- Provides bonus FTE funding for each associate degree earned through the dual enrollment program with 3.0 GPA or better. Students earning an associate degree with the required GPA generate a 0.3 FTE student membership bonus. Courses taken prior to 2020-2021 may be included in the associate degree for purposes of the bonus.
- Specifies that bonus funding will be added to the total FTE student membership in basic programs for grades 9-12 in the subsequent fiscal year and requires school districts to allocate at least 50 percent of the bonus funds to the schools that generated the funds to support academic guidance and postsecondary readiness.

Florida Charter Schools

Present Situation

Charter schools are public schools that operate under a performance contract (charter),¹⁴⁸ which frees them from many regulations created for traditional public schools while holding them accountable for academic and financial results.¹⁴⁹ The charter between the charter school governing board and the charter school sponsor details the school's mission, program, goals, students served, methods of assessment, and ways to measure success.¹⁵⁰

A district school board may sponsor a charter school in the county in which the district school board has jurisdiction.¹⁵¹ Additionally, a state university may grant a charter to a developmental research (laboratory) school.¹⁵²

In the 2018-2019 school year, over 313,000 students were enrolled in 658 charter schools in 47 Florida school districts.¹⁵³

Charter School Applications

An application for a new charter school may be made by an individual, a teacher, a parent, a group of individuals, a municipality, or a legal entity organized under the laws of this state.¹⁵⁴

A sponsor receives and reviews all charter school applications¹⁵⁵ and must, within 90 calendar days of receipt, approve or deny the application by majority vote.¹⁵⁶ Charter applicants are required to prepare and submit an application on a standard form prepared by the Department of Education (DOE), which application contains information a sponsor may require and information specified in law.¹⁵⁷

¹⁵⁷ Section 1002.33(6)(a), F.S. Charter school applications are incorporated into State Board of Education Rule 6A-6.0786, F.A.C.

A sponsor must receive and consider charter school applications received on or before February 1 of each year in order for charter schools to be opened 18 months later at the beginning of the school district's school year, or to be opened at a time determined by the applicant. A sponsor may not charge an applicant for a charter any fee for the processing or consideration of an application, and a sponsor may not base its consideration or approval of a final application upon the promise of future payment.¹⁵⁸

Charter School Students

A charter school may be exempt from specific enrollment requirements if the school is open to any student covered in an inter-district agreement and any student residing in the school district in which the charter school is located.¹⁵⁹ A charter school may limit the enrollment process only to target the following student populations:¹⁶⁰

- Students within specific age groups or grade levels.
- Students considered at risk of dropping out of school or academic failure.
- Students enrolling in a charter school-in-the-workplace or charter school-in-a-municipality.¹⁶¹
- Students residing within a reasonable distance of the charter school.
- Students who meet established academic, artistic, or other eligibility standards.
- Students articulating from one charter school to another.
- Students living in a development in which a business entity provides the school facility and related property having an appraised value of at least $5 million to be used as a charter school to mitigate the educational impact created by the development of new residential dwelling units. Students living in the development are entitled to no more than 50 percent of the student stations in the charter school.

Charter School Applications

The bill removes the specified date by which charter school applications must be submitted and received each calendar year in order for the school to be opened the next year and prohibits a sponsor from refusing to receive a charter school application submitted any time during the calendar year. The bill also allows a charter school to be opened at a time determined by the applicant, such that the agreement of the sponsor is no longer required.

Charter School Students

The bill expands criteria by which a charter school may target enrollment for students living in a specified development. The bill expands the contributing entities to include a developer, including any affiliated business entity or charitable foundation. In addition, the bill expands the contributions to development of a charter school to include, in addition to provision of a school facility, contributions to the formation, acquisition, construction, or operation of one or more charter schools or charter school facilities and related property in an amount equal to or having a total appraised value of at least $5 million. The bill may expand the number of developments in which students living in such development may be entitled to 50 percent of the student stations in the charter school.

Pathways in Technology Early College High School (P-TECH)

Present Situation

P-TECH, co-developed by the IBM Corporation, is an approach to education that blends high school, community college and workplace skills.¹⁶² P-TECH schools are primarily public schools, governed and supported by the local school district, although there are some examples of similar charter schools. P-TECH is designed to help close the achievement gap among underserved youth. Within six years of enrolling in ninth grade, students graduate with their high school diplomas, no-cost associate degrees and applicable credentials, and participate in workplace learning opportunities.¹⁶³

P-TECH schools are defined by a set of six key tenets:¹⁶⁴

- Public-private partnership;
- Six year integrated program;
- Workplace learning including internships;
- Open enrollment with no grade or testing requirements;
- Cost-free; and
- First in-line for job openings with industry partners.

The P-TECH model has spread to 200 schools¹⁶⁵ in 23 countries and 8 states¹⁶⁶, serving 100,000 students¹⁶⁷ since its founding in 2011. The P-TECH programs currently in operation have developed 12 different pathways based on regional workforce demand, including:¹⁶⁸

- Construction technology;
- Process technology;
- Cybersecurity;
- Business;
- Mechanical engineering;
- Energy management;
- Healthcare;
- Advanced manufacturing;
- Machining;

Effect of Proposed Changes

To determine the feasibility of implementing the P-TECH program, or a similar program, in Florida, the bill requires the Commissioner of Education to submit a report by December 1, 2020, to the Governor, Senate President, Speaker of the House, BOG, and the SBE, with recommendations addressing the feasibility of implementing in Florida.

The bill requires the P-TECH program, or a similar program, to achieve the following:

- Incorporate secondary and postsecondary education with workforce education and work experience in a flexible 6-year integrated model.
- Allow students to earn a high school diploma, an associate degree, and applicable industry certifications and gain work experience, within 6 years after enrolling in the 9th grade.
- Have an open enrollment policy that encourages a diverse student body, including students from low-income families and first-generation college students.
- Support student success through flexible class scheduling, advising and mentoring, and other wrap-around services.
- Provide seamless articulation to Florida's postsecondary institutions.

The commissioner's report must, at a minimum, include the following:

- Timelines for implementing a P-TECH program, or similar program, including courses of study which support completion in 4 to 6 years and which meet regional workforce demand.
- A funding model that provides the P-TECH program, or similar program, at no cost to students and may incorporate K-12, postsecondary, and workforce funding, grants, scholarships, and other funding options.
- Partnerships with industries and businesses, including private investment, work-based job training, internships, and priority placement for job opportunities after graduation.
- Recommendations for modifications, if any, to the school and school district accountability requirements.¹⁶⁹

The bill provides that this section relating to the P-TECH program and report will be effective upon becoming law and expire on December 1, 2020.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

Educator Certification

Persons seeking an educator certificate who demonstrate subject area knowledge by a specified baccalaureate degree from an approved institution may not have to take a subject area examination, and so would not have to pay the fee for such exam.

Private Education Choice

Expanding Family Empowerment Scholarship (FES) eligibility as provided for in the bill to a student who received a Florida Tax Credit (FTC) scholarship will provide more flexibility for families and increase eligibility for the programs, potentially reducing costs for students and families.

Allowing FES students to annually take up to two courses from a virtual school, correspondence school, or distance learning program that receives state funding, may provide more flexibility for students to meet their educational goals.

Dual Enrollment Incentives

The financial supports for the dual enrollment and early college programs may increase opportunities for Florida secondary students to take college-credit courses that will count toward an associate or baccalaureate degree while still in high school, which may reduce costs for students and families.

C. Government Sector Impact:

Educator Certification

If individuals demonstrate mastery of subject area competence through a specified bachelor's degree as authorized in the bill rather than by a subject area examination, the Department of Education may experience decreased revenue from the loss of subject area examination fees. Such fees are deposited into the Educational Certification and Services Trust Fund and are used for the payment of expenses incurred by the Educational Practices Commission and in the printing of forms and bulletins and the issuing of certificates. The number of individuals who may demonstrate subject area competence under this additional option is not known.

Professional Development

The Department of Education (DOE) may incur costs related to developing model annual and 5-year calendars that incorporate all state-required professional development. In addition, the DOE may incur costs to develop and maintain a statewide registry of approved professional development providers and activities.

The implementation of the Professional Development Choice Pilot Program is subject to legislative appropriation and the Professional Education Excellence Resources (PEER) Pilot Program shall be implemented to the extent specifically funded and authorized by law.

Private Education Choice

Increasing the allowable annual growth for student participation in the FES from 0.25 percent of total public school enrollment to 1.0 percent, will increase the FTE and funding needed for the FEFP. The annual growth in maximum student participation will increase from approximately 7,000 to 28,000 students (over and above the current 18,000).

Expanding the FES eligibility to include a student who received a FTC scholarship after being enrolled in a public school the prior year may increase the need for additional state funds. Students who move from the FTC scholarship to the FES, would be added to the FTE count and funding for the FEFP. It is unknown at this time how many students would meet the requirements to be reclassified between the two scholarships.

Exempting the FES scholarship amount from the 1.0 FTE requirement has the potential to increase the FTE used in the FEFP funding calculation, thus having a state fiscal impact.

Dual Enrollment Incentive

Beginning in the 2021-2022 fiscal year, the bill may reallocate funds within the FEFP to those school districts with relatively more students successfully completing dual enrollment coursework; however, an additional appropriation is not required.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 1002.33, 1002.394, 1002.395, 1004.04, 1004.85, 1008.22, 1011.61, 1012.56, 1012.585, 1012.586, 1012.79, and 1012.98.

This bill creates s. 1012.981 of the Florida Statutes.

 - The Commissioner of Education may select and remove the EPC executive director, and may establish the duties of the executive director.
 - The assignment of the EPC to the Department of Education (DOE) includes fiscal accountability.
 - The EPC may expend funds for legal services, and removes the authority to expend funds for a general counsel or access to counsel.

The committee substitute adds additional provisions related to teacher preparation programs and educator certification, but also adds provisions related to teacher professional development and state scholarship programs. The committee substitute:

- Requires ITP and educator preparation institute (EPI) programs to include: the opportunity for student to complete an endorsement; instruction in mandatory training for instructional personnel; and in program performance evaluation employer surveys measures regarding student proficiency.
- Modifies the renewal requirement for an educator professional certificate by specifying that a teacher may only earn inservice points once in the five years certificate validity period for any mandatory training topic that is not linked to student learning or professional growth.
- Modifies requirements relating to professional development (PD) by:
 - Authorizing teachers to use up to 25 percent of their proportional share of a district calculation of PD funds for specified purposes, and requiring the DOE to identify PD that requires demonstration of proficiency.
 - Requiring the DOE to create an annual and 5-year model calendar of state-mandated PD, and the school district to create similar calendars as a part of the professional PD system.
 - Requiring the DOE to maintain a statewide registry of specified approved professional development providers.

- Creating the Professional Development Choice Pilot Program in the DOE, subject to appropriation, to allow a teacher to receive a grant up to $500 for PD that is aligned to PD standards and satisfies professional certificate inservice requirements.
- Establishes the Professional Education Excellence Resources (PEER) Pilot Program (program), subject to legislative appropriation, and:
 - Establishes the PEER program in Clay, Pinellas, and Walton counties.
 - Authorizes PEER program participants to extend the teacher contract day or year for specified PD purposes, subject to salary considerations.
 - Specifies the use of program funds to include teacher compensation, instructional personnel, content area specialists, instructional coaches, and PD opportunities.

 - Establishes reporting requirements regarding the use of PEER program funds, the impact on teacher evaluations and student achievement, and recommendations for continuation of the program.
- Modifies the Family Empowerment Scholarship (FES), by:
 - Expanding scholarship eligibility to an FES student who received a Florida Tax Credit (FTC) scholarship in the prior year and was in a public school the year prior to initial receipt of the FTC scholarship.
 - Adding a provision that, similar to the McKay scholarship, the FES is not subject to the maximum value for funding a student.
- Aligns FES and FTC eligibility by:
 - Allowing an FES student to participate in up to two courses from a virtual school, correspondence school, or distance learning program that receives state funding.
 - Increasing the FTC scholarship income eligibility threshold for a student whose household income level does not exceed 300 percent of the federal poverty level with priority given to students whose household income levels do not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level.
 - Modifying that a student eligible for an FTC scholarship remains eligible to participate until the student graduates from high school or attains the age of 21 years, whichever occurs first, regardless of the student's income level.

15 student meets the following criteria:

16 (a)1. The student is on the direct certification list
17 pursuant to s. 1002.395(2)(c) or the student's household income
18 level does not exceed 185 ~~300~~ percent of the federal poverty
19 level; ~~or~~

20 2. The student is currently placed, or during the previous 21 state fiscal year was placed, in foster care or in out-of-home

24 percent of the federal poverty level or an adjusted maximum 25 percent of the federal poverty level as established pursuant to

28 ~~Priority shall be given to students whose household income~~
29 ~~levels do not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level or~~ 30 ~~who are in foster care or out-of-home care.~~ A student who 31 initially receives a scholarship based on eligibility under 32 subparagraph 2. remains eligible to participate until the 33 student graduates from high school or attains the age of 21
34 years, whichever occurs first, regardless of the student's 35 household income level. A sibling of a student who is 36 participating in the scholarship program under this subsection
37 is eligible for a scholarship if the student resides in the same
38 household as the sibling.

39 (b)1. The student is eligible to enroll in kindergarten;

462882

40 2. The student ~~or~~ has spent the prior school year in

43 received a scholarship pursuant to s. 1002.395 during the 44 previous school year but did not receive a renewal scholarship
45 based solely on the eligible nonprofit scholarship-funding
46 organization's lack of available funds after the organization
47 fully exhausts its efforts to use funds available for awards
48 under ss. 1002.395 and 1002.40(11)(i). Eligible nonprofit 49 scholarship-funding organizations with students who meet the 50 eligibility criterion of this subparagraph must annually notify 51 the department in a format and by a date established by the 52 department.
54 For purposes of this paragraph, the term "prior school year in 55 attendance" means that the student was enrolled full time and 56 reported by a school district for funding during the preceding
57 October and February Florida Education Finance Program surveys
58 in kindergarten through grade 12, which includes time spent in a
59 Department of Juvenile Justice commitment program if funded
60 under the Florida Education Finance Program. However, a
61 dependent child of a member of the United States Armed Forces
62 who transfers to a school in this state from out of state or 63 from a foreign country due to a parent's permanent change of 64 station orders or a foster child is exempt from the prior public
65 school attendance requirement under this paragraph, but must 66 meet the other eligibility requirements specified under this 67 section to participate in the program.
68 (c) The parent has obtained acceptance for admission of the 462882

69 student to a private school that is eligible for the program
70 under subsection (8), and the parent has requested a scholarship
71 from the Department of Education by a date established by the 72 department pursuant to paragraph (7)(e), but no later than at 73 least 60 days before the date of the first scholarship payment.
74 The request must be communicated directly to the department in a
75 manner that creates a written or electronic record of the 76 request and the date of receipt of the request. The department
77 must notify the school district of the parent's intent upon
78 receipt of the parent's request.

79 (d) The student is awarded a scholarship in accordance with 80 the following priority order:

81 1. An eligible student who received a Family Empowerment
82 Scholarship during the previous school year and requested a
83 renewal scholarship award.

84 2. An eligible student who meets the criteria for an
85 initial award under both paragraph (a) and subparagraph (b)3.

86 3. An eligible student who meets the criteria for an
87 initial award under subparagraph (b)2. and either subparagraph
88 (a)1. or subparagraph (a)2.

89 4. An eligible student who meets the criteria for an
90 initial award under subparagraph (b)1. and either subparagraph
91 (a)1. or subparagraph (a)2.

92 5. An eligible student who meets the criteria for an
93 initial award under subparagraph (a)3. and, in priority order,
94 either subparagraph (b)2. or subparagraph (b)1.

95 (e) The student's household income level does not exceed an 96 adjusted maximum percent of the federal poverty level that is 97 increased by 25 percent in the fiscal year following any fiscal

462882

98 year in which more than 5 percent of the available scholarships
99 authorized under subsection (11) have not been awarded.

100 (7) DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION OBLIGATIONS.—The department
101 shall:

102 (a) Publish and update, as necessary, information on the 103 department website about the Family Empowerment Scholarship
104 Program, including, but not limited to, student eligibility
105 criteria, parental responsibilities, and relevant data.

106 (b) Cross-check the list of participating scholarship
107 students with the public school enrollment lists before each
108 scholarship payment to avoid duplication.

109 (c) Maintain and publish a list of nationally norm-
110 referenced tests identified for purposes of satisfying the 111 testing requirement in subparagraph (8)(c)1. The tests must meet
112 industry standards of quality in accordance with state board
113 rule.

114 (d) Notify eligible nonprofit scholarship-funding
115 organizations of the deadlines for submitting the verified list
116 of students determined to be eligible for an initial or renewal
117 scholarship.

118 (e) Establish deadlines for the receipt of initial 119 applications and renewal notifications in order to implement the 120 priority order for scholarship awards pursuant to paragraph 121 (3)(d).

122 (8) PRIVATE SCHOOL ELIGIBILITY AND OBLIGATIONS.—To be
123 eligible to participate in the Family Empowerment Scholarship
124 Program, a private school may be sectarian or nonsectarian and 125 must:

126 (c)1. Annually administer or make provision for students

462882

127 participating in the program in grades 3 through 10 to take one
128 of the nationally norm-referenced tests that are identified by 129 the department pursuant to paragraph (7)(c) or to take the 130 statewide assessments pursuant to s. 1008.22. Students with 131 disabilities for whom standardized testing is not appropriate
132 are exempt from this requirement. A participating private school
133 shall report a student's scores to his or her parent. By August 134 15 of each year, a participating private school must report the 135 scores of all participating students to a state university as 136 described in s. 1002.395(9)(f).

137 2. Administer the statewide assessments pursuant to s.
138 1008.22 if the private school chooses to offer the statewide
139 assessments. A participating private school may choose to offer
140 and administer the statewide assessments to all students who 141 attend the private school in grades 3 through 10 and must submit
142 a request in writing to the department by March 1 of each year 143 in order to administer the statewide assessments in the 144 subsequent school year.

146 If a private school fails to meet the requirements of this 147 subsection or s. 1002.421, the commissioner may determine that 148 the private school is ineligible to participate in the 149 scholarship program.

150 (9) PARENT AND STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES FOR PROGRAM
151 PARTICIPATION.—A parent who applies for a Family Empowerment
152 Scholarship is exercising his or her parental option to place
153 his or her child in a private school.

672 1000.21, the following terms are defined as follows for the 673 purposes of the Florida Education Finance Program:
674 (4) The maximum value for funding a student in kindergarten
675 through grade 12 or in a prekindergarten program for exceptional 676 children as provided in s. 1003.21(1)(e) shall be the sum of the 677 calculations in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) as calculated by 678 the department.
679 (a) The sum of the student's full-time equivalent student
680 membership value for the school year or the equivalent derived
681 from paragraphs (1)(a) and (b), subparagraph (1)(c)1., sub-
682 subparagraphs (1)(c)2.b. and c., subparagraph (1)(c)3., and 683 subsection (2). If the sum is greater than 1.0, the full-time
684 equivalent student membership value for each program or course
685 shall be reduced by an equal proportion so that the student's 686 total full-time equivalent student membership value is equal to 687 1.0.
688 (b) If the result in paragraph (a) is less than 1.0 full-
689 time equivalent student and the student has full-time equivalent
690 student enrollment pursuant to sub-sub-subparagraph
691 (1)(c)1.b.(VIII), calculate an amount that is the lesser of the

698 M. McKay Scholarships for Students with Disabilities Program
699 pursuant to s. 1002.39 or the Family Empowerment Scholarship

701 value for funding a student under this subsection.

702 Section 8. Paragraph (i) of subsection (1) of section
703 1011.62, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

704 1011.62 Funds for operation of schools.—If the annual 705 allocation from the Florida Education Finance Program to each
706 district for operation of schools is not determined in the 707 annual appropriations act or the substantive bill implementing 708 the annual appropriations act, it shall be determined as 709 follows:

710 (1) COMPUTATION OF THE BASIC AMOUNT TO BE INCLUDED FOR 711 OPERATION.—The following procedure shall be followed in 712 determining the annual allocation to each district for 713 operation:

714 (i) Calculation of full-time equivalent membership with 715 respect to dual enrollment instruction.—

716 1. Full-time equivalent students.—Students enrolled in dual 717 enrollment instruction pursuant to s. 1007.271 may be included
718 in calculations of full-time equivalent student memberships for 719 basic programs for grades 9 through 12 by a district school
720 board. Instructional time for dual enrollment may vary from 900
721 hours; however, the full-time equivalent student membership
722 value shall be subject to the provisions in s. 1011.61(4). Dual 723 enrollment full-time equivalent student membership shall be

888996

576-04145-20

724 calculated in an amount equal to the hours of instruction that 725 would be necessary to earn the full-time equivalent student
726 membership for an equivalent course if it were taught in the 727 school district. Students in dual enrollment courses may also be 728 calculated as the proportional shares of full-time equivalent
729 enrollments they generate for a Florida College System
730 institution or university conducting the dual enrollment
731 instruction. Early admission students shall be considered dual 732 enrollments for funding purposes. Students may be enrolled in 733 dual enrollment instruction provided by an eligible independent 734 college or university and may be included in calculations of 735 full-time equivalent student memberships for basic programs for 736 grades 9 through 12 by a district school board. However, those 737 provisions of law which exempt dual enrolled and early admission
738 students from payment of instructional materials and tuition and 739 fees, including laboratory fees, shall not apply to students who 740 select the option of enrolling in an eligible independent
741 institution. An independent college or university, which is not 742 for profit, is accredited by a regional or national accrediting
743 agency recognized by the United States Department of Education,
744 and confers degrees as defined in s. 1005.02 shall be eligible
745 for inclusion in the dual enrollment or early admission program.
746 Students enrolled in dual enrollment instruction shall be exempt
747 from the payment of tuition and fees, including laboratory fees.
748 No student enrolled in college credit mathematics or English
749 dual enrollment instruction shall be funded as a dual enrollment
750 unless the student has successfully completed the relevant
751 section of the entry-level examination required pursuant to s.
752 1008.30.

576-04145-20

753 2. Additional full-time equivalent student membership.--For 754 students enrolled in a program pursuant to s. 1007.273, a value
755 of 0.16 full-time equivalent student membership shall be
756 calculated for each student who completes a general education
757 core course through the dual enrollment program with a grade of 758 "B" or better. For students who are not enrolled in a program
759 pursuant to s. 1007.273, a value of 0.08 full-time equivalent
760 student membership shall be calculated for each student who 761 completes a general education core course through the dual 762 enrollment program with a grade of "B" or better. In addition, a 763 value of 0.3 full-time equivalent student membership shall be
764 calculated for any student who receives an associate degree
765 through the dual enrollment program with a 3.0 grade point
766 average or better. This value shall be added to the total full-
767 time equivalent student membership in basic programs for grades
768 9 through 12 in the subsequent fiscal year. This section shall 769 be effective for credit earned by dually enrolled students for 770 courses taken in the 2020-2021 school year and each school year
771 thereafter. If the associate degree pursuant to this 772 subparagraph is earned in 2020-2021 following completion of 773 courses taken in the 2020-2021 school year, then courses taken
774 towards the degree as part of the dual enrollment program prior 775 to 2020-2021 may not preclude eligibility for the 0.3 additional 776 full-time equivalent student membership bonus. Each school
777 district shall allocate at least 50 percent of the funds
778 received from the dual enrollment bonus FTE funding, in 779 accordance with this paragraph, to the schools that generated
780 the funds to support student academic guidance and postsecondary
781 readiness.

576-04145-20

782 3. Qualifying courses.--For the purposes of this paragraph,
783 general education core courses are those that are identified in 784 rule by the State Board of Education and in regulation by the 785 Board of Governors pursuant to s. 1007.25(3).

806 Languages;

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/CS/SB 1220 modifies provisions in the Family Empowerment Scholarship (FES) program, the Florida Tax Credit (FTC) scholarship program, and the Hope Scholarship Program (HSP) in order to establish a priority order for award of FES and FTC scholarships, and to ensure renewal FTC scholarship students are able to retain a state scholarship. Specifically, the bill:

- Modifies the Florida Tax Credit Scholarship program to:
 - Specify that a student who receives an FTC scholarship remains eligible until high school graduation or age 21, regardless of the student's household income level.
 - Require each eligible nonprofit scholarship-funding organization (SFO) to refer any student who does not get a renewal FTC scholarship because of a lack of available funds to another SFO that may have available funds.
- Modifies the Family Empowerment Scholarship program to:
 - Establish a priority order for award of an FES, which includes a student who received an FTC scholarship in the previous school year but did not receive a renewal scholarship because of a lack of available funds.
 - Require the Department of Education to maintain and publish a list of nationally norm-referenced tests and to establish deadlines relating to applications, renewal notifications, and verification of student eligibility.
 - Require each private school to report test scores of students receiving a FES to a specified state university.

- Change the annual growth of the FES from 0.25 percent to 1.0 percent of the state's total public school enrollment.
- Allow the maximum household income level for eligibility to increase by 25 percent in any year following a fiscal year in which more than 5 percent of available FES scholarships are not awarded.
- Modifies the HSP to specify that an SFO that uses excess contributions to the HSP to fund FTC scholarships must prioritize renewal scholarships before awarding any initial scholarships.

Revising the increase for maximum student participation in the FES from 0.25 percent (roughly 7,000 students) to 1.0 percent (roughly 28,000 students) annually may increase the student FTE and state funding needed for the FEFP. In addition, expanding the Florida Empowerment Scholarship (FES) eligibility to include FTC students may increase FTE and state funding needed for the FEFP.

See Section V.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

The present situation for the relevant portions of the bill is discussed under the Effect of Proposed Changes of this bill analysis.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Private Education Choice

Present Situation

Many states are expanding school choice options to include private schools in addition to public schools. In total, 27 states and the District of Columbia have enacted policies designed to broaden access to a private education. The three primary policies states have adopted that expand private school choices include:¹

- School vouchers.
- Scholarship tax credits.
- Education savings accounts.

Private Education Choice in Florida

A private school in Florida is an individual, association, co-partnership, or corporation, or department, division, or section of such organizations, that designates itself as an educational

¹ School vouchers are state-funded scholarships that pay for students to attend private school rather than public school. Scholarship tax credits allow individuals and corporations to allocate a portion of their owed state taxes to private nonprofit scholarship organizations that issue public and private school scholarships to K-12 students. Education Savings Accounts are state-funded grants deposited into special savings accounts from which parents can withdraw funds for certain educational expenses. center that includes kindergarten or a higher grade and is below college level. A private school may be a parochial, religious, denominational, for-profit, or nonprofit school. A home education program is not considered a private school.²

Florida offers multiple private education choice scholarship programs for students who meet the eligibility requirements. In order to participate in Florida's state school choice scholarship program, private schools must comply with specified requirements.³

Two of Florida's scholarship programs are focused on students from low income families:

- Florida Tax Credit (FTC) Scholarship Program.
- Family Empowerment Scholarship (FES).⁴

Florida Tax Credit Scholarship Program

The FTC Scholarship Program allows for private, voluntary contributions from corporate donors to eligible non-profit scholarship-funding organizations (SFOs) that award scholarships to eligible children from low-income families.⁵ State law requires the SFOs to use the contributions received to provide scholarships to eligible students for the cost of private school tuition or transportation to public school in which the student is enrolled that is different from the school to which the student was assigned.

To be eligible for an FTC scholarship a student must meet one or more of the following criteria:

- The student is on the direct certification list or the student's household income level does not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level.
- The student is currently placed, or during the previous state fiscal year was placed, in foster care or in out-of-home care as defined in law.
- The student's household income level is greater than 185 percent of the federal poverty level but does not exceed 260 percent of the federal poverty level.

A student who initially receives a scholarship as a result of being placed in foster care or in out-of-home care remains eligible to participate until the student graduates from high school or attains the age of 21 years, whichever occurs first, regardless of the student's household income level. A student who initially received a scholarship based on income eligibility before the 2019-2020 school year remains eligible to participate until he or she graduates from high school, attains the age of 21 years, or the student's household income level exceeds 260 percent of the federal poverty level, whichever occurs first. A sibling of a student who is participating in the scholarship program is eligible for a scholarship if the student resides in the same household as the sibling.⁶

⁶ Section 1002.395(3), F.S.

A student is not eligible for a scholarship while he or she is enrolled in a Department of Juvenile Justice program; receiving another state educational scholarship; or enrolled in a home education, private tutoring, virtual, correspondence, distance learning program; or enrolled in the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind.⁷

SFOs must comply with requirements relating to administration of the FTC scholarship program, which include antidiscrimination, background checks, and private school choice. In addition, SFOs must:⁸

- Give first priority to eligible students who received a scholarship from an eligible SFO or from the state during the previous school year; and must also prioritize new applicants whose household income levels do not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level or who are in foster care or out-of-home care.
- Provide a scholarship to an eligible student on a first-come, first-served basis unless the student qualifies for priority established in law.

During the 2018-19 school year, FTC scholarships in the amount of $644.6 million were awarded to a total of 104,091 students enrolled in 1,825 participating Florida private schools.⁹ More than 109,000 FTC scholarships have been awarded for the 2019-2020 school year.¹⁰

Family Empowerment Scholarship Program

Beginning in the 2019-2020 school year, the FES Program provides educational options to eligible children of families with limited financial resources. A student who receives a scholarship remains eligible to participate until the student graduates from high school or attains the age of 21 years, whichever occurs first, regardless of the student's household income level.¹¹ Similar to the McKay Scholarship, the FES is funded through the Florida Education Finance Program (FEFP). The program is capped at 18,000 students for the 2019-2020 school year and can annually increase by 0.25 percent of the state's total public school student enrollment.¹²

To be eligible for an FES, a student must meet the following criteria:¹³

- The student is:
 - On the direct certification list pursuant to law or the student's household income level does not exceed 300 percent of the federal poverty level; or
 - Currently placed, or during the previous fiscal year was placed, in foster care or in out-of-home care as defined in law.
- The student is eligible to enroll in kindergarten or has spent the prior school year in attendance at a Florida public school. However, a dependent child of a member of the United States Armed Forces who transfers to a school in this state from out of state or from a foreign country due to a parent's permanent change of station orders or a foster child is exempt from the prior public school attendance requirement.

- The parent has obtained acceptance for admission of the student to a private school that is eligible for the program and the parent has requested a scholarship from the Department of Education at least 60 days before the date of the first scholarship payment.

Priority is given to students whose household income levels do not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level or who are in foster care or out-of-home care. A sibling of a student who is participating in the scholarship program under this subsection is eligible for a scholarship if the student resides in the same household as the sibling.¹⁴

A student is not eligible for an FES while he or she is:¹⁵

- Enrolled in a public school including the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind, College-Prep Boarding Academy, a developmental research school, or a charter school;
- Enrolled in a school operating for the purpose of providing educational services to youth in a Department of Juvenile Justice commitment program;
- Receiving any other educational scholarship pursuant to Florida law;
- Participating in a home education program;
- Participating in a private tutoring program; or
- Participating in a virtual school, correspondence school, or distance learning program that receives state funding pursuant to the student's participation.

The DOE is required to:¹⁶

- Publish and update, as necessary, information on the DOE website about the FES Program, including, but not limited to, student eligibility criteria, parental responsibilities, and relevant data.
- Cross-check the list of participating scholarship students with the public school enrollment lists before each scholarship payment to avoid duplication.

Among other requirements, to be eligible to participate in the FES program, a private school must annually administer or make provision for students participating in the FES program in grades 3 through 10 to take one of the nationally norm-referenced tests identified by the DOE or take the statewide standardized assessments. A participating private school must report a student's scores to his or her parent.¹⁷

An eligible nonprofit SFO:¹⁸

- Must verify the household income level of students and submit the verified list of students and related documentation to the DOE.
- May use a specified amount of the total amount of scholarships for administrative expenses.
- Must, in a timely manner, submit any information requested by the DOE relating to the scholarship under this section.

¹⁸ Section 1002.394(10), F.S.

- Must notify the DOE about any violation of the requirements of the FES program by a parent or a private school.

The FES was initially established for up to 18,000 students annually on a first-come, first-served basis beginning with the 2019-2020 school year. Beginning in the 2020-2021 school year, the number of students participating in the FES program may annually increase by 0.25 percent of the state's total public school student enrollment.¹⁹

As of December 2019, 17,795 FES scholarships were awarded to students for the 2019-2020 school year.²⁰

Hope Scholarship Program

The Hope Scholarship Program (HSP) was established in 2018²¹ to provide the parent of a public school student an opportunity to transfer the student to another public school or to request a scholarship for the student to enroll in and attend an eligible private school if that student has been subjected to battery; harassment; hazing; bullying; kidnapping; physical attack; robbery; sexual offenses, harassment, assault, or battery; threat or intimidation; or fighting at school.²²

A tax credit²³ is available for use by a person that makes an eligible contribution.²⁴ Eligible contributions shall be used to fund HSP scholarships and may be used to fund FTC scholarships, with conditions. An SFO may carry forward to the next state fiscal year no more than five percent of net eligible contributions to the HSP. Any amounts carried forward must be expended for annual scholarships or partial-year scholarships in the following state fiscal year, and must be transferred to other eligible nonprofit scholarship-funding organizations participating in the HSP to provide scholarships for eligible students. If no other eligible nonprofit scholarship-funding organization participates in the HSP, net eligible contributions in excess of the 5 percent may be used to fund scholarships for students eligible for a FTC scholarship.²⁵

The bill modifies s. 1002.394, F.S., relating to the Family Empowerment Scholarship (FES) program, s. 1002.395, F.S., relating to the Florida Tax Credit (FTC) scholarship program, and s. 1002.40, F.S., relating to the Hope Scholarship Program (HSP).

²⁴ Section 1002.40(13), F.S.

²⁵ Section 1002.40(11)(i), F.S.

Florida Tax Credit Scholarship Program

The bill establishes that first priority for an FTC scholarship is for a student who received a full-time scholarship from an eligible SFO in the previous year. The bill also specifies that priority for an initial FTC scholarship must be given to a student whose household income level does not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level or who is in foster care or out-of-home care.

The bill requires eligible nonprofit SFOs to apply all funds available under the FTC scholarship program and the Hope Scholarship Program for renewal scholarship awards before awarding any initial scholarships. The bill also requires each eligible nonprofit SFO to refer any student eligible for an FTC scholarship who did not receive a renewal or initial scholarship based solely on the lack of available funds through the FTC scholarship program or HSP to another eligible nonprofit SFO that may have funds available.

The bill modifies continued eligibility requirements to specify that a student eligible for an FTC scholarship remains eligible to participate until the student graduates from high school or attains the age of 21 years, whichever occurs first, regardless of the student's income level.

Family Empowerment Scholarship Program

The bill modifies initial eligibility for the FES program, which currently sets a maximum household income level of 300 percent of the federal poverty level, by specifying that the maximum household income level will increase by 25 percent in the fiscal year following any fiscal year in which more than 5 percent of the available scholarships authorized under the FES program have not been awarded.

The bill establishes an additional eligibility criterion for FES to include, beginning with the 2020-2021 school year, a student who received an FTC scholarship during the previous school year but did not receive a renewal FTC scholarship based solely on the eligible nonprofit SFO's lack of available funds after the SFO fully exhausts funds under the FTC scholarship program and the HSP. The purpose of this provision is to ensure that FTC scholarship program students will continue to have access to a scholarship program even if contributions to the program decline. The bill requires eligible nonprofit SFOs with such students to annually notify the DOE in a format and by a date established by the DOE.

The bill establishes a priority order for award of an FES, and removes the requirement that the scholarship is awarded on a first-come, first-served basis. The priority order is as follows.

- A student who received and FES during the previous school year and requested a renewal scholarship award.
- A student who received an FTC scholarship in the previous school year but did not receive a renewal scholarship because of a lack of funds under FTC and excess Hope Scholarship contributions; and is on the direct certification list or whose household income does not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level, is placed in foster care or in-home care, or has a household income level does not exceed 300 percent of the federal poverty level, or an adjusted maximum.
- A student who is on the direct certification list or whose household income does not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level, or is placed in foster care or in-home care; and spent the prior year in full-time attendance at a Florida public school.

- A student who is on the direct certification list or whose household income does not exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty level, or is placed in foster care or in-home care; and is eligible to enroll in kindergarten.
- A student who is in a household with an income level that does not exceed 300 percent of the federal poverty level, or an adjusted maximum; and, in priority order, spent the prior year in full-time attendance at a Florida public school; or is eligible to enroll in kindergarten.

In order to implement the priority order established in the bill, the bill requires:

- The DOE to:
 - Notify eligible nonprofit SFOs of the deadlines for submitting the verified list of students determined to be eligible for an initial or renewal scholarship.
 - Establish deadlines for the receipt of initial applications and renewal notifications in order to implement the established priority order for scholarship awards.
- Parents to request a scholarship by a date established by the DOE, and to annually renew participation in the FES program by the date established by the DOE.
- Eligible nonprofit SFOs to award initial and renewal scholarships in the priority order established in the bill. The SFO must also comply with the deadlines established by the DOE.

Similar to requirements in law for the FTC scholarship program, the bill requires for the FES program:

- The DOE to maintain and publish a list of nationally norm-referenced tests identified for purposes of satisfying the FES program testing requirement.
- Each private school to, by August 15 of each year, report the scores of all participating students to a state university for the purpose of annual reporting of performance data.

Finally, the bill increases the annual growth of the FES to specify that, beginning in the 2020-2021 school year, the maximum number of students participating in the FES must annually increase by 1 percent (rather than 0.25 percent currently in law) of the state's total public school student enrollment.

Hope Scholarship Program

The bill specifies that if an SFO uses excess eligible contributions to the HSP to fund FTC scholarships, the SFO must fully exhaust all contributions made to the HSP for renewal FTC scholarship students prior to awarding any initial scholarships.

C. Government Sector Impact:

Increasing the allowable annual growth for student participation in the FES from 0.25 percent of total public school enrollment to 1.0 percent, may increase the student FTE and funding needed for the FEFP. The annual growth in maximum student participation will increase from approximately 7,000 to 28,000 students (over and above the current 18,000).

Expanding the FES eligibility to include a student who received a FTC scholarship may increase the need for additional state funds. Students who move from the FTC scholarship to the FES, would be added to the FTE count and funding for the FEFP. It is unknown at this time how many students would meet the requirements to be reclassified between the two scholarships.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 1002.394, 1002.395, and 1002.40.

IX. Additional Information:

- A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS/CS by Appropriations on March 3, 2020:

The committee substitute modifies provisions in the bill relating to the Family Empowerment Scholarship (FES) and the Florida Tax Credit (FTC) Scholarship, and adds a provision in the Hope Scholarship Program (HSP).

- Modifies the Family Empowerment Scholarship program to:
 - Modify initial eligibility to establish an adjusted maximum percent of the federal poverty level to conform to a provision in the bill increasing the maximum income level under certain conditions.
 - Establish eligibility for a student who received an FTC scholarship in the previous school year but did not receive a renewal FTC because of a lack of available funds. The committee substitute requires any eligible scholarship-funding organization (SFO) with such students to annually notify the Department of Education.
 - Clarify that “prior school year in attendance” applies to students enrolled full time.
 - Add to the eligibility requirements for parents to request a scholarship that such request be made by the date established by the Department of Education (DOE); and for parents to annually renew participation in the FES program by the date established by the DOE.
 - Establish a priority order for award of a scholarship.
 - Specify that the maximum household income level increases by 25 percent following a fiscal year in which more than 5 percent of the FES are not awarded.
 - Authorize FES to annually increase by 1.0 percent of public school enrollment (rather than 0.25), starting in 2020-2021.
 - Require the DOE to maintain and publish a list of nationally norm-referenced tests; notify SFOs of the deadlines for submitting student eligibility verifications; and establish deadlines for receipt of initial applications and renewal notifications.
 - Require each private school to report test scores to state university, which is similar to the requirement for the FTC scholarship program.
 - Require each SFO to comply with the established priority order for award of a scholarship and with deadlines established by the DOE.
- Modifies the Florida Tax Credit Scholarship program to:
 - Authorize a student to receive an award until high school graduation or age 21, regardless of family income.
 - Clarify that first priority must be given to renewal students who received a full-time scholarship in the previous year.
 - Require SFOs to exhaust all FTC scholarship and Hope Scholarship Program (HSP) funds for renewal scholarships before awarding initial scholarships.
 - Require SFOs to refer students to another SFO those students who did not get an FTC renewal scholarship because of lack of funds.

- Modifies the Hope Scholarship Program to specify that an SFO that uses excess contributions to the HSP to fund an FTC scholarship must prioritize renewal scholarships before awarding any initial scholarships.
- Removes from the bill provisions related to:
 - Initial teacher preparation programs and educator preparation institutes.
 - Educator certification requirements relating to demonstration of subject area competence.
 - The Education Practices Commission.
 - Teacher professional development.

CS by Education on January 21, 2020:

The committee substitute maintains the provisions in the bill, which include

- Modifying initial teacher preparation (ITP) program core curricula relating to reading instructional strategies and adds a new requirement for mental health strategies and support.
- Changing ITP program provisions related to student grade point average and mastery of general knowledge from admission requirements to program requirements.
- Modifying educator certification requirements to authorize applicants to demonstrate mastery of subject area competence with a bachelor's degree in the subject area earned within the past 10 years.
- Modifying requirements relating to the Education Practices Commission (EPC) to specify that:
 - The Commissioner of Education may select and remove the EPC executive director, and may establish the duties of the executive director.
 - The assignment of the EPC to the Department of Education (DOE) includes fiscal accountability.
 - The EPC may expend funds for legal services, and removes the authority to expend funds for a general counsel or access to counsel.

The committee substitute adds additional provisions related to teacher preparation programs and educator certification, but also adds provisions related to teacher professional development and state scholarship programs. The committee substitute:

- Requires ITP and educator preparation institute (EPI) programs to include: the opportunity for student to complete an endorsement; instruction in mandatory training for instructional personnel; and in program performance evaluation employer surveys measures regarding student proficiency.
- Modifies the renewal requirement for an educator professional certificate by specifying that a teacher may only earn inservice points once in the five years certificate validity period for any mandatory training topic that is not linked to student learning or professional growth.
- Modifies requirements relating to professional development (PD) by:
 - Authorizing teachers to use up to 25 percent of their proportional share of a district calculation of PD funds for specified purposes, and requiring the DOE to identify PD that requires demonstration of proficiency.

- Requiring the DOE to create an annual and 5-year model calendar of state-mandated PD, and the school district to create similar calendars as a part of the professional PD system.
- Requiring the DOE to maintain a statewide registry of specified approved professional development providers.
- Creating the Professional Development Choice Pilot Program in the DOE, subject to appropriation, to allow a teacher to receive a grant up to $500 for PD that is aligned to PD standards and satisfies professional certificate inservice requirements.
- Establishes the Professional Education Excellence Resources (PEER) Pilot Program (program), subject to legislative appropriation, and:
 - Establishes the PEER program in Clay, Pinellas, and Walton counties.
 - Authorizes PEER program participants to extend the teacher contract day or year for specified PD purposes, subject to salary considerations.
 - Specifies the use of program funds to include teacher compensation, instructional personnel, content area specialists, instructional coaches, and PD opportunities.

 652 adopted by the National Staff Development Council.

653 2. Training completed under this subsection must comply
 654 with and satisfy the requirements of s. 1012.585(3).

 673 The reimbursement for each teacher participating in the pilot
 674 program may not exceed $500 per school year. Each classroom
 675 teacher is eligible for one grant per school year. The pilot
 676 program grants must be awarded on a first-come, first-served
 677 basis.

678 (d) Each school district shall:

679 1. Review a proposed professional development activity to 680 determine alignment with district and individual professional
 681 development plans and determine the number of inservice credit
 682 hours to be awarded; and

695 (1) There is established the Professional Education
 696 Excellence Resources (PEER) Pilot Program, administered by the

581-02438-20 20201220c1

697 department, to provide school district flexibility to increase 698 opportunities for professional learning, collaboration with 699 teachers and leaders, and teacher leadership.

700 (2) The PEER Pilot Program is established in Clay,
 701 Pinellas, and Walton Counties.

702 (3) Participating school districts implementing the PEER
 703 Pilot Program may:

704 (a) Extend the contract day or the contract year, or both,
 705 for participating teachers for professional development,
 706 collaboration with colleagues, or instructional coaching. A
 707 participating school district that chooses to extend the 708 contract day or year must, before the start of the 2020-2021
 709 school year, negotiate with the certified collective bargaining
 710 unit for instructional personnel a memorandum of understanding
 711 that addresses the additional duty hours in a week or duty days

715 (b) Use program funds to:

716 1. Compensate teachers who are assigned to an extended
 717 school day or school year pursuant to paragraph (a).

718 2. Hire additional instructional personnel to provide
 719 teachers with additional planning periods or other release time

722 3. Provide content area specialists to provide support for

 728 must collaborate with the department, postsecondary educational 729 institutions, regional education consortia, the University of 730 Florida Lastinger Center, or other appropriate organizations to 763 principal recommendation, or candidate interviews.

764 (c) Each participating school district must collaborate
 765 with the department and with the University of Florida Lastinger
 766 Center to develop a master teacher academy to support

 796 specifically funded and authorized by law.

797 Section 11. Subsection (1) of section 1012.586, Florida
 798 Statutes, is amended to read:

822 establishes standards for providing evidence-based interventions
823 to struggling readers or who completes a postsecondary program
824 that is accredited by such organization. Any such certificate or

BILL ANALYSIS AND FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

(This document is based on the provisions contained in the legislation as of the latest date listed below.)

Prepared By: The Professional Staff of the Committee on Appropriations

BILL: CS/SB 1276

INTRODUCER: Appropriations Committee and Senator Albritton

SUBJECT: Department of Citrus

DATE: March 5, 2020

REVISED: _____

| | ANALYST | STAFF DIRECTOR | REFERENCE | ACTION |

| 1. | Akhavein | Becker | AG | Favorable |
| 2. | Hackett | McVaney | GO | Favorable |

I. Summary:

CS/SB 1276 establishes the Friends of Florida Citrus Program within the Department of Citrus (department). It provides for the powers and duties of the program and requires any funds received to be deposited into the Florida Citrus Advertising Trust Fund within the department. It also creates the Friends of Florida Citrus Advisory Council, which is to advise and provide recommendations to the Florida Citrus Commission regarding the use of any funds received for the Friends of Florida Citrus Program.

The bill authorizes the department to loan its employees to or to share its employees with specified state and federal entities and to enter into related agreements with such entities. The bill also deletes provisions setting out the required work schedule and staffing of the department.

The bill is expected to have an indeterminate positive impact on the private and governmental sectors.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

Florida Department of Citrus

The department is an executive agency of Florida government charged with the marketing, research, and regulation of the Florida citrus industry. Activities of the department are funded by an assessment paid by growers on each box of citrus that moves through commercial channels. The industry employs more than 45,000 people, provides an annual economic impact of $8.6 billion to the state, and contributes hundreds of millions of dollars in tax revenues that help support Florida's schools, roads, and health care services. The department also has extensive regulatory responsibilities, covering every aspect of the industry, including research, production, maturity standards, licensing, transportation, labeling, packing, and processing.¹

The Florida Citrus Commission

The Florida Citrus Commission (commission) governs the department.² The commission is a nine-member board appointed by the governor to represent citrus growers, processors, and packers. The department carries out commission policy and acts as the commission's staff, by conducting a wide variety of programs, involving regulation; scientific, market, and economic research; advertising; merchandising; public and industry relations; and consumer promotions.³

Assessments collected and levied by the department are paid into the State Treasury and accounted for in the Florida Citrus Advertising Trust Fund.⁴ All money in the State Treasury, including that deposited into the Florida Citrus Advertising Trust Fund, is subject to the legislative appropriations process.⁵

Advisory Councils

Section 20.03(7), F.S., defines an advisory council as an advisory body created by statute and appointed to study problems arising in a specified functional or program area of state government and to recommend policy alternatives. Advisory councils are created on a continuing basis and have no natural ending date.

Section 20.052, F.S., provides guidelines and procedures for a collegial body created by statute such as an advisory council. The body must meet a statutorily defined purpose, conform to s. 20.03, F.S., and its members shall be appointed to staggered four-year terms.⁶ The section also provides that an advisory body's members are to serve without additional compensation but may receive per diem and reimbursement for travel expenses.⁷

Advisory committees serve a public purpose by providing the department with information and expertise on a number of issues important to the citrus industry, such as identifying and prioritizing citrus harvesting problems and evaluating proposals for conducting research on the nutritional benefits of citrus products. Department funding support for these committees comes from excise taxes paid by Florida citrus growers on each box of citrus moved through commercial channels.⁸

The commission currently has the following five advisory councils/committees:

¹ Florida Department of Citrus, See <https://www.floridacitrus.org/grower/about/florida-department-of-citrus> (Last visited January 8, 2020).

² See generally s. 601.04, F.S.

- Fruit Classification & Standards Committee
- Gift Fruit Advisory Council
- Processing Statistics Reporting Advisory Committee
- Scientific Research Advisory Committee
- State Test House Advisory Council

The chair of the commission is authorized to appoint any advisory committee or council deemed appropriate, subject to the commission's concurrence. No statutory enactment is required for a new advisory council.⁹

Unless specifically exempted from public meetings requirements, all advisory council meetings are public meetings.¹⁰ Minutes and voting records must be recorded and maintained, and the meetings must be noticed.¹¹

Intergovernmental Interchange of Public Employees

Section 112.24, F.S., provides for interchange of public employees within the government. Agencies are allowed to enter into employee interchange agreements with other state agencies, the Federal Government, another state, a municipality, a political subdivision, an institution of higher education, or a nonprofit organization. The details of an interchange program are to be put into an agreement reported to the Department of Management Services, and is not to last longer than two years. Section 112.24(3), F.S., specifies for how salary, leave, travel, transportation, and reimbursements for the employee are to be handled in the agreement. For the 2019-2020 fiscal year, ending July 1, 2020, the assignment of an employee may be made if recommended by the Governor or Chief Justice and approved by the chairs of the legislative appropriations committees.¹²

Marketing Orders

Marketing agreements and orders allow cooperation among handlers, producers, and governmental entities to help provide stable markets for dairy products and twenty-one types of fruits, vegetables, and specialty crops. Each order and agreement is tailored to the individual industry's needs. Marketing Orders are binding regulations for the signatories in the specified geographical area, once approved by the signatories and the Secretary of Agriculture. Marketing Agreements are only binding for those handlers that sign the agreement.¹³

Fruit, vegetable, and specialty crop marketing orders and agreements help producers and handlers work together to solve marketing problems that they cannot solve individually by: (1) maintaining the high quality of produce that is on the market; (2) standardizing packages and containers; (3) regulating the flow of product to market; (4) establishing reserve programs for

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 creates s. 601.041, F.S., to establish the Friends of Florida Citrus Program within the department. Its purpose is to support and assist existing and future programs within the department. Through the program, the department shall:

- Conduct programs and activities related to the protection and enhancement of the quality and reputation of Florida citrus fruit and the canned and concentrated products that are sold in domestic and foreign markets;
- Identify and pursue methods to provide resources and materials for the program; and
- Research methods to integrate the resources and materials that have been identified.

The bill authorizes the department to receive donations from private corporations to support the program. Donations must be deposited into the Florida Citrus Advertising Trust Fund.

The bill establishes the Friends of Florida Citrus Advisory Council (advisory council) to advise and provide recommendations to the commission regarding the use of any funds received for the Friends of Florida Citrus Program. Members of the advisory council are to be appointed by the commission. Initially, the bill requires the commission to appoint two members to a term of four years, one member to a term of three years, one member to a term of two years, and one member to a term of one year. Subsequently, members shall be appointed for four-year terms. The advisory council shall consist of the following members:

- One member of the commission;
- One member recommended by the Florida Citrus Processors Association;
- One member recommended by the statewide voluntary Florida citrus growers association with the highest membership; and
- Two at-large members, at the discretion of the commission.

This program and the advisory council will allow the department to capture and coordinate marketing efforts and marketing funds from outside sources not otherwise subject to the box assessment. More efficient coordination will allow the industry greater flexibility in communal efforts in advertising and outreach than reliance on federal marketing orders, which can take more than a year to be approved.

Section 2 amends s. 601.10, F.S., to authorize the department to loan or share department employees with other state and federal agencies, state universities, or the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services for marketing orders adopted under the authority of the United States Secretary of Agriculture. The bill authorizes the department to enter into agreements with such entity or entities under terms and conditions that will benefit the state, if the agency or entity with which the employee is loaned or shared reimburses the state for all pay and benefits of the employee, not including a service fee for administration. If the entity directly pays the loaned or shared employee his or her salary and benefits, if applicable, an agreement with the department is not necessary and the employee may work part-time with the department under terms and conditions mutually agreed to between the department and the employee. All arrangements and agreements are subject to approval by the department.

The bill deletes provisions setting out the required work schedule and staffing of the department.

Section 3 provides that this act shall take effect July 1, 2020.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

Not applicable. The bill does not require counties and municipalities to spend funds, reduce counties' or municipalities' ability to raise revenue, or reduce the percentage of state tax shared with counties and municipalities.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None identified.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

While the fiscal impact to the private sector is indeterminate, activities under the new program may aid in stabilizing market conditions for citrus producers.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The fiscal impact to the department is indeterminate. The department will be responsible for per diem and travel costs related to the advisory council, which will be absorbed within existing resources. The amount of revenue to be deposited into the Citrus

Advertising Trust Fund from private donations to support the Friends of Florida Citrus Program is unknown.

The bill allows the department to loan or share its employees with specified state and federal entities. The department must approve the loan and the terms and conditions must benefit the state. As such, it appears this provision in the bill will have an indeterminate positive fiscal impact to the state.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

Lines 39-40 of the bill permit the department to receive donations from private corporations for deposit into the Florida Citrus Advertising Trust Fund. Limiting donations to originating from “corporations” as opposed to “persons,” which would include other types of firms, associations, partnerships, and business entities, may have the unintended effect of disallowing donations the program would otherwise receive.

Lines 44-59 of the bill do not identify operating procedures for the advisory council, including the selection of a chair, the adoption of rules, the location and schedule for meeting, and quorum.

VII. Related Issues:

Until s. 112.24(6), F.S., expires and is not reenacted for an additional period of time, the intergovernmental loan program prescribed in Section 2 of the bill cannot be utilized without the recommendation of the Governor or Chief Justice and the consent of both legislative appropriations committee chairs.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill amends section 601.10 of the Florida Statutes.

This bill creates section 601.041 of the Florida Statutes.

IX. Additional Information:

- A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS by Appropriations on March 3, 2020:

The committee substitute requires staggered terms of the members of the Friends of Florida Citrus Advisory Council and makes reference to s. 112.24, F.S., relating to the intergovernmental interchange of public employees.

- B. Amendments:

None.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 1296 revives, reenacts, and amends sections 466.0067 and 466.00671, Florida Statutes, and revives and reenacts section 466.00672, Florida Statutes., relating to health access dental licenses, notwithstanding their repeal on January 1, 2020. This gives the Department of Health (department) and the Board of Dentistry the statutory authority to resume issuing and renewing such licenses.

The bill has an insignificant fiscal impact on the department that can be absorbed within existing resources.

The bill takes effect upon becoming a law.

II. Present Situation:

Dentistry

Section 466.004, F.S., establishes the Board of Dentistry (BOD) within the Department of Health (department) to regulate the practice of dentistry. The requirements for dental licensure by examination are found in s. 466.006, F.S. A person desiring to be licensed as a dentist must apply to the department to take the examinations. To take the examination, an applicant must be 18 years of age or older and be:

- A graduate from a dental school accredited by the American Dental Association (ADA) Commission on Dental Accreditation (CODA), or any other dental accrediting entity recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (DOE); or
- A dental student in the final year of a program at such an ADA CODA accredited dental school who has completed all the coursework necessary to prepare the student to perform the clinical and diagnostic procedures required to pass the examinations.

Dental school graduates from a school not accredited by the ADA CODA, a U.S. DOE-recognized dental accrediting entity, or approved by the BOD, desiring to take the Florida dental licensure examinations, are not entitled to take the examinations until the applicant:

- Demonstrates completion of a program of study defined by BOD rule, at an accredited American dental school and receipt of a D.D.S. or D.M.D. from the school; or
- Submits proof of successful completion of at least two consecutive years at a full-time supplemental general dentistry program accredited by the ADA CODA.¹

The Legislature has authorized the BOD to use the American Dental Licensing Examination (ADLEX), developed by the American Board of Dental Examiners, Inc., in lieu of an independent state-developed practical or clinical examination.

Health Access Dental Licenses

In 2008, the Legislature established the health access dental license² in order to attract out-of-state dentists to practice in Florida's underserved health access settings.³ On January 1, 2020, ss. 466.0067 through 466.00673, F.S., were repealed when the Legislature failed to reenact those statutes, as provided under s. 466.00673, F.S. However, health access dental licenses issued before January 1, 2020, are not affected by the repeal and remain valid under the provisions of the former ss. 466.0067-466.00673, F.S.⁴

With a health access dental license, a dentist actively licensed and in good standing in another state, the District of Columbia, or a U.S. territory, is authorized to practice dentistry in Florida in a health access setting if the dentist:

- Submits proof he or she graduated from a dental school accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the ADA or its successor agency;

¹ Florida Dept. of Health, Senate Bill 188 Analysis (2019) (on file with the Senate Committee on Health Policy), p. 3. According to the DOH, it is unclear whether the two years of a full time supplemental general dentistry program includes specialty or advanced education programs.

² See ss. 466.0067, 466.00671, 466.00672, and 466.00673, F.S.

⁴ Section 466.00673, F.S., prior to January 1, 2020, provided that "Effective January 1, 2020, ss. 466.0067-466.00673, F.S., are repealed unless reenacted by the Legislature. Any health access dental license issued before January 1, 2020, shall remain valid according to ss. 466.0067-466.00673, F.S., without effect from repeal."

- Submits proof he or she has successfully completed parts I and II of the National Board of Dental Examiners (NBDE) examination and a state or regional clinical dental licensing examination that the BOD has determined effectively measures the applicant's ability to practice safely;
- Submits ADLEX examination scores mailed to the BOD directly from the American Dental Association;
- Submits a final official transcript from a dental school sent to the BOD by the registrar's office;
- Submits a certification of licensure from each state in which he or she currently holds or has held a dental or dental hygiene license;
- Submits proof of training in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) at the basic support level;
- Files a BOD-approved application and pays the applicable fees;
- Has not been convicted of, nor pled nolo contendere to, regardless of adjudication, any felony or misdemeanor related to the practice of a health care profession;
- Currently holds a valid, active dental license in good standing which has not been revoked, suspended, restricted, or otherwise disciplined from another state, the District of Columbia, or a U.S. territory;
- Has never had a license revoked from another state, the District of Columbia, or a U.S. territory;
- Has never failed an exam under s. 466.006, F.S., unless the applicant was reexamined and received a license to practice in Florida;
- Has not been reported to the NBDE, unless the applicant successfully appealed to have his or her name removed from the data bank;
- Submits proof that he or she has been engaged in the active, clinical practice of dentistry and has provided direct patient care for five years immediately preceding the date of application, or proof of continuous clinical practice, and has provided direct patient care since graduation if the applicant graduated less than five years from his or her application date;
- Submits documentation that she or he has completed, or will complete prior to licensure, continuing education equivalent to this state's requirement for dentists licensed under s. 466.006, F.S., for the last full reporting biennium before applying for a health access dental license;⁵ and
- Successfully completes the examination covering the laws and rules of the practice of dentistry in this state.^{6,7}

A health access dental license is subject to biennial renewal. The BOD will renew a health access dental license if the applicant:

- Submits a renewal application and has paid a renewal fee;
- Submits documentation, as approved by the board, from the employer in the health access setting that the licensee has at all times pertinent remained an employee;
- Has not been convicted of, nor pled nolo contendere to, regardless of adjudication, any felony or misdemeanor related to the practice of a health care profession;

⁵ See ch. 64B5-12.013, Fla. Admin. Code R. (2019), for continuing education requirements.

⁷ Department of Health, Board of Dentistry, Health Access Dentist, available at <https://floridasdentistry.gov/licensing/health-access-dentist/> (last visited Jan. 8, 2020).

- Has not failed the examination specified in s. 466.006, F.S., since initially receiving a health access dental license or since the last renewal; and
- Has not been reported to the National Practitioner Data Bank, unless the applicant successfully appealed to have his or her name removed from the data bank.

The BOD may undertake measures to independently verify the health access dental licensee's ongoing employment status in the health access setting.

The BOD may revoke a health access dental license if the licensee is terminated from employment in the health access setting or practices outside of the health access setting, fails the Florida dental licensure examination, or is found by the BOD to have committed a violation of ch. 466, F.S., (the Dental Practice Act), other than a violation that is a citation offense or a minor violation.

Currently, the department has issued 60 health access dental licenses. Of those, 39 are in-state active, one is in-state delinquent, 11 are out-of-state active, two are out-of-state delinquent, and seven are retired.⁸ As of January 1, 2020, the department is no longer authorized to issue initial health access dental licenses. Current health access dental licenses expire at midnight EST, February 28, 2020. The department is renewing current health access dental licenses and taking requests to reactivate such a license in inactive or retired status with the payment of additional fees and proof of compliance with specific continuing education requirements.⁹

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill revives, reenacts, and amends ss. 466.0067, 466.00671, and revives and reenacts 466.00672, F.S., notwithstanding the January 1, 2020, repeal of those sections. The bill's amendments to those sections are for the purpose of grammatical corrections only.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

PCS/CS/SB 1308 makes a number of changes to the criminal justice system, including:

- Providing for the retroactive application of the changes made by CS/HB 7125 (2019) to section 322.34, Florida Statutes, related to the offense of driving while license suspended or revoked (DWLSR).
- Requiring offenders convicted of DWLSR who have not been sentenced as of October 1, 2020, to be sentenced in accordance with the new penalties outlined in CS/HB 7125 (2019).
- Authorizing offenders convicted of DWLSR who have been sentenced and are still serving such sentence to be resentenced in accordance with the penalties in CS/HB 7125 (2019).
- Providing procedures for the resentencing of eligible persons previously convicted of DWLSR and requires the court of original jurisdiction, upon receiving an application for sentence review from the eligible person, to hold a sentence review hearing to determine if the eligible person meets the criteria for resentencing.
- Providing that a person is eligible to expunge a criminal history record of a conviction that resulted from former section 322.34, Florida Statutes, in specified circumstances.
- Renaming of the Criminal Punishment Code to the “Public Safety Code” and changing the primary purpose from punishing the offender to public safety.
- Removing various mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment for specified offenses.

- Reducing the mandatory minimum penalties imposed upon a prison releasee reoffender (PRR), a category of repeat offenders, under section 775.082(9), Florida Statutes, and expressly applying such changes retroactively.
- Providing a process for resentencing certain prison releasee reoffenders and removing a provision of law that prohibits a prison releasee reoffender from any form of early release.
- Authorizing a court to depart from the imposition of a mandatory minimum sentence in drug trafficking cases if certain circumstances are met.
- Clarifying that a court is only required to modify or continue an offender's probationary term if all of the enumerated specified factors apply.
- Modifying the list of prior offenses that exclude juvenile offenders convicted of capital murder from a sentence review hearing in accordance with section 921.1402, Florida Statutes, enacted subsequent to the Graham v. Florida and Miller v. Alabama cases, to only murder and applying this modification retroactively.
- Providing that juvenile offenders who are no longer barred from a sentence review hearing due to the modified list of enumerated prior offenses and who have served 25 years of the imprisonment imposed on the effective date of the bill must have a sentence review hearing conducted immediately.
- Providing all other juvenile offenders who are no longer barred from a sentence review hearing due to the modified list of enumerated prior offenses must be given a sentence review hearing when 25 years of the imprisonment imposed have been served.
- Establishing a sentence review process similar to that created for juvenile offenders pursuant to section 921.1402, Florida Statutes, for "young adult offenders."
- Defining the term "young adult offender."
- Allowing certain young adult offenders to request a sentence review hearing with the original sentencing court if specified conditions are met, specifically:
 - A young adult offender convicted of a life felony offense, or an offense reclassified as such, who was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment may request a sentence review after 20 years; and
 - A young adult offender convicted of a first degree felony offense, or an offense reclassified as such, who was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment may request a sentence review after 15 years.
- Expanding the types of forensic analysis available to a petitioner beyond DNA testing.
- Requiring a petitioner to show that forensic analysis may result in evidence material to the identity of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the crime that resulted in the person's conviction, rather than having to show the evidence would exonerate the person or mitigate his or her sentence.
- Authorizing a private laboratory to perform forensic analysis under specified circumstances at the petitioner's expense.
- Requiring the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) to conduct a search of the statewide DNA database and request the National DNA Index System (NDIS) to search the federal database if forensic analysis produces a DNA profile.
- Authorizing a court to order a governmental entity that is in possession of physical evidence claimed to be lost or destroyed to search for the physical evidence and produce a report to the court, the petitioner, and the prosecuting authority regarding such lost evidence.
- Repealing section 947.149, Florida Statutes, which establishes the conditional medical release (CMR) program within the Florida Commission on Offender Review (FCOR) and creates section 945.0911, Florida Statutes, to establish a CMR program within the Department of Corrections (DOC).

- Providing definitions and eligibility criteria for the CMR program.
- Providing a process for the referral, determination of release, and revocation of release for the CMR program.
- Establishing a conditional aging inmate release (CAIR) program within the DOC.
- Providing eligibility criteria for the CAIR program.
- Providing a process for the referral, determination of release, and revocation of release for the CAIR program.
- Deleting and modifying terms related to the “Victims of Wrongful Incarceration Compensation Act.”
- Eliminating specified factors barring from consideration for certain persons from compensation for wrongful incarceration.
- Extending the time for a person who was wrongfully incarcerated to file a petition with the court to determine eligibility for compensation from 90 days to two years.
- Authorizing certain persons who were previously barred from filing a petition for wrongful compensation to file a petition with the court by July 1, 2021.
- Requiring the DOC and county detention facilities to provide documentation to inmates upon release specifying the total length of the term of imprisonment at the time of release.
- Allowing the time spent incarcerated in a county detention facility or state correctional facility to apply towards satisfaction of residing for a specified amount of time in Florida for designation as a resident for tuition purposes.
- Requiring the time spent incarcerated in a county detention facility or state correctional facility to be credited toward the residency requirement, with any combination of documented time living in Florida before or after incarceration.
- Requiring the Office of Program Policy and Governmental Accountability (OPPAGA) to conduct a study to evaluate the various opportunities available to persons returning to the community from imprisonment and submit a report by November 1, 2020.

The bill will likely have a fiscal impact to various agencies and a prison bed impact to the DOC. See Section V.

Unless otherwise expressly stated, the bill is effective October 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

Refer to Section III. Effect of Proposed Changes for discussion of the relevant portions of current law.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Retroactive Application of Certain Offenses Related to Driver Licenses (Sections 1 and 15)

Driver Licenses - Generally

Florida law requires a person to hold a driver license¹ or be exempted from licensure to operate a motor vehicle on the state's roadways.² Exemptions to the licensure requirement include nonresidents who possess a valid driver license issued by their home states, federal government, employees operating a government vehicle for official business, and people operating a road machine, tractor, or golf cart.³

The Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) can suspend or revoke a driver license or driving privilege for both driving-related and non-driving related reasons. Suspension means the temporary withdrawal of the privilege to drive⁴ and revocation means a termination of the privilege to drive.⁵

Among the driving-related reasons that a person may have had his or her license suspended or revoked are convictions for fleeing or attempting to elude a law enforcement officer,⁶ driving under the influence (DUI),⁷ and refusal to submit to a lawful breath, blood, or urine test in a DUI investigation.⁸ Alternatively, some of the non-driving related convictions a person may have his or her license suspended or revoked for are graffiti by a minor⁹ and certain drug offenses.¹⁰

Additionally, the clerk of the court can direct the DHSMV to suspend a license for several reasons, including failure to comply with civil penalties.¹¹ Such a suspension lasts until the individual is compliant with the court's requirements for reinstatement¹² or if the court grants relief from the suspension.¹³ A person with a suspended or revoked license cannot drive, which can inhibit his or her ability to work and can further impede the process of resolving outstanding financial obligations.¹⁴

¹ "Driver license" is a certificate that, subject to all other requirements of law, authorizes an individual to drive a motor vehicle and denotes an operator's license as defined in 49 U.S.C. s. 30301. Section 322.01(17), F.S.

Section 322.34, F.S. (2018)

Prior to October 1, 2019, a person committed the offense of DWLSR if his or her driver license or driving privilege had been canceled, suspended, or revoked and he or she, knowing of such cancellation, suspension, revocation, or suspension,¹⁵ drove any motor vehicle. The penalties for DWLSR ranged from a moving traffic violation to a third degree felony.¹⁶

Under the former provisions, a person could be charged with a third-degree felony¹⁷ for the offense of DWLSR if:

- He or she knew of the suspension or revocation and had at least two prior convictions for DWLSR;
- He or she qualified as a habitual traffic offender;¹⁸ or
- His or her license had been permanently revoked.¹⁹

Section 322.34, F.S. (2019) and CS/HB 7125 (2019)

The 2019 Legislature passed and the Governor signed into law CS/HB 7125, which, in part, amended the provisions related to DWLSR.²⁰ Subsequent to the effective date of CS/HB 7125 (2019), the offense of DWLSR is classified as a:

- Misdemeanor of the second degree, upon a first conviction.²¹
- Misdemeanor of the first degree, upon a second or subsequent conviction, unless the suspension is related to an enumerated offense discussed below.²²
- A felony of the third degree, upon a third or subsequent conviction if the current violation of DWLSR or the most recent prior violation of DWLSR is resulting from a violation of:
 - DUI;
 - Refusal to submit to a urine, breath-alcohol, or blood alcohol test;
 - A traffic offense causing death or serious bodily injury; or
 - Fleeting or eluding.²³

CS/HB 7125 (2019) also added the term “suspension or revocation equivalent status” to ch. 322, F.S., and defined it to mean a designation for a person who does not have a driver license or

¹⁵ The element of knowledge is satisfied in several ways, including: if the person has been previously cited, as provided in s. 322.34(1), F.S., the person admits to knowledge of the cancellation, suspension, or revocation or the person received notice of such status. There is a rebuttable presumption that the knowledge requirement is satisfied if a judgment or order appears in the DHSMV’s records for any case except for one involving a suspension by the DHSMV for failure to pay a traffic fine or for a financial responsibility violation. See s. 322.34(2), F.S.

²² Additionally, a person convicted under this paragraph for a third or subsequent conviction must serve a minimum of ten days in jail. Section 322.34(2)(b), F.S. A first degree misdemeanor is punishable by up to one year in jail and a fine of up to $1,000. Sections 775.082 and 775.083, F.S.

driving privilege but would qualify for suspension or revocation of his or her driver license or driving privilege if licensed.²⁴ This term was added to s. 322.34(2), F.S., therefore expanding the criminal penalties for DWLSR to apply to a person who does not have a driver license or driving privilege, but is under suspension or revocation equivalent status.

Collateral Consequences of Felony Convictions

A collateral consequence is any adverse legal effect of a conviction that is not a part of a sentence.²⁵ If the consequence does not affect the range of punishment, it is said to be collateral to the plea.²⁶ Such consequences are legal and regulatory restrictions that limit or prohibit people convicted of crimes from accessing employment, business and occupational licensing, housing, voting, education, and other rights, benefits, and opportunities.²⁷ Some examples of collateral consequences that occur upon any felony conviction in Florida include the loss of the right to vote,²⁸ hold public office,²⁹ serve on a jury,³⁰ obtain certain professional licenses,³¹ and owning or possessing a firearm.³² There are additional collateral consequences that can occur as a result of a felony conviction of specified offenses, such as the loss of driving privileges related to drug and theft offenses.³³ Conviction of a crime may also result in disqualification to hold a government job and other limits on employment opportunities or even loss of employment.³⁴

Constitutional and Statutory Savings Clauses

Until recently, Art. X, s. 9 of the State Constitution (Florida's constitutional savings clause) expressly prohibited any repeal or amendment of a criminal statute that affected prosecution or punishment for any crime previously committed, and therefore, the Florida Legislature was "powerless to lessen penalties for past transgressions; to do so would require constitutional revision."³⁵

In 2018, Florida voters adopted the following amendment to Art. X, s. 9 of the State Constitution:

²⁴ The DHSMV is authorized to designate a person as having suspension or revocation equivalent status in the same manner as it is authorized to suspend or revoke a driver license or driving privilege by law. See s. 322.34(41), F.S.

³⁵ Comment, Today's Law and Yesterday's Crime: Retroactive Application of Ameliorative Criminal Legislation, 121 U. Pa. L. Rev. 120, 129 (1972).

~~Repeal or amendment~~ of a criminal statute shall not affect prosecution or ~~punishment~~ for any crime ~~previously~~ committed before such repeal.

Revised Art. X, s. 9 of the State Constitution only prohibits applying the repeal of a criminal statute to any crime committed before such repeal if this retroactive application “affects prosecution.” The revised constitutional savings clause does not expressly prohibit retroactive application of a repeal that does not affect prosecution, a repeal that affects punishment, or an amendment of a criminal statute that affects prosecution or punishment.

The elimination of the expressed prohibition on certain retroactive applications is not a directive to the Legislature to retroactively apply what was formerly prohibited. As the Florida Supreme Court recently stated: “... [T]here will no longer be any provision in the Florida Constitution that would prohibit the Legislature from applying an amended criminal statute retroactively to pending prosecutions or sentences. However, nothing in our constitution does or will require the Legislature to do so, and the repeal of the prohibition will not require that they do so.”³⁶

In 2019, the Legislature created s. 775.022, F.S., a general savings statute for criminal statutes. The statute defines a “criminal statute” as a statute, whether substantive or procedural, dealing in any way with a crime or its punishment, defining a crime or a defense to a crime, or providing for the punishment of a crime.³⁷

The statute specifies legislative intent to preclude:

- Application of the common law doctrine of abatement to a reenactment or an amendment of a criminal statute; and
- Construction of a reenactment or amendment as a repeal or an implied repeal³⁸ of a criminal statute for purposes of Art. X, s. 9 of the State Constitution (Florida’s constitutional savings clause).³⁹

The statute also states that, except as expressly provided in an act of the Legislature or as provided in two specified exceptions, the reenactment or amendment of a criminal statute operates prospectively and does not affect or abate any of the following:

- The prior operation of the statute or a prosecution or enforcement under the criminal statute;
- A violation of the criminal statute based on any act or omission occurring before the effective date of the act; and
- A prior penalty, prior forfeiture, or prior punishment incurred or imposed under the statute.⁴⁰

The first exception is a retroactive amelioration exception that provides that if a penalty, forfeiture, or punishment for a violation of a criminal statute is reduced by a reenactment or an amendment of a criminal statute, the penalty, forfeiture, or punishment, if not already imposed,

³⁸ The Florida Supreme Court previously indicated that the “standard [is] that implied repeals are disfavored and should only be found in cases where there is a ‘positive repugnancy’ between the two statutes or ‘clear legislative intent’ indicating that the Legislature intended the repeal[.]” Flo-Sun, Inc. v. Kirk, 783 So.2d 1029, 1036 (Fla. 2001).

must be imposed according to the statute as amended.⁴¹ This means the penalty, forfeiture, or punishment reduction must be imposed retroactively if the sentence has not been imposed, including the situation in which the sentence is imposed after the effective date of the amendment. However, nothing in the general savings statute precludes the Legislature from providing for a more extensive retroactive application either to legislation in the future or legislation that was enacted prior to the effective date of the general savings statute. This is because the general savings statute specifically provides for a legislative exception to the default position of prospectivity. The Legislature only has to “expressly provide” for this retroactive application.⁴²

Expunction of Criminal History Records

Overview

Another consequence of a felony conviction in Florida is the prohibition of obtaining a court-ordered expunction. Florida law makes adult criminal history records accessible to the public unless the record has been sealed or expunged.⁴³ Criminal history records related to certain offenses are barred from being expunged through the court-order process.⁴⁴ Section 943.0585, F.S., sets forth procedures for expunging criminal history records through court-order.

Persons who have had their criminal history records expunged may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge the arrests covered by their record, except when they are applying for certain types of employment,⁴⁵ petitioning the court for a record sealing or expunction, or are a defendant in a criminal prosecution.⁴⁶

Process for Obtaining a Court-Ordered Expunction

To qualify for a court-ordered expunction, a person must first obtain a certificate of eligibility (COE) from the FDLE.⁴⁷ To obtain the COE from the FDLE, a person must comply with a number of requirements, including, in part, that he or she has never been adjudicated guilty or delinquent of a:

- Criminal offense;
- Comparable ordinance violation; or
- Specified felony or misdemeanor prior to the COE application date.⁴⁸

⁴⁴ See 943.0584, F.S., for a complete list of offenses that are ineligible for court-ordered expunction.

⁴⁵ These include candidates for employment with a criminal justice agency; applicants for admission to the Florida Bar; those seeking a sensitive position involving direct contact with children, the developmentally disabled, or the elderly with the Department of Children and Family Services, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation within the Department of Education, the Agency for Health Care Administration, the Agency for Persons with Disabilities, the Department of Health, the Department of Elderly Affairs, or the Department of Juvenile Justice; persons seeking to be employed or licensed by the Department of Education, any district school board, any university laboratory school, any charter school, any private or parochial school, or any local governmental entity that licenses child care facilities; or a Florida seaport.

⁴⁸ See s. 943.0585(1) and (2), F.S., for full requirements for obtaining a COE.

Further, a person may seek a court-ordered expunction immediately, provided the person is no longer subject to court supervision, if none of the charges related to the arrest or alleged criminal activity resulted in a trial or relate to an offense enumerated in s. 943.0584, F.S., and:

- An indictment, information, or other charging document was not filed or issued in the case (no-information); or
- An indictment, information, or other charging document was filed or issued in the case, but it was dismissed or nolle prosequi by the state attorney or statewide prosecutor, or was dismissed by a court of competent jurisdiction (dismissal).⁴⁹

Upon receipt of a COE, the person must then petition the court to expunge the criminal history record. The petition must include the COE and a sworn statement from the petitioner that he or she is eligible for expunction to the best of his or her knowledge.⁵⁰ A copy of the completed petition is then served upon the appropriate state attorney or statewide prosecutor and the arresting agency, any of which may respond to the court regarding the petition.⁵¹

There is no statutory right to a court-ordered expunction and any request for such an expunction of a criminal history record may be denied at the sole discretion of the court.⁵² The court is only authorized to order the expunction of a record that pertains to one arrest or one incident of alleged criminal activity.⁵³ However, the court may order the expunction of a record pertaining to more than one arrest if such additional arrests directly relate to the original arrest.⁵⁴

Effect of an Expunction

Any record that the court grants the expunction of must be physically destroyed or obliterated by any criminal justice agency having such record. The FDLE, however, is required to maintain the record. Records that have been expunged are confidential and exempt⁵⁵ from the public records law.⁵⁶ Only a court order would make the record available to a person or entity that is otherwise excluded.⁵⁷

⁵² Section 943.0585(4)(e), F.S.

⁵⁴ Id. The court must articulate in writing its intention to expunge or seal a record pertaining to multiple arrests and a criminal justice agency may not expunge or seal multiple records without such written documentation. The court is also permitted to expunge or seal only a portion of a record.

⁵⁵ There is a difference between records the Legislature designates as exempt from public record requirements and those the Legislature deems confidential and exempt. A record classified as exempt from public disclosure may be disclosed under certain circumstances. See WFTV, Inc. v. The Sch. Bd. of Seminole, 874 So.2d 48, 53 (Fla. 5th DCA 2004); City of Riviera Beach v. Barfield, 642 So.2d 1135 (Fla. 4th DCA 1994); Williams v. City of Minneola, 575 So.2d 687 (Fla. 5th DCA 1991). If the Legislature designates a record as confidential and exempt from public disclosure, such record may not be released, by the custodian of public records, to anyone other than the persons or entities specifically designated in the statutory exemption. See 85-62 Fla. Op. Att’y Gen. (1985).

Effect of the Bill

Retroactive Application of the New DWLSR Offense

The bill creates s. 322.3401, F.S., expressly providing for the retroactive application of the changes made by CS/HB 7125 (2019) to s. 322.34, F.S., related to the offense of DWLSR.

The bill provides legislative intent language, which states:

It is the intent of the Legislature to retroactively apply section 12 of chapter 2019-167, Laws of Florida, only as provided in this section, to persons who committed the offense of driving while license suspended, revoked, canceled, or disqualified before October 1, 2019, the effective date of section 12 of chapter 2019-167, Laws of Florida, which amended s. 322.34 to modify criminal penalties and collateral consequences for offenses under that section.

The bill defines two terms for purposes of s. 322.3401, F.S.:

- “Former s. 322.34”, which means a reference to s. 322.34, F.S., as it existed at any time before its amendment by ch. 2019-167, L.O.F.
- “New s. 322.34”, which means a reference to s. 322.34, F.S., as it exists after the amendments made by ch. 2019-167, L.O.F., became effective.

The bill requires a person who committed the offense of DWLSR before October 1, 2019, but who was not sentenced under former s. 322.34, F.S., before October 1, 2020, to be sentenced for the degree of offense as provided for in the new s. 322.34, F.S.

Further, the bill authorizes a person who committed the offense of DWLSR before October 1, 2019, who was sentenced before October 1, 2019, to a term of imprisonment or supervision pursuant to former s. 322.34, F.S., and who is serving such penalty on or after October 1, 2020, to be resentenced to the degree of offense that is consistent with the degree provided for in the new s. 322.34, F.S.

The bill provides procedures for the resentencing of eligible persons. Specifically:

- A person who is eligible for resentencing must be given notification of such eligibility by the facility in which the person is imprisoned or the entity who is supervising the person.
- A person seeking a sentence review must submit an application to the court of original jurisdiction requesting that a sentence review hearing be conducted. This request serves to initiate the review procedures provided for under the bill.
- The sentencing court must retain original jurisdiction for the duration of the sentence for the purpose of conducting sentence review hearings.
- A person who is eligible for a sentence review hearing may be represented by counsel and the court is required to appoint a public defender to represent the person if he or she cannot afford an attorney.

Upon receiving an application for sentence review from the eligible person, the court must hold a sentence review hearing to determine if the person meets the criteria for resentencing.

If the court determines at the sentence review hearing that the person meets the criteria for resentencing, the court may resentence the person for the degree of offense that is consistent with the degree provided for in the new s. 322.34, F.S. If the court does not resentence the person, the court must provide written findings why resentencing is not appropriate.

In addition to the retroactive application of sentencing provisions of the new s. 322.34, F.S., the bill provides that a person who has been convicted of a felony under former s. 322.34, F.S., and whose offense would not be classified as a felony under the new s. 322.34, F.S., must have all outstanding fines, fees, and costs related to such felony conviction waived.

Further, he or she must be treated as if he or she had been convicted of a misdemeanor for purposes of any right, privilege, benefit, remedy, or collateral consequence that the person might be entitled to but for such felony conviction. However, the bill provides that this provision does not serve to remove the designation of the person as a convicted felon, but the statutory consequences of such felony conviction no longer apply.

Because the bill expressly provides for retroactive application of the changes the bill makes, the bill has provided a legislative exception to the default position of prospectively.

Expunction Related to DWLSR Offenses

The bill also creates s. 943.0587, F.S., authorizing a person to petition a court to expunge a criminal history record for a conviction under former s. 322.34, F.S., if the person:

- Received a withholding of adjudication or adjudication of guilt for a violation of DWLSR under former s. 322.34, F.S., and whose conviction would not be classified as a felony under the new s. 322.34, F.S.; and
- Only has felony convictions for the offense of DWLSR pursuant to the former s. 322.34, F.S.

The bill defines the terms of “former s. 322.34” and “new s. 322.34” in the same manner as described above.

Unlike other expunctions, an expunction granted in accordance with the bill does not prevent the person who receives such relief from petitioning for the expunction or sealing of a later criminal history record as provided for in ss. 943.0583, 943.0585, and 943.059, F.S., if the person is otherwise eligible under those sections.

The bill provides that a person seeking to expunge a criminal history record must apply to the FDLE for a COE prior to petitioning a court to expunge a criminal history record for eligible DWLSR offenses. The FDLE is required to adopt rules to establish procedures for applying for and issuing a COE for expunction. The FDLE is required to issue the COE to a person who is the subject of a criminal history record eligible under the bill if that person satisfies the eligibility criteria listed below:

- Has submitted to the FDLE a written certified statement from the appropriate state attorney or statewide prosecutor which confirms the criminal history record complies with the criteria;
- Has submitted to the FDLE a certified copy of the disposition of the charge or charges to which the petition to expunge pertains; and

- Remits a $75 processing fee to the FDLE for placement in the Department of Law Enforcement Operating Trust Fund, unless the executive director waives such fee.

As with COE certificates for other court-ordered expunctions, the bill provides that the COE is valid for 12 months after the date stamped on the certificate when issued by the FDLE. After that time, the petitioner must reapply for a new COE. The petitioner's status and the law in effect at the time of the renewal application determine the petitioner's eligibility.

The bill provides that a petition to expunge a criminal history record must be accompanied by:

- A valid COE issued by the FDLE.
- The petitioner's sworn statement that he or she:
 - Satisfies the eligibility requirements for expunction; and
 - Is eligible for expunction to the best of his or her knowledge.

Further, the bill provides that it is a third degree felony for a person to knowingly provide false information on a sworn statement for expunction pursuant to the bill.

The bill requires a copy of the completed petition to expunge to be served upon the appropriate state attorney or the statewide prosecutor and upon the arresting agency, which entity is then able to respond to the court regarding the completed petition to expunge.

If relief is granted by the court, the following actions must be taken:

- The clerk of the court must certify copies of the order to the appropriate state attorney or the statewide prosecutor and the arresting agency.
- The arresting agency is required to forward the order to any other agency to which the arresting agency disseminated the criminal history record information to which the order pertains.
- The FDLE must forward the order to expunge to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
- The clerk of the court must certify a copy of the order to any other agency that the records of the court reflect has received the criminal history record from the court.

The FDLE or any other criminal justice agency is not required to act on an order to expunge entered by a court when such order does not comply with the requirements of the bill. Upon receipt of such an order, the FDLE must notify the issuing court, the appropriate state attorney or statewide prosecutor, the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney, and the arresting agency of the reason for noncompliance. The appropriate state attorney or statewide prosecutor must take action within 60 days to correct the record and petition the court to void the order. The bill provides that a cause of action, including contempt of court, does not arise against any criminal justice agency for failure to comply with an order to expunge when the petitioner for such order failed to obtain the COE as required or when the order does not otherwise comply with the requirements.

The bill provides that the effect of the expunction order is identical to the effect of court-ordered expunction orders that have been issued pursuant to s. 943.0585, F.S. The bill provides:

- The person who is the subject of a criminal history record that is expunged may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge the arrests and convictions covered by the expunged record, except when the subject of the record:
 - Is a candidate for employment with a criminal justice agency;
 - Is a defendant in a criminal prosecution;
 - Concurrently or subsequently petitions for relief under this section, s. 943.0583, F.S., s. 943.059, F.S., or s. 943.0585, F.S.;
 - Is a candidate for admission to The Florida Bar;
 - Is seeking to be employed or licensed by or to contract with the Department of Children and Families, the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation of the Department of Education, the Agency for Health Care Administration, the Agency for Persons with Disabilities, the Department of Health, the Department of Elderly Affairs, or the Department of Juvenile Justice or to be employed or used by such contractor or licensee in a sensitive position having direct contact with children, the disabled, or the elderly;
 - Is seeking to be employed or licensed by the Department of Education, any district school board, any university laboratory school, any charter school, any private or parochial school, or any local governmental entity that licenses child care facilities;
 - Is seeking to be licensed by the Division of Insurance Agent and Agency Services within the Department of Financial Services; or
 - Is seeking to be appointed as a guardian pursuant to s. 744.3125, F.S.
- Except as mentioned above, a person who has been granted an expunction may not be held to commit perjury or to be otherwise liable for giving a false statement by reason of such person's failure to recite or acknowledge an expunged criminal history record.

Section 1 of the bill, which relates to the retroactive application of the changes to the DWLSR offense, is effective October 1, 2020. Section 15, which relates to the expunction of certain DWLSR offenses, is effective on the same date as SB 1506 or similar legislation, which is tied to this bill, goes into effect if such legislation is adopted during this session.

Criminal Punishment Code (Sections 6, 9, 33, 34, 38, 40-51, and 56-62)

In 1997, the Legislature enacted the Criminal Punishment Code⁵⁸ (Code) as Florida's "primary sentencing policy."⁵⁹ The primary purpose of the Code is to "punish the offender."⁶⁰ Noncapital felonies sentenced under the Code receive an offense severity level ranking (Levels 1-10).⁶¹ Points are assigned and accrue based upon the level ranking assigned to the primary offense, additional offenses, and prior offenses. Sentence points escalate as the level escalates. Points may also be added or multiplied for other factors such as victim injury or the commission of certain offenses like a Level 7 or 8 drug trafficking offense. The lowest permissible sentence is any nonstate prison sanction in which total sentence points equal or are less than 44 points, unless the court determines that a prison sentence is appropriate. If total sentence points exceed ⁵⁸ Sections 921.002-921.0027, F.S. The Code is effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 1998.

⁶⁰ Section 921.002(1)(b), F.S.

44 points, the lowest permissible sentence in prison months is calculated by subtracting 28 points from the total sentence points and decreasing the remaining total by 25 percent.⁶²

Absent mitigation,⁶³ the permissible sentencing range under the Code is generally the lowest permissible sentence scored up to and including the maximum penalty provided under s. 775.082, F.S. Except as otherwise provided by law, the statutory maximum sentence for an offense committed, which is classified as a:

- Capital felony is:
 - Death, if the proceeding held according to the procedure set forth in s. 921.141, F.S., results in a determination that it is appropriate for the person to be punished by death; or
 - Life imprisonment without the possibility of parole.
- Life felony is a term of imprisonment for life or by imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life imprisonment.
- First-degree felony is:
 - 30 years; or
 - Imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life imprisonment when specifically provided by statute.
- Second-degree felony is 15 years.
- Third degree felony is 5 years.⁶⁴

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 921.002, F.S., to revise the name and primary purpose of the Criminal Punishment Code, Florida's primary sentencing policy for noncapital felonies. Under current law, the primary purpose of the Criminal Punishment Code is to punish the offender. The bill renames the Criminal Punishment Code as the Public Safety Code and provides that the primary purpose of the Public Safety Code is public safety.

Conforming changes are made to numerous other statutes consistent with these changes.

These provisions of the bill are effective October 1, 2020.

Mandatory Minimum Sentencing (Sections 2-5, 7, 8, and 39)

Mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment limit judicial discretion in Code sentencing: "If the lowest permissible sentence is less than the mandatory minimum sentence, the mandatory minimum sentence takes precedence."⁶⁵ As previously noted, the sentencing range under the Code is generally the scored lowest permissible sentence up to and including the statutory maximum penalty. However, if there is a mandatory minimum sentence that is longer than the scored lowest permissible sentence, the sentencing range is narrowed to the mandatory minimum sentence up to and including the statutory maximum penalty.

⁶³ The court may "mitigate" or "depart downward" from the scored lowest permissible sentence if the court finds a mitigating circumstance. Section 921.0026, F.S., provides a list of mitigating circumstances.

Prosecutors have “complete discretion” in the charging decision.⁶⁶ The exercise of this discretion may determine whether a defendant is subject to a mandatory minimum term or a reduced mandatory minimum term. Further, a prosecutor could move the court to reduce or suspend a sentence if the defendant renders substantial assistance.

There are few circumstances in which a court of its own accord can depart from a mandatory minimum term. A court may depart from a mandatory minimum term if the defendant is a youthful offender.⁶⁷ A court may also depart from a mandatory minimum term for a violation of s. 316.027(2)(c), F.S., (driver involved in a fatal crash fails to stop and remain at the scene of a crash), if the court “finds that a factor, consideration or circumstance clearly demonstrates that imposing a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment would constitute or result in an injustice.”⁶⁸

Possession of Certain Spiny Lobsters and Saltwater Products

Section 379.407(5), F.S., prohibits a person, firm, or corporation to be in possession of spiny lobster during the closed season or, while on the water, to be in possession of spiny lobster tails that have been wrung or separated from the body, unless such possession is allowed by commission rule.⁶⁹ Certain repeat violations of this provision are punishable by mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment, including:

- A third violation is a first degree misdemeanor with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 6 months.⁷⁰
- A third violation within 1 year after a second violation is a third degree felony with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.
- A fourth or subsequent violation is a third degree felony with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.

Additionally, s. 379.407(7), F.S., prohibits any unlicensed person, firm, or corporation who is required to be licensed under ch. 379, F.S., as a commercial harvester or a wholesale or retail dealer to sell or purchase any saltwater product or to harvest or attempt to harvest any saltwater product with intent to sell the saltwater product. Certain repeat violations of this provision are punishable by mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment, including:

- A third violation is a first degree misdemeanor with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 6 months.
- A third violation within 1 year after a second violation is a third degree felony with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.

- A fourth or subsequent violation is a third degree felony with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.⁷¹

It is also a third degree felony for any person whose license privileges have been permanently revoked to thereafter sell or purchase, or attempt to sell or purchase, any saltwater product. This violation is punishable with a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.⁷²

Any commercial harvester or wholesale or retail dealer whose license privileges are under suspension is also prohibited from selling or purchasing during such period of suspension, or attempting to sell or purchase, any saltwater product. Certain violations of such provision includes mandatory minimum penalties, including:

- A second violation occurring within 12 months of a first violation is a third degree felony with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.
- A third violation within 24 months of the second violation or subsequent violation is a third degree felony with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.⁷³

Any commercial harvester is prohibited from harvesting or attempting to harvest any saltwater product with intent to sell the saltwater product without having purchased a saltwater products license with the requisite endorsements. Certain violations of such provision includes mandatory minimum penalties, including:

- A third violation is a first degree misdemeanor with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 6 months.
- A third violation within 1 year after a second violation is a third degree felony with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.
- A fourth or subsequent violation is a third degree felony with, in part, a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.⁷⁴

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 379.407(5) and (7), F.S., removing any mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment from the sentencing provisions for these offenses.

This provision of the bill is effective October 1, 2020.

Phosphogypsum Stack Offenses

According to the Florida Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) Geospatial Open Data, Phosphogypsum is calcium sulfate (gypsum) that is formed as a byproduct from the chemical reaction of sulfuric acid with phosphate rock in the production of phosphoric acid. The Phosphogypsum Stack System layer contains the approximate boundaries of the phosphogypsum stacks in Florida and phosphogypsum stacks are formed as a means to store the phosphogypsum and associated process water resulting from the chemical manufacturing of phosphoric acid and related fertilizer products. Phosphogypsum stacks are located in Polk, Hillsborough, Manatee, and Hamilton counties. This layer was designed to provide the Bureau of Mining and Mineral Regulation and other interested parties with a graphical representation of the phosphogypsum stack systems and their relative locations in the state. The layer is maintained by the Bureau of Mining and Mineral Regulation in the Division of Water Resource Management at the DEP.⁷⁵

Section 403.4154, F.S., creates a regulatory program for the management of such stacks and imposes criminal penalties, including mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment, for certain actions related to the management of such stacks. Specifically, it is a third degree felony for a person to willfully, knowingly, or with reckless indifference or gross carelessness:

- Misstate or misrepresent the financial condition or closure costs of an entity engaged in managing, owning, or operating a phosphogypsum stack or stack system.
- Make a distribution that would be prohibited under s. 607.06401(3), F.S., after failing to comply with the DEP rules requiring demonstration of closure financial responsibility, until the noncompliance is corrected.

Both of these provisions are punishable by, in part, imprisonment for 5 years for each offense.

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 403.4154(2), F.S., removing the specific language related to imprisonment of five years for each offense.

This provision of the bill is effective October 1, 2020.

Health Care Practitioners Operating Without a Valid License

Section 456.065, F.S., prohibits the unlicensed practice of a health care profession or the performance or delivery of medical or health care services to patients in this state without a valid, active license to practice that profession, regardless of the means of the performance or delivery of such services. Further, the unlicensed practice of a health care profession is a:

- Third degree felony, with, in part, a minimum mandatory period of incarceration of one year, to:
 - Practice, attempt to practice, or offer to practice a health care profession without an active, valid Florida license to practice that profession, which includes practicing on a suspended, revoked, or void license, but does not include practicing, etc., with an inactive or delinquent license for a period of up to 12 months.
 - Apply for employment for a position that requires a license without notifying the employer that the person does not currently possess a valid, active license to practice that profession.
 - Hold oneself out, regardless of the means of communication, as able to practice a health care profession or as able to provide services that require a health care license.

- Second degree felony, with in part, a minimum mandatory period of incarceration of one year, to:
 - Practice a health care profession without an active, valid Florida license to practice that profession when such practice results in serious bodily injury.⁷⁶
- First degree misdemeanor with, in part, a term of imprisonment of 30 days, to:
 - Practice, attempt to practice, or offer to practice a health care profession with an inactive or delinquent license for any period of time up to 12 months.⁷⁷

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 456.065(2)(d), F.S., removing the requirement that the person must serve a minimum term of imprisonment as described above. Further, the bill amends s. 456.065(2)(d)2., F.S., requiring that a person must knowingly apply for employment for a position that requires a license without notifying the employer that the person does not currently possess a valid, active license to practice that profession to violate this provision.

This provision of the bill is effective October 1, 2020.

Insurers Operating Without a Certificate of Authority

Section 624.401, F.S., prohibits a person to act as an insurer, transact insurance, or otherwise engage in insurance activities in Florida without a certificate of authority. The degree of offense and specific penalties applicable for the violation are determined by the amount of any insurance premium collected with respect to any violation, including when the premium:

- Is less than $20,000, the offender commits a third degree felony and must be sentenced to a minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year.
- Is $20,000 or more, but less than $100,000, the offender commits a second degree felony and must be sentenced to a minimum term of imprisonment of 18 months.
- Is $100,000 or more, the offender commits a first degree felony and the offender must be sentenced to a minimum term of imprisonment of two years.⁷⁸

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 624.401(4)(b), F.S., to remove the mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment mentioned above for specified violations of engaging in insurance activities.

This provision of the bill is effective October 1, 2020.

False and Fraudulent Insurance Claims

In part, s. 817.234, F.S., provides it is a second degree felony for any person to intend to defraud any other person to solicit or cause to be solicited any business from a person involved in a motor vehicle accident for the purpose of making, adjusting, or settling motor vehicle tort claims

⁷⁶ Section 465.065(2)(d)2., F.S., defines “serious bodily injury” to mean death; brain or spinal damage; disfigurement; fracture or dislocation of bones or joints; limitation of neurological, physical, or sensory function; or any condition that required subsequent surgical repair.

⁷⁷ However, practicing, attempting to practice, or offering to practice a health care profession when that person’s license has been inactive or delinquent for a period of time of 12 months or more is a third degree felony.

Any person convicted of a violation of s. 817.234(8), F.S., must be sentenced to a minimum term of imprisonment of two years.

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 817.234(8)(a), F.S., deleting the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment required in this provision.

This provision of the bill is effective October 1, 2020.

Drug Trafficking

Section 893.135, F.S., requires mandatory minimum prison sentences for certain drug trafficking offenses. That section provides that possession of more than certain specified amounts of cannabis, cocaine, certain narcotic opioids, sedatives, stimulants, hallucinogens, and other illicit substances constitutes “trafficking,” with increasing mandatory prison terms and fines for possession of amounts beyond certain thresholds.

Effect of the Bill

This bill allows a sentencing court to impose a sentence other than the mandatory minimum on drug trafficking offenders if the court finds on the record that the offender did not:

- Engage in a continuing criminal enterprise as defined in s. 893.20, F.S.;⁷⁹
- Use or threaten violence or use a weapon during the commission of the offense; and
- Cause a death or serious bodily injury.

The bill authorizes a sentencing court to impose a sentence other than the mandatory minimum on an offender convicted of trafficking in the following substances:

- Cannabis or cannabis plants;⁸⁰
- Cocaine;⁸¹
- Morphine, opium, hydromorphone, or any salt, derivative, isomer, or salt of an isomer thereof, including heroin;⁸²
- Hydrocodone, Oxycodone, Alfentanil, Carfentanil, Fentanyl, Sufentanil, or a fentanyl derivative;⁸³

⁷⁹ Under s. 893.20, F.S., a person is guilty of engaging in a continuing criminal enterprise if he or she “commits three or more felonies under [chapter 893] in concert with five or more other persons with respect to whom such person occupies a position of organizer, a supervisory position, or any other position of management and who obtains substantial assets or resources from these acts”

⁹⁶ Habitual felony offenders are defendants who have been convicted of two or more prior felonies, or whose conduct meets certain criteria: the offense was committed while the offender was serving a prison sentence or within 5 years after release from a prison sentence, the felony is not simple possession under s. 893.13, F.S., and any of the qualifying felonies were not pardoned or set aside in a postconviction proceeding. Section 775.084(1)(a), F.S.

Prison Releasee Reoffenders (Section 6)

A prison releasee reoffender is a person who is being sentenced for committing or attempting to commit a qualifying offense, such as murder, manslaughter, sexual battery, or robbery,⁹⁷ within three years of being released from a:

- State correctional facility operated by the DOC or a private vendor;
- Correctional institution of another jurisdiction following incarceration for which the sentence is punishable by more than one year in Florida; or
- County detention facility following incarceration for an offense for which the sentence pronounced was a prison sentence,⁹⁸ if the person is otherwise eligible.⁹⁹

A prison releasee reoffender also includes a person who commits or attempts to commit a qualifying offense while serving a prison sentence or while on escape status from a state correctional facility operated by the DOC or a private vendor or from a correctional institution of another jurisdiction.¹⁰⁰

A judge must also sentence a defendant as a prison releasee reoffender if the defendant committed or attempted to commit any of the previously-described offenses while the defendant was serving a prison sentence or on escape status from a Florida state or private correctional facility or while the defendant was on escape status from a correctional institution of another state, the District of Columbia, the United States, any possession or territory of the United States, or any foreign jurisdiction, following incarceration for an offense for which the sentence is punishable by more than 1 year in this state.¹⁰¹

A person who qualifies as a prison releasee reoffender is subject to a mandatory minimum sentence. Specifically, a court must sentence a prison releasee reoffender to:

- A 5-year mandatory minimum term for a third degree felony;
- A 15-year mandatory minimum term for a second degree felony;
- A 30-year mandatory minimum term for a first degree felony; and
- Life imprisonment for a first degree felony punishable by life or a life felony.¹⁰²

A person sentenced as a prison releasee reoffender can be released only by expiration of sentence and is not eligible for parole, control release, or any form of early release. A prison releasee reoffender must also serve 100 percent of the court-imposed sentence.¹⁰³

⁹⁷ See s. 775.082(9)(a)3., F.S., for a complete list of qualifying offenses.

⁹⁸ In December of 2018, the Florida Supreme Court held that a defendant released from a county jail after having been committed to the legal custody of the DOC was not a prison releasee reoffender within the current meaning of that term as provided in s. 775.082, F.S. CS/HB 7125 (2019), codified in ch. 2019-167, L.O.F., amended s. 775.082(9), F.S., to include language to cure this issue. See State v. Lewars, 259 So.3d 793 (Fla. 2018).

⁹⁹ Section 775.082(9)(a)1., F.S.

¹⁰⁰ Section 775.082(9)(a)2., F.S.

¹⁰¹ Section 775.082(9)(a)2., F.S.

¹⁰² Section 775.082(9)(a)3., F.S.

The prison releasee reoffender provisions provide legislative intent that prison releasee reoffenders “be punished to the fullest extent of the law” unless the prosecuting attorney does not have sufficient evidence to prove the highest charge available, the testimony of material witness cannot be obtained, the victim provides a written statement that he or she does not want the offender to receive a mandatory sentence, or other extenuating circumstances exist which preclude the just prosecution of the offender.¹⁰⁴

For every case in which the offender meets the prison releasee reoffender criteria and does not receive the mandatory minimum prison sentence, the state attorney must explain the sentencing deviation in writing and place such explanation in the case file maintained by the state attorney.¹⁰⁵

The bill amends s. 775.082(9), F.S., to reduce mandatory minimum penalties applicable to a prison releasee reoffender. A prison releasee reoffender must be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of at least:

- 25 years for a felony punishable by life (current law requires life imprisonment);
- 20 years for a first degree felony (current law requires 30 years);
- 10 years for a second degree felony (current law requires 15 years); and
- 3 years for a third degree felony (current law requires 5 years).

The bill provides for retroactive application of the previously-described penalty changes to:

- A person who qualified as a prison releasee reoffender before July 1, 2020 (referred to in the bill as “former 775.082(9)”), and who was not sentenced as a prison releasee reoffender before July 1, 2020; and
- A person who qualified as a prison releasee reoffender before July 1, 2020, who was sentenced as such before July 1, 2020, to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment pursuant to former s. 775.082(9), F.S., and who is serving such mandatory minimum term of imprisonment on or after July 1, 2020.

A person who qualified as a prison releasee reoffender before July 1, 2020, and who was not sentenced as a prison releasee reoffender before July 1, 2020, must be sentenced as provided in the bill (see previous description of changes to penalties).

A person who qualified as a prison releasee reoffender before July 1, 2020, who was sentenced as such before July 1, 2020, to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment pursuant to former s. 775.082(9), F.S., and who is serving such mandatory minimum term of imprisonment on or after July 1, 2020, may be resentenced in the following manner:

- The DOC must notify this person of his or her eligibility to request a sentence review hearing.
- The person seeking sentence review must submit an application to the court of original jurisdiction requesting that a sentence review hearing be held. The sentencing court retains original jurisdiction for the duration of the sentence for this purpose.

¹⁰⁵ Section 775.082(9)(d)2., F.S.

- A person who is eligible for this sentence review hearing is entitled to representation by counsel and the court may appoint a public defender to represent the person if he or she cannot afford an attorney.
- Upon receiving an application from an eligible person, the court of original jurisdiction must hold a sentence review hearing to determine if the eligible person meets the criteria for resentencing. If the court determines at the sentence review hearing that the eligible person meets such criteria, the court may resentence the person as provided in the bill (see previous description of changes to penalties); however, the new sentence may not exceed the person's original sentence with credit for time served. If the court does not resentence the person, the court must provide written findings why resentencing is not appropriate.
- A person resented as previously described is eligible to receive any gain-time pursuant to s. 944.275, F.S., he or she was previously ineligible to receive under former s. 775.082(9), F.S.

Because the bill expressly provides for retroactive application of the changes the bill makes, the bill has provided a legislative exception to the default position of prospectivity.

The bill modifies s. 775.082(9)(a)3., F.S., which currently provides that “upon proof from the state attorney that establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that a defendant is a prison releasee reoffender as defined in this section, such defendant is not eligible for sentencing under the sentencing guidelines and must be sentenced” under the penalties specified in s. 775.082(9), F.S. The bill removes reference to the “preponderance of evidence” standard of proof and ineligibility for sentencing under the sentencing guidelines. Neither of these changes appear to be substantive. Whether stated in the statute or not “preponderance of the evidence” would likely be the standard of proof because s. 775.082(9), F.S., does not increase the penalty beyond the statutory maximum.¹⁰⁶ Further, it does not need to be in the statute that a prison releasee reoffender is ineligible to be sentenced under the sentencing guidelines because s. 775.082(9), F.S., specifies that a prison releasee reoffender must be sentenced under that subsection.

The bill also removes language from s. 775.082(9), F.S., that:

- Indicates legislative intent that offenders previously released from prison or a county detention facility following incarceration for an offense for which the sentence pronounced was a prison sentence who meet the prison releasee reoffender criteria be punished to the fullest extent of the law.
- Requires a state attorney to explain in writing why he or she seeks prison releasee reoffender sanctions for an offender who meets prison releasee reoffender criteria.
- Prohibits a prison releasee reoffender from any form of early release.

This provision of the bill is effective October 1, 2020.

¹⁰⁶ “In [Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000)], the United States Supreme Court held that other than the fact of a prior conviction, any fact that increases the punishment for a crime beyond the prescribed statutory maximum must be submitted to a jury and proved beyond a reasonable doubt. Apprendi is inapplicable to the Prison Releasee Reoffender Act, because the Act merely limits the court’s discretion in sentencing. It does not increase the penalty beyond the statutory maximum.” Stabile v. State, 790 So.2d 1235, 238 (Fla. 5th DCA 2001) (citations omitted), approved, 838 So.2d 557 (Fla. 2003).

Probation Supervision through the Department of Corrections (Section 22)

At sentencing, a judge may place an offender on probation or community control in lieu of or in addition to incarceration.¹⁰⁷ The DOC supervises more than 164,000 offenders on active community supervision. This includes offenders released from prison on parole, conditional release, or conditional medical release and offenders placed on court ordered supervision including probation, drug offender probation, sex offender probation, and community control.¹⁰⁸

Probation

Probation is a form of community supervision requiring specified contacts with probation officers and other conditions a court may impose to ensure the offender's compliance with the terms of the sentence and the safety to the community.¹⁰⁹ Section 948.03, F.S., provides that a court must determine the terms and conditions of probation. Standard conditions of probation that are enumerated in s. 948.03, F.S., are not required to be announced on the record, but the court must orally pronounce, and provide in writing, any special conditions of probation.

Violations of Probation

If an offender violates the terms of his or her probation or community control, the supervision can be revoked in accordance with s. 948.06, F.S.¹¹⁰ A violation of probation (VOP) can be the result of a new violation of law or a technical violation of the conditions imposed. If reasonable grounds exist to believe that an offender has violated his or her terms of supervision in a material respect, an offender may be arrested without a warrant by a:

- Law enforcement officer who is aware of the inmate's supervised community release status;
- Probation officer; or
- County or municipal law enforcement officer upon request by a probation officer.¹¹¹

The offender must be returned to the court granting such probation.¹¹² Additionally, the committing court judge may issue a warrant, upon the facts being made known to him or her by affidavit of one having knowledge of such facts, for the arrest of the offender.¹¹³

Upon a finding through a VOP hearing, a court may revoke, modify, or continue the supervision. If the court chooses to revoke the supervision, it may impose any sentence originally permissible before placing the offender on supervision.¹¹⁴ In addition, if an offender qualifies as a violent felony offender of special concern (VFOOSC), the court must revoke supervision, unless it makes written findings that the VFOSC does not pose a danger to the community.¹¹⁵ The VFOSC status also accrues sentence points under the Code, which affects the scoring of the lowest permissible sentence.¹¹⁶

Prior to October 1, 2019, the effective date for section 63 of CS/HB 7125 (2019), the sentencing court had the complete discretion to determine whether to continue, modify, or revoke an offender's probation subsequent to a violation of probation.¹¹⁷ However, in part, CS/HB 7125 (2019) amended s. 948.06, F.S., providing that the court must modify or continue a probationary term upon finding a probationer in violation when any of the following applies:

- The term of supervision is probation.
- The probationer does not qualify as a VFOSC.
- The violation is a low-risk technical violation, as defined in s. 948.06(9)(b), F.S.¹¹⁸
- The court has not previously found the probationer in violation of his or her probation pursuant to a filed violation of probation affidavit during the current term of supervision. A probationer who has successfully completed sanctions through the alternative sanctioning program is eligible for mandatory modification or continuation of his or her probation.

Further, if the court is required to modify or continue the probationary term, the court may include in the sentence a maximum of 90 days in county jail as a special condition of probation.

CS/HB 7125 (2019) also provided that if a probationer has less than 90 days of supervision remaining on his or her term of probation and meets the criteria for mandatory modification or continuation, the court may revoke probation and sentence the probationer to a maximum of 90 days in county jail.

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 948.06(2)(f), F.S., clarifying that the court is only required to modify or continue an offender's probationary term if all, rather than any, of the enumerated factors applies.

This provision of the bill is effective upon becoming law.

Sentence Review Hearings for Specified Offenders (Sections 10-12)

Juvenile Offenders Convicted of Offenses Punishable by Life without Parole

In recent years, the U.S. Supreme Court issued several decisions addressing the application of the Eighth Amendment's prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment as it relates to the punishment of juvenile offenders.¹¹⁹ The first of these was Roper v. Simmons,¹²⁰ in which the Court held that juvenile offenders cannot be subject to the death penalty for any offense. More recently, the Court expanded juvenile sentencing doctrine in *Graham v. Florida*¹²¹ and Miller v. Alabama.¹²²

Graham v. Florida

In Graham, the U.S. Supreme Court held that a juvenile offender may not be sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole for a non-homicide offense. More specifically, the Court found that if a non-homicide juvenile offender is sentenced to life in prison, the state must "provide him or her with some realistic opportunity to obtain release before the end of that term."¹²³ Because Florida abolished parole¹²⁴ and the possibility of executive clemency was deemed to be remote,¹²⁵ the Court held that a juvenile offender in Florida could not be given a life sentence for a non-homicide offense without a meaningful opportunity to obtain release.¹²⁶

Graham applies retroactively to previously sentenced offenders because it established a fundamental constitutional right.¹²⁷ Therefore, a juvenile offender who is serving a life sentence for a non-homicide offense that was committed after parole eligibility was eliminated is entitled to be resentenced to a term less than life.

The U.S. Supreme Court did not give any guidance as to the maximum permissible sentence for a non-homicide juvenile offender other than to exclude the possibility of life without parole. This led to different results among the District Courts in reviewing sentences for a lengthy term of years. Prior to the 2014 Legislative Session, there were conflicts in the case law regarding whether a term of years could be deemed to equate to a life without parole sentence. The Florida

¹¹⁹ The term "juvenile offender" refers to an offender who was less than 18 years of age at the time the offense was committed for which he or she was sentenced. Most crimes committed by juveniles are dealt with through delinquency proceedings as set forth in ch. 985, F.S. However, the law provides a mechanism for juveniles to be tried and handled as adults. A juvenile who commits a crime while 13 years old or younger may only be tried as an adult if a grand jury indictment is returned. A juvenile who is older than 13 years may be tried as an adult for certain felony offenses if a grand jury indictment is returned, if juvenile court jurisdiction is waived and the case is transferred for prosecution as an adult pursuant to s. 985.556, F.S., or if the state attorney direct files an information in adult court pursuant to s. 985.557, F.S. Regardless of age, s. 985.58, F.S., requires a grand jury indictment to try a juvenile as an adult for an offense that is punishable by death or life imprisonment.

First District Court of Appeal held that a lengthy term of years is a de facto life sentence if it exceeds the juvenile offender's life expectancy.¹²⁸ On the other hand, the Florida Fourth and Fifth District Courts of Appeal strictly construed Graham to apply only to life sentences and not to affect sentences for a lengthy term of years.¹²⁹

On March 19, 2015, the Florida Supreme Court issued opinions on two cases that had been certified for it to resolve, Gridine v. State, 89 So.3d 909 (Fla. 1st DCA 2011) and Henry v. State, 82 So.3d 1084 (Fla. 5th DCA 2012). The Court held that a sentence proscribing a lengthy term of years imprisonment, such as a 70-year sentence as was pronounced in Gridine or the 90-year sentence pronounced in Henry that does not provide a meaningful opportunity for release is a de facto life sentence that violates the Eighth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and the holding in Graham.¹³⁰

Miller v. Alabama

In Miller, the U.S. Supreme Court held that juvenile offenders who commit homicide may not be sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole as the result of a mandatory sentencing scheme. The Court did not find that the Eighth Amendment prohibits sentencing a juvenile murderer to life without parole, but rather that individualized factors related to the offender's age must be considered before a life without parole sentence may be imposed. The Court also indicated that it expects few juvenile offenders will be found to merit life without parole sentences.

The majority opinion in Miller noted mandatory life without parole sentences “preclude a sentencer from taking account of an offender's age and the wealth of characteristics and circumstances attendant to it.”¹³¹ Although the Court did not require consideration of specific factors, it highlighted the following concerns:

Mandatory life without parole for a juvenile precludes consideration of his chronological age and its hallmark features—among them, immaturity, impetuosity, and failure to appreciate risks and consequences. It prevents taking into account the family and home environment that surrounds him—and from which he cannot usually extricate himself—no matter how brutal or dysfunctional. It neglects the circumstances of the homicide offense, including the extent of his participation in the conduct and the way familial and peer pressures may have affected him. Indeed, it ignores that he might have been charged and convicted of a lesser offense if not for incompetencies associated with youth—for example, his inability to deal with police officers or prosecutors (including on a plea agreement) or

State*, 87 So.3d 45 (Fla. 1st DCA 2012)), while approving sentences of 50 years (Thomas v. State, 78 So.3d 644 (Fla. 1st DCA 2011)) and 70 years (*Gridine v. his incapacity to assist his own attorneys....[A]nd finally, this mandatory punishment disregards the possibility of rehabilitation even when the circumstances most suggest it.¹³²

In response to the above-mentioned cases, the 2014 Legislature passed and the Governor signed into law CS/HB 7035 (2014)¹³³, ensuring Florida had a constitutional sentencing scheme for juvenile offenders who are convicted of offenses punishable by a sentence of life without parole.

CS/HB 7035 (2014) amended s. 775.082, F.S., requiring a court to sentence a juvenile offender who is convicted of a homicide offense¹³⁴ that is a capital felony or an offense that was reclassified as a capital felony (capital felony homicide) and where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim to:

- Life imprisonment, if, after conducting a sentencing hearing in accordance with the newly created s. 921.1401, F.S., the court concluded that life imprisonment is an appropriate sentence; or
- A term of imprisonment of not less than 40 years, if the judge concluded at the sentencing hearing that life imprisonment is not an appropriate sentence.¹³⁵

The court may sentence a juvenile offender to life imprisonment or a term of years equal to life imprisonment, if, after conducting a sentencing hearing in accordance with s. 921.1401, F.S., the court finds such sentence appropriate and the juvenile offender is convicted of a:

- Life or first degree felony homicide where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim;¹³⁶
- Capital, life, or first degree felony homicide offense where the person did not actually kill, intend to kill, or attempt to kill the victim;¹³⁷ or
- Nonhomicide offense.¹³⁸

Section 775.082(1)(b)1., F.S., requires the court to impose a minimum sentence (40 years) only in instances where the court determines that life imprisonment is not appropriate for a juvenile offender convicted of a capital felony homicide where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim.¹³⁹

Section 775.082(1) and (3), F.S., also provides that all juvenile offenders are entitled to have their sentence reviewed by the court of original jurisdiction after specified periods of imprisonment. However, a juvenile offender convicted of a capital felony homicide, where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim, is not entitled to review if

Sentencing Proceedings for Juvenile Offenders Sentenced to Life Imprisonment

CS/HB 7035 (2014) created s. 921.1401, F.S., which authorized the court to conduct a separate sentencing hearing to determine whether life imprisonment or a term of years equal to life imprisonment is an appropriate sentence for a juvenile offender convicted of one of the above-described homicide or nonhomicide offenses that was committed on or after July 1, 2014.¹⁴¹ When determining whether such sentence is appropriate, the court is required to consider factors relevant to the offense and to the juvenile offender's youth and attendant circumstances, including, but not limited to the:

- Nature and circumstances of offense committed by the juvenile offender;
- Effect of crime on the victim's family and on the community;
- Juvenile offender's age, maturity, intellectual capacity, and mental and emotional health at time of offense;
- Juvenile offender's background, including his or her family, home, and community environment;
- Effect, if any, of immaturity, impetuosity, or failure to appreciate risks and consequences on the juvenile offender's participation in the offense;
- Extent of the juvenile offender's participation in the offense;
- Effect, if any, of familial pressure or peer pressure on the juvenile offender's actions;
- Nature and extent of the juvenile offender's prior criminal history;
- Effect, if any, of characteristics attributable to the juvenile offender's youth on the juvenile offender's judgment; and
- Possibility of rehabilitating the juvenile offender.¹⁴²

This sentencing hearing is mandatory when sentencing any juvenile offender for a capital felony homicide offense where the offender actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim. The hearing is not required in any of the other above-described offenses, but must be conducted before the court can impose a sentence of life imprisonment or a term of years equal to life imprisonment.

Sentence Review Proceedings

CS/HB 7035 (2014) also created s. 921.1402, F.S., which entitles certain juvenile offenders to a review of the sentence by the court of original jurisdiction after specified periods of time. The sentence review hearing is to determine whether the juvenile offender has been rehabilitated and is deemed fit to re-enter society.

¹⁴⁰ See s. 775.082(1) and (3), F.S., providing that reviews of sentences will be conducted in accordance with s. 921.1402, F.S.

¹⁴¹ Section 921.1401(1), F.S.

¹⁴² Section 921.1401(2), F.S.

Section 921.1402(1), F.S., defines “juvenile offender” to mean a person sentenced to imprisonment in the custody of the DOC for an offense committed on or after July 1, 2014, and committed before he or she was 18 years of age.

A juvenile offender convicted of a capital felony homicide offense where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim is entitled to a sentence review hearing after 25 years.¹⁴³ However, a juvenile offender is not entitled to review if he or she has previously been convicted of one of the following offenses, or conspiracy to commit one of the following offenses, if the offense for which the person was previously convicted was part of a separate criminal transaction or episode than that which resulted in the sentence for which he or she was sentenced to life:

- Murder;
- Manslaughter;
- Sexual battery;
- Armed burglary;
- Armed robbery;
- Armed carjacking;
- Home-invasion robbery;
- Human trafficking for commercial sexual activity with a child under 18 years of age;
- False imprisonment under s. 787.02(3)(a), F.S.; or
- Kidnapping.¹⁴⁴

A juvenile offender convicted of a life felony or first degree felony homicide offense where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim, is entitled to a sentence review hearing after 25 years, if he or she is sentenced to a term of imprisonment for more than 25 years.¹⁴⁵

A juvenile offender convicted of a capital felony, life felony, or first degree felony homicide offense where the person did not actually kill, intend to kill, or attempt to kill the victim is entitled to have the court review the sentence after 15 years, if he or she is sentenced to a term of imprisonment of more than 15 years.¹⁴⁶

A juvenile offender convicted of a nonhomicide offense is entitled to have the court review the sentence after 20 years if the juvenile is sentenced to a term of imprisonment of more than 20 years. The juvenile offender is eligible for one subsequent review hearing 10 years after the initial review hearing.¹⁴⁷

The juvenile offender must submit an application to the court of original jurisdiction requesting that a sentence review hearing be held. The DOC must notify a juvenile offender of his or her eligibility to request a sentencing review hearing 18 months before the juvenile offender becomes entitled to such review. Additionally, an eligible juvenile offender is entitled to be represented by counsel at the sentence review hearing, including a court appointed public defender, if the juvenile offender cannot afford an attorney.¹⁴⁸

Section 921.1402(6), F.S., requires the original sentencing court to consider any factor it deems appropriate during the sentence review hearing, including all of the following:

- Whether the offender demonstrates maturity and rehabilitation;
- Whether the offender remains at the same level of risk to society as he or she did at the time of the initial sentencing;
- The opinion of the victim or the victim's next of kin;¹⁴⁹
- Whether the offender was a relatively minor participant in the criminal offense or acted under extreme duress or the domination of another person;
- Whether the offender has shown sincere and sustained remorse for the criminal offense;
- Whether the offender's age, maturity, and psychological development at the time of the offense affected his or her behavior;
- Whether the offender has successfully obtained a general educational development certificate or completed another educational, technical, work, vocational, or self-rehabilitation program, if such a program is available;
- Whether the offender was a victim of sexual, physical, or emotional abuse before he or she committed the offense; and
- The results of any mental health assessment, risk assessment, or evaluation of the offender as to rehabilitation.¹⁵⁰

If a court, after conducting a sentence review hearing, finds that the juvenile offender has been rehabilitated and is reasonably fit to reenter society, the court must modify the offender's sentence and impose a term of probation of at least five years. If the court determines that the juvenile offender has not demonstrated rehabilitation or is not fit to reenter society, the court must issue an order in writing stating the reasons why the sentence is not being modified.¹⁵¹

These sentencing provisions are limited to the juvenile offenders that fall under the strict findings in Graham and Miller.¹⁵² Thus, the sentence review hearings do not currently apply to persons who were convicted and sentenced to very similar offenses and who are close in age to the juvenile offenders who have received sentence review hearings because of Graham and Miller.

¹⁴⁸ Section 921.1402(3)-(5), F.S.

¹⁴⁹ Section 921.1402(6)(c), F.S., further states that the absence of the victim or the victim's next of kin from the resentencing hearing may not be a factor in the court's determination. The victim or victim's next of kin is authorized to appear in person, in writing, or by electronic means. Additionally, if the victim or the victim's next of kin chooses not to participate in the hearing, the court may consider previous statements made by the victim or the victim's next of kin during the trial, initial sentencing phase, or subsequent sentence review hearings.

Case Law Subsequent to CS/HB 7035 (2014)

Valid Sentence Options for Miller Offenders

Subsequent to the U.S. Supreme Court's holdings in Roper and Miller, the options for permissible sentences under Florida law for juveniles who were convicted of such capital and life offenses punishable by life imprisonment without the possibility of parole became unclear. The Florida Fifth District Court of Appeal in Horsley v. State,¹⁵³ held that the principal of statutory revival should be applied mandating that the last constitutional sentence, life with the possibility of parole after 25 years, should be imposed for convictions of such juveniles. However, in 2015, the Florida Supreme Court heard and overturned this decision in Horsley,¹⁵⁴ holding that the proper remedy for such juveniles convicted of offenses classified as capital offenses is to apply the sentencing provisions enacted by CS/HB 7035 (2014), which codified the above-mentioned ss. 775.082, 921.1401, and 921.1402, F.S., rather than utilize statutory revival principles and impose a sentence of life with the possibility of parole after 25 years.¹⁵⁵

Retroactive Application of Miller

Another outstanding question at the time CS/HB 7035 (2014) was implemented was whether Miller applied retroactively in the same manner that Graham did. Other state and federal courts had issued differing opinions as to whether Miller applies retroactively. The question has turned on whether Miller is considered to be a procedural change in the law that does not apply retroactively to sentences that were final before the opinion was issued or an opinion of fundamental significance, similar to Graham.

The Florida Supreme Court decided this issue in Falcon v. State.¹⁵⁶ The Court held that Miller applied retroactively because the ruling is a development of fundamental significance. The Court held that given that Miller invalidated the only statutory means for imposing a sentence of life without the possibility of parole on juveniles convicted of a capital felony it dramatically impacted the ability of Florida to impose a nondiscretionary sentence of life without parole on a juvenile convicted of a capital felony. Therefore, Falcon ensured that juvenile offenders whose convictions and sentences were final prior to the Miller decision could seek collateral relief based on it.¹⁵⁷

Impact of Parole or Conditional Release Options for Juvenile Offenders

The U.S. Supreme Court further distinguished the Graham and Miller progeny of cases with Virginia v. LeBlanc, which denied habeas corpus relief for the juvenile offender holding that release programs for prisoners that consider factors in a similar manner as parole, such as Virginia's geriatric release program, did not violate Graham or Miller because it provides a juvenile offender a meaningful opportunity for release. In LeBlanc, the Court reasoned that Virginia's geriatric release program considered individualized factors of the offender, such as the individual's rehabilitation and maturity, history and conduct before and during incarceration, his or her inter-personal relationships with staff and inmates, and development and growth in attitude toward himself, herself, and others.¹⁵⁸

The Florida Supreme Court has held that the Graham and Miller rules do not apply to juvenile offenders sentenced to life or lengthy terms of years equal to life, but who are eligible for parole.¹⁵⁹

Victim Input

In 2018, the Florida voters approved Amendment 6 on the ballot, which provided certain rights to victims in the Florida Constitution. In part, Article I, s. 16 of the Florida Constitution, provides that a victim must have the following rights upon request:

- Reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of, and to be present at, all public proceedings involving the criminal conduct, including, but not limited to, trial, plea, sentencing, or adjudication, even if the victim will be a witness at the proceeding, notwithstanding any rule to the contrary.
- To be heard in any public proceeding involving pretrial or other release from any form of legal constraint, plea, sentencing, adjudication, or parole, and any proceeding during which a right of the victim is implicated.
- To be informed of the conviction, sentence, adjudication, place and time of incarceration, or other disposition of the convicted offender, any scheduled release date of the offender, and the release of or the escape of the offender from custody.
- To be informed of all postconviction processes and procedures, to participate in such processes and procedures, to provide information to the release authority to be considered before any release decision is made, and to be notified of any release decision regarding the offender.¹⁶⁰

Juvenile Offenders

As discussed above, a juvenile offender sentenced to a sentence of life without parole for a capital felony¹⁶¹ where a finding was made that he or she actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim is entitled to a review of his or her sentence after 25 years if he or she has never previously been convicted of a specified enumerated felony.¹⁶² The bill amends the list of enumerated offenses that bar such juvenile offenders from having a sentence review hearing to only include murder. Therefore, the bill provides such a juvenile offender is only prohibited from having a sentence review hearing if he or she has previously been convicted of committing or conspiracy to commit murder, if the murder for which the person was previously convicted was part of a separate criminal transaction or episode than the murder that resulted in the sentence.

¹⁶² See ss. 775.082(1)(b)1. and 921.1402, F.S.

The bill also creates s. 921.14021, F.S., providing for the retroactive application of the above mentioned amendment to remove certain prior convictions as a prohibition for a juvenile offender to have a sentence review hearing in accordance with s. 921.1402(2)(a), F.S. The bill requires that a juvenile offender is entitled to a review of his or her sentence after 25 years or, if 25 years on the term of imprisonment has already been served by October 1, 2020, the sentence review hearing must be conducted immediately. The bill provides legislative findings related to the retroactive application of such provisions.

Because the bill expressly provides for retroactive application of the changes the bill makes, the bill has provided a legislative exception to the default position of prospectively.

Young Adult Offenders

The bill creates s. 921.1403, F.S., expanding the sentence review hearing process created by CS/HB 7035 (2014) for juveniles in response to the Graham and Miller cases to persons convicted of similar offenses, but who were not entitled to a sentence review hearing.

The bill defines the term “young adult offender” to mean a person who committed an offense before he or she reached 25 years of age and for which he or she is sentenced to a term of years in the custody of the DOC, regardless of the date of sentencing. The bill also provides that the provisions allowing sentence review hearings of young adult offenders applies retroactively.

The sentence review procedures and hearing process are substantively identical to those in place for juvenile offenders in accordance with s. 921.1402, F.S., and discussed above. However, the eligibility criteria for a young adult offender to have a sentence review hearing is different.

Eligibility

The bill prohibits a young adult offender convicted of a violation of s. 782.04, F.S., related to homicide, which is punishable by death from being eligible for a sentence review hearing. The bill only permits young adult offenders convicted of offenses that are life or first degree felony offenses to be eligible for a sentence review hearing in accordance with s. 921.1403, F.S.

The bill excludes a young adult offender convicted and sentenced for certain life felony or first degree felony¹⁶³ offenses from a sentence review hearing if he or she has previously been convicted of committing, or of conspiring to commit murder, if such prior offense was part of a separate criminal transaction or episode than the offense that resulted in the sentence.

The bill provides that a young adult offender who is convicted of an offense that is a:

- Life felony or that was reclassified as a life felony, and who is sentenced to a term of more than 20 years¹⁶⁴ is entitled to a review of his or her sentence after 20 years.¹⁶⁵

¹⁶³ See s. 775.082(3)(a)1., 2., 3., 4., or 6., or (b)1., F.S., which are the citations included in the bill. Each of these citations includes different sentence terms based upon the degree of offense or the date of commission of the offense.

¹⁶⁴ Pursuant to s. 775.082(3)(a)1., 2., 3., 4., or 6., F.S.

¹⁶⁵ The bill provides that this does not apply to a person who is eligible for sentencing under s. 775.082(3)(a)5., or s. 775.082(3)(c), F.S., which only applies to an offender who committed certain life offenses before attaining the age of 18.

- Felony of the first degree or that was reclassified as a felony of the first degree and who is sentenced to a term of more than 15 years¹⁶⁶ is entitled to a review of his or her sentence after 15 years.

Procedures for Initiating the Sentence Review Hearing Process

Similar to the process developed in s. 921.1402(3), F.S., applicable to a juvenile offender, the bill provides that the DOC must notify a young adult offender in writing of his or her eligibility to request a sentence review hearing:

- 18 months before the young adult offender is entitled to a sentence review hearing if such offender is not eligible when the bill becomes effective; or
- Immediately if the offender is eligible as of October 1, 2020.

A young adult offender seeking a sentence review must submit an application to the original sentencing court requesting that the court hold a sentence review hearing. The bill provides that such court retains jurisdiction for the duration of the sentence for this purpose. The bill also provides that a young adult offender who is eligible for a sentence review hearing may be represented by an attorney, who must be appointed by the court if the young adult offender cannot afford an attorney.

Sentence Review Hearing

The bill requires the court to hold a sentence review hearing to determine whether to modify the young adult offender's sentence upon receiving an application for such hearing. The court is required to consider any factor it deems appropriate to determine the appropriateness of modifying the young adult offender's sentence, including, but not limited to, the following:

- Whether the young adult offender demonstrates maturity and rehabilitation.
- Whether the young adult offender remains at the same level of risk to society as he or she did at the time of the initial sentencing.
- The opinion of the victim or the victim's next of kin.¹⁶⁷
- Whether the young adult offender was a relatively minor participant in the criminal offense or whether he or she acted under extreme duress or under the domination of another person.
- Whether the young adult offender has shown sincere and sustained remorse for the criminal offense.
- Whether the young adult offender's age, maturity, or psychological development at the time of the offense affected his or her behavior.
- Whether the young adult offender has successfully obtained a high school equivalency diploma or completed another educational, technical, work, vocational, or self-rehabilitation program, if such a program is available.

¹⁶⁶ Pursuant to s. 775.082(3)(b)1., F.S.

¹⁶⁷ The bill states that the absence of the victim or the victim's next of kin from the hearing may not be a factor in the determination of the court. The court must allow the victim or victim's next of kin to be heard in person, in writing, or by electronic means. Finally, if the victim or the victim's next of kin chooses not to participate in the hearing, the court may consider previous statements made by the victim or the victim's next of kin during the trial, initial sentencing phase, or previous sentencing review hearings.

- Whether the young adult offender was a victim of sexual, physical, or emotional abuse before he or she committed the offense.
- The results of any mental health assessment, risk assessment, or evaluation of the young adult offender as to rehabilitation.¹⁶⁸

Terms of Release for Young Adult Offenders Resentenced Pursuant to s. 921.1403, F.S.

The terms that a young adult offender must comply with if he or she is resentenced under the bill are similar to those that a juvenile offender must comply with if resentenced in accordance with s. 921.1402, F.S.

Upon conducting the sentence review hearing, the court may modify the young adult offender's sentence if the court makes a determination that the young adult offender is rehabilitated and is reasonably believed to be fit to reenter society. The court must modify the sentence to a term of probation for at least:

- Five years, if the young adult offender was originally sentenced for a life felony, or an offense reclassified as a life felony; or
- Three years, if the young adult offender was originally sentenced for a first degree felony or an offense reclassified as a first degree felony.

However, the bill prohibits the court from resentencing a young adult offender if the court determines that he or she has not demonstrated rehabilitation or is not fit to reenter society and requires the court to issue a written order stating the reasons why the sentence is not being modified.

Subsequent Reviews

The bill allows a young adult offender to have one subsequent sentence review hearing after five years if he or she is not resentenced at the initial sentence review hearing. The bill requires the young adult offender seeking a subsequent sentence review hearing to submit a new application to the original sentencing court to request a subsequent sentence review hearing.

These provisions of the bill are effective October 1, 2020.

Postconviction Forensic Analysis (Sections 13, 14, 16, and 17)

Deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) is hereditary material existing in the cells of all living organisms. A DNA profile may be created by testing the DNA in a person's cells.¹⁶⁹ Similar to fingerprints, a person's DNA profile is a unique identifier, except for identical twins, who have the exact same DNA profile.¹⁷⁰ DNA is frequently collected at a crime scene and analyzed to assist in convicting or exonerating a suspect. DNA evidence may be collected from any biological material, such as hair, teeth, bones, skin cells, blood, semen, saliva, urine, feces, and other bodily substances.¹⁷¹ A DNA sample may be used to solve a current crime or a crime that occurred before DNA-testing technology.¹⁷²

According to the National Registry of Exonerations (Registry), which tracks both DNA and non-DNA based exonerations, the misapplication of forensic science has contributed to 45 percent of wrongful convictions in the United States that later resulted in an exoneration by DNA evidence.¹⁷³ Additionally, false or misleading forensic evidence was a contributing factor in 24 percent of all wrongful convictions nationally.¹⁷⁴ Data compiled through 2019 shows there have been 73 exonerations in Florida, and that false or misleading forensic evidence was a contributing factor to the person's wrongful conviction in 18 of those cases.¹⁷⁵ In some cases, science that was generally accepted at the time it was used in a criminal case has since been undermined by subsequent scientific advancements. Examples of scientific disciplines that have been discredited in recent years include:

- Microscopic hair analysis;¹⁷⁶
- Arson investigation techniques;
- Comparative bullet lead analysis;¹⁷⁷ and
- Bite mark matching.¹⁷⁸

Combined DNA Index System (CODIS) and National DNA Index System (NDIS)

The most common form of DNA analysis used to match samples and test for identification in forensic laboratories analyzes only certain parts of DNA, known as short tandem repeats or satellite tandem repeats (STRs).¹⁷⁹ In the early 1990s, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) chose 13 STRs as the basis for a DNA identification profile, and the 13 STRs became known as the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS).¹⁸⁰ The CODIS is now the general term used to

The DNA Identification Act of 1994 (DNA Act)¹⁸² authorized the government to establish a National DNA Index, and in 1998 the National DNA Index System (NDIS) was established. The NDIS contains DNA profiles contributed by federal, state, and local participating forensic laboratories,¹⁸³ enabling law enforcement to exchange and compare DNA profiles electronically, thereby linking a crime or a series of crimes to each other or to a known offender. A state seeking to participate in the NDIS must sign a memorandum of understanding with the FBI agreeing to the DNA Act's requirements, including record-keeping requirements and other procedures. To submit a DNA record to the NDIS, a participating laboratory must adhere to federal law regarding expungement¹⁸⁴ procedures, and the DNA sample must:

- Be generated in compliance with the FBI Director's Quality Assurance Standards;
- Be generated by an accredited and approved laboratory;
- Be generated by a laboratory that undergoes an external audit every two years to demonstrate compliance with the FBI Director's Quality Assurance Standards;
- Be from an acceptable data category, such as:
 - Convicted offender;
 - Arrestee;
 - Detainee;
 - Forensic case;
 - Unidentified human remains;
 - Missing person; or
 - Relative of a missing person.
- Meet minimum the CODIS requirements for the specimen category; and
- Be generated using an approved kit.

Statewide DNA Database

In 1989, the Legislature established the Statewide DNA database (statewide database) to be administered by the FDLE, capable of classifying, matching, and storing analyses of DNA and other biological material and related data.¹⁸⁵ The statewide database contains DNA samples, including those:

- Submitted by persons convicted of or arrested for felony offenses and specified misdemeanor offenses; and
- Necessary for identifying missing persons and unidentified human remains, including samples voluntarily contributed by relatives of missing persons.¹⁸⁶

¹⁸⁶ Section 943.325(1), F.S.

All accredited local government crime laboratories in Florida have access to the statewide database in accordance with rules and agreements established by the FDLE.¹⁸⁷ Local laboratories can access the statewide database through the CODIS, allowing for the storage and exchange of DNA records submitted by federal, state, and local forensic DNA laboratories.¹⁸⁸

The statewide database may contain DNA data obtained from the following types of biological samples:

- Crime scene samples.
- Samples required by law to be obtained from qualifying offenders.¹⁸⁹
- Samples lawfully obtained during the course of a criminal investigation, including those from deceased victims or deceased suspects.
- Samples from unidentified human remains.
- Samples from persons reported missing.
- Samples voluntarily contributed by relatives of missing persons.
- Other samples approved by the FDLE.¹⁹⁰

A qualifying offender is required to submit a DNA sample for inclusion in the statewide database if he or she is:

- Arrested or incarcerated in Florida; or
- On probation, community control, parole, conditional release, control release, or any other type of court-ordered supervision.¹⁹¹

An arrested offender must submit a DNA sample at the time he or she is booked into a jail, correctional facility, or juvenile facility. An incarcerated person and a juvenile in the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice must submit a DNA sample at least 45 days before his or her presumptive release date.¹⁹² The FDLE must retain all DNA samples submitted to the statewide database and such samples may be used for any lawful purpose.¹⁹³

The FDLE specifies database procedures to maintain compliance with national quality assurance standards to ensure that DNA records will be accepted into the NDIS. Results of any DNA analysis must be entered into the statewide database and may only be released to criminal justice agencies. Otherwise, the information is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1), F.S., and article I, s. 24(a), of the Florida Constitution.¹⁹⁴

Postsentencing DNA Testing

Defendants Sentenced After Trial

Florida law authorizes a person, who has been tried and found guilty of committing a felony, to petition a court to examine physical evidence collected during the investigation of the crime for which he or she has been sentenced that may contain DNA which would exonerate the person or mitigate the sentence that he or she received.¹⁹⁵ A sentenced defendant can file a petition for postsentencing DNA testing any time after the judgment and sentence becomes final.¹⁹⁶

A petition for postsentencing DNA testing must be made under oath, and include the following:

- A statement of the facts supporting the petition, including a description of the physical evidence containing DNA to be tested and, if known, the present location or last known location of the evidence and how it was originally obtained;
- A statement that the evidence was not previously tested for DNA or that the results of any previous DNA testing were inconclusive and that subsequent scientific developments in DNA testing techniques would likely produce a definitive result establishing that the petitioner is not the person who committed the crime;
- A statement that the sentenced defendant is innocent and how the DNA testing requested by the petition will exonerate the defendant of the crime for which he or she was sentenced or will mitigate the sentence he or she received;
- A statement that identification is a genuinely disputed issue in the case, and why it is an issue;
- Any other facts relevant to the petition; and
- A certification that a copy of the petition has been served on the prosecuting authority.¹⁹⁷

A court must review the petition and deny it if it is insufficient. If the petition is sufficient, the prosecuting authority must respond within 30 days.¹⁹⁸ After reviewing the prosecuting authority's response, the court must either issue an order on the merits or set the petition for a hearing. If the court sets the petition for a hearing, it may appoint counsel to assist an indigent defendant, upon finding such assistance necessary.¹⁹⁹

The court must make the following findings when ruling²⁰⁰ on the petition:

- Whether the sentenced defendant has shown that the physical evidence that may contain DNA still exists;
- Whether the results of DNA testing of that physical evidence would be admissible at trial and whether there exists reliable proof to establish that the evidence has not been materially altered and would be admissible at a future hearing; and

- Whether there is a reasonable probability that the sentenced defendant would have been acquitted or would have received a lesser sentence if the DNA evidence had been admitted at trial.²⁰¹

Defendants Sentenced After Entering a Plea

A defendant who entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony offense before July 1, 2006, are eligible to petition for DNA testing based on the general eligibility requirements under s. 925.11, F.S. However, a defendant who entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony offense on or after July 1, 2006, may only petition for postsentencing DNA testing when:

- The facts on which the petition is based were unknown to the petitioner or his or her attorney at the time the plea was entered and could not have been ascertained through the exercise of due diligence; or
- The physical evidence for which DNA testing is sought was not disclosed to the defense prior to the entry of the petitioner's plea.²⁰²

Since July 1, 2006,²⁰³ prior to the entry of a felony plea, the court must inquire of the defendant, the defense counsel, and the state regarding:

- The existence of known physical evidence that may contain DNA that could exonerate the defendant;
- Whether discovery in the case disclosed or described the existence of such physical evidence; and
- Whether the defense has reviewed the discovery.²⁰⁴

If no such evidence is known to exist, the court may accept the defendant's plea. If physical evidence containing DNA that could exonerate the defendant exists, the court may postpone the plea and order DNA testing to be conducted.²⁰⁵

Laboratory Testing

To preserve access to evidence, a governmental entity²⁰⁶ must maintain any physical evidence collected in a case for which postsentencing DNA testing may be requested. In a death penalty case, the evidence must be maintained for 60 days after execution of the sentence. In any other case, a governmental entity can dispose of the evidence if the term of the sentence imposed in the case has expired and the physical evidence is not otherwise required to be preserved by any other law or rule.²⁰⁷

²⁰⁷ Section 925.11(4), F.S.

The FDLE or its designee must perform any DNA testing ordered under s. 925.11, F.S.²⁰⁸ The sentenced defendant is responsible for the cost of testing, unless he or she is indigent, in which case, the state bears the cost. The FDLE must provide the results of DNA testing to the court, the sentenced defendant, and the prosecuting authority. Fla. R. Crim. P. Rule 3.853 authorizes a court to order DNA testing by a private laboratory upon a petitioner's showing of good cause, when he or she can bear the cost of testing.²⁰⁹

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 925.11, F.S., to expand access to postsentencing testing of physical evidence. The bill expands the scope of current law to authorize postsentencing testing to include other scientific techniques, in addition to DNA testing. Under the bill, a petitioner found guilty of committing a felony after trial or by entering a plea of guilty or nolo contendere before July 1, 2020, may petition for forensic analysis of physical evidence, rather than only DNA testing. "Forensic analysis" is defined as the process by which a forensic or scientific technique is applied to evidence or biological material to identify the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, a crime and includes, but is not limited to, DNA testing.

The bill lowers the initial standard a petitioner must meet to gain access to forensic analysis. Under the bill, the petitioner must show that forensic analysis may result in evidence material to the identity of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the crime that resulted in the person's conviction, rather than having to show the evidence would exonerate the person or mitigate his or her sentence.

Additionally, the bill amends the relevant petition requirements under s. 925.11, F.S., to reflect the new standards a petitioner must meet including all the following:

- A statement that the evidence was not previously subjected to forensic analysis or that the results of any previous forensic analysis were inconclusive and that subsequent scientific developments in forensic analysis would likely produce evidence material to the identity of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the crime;
- A statement that the petitioner is innocent and how the forensic analysis requested by the petitioner may result in evidence that is material to the identity of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the crime; and
- A statement that the petitioner will comply with any court order to provide a biological sample for the purpose of conducting requested forensic analysis and acknowledging such analysis could produce exculpatory evidence or evidence confirming the petitioner's identity as the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the crime or a separate crime.

The bill specifies postsentencing forensic analysis eligibility criteria for defendants who entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony, depending on the date the plea was entered. Defendants who entered a plea on or after July 1, 2006, but before July 1, 2020, may petition for DNA testing under the same standards currently required under s. 925.11, F.S. The bill maintains current criteria for these sentenced defendants because each had the benefit of the plea colloquy concerning the potential existence of exculpatory DNA evidence administered by the court since 2006.

²⁰⁹ Fla. R. Crim. P. Rule 3.853(4)(a), F.S.

Beginning July 1, 2020, the bill requires a court, prior to accepting a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony, to perform a plea colloquy inquiring whether the defendant, defense counsel, or the state is aware of any physical evidence that, if subjected to forensic analysis, could produce evidence material to the identification of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the crime. As such, beginning July 1, 2020, a defendant entering a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony will only be authorized to petition for postsentencing forensic analysis when either:

- The facts on which the petition is predicated were unknown to the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney at the time the plea was entered and could not have been ascertained through the exercise of due diligence; or
- The physical evidence for which forensic analysis is sought was not disclosed to the defense by the state prior to the petitioner's plea.

When ruling on a petition for postsentencing forensic analysis the court must make all the following findings:

- Whether the petitioner has shown that the physical evidence, which may be subjected to forensic analysis, still exists;
- Whether the results of forensic analysis would be admissible at trial and whether reliable proof exists to establish that the evidence has not been materially altered and would be admissible at a future hearing; and
- Whether there is a reasonable probability the forensic analysis may result in evidence that is material to the identity of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the crime.

The bill authorizes a court to order a private laboratory, certified by the petitioner to meet specified accreditation requirements, to perform forensic analysis when:

- The prosecuting authority and the petitioner mutually select a private laboratory to perform the testing; or
- The petitioner makes a sufficient showing that the forensic analysis:
 - Ordered by the court is of such a nature that the FDLE or its designee cannot perform the testing; or
 - Will be significantly delayed because of state laboratory backlog.

If the forensic analysis ordered by the court includes DNA testing, and the resulting DNA sample meets statewide database submission requirements, the FDLE must perform a DNA database search. A private laboratory ordered to conduct testing must cooperate with the prosecuting authority and the FDLE to carry out the database search. The FDLE must compare the submitted DNA profile to:

- DNA profiles of known offenders;
- DNA profiles from unsolved crimes; and
- Any local DNA databases maintained by a law enforcement agency in the judicial circuit where the petitioner was convicted.

The bill authorizes the FDLE to maintain DNA samples obtained from testing ordered under ss. 925.11 or 925.12, F.S., in the statewide database. If the testing conducted complies with FBI requirements and the data meets NDIS criteria, the FDLE must request NDIS to search its database of DNA profiles using any profiles obtained from the court ordered testing. The FDLE must provide the results of the forensic analysis and the results of any search of the national, statewide, and local DNA databases to the court, the petitioner, and the prosecuting authority. The petitioner and the state are authorized to use the information for any lawful purpose.

The bill authorizes a court to order a governmental entity, last known to possess evidence reported to be lost or destroyed in violation of law, to conduct a search and produce a report detailing:

- The nature of the search conducted;
- The date the search was conducted;
- The results of the search;
- Any records showing the physical evidence was lost or destroyed; and
- The signature of the person supervising the search, attesting to the report's accuracy.

The report must be provided to the court, the petitioner, and the prosecuting authority in the case.

These provisions of the bill are effective July 1, 2020.

Conditional Release for Specified Inmate Populations (Sections 8, 19, 20, 31-33, 35-37, 45, and 52-55)

Aging Population Statistics

In 2016, 49 million adults in the United States, or 15 percent of the population, were 65 or older.²¹⁰ It is estimated that the number will rise to approximately 98 million by 2060, which corresponds to approximately 25 percent of residents of the United States. The “baby boomers” generation²¹¹ and post baby-boom generations will all be of advanced age by 2029, which is often defined as 55 years of age or older. A report published by the Institutes of Medicine in 2012 asserted that, by 2030, the population of adults over the age of 65 will reach 72.1 million. The report also estimated that approximately one in five persons in the elder population has a mental health or substance abuse disorder, such as depression, dementia, or related psychiatric and behavioral symptoms. Incarcerated men and women typically have physiological and mental health conditions that are associated with people at least a decade older, a phenomenon known as “accelerated aging.” Therefore, an incarcerated person who is 50 or 55 years of age would exhibit health conditions comparable to a person who is 60 or 65 in the community. The occurrence of accelerated aging in the prison system is a result of many factors, including inadequate access to medical care before incarceration, substance abuse, the stress of incarceration, and a lack of appropriate health care during incarceration.²¹²

Special Health Considerations for Inmates

Similarly to aging persons in the community, aging inmates are more likely to experience certain medical and health conditions, including, in part, dementia, impaired mobility, loss of hearing and vision, cardiovascular disease, cancer, osteoporosis, and other chronic conditions.²¹³

However, such ailments present special challenges within a prison environment and may result in the need for increased staffing levels and enhanced officer training.²¹⁴ Such aging or ill inmates can also require structural accessibility adaptations, such as special housing and wheelchair ramps. For example, in Florida, four facilities serve relatively large populations of older or ill inmates, which help meet special needs such as palliative and long-term care.²¹⁵

Aging Inmate Statistics in Florida

The DOC reports that the elderly inmate²¹⁶ population has increased by 353 inmates or 1.5 percent from June 30, 2017 to June 30, 2018 and that this trend has been steadily increasing over the last five years for an overall increase of 2,585 inmates or 12.5 percent.²¹⁷

The DOC further reports that during FY 2017-18, there were 3,594 aging inmates admitted to Florida prisons, which was a 2.8 percent decrease from FY 2017-18. The majority of such inmates were admitted for violent offenses, property crimes, and drug offenses. The oldest male inmate admitted was 92 years of age with a conviction of manslaughter and the oldest female inmate admitted was 77 years of age with a conviction of drug trafficking.²¹⁸

As the population of aging inmates continues to increase, the cost to house and treat such inmates also substantially increases. The DOC reports that the episodes of outside care for aging inmates increased from 10,553 in FY 2008-09 to 21,469 in FY 2017-18 and further provided that outside care is generally more expensive than treatment provided within a prison facility.²¹⁹ The DOC reports that the cost of health care for the aging inmate population is very high compared to other inmates for many reasons, including, in part that aging inmates:

- Account for a majority of inpatient hospital days; and

Aging Inmate Discretionary Release

Many states, the District of Columbia, and the federal government authorize discretionary release programs for certain inmates that are based on an inmate's age without regard to the medical condition of the inmate.²²¹ The National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) reports such discretionary release based on age has been legislatively authorized in 17 states.²²² The NCSL also reports that such statutes typically require an inmate to be of a certain age and to have served either a specified number of years or a specified percentage of his or her sentence. The NCSL reports that Alabama has the lowest age for aging inmate discretionary release, which is 55 years of age, whereas most other states set the limit somewhere between 60 and 65. Additionally, some states do not set a specific age.²²³

Most states require a minimum of 10 years of an inmate's sentence to be served before being eligible for consideration for aging inmate discretionary release, but some states, such as California, set the minimum length of time served at 25 years.²²⁴ Other states, such as Mississippi and Oklahoma, provide a term of years or a certain percentage of the sentence to be served.²²⁵

Inmates who are sentenced to death or serving a life sentence are typically ineligible for release. Some states specify that inmates must be sentenced for a non-violent offense or specify offenses that are not eligible for release consideration.

Florida does not currently address discretionary release based on an inmate's age alone, but as discussed below Florida has discretionary release based on an inmate's medical condition.

Conditional Medical Release

Conditional Medical Release (CMR), outlined in s. 947.149, F.S., was created by the Florida Legislature in 1992,²²⁶ as a discretionary release of inmates who are "terminally ill" or "permanently incapacitated" and who are not a danger to themselves or others.²²⁷ The Florida

Commission on Offender Review (FCOR), which consists of three members, reviews eligible inmates for release under the CMR program pursuant to the powers established in s. 947.13, F.S.²²⁸ In part, s. 947.149, F.S., authorizes the FCOR to determine what persons will be released on CMR, establish the conditions of CMR, and determine whether a person has violated the conditions of CMR and take actions with respect to such a violation.

Eligibility Criteria

Eligible inmates include inmates designated by the DOC as a:

- “Permanently incapacitated inmate,” which is an inmate who has a condition caused by injury, disease, or illness which, to a reasonable degree of medical certainty, renders the inmate permanently and irreversibly physically incapacitated to the extent that the inmate does not constitute a danger to herself or himself or others; or
- “Terminally ill inmate,” which is an inmate who has a condition caused by injury, disease, or illness which, to a reasonable degree of medical certainty, renders the inmate terminally ill to the extent that there can be no recovery and death is imminent, so that the inmate does not constitute a danger to herself or himself or others.²²⁹

Inmates sentenced to death are ineligible for CMR.²³⁰

Referral Process for Eligible Inmates

The DOC is required to identify inmates who may be eligible for CMR in accordance with the above-mentioned designations. The DOC uses available medical information as a basis for identifying eligible inmates and refers such inmates to the FCOR for consideration. In considering an inmate, the FCOR may require that additional medical evidence be produced or that additional medical examinations be conducted and may require other investigations to be made as it deems necessary.²³¹

An inmate does not have a right to CMR or to a medical evaluation to determine eligibility for such release.²³² Additionally, the authority and whether or not to grant CMR and establish additional conditions of release rests solely within the discretion of the FCOR, together with the authority to approve the release plan to include necessary medical care and attention.²³³

Certain information must be provided to the FCOR from the DOC to be considered a referral, including:

- Clinical Report, including complete medical information justifying classification of the inmate as “permanently incapacitated” or “terminally ill”; and
- Verifiable release plan, to include necessary medical care and attention.²³⁴

²²⁸ Section 947.149(3), F.S. Section 947.01, F.S., provides that the membership of the FCOR is three-members.

The referral must be directed to the Office of the Commission Clerk who may docket the case before the FCOR. A decision will be made by a majority of the quorum present and voting.²³⁵ The FCOR is required to approve or disapprove CMR based upon information submitted in support of the recommendation and review of the DOC file. If additional information is needed, the FCOR must continue the case for verification of the release plan, additional medical examinations, and other investigations as directed. The FCOR is required to instruct staff to conduct the appropriate investigation, which must include a written statement setting forth the specific information being requested.²³⁶

Victim Input for CMR

If a victim or his or her personal representative requests to be notified, the FCOR must provide victim notification of any hearing where the release of the inmate on CMR is considered prior to the inmate's release.²³⁷ As discussed above, Art. I, s. 16 of the Florida Constitution, which was adopted in 2018 by the Florida voters, provides certain rights to victims in the Florida Constitution. In part, Art. I, s. 16 of the Florida Constitution provides that a victim has the following rights upon request:

- To be heard in any public proceeding involving pretrial or other release from any form of legal constraint, plea, sentencing, adjudication, or parole, and any proceeding during which a right of the victim is implicated.
- To be informed of the conviction, sentence, adjudication, place and time of incarceration, or other disposition of the convicted offender, any scheduled release date of the offender, and the release of or the escape of the offender from custody.
- To be informed of all postconviction processes and procedures, to participate in such processes and procedures, to provide information to the release authority to be considered before any release decision is made, and to be notified of any release decision regarding the offender.²³⁸

The requirement to notify victims was in place prior to the constitutional amendment passage through administrative rule. Rule 23-24.025, F.A.C., provides that a victim, relative of a minor who is a victim, relative of a homicide victim, or victim representative or victim advocate must receive advance notification any time a CMR case is placed on the docket for determination by the FCOR. Notification must be made to the address found in the police report or other criminal report or at a more current address if such has been provided to the FCOR.²³⁹

A victim of the crime committed by the inmate, or a victim's representative, must be permitted a reasonable time to make an oral statement or submit a written statement regarding whether the victim supports the granting, denying, or revoking of CMR.²⁴⁰ Additionally, other interested parties may also speak on behalf of victims since the FCOR meetings are public meetings.²⁴¹ A victim can also request that the FCOR provide notification of the action taken if he or she does not choose to appear at meetings or make a written statement.²⁴²

Release Conditions

The release of an inmate on CMR is for the remainder of the inmate's sentence and requires periodic medical evaluations at intervals determined by the FCOR at the time of release.²⁴³ An inmate who has been approved for release on CMR is considered a medical releasee when released.

Each medical releasee must be placed on CMR supervision and is subject to the standard conditions of CMR, which include:

- Promptly proceeding to the residence upon being released and immediately reporting by mail, telephone, or personal visit as instructed by the CMR officer or within 72 hours of release if no specific report date and time are given.
- Securing the permission of the CMR officer before:
 - Changing residences;
 - Leaving the county or the state; and
 - Posting bail or accepting pretrial release if arrested for a felony.
- Submitting a full and truthful report to the CMR officer each month in writing and as directed by the CMR supervisor.
- Refraining from:
 - Owning, carrying, possessing, or having in his or her constructive possession a firearm or ammunition;
 - Using or possessing alcohol or intoxicants of any kind;
 - Using or possessing narcotics, drugs, or marijuana unless prescribed by a physician;
 - Entering any business establishment whose primary purpose is the sale or consumption of alcoholic beverages; and
 - Knowingly associating with any person engaging in criminal activity, a criminal gang member, or person associated with criminal gang members.
- Securing the permission of the CMR officer before owning, carrying, or having in his or her constructive possession a knife or any other weapon.
- Obeying all laws, ordinances, and statutory conditions of CMR.
- Submitting to a reasonable search of the medical releasee's person, residence, or automobile by a CMR officer.
- Waiving extradition back to Florida if the medical releasee is alleged to have violated CMR.
- Permitting the CMR officer to visit the medical releasee's residence, employment, or elsewhere.
- Promptly and truthfully answering all questions and following all instructions asked or given by the CMR officer or the FCOR.
- Remaining on CMR for the remainder of the sentence without diminution of such sentence for good behavior.

²⁴² Rule 23-24.025(5), F.A.C.

²⁴³ Section 947.149(4), F.S.

- Agreeing to submit to random drug or alcohol testing, to be paid for and submitted by the medical releasee, as directed by the CMR officer or the professional staff of any treatment center where treatment is being received.
- Executing and providing authorizations to release records to the CMR supervisor and the FCOR for the purpose of monitoring and documenting the medical releasee's progress.
- Agreeing that, in the event there is an improvement in the medical releasee's medical condition to the extent that he or she is no longer "permanently incapacitated," or "terminally ill," that he or she will, if directed to do so, report for a CMR revocation hearing.²⁴⁴

Additionally, the FCOR can impose special conditions of CMR.²⁴⁵

Revocation and Recommitment

In part, s. 947.141, F.S., provides for the revocation and recommitment of a medical releasee who appears to be subject to CMR revocation proceedings, including establishing a hearing process and determining whether a medical releasee must be recommitted to the DOC. CMR supervision can be revoked and the offender returned to prison if the FCOR determines:

- That a violation of any condition of the release has occurred; or
- His or her medical or physical condition improves to the point that the offender no longer meets the CMR criteria.²⁴⁶

Revocation Due to Improved Medical or Physical Condition

If it is discovered during the CMR release that the medical or physical condition of the medical releasee has improved to the extent that she or he would no longer be eligible for such release, the FCOR may order that the medical releasee be returned to the custody of the DOC for a revocation hearing, in accordance with s. 947.141, F.S. A medical releasee who has his or her CMR revoked due to improvement in medical or physical condition must serve the balance of the sentence with credit for the time served on CMR, but does not forfeit any gain-time accrued prior to release on CMR.²⁴⁷

Revocation Due to Violation of CMR Conditions

When there are reasonable grounds to believe that a medical releasee who is on CMR has violated the conditions of the release in a material respect the FCOR is authorized to have a warrant issued for the arrest of the medical releasee. A warrant must be issued if the medical releasee was found to be a sexual predator.²⁴⁸ Further, if a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a medical releasee who is on CMR supervision has violated the terms and conditions of his or her release by committing a felony offense then the officer must arrest the medical releasee without a warrant and a warrant need not be issued in the case.²⁴⁹

²⁴⁹ Section 947.141(7), F.S.

A medical releasee who is arrested for a felony must be detained without bond until the initial appearance of the medical releasee at which a judicial determination of probable cause is made. The medical releasee may be released if the trial court judge does not find probable cause existed for the arrest. However, if the court makes a finding of probable cause, such determination also constitutes reasonable grounds to believe that the medical releasee violated the conditions of the CMR release and the chief county correctional officer must notify the FCOR and the DOC of the finding within 24 hours.²⁵⁰ The medical releasee must continue to be detained without bond for a period not more than 72 hours excluding weekends and holidays after the date of the probable cause determination, pending a decision by the FCOR whether to issue a warrant charging the medical releasee with violation of the conditions of CMR. If the FCOR issues such warrant, the medical releasee must continue to be held in custody pending a revocation hearing.²⁵¹

Revocation Hearing

The medical releasee must be afforded a hearing that is conducted by a commissioner or a duly authorized representative within 45 days after notice to the FCOR of the arrest of a medical releasee charged with a violation of the terms and conditions of CMR. If the medical releasee elects to proceed with a hearing, the medical releasee must be informed orally and in writing of certain rights, including the medical releasee's:

- Alleged violation; and
- Right to:
 - Be represented by counsel.
 - Be heard in person.
 - Secure, present, and compel the attendance of witnesses relevant to the proceeding.
 - Produce documents on his or her own behalf.
 - Access all evidence used against the releasee and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses.
 - Waive the hearing.²⁵²

The commissioner, who conducts the hearing, is required to make findings of fact in regard to the alleged violation within a reasonable time following the hearing and at least two commissioners must enter an order determining whether the charge of violation of CMR has been sustained based upon the findings of fact presented by the hearing commissioner or authorized representative. The panel may: revoke CMR, thereby returning the medical releasee to prison to serve the sentence imposed; reinstate the original order granting the release; or enter such other order, as it considers proper.²⁵³

If CMR is revoked and the medical releasee is ordered to be returned to prison, the medical releasee is deemed to have forfeited all gain-time or commutation of time for good conduct earned up to the date of release. However, if CMR is revoked due to the improved medical or physical condition of the medical releasee, the medical releasee does not forfeit gain-time accrued before the date of CMR.²⁵⁴ Gain-time or commutation of time for good conduct may be earned from the date of return to prison.

Statistics

The FCOR has approved and released 73 inmates for CMR in the last three fiscal years:

- 38 in FY 2018-19;
- 21 in FY 2017-2018; and
- 14 in FY 2016-2017.²⁵⁵

The DOC has recommended 149 inmates for release in the past three fiscal years:

- 76 in FY 2018-19;
- 39 in FY 2017-2018; and
- 34 in FY 2016-2017.²⁵⁶

Currently, the DOC's role in the CMR process is making the initial designation of medical eligibility, referring the inmate's case to the FCOR for an investigation and final decision, and supervising inmates who are granted CMR.²⁵⁷

Constitutional Requirement to Provide Healthcare to Inmates

The United States Supreme Court has established that prisoners have a constitutional right to adequate medical care. The Court determined that it is a violation of the Eighth Amendment prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment for the state to deny a prisoner necessary medical care, or to display "deliberate indifference" to an inmate's serious medical needs.²⁵⁸

Before the 1970s, prison health care operated without "standards of decency" and was frequently delivered by unqualified or overwhelmed providers, resulting in negligence and poor quality.²⁵⁹ By January 1996, only three states had never been involved in major litigation challenging conditions in their prisons. A majority were under court order or consent decree to make improvements in some or all facilities.²⁶⁰ The development of the correctional health care in

Florida has been influenced by a class action lawsuit filed by inmates in 1972. The plaintiffs in *Costello v. Wainwright*²⁶¹ alleged that prison overcrowding and inadequate medical care were so severe that the resulting conditions amounted to cruel and unusual punishment. The overcrowding aspect of the case was settled in 1979, but the medical care issue continued to be litigated for years.²⁶²

The legal standard today for inmate medical care must be at “a level reasonably commensurate with modern medical science and of a quality acceptable within prudent professional standards” and “designed to meet routine and emergency medical, dental, and psychological or psychiatric care.”²⁶³ Prisoners are entitled to access to care for diagnosis and treatment, a professional medical opinion, and administration of the prescribed treatment and such obligation persists even if some or all of the medical services are provided through the use of contractors. This is also the standard for state prisoners who are under the custody of private prisons or local jails. Recent cases have reinforced states’ constitutional obligations.²⁶⁴

The DOC’s Duty to Provide Health Care

The DOC is responsible for the inmates of the state correctional system and has supervisory and protective care, custody, and control of the inmates within its facilities.²⁶⁵ The DOC has the constitutional and statutory imperative to provide adequate health services to state prison inmates directly related to this responsibility.²⁶⁶ This medical care includes comprehensive medical, mental health, and dental services, and all associated ancillary services.²⁶⁷ The DOC’s Office of Health Service (OHS) oversees the delivery of health care services and handles statewide functions for such delivery. The OHS is led by the Director of Health Services, who reports to the Secretary.²⁶⁸

The DOC contracts with the Centurion of Florida, LLC (Centurion) to provide comprehensive statewide medical, mental health, dental services, and operates the DOC’s reception medical center. The care provided is under a cost plus model. All inmates are screened at a DOC reception center upon arrival from the county jail. The purpose of this intake process is to determine the inmate’s current medical, dental, and mental health care needs, which is achieved through assessments, in part, for auditory, mobility and vision disabilities, and the need for specialized mental health treatment.²⁶⁹

After the intake process is completed, inmates are assigned to an institution based on their medical and mental health needs and security requirements. The Centurion provides primary care using a staff of clinicians, nurses, mental health, and dental professionals and administrators within each major correctional institution. The health services team provides health care services in the dorms for inmates who are in confinement.²⁷⁰

Gain-time

Gain-time awards, which result in deductions to the court-ordered sentences of specified eligible inmates, are used to encourage satisfactory prisoner behavior or to provide incentives for prisoners to participate in productive activities while incarcerated.²⁷¹ An inmate is not eligible to earn or receive gain-time in an amount that results in his or her release prior to serving a minimum of 85 percent of the sentence imposed.²⁷²

Basic gain-time, which automatically reduced an inmate's sentence by a designated amount each month, was eliminated for offenses committed on or after January 1, 1994.²⁷³ The only forms of gain-time that can currently be earned are:

- Incentive gain-time;²⁷⁴
- Meritorious gain-time;²⁷⁵ and
- Educational achievement gain-time.²⁷⁶

The procedure for applying gain-time awards to an inmate's sentence is dependent upon the calculation of a "maximum sentence expiration date" and a "tentative release date." The tentative release date may not be later than the maximum sentence expiration date.²⁷⁷ The maximum sentence expiration date represents the date when the sentence or combined sentences imposed on a prisoner will expire. To calculate the maximum sentence expiration date, the DOC reduces the total time to be served by any time lawfully credited.²⁷⁸

²⁷¹ Section 944.275(1), F.S. Section 944.275(4)(f), F.S., further provides that an inmate serving a life sentence is not able to earn gain-time. Additionally, an inmate serving the portion of his or her sentence that is included in an imposed mandatory minimum sentence or whose tentative release date is the same date as he or she achieves service of 85 percent of the sentence are not eligible to earn gain-time. Section 944.275(4)(e), F.S., also prohibits inmates committed to the DOC for specified sexual offenses committed on or after October 1, 2014, from earning incentive gain-time.

²⁷⁴ Section 944.275(4)(b), F.S., provides that incentive gain-time is a total of up to ten days per month that may be awarded to inmates for institutional adjustment, performing work in a diligent manner, and actively participating in training and programs. The amount an inmate can earn is stable throughout the term of imprisonment and is based upon the date an offense was committed.

²⁷⁵ Section 944.275(4)(c), F.S., provides that meritorious gain-time is awarded to an inmate who commits an outstanding deed or whose performance warrants additional credit, such as saving a life or assisting in recapturing an escaped inmate. The award may range from one day to 60 days and the statute does not prohibit an inmate from earning meritorious gain-time on multiple occasions if warranted.

²⁷⁶ Section 944.275(4)(d), F.S., provides that educational gain-time is a one-time award of 60 days that is granted to an inmate who receives a General Education Development (GED) diploma or a certificate for completion of a vocational program.

²⁷⁸ Section 944.275(2)(a), F.S.

The tentative release is the date projected for the prisoner's release from custody after gain-time is granted or forfeited in accordance with s. 944.275, F.S.²⁷⁹ Gain-time is applied when granted or restored to make the tentative release date proportionately earlier; and forfeitures of gain-time, when ordered, are applied to make the tentative release date proportionately later.²⁸⁰

The DOC is authorized in certain circumstances, including when a medical releasee has his or her CMR revoked, to declare all gain-time earned by an inmate forfeited.²⁸¹

Federal First Step Act

In December 2018, the United States Congress passed, and President Trump signed into law, the "Formerly Incarcerated Reenter Society Transformed Safely Transitioning Every Person Act" or the "FIRST STEP Act" (First Step Act).²⁸² The law makes a number of changes to the federal criminal justice system and procedures applicable to inmates in the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP), including, in part, modifying provisions related to compassionate release to:

- Require inmates be informed of reduction in sentence availability and process;
- Modify the definition of "terminally ill;"
- Require notice and assistance for terminally ill offenders;
- Require requests from terminally ill offenders to be processed within 14 days.²⁸³

Specifically, in the case of a diagnosis of a terminal illness, the BOP is required to, subject to confidentiality requirements:

- Notify the defendant's attorney, partner, and family members, not later than 72 hours after the diagnosis, of the defendant's diagnosis of a terminal condition and inform the defendant's attorney, partner, and family members that they may prepare and submit on the defendant's behalf a request for a sentence reduction;
- Provide the defendant's partner and family members, including extended family, with an opportunity to visit the defendant in person not later than 7 days after the date of the diagnosis;
- Upon request from the defendant or his attorney, partner, or a family member, ensure that BOP employees assist the defendant in the preparation, drafting, and submission of a request for a sentence reduction; and
- Process a request for sentence reduction submitted on the defendant's behalf by the defendant or the defendant's attorney, partner, or family member not later than 14 days from receipt of a request.²⁸⁴

Sovereign Immunity

Sovereign immunity is a principle under which a government cannot be sued without its consent.²⁸⁶ Article X, s. 13 of the Florida Constitution allows the Legislature to waive this immunity. Further, s. 768.28(1), F.S., allows for suits in tort against Florida and its agencies and subdivisions for damages resulting from the negligence of government employees acting in the scope of employment. This liability exists only where a private person would be liable for the same conduct. Section 768.28, F.S., applies only to “injury or loss of property, personal injury, or death caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any employee of the agency or subdivision while acting within the scope of the employee’s office or employment”²⁸⁷

Section 768.28(5), F.S., limits tort recovery from a governmental entity at $200,000 per person and $300,000 per accident.²⁸⁸ This limitation does not prevent a judgement in excess of such amounts from being entered, but a claimant is unable to collect above the statutory limit unless a claim bill is passed by the Legislature.²⁸⁹

Individual government employees, officers, or agents are immune from suit or liability for damages caused by any action taken in the scope of employment, unless the damages result from the employee’s acting in bad faith, with malicious purpose, or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard for human rights, safety, or property.^{290, 291} Thus, the immunity may be pierced only if state employees or agents either act outside the scope of their employment, or act “in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety, or property.”²⁹²

Courts that have construed the bad faith prong of s. 768.28, F.S., to mean the actual malice standard, which means the conduct must be committed with “ill will, hatred, spite, [or] an evil intent.”²⁹³ Conduct meeting the wanton and willful standard is defined as “worse than gross negligence,”²⁹⁴ and “more reprehensible and unacceptable than mere intentional conduct.”^{295, 296}

The bill creates two programs for conditional release within the DOC, CMR and conditional aging inmate release (CAIR). The bill repeals s. 947.149, F.S., which establishes the CMR program within the FCOR and creates s. 945.0911, F.S., to establish a CMR program within the DOC. The bill also creates s. 945.0912, F.S., which establishes a CAIR program within the DOC. Both programs have the same stated purpose, which is to:

- Determine whether release is appropriate for eligible inmates;
- Supervise the released inmates; and
- Conduct revocation hearings.

The CMR program established within the DOC retains similarities to the program currently in existence within the FCOR, including that the CMR program must include a panel of at least three people. The members of the panel are appointed by the secretary or his or her designee for the purpose of determining the appropriateness of CMR and conducting revocation hearings on the inmate releases.

The CAIR program also must include a panel of at least three people appointed by the Secretary for the purpose of determining the appropriateness of CAIR and conducting revocation hearings on the inmate releases.

The eligibility criteria for each program differs, but both programs have very similar structures and will be discussed together below when possible.

Eligibility Criteria

The bill provides a specific exception to the 85 percent rule that allows an inmate who meets the eligibility criteria for CMR or CAIR to be released from the custody of the DOC pursuant to the applicable program prior to satisfying 85 percent of his or her term of imprisonment. The specific eligibility criteria for each program are discussed below.

CMR

The bill provides that an inmate is eligible for consideration for release under the CMR program when the inmate, because of an existing medical or physical condition, is determined by the DOC to be an inmate with a debilitating illness, a permanently incapacitated inmate, or a terminally ill inmate. The bill provides definitions for such terms, including:

- “Inmate with a debilitating illness,” which means an inmate who is determined to be suffering from a significant terminal or nonterminal condition, disease, or syndrome that has rendered the inmate so physically or cognitively impaired, debilitated, or incapacitated as to create a reasonable probability that the inmate does not constitute a danger to herself or himself or to others.
- “Permanently incapacitated inmate,” which means an inmate who has a condition caused by injury, disease, or illness which, to a reasonable degree of medical certainty, renders the inmate permanently and irreversibly physically incapacitated to the extent that the inmate does not constitute a danger to herself or himself or to others.
- “Terminally ill inmate,” which means an inmate who has a condition caused by injury, disease, or illness that, to a reasonable degree of medical certainty, renders the inmate terminally ill to the extent that there can be no recovery, death is expected within 12 months, and the inmate does not constitute a danger to herself or himself or to others.

CAIR

An inmate is eligible for consideration for release under the CAIR program when the inmate has reached 65 years of age and has served at least 10 years on his or her term of imprisonment.

An inmate may not be considered for release through the CAIR program if he or she has ever been found guilty of, regardless of adjudication, or entered a plea of nolo contendere or guilty to, or has been adjudicated delinquent for committing:

- Any offense classified as a capital felony, life felony, or first degree felony punishable by a term of years not exceeding life imprisonment;
- Any violation of law that results in the killing of a human being;
- An offense that requires registration as a sexual offender on the sexual offender registry in accordance with s. 943.0435, F.S; or
- Any similar offense committed in another jurisdiction which would be an offense included in this list if it had been committed in violation of the laws of Florida.

The bill also prohibits an inmate who has previously been released on any form of conditional or discretionary release and who was recommitted to the DOC as a result of a finding that he or she subsequently violated the terms of such conditional or discretionary release to be considered for release through the CAIR program.

Referral Process

The bill requires that any inmate in the custody of the DOC who meets one or more of the above-mentioned eligibility requirements must be considered for CMR or CAIR, respectively. However, the authority to grant CMR or CAIR rests solely with the DOC. In addition, the bill provides that an inmate does not have a right to release or to a medical evaluation to determine eligibility for release on CMR pursuant to s. 945.0911, F.S., or a right to release on CAIR pursuant to s. 945.0912, F.S., respectively.

The bill requires the DOC to identify inmates who may be eligible for CMR based upon available medical information and authorizes the DOC to require additional medical evidence, including examinations of the inmate, or any other additional investigations it deems necessary for determining the appropriateness of the eligible inmate's release. Further, the DOC must identify inmates who may be eligible for CAIR. In considering an inmate for the CAIR program, the DOC may require the production of additional evidence or any other additional investigations that the DOC deems necessary for determining the appropriateness of the eligible inmate's release.

Upon an inmate's identification as potentially eligible for release on CMR or CAIR, the DOC must refer such inmate to the respective three-member panel described above for review and determination of release.

The bill requires the DOC to provide notice to a victim of the inmate's referral to the panel immediately upon identification of the inmate as potentially eligible for release on CMR or

CAIR if the case that resulted in the inmate's commitment to the DOC involved a victim and such victim specifically requested notification pursuant to Article I, s. 16 of the Florida Constitution. Additionally, the victim must be afforded the right to be heard regarding the release of the inmate.

Determination of Release

The bill requires the three-member panel established in s. 945.0911(1), F.S., or s. 945.0912, F.S., whichever is applicable, to conduct a hearing within a specified time after receiving the referral to determine whether CMR or CAIR, respectively, is appropriate for the inmate. The bill specifies that the hearing must be conducted by the panel:

- By April 1, 2021, if the inmate is immediately eligible for consideration for the CMR program or the CAIR program when the provisions take effect on October 1, 2020.
- By July 1, 2021, if the inmate becomes eligible for consideration for the CMR program or the CAIR program after October 1, 2020, but before July 1, 2021.
- Within 45 days after receiving the referral if the inmate becomes eligible for the CMR program or the CAIR program any time on or after July 1, 2021.

Before the hearing for an inmate being referred for the CMR program, the director of inmate health services or his or her designee must review any relevant information, including, but not limited to, medical evidence, and provide the panel with a recommendation regarding the appropriateness of releasing the inmate on CMR.

A majority of the panel members must agree that release on CMR or CAIR is appropriate for the inmate. If CMR or CAIR is approved, the inmate must be released by the DOC to the community within a reasonable amount of time with necessary release conditions imposed.

The bill provides that an inmate who is granted CMR is considered a medical releasee upon release to the community. Similarly, the bill provides that an inmate released on CAIR is considered an aging releasee upon release to the community.

An inmate who is denied CMR or CAIR by the three-member panel is able to have the decision reviewed. For an inmate who is denied release on CMR, the bill provides that the DOC's general counsel and chief medical officer must review the decision of the three-member panel and make a recommendation to the secretary. For an inmate who is denied release on CAIR, the decision is only reviewed by the DOC's general counsel, who must make a recommendation to the secretary. The secretary must review all relevant information and make a final decision about the appropriateness of the release on CMR or CAIR and the bill provides that the appeal decision of the secretary is a final administrative decision not subject to appeal.

Additionally, an inmate who is denied CMR or CAIR who requests to have the decision reviewed must do so in a manner prescribed in rule and may be subsequently reconsidered for such release in a manner prescribed by department rule.

Release Conditions

The bill requires that an inmate granted release on CMR or CAIR must be released for a period equal to the length of time remaining on his or her term of imprisonment on the date the release is granted. The medical releasee or aging releasee must comply with all reasonable conditions of release the DOC imposes, which must include, at a minimum:

- Supervision by an officer trained to handle special offender caseloads.
- Active electronic monitoring, if such monitoring is determined to be necessary to ensure the safety of the public and the releasee's compliance with release conditions.
- Any conditions of community control provided for in s. 948.101, F.S.²⁹⁷
- Any other conditions the DOC deems appropriate to ensure the safety of the community and compliance by the medical releasee or aging releasee.

Additionally, the bill requires a medical releasee to have periodic medical evaluations at intervals determined by the DOC at the time of release.

The bill provides that a medical releasee or an aging releasee is considered to be in the custody, supervision, and control of the DOC. The bill further states that this does not create a duty for the DOC to provide the medical releasee or aging releasee with medical care upon release into the community. The bill provides that the medical releasee or aging releasee remains eligible to earn or lose gain-time in accordance with s. 944.275, F.S., and department rule. However, the bill clarifies that the medical releasee or aging releasee may not be counted in the prison system population, and the medical releasee's or aging releasee's approved community-based housing location may not be counted in the capacity figures for the prison system.

Revocation of Conditional Release and Recommitment to the DOC

The bill establishes a process for the revocation of CMR that very closely parallels current law and for which may be based on two circumstances, including the:

- Discovery that the medical or physical condition of the medical releasee has improved to the extent that she or he would no longer be eligible for release on CMR; or
- Violation of any release conditions the DOC establishes, including, but not limited to, a new violation of law.

The bill provides that CAIR may be revoked for a violation of any release conditions the DOC establishes, including, but not limited to, a new violation of law. The DOC may terminate the medical releasee's CMR or the aging releasee's CAIR and return him or her to the same or another institution designated by the DOC.

Revocation Based on Medical or Physical Improvement - CMR

This provision only applies to revocation of a medical releasee's CMR.

When the basis of the revocation proceedings are based on an improved medical or physical condition of the medical releasee, the bill authorizes the DOC to:

- Order that the medical releasee be returned to the custody of the DOC for a CMR revocation hearing, as prescribed by rule; or ²⁹⁷ Some examples of community control conditions required under s. 948.101, F.S., include: to maintain specified contact with the parole and probation officer; confinement to an agreed-upon residence during hours away from employment and public service activities; mandatory public service; and supervision by the DOC by means of an electronic monitoring device or system.

- Allow the medical releasee to remain in the community pending the revocation hearing.

If the DOC elects to order the medical releasee to be returned to custody pending the revocation hearing, the officer or duly authorized representative may cause a warrant to be issued for the arrest of the medical releasee.

The revocation hearing must be conducted by the three-member panel discussed above and a majority of the panel members must agree that revocation is appropriate for the medical releasee's conditional medical release to be revoked. The bill requires the director of inmate health services or his or her designee to review any medical evidence pertaining to the medical releasee and provide the panel with a recommendation regarding the medical releasee's improvement and current medical or physical condition.

A medical releasee whose CMR was revoked due to improvement in his or her medical or physical condition must be recommitted to the DOC to serve the balance of his or her sentence with credit for the time served on CMR and without forfeiture of any gain-time accrued before recommitment. If the medical releasee whose CMR is revoked due to an improvement in her or his medical or physical condition would otherwise be eligible for parole or any other release program, the medical releasee may be considered for such release program pursuant to law.

Revocation Based on Violation of Conditions

The bill provides that CMR or CAIR may be revoked for violation of any release conditions the DOC establishes, including, but not limited to, a new violation of law. The bill provides that, if a duly authorized representative of the DOC has reasonable grounds to believe that a medical releasee or aging releasee has violated the conditions of his or her release in a material respect, such representative may cause a warrant to be issued for the arrest of the medical releasee or aging releasee.

Further, a law enforcement officer or a probation officer may arrest the medical releasee or aging releasee without a warrant in accordance with s. 948.06, F.S., if there are reasonable grounds to believe he or she has violated the terms and conditions of his or her CMR or CAIR, respectively. The law enforcement officer must report the medical releasee's or aging releasee's alleged violations to the supervising probation office or the DOC's emergency action center for initiation of revocation proceedings.

If the basis of the violation of release conditions is related to a new violation of law, the medical releasee or aging releasee must be detained without bond until his or her initial appearance at which a judicial determination of probable cause is made. If the judge determines that there was no probable cause for the arrest, the medical releasee or aging releasee may be released. If the judge determines that there was probable cause for the arrest, the judge's probable cause determination also constitutes reasonable grounds to believe that the medical releasee or aging releasee violated the conditions of the CMR or CAIR, respectively.

The bill requires the DOC to order that the medical releasee or aging releasee subject to revocation for a violation of conditions be returned to the custody of the DOC for a CMR or CAIR revocation hearing, respectively, as prescribed by rule. A medical releasee or an aging releasee may admit to the alleged violation of the conditions of CMR or CAIR, respectively, or may elect to proceed to a revocation hearing. A majority of the panel members must agree that revocation is appropriate for the medical releasee's CMR or the aging releasee's CAIR to be revoked.

The bill provides that a medical releasee, who has his or her CMR, or an aging releasee, who has had his or her CAIR, revoked due to a violation of conditions must serve the balance of his or her sentence in an institution designated by the DOC with credit for the actual time served on CMR or CAIR, respectively. Additionally, the medical releasee's or aging releasee's gain-time accrued before recommitment may be forfeited pursuant to s. 944.28(1), F.S. If the medical releasee whose CMR is revoked or aging releasee whose CAIR is revoked would otherwise be eligible for parole or any other release program, he or she may be considered for such release program pursuant to law.

The bill provides that a medical releasee whose CMR or aging releasee whose CAIR is revoked and is recommitted to the DOC must comply with the 85 percent requirement discussed above upon recommitment.

Revocation Hearing Process

CMR

If the medical releasee subject to revocation for either basis elects to proceed with a hearing, the medical releasee must be informed orally and in writing of certain rights, including the releasee's:

- Alleged basis for the pending revocation proceeding against the releasee.
- Right to:
 - Be represented by counsel.²⁹⁸
 - Be heard in person.
 - Secure, present, and compel the attendance of witnesses relevant to the proceeding.
 - Produce documents on his or her own behalf.
 - Access all evidence used to support the revocation proceeding against the releasee and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses.
 - Waive the hearing.

CAIR

If the aging releasee is subject to revocation and elects to proceed with a hearing, the aging releasee must be informed orally and in writing of certain rights, including the releasee's:

- Alleged violation with which he or she is charged.
- Right to:
 - Be represented by counsel.²⁹⁹
 - Be heard in person.
 - Secure, present, and compel the attendance of witnesses relevant to the proceeding.
 - Produce documents on his or her own behalf.

²⁹⁸ However, this bill explicitly provides that this does not create a right to publicly funded legal counsel.

²⁹⁹ However, this bill explicitly provides that this does not create a right to publicly funded legal counsel.

- Access all evidence used against the releasee and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses.
- Waive the hearing.

If the panel approves the revocation of the medical releasee's CMR or aging releasee's CAIR, the panel must provide a written statement as to evidence relied on and reasons for revocation.

Sovereign Immunity

The bill includes language providing that unless otherwise provided by law and in accordance with Art. X, s. 13 of the Florida Constitution, members of the panel who are involved with decisions that grant or revoke CMR or CAIR are provided immunity from liability for actions that directly relate to such decisions.

The bill authorizes the DOC to adopt rules as necessary to implement the act.

The bill also amends a number of sections to conform these provisions to changes made by the Act.

These provisions of the bill are effective October 1, 2020.

Wrongful Incarceration Compensation Eligibility (Sections 24-28)

In Florida, 13 people have been exonerated or released from incarceration since 2000 as a result of post-conviction DNA testing.³⁰⁰ The Victims of Wrongful Incarceration Compensation Act (the Act) has been in effect since July 1, 2008.³⁰¹ The Act provides a process whereby a person may petition the original sentencing court for an order finding the petitioner to be a wrongfully incarcerated person who is eligible for compensation from the state.

A person is considered a "wrongfully incarcerated person" when his or her felony conviction and sentence have been vacated by a court of competent jurisdiction and he or she is the subject of an order issued by the original sentencing court pursuant to s. 961.03, F.S., finding that the person did not:

- Commit the act or offense that served as the basis for the conviction and incarceration; and
- Aid, abet, or act as an accomplice or accessory to a person who committed the act or offense.³⁰²

³⁰⁰ These persons include Frank Lee Smith, Jerry Townsend, Wilton Dedge, Luis Diaz, Alan Crotzer, Orlando Boquete, Larry Bostic, Chad Heins, Cody Davis, William Dillon, James Bain, Anthony Caravella, and Derrick Williams who have been released from prison or exonerated in Florida based on DNA testing. ³⁰¹ Chapter 961, F.S. (ch. 2008-39, L.O.F.). To date, four persons have been compensated under the Act. E-mail and documentation received from the Office of the Attorney General, October 16, 2019 (on file with the Appropriations Subcommittee on Criminal and Civil Justice).

A person is deemed “eligible for compensation” if he or she meets the definition of the term “wrongfully incarcerated person” and is not disqualified from seeking compensation under the criteria prescribed in s. 961.04, F.S.³⁰³ Further, a person is considered to be “entitled to compensation” if he or she is deemed “eligible for compensation” and satisfies the application requirements prescribed in s. 961.05, F.S., and may receive compensation pursuant to s. 961.06, F.S.³⁰⁴

The Department of Legal Affairs (DLA) administers the eligible person’s application process and verifies the validity of the claim.³⁰⁵ The Chief Financial Officer arranges for payment of the claim by securing an annuity or annuities payable to the claimant over at least 10 years, calculated at a rate of $50,000 for each year of wrongful incarceration up to a total of $2 million.³⁰⁶ To date, four persons have been compensated under the Act for a total of $4,276,901.³⁰⁷

In cases where sufficient evidence of actual innocence exists, s. 961.04, F.S., provides that a person is nonetheless ineligible for compensation if:

- Before the person’s wrongful conviction and incarceration the person was convicted of, or pled guilty or nolo contendere to, regardless of adjudication any single violent felony, or more than one nonviolent felony, or a crime or crimes committed in another jurisdiction the elements of which would constitute a felony in this state, or a crime committed against the United States which is designated a felony, excluding any delinquency disposition;
- During the person’s wrongful incarceration, the person was convicted of, or pled guilty or nolo contendere to, regardless of adjudication, any violent felony offense or more than one nonviolent felony; or
- During the person’s wrongful incarceration, the person was also serving a concurrent sentence for another felony for which the person was not wrongfully convicted.

A person could be wrongfully incarcerated for a crime and then placed on parole or community supervision for that crime after the incarcerative part of the sentence is served.³⁰⁸ Section 961.06(2), F.S., addresses this situation in terms of eligibility for compensation for the period of ³⁰³ Section 961.02(4), F.S.

³⁰⁴ Section 961.02(5), F.S.

³⁰⁵ Section 961.05, F.S.

³⁰⁶ Additionally, the wrongfully incarcerated person is entitled to: waiver of tuition and fees for up to 120 hours of instruction at any career center established under s. 1001.44, F.S., any state college as defined in s. 1000.21(3), F.S., or any state university as defined in s. 100.21(6), F.S., if the wrongfully incarcerated person meets certain requirements; the amount of any fine, penalty, or court costs imposed and paid by the wrongfully incarcerated person; the amount of any reasonable attorney’s fees and expenses incurred and paid by the wrongfully incarcerated person in connection with all criminal proceedings and appeals regarding the wrongful conviction; and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in s. 943.0583, F.S., or s. 943.0585, F.S., and immediate administrative expunction of the person’s criminal record resulting from his or her wrongful arrest, wrongful conviction, and wrongful incarceration. Section 961.06, F.S.

³⁰⁷ E-mail and documentation received from the Office of the Attorney General, October 16, 2019 (on file with the Appropriations Subcommittee on Criminal and Civil Justice).

³⁰⁸ Persons are not eligible for parole in Florida unless they were sentenced prior to the effective date of the sentencing guidelines, which was October 1, 1983, and only then if they meet the statutory criteria. Chapter 82-171, L.O.F., and s. 947.16, F.S. The term “community supervision” as used in s. 961.06(2), F.S., could include control release, conditional medical release, or conditional release under the authority of the FCOR (ch. 947, F.S.), or community control or probation under the supervision of the DOC (ch. 948, F.S.).

wrongful incarceration. Under this provision, if a person commits a misdemeanor, no more than one nonviolent felony, or some technical violation of his or her supervision that results in the revocation of parole or community supervision, the person is still eligible for compensation. If, however, any single violent felony law violation or multiple nonviolent felony law violations result in revocation, the person is ineligible for compensation.³⁰⁹

The term “violent felony” is defined in s. 961.02(6), F.S., by cross-referencing felonies listed in s. 775.084(1)(c)1. or s. 948.06(8)(c), F.S. The combined list of those violent felony offenses includes attempts to commit the crimes as well as offenses committed in other jurisdictions if the elements of the crimes are substantially similar. The violent felonies referenced in s. 961.02(6), F.S., are:

- Kidnapping;
- False imprisonment of a child;
- Luring or enticing a child;
- Murder;
- Manslaughter;
- Aggravated manslaughter of a child;
- Aggravated manslaughter of an elderly person or disabled adult;
- Robbery;
- Carjacking;
- Home invasion robbery;
- Sexual Battery;
- Aggravated battery;
- Armed burglary and other burglary offenses that are first or second degree felonies;
- Aggravated child abuse;
- Aggravated abuse of an elderly person or disabled adult;
- Arson;
- Aggravated assault;
- Unlawful throwing, placing, or discharging of a destructive device or bomb;
- Treason;
- Aggravated stalking;
- Aircraft piracy;
- Abuse of a dead human body;
- Poisoning food or water;
- Lewd or lascivious battery, molestation, conduct, exhibition, or exhibition on computer;
- Lewd or lascivious offense upon or in the presence of an elderly or disabled person;
- Sexual performance by a child;
- Computer pornography;
- Transmission of child pornography; and
- Selling or buying of minors.

Since the Act’s inception, a number of claim bills have been filed on behalf of wrongfully incarcerated persons who are ineligible for compensation under the Act because of a felony conviction prior to the person's wrongful incarceration. At least two such persons have received compensation for wrongful incarceration through the claim bill process.

In 2008, Alan Crotzer prevailed in a claim bill for his wrongful incarceration. Crotzer was ineligible for compensation under the Act because of a prior violent felony conviction for armed robbery when he was 18 years old.³¹⁰ In 2012, prior to the eligibility expansion in 2017, William Dillon prevailed in a claim bill for his wrongful incarceration. Dillon was barred from seeking compensation under the Act because of a prior felony conviction for possession of a single Quaalude.³¹¹

The bill makes a number of changes to ch. 961, F.S., the "Victims of Wrongful Incarceration Compensation Act." The bill amends s. 961.03, F.S., to extend the time for a person who was wrongfully incarcerated for a petition from 90 days to within two years after an order vacating a conviction and sentence becomes final and the criminal charges against a person are dismissed, if the person's conviction and sentence is vacated on or after July 1, 2020.

The bill also authorizes a person to file a petition for determination of status as a wrongfully incarcerated person and determination of eligibility for compensation by July 1, 2022, if the:

- Person's conviction and sentence was vacated and the criminal charges against the person were dismissed, or the person was retried and found not guilty after January 1, 2006, but before July 1, 2020; and
- Person previously filed a claim that was dismissed or did not file a claim under ch. 961, F.S., because the:
 - Date when the criminal charges against the person were dismissed or the date the person was acquitted occurred more than 90 days after the date of the final order vacating the conviction and sentence; or
 - Person was convicted of an unrelated felony before his or her wrongful conviction and incarceration and was previously barred under the clean hands provision.

Additionally, the bill repeals s. 961.04, F.S., removing the bar to compensation for a claimant who has been convicted of a violent felony or multiple nonviolent felonies prior to or during his or her wrongful conviction and incarceration. Accordingly, an otherwise eligible claimant who was convicted of a violent felony or multiple nonviolent felonies will not be disqualified from receiving compensation under the Act for their unrelated wrongful conviction and incarceration.

A deceased person's heirs, successors, or assigns do not have standing to file a claim on the deceased person's behalf for wrongful incarceration compensation.

If a sentencing court determines that a person is a wrongfully incarcerated person and eligible for compensation under s. 961.03, F.S., the person is authorized to apply for compensation with the DLA.

³¹⁰ See ch. 2008-259, L.O.F.

³¹¹ See ch. 2012-229, L.O.F. (compensating William Dillon for wrongful incarceration despite ineligibility for compensation under the Act).

The bill removes the requirement for a wrongfully incarcerated person to release the state or any agency from all claims arising out of the facts relating to the person's wrongful conviction and incarceration. The bill also removes the bar to applying for wrongful incarceration compensation if the person has a pending lawsuit against the state or any agency, or any political subdivision thereof for damages relating to the person's wrongful conviction and incarceration.

Finally, the bill replaces the bar on civil litigation with an "offset provision" that:

- Authorizes the state to deduct the amount of a civil award recovered in a lawsuit from the state compensation owed if the claimant receives a civil award first;
- Requires a claimant to reimburse the state for any difference between state compensation and a civil award if the claimant receives statutory compensation prior to a civil award; and
- Requires a claimant to notify the DLA upon filing a civil action and the DLA to file a notice of payment of monetary compensation in such action to recover any amount owed for state compensation already awarded.

As mentioned above, the bill repeals s. 961.04, F.S., which prohibited compensation based on unrelated violent felony convictions. The bill deletes the terms "eligible for compensation" and "violent felony" and modifies the term "entitled to compensation" from s. 961.02, F.S., to conform this change. The bill makes additional confirming changes throughout the Act.

These provisions of the bill are effective July 1, 2020.

Incarceration Counting Toward Tuition Residency Requirements (Sections 18, 23, and 29)

Residency Status for Tuition Purposes

Florida law defines "tuition" to mean the basic fee charged to a student for instruction provided by a public postsecondary educational institution in the state.³¹² Residency designations are used for assessing tuition in postsecondary educational programs offered by charter technical career centers or career centers operated by school districts, in Florida College System institutions, and in state universities.³¹³ Students who are not classified as "residents for tuition purposes"³¹⁴ are required to pay the full cost of instruction at a public postsecondary institution. A person is able to meet the definition of a "legal resident" if the person has maintained his or her residence in Florida for the preceding year, has purchased a home which is occupied by him or her as his or her residence, or has established a domicile in this state.³¹⁵

Specifically, to qualify as a resident for tuition purposes:

- A person or, if that person is a dependent child, his or her parent or parents must have established legal residence in Florida and must have maintained legal residence for at least 12 consecutive months immediately prior to his or her initial enrollment in an institution of higher education.

- Every applicant for admission to an institution of higher education is required to make a statement as to his or her length of residence and establish that his or her presence or, if the applicant is a dependent child, the presence of his or her parent or parents in Florida currently is, and during the requisite 12-month qualifying period was, for the purpose of maintaining a bona fide domicile.³¹⁶

A person must show certain proof that he or she should be classified as a resident for tuition purposes and may not receive the in-state tuition rate until clear and convincing evidence related to legal residence and its duration has been provided. Each institution of higher education must make a residency determination that is documented by the submission of written or electronic verification that includes two or more specified documents that:

- Must include at least one of the following:
 - A Florida voter's registration card.
 - A Florida driver license.
 - A State of Florida identification card.
 - A Florida vehicle registration.
 - Proof of a permanent home in Florida that is occupied as a primary residence by the individual or by the individual's parent, if the individual is a dependent child.
 - Proof of a homestead exemption in Florida.
 - Transcripts from a Florida high school for multiple years if the Florida high school diploma or high school equivalency diploma was earned within the last 12 months.
 - Proof of permanent full-time employment in Florida for at least 30 hours per week for a 12-month period.
- May include one or more of the following:
 - A declaration of domicile in Florida.
 - A Florida professional or occupational license.
 - Florida incorporation.
 - A document evidencing family ties in Florida.
 - Proof of membership in a Florida-based charitable or professional organization.
 - Any other documentation that supports the student's request for resident status, including, but not limited to, utility bills and proof of 12 consecutive months of payments; a lease agreement and proof of 12 consecutive months of payments; or an official state, federal, or court document evidencing legal ties to Florida.³¹⁷

Florida law is silent as to whether time incarcerated in a Florida prison or county detention facility may count toward the 12-month legal residency requirements.

The DOC reports that it and Florida Gateway College partnered to offer the Second Chance Pell Program at Columbia Correctional Institution Annex, which is a pilot program operating under the Second Chance Pell Experimental Sites Initiative through the U.S. Department of Education and the Department of Justice. The program at Columbia Correctional Institution Annex commenced on January 24, 2017, and has recently been renewed for another three years. The DOC reports that this pilot program allows eligible inmates to access Pell Grant funds for post-secondary education. Such funds accessed through the grant must be used to cover the costs of tuition, fees, books, and supplies. The DOC is currently attempting to expand post-secondary opportunities for inmates in collaboration with several Florida colleges and universities.³¹⁸

Requirement to Provide Certain Information to Persons upon Release from Imprisonment

Entities that imprison persons convicted of offenses in violation of Florida law are required in certain circumstances to provide specified information to such persons upon release. For example, s. 944.705(6), F.S., requires the DOC to notify every inmate upon release, in no less than 18-point type in the inmate's release documents, that the inmate may be sentenced pursuant to s. 775.082(9), F.S., as a prison releasee reoffender as discussed below if the inmate commits any enumerated felony offense within 3 years after the inmate's release. Additionally, the notice must be prefaced by the word "WARNING" in boldfaced type.³¹⁹

Further, specified entities are required to provide inmates with certain information related to all outstanding terms of sentence in accordance with CS/SB 7066 (2019), related to voting rights restoration.³²⁰ For example, ss. 944.705 and 948.041, F.S., require the DOC to notify an inmate or offender in writing of all outstanding terms of sentence at the time of release or termination of probation or community control.

Such entities are not currently required to provide inmates being released from their facilities information related to dates of his or her admission to and release from the custody of the facility, including the total length of the term of imprisonment from which he or she is being released.

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 1009.21(2), F.S., authorizing time spent incarcerated in a county detention facility or state correctional facility to apply towards the requirement to reside in Florida through an authorized manner for 12 consecutive months immediately before enrollment for the designation as a resident for tuition purposes. The bill also amends s. 1009.21(3), F.S., requiring time spent incarcerated in a county detention facility³²¹ or state correctional facility³²² to be credited toward the residency requirement, with any combination of documented time living in Florida before or after incarceration.

Further, the bill amends s. 944.705, F.S., and creates s. 951.30, F.S., requiring the DOC and administrators of county detention facilities, respectively, to provide written documentation to ³¹⁸ The DOC, Agency Analysis for SB 1308, February 3, 2020, p. 4 (on file with the Appropriations Subcommittee on Senate Criminal and Civil Justice Committee) (hereinafter cited as "The DOC SB 1308 Analysis").

³¹⁹ Section 944.705(6), F.S., further provides that evidence that the DOC failed to provide this notice to an inmate will not prohibit a person from being sentenced pursuant to s. 775.082(9), F.S. The state is not be required to demonstrate that a person received any notice from the DOC in order for the court to impose a sentence pursuant to s. 775.082(9), F.S.

³²⁰ See ch. 2019-162, L.O.F.

³²² Section 944.02(8), F.S., defines "state correctional institution" to mean any prison, road camp, prison industry, prison forestry camp, or any prison camp or prison farm or other correctional facility, temporary or permanent, in which prisoners are housed, worked, or maintained, under the custody and jurisdiction of the DOC.

inmates upon release specifying the dates of the inmate's admission to and release from the custody of the facility. This notification must include the total length of the term of imprisonment from which he or she is being released.

This documentation will assist inmates with providing the proper evidence to satisfy residency requirements for tuition purposes pursuant to s. 1009.21(3), F.S.

Office of Program Policy and Governmental Accountability (OPPAGA) Study on Collateral Consequences (Section 30)

The bill requires the OPPAGA to conduct a study to evaluate the various opportunities available to persons returning to the community from imprisonment. The bill provides that the study's scope must include, but need not be limited to:

- Any barriers to such opportunities;
- The collateral consequences that are present, if applicable, for persons who are released from incarceration into the community; and
- Methods for reducing the collateral consequences identified.

The bill requires the OPPAGA to submit a report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives by November 1, 2020, on its findings.

This provision of the bill is effective July 1, 2020.

C. Government Sector Impact:Driving With a License Suspended or Revoked (DWLSR) Amendments (Sections 1 and 15)Retroactive DWLSR Sentencing Provisions

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference (CJIC) heard CS/SB 1504, the identical provisions of which are included herein on February 10, 2020. The CJIC found that the retroactive sentencing provisions of CS/SB 1504 will have a negative significant prison bed impact (i.e. decrease of more than 25 beds).³²³

The bill also allows for people to be sentenced to misdemeanor penalties, rather than to prison for such offenses. To the extent that the bill results in persons being sentenced to non-state sanctions or resentenced and released from imprisonment with the DOC, the bill will have an indeterminate negative prison bed impact (i.e. an unquantifiable decrease).³²⁴

According to the DOC, there are currently 2,086 inmates in custody for the offense of DWLSR who were sentenced under former s. 332.34, F.S., which would need to be reviewed for eligibility under the bill. Further, the DOC states that the bill would result in a significant, but temporary fiscal impact on the DOC. Therefore, the DOC will need one full-time non-recurring, Correctional Services Assistant Consultant at a cost of $65,395, to conduct the review for eligibility of certain offenders. DOC also estimates there will be a minimal technology impact of $3,480, based on a possible request for expungement of cases.³²⁵

Expunction Provisions

The CJIC also found that the expunction provisions of CS/SB 1504 will have a positive insignificant prison bed impact (i.e. an increase of 10 or fewer prison beds).³²⁶

The bill allows for certain persons to have any specified criminal history records related to a DWLSR conviction expunged. This will result in a negative fiscal impact on the FDLE' workload. To accommodate this increased workload, the FDLE estimates it will need an additional 16 positions totaling $1,039,809 ($1,029,867 recurring),³²⁷ which may be offset in part by the $75 fee collected for each application for COE associated with this additional category of expunction records.

Mandatory Minimum Sentences (Sections 2-5, 7, and 8)

The bill amends ss. 379.407, 403.4154, 456.065, 624.401, and 817.234, F.S., to remove various mandatory minimum penalties. To the extent that persons convicted for these various offenses that currently require the imposition of a minimum mandatory term of imprisonment are sentenced to lesser sentences of imprisonment than are currently required, the bill is expected to have a negative prison bed impact.

Drug Trafficking Safety Valve (Section 8)

The CJIC heard SB 468, which is identical to this provision in the bill, on January 27, 2020, and determined that this provision will result in a negative indeterminate prison bed impact (i.e. an unquantifiable decrease in prison beds) due to the discretion given to the court to depart from such mandatory sentences.³²⁸

Prison Releasee Reoffenders (Section 6)

The CJIC heard CS/SB 1716, which is identical to these provisions of the bill, on February 10, 2020, and determined that the bill will have a negative significant prison bed impact (i.e. decrease of more than 25 prison beds).³²⁹

The DOC states that since it will be required to provide notice to the inmate of his or her eligibility to request a sentence review hearing, there will be a need in the Bureau of Admissions and Release for a full time, temporary position, funded for up to one year to handle the work load increase required to complete notifications for the 7,400 inmates that this bill will effect.³³⁰

Probation Violations (Section 22)

The bill clarifies that all of the enumerated conditions must be satisfied for a court to be required to continue or modify a person on probation subsequent to certain violations of probation. To the extent that this results in fewer people being continued or modified on probation, the bill may result in more people having their probation revoked and sentenced to prison or jail. According the State Court Administrator, this bill is not likely to have a significant effect on judicial workload and not fiscal impact.³³¹

Sentence Review Hearings (Sections 10-12)

The CJIC, reviewed CS/SB 1308, the provisions of which are included herein, on February 10, 2020 and estimates the bill will have a “negative significant” prison bed impact (a decrease of more than 25 prison beds). The EDR provided the following information relevant to its estimate.³³²

Further, the bill modifies the ability of certain juvenile offenders from being eligible for a sentence review hearing in addition to creating a new sentence review hearing process for young adult offenders sentenced for committing specified offenses before attaining the age of 25 years. To the extent that the bill results in juvenile or young adult offenders being released from prison earlier than otherwise may occur as a result of such sentence review hearings, the bill may result in a negative indeterminate prison bed impact (i.e. an unquantifiable decrease in prison beds).³³³

The DOC reports that there are 37 inmates eligible for review based on the changes made to s. 921.1402, F.S., and the retroactive application of such changes. Additionally, the DOC states that there are 5,312 potentially eligible young adult offenders that will require eligibility notification under the newly-created s. 921.1403, F.S. As stated above, to the extent that the bill results in juvenile or young adult offenders being released from prison earlier than otherwise may occur as a result of such sentence review hearings, the DOC provides that the bill may result in a negative indeterminate prison bed impact (i.e. an unquantifiable decrease in prison beds) and an indeterminate positive impact on the supervision population managed by the DOC.³³⁴

Additionally, the bill may have an impact on the court system to the extent that resentencing hearings for such offenders affected by the bill will require more time and resources. However, any fiscal impact cannot be accurately determined due to the unavailability of data needed to establish the increase in judicial and court staff workload.³³⁵

The Public Defender Association states that they currently represent a large majority of the juvenile offenders who are seeking to be resentenced, but the bill adds adult offenders who committed their offenses between the ages of 18-25. Therefore, it is anticipated that this bill will create more workload for public defender staff for the next several fiscal years.³³⁶

The CJIC heard HB 7077, which is identical to the provisions contained herein, on February 10, 2020, and found that the bill will have a negative indeterminate prison bed impact (i.e. an unquantifiable decrease in prison beds).³³⁷ The bill may increase the amount of postsentencing forensic analysis the FDLE is ordered to perform, but the bill also authorizes third-party laboratories to conduct such analysis as well. To the extent that the bill increases analysis that is conducted by the FDLE, these provisions will likely increase the FDLE laboratories' workload. Additionally, if indigent defendants are successful in petitioning for postsentencing forensic analysis, the state may be responsible for increased testing costs. However, since the bill authorizes private laboratory testing, at the petitioner's expense, the degree to which state laboratories' workload and testing costs will increase is unknown.³³⁸

Conditional Release for Certain Inmates (In part, Sections 19- 21)

Conditional Medical Release (CMR)

The CJIC reviewed CS/CS/SB 556, which is identical to the provisions in this bill, on January 27, 2020. The CJIC determined that these sections will likely result in a negative significant prison bed impact (i.e. a decrease of more than 25 prison beds).³³⁹ Additionally, these sections will likely result in a reduction in the associated inmate healthcare costs.

The bill removes any role of determining the appropriateness of an inmate's release on CMR from the FCOR and places such comparable duties within the DOC. In Fiscal Year 2018-2019, FCOR conducted 84 CMR determinations. They report that they spent 804 hours on the investigation/determination, 64 hours on victim assistance, and 433 hours on revocations for CMR. The FCOR reports that this equates to less than 1 FTE.³⁴⁰

The DOC reports that when the inmate population is impacted in small increments statewide, the inmate variable per diem of $20.04 is the most appropriate to use to determine the fiscal impact. The variable per diem includes costs more directly aligned with individual inmate care such as medical, food, inmate clothing, personal care items, etc. The DOC’s Fiscal Year 2017-2018 average per diem for community supervision was $5.47.³⁴¹

According to the DOC, the department will need 9 additional staff in the Bureau of Classification Management to oversee, provide guidance, and coordinate the implementation and administration of the CMR program, as follows.³⁴²

Conditional Aging Inmate Release (CAIR)

The CJIC reviewed CS/CS/SB 574, which is identical to the sections in this bill, on January 27, 2020. The CJIC determined that these sections will likely result in a negative insignificant prison bed impact (i.e. a decrease of 10 or fewer prison beds).³⁴⁴

The DOC reports that the overall fiscal impact of these sections is indeterminate because release will be at the discretion of the DOC.³⁴⁵ The DOC reports that as of October 18,

³⁴⁵ The five highest occurring offenses of incarceration for these inmates are first or second degree murder (s. 782.04, F.S.), sexual battery on a victim under 12 (s. 794.011, F.S.), lewd or lascivious molestation on a victim under 12 (s. 800.04, F.S.),

2019, there were a total of 1,849 inmates age 70 or older in its custody, and, based on the criteria set forth in the bill, only 168 of these inmates would meet the eligibility criteria for consideration for CAIR. The DOC reports that an additional 291 inmates were projected to become eligible based on the 70 years of age threshold over the next five years.³⁴⁶ This data was provided based on the age threshold contained in CS/SB 574. However, PCS/CS/SB 574, which is identical to the section in this bill, lowers the age threshold for eligibility to 65 years of age and also expands the offenses that preclude eligibility for release under the program. Therefore, this bill may expand the pool of inmates who are eligible for consideration of CAIR release.

The DOC reports that when the inmate population is impacted in small increments statewide, the inmate variable per diem of $20.04 is the most appropriate to use to determine the fiscal impact. The variable per diem includes costs more directly aligned with individual inmate care such as medical, food, inmate clothing, personal care items, etc. The DOC’s Fiscal Year 2017-2018 average per diem for community supervision was $5.47.³⁴⁷

According to the DOC, the department will need 9 additional staff in the Bureau of Classification Management to oversee, provide guidance, and coordinate the implementation and administration of the CAIR program, as follows.³⁴⁸

Compensation for Wrongful Incarceration (Sections 24-28)

More persons are potentially eligible for compensation for wrongful incarceration under these sections of the bill. A person who is entitled to compensation based on wrongful incarceration would be paid at the rate of $50,000 per year of wrongful incarceration up to a limit of $2 million. Payment is made from an annuity or annuities purchased by the Chief Financial Officer for the benefit of the wrongfully incarcerated person. The Victims of Wrongful Incarceration Compensation Act is funded through a continuing appropriation pursuant to s. 961.07, F.S.

Although statutory limits on compensation under the Act are clear, the fiscal impact of the bill is unquantifiable. The possibility that a person would be compensated for wrongful incarceration is based upon variables that cannot be known, such as the number of wrongful incarcerations that currently exist or might exist in the future. Four successful claims since the Act became effective total $4,276,901.

Notification of Certain Release Information (Sections 18, 23, and 29)

The bill requires the DOC and county detention facilities to provide inmates certain information related to the length of incarceration. The DOC states that inmates in its custody often have multiple sentences with various admission dates, release dates, and terms imposed. Further, each sentence length is calculated individually based on a number of factors and therefore an inmate may have multiple endpoints of their various sentences. According to the DOC, these sections of the bill will require significant programming changes, but such necessary changes are not specified by the DOC.³⁵⁰

Residency for Tuition Purposes (Sections 29)

The bill allows time incarcerated in a Florida facility to count towards the 12-month residency requirement for tuition purposes and requires the DOC and county detention facilities to provide certain information to inmates upon release from such facilities. To the extent that the requirement to provide such notification increases the workload of the DOC and county detention facilities, the bill may result in an indeterminate fiscal impact.

IX. Additional Information:

A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes: (Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

Recommended CS/CS by Appropriations Subcommittee on Criminal and Civil Justice on February 25, 2020:

The committee substitute:

- Provides for the retroactive application of the changes made by CS/HB 7125 (2019) to s. 322.34, F.S., related to the offense of driving while license suspended or revoked (DWLSR).
- Requires offenders convicted of DWLSR who have not been sentenced as of October 1, 2020, to be sentenced in accordance with the new penalties outlined in CS/HB 7125 (2019).
- Authorizes offenders convicted of DWLSR who have been sentenced and are still serving such sentence to be resentenced in accordance with the penalties in CS/HB 7125 (2019).
- Provides procedures for the resentencing of eligible persons previously convicted of DWLSR and requires the court of original jurisdiction, upon receiving an application for sentence review from the eligible person, to hold a sentence review hearing to determine if the eligible person meets the criteria for resentencing.
- Provides that a person is eligible to expunge a criminal history record of a conviction that resulted from former s. 322.34, F.S., in specified circumstances.

22 shall plan and administer its programs through a substate
23 structure that conforms to the boundaries of the judicial 24 circuits prescribed in s. 26.021. A county may seek placement in 25 a juvenile justice operating circuit other than as prescribed in 26 s. 26.021 for participation in the Prevention ~~and Victim~~
27 ~~Services~~ Program and the Probation and Community Corrections
28 Program by making a request of the chief circuit judge in each
29 judicial circuit affected by such request. Upon a showing that 30 geographic proximity, community identity, or other legitimate
31 concern for efficiency of operations merits alternative
32 placement, each affected chief circuit judge may authorize the 33 execution of an interagency agreement specifying the alternative 34 juvenile justice operating circuit in which the county is to be 35 placed and the basis for the alternative placement. Upon the 36 execution of said interagency agreement by each affected chief

40 Section 2. Section 985.686, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

41 Section 3. Subsections (1) through (4) and (6) of section
42 985.6865, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

43 985.6865 Juvenile detention.—

44 ~~(1) The Legislature finds that various counties and the~~
45 ~~Department of Juvenile Justice have engaged in a multitude of~~ 46 ~~legal proceedings regarding detention cost sharing for~~ 47 ~~juveniles. Such litigation has largely focused on how the~~
48 ~~Department of Juvenile Justice calculates the detention costs~~
49 ~~that the counties are responsible for paying, leading to the~~ 50 ~~overbilling of counties for a period of years. Additionally,~~ 51 ~~litigation pending in 2016 is a financial burden on the~~ 52 ~~taxpayers of this state.~~

53 ~~(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that all counties~~
54 ~~that are not fiscally constrained counties and that have pending~~
55 ~~administrative or judicial claims or challenges file a notice of~~ 56 ~~voluntary dismissal with prejudice to dismiss all actions~~
57 ~~pending on or before February 1, 2016, against the state or any~~
58 ~~state agency related to juvenile detention cost sharing.~~
59 ~~Furthermore, all counties that are not fiscally constrained~~
60 ~~shall execute a release and waiver of any existing or future~~
61 ~~claims and actions arising from detention cost share prior to~~
62 ~~the 2016-2017 fiscal year. The department may not seek~~ 63 ~~reimbursement from counties complying with this subsection for~~ 64 ~~any underpayment for any cost sharing requirements before the~~ 65 ~~2016-2017 fiscal year.~~

66 (1)~~(3)~~ As used in this section, the term:

67 (a) "Detention care" means secure detention and respite
68 beds for juveniles charged with a domestic violence crime.

165266

69 (b) "Fiscally constrained county" means a county within a
70 rural area of opportunity as designated by the Governor pursuant 71 to s. 288.0656 or each county for which the value of a mill will 72 raise no more than $5 million in revenue, based on the certified
73 school taxable value certified pursuant to s. 1011.62(4)(a)1.a.,
74 from the previous July 1.

75 (c) "Total shared detention costs" means the amount of 76 funds expended by the department for the costs of detention care
77 for the prior fiscal year. This amount includes the most recent 78 actual certify forward amounts minus any funds it expends on 79 detention care for juveniles residing in fiscally constrained
80 counties or out of state.

81 ~~(2)-(4) Notwithstanding s. 985.686, for the 2017-2018 fiscal~~
82 ~~year, and each fiscal year thereafter, each county that is not a~~
83 ~~fiscally constrained county and that has taken the action~~
84 ~~fulfilling the intent of this section as described in subsection~~
85 ~~(2) shall pay its annual percentage share of 50 percent of the~~ 86 ~~total shared detention costs. Annually by July 15, 2017, and~~ 87 ~~each year thereafter, the department shall calculate and provide~~ 88 ~~to each county that is not a fiscally constrained county and~~
89 ~~that does not provide its own detention care for juveniles its~~ 90 ~~annual percentage share by dividing the total number of~~ 91 ~~detention days for juveniles residing in the county for the most~~ 92 ~~recently completed 12-month period by the total number of~~
93 ~~detention days for juveniles in all counties that are not~~
94 ~~fiscally constrained counties during the same period. The annual~~
95 ~~percentage share of each county that is not a fiscally~~
96 ~~constrained county and that does not provide its own detention~~
97 ~~care for juveniles must be multiplied by 50 percent of the total~~

165266

98 shared detention costs to determine that county's share of 99 detention costs. Beginning August 1, each such county shall pay 100 to the department its share of detention costs, which shall be
101 paid in 12 equal payments due on the first day of each month.
102 The state shall pay the remaining actual costs of detention
103 care.

104 ~~(4)-(6)~~ Each county that is not a fiscally constrained 105 county and that does not provide its own detention care for 106 juveniles ~~has taken the action fulfilling the intent of this~~ 107 ~~section as described in subsection (2)~~ shall incorporate into 108 its annual county budget sufficient funds to pay its annual 109 percentage share of the total shared detention costs required by 110 subsection (2) ~~(4)~~.

380 Section 1. Section 322.3401, Florida Statutes, is created
381 to read:
382 322.3401 Retroactive application relating to s. 322.34;
383 legislative intent; prohibiting certain sentences for specified
384 offenses; resentencing procedures.-
385 (1) It is the intent of the Legislature to retroactively
386 apply section 12 of chapter 2019-167, Laws of Florida, only as 387 provided in this section, to persons who committed the offense
388 of driving while license suspended, revoked, canceled, or 389 disqualified before October 1, 2019, the effective date of 390 section 12 of chapter 2019-167, Laws of Florida, which amended
391 s. 322.34 to modify criminal penalties and collateral
392 consequences for offenses under that section.
393 (2) As used in this section, the term:
394 (a) "Former s. 322.34" is a reference to s. 322.34 as it
395 existed at any time before its amendment by chapter 2019-167,
396 Laws of Florida.
397 (b) "New s. 322.34" is a reference to s. 322.34 as it
398 exists after the amendments made by chapter 2019-167, Laws of
399 Florida, became effective.
400 (3) (a) A person who committed the offense of driving while
401 license suspended, revoked, canceled, or disqualified before
402 October 1, 2019, but who was not sentenced under former s.
403 322.34 before October 1, 2020, must be sentenced in accordance 404 with s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084 for the degree of 695928

576-04137-20

405 offense as provided for in the new s. 322.34.

406 (b) A person who committed the offense of driving while
407 license suspended, revoked, canceled, or disqualified before
408 October 1, 2019, who was sentenced before October 1, 2019, to a
409 term of imprisonment or supervision pursuant to former s.
410 322.34, and who is serving such penalty on or after October 1,
411 2020, may be resentenced in accordance with paragraph (c).

412 (c) Resentencing under this section must occur in the 413 following manner:

414 1. A person described in paragraph (b) who is eligible to 415 request a sentence review hearing pursuant to this section shall 416 be notified of such eligibility by the facility in which the 417 person is imprisoned or the entity who is supervising the 418 person.

419 2. A person seeking a sentence review hearing under this 420 section must submit an application to the court of original
421 jurisdiction requesting that such a hearing be conducted. Such 422 request by the person serves to initiate the procedures provided
423 for in this section. The sentencing court shall retain original
424 jurisdiction for the duration of the sentence for this purpose.

425 3. A person who is eligible for a sentence review hearing
426 under this section is entitled to be represented by counsel, and 427 the court shall appoint a public defender to represent the 428 person if he or she cannot afford an attorney.

429 4. Upon receiving an application from the eligible person,
430 the court of original jurisdiction shall hold a sentence review
431 hearing to determine if the eligible person meets the criteria
432 for resentencing under this section.

437 offense as provided for in the new s. 322.34. However, the new 438 sentence may not exceed the person's original sentence with 439 credit for time served. If the court does not resentence the 440 person under this subsection, the court must provide written
441 findings why resentencing is not appropriate.

442 (4) Notwithstanding any other law, a person who has been
443 convicted of a felony under former s. 322.34 and whose offense
444 would not be classified as a felony under the new s. 322.34 must 445 have all outstanding fines, fees, and costs related to such 446 felony conviction waived. In addition, such person must be 447 treated as if he or she had been convicted of a misdemeanor for 448 purposes of any right, privilege, benefit, remedy, or collateral
449 consequence that the person might be entitled to but for such 450 felony conviction. This provision does not serve to remove the 451 designation of the person as a convicted felon. However, the 452 consequences of such felony conviction which are solely 453 statutory in nature and are imposed as a result of such 454 conviction shall no longer apply.

869 ~~as provided in this subsection, unless the state attorney~~
870 ~~determines that extenuating circumstances exist which preclude~~
871 ~~the just prosecution of the offender, including whether the~~ 872 ~~victim recommends that the offender not be sentenced as provided~~
873 ~~in this subsection.~~

874 ~~2. For every case in which the offender meets the criteria~~
875 ~~in paragraph (a) and does not receive the mandatory minimum~~

695928

576-04137-20

1188 the court finds on the record that all of the following
1189 circumstances exist:

1190 (a) The person did not engage in a continuing criminal
1191 enterprise as defined in s. 893.20(1).

1192 (b) The person did not use or threaten violence or use a
1193 weapon during the commission of the crime.

1194 (c) The person did not cause a death or serious bodily
1195 injury.

1196 Section 9. Section 921.002, Florida Statutes, is amended to 1197 read:

1198 921.002 The Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code.—The 1199 Public Safety Code applies ~~Criminal Punishment Code shall apply~~
1200 to all felony offenses, except capital felonies, committed on or
1201 after October 1, 1998.

1202 (1) The provision of criminal penalties and of limitations
1203 upon the application of such penalties is a matter of 1204 predominantly substantive law and, as such, is a matter properly
1205 addressed by the Legislature. The Legislature, in the exercise
1206 of its authority and responsibility to establish sentencing
1207 criteria, to provide for the imposition of criminal penalties,
1208 and to make the best use of state prisons so that violent
1209 criminal offenders are appropriately incarcerated, has 1210 determined that it is in the best interest of the state to 1211 develop, implement, and revise a sentencing policy. The Public
1212 Safety Criminal Punishment Code embodies the principles that:

1213 (a) Sentencing is neutral with respect to race, gender, and 1214 social and economic status.

1215 (b) The primary purpose of sentencing is public safety ~~to~~ 1216 ~~punish the offender~~. Rehabilitation is a desired goal of the 695928

576-04137-20

1217 criminal justice system but is subordinate to the goal of public
1218 safety punishment.

1219 (c) The penalty imposed is commensurate with the severity
1220 of the primary offense and the circumstances surrounding the 1221 primary offense.

1222 (d) The severity of the sentence increases with the length
1223 and nature of the offender's prior record.

1224 (e) The sentence imposed by the sentencing judge reflects
1225 the length of actual time to be served, shortened only by the 1226 application of incentive and meritorious gain-time as provided 1227 by law, and may not be shortened if the defendant would 1228 consequently serve less than 85 percent of his or her term of 1229 imprisonment as provided in s. 944.275(4). ~~The provisions of~~ 1230 Chapter 947, relating to parole, does shall not apply to persons
1231 sentenced under the Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code.

1232 (f) Departures below the lowest permissible sentence
1233 established by the code must be articulated in writing by the 1234 trial court judge and made only when circumstances or factors
1235 reasonably justify the mitigation of the sentence. The level of 1236 proof necessary to establish facts that support a departure from 1237 the lowest permissible sentence is a preponderance of the 1238 evidence.

1239 (g) The trial court judge may impose a sentence up to and 1240 including the statutory maximum for any offense, including an 1241 offense that is before the court due to a violation of probation
1242 or community control.

1243 (h) A sentence may be appealed on the basis that it departs
1244 from the Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code only if the 1245 sentence is below the lowest permissible sentence or as

695928

576-04137-20

1246 enumerated in s. 924.06(1).

1247 (i) Use of incarcerative sanctions is prioritized toward 1248 offenders convicted of serious offenses and certain offenders
1249 who have long prior records, in order to maximize the finite
1250 capacities of state and local correctional facilities.

1251 (2) When a defendant is before the court for sentencing for 1252 more than one felony and the felonies were committed under more
1253 than one version or revision of the former sentencing guidelines
1254 or the code, each felony shall be sentenced under the guidelines
1255 or the code in effect at the time the particular felony was 1256 committed. This subsection does not apply to sentencing for any 1257 capital felony.

1258 (3) A court may impose a departure below the lowest
1259 permissible sentence based upon circumstances or factors that 1260 reasonably justify the mitigation of the sentence in accordance 1261 with s. 921.0026. The level of proof necessary to establish 1262 facts supporting the mitigation of a sentence is a preponderance
1263 of the evidence. When multiple reasons exist to support the 1264 mitigation, the mitigation shall be upheld when at least one
1265 circumstance or factor justifies the mitigation regardless of 1266 the presence of other circumstances or factors found not to 1267 justify mitigation. Any sentence imposed below the lowest
1268 permissible sentence must be explained in writing by the trial
1269 court judge.

1270 (4) (a) The Department of Corrections shall report on trends
1271 in sentencing practices and sentencing score thresholds and 1272 provide an analysis on the sentencing factors considered by the 1273 courts and shall submit this information to the Legislature by 1274 October 1 of each year.

576-04137-20

1275 (b) The Criminal Justice Estimating Conference, with the 1276 assistance of the Department of Corrections, shall estimate the 1277 impact of any proposed change to the Public Safety Criminal 1278 ~~Punishment~~ Code on future rates of incarceration and on the 1279 prison population. The Criminal Justice Estimating Conference
1280 shall base its projections on historical data concerning 1281 sentencing practices which have been accumulated by the 1282 Department of Corrections and other relevant data from other
1283 state agencies and records of the Department of Corrections
1284 which disclose the average time served for offenses covered by 1285 any proposed changes to the Public Safety Criminal Punishment
1286 Code.

1287 (c) In order to produce projects that are either required
1288 by law or requested by the Legislature to assist the Legislature
1289 in making modifications to the Public Safety Criminal Punishment
1290 Code, the Department of Corrections is authorized to collect and 1291 evaluate Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code scoresheets from 1292 each of the judicial circuits after sentencing. Beginning in 1293 1999, by October 1 of each year, the Department of Corrections
1294 shall provide an annual report to the Legislature that shows the 1295 rate of compliance of each judicial circuit in providing 1296 scoresheets to the department.

1297 Section 10. Paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section
1298 921.1402, Florida Statutes, is amended, and subsection (4) of 1299 that section is reenacted, to read:

1300 921.1402 Review of sentences for persons convicted of 1301 specified offenses committed while under the age of 18 years.—

1302 (2) (a) A juvenile offender sentenced under s.
1303 775.082(1)(b)1. is entitled to a review of his or her sentence

576-04137-20

1304 after 25 years. However, a juvenile offender is not entitled to 1305 review if he or she has previously been convicted of committing 1306 ~~one of the following offenses~~, or of conspiracy to commit ~~one of~~ 1307 ~~the following offenses~~, murder if the murder offense for which 1308 the person was previously convicted was part of a separate 1309 criminal transaction or episode than the murder ~~that~~ which 1310 resulted in the sentence under s. 775.082(1)(b)1.+

- 1311 ~~1. Murder;~~
- 1312 ~~2. Manslaughter;~~
- 1313 ~~3. Sexual battery;~~
- 1314 ~~4. Armed burglary;~~
- 1315 ~~5. Armed robbery;~~
- 1316 ~~6. Armed carjacking;~~
- 1317 ~~7. Home invasion robbery;~~
- 1318 ~~8. Human trafficking for commercial sexual activity with a~~ 1319 ~~child under 18 years of age;~~
- 1320 ~~9. False imprisonment under s. 787.02(3)(a); or~~
- 1321 ~~10. Kidnapping.~~

1322 (4) A juvenile offender seeking sentence review pursuant to 1323 subsection (2) must submit an application to the court of 1324 original jurisdiction requesting that a sentence review hearing
1325 be held. The juvenile offender must submit a new application to 1326 the court of original jurisdiction to request subsequent 1327 sentence review hearings pursuant to paragraph (2)(d). The 1328 sentencing court shall retain original jurisdiction for the 1329 duration of the sentence for this purpose.

1330 Section 11. Section 921.14021, Florida Statutes, is created
1331 to read:

1332 921.14021 Retroactive application relating to s. 921.1402;

695928

576-04137-20

1333 legislative intent; review of sentence.—

1334 (1) It is the intent of the Legislature to retroactively
1335 apply the amendments made to s. 921.1402 which took effect
1336 October 1, 2020, only as provided in this section, to juvenile 1337 offenders convicted of a capital offense and sentenced under s.
1338 775.082(1)(b)1. who have been ineligible for sentence review
1339 hearings because of a previous conviction of an offense
1340 enumerated in s. 921.1402(2)(a), thereby providing such juvenile 1341 offenders with an opportunity for consideration by a court and 1342 an opportunity for release if deemed appropriate under law.

1343 (2) A juvenile offender, as defined in s. 921.1402, who was
1344 convicted of a capital offense and sentenced under s.
1345 775.082(1)(b)1., and who was ineligible for a sentence review
1346 hearing pursuant to s. 921.1402(2)(a)2.-10. as it existed before
1347 October 1, 2020, is entitled to a review of his or her sentence
1348 after 25 years or, if on October 1, 2020, 25 years have already
1349 passed since the sentencing, immediately.

1350 Section 12. Section 921.1403, Florida Statutes, is created
1351 to read:

1352 921.1403 Review of sentences for persons convicted of
1353 specified offenses committed while under 25 years of age.—

1354 (1) It is the intent of the Legislature to retroactively
1355 apply the amendments to this section which took effect October
1356 1, 2020.

1357 (2) As used in this section, the term "young adult
1358 offender" means a person who committed an offense before he or 1359 she reached 25 years of age and for which he or she is sentenced
1360 to a term of years in the custody of the Department of 1361 Corrections, regardless of the date of sentencing.

695928

576-04137-20

1362 (3) A young adult offender is not entitled to a sentence
1363 review under this section if he or she has previously been 1364 convicted of committing, or of conspiring to commit, murder if
1365 the murder offense for which the person was previously convicted
1366 was part of a separate criminal transaction or episode than that 1367 which resulted in the sentence under s. 775.082(3)(a)1., 2., 3.,
1368 4., or 6. or (b)1.

1369 (4)(a)1. A young adult offender who is convicted of an
1370 offense that is a life felony, that is punishable by a term of 1371 years not exceeding life imprisonment, or that was reclassified
1372 as a life felony and he or she is sentenced to a term of more
1373 than 20 years under s. 775.082(3)(a)1., 2., 3., 4., or 6., is 1374 entitled to a review of his or her sentence after 20 years.

1375 2. This paragraph does not apply to a person who is
1376 eligible for sentencing under s. 775.082(3)(a)5. or s.
1377 775.082(3)(c).

1378 (b) A young adult offender who is convicted of an offense
1379 that is a felony of the first degree or that was reclassified as 1380 a felony of the first degree and he or she is sentenced to a
1381 term of more than 15 years under s. 775.082(3)(b)1. is entitled
1382 to a review of his or her sentence after 15 years.

1383 (5) The Department of Corrections must notify a young adult
1384 offender in writing of his or her eligibility to request a
1385 sentence review hearing 18 months before the young adult
1386 offender is entitled to a sentence review hearing or notify him
1387 or her immediately in writing if the offender is eligible as of 1388 October 1, 2020.

1389 (6) A young adult offender seeking a sentence review
1390 hearing under this section must submit an application to the 695928

576-04137-20

1391 court of original jurisdiction requesting that a sentence review
1392 hearing be held. The young adult offender must submit a new 1393 application to the court of original jurisdiction to request a
1394 subsequent sentence review hearing pursuant to subsection (8).
1395 The sentencing court shall retain original jurisdiction for the 1396 duration of the sentence for this purpose.

1397 (7) A young adult offender who is eligible for a sentence
1398 review hearing under this section is entitled to be represented
1399 by counsel, and the court shall appoint a public defender to 1400 represent the young adult offender if he or she cannot afford an 1401 attorney.

1402 (8) If the young adult offender seeking sentence review
1403 under paragraph (4) (a) or (4) (b) is not resentenced at the 1404 initial sentence review hearing, he or she is eligible for one
1405 subsequent review hearing 5 years after the initial review
1406 hearing.

1407 (9) Upon receiving an application from an eligible young
1408 adult offender, the original sentencing court must hold a
1409 sentence review hearing to determine whether to modify the young
1410 adult offender's sentence. When determining if it is appropriate
1411 to modify the young adult offender's sentence, the court must 1412 consider any factor it deems appropriate, including, but not 1413 limited to:

1414 (a) Whether the young adult offender demonstrates maturity
1415 and rehabilitation.

1416 (b) Whether the young adult offender remains at the same
1417 level of risk to society as he or she did at the time of the
1418 initial sentencing.

1419 (c) The opinion of the victim or the victim's next of kin.

695928

576-04137-20

1420 The absence of the victim or the victim's next of kin from the
1421 sentence review hearing may not be a factor in the determination
1422 of the court under this section. The court must allow the victim
1423 or victim's next of kin to be heard in person, in writing, or by 1424 electronic means. If the victim or the victim's next of kin
1425 chooses not to participate in the hearing, the court may
1426 consider previous statements made by the victim or the victim's
1427 next of kin during the trial, initial sentencing phase, or
1428 previous sentencing review hearings.

1429 (d) Whether the young adult offender was a relatively minor
1430 participant in the criminal offense or whether he or she acted
1431 under extreme duress or under the domination of another person.

1432 (e) Whether the young adult offender has shown sincere and
1433 sustained remorse for the criminal offense.

1434 (f) Whether the young adult offender's age, maturity, or 1435 psychological development at the time of the offense affected
1436 his or her behavior.

1437 (g) Whether the young adult offender has successfully
1438 obtained a high school equivalency diploma or completed another
1439 educational, technical, work, vocational, or self-rehabilitation
1440 program, if such a program is available.

1441 (h) Whether the young adult offender was a victim of 1442 sexual, physical, or emotional abuse before he or she committed
1443 the offense.

1444 (i) The results of any mental health assessment, risk
1445 assessment, or evaluation of the young adult offender as to
1446 rehabilitation.

1447 (10) (a) If the court determines at a sentence review

1449 review under paragraph (4) (a) has been rehabilitated and is 1450 reasonably believed to be fit to reenter society, the court may 1451 modify the sentence and impose a term of probation of at least 5
1452 years.

1453 (b) If the court determines at a sentence review hearing
1454 that the young adult offender who is seeking sentence review
1455 under paragraph (4) (b) has been rehabilitated and is reasonably
1456 believed to be fit to reenter society, the court may modify the 1457 sentence and impose a term of probation of at least 3 years.

1458 (c) If the court determines that the young adult offender
1459 seeking sentence review under paragraph (4) (a) or (4) (b) has not
1460 demonstrated rehabilitation or is not fit to reenter society,
1461 the court must issue a written order stating the reasons why the

1479 petition that court to order the forensic analysis examination
1480 of physical evidence collected at the time of the investigation
1481 of the crime for which he or she has been sentenced which may 1482 result in evidence material to the identity of the perpetrator
1483 of, or an accomplice to, the crime that resulted in the person's 1484 conviction that may contain DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid) and that 1485 would exonerate that person or mitigate the sentence that person
1486 received.

1487 2. A person who has entered a plea of guilty or nolo
1488 contendere to a felony prior to July 1, 2006, and has been 1489 sentenced by a court established by the laws of this state may

1494 (b) A petition for postsentencing forensic analysis DNA
1495 testing under paragraph (a) may be filed or considered at any 1496 time following the date that the judgment and sentence in the 695928

576-04137-20

1507 originally obtained;

1508 2. A statement that the evidence was not previously
1509 ~~subjected to forensic analysis tested for DNA~~ or a statement
1510 that the results of any previous ~~forensic analysis DNA testing~~
1511 were inconclusive and that subsequent scientific developments in 1512 ~~forensic analysis DNA testing techniques~~ would likely produce
1513 ~~evidence material to a definitive result establishing that the~~
1514 ~~identity of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, petitioner~~
1515 ~~is not the person who committed the crime;~~

1516 3. A statement that the ~~petitioner sentenced defendant~~ is 1517 innocent and how the ~~forensic analysis DNA testing~~ requested by 1518 the ~~petitioner~~ may result in evidence that is material to 1519 ~~petition will exonerate the identity of the perpetrator of, or~~ 1520 ~~an accomplice to, the defendant of the crime for which the~~ 1521 ~~defendant was sentenced or will mitigate the sentence received~~
1522 ~~by the defendant for that crime;~~

1524 ~~defendant~~ is a genuinely disputed issue in the case, and why it
1525 is an issue;

1526 5. ~~A statement that the petitioner will comply with any~~
1527 ~~court order to provide a biological sample for the purpose of~~ 1528 ~~conducting requested forensic analysis and acknowledging such~~

1530 ~~confirming the petitioner's identity as the perpetrator of, or~~
1531 ~~an accomplice to, the crime or a separate crime;~~

1532 ~~6.5-~~ Any other facts relevant to the petition; ~~and~~

1538 shall file it and deliver the court file to the assigned judge.

1539 (c) The court shall review the petition and deny it if it

1541 authority shall be ordered to respond to the petition within 30
1542 days.

1543 (d) Upon receiving the response of the prosecuting
1544 authority, the court shall review the response and enter an 1545 order on the merits of the petition or set the petition for a
1546 hearing.

1547 (e) Counsel may be appointed to assist the petitioner
1548 ~~sentenced defendant~~ if the petition proceeds to a hearing and if

1550 and makes the requisite finding of indigency.

1551 (f) The court shall make all the following findings when 1552 ruling on the petition:

1553 1. Whether the petitioner sentenced defendant has shown
1554 that ~~the~~ physical evidence that may be subjected to forensic
1555 analysis contain DNA still exists;

1556 2. Whether the results of forensic analysis DNA testing of 1557 that physical evidence would be admissible at trial and whether 1558 there exists reliable proof to establish that the evidence has 1559 not been materially altered and would be admissible at a future
1560 hearing; and

1561 3. Whether there is a reasonable probability the forensic
1562 analysis may result in evidence that is material to the identity
1563 of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the crime there is a 1564 reasonable probability that the sentenced defendant would have

576-04137-20

1565 ~~been acquitted or would have received a lesser sentence if the~~ 1566 ~~DNA evidence had been admitted at trial.~~

1567 (g) If the court orders forensic analysis ~~DNA testing~~ of 1568 the physical evidence, the cost of such analysis testing may be 1569 assessed against the petitioner ~~sentenced defendant~~ unless he or 1570 she is indigent. If the petitioner ~~sentenced defendant~~ is 1571 indigent, the state shall bear the cost of the forensic analysis
1572 ~~DNA testing~~ ordered by the court, unless specified otherwise in 1573 accordance with paragraph (i).

1574 (h) Except as provided in paragraph (i), any forensic

1581 1. The prosecuting authority and the petitioner mutually 1582 select a private laboratory to perform the forensic analysis;

1583 2. The petitioner makes a sufficient showing that the 1584 forensic analysis ordered by the court is of such a nature that 1585 it cannot be performed by the Department of Law Enforcement or 1586 its designee; or

1587 3. The petitioner makes a sufficient showing that the 1588 forensic analysis will be significantly delayed because of a
1589 state laboratory backlog.

1590 (j) Before the court may order forensic analysis to be
1591 performed by a private laboratory, the petitioner shall certify
1592 to the court that the private laboratory is:

1599 quality assurance standards adopted in accordance with 34 U.S.C.
1600 s. 12591, if DNA testing is requested.

1601 (k) If the court orders forensic analysis in the form of 1602 DNA testing and the resulting DNA sample meets statewide DNA
1603 database submission standards established by the Department of 1604 Law Enforcement, the department must perform a DNA database
1605 search. A private laboratory ordered to perform forensic 1606 analysis under paragraph (i) must cooperate with the prosecuting
1607 authority and the Department of Law Enforcement for the purpose
1608 of carrying out this requirement.

1609 1. The department shall compare any DNA profiles obtained
1610 from the testing to:

1611 a. DNA profiles of known offenders maintained in the 1612 statewide DNA database under s. 943.325;

1613 b. DNA profiles from unsolved crimes maintained in the 1614 statewide DNA database under s. 943.325; and

1615 c. Any local DNA databases maintained by a law enforcement
1616 agency in the judicial circuit in which the petitioner was 1617 convicted.

1618 2. If the testing complies with Federal Bureau of 1619 Investigation requirements and the data meets national DNA index
1620 system criteria, the department shall request the national DNA
1621 index system to search its database of DNA profiles using any 1622 profiles obtained from the testing.

576-04137-20

1623 (1)(i) The results of the forensic analysis and the results
1624 of any search of the combined DNA index system and statewide and 1625 local DNA databases ~~DNA testing~~ ordered by the court shall be 1626 provided to the court, the petitioner sentenced defendant, and 1627 the prosecuting authority. The petitioner or the state may use
1628 the information for any lawful purpose.

1629 (4)(3) RIGHT TO APPEAL; REHEARING.—

1630 (a) An appeal from the court's order on the petition for 1631 postsentencing forensic analysis ~~DNA testing~~ may be taken by any 1632 adversely affected party.

1633 (b) An order denying relief shall include a statement that
1634 the petitioner sentenced defendant has the right to appeal
1635 within 30 days after the order denying relief is entered.

1636 (c) The petitioner sentenced defendant may file a motion
1637 for rehearing of any order denying relief within 15 days after 1638 service of the order denying relief. The time for filing an 1639 appeal shall be tolled until an order on the motion for 1640 rehearing has been entered.

1641 (d) The clerk of the court shall serve on all parties a
1642 copy of any order rendered with a certificate of service,
1643 including the date of service.

1644 (5)(4) PRESERVATION OF EVIDENCE.—

1646 physical evidence in the case, including, but not limited to,
1647 any investigating law enforcement agency, the clerk of the 1648 court, the prosecuting authority, or the Department of Law
1649 Enforcement shall maintain any physical evidence collected at 1650 the time of the crime for which a postsentencing forensic
1651 analysis ~~testing of DNA~~ may be requested.

576-04137-20

1652 (b) In a case in which the death penalty is imposed, the 1653 evidence shall be maintained for 60 days after execution of the 1654 sentence. In all other cases, a governmental entity may dispose 1655 of the physical evidence if the term of the sentence imposed in 1656 the case has expired and no other provision of law or rule
1657 requires that the physical evidence be preserved or retained.

1658 (c) If physical evidence requested for forensic analysis,
1659 last known to be in possession of a governmental entity, is 1660 reported to be missing or destroyed in violation of this 1661 section, the court may order the evidence custodian or other
1662 relevant official to conduct a physical search for the evidence.
1663 If a search is ordered, the governmental entity must produce a 1664 report containing all of the following information and it must 1665 be provided to the court, the petitioner, and the prosecuting
1666 authority:

1667 1. The nature of the search conducted;

1668 2. The date the search was conducted;

1669 3. The results of the search;

1670 4. Any records showing the physical evidence was lost or 1671 destroyed; and

1672 5. The signature of the person who supervised the search,
1673 attesting to the accuracy of the contents of the report.

1674 Section 14. Effective July 1, 2020, section 925.12, Florida
1675 Statutes, is amended to read:

1676 925.12 Forensic analysis ~~DNA testing~~; defendants entering 1677 pleas.—

1678 (1) For defendants who have entered a plea of guilty or
1679 nolo contendere to a felony on or after July 1, 2006, but before

695928

576-04137-20

1681 ~~forensic analysis DNA testing~~ under s. 925.11 under the 1682 following circumstances:

1683 (a) The facts on which the petition is predicated were
1684 unknown to the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney at the 1685 time the plea was entered and could not have been ascertained by 1686 the exercise of due diligence; or

1687 (b) The physical evidence for which forensic analysis DNA
1688 testing is sought was not disclosed to the defense by the state
1689 before prior to the entry of the plea by the petitioner.

1690 (2) For defendants who have entered a plea of guilty or
1691 nolo contendere to a felony on or after July 1, 2020, a
1692 defendant may petition for postsentencing forensic analysis
1693 under s. 925.11 under the following circumstances:

1694 (a) The facts on which the petition is predicated were
1695 unknown to the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney at the 1696 time the plea was entered and could not have been ascertained by 1697 the exercise of due diligence; or

1698 (b) The physical evidence for which forensic analysis is 1699 sought was not disclosed to the defense by the state before the 1700 entry of the plea by the petitioner.

1701 (3)(2) For defendants seeking to enter a plea of guilty or
1702 nolo contendere to a felony on or after July 1, 2020 ~~July 1,~~
1703 ~~2006~~, the court shall inquire of the defendant and of counsel
1704 for the defendant and the state as to physical evidence
1705 ~~containing DNA~~ known to exist that, if subjected to forensic 1706 analysis, could produce evidence that is material to the 1707 identification of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the 1708 crime before ~~could exonerate the defendant prior to~~ accepting a
1709 plea of guilty or nolo contendere. If no such physical evidence

695928

576-04137-20

1710 ~~containing DNA that could exonerate the defendant~~ is known to 1711 exist, the court may proceed with consideration of accepting the 1712 plea. If such physical evidence ~~containing DNA that could~~ 1713 ~~exonerate the defendant~~ is known to exist, the court may 1714 postpone the proceeding on the defendant's behalf and order
1715 forensic analysis DNA testing upon motion of counsel specifying
1716 the physical evidence to be tested.

1717 (4)(3) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Supreme 1718 Court adopt rules of procedure consistent with this section for 1719 a court, before prior to the acceptance of a plea, to make an 1720 inquiry into all of the following matters:

1723 included a listing or description of physical items of evidence.

1724 (b) Whether the nature of the evidence against the 1725 defendant disclosed through discovery has been reviewed with the 1726 defendant.

1727 (c) Whether the defendant or counsel for the defendant is 1728 aware of any physical evidence disclosed by the state for which 1729 forensic analysis could produce a result material to the 1730 identification of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the 1731 crime ~~DNA testing may exonerate the defendant.~~

1732 (d) Whether the state is aware of any physical evidence for 1733 which forensic analysis could produce a result material to the 1734 identification of the perpetrator of, or an accomplice to, the
1735 crime ~~DNA testing may exonerate the defendant.~~

1736 (5)(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that the 1737 postponement of the proceedings by the court on the defendant's
1738 behalf under subsection (3) (2) constitute an extension

695928

576-04137-20

1739 attributable to the defendant for purposes of the defendant's
1740 right to a speedy trial.

1741 Section 15. Effective upon the same date that SB 1506 or 1742 similar legislation takes effect, only if such legislation is 1743 adopted in the same legislative session or an extension thereof
1744 and becomes a law, section 943.0587, Florida Statutes, is 1745 created to read:

1750 existed at any time before its amendment by chapter 2019-167,
1751 Laws of Florida.

1752 (b) "New s. 322.34" is a reference to s. 322.34 as it
1753 exists after the amendments made by chapter 2019-167, Laws of 1754 Florida, became effective.

1755 (c) "Expunction" has the same meaning and effect as in s.
1756 943.0585.

1787 placement in the Department of Law Enforcement Operating Trust
1788 Fund, unless the executive director waives such fee.

1789 (b) A certificate of eligibility for expunction is valid
1790 for 12 months after the date stamped on the certificate when 1791 issued by the department. After that time, the petitioner must 1792 reapply to the department for a new certificate of eligibility.
1793 The petitioner's status and the law in effect at the time of the 1794 renewal application determine the petitioner's eligibility.

1806 third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083,
1807 or s. 775.084.
1808 (6) COURT AUTHORITY.—
1809 (a) The courts of this state have jurisdiction over their 1810 own procedures, including the maintenance, expunction, and 1811 correction of judicial records containing criminal history
1812 information to the extent that such procedures are not
1813 inconsistent with the conditions, responsibilities, and duties
1814 established by this section.
1815 (b) A court of competent jurisdiction shall order a
1816 criminal justice agency to expunge the criminal history record
1817 of a person who complies with the requirements of this section.

1820 seeking to expunge a criminal history record has applied for and 1821 received a certificate of eligibility under subsection (3).
1822 (c) Expunction granted under this section does not prevent 1823 the person who receives such relief from petitioning for the 1824 expunction or sealing of a later criminal history record, as 1825 provided for in ss. 943.0583, 943.0585, and 943.059, if the

1829 the completed petition to expunge shall be served upon the 1830 appropriate state attorney or the statewide prosecutor and upon 1831 the arresting agency; however, it is not necessary to make any 1832 agency other than the state a party. The appropriate state
1833 attorney or the statewide prosecutor and the arresting agency
1834 may respond to the court regarding the completed petition to 1835 expunge.
1836 (b) If relief is granted by the court, the clerk of the 1837 court shall certify copies of the order to the appropriate state
1838 attorney or the statewide prosecutor and the arresting agency.
1839 The arresting agency shall forward the order to any other agency
1840 to which the arresting agency disseminated the criminal history
1841 record information to which the order pertains. The department
1842 shall forward the order to expunge to the Federal Bureau of 1843 Investigation. The clerk of the court shall certify a copy of 1844 the order to any other agency which the records of the court
1845 reflect has received the criminal history record from the court.
1846 (c) The department or any other criminal justice agency is 1847 not required to act on an order to expunge entered by a court
1848 when such order does not comply with the requirements of this 1849 section. Upon receipt of such an order, the department must 1850 notify the issuing court, the appropriate state attorney or 1851 statewide prosecutor, the petitioner or the petitioner's
1852 attorney, and the arresting agency of the reason for 1853 noncompliance. The appropriate state attorney or statewide
1854 prosecutor shall take action within 60 days to correct the

576-04137-20

1855 record and petition the court to void the order. No cause of 1856 action, including contempt of court, shall arise against any 1857 criminal justice agency for failure to comply with an order to 1858 expunge when the petitioner for such order failed to obtain the 1859 certificate of eligibility as required by this section or such 1860 order does not otherwise comply with the requirements of this
1861 section.

1862 (8) EFFECT OF EXPUNCTION ORDER.-

1863 (a) The person who is the subject of a criminal history
1864 record that is expunged under this section may lawfully deny or

1942 Section 18. Paragraph (a) of subsection (7) of section
1943 944.705, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

1944 944.705 Release orientation program.—

1945 (7) (a) The department shall notify every inmate in the 1946 inmate's release documents:

1947 1. Of all outstanding terms of the inmate's sentence at the 1948 time of release to assist the inmate in determining his or her
1949 status with regard to the completion of all terms of sentence,
1950 as that term is defined in s. 98.0751. This subparagraph does 1951 not apply to inmates who are being released from the custody of 1952 the department to any type of supervision monitored by the 1953 department;

1954 2. Of the dates of admission to and release from the 1955 custody of the department, including the total length of the 1956 term of imprisonment for which he or she is being released; and

1957 3. ~~2.~~ In not less than 18-point type, that the inmate may be 1958 sentenced pursuant to s. 775.082(9) if the inmate commits any 1959 felony offense described in s. 775.082(9) within 3 years after 1960 the inmate's release. This notice must be prefaced by the word
1961 "WARNING" in boldfaced type.

1962 Section 19. Section 945.0911, Florida Statutes, is created
1963 to read:

1964 945.0911 Conditional medical release.—

1965 (1) FINDINGS.—The Legislature finds that the number of 1966 inmates with terminal medical conditions or who are suffering
1967 from severe debilitating or incapacitating medical conditions
1968 who are incarcerated in the state's prisons has grown
1969 significantly in recent years. Further, the Legislature finds 1970 that the condition of inmates who are terminally ill or

695928

576-04137-20

1971 suffering from a debilitating or incapacitating condition may be
1972 exacerbated by imprisonment due to the stress linked to prison
1973 life. The Legislature also finds that recidivism rates are 1974 greatly reduced with inmates suffering from such medical 1975 conditions who are released into the community. Therefore, the 1976 Legislature finds that it is of great public importance to find 1977 a compassionate solution to the challenges presented by the 1978 imprisonment of inmates who are terminally ill or are suffering
1979 from a debilitating or incapacitating condition while also
1980 ensuring that the public safety of Florida's communities remains
1981 protected.

1982 (2) CREATION.—There is established a conditional medical 1983 release program within the department for the purpose of 1984 determining whether release is appropriate for eligible inmates,
1985 supervising the released inmates, and conducting revocation
1986 hearings as provided for in this section. The establishment of 1987 the conditional medical release program must include a panel of 1988 at least three people appointed by the secretary or his or her 1989 designee for the purpose of determining the appropriateness of 1990 conditional medical release and conducting revocation hearings
1991 on the inmate releases.

1992 (3) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section, the term:

1993 (a) "Inmate with a debilitating illness" means an inmate
1994 who is determined to be suffering from a significant terminal or 1995 nonterminal condition, disease, or syndrome that has rendered
1996 the inmate so physically or cognitively impaired, debilitated, 1997 or incapacitated as to create a reasonable probability that the 1998 inmate does not constitute a danger to himself or herself or to 1999 others.

695928

576-04137-20

2000 (b) "Permanently incapacitated inmate" means an inmate who 2001 has a condition caused by injury, disease, or illness which, to 2002 a reasonable degree of medical certainty, renders the inmate
2003 permanently and irreversibly physically incapacitated to the 2004 extent that the inmate does not constitute a danger to himself
2005 or herself or to others.

2006 (c) "Terminally ill inmate" means an inmate who has a
2007 condition caused by injury, disease, or illness which, to a
2008 reasonable degree of medical certainty, renders the inmate
2009 terminally ill to the extent that there can be no recovery,
2010 death is expected within 12 months, and the inmate does not
2011 constitute a danger to himself or herself or to others.

2012 (4) ELIGIBILITY.—An inmate is eligible for consideration
2013 for release under the conditional medical release program when 2014 the inmate, because of an existing medical or physical 2015 condition, is determined by the department to be an inmate with 2016 a debilitating illness, a permanently incapacitated inmate, or a
2017 terminally ill inmate. Notwithstanding any other law, an inmate 2018 who meets this eligibility criteria may be released from the 2019 custody of the department pursuant to this section before
2020 satisfying 85 percent of his or her term of imprisonment.

2021 (5) REFERRAL FOR CONSIDERATION.—

2022 (a)1. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, any 2023 inmate in the custody of the department who meets one or more of 2024 the eligibility requirements under subsection (4) must be
2025 considered for conditional medical release.

2026 2. The authority to grant conditional medical release rests
2027 solely with the department. An inmate does not have a right to 2028 release or to a medical evaluation to determine eligibility for

695928

576-04137-20

2029 release pursuant to this section.

2030 (b) The department must identify inmates who may be
2031 eligible for conditional medical release based upon available
2032 medical information. In considering an inmate for conditional
2033 medical release, the department may require additional medical 2034 evidence, including examinations of the inmate, or any other
2035 additional investigations the department deems necessary for 2036 determining the appropriateness of the eligible inmate's
2037 release.

2038 (c) The department must refer an inmate to the panel
2039 established under subsection (2) for review and determination of 2040 conditional medical release upon his or her identification as 2041 potentially eligible for release pursuant to this section.

2042 (d) If the case that resulted in the inmate's commitment to
2043 the department involved a victim, and the victim specifically
2044 requested notification pursuant to s. 16, Art. I of the State
2045 Constitution, the department must notify the victim of the 2046 inmate's referral to the panel immediately upon identification
2047 of the inmate as potentially eligible for release under this 2048 section. Additionally, the victim must be afforded the right to 2049 be heard regarding the release of the inmate.

2050 (6) DETERMINATION OF RELEASE.—

2051 (a) The panel established in subsection (2) must conduct a
2052 hearing to determine whether conditional medical release is 2053 appropriate for the inmate. Before the hearing, the director of 2054 inmate health services or his or her designee must review any 2055 relevant information, including, but not limited to, medical 2056 evidence, and provide the panel with a recommendation regarding 2057 the appropriateness of releasing the inmate pursuant to this

695928

576-04137-20

2058 section. The hearing must be conducted by the panel:

2059 1. By April 1, 2021, if the inmate is immediately eligible
2060 for consideration for the conditional medical release program
2061 when this section took effect on October 1, 2020.

2062 2. By July 1, 2021, if the inmate becomes eligible for 2063 consideration for the conditional medical release program after 2064 October 1, 2020, but before July 1, 2021.

2065 3. Within 45 days after receiving the referral if the 2066 inmate becomes eligible for conditional medical release any time
2067 on or after July 1, 2021.

2068 (b) A majority of the panel members must agree that the 2069 inmate is appropriate for release pursuant to this section. If 2070 conditional medical release is approved, the inmate must be
2071 released by the department to the community within a reasonable
2072 amount of time with necessary release conditions imposed
2073 pursuant to subsection (7).

2074 (c)1. An inmate who is denied conditional medical release
2075 by the panel may have the decision reviewed by the department's 2076 general counsel and chief medical officer, who must make a
2077 recommendation to the secretary. The secretary must review all
2078 relevant information and make a final decision about the 2079 appropriateness of conditional medical release pursuant to this 2080 section. The decision of the secretary is a final administrative 2081 decision not subject to appeal.

2082 2. An inmate who requests to have the decision reviewed in
2083 accordance with this paragraph must do so in a manner prescribed
2084 by rule. An inmate who is denied conditional medical release may 2085 be subsequently reconsidered for such release in a manner
2086 prescribed by department rule.

695928

576-04137-20

2087 (7) RELEASE CONDITIONS.—

2088 (a) An inmate granted release pursuant to this section is 2089 released for a period equal to the length of time remaining on 2090 his or her term of imprisonment on the date the release is 2091 granted. Such inmate is considered a medical releasee upon 2092 release from the department into the community. The medical 2093 releasee must comply with all reasonable conditions of release
2094 the department imposes, which must include, at a minimum:

2095 1. Periodic medical evaluations at intervals determined by 2096 the department at the time of release.

2097 2. Supervision by an officer trained to handle special
2098 offender caseloads.

2099 3. Active electronic monitoring, if such monitoring is
2100 determined to be necessary to ensure the safety of the public
2101 and the medical releasee's compliance with release conditions.

2102 4. Any conditions of community control provided for in s.
2103 948.101.

2104 5. Any other conditions the department deems appropriate to 2105 ensure the safety of the community and compliance by the medical 2106 releasee.

2107 (b) A medical releasee is considered to be in the custody,
2108 supervision, and control of the department, which, for purposes
2109 of this section, does not create a duty for the department to 2110 provide the medical releasee with medical care upon release into 2111 the community. The medical releasee remains eligible to earn or
2112 lose gain-time in accordance with s. 944.275 and department
2113 rule. The medical releasee may not be counted in the prison
2114 system population, and the medical releasee's approved
2115 community-based housing location may not be counted in the 695928

576-04137-20

2116 capacity figures for the prison system.

2117 (8) REVOCATION HEARING AND RECOMMITMENT.—

2118 (a)1. If the medical releasee's supervision officer or a 2119 duly authorized representative of the department discovers that 2120 the medical or physical condition of the medical releasee has 2121 improved to the extent that she or he would no longer be 2122 eligible for release under this section, the conditional medical 2123 release may be revoked. The department may order, as prescribed 2124 by department rule, that the medical releasee be returned to the 2125 custody of the department for a conditional medical release
2126 revocation hearing or may allow the medical releasee to remain
2127 in the community pending the revocation hearing. If the 2128 department elects to order the medical releasee to be returned
2129 to custody pending the revocation hearing, the officer or duly 2130 authorized representative may cause a warrant to be issued for 2131 the arrest of the medical releasee.

2132 2. A medical releasee may admit to the allegation of 2133 improved medical or physical condition or may elect to proceed
2134 to a revocation hearing. The revocation hearing must be 2135 conducted by the panel established in subsection (2). Before a 2136 revocation hearing pursuant to this paragraph, the director of 2137 inmate health services or his or her designee must review any 2138 medical evidence pertaining to the medical releasee and provide 2139 the panel with a recommendation regarding the medical releasee's
2140 improvement and current medical or physical condition.

2141 3. A majority of the panel members must agree that
2142 revocation is appropriate for the medical releasee's conditional
2143 medical release to be revoked. If conditional medical release is 2144 revoked due to improvement in his or her medical or physical

576-04137-20

2145 condition, the medical releasee must be recommitted to the 2146 department to serve the balance of his or her sentence in an 2147 institution designated by the department with credit for the 2148 time served on conditional medical release and without 2149 forfeiture of any gain-time accrued before recommitment. If the 2150 medical releasee whose conditional medical release is revoked
2151 due to an improvement in his or her medical or physical 2152 condition would otherwise be eligible for parole or any other
2153 release program, he or she may be considered for such release
2154 program pursuant to law.

2155 4. A medical releasee whose conditional medical release is 2156 revoked pursuant to this paragraph may have the decision
2157 reviewed by the department's general counsel and chief medical 2158 officer, who must make a recommendation to the secretary. The 2159 secretary must review all relevant information and make a final 2160 decision about the appropriateness of the revocation of 2161 conditional medical release pursuant to this paragraph. The 2162 decision of the secretary is a final administrative decision not 2163 subject to appeal.

2164 (b)1. The medical releasee's conditional medical release
2165 may also be revoked for violation of any release conditions the 2166 department establishes, including, but not limited to, a new 2167 violation of law. The department may terminate the medical 2168 releasee's conditional medical release and return him or her to 2169 the same or another institution designated by the department.

2170 2. If a duly authorized representative of the department
2171 has reasonable grounds to believe that a medical releasee has
2172 violated the conditions of his or her release in a material
2173 respect, such representative may cause a warrant to be issued

576-04137-20

2174 for the arrest of the medical releasee. A law enforcement
2175 officer or a probation officer may arrest the medical releasee
2176 without a warrant in accordance with s. 948.06 if there are 2177 reasonable grounds to believe he or she has violated the terms
2178 and conditions of his or her conditional medical release. The 2179 law enforcement officer must report the medical releasee's
2180 alleged violations to the supervising probation office or the 2181 department's emergency action center for initiation of
2182 revocation proceedings as prescribed by the department by rule.
2183 3. If the basis of the violation of release conditions is 2184 related to a new violation of law, the medical releasee must be 2185 detained without bond until his or her initial appearance, at 2186 which a judicial determination of probable cause is made. If the 2187 judge determines that there was no probable cause for the 2188 arrest, the medical releasee may be released. If the judge
2189 determines that there was probable cause for the arrest, the 2190 judge's determination also constitutes reasonable grounds to 2191 believe that the medical releasee violated the conditions of the 2192 conditional medical release.

2193 4. The department must order that the medical releasee
2194 subject to revocation under this paragraph be returned to
2195 department custody for a conditional medical release revocation
2196 hearing. A medical releasee may admit to the alleged violation
2197 of the conditions of conditional medical release or may elect to 2198 proceed to a revocation hearing. The revocation hearing must be 2199 conducted by the panel established in subsection (2).

2200 5. A majority of the panel members must agree that
2201 revocation is appropriate for the medical releasee's conditional
2202 medical release to be revoked. If conditional medical release is 695928

576-04137-20

2203 revoked pursuant to this paragraph, the medical releasee must
2204 serve the balance of his or her sentence in an institution
2205 designated by the department with credit for the actual time
2206 served on conditional medical release. The releasee's gain-time
2207 accrued before recommitment may be forfeited pursuant to s.
2208 944.28(1). If the medical releasee whose conditional medical 2209 release is revoked subject to this paragraph would otherwise be 2210 eligible for parole or any other release program, he or she may 2211 be considered for such release program pursuant to law.
2212 6. A medical releasee whose conditional medical release has
2213 been revoked pursuant to this paragraph may have the revocation
2214 reviewed by the department's general counsel, who must make a
2215 recommendation to the secretary. The secretary must review all
2216 relevant information and make a final decision about the 2217 appropriateness of the revocation of conditional medical release
2218 pursuant to this paragraph. The decision of the secretary is a 2219 final administrative decision not subject to appeal.
2220 (c)1. If the medical releasee subject to revocation under 2221 paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) elects to proceed with a hearing,
2222 the medical releasee must be informed orally and in writing of 2223 the following:
2224 a. The alleged basis for the pending revocation proceeding
2225 against the releasee.
2226 b. The releasee's right to be represented by counsel.
2227 However, this sub-subparagraph does not create a right to 2228 publicly funded legal counsel.
2229 c. The releasee's right to be heard in person.
2230 d. The releasee's right to secure, present, and compel the 2231 attendance of witnesses relevant to the proceeding.

695928

576-04137-20

2232 e. The releasee's right to produce documents on his or her
2233 own behalf.
2234 f. The releasee's right of access to all evidence used to 2235 support the revocation proceeding against the releasee and to 2236 confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses.
2237 g. The releasee's right to waive the hearing.
2238 2. If the panel approves the revocation of the medical 2239 releasee's conditional medical release under paragraph (a) or 2240 paragraph (b), the panel must provide a written statement as to 2241 evidence relied on and reasons for revocation.
2242 (d) A medical releasee whose conditional medical release is 2243 revoked and who is recommitted to the department under this 2244 subsection must comply with the 85 percent requirement in 2245 accordance with ss. 921.002 and 944.275 upon recommitment.
2246 (9) SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS UPON AN INMATE'S DIAGNOSIS OF A
2247 TERMINAL CONDITION.—
2248 (a) If an inmate is diagnosed with a terminal medical 2249 condition that makes him or her eligible for consideration for 2250 release under paragraph (3)(c) while in the custody of the 2251 department, subject to confidentiality requirements, the 2252 department must:
2253 1. Notify the inmate's family or next of kin and attorney,
2254 if applicable, of such diagnosis within 72 hours after the 2255 diagnosis.
2256 2. Provide the inmate's family, including extended family,
2257 with an opportunity to visit the inmate in person within 7 days
2258 after the diagnosis.
2259 3. Initiate a review for conditional medical release as 2260 provided for in this section immediately upon the diagnosis.

576-04137-20

2261 (b) If the inmate has mental and physical capacity, he or 2262 she must consent to release of confidential information for the 2263 department to comply with the notification requirements required
2264 in this subsection.

2265 (10) SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY.—Unless otherwise provided by law
2266 and in accordance with s. 13, Art. X of the State Constitution,
2267 members of the panel established in subsection (2) who are
2268 involved with decisions that grant or revoke conditional medical 2269 release are provided immunity from liability for actions that 2270 directly relate to such decisions.

2271 (11) RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.—The department may adopt rules
2272 as necessary to implement this section.

2273 Section 20. Section 945.0912, Florida Statutes, is created
2274 to read:

2275 945.0912 Conditional aging inmate release.—

2276 (1) FINDINGS.—The Legislature finds that the number of 2277 aging inmates incarcerated in the state’s prisons has grown
2278 significantly in recent years. Further, the Legislature finds
2279 that imprisonment tends to exacerbate the effects of aging due
2280 to histories of substance abuse and inadequate preventive care
2281 before imprisonment and stress linked to prison life. The 2282 Legislature also finds that recidivism rates are greatly reduced
2283 with older inmates who are released into the community.
2284 Therefore, the Legislature finds that it is of great public
2285 importance to find a compassionate solution to the challenges
2286 presented by the imprisonment of aging inmates while also
2287 ensuring that the public safety of Florida’s communities remains
2288 protected.

2289 (2) CREATION.—There is established a conditional aging

576-04137-20

2290 inmate release program within the department for the purpose of 2291 determining eligible inmates who are appropriate for such 2292 release, supervising the released inmates, and conducting
2293 revocation hearings as provided for in this section. The program
2294 must include a panel of at least three people appointed by the 2295 secretary or his or her designee for the purpose of determining 2296 the appropriateness of conditional aging inmate release and 2297 conducting revocation hearings on the inmate releases.

2298 (3) ELIGIBILITY.—

2299 (a) An inmate is eligible for consideration for release
2300 under the conditional aging inmate release program when the 2301 inmate has reached 65 years of age and has served at least 10
2302 years on his or her term of imprisonment. Notwithstanding any 2303 other provision of law, an inmate who meets the above criteria
2304 may be released from the custody of the department pursuant to 2305 this section before satisfying 85 percent of his or her term of 2306 imprisonment.

2307 (b) An inmate may not be considered for release through the 2308 conditional aging inmate release program if he or she has ever
2309 been found guilty of, regardless of adjudication, or entered a
2310 plea of nolo contendere or guilty to, or has been adjudicated
2311 delinquent for committing:

2312 1. Any offense classified as a capital felony, life felony,
2313 or first degree felony punishable by a term of years not
2314 exceeding life imprisonment.

2315 2. Any violation of law that resulted in the killing of a 2316 human being.

2317 3. Any felony offense that serves as a predicate to 2318 registration as a sexual offender in accordance with s.

695928

576-04137-20

2319 943.0435; or

2320 4. Any similar offense committed in another jurisdiction
2321 which would be an offense listed in this paragraph if it had 2322 been committed in violation of the laws of this state.

2323 (c) An inmate who has previously been released on any form
2324 of conditional or discretionary release and who was recommitted
2325 to the department as a result of a finding that he or she 2326 subsequently violated the terms of such conditional or 2327 discretionary release may not be considered for release through 2328 the program.

2329 (4) REFERRAL FOR CONSIDERATION.-

2330 (a)1. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, an 2331 inmate in the custody of the department who is eligible for 2332 consideration pursuant to subsection (3) must be considered for 2333 the conditional aging inmate release program.

2334 2. The authority to grant conditional aging inmate release
2335 rests solely with the department. An inmate does not have a
2336 right to such release.

2337 (b) The department must identify inmates who may be 2338 eligible for the conditional aging inmate release program. In 2339 considering an inmate for conditional aging inmate release, the 2340 department may require the production of additional evidence or 2341 any other additional investigations that the department deems
2342 necessary for determining the appropriateness of the eligible
2343 inmate's release.

2344 (c) The department must refer an inmate to the panel
2345 established under subsection (2) for review and determination of 2346 conditional aging inmate release upon his or her identification
2347 as potentially eligible for release pursuant to this section.

695928

576-04137-20

2348 (d) If the case that resulted in the inmate's commitment to
2349 the department involved a victim, and the victim specifically
2350 requested notification pursuant to s. 16, Art. I of the State
2351 Constitution, the department must notify the victim, in a manner
2352 prescribed by rule, of the inmate's referral to the panel
2353 immediately upon identification of the inmate as potentially 2354 eligible for release under this section. Additionally, the 2355 victim must be afforded the right to be heard regarding the 2356 release of the inmate.

2357 (5) DETERMINATION OF RELEASE.-

2358 (a) The panel established in subsection (2) must conduct a
2359 hearing to determine whether the inmate is appropriate for 2360 conditional aging inmate release. The hearing must be conducted
2361 by the panel:

2362 1. By April 1, 2021, if the inmate is immediately eligible
2363 for consideration for the conditional aging inmate release
2364 program when this section took effect on October 1, 2020.

2365 2. By July 1, 2021, if the inmate becomes eligible for 2366 consideration for the conditional aging inmate release program
2367 after October 1, 2020, but before July 1, 2021.

2368 3. Within 45 days after receiving the referral if the 2369 inmate becomes eligible for conditional aging inmate release any 2370 time on or after July 1, 2021.

2371 (b) A majority of the panel members must agree that the 2372 inmate is appropriate for release pursuant to this section. If 2373 conditional aging inmate release is approved, the inmate must be
2374 released by the department to the community within a reasonable
2375 amount of time with necessary release conditions imposed
2376 pursuant to subsection (6).

576-04137-20

2377 (c)1. An inmate who is denied conditional aging inmate
2378 release by the panel may have the decision reviewed by the 2379 department's general counsel, who must make a recommendation to 2380 the secretary. The secretary must review all relevant
2381 information and make a final decision about the appropriateness
2382 of conditional aging inmate release pursuant to this section.
2383 The decision of the secretary is a final administrative decision
2384 not subject to appeal.

2385 2. An inmate who requests to have the decision reviewed in
2386 accordance with this paragraph must do so in a manner prescribed
2387 by rule. An inmate who is denied conditional aging inmate
2388 release may be subsequently reconsidered for such release in a
2389 manner prescribed by rule.

2390 (6) RELEASE CONDITIONS.-

2391 (a) An inmate granted release pursuant to this section is 2392 released for a period equal to the length of time remaining on 2393 his or her term of imprisonment on the date the release is 2394 granted. Such inmate is considered an aging releasee upon
2395 release from the department into the community. The aging
2396 releasee must comply with all reasonable conditions of release
2397 the department imposes, which must include, at a minimum:

2398 1. Supervision by an officer trained to handle special
2399 offender caseloads.

2400 2. Active electronic monitoring, if such monitoring is
2401 determined to be necessary to ensure the safety of the public
2402 and the aging releasee's compliance with release conditions.

2403 3. Any conditions of community control provided for in s.
2404 948.101.

2405 4. Any other conditions the department deems appropriate to

576-04137-20

2406 ensure the safety of the community and compliance by the aging
2407 releasee.

2408 (b) An aging releasee is considered to be in the custody,
2409 supervision, and control of the department, which, for purposes
2410 of this section, does not create a duty for the department to 2411 provide the aging releasee with medical care upon release into 2412 the community. The aging releasee remains eligible to earn or
2413 lose gain-time in accordance with s. 944.275 and department
2414 rule. The aging releasee may not be counted in the prison system
2415 population, and the aging releasee's approved community-based 2416 housing location may not be counted in the capacity figures for 2417 the prison system.

2418 (7) REVOCATION HEARING AND RECOMMITMENT.-

2419 (a)1. An aging releasee's conditional aging inmate release
2420 may be revoked for a violation of any condition of the release
2421 established by the department, including, but not limited to, a
2422 new violation of law. The department may terminate the aging 2423 releasee's conditional aging inmate release and return him or 2424 her to the same or another institution designated by the 2425 department.

2426 2. If a duly authorized representative of the department
2427 has reasonable grounds to believe that an aging releasee has
2428 violated the conditions of his or her release in a material
2429 respect, such representative may cause a warrant to be issued
2430 for the arrest of the aging releasee. A law enforcement officer
2431 or a probation officer may arrest the aging releasee without a
2432 warrant in accordance with s. 948.06, if there are reasonable 2433 grounds to believe he or she has violated the terms and 2434 conditions of his or her conditional aging inmate release. The

576-04137-20

2435 law enforcement officer must report the aging releasee's alleged 2436 violations to the supervising probation office or the 2437 department's emergency action center for initiation of
2438 revocation proceedings as prescribed by the department by rule.

2439 3. If the basis of the violation of release conditions is 2440 related to a new violation of law, the aging releasee must be
2441 detained without bond until his or her initial appearance, at 2442 which a judicial determination of probable cause is made. If the 2443 judge determines that there was no probable cause for the 2444 arrest, the aging releasee may be released. If the judge
2445 determines that there was probable cause for the arrest, the
2446 judge's determination also constitutes reasonable grounds to 2447 believe that the aging releasee violated the conditions of the 2448 release.

2449 4. The department must order that the aging releasee
2450 subject to revocation under this subsection be returned to 2451 department custody for a conditional aging inmate release
2452 revocation hearing as prescribed by rule. An aging releasee may 2453 admit to the alleged violation of the conditions of conditional
2454 aging inmate release or may elect to proceed to a revocation
2455 hearing.

2456 5. A majority of the panel members must agree that
2457 revocation is appropriate for the aging releasee's conditional
2458 aging inmate release to be revoked. If conditional aging inmate
2459 release is revoked pursuant to this subsection, the aging
2460 releasee must serve the balance of his or her sentence in an 2461 institution designated by the department with credit for the 2462 actual time served on conditional aging inmate release. However,
2463 the aging releasee's gain-time accrued before recommitment may

576-04137-20

2464 be forfeited pursuant to s. 944.28(1). An aging releasee whose 2465 conditional aging inmate release is revoked and is recommitted
2466 to the department under this subsection must comply with the 85
2467 percent requirement in accordance with ss. 921.002 and 944.275.
2468 If the aging releasee whose conditional aging inmate release is 2469 revoked subject to this subsection would otherwise be eligible
2470 for parole or any other release program, he or she may be 2471 considered for such release program pursuant to law.

2472 6. An aging releasee whose release has been revoked
2473 pursuant to this subsection may have the revocation reviewed by 2474 the department's general counsel, who must make a recommendation
2475 to the secretary. The secretary must review all relevant
2476 information and make a final decision about the appropriateness
2477 of the revocation of conditional aging inmate release pursuant 2478 to this subsection. The decision of the secretary is a final 2479 administrative decision not subject to appeal.

2480 (b) If the aging releasee subject to revocation under this
2481 subsection elects to proceed with a hearing, the aging releasee
2482 must be informed orally and in writing of the following:

2483 1. The alleged violation with which the releasee is 2484 charged.

2485 2. The releasee's right to be represented by counsel.
2486 However, this subparagraph does not create a right to publicly
2487 funded legal counsel.

2488 3. The releasee's right to be heard in person.

2489 4. The releasee's right to secure, present, and compel the
2490 attendance of witnesses relevant to the proceeding.

2491 5. The releasee's right to produce documents on his or her
2492 own behalf.

695928

576-04137-20

2493 6. The releasee's right of access to all evidence used
2494 against the releasee and to confront and cross-examine adverse
2495 witnesses.

2496 7. The releasee's right to waive the hearing.

2497 (c) If the panel approves the revocation of the aging
2498 releasee's conditional aging inmate release, the panel must 2499 provide a written statement as to evidence relied on and reasons
2500 for revocation.

2501 (8) SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY.—Unless otherwise provided by law
2502 and in accordance with s. 13, Art. X of the State Constitution,
2503 members of the panel established in subsection (2) who are 2504 involved with decisions that grant or revoke conditional aging
2505 inmate release are provided immunity from liability for actions
2506 that directly relate to such decisions.

2507 (9) RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.—The department may adopt rules as 2508 necessary to implement this section.

2509 Section 21. Section 947.149, Florida Statutes, is repealed.

2510 Section 22. Effective upon this act becoming a law,
2511 paragraph (f) of subsection (2) of section 948.06, Florida
2512 Statutes, is amended to read:

2513 948.06 Violation of probation or community control;
2514 revocation; modification; continuance; failure to pay
2515 restitution or cost of supervision.—

2516 (2)

2517 (f)1. Except as provided in subparagraph 3. or upon waiver
2518 by the probationer, the court shall modify or continue a
2519 probationary term upon finding a probationer in violation when 2520 all any of the following apply applies:

2521 a. The term of supervision is probation.

695928

576-04137-20

2522 b. The probationer does not qualify as a violent felony
2523 offender of special concern, as defined in paragraph (8) (b).

2524 c. The violation is a low-risk technical violation, as 2525 defined in paragraph (9) (b).

2526 d. The court has not previously found the probationer in 2527 violation of his or her probation pursuant to a filed violation
2528 of probation affidavit during the current term of supervision. A 2529 probationer who has successfully completed sanctions through the 2530 alternative sanctioning program is eligible for mandatory
2531 modification or continuation of his or her probation.

2532 2. Upon modifying probation under subparagraph 1., the 2533 court may include in the sentence a maximum of 90 days in county
2534 jail as a special condition of probation.

2535 3. Notwithstanding s. 921.0024, if a probationer has less
2536 than 90 days of supervision remaining on his or her term of 2537 probation and meets the criteria for mandatory modification or 2538 continuation in subparagraph 1., the court may revoke probation
2539 and sentence the probationer to a maximum of 90 days in county 2540 jail.

2541 4. For purposes of imposing a jail sentence under this
2542 paragraph only, the court may grant credit only for time served
2543 in the county jail since the probationer's most recent arrest
2544 for the violation. However, the court may not order the 2545 probationer to a total term of incarceration greater than the 2546 maximum provided by s. 775.082.

2547 Section 23. Section 951.30, Florida Statutes, is created to 2548 read:

2549 951.30 Release documents; requirement.—The administrator of 2550 a county detention facility must provide to each inmate upon

576-04137-20

2551 release from the custody of the facility a written document
2552 detailing the total length of the term of imprisonment from 2553 which he or she is being released, including the specific dates
2554 of his or her admission to and release from the custody of the 2555 facility.

2556 Section 24. Effective July 1, 2020, section 961.02, Florida
2557 Statutes, is amended to read:

2589 conviction and sentence, a person must set forth the claim of 2590 wrongful incarceration under oath and with particularity by 2591 filing a petition with the original sentencing court, with a
2592 copy of the petition and proper notice to the prosecuting
2593 authority in the underlying felony for which the person was 2594 incarcerated. At a minimum, the petition must:

2612 previously filed a claim under this section, which was dismissed
2613 or did not file a claim under this section because:

2614 a. The date when the criminal charges against the person

2637 (b) By contesting the nature, significance, or effect of 695928

576-04137-20

2638 the evidence of actual innocence, or the facts related to the 2639 petitioner's alleged wrongful incarceration, ~~or whether the~~ 2640 ~~petitioner is ineligible from seeking compensation under the~~ 2641 ~~provisions of s. 961.04.~~

2642 (3) If the prosecuting authority responds as set forth in 2643 paragraph (2) (a), the original sentencing court, based upon the 2644 evidence of actual innocence, the prosecuting authority's
2645 certification, and upon the court's finding that the petitioner
2646 has presented clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner
2647 committed neither the act nor the offense that served as the 2648 basis for the conviction and incarceration, and that the 2649 petitioner did not aid, abet, or act as an accomplice to a
2650 person who committed the act or offense, shall certify to the 2651 department that the petitioner is a wrongfully incarcerated
2652 person as defined by this act. ~~Based upon the prosecuting~~
2653 ~~authority's certification, the court shall also certify to the~~ 2654 ~~department that the petitioner is eligible for compensation~~
2655 ~~under the provisions of s. 961.04.~~

2656 (4) ~~(a) If the prosecuting authority responds as set forth~~
2657 ~~in paragraph (2) (b), the original sentencing court shall make a~~
2658 ~~determination from the pleadings and supporting documentation~~
2659 ~~whether, by a preponderance of the evidence, the petitioner is~~ 2660 ~~ineligible for compensation under the provisions of s. 961.04,~~
2661 ~~regardless of his or her claim of wrongful incarceration. If the~~ 2662 ~~court finds the petitioner ineligible under the provisions of s.~~
2663 ~~961.04, it shall dismiss the petition.~~

2664 ~~(b) If the prosecuting authority responds as set forth in~~
2665 ~~paragraph (2) (b), and the court determines that the petitioner~~
2666 ~~is eligible under the provisions of s. 961.04, but the~~ 695928

576-04137-20

2667 ~~prosecuting authority~~ contests the nature, significance or 2668 effect of the evidence of actual innocence, or the facts related
2669 to the petitioner's alleged wrongful incarceration, the court
2670 shall set forth its findings and transfer the petition by 2671 electronic means through the division's website to the division
2672 for findings of fact and a recommended determination of whether 2673 the petitioner has established that he or she is a wrongfully
2674 incarcerated person ~~who is eligible for compensation under this~~
2675 ~~act.~~

2676 (5) Any questions of fact, the nature, significance or
2677 effect of the evidence of actual innocence, ~~and the petitioner's~~
2678 ~~eligibility for compensation under this act~~ must be established 2679 by clear and convincing evidence by the petitioner before an 2680 administrative law judge.

2681 (6) (a) Pursuant to division rules and any additional rules
2682 set forth by the administrative law judge, a hearing shall be 2683 conducted no later than 120 days after the transfer of the 2684 petition.

2685 (b) The prosecuting authority shall appear for the purpose
2686 of contesting, as necessary, the facts, the nature, and 2687 significance or effect of the evidence of actual innocence as 2688 presented by the petitioner.

2689 (c) No later than 45 days after the adjournment of the 2690 hearing, the administrative law judge shall issue an order
2691 setting forth his or her findings and recommendation and shall 2692 file the order with the original sentencing court.

2693 (d) The original sentencing court shall review the findings
2694 and recommendation contained in the order of the administrative 2695 law judge and, within 60 days, shall issue its own order

695928

576-04137-20

2696 adopting or declining to adopt the findings and recommendation
2697 of the administrative law judge.

2698 (7) If the court concludes that the petitioner is a
2699 wrongfully incarcerated person as defined by this act ~~and is~~ 2700 ~~eligible for compensation as defined in this act~~, the court
2701 shall include in its order a certification to the department
2702 that:

2703 (a)1. The order of the administrative law judge finds that 2704 the petitioner has met his or her burden of establishing by 2705 clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner committed
2706 neither the act nor the offense that served as the basis for the 2707 conviction and incarceration and that the petitioner did not
2708 aid, abet, or act as an accomplice to a person who committed the 2709 act or offense; or

2710 2. That the court has declined to adopt the findings and 2711 recommendations of the administrative law judge and finds that 2712 the petitioner has met his or her burden of establishing by
2713 clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner committed
2714 neither the act nor the offense that served as the basis for the 2715 conviction and incarceration and that the petitioner did not
2716 aid, abet, or act as an accomplice to a person who committed the 2717 act or offense; and

2718 (b) The original sentencing court determines the findings
2719 and recommendations on which its order is based are supported by 2720 competent, substantial evidence.

2721 (8) The establishment of the method by which a person may
2722 seek the status of a wrongfully incarcerated person ~~and a~~
2723 ~~finding as to eligibility for compensation under this act~~ in no
2724 way creates any rights of due process beyond those set forth

695928

576-04137-20

2725 herein, nor is there created any right to further petition or 2726 appeal beyond the scope of the method set forth herein.

2727 Section 26. Effective July 1, 2020, section 961.04, Florida
2728 Statutes, is repealed.

2729 Section 27. Effective July 1, 2020, subsections (1), (2),
2730 and (3) of section 961.05, Florida Statutes, are amended to

TOTAL SENTENCE POINTS.....

(b) WORKSHEET KEY:

Legal status points are assessed when any form of legal status existed at the time the offender committed an offense before the court for sentencing. Four (4) sentence points are assessed for an offender's legal status.

Community sanction violation points are assessed when a community sanction violation is before the court for sentencing. Six (6) sentence points are assessed for each community sanction violation and each successive community sanction violation, unless any of the following apply:

1. If the community sanction violation includes a new felony conviction before the sentencing court, twelve (12) community sanction violation points are assessed for the violation, and for each successive community sanction violation involving a new felony conviction.

2. If the community sanction violation is committed by a violent felony offender of special concern as defined in s. 948.06:

a. Twelve (12) community sanction violation points are assessed for the violation and for each successive violation of felony probation or community control where:

I. The violation does not include a new felony conviction;

and

II. The community sanction violation is not based solely on 695928

576-04137-20

4109 the probationer or offender's failure to pay costs or fines or 4110 make restitution payments.

4111 b. Twenty-four (24) community sanction violation points are 4112 assessed for the violation and for each successive violation of 4113 felony probation or community control where the violation
4114 includes a new felony conviction.

4116 Multiple counts of community sanction violations before the 4117 sentencing court may shall not be used as a basis for 4118 multiplying the assessment of community sanction violation
4119 points.

4121 Prior serious felony points: If the offender has a primary
4122 offense or any additional offense ranked in level 8, level 9, or 4123 level 10, and one or more prior serious felonies, a single 4124 assessment of thirty (30) points shall be added. For purposes of 4125 this section, a prior serious felony is an offense in the 4126 offender's prior record that is ranked in level 8, level 9, or 4127 level 10 under s. 921.0022 or s. 921.0023 and for which the 4128 offender is serving a sentence of confinement, supervision, or 4129 other sanction or for which the offender's date of release from 4130 confinement, supervision, or other sanction, whichever is later,
4131 is within 3 years before the date the primary offense or any 4132 additional offense was committed.

4134 Prior capital felony points: If the offender has one or more
4135 prior capital felonies in the offender's criminal record, points
4136 shall be added to the subtotal sentence points of the offender
4137 equal to twice the number of points the offender receives for

695928

576-04137-20

4138 the primary offense and any additional offense. A prior capital
4139 felony in the offender's criminal record is a previous capital
4140 felony offense for which the offender has entered a plea of nolo
4141 contendere or guilty or has been found guilty; or a felony in 4142 another jurisdiction which is a capital felony in that 4143 jurisdiction, or would be a capital felony if the offense were 4144 committed in this state.

4146 Possession of a firearm, semiautomatic firearm, or machine gun:
4147 If the offender is convicted of committing or attempting to
4148 commit any felony other than those enumerated in s. 775.087(2)
4149 while having in his or her possession: a firearm as defined in 4150 s. 790.001(6), an additional eighteen (18) sentence points are 4151 assessed; or if the offender is convicted of committing or 4152 attempting to commit any felony other than those enumerated in 4153 s. 775.087(3) while having in his or her possession a
4154 semiautomatic firearm as defined in s. 775.087(3) or a machine
4155 gun as defined in s. 790.001(9), an additional twenty-five (25)
4156 sentence points are assessed.

4157

4158 Sentencing multipliers:

4159

4160 Drug trafficking: If the primary offense is drug trafficking
4161 under s. 893.135, the subtotal sentence points are multiplied,
4162 at the discretion of the court, for a level 7 or level 8
4163 offense, by 1.5. The state attorney may move the sentencing
4164 court to reduce or suspend the sentence of a person convicted of 4165 a level 7 or level 8 offense, if the offender provides
4166 substantial assistance as described in s. 893.135(4).

576-04137-20

4168 Law enforcement protection: If the primary offense is a
4169 violation of the Law Enforcement Protection Act under s.
4170 775.0823(2), (3), or (4), the subtotal sentence points are
4171 multiplied by 2.5. If the primary offense is a violation of s.
4172 775.0823(5), (6), (7), (8), or (9), the subtotal sentence points
4173 are multiplied by 2.0. If the primary offense is a violation of 4174 s. 784.07(3) or s. 775.0875(1), or of the Law Enforcement
4175 Protection Act under s. 775.0823(10) or (11), the subtotal
4176 sentence points are multiplied by 1.5.
4177
4178 Grand theft of a motor vehicle: If the primary offense is grand 4179 theft of the third degree involving a motor vehicle and in the 4180 offender's prior record, there are three or more grand thefts of 4181 the third degree involving a motor vehicle, the subtotal
4182 sentence points are multiplied by 1.5.
4183
4184 Offense related to a criminal gang: If the offender is convicted 4185 of the primary offense and committed that offense for the 4186 purpose of benefiting, promoting, or furthering the interests of 4187 a criminal gang as defined in s. 874.03, the subtotal sentence
4188 points are multiplied by 1.5. If applying the multiplier results
4189 in the lowest permissible sentence exceeding the statutory 4190 maximum sentence for the primary offense under chapter 775, the 4191 court may not apply the multiplier and must sentence the 4192 defendant to the statutory maximum sentence.
4193
4194 Domestic violence in the presence of a child: If the offender is 4195 convicted of the primary offense and the primary offense is a

576-04137-20

4196 crime of domestic violence, as defined in s. 741.28, which was 4197 committed in the presence of a child under 16 years of age who 4198 is a family or household member as defined in s. 741.28(3) with 4199 the victim or perpetrator, the subtotal sentence points are 4200 multiplied by 1.5.
4201
4202 Adult-on-minor sex offense: If the offender was 18 years of age
4203 or older and the victim was younger than 18 years of age at the 4204 time the offender committed the primary offense, and if the 4205 primary offense was an offense committed on or after October 1, 4206 2014, and is a violation of s. 787.01(2) or s. 787.02(2), if the 4207 violation involved a victim who was a minor and, in the course
4208 of committing that violation, the defendant committed a sexual 4209 battery under chapter 794 or a lewd act under s. 800.04 or s.
4210 847.0135(5) against the minor; s. 787.01(3)(a)2. or 3.; s.
4211 787.02(3)(a)2. or 3.; s. 794.011, excluding s. 794.011(10); s.
4212 800.04; or s. 847.0135(5), the subtotal sentence points are 4213 multiplied by 2.0. If applying the multiplier results in the 4214 lowest permissible sentence exceeding the statutory maximum
4215 sentence for the primary offense under chapter 775, the court
4216 may not apply the multiplier and must sentence the defendant to 4217 the statutory maximum sentence.
4218 (2) The lowest permissible sentence is the minimum sentence
4219 that may be imposed by the trial court, absent a valid reason
4220 for departure. The lowest permissible sentence is any nonstate 4221 prison sanction in which the total sentence points equals or is 4222 less than 44 points, unless the court determines within its 4223 discretion that a prison sentence, which may be up to the 4224 statutory maximums for the offenses committed, is appropriate.

576-04137-20

4225 When the total sentence points exceeds 44 points, the lowest
4226 permissible sentence in prison months shall be calculated by 4227 subtracting 28 points from the total sentence points and 4228 decreasing the remaining total by 25 percent. The total sentence
4229 points shall be calculated only as a means of determining the 4230 lowest permissible sentence. The permissible range for 4231 sentencing shall be the lowest permissible sentence up to and 4232 including the statutory maximum, as defined in s. 775.082, for 4233 the primary offense and any additional offenses before the court
4234 for sentencing. The sentencing court may impose such sentences
4235 concurrently or consecutively. However, any sentence to state
4236 prison must exceed 1 year. If the lowest permissible sentence
4237 under the code exceeds the statutory maximum sentence as 4238 provided in s. 775.082, the sentence required by the code must 4239 be imposed. If the total sentence points are greater than or 4240 equal to 363, the court may sentence the offender to life
4241 imprisonment. An offender sentenced to life imprisonment under 4242 this section is not eligible for any form of discretionary early 4243 release, except executive clemency, ~~or~~ conditional medical 4244 release under s. 945.0911, or conditional aging inmate release
4245 under s. 945.0912 ~~s. 947.149~~.

4246 (3) A single digitized scoresheet shall be prepared for 4247 each defendant to determine the permissible range for the 4248 sentence that the court may impose, except that if the defendant
4249 is before the court for sentencing for more than one felony and 4250 the felonies were committed under more than one version or 4251 revision of the guidelines or the code, separate digitized
4252 scoresheets must be prepared. The scoresheet or scoresheets must 4253 cover all the defendant's offenses pending before the court for

576-04137-20

4254 sentencing. The state attorney shall prepare the digitized
4255 scoresheet or scoresheets, which must be presented to the 4256 defense counsel for review for accuracy in all cases unless the 4257 judge directs otherwise. The defendant's scoresheet or 4258 scoresheets must be approved and signed by the sentencing judge.

4259 (4) The Department of Corrections, in consultation with the 4260 Office of the State Courts Administrator, state attorneys, and 4261 public defenders, must develop and submit the revised digitized
4262 Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code scoresheet to the Supreme 4263 Court for approval by June 15 of each year, as necessary. The 4264 digitized scoresheet shall have individual, structured data
4265 cells for each data field on the scoresheet. Upon the Supreme 4266 Court's approval of the revised digitized scoresheet, the 4267 Department of Corrections shall produce and provide the revised 4268 digitized scoresheets by September 30 of each year, as 4269 necessary. Digitized scoresheets must include individual data
4270 cells to indicate whether any prison sentence imposed includes a
4271 mandatory minimum sentence or the sentence imposed was a 4272 downward departure from the lowest permissible sentence under 4273 the Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code.

4274 (5) The Department of Corrections shall make available the 4275 digitized Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code scoresheets to 4276 those persons charged with the responsibility for preparing 4277 scoresheets.

4278 (6) The clerk of the circuit court shall transmit a
4279 complete and accurate digitized copy of the Public Safety
4280 Criminal Punishment Code scoresheet used in each sentencing
4281 proceeding to the Department of Corrections. Scoresheets must be 4282 electronically transmitted no less frequently than monthly, by

695928

576-04137-20

4283 the first of each month, and may be sent collectively.
4284 (7) A digitized sentencing scoresheet must be prepared for 4285 every defendant who is sentenced for a felony offense. The 4286 individual offender's digitized Public Safety Criminal
4287 ~~Punishment~~ Code scoresheet and any attachments thereto prepared
4288 pursuant to Rule 3.701, Rule 3.702, or Rule 3.703, Florida Rules
4289 of Criminal Procedure, or any other rule pertaining to the 4290 preparation and submission of felony sentencing scoresheets,
4291 must be included with the uniform judgment and sentence form
4292 provided to the Department of Corrections.
4293 Section 46. Section 921.0025, Florida Statutes, is amended
4294 to read:
4295 921.0025 Adoption and implementation of revised sentencing
4296 scoresheets.—Rules 3.701, 3.702, 3.703, and 3.988, Florida Rules
4297 of Criminal Procedure, as revised by the Supreme Court, and any 4298 other rule pertaining to the preparation and submission of 4299 felony sentencing scoresheets, are adopted and implemented in 4300 accordance with this chapter for application to the Public
4301 Safety Criminal Punishment Code.
4302 Section 47. Paragraph (m) of subsection (2) of section
4303 921.0026, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
4304 921.0026 Mitigating circumstances.—This section applies to 4305 any felony offense, except any capital felony, committed on or
4306 after October 1, 1998.
4307 (2) Mitigating circumstances under which a departure from 4308 the lowest permissible sentence is reasonably justified include,
4309 but are not limited to:
4310 (m) The defendant's offense is a nonviolent felony, the 4311 defendant's Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code scoresheet

695928

576-04137-20

4312 total sentence points under s. 921.0024 are 60 points or fewer,
4313 and the court determines that the defendant is amenable to the 4314 services of a postadjudicatory treatment-based drug court
4315 program and is otherwise qualified to participate in the program
4316 as part of the sentence. For purposes of this paragraph, the 4317 term "nonviolent felony" has the same meaning as provided in s.
4318 948.08(6).
4319 Section 48. Section 921.0027, Florida Statutes, is amended
4320 to read:
4321 921.0027 Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code and 4322 revisions; applicability.—The Florida Public Safety Criminal
4323 Punishment Code applies to all felonies, except capital
4324 felonies, committed on or after October 1, 1998. Any revision to 4325 the Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code applies to sentencing
4326 for all felonies, except capital felonies, committed on or after 4327 the effective date of the revision. Felonies, except capital
4328 felonies, with continuing dates of enterprise shall be sentenced 4329 under the Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code in effect on 4330 the beginning date of the criminal activity.
4331 Section 49. Subsection (1) of section 924.06, Florida
4332 Statutes, is amended to read:
4333 924.06 Appeal by defendant.—
4334 (1) A defendant may appeal from:
4335 (a) A final judgment of conviction when probation has not 4336 been granted under chapter 948, except as provided in subsection
4337 (3);
4338 (b) An order granting probation under chapter 948;
4339 (c) An order revoking probation under chapter 948;
4340 (d) A sentence, on the ground that it is illegal; or

4342 Safety Criminal Punishment Code which exceeds the statutory 4343 maximum penalty provided in s. 775.082 for an offense at 4344 conviction, or the consecutive statutory maximums for offenses

4353 Section 51. Paragraph (c) of subsection (3) and paragraph 4354 (e) of subsection (5) of section 944.17, Florida Statutes, are 4355 amended to read:

4356 944.17 Commitments and classification; transfers.-

4357 (3)

4358 (c)1. When the highest ranking offense for which the 4359 prisoner is convicted is a felony, the trial court shall 4360 sentence the prisoner pursuant to the Public Safety Criminal
4361 Punishment Code in chapter 921.

4362 2. When the highest ranking offense for which the prisoner
4363 is convicted is a misdemeanor, the trial court shall sentence
4364 the prisoner pursuant to s. 775.082(4).

4365 (5) The department shall also refuse to accept a person
4366 into the state correctional system unless the following
4367 documents are presented in a completed form by the sheriff or 4368 chief correctional officer, or a designated representative, to 4369 the officer in charge of the reception process. The department

576-04137-20

4370 may, at its discretion, receive such documents electronically:

4371 (e) A copy of the Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code
4372 scoresheet and any attachments thereto prepared pursuant to Rule
4373 3.701, Rule 3.702, or Rule 3.703, Florida Rules of Criminal
4374 Procedure, or any other rule pertaining to the preparation of 4375 felony sentencing scoresheets.

4377 In addition, the sheriff or other officer having such person in 4378 charge shall also deliver with the foregoing documents any 4379 available presentence investigation reports as described in s.
4380 921.231 and any attached documents. After a prisoner is admitted
4381 into the state correctional system, the department may request 4382 such additional records relating to the prisoner as it considers 4383 necessary from the clerk of the court, the Department of 4384 Children and Families, or any other state or county agency for 4385 the purpose of determining the prisoner's proper custody
4386 classification, gain-time eligibility, or eligibility for early 4387 release programs. An agency that receives such a request from 4388 the department must provide the information requested. The 4389 department may, at its discretion, receive such information
4390 electronically.

4391 Section 52. Paragraph (b) of subsection (7) of section

4399 card or replacement driver license, if necessary.
4400 2. Have an active detainer, unless the department

4404 3. Are released due to an emergency release, ~~or~~ a
4405 conditional medical release under s. 945.0911, or conditional

4420 accumulated meritorious or incentive gain-time;

4428 Section 54. Paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of section
4429 947.13, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
4430 947.13 Powers and duties of commission.-
4431 (1) The commission shall have the powers and perform the 4432 duties of:
4433 ~~(h) Determining what persons will be released on~~ 4434 ~~conditional medical release under s. 947.149, establishing the~~ 4435 ~~conditions of conditional medical release, and determining~~
4436 ~~whether a person has violated the conditions of conditional~~
4437 ~~medical release and taking action with respect to such a~~
4438 ~~violation.~~
4439 Section 55. Section 947.141, Florida Statutes, is amended
4440 to read:
4441 947.141 Violations of conditional release, control release,
4442 ~~or conditional medical release~~ or addiction-recovery
4443 supervision.-
4444 (1) If a member of the commission or a duly authorized
4445 representative of the commission has reasonable grounds to
4446 believe that an offender who is on release supervision under s.
4447 947.1405, s. 947.146, ~~s. 947.149~~, or s. 944.4731 has violated
4448 the terms and conditions of the release in a material respect,
4449 such member or representative may cause a warrant to be issued
4450 for the arrest of the releasee; if the offender was found to be 4451 a sexual predator, the warrant must be issued.
4452 (2) Upon the arrest on a felony charge of an offender who
4453 is on release supervision under s. 947.1405, s. 947.146, ~~s.~~
4454 ~~947.149~~, or s. 944.4731, the offender must be detained without 4455 bond until the initial appearance of the offender at which a
4456 judicial determination of probable cause is made. If the trial

576-04137-20

4457 court judge determines that there was no probable cause for the 4458 arrest, the offender may be released. If the trial court judge
4459 determines that there was probable cause for the arrest, such 4460 determination also constitutes reasonable grounds to believe
4461 that the offender violated the conditions of the release. Within 4462 24 hours after the trial court judge's finding of probable
4463 cause, the detention facility administrator or designee shall 4464 notify the commission and the department of the finding and 4465 transmit to each a facsimile copy of the probable cause
4466 affidavit or the sworn offense report upon which the trial court
4467 judge's probable cause determination is based. The offender must 4468 continue to be detained without bond for a period not exceeding 4469 72 hours excluding weekends and holidays after the date of the 4470 probable cause determination, pending a decision by the 4471 commission whether to issue a warrant charging the offender with 4472 violation of the conditions of release. Upon the issuance of the 4473 commission's warrant, the offender must continue to be held in 4474 custody pending a revocation hearing held in accordance with 4475 this section.

4476 (3) Within 45 days after notice to the Florida Commission
4477 on Offender Review of the arrest of a releasee charged with a
4478 violation of the terms and conditions of conditional release,
4479 control release, ~~conditional medical release~~, or addiction-
4480 recovery supervision, the releasee must be afforded a hearing
4481 conducted by a commissioner or a duly authorized representative
4482 thereof. If the releasee elects to proceed with a hearing, the 4483 releasee must be informed orally and in writing of the 4484 following:

4485 (a) The alleged violation with which the releasee is

576-04137-20

4486 charged.
4487 (b) The releasee's right to be represented by counsel.
4488 (c) The releasee's right to be heard in person.
4489 (d) The releasee's right to secure, present, and compel the
4490 attendance of witnesses relevant to the proceeding.
4491 (e) The releasee's right to produce documents on the 4492 releasee's own behalf.
4493 (f) The releasee's right of access to all evidence used
4494 against the releasee and to confront and cross-examine adverse
4495 witnesses.
4496 (g) The releasee's right to waive the hearing.
4497 (4) Within a reasonable time following the hearing, the 4498 commissioner or the commissioner's duly authorized
4499 representative who conducted the hearing shall make findings of 4500 fact in regard to the alleged violation. A panel of no fewer 4501 than two commissioners shall enter an order determining whether 4502 the charge of violation of conditional release, control release,
4503 ~~conditional medical release~~, or addiction-recovery supervision
4504 has been sustained based upon the findings of fact presented by 4505 the hearing commissioner or authorized representative. By such 4506 order, the panel may revoke conditional release, control
4507 release, ~~conditional medical release~~, or addiction-recovery
4508 supervision and thereby return the releasee to prison to serve
4509 the sentence imposed, reinstate the original order granting the 4510 release, or enter such other order as it considers proper.
4511 Effective for inmates whose offenses were committed on or after
4512 July 1, 1995, the panel may order the placement of a releasee,
4513 upon a finding of violation pursuant to this subsection, into a
4514 local detention facility as a condition of supervision.

695928

576-04137-20

4515 (5) Effective for inmates whose offenses were committed on 4516 or after July 1, 1995, notwithstanding the provisions of ss.
4517 775.08, former 921.001, 921.002, 921.187, 921.188, 944.02, and 4518 951.23, or any other law to the contrary, by such order as 4519 provided in subsection (4), the panel, upon a finding of guilt,
4520 may, as a condition of continued supervision, place the releasee
4521 in a local detention facility for a period of incarceration not 4522 to exceed 22 months. Prior to the expiration of the term of 4523 incarceration, or upon recommendation of the chief correctional 4524 officer of that county, the commission shall cause inquiry into 4525 the inmate's release plan and custody status in the detention
4526 facility and consider whether to restore the inmate to 4527 supervision, modify the conditions of supervision, or enter an 4528 order of revocation, thereby causing the return of the inmate to 4529 prison to serve the sentence imposed. The provisions of this 4530 section do not prohibit the panel from entering such other order
4531 or conducting any investigation that it deems proper. The 4532 commission may only place a person in a local detention facility
4533 pursuant to this section if there is a contractual agreement
4534 between the chief correctional officer of that county and the 4535 Department of Corrections. The agreement must provide for a per 4536 diem reimbursement for each person placed under this section,
4537 which is payable by the Department of Corrections for the 4538 duration of the offender's placement in the facility. This 4539 section does not limit the commission's ability to place a
4540 person in a local detention facility for less than 1 year.

4541 (6) Whenever a conditional release, control release,
4542 ~~conditional medical release~~, or addiction-recovery supervision
4543 is revoked by a panel of no fewer than two commissioners and the 695928

576-04137-20

4544 releasee is ordered to be returned to prison, the releasee, by 4545 reason of the misconduct, shall be deemed to have forfeited all
4546 gain-time or commutation of time for good conduct, as provided
4547 for by law, earned up to the date of release. However, if a
4548 conditional medical release is revoked due to the improved
4549 medical or physical condition of the releasee, the releasee
4550 shall not forfeit gain-time accrued before the date of 4551 conditional medical release. This subsection does not deprive 4552 the prisoner of the right to gain-time or commutation of time 4553 for good conduct, as provided by law, from the date of return to 4554 prison.

4555 (7) If a law enforcement officer has probable cause to 4556 believe that an offender who is on release supervision under s.
4557 947.1405, s. 947.146, ~~s. 947.149~~, or s. 944.4731 has violated
4558 the terms and conditions of his or her release by committing a
4559 felony offense, the officer shall arrest the offender without a
4560 warrant, and a warrant need not be issued in the case.

4561 Section 56. Paragraph (a) of subsection (7) of section
4562 948.01, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

4563 948.01 When court may place defendant on probation or into
4564 community control.-

4565 (7) (a) Notwithstanding s. 921.0024 and effective for 4566 offenses committed on or after July 1, 2009, the sentencing
4567 court may place the defendant into a postadjudicatory treatment-
4568 based drug court program if the defendant's Public Safety
4569 ~~Criminal Punishment~~ Code scoresheet total sentence points under 4570 s. 921.0024 are 60 points or fewer, the offense is a nonviolent
4571 felony, the defendant is amenable to substance abuse treatment,
4572 and the defendant otherwise qualifies under s. 397.334(3). The

576-04137-20

4573 satisfactory completion of the program shall be a condition of 4574 the defendant's probation or community control. As used in this 4575 subsection, the term "nonviolent felony" means a third degree
4576 felony violation under chapter 810 or any other felony offense
4577 that is not a forcible felony as defined in s. 776.08.

4578 Section 57. Section 948.015, Florida Statutes, is amended
4579 to read:

4580 948.015 Presentence investigation reports.—The circuit
4581 court, when the defendant in a criminal case has been found
4582 guilty or has entered a plea of nolo contendere or guilty and 4583 has a lowest permissible sentence under the Public Safety
4584 ~~Criminal Punishment~~ Code of any nonstate prison sanction, may 4585 refer the case to the department for investigation or 4586 recommendation. Upon such referral, the department shall make 4587 the following report in writing at a time specified by the court
4588 before ~~prior to~~ sentencing. The full report must ~~shall~~ include:

4593 counts waived, the pleas agreed upon, the sentence agreed upon,

4596 activity.

4597 (2) The offender's sentencing status, including whether the 4598 offender is a first offender, a habitual or violent offender, a
4599 youthful offender, or is currently on probation.

4600 (3) The offender's prior record of arrests and convictions.

4601 (4) The offender's educational background.

576-04137-20

4602 (5) The offender's employment background, including any 4603 military record, present employment status, and occupational 4604 capabilities.

4605 (6) The offender's financial status, including total

4613 (10) Information about the environments to which the 4614 offender might return or to which the offender could be sent
4615 should a sentence of nonincarceration or community supervision
4616 be imposed by the court, and consideration of the offender's
4617 plan concerning employment supervision and treatment.

4618 (11) Information about any resources available to assist
4619 the offender, such as:

4621 (b) Residential facilities.

4622 (c) Career training programs.

4623 (d) Special education programs.

4624 (e) Services that may preclude or supplement commitment to 4625 the department.

4626 (12) The views of the person preparing the report as to the 4627 offender's motivations and ambitions and an assessment of the 4628 offender's explanations for his or her criminal activity.

4629 (13) An explanation of the offender's criminal record, if 4630 any, including his or her version and explanation of any

4637 following factors:

4638 (a) The appropriateness or inappropriateness of community
4639 facilities, programs, or services for treatment or supervision
4640 for the offender.

4641 (b) The ability or inability of the department to provide 4642 an adequate level of supervision for the offender in the 4643 community and a statement of what constitutes an adequate level
4644 of supervision.

4645 (c) The existence of other treatment modalities which the 4646 offender could use but which do not exist at present in the 4647 community.

4648 Section 58. Paragraph (j) of subsection (2) of section
4649 948.06, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

4650 948.06 Violation of probation or community control;

4654 (j)1. Notwithstanding s. 921.0024 and effective for 4655 offenses committed on or after July 1, 2009, the court may order
4656 the defendant to successfully complete a postadjudicatory

4658 a. The court finds or the offender admits that the offender
4659 has violated his or her community control or probation;

4660 b. The offender's ~~Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code~~
4661 scoresheet total sentence points under s. 921.0024 are 60 points
4662 or fewer after including points for the violation;

4663 c. The underlying offense is a nonviolent felony. As used
4664 in this subsection, the term "nonviolent felony" means a third
4665 degree felony violation under chapter 810 or any other felony
4666 offense that is not a forcible felony as defined in s. 776.08;

4667 d. The court determines that the offender is amenable to 4668 the services of a postadjudicatory treatment-based drug court
4669 program;

4670 e. The court has explained the purpose of the program to 4671 the offender and the offender has agreed to participate; and

4672 f. The offender is otherwise qualified to participate in 4673 the program under ~~the provisions of~~ s. 397.334(3).

4674 2. After the court orders the modification of community
4675 control or probation, the original sentencing court shall 4676 relinquish jurisdiction of the offender's case to the

4689 1, 2009, and notwithstanding s. 921.0024, the defendant's Public
4690 Safety Criminal Punishment Code scoresheet total sentence points
4691 are 60 points or fewer, the court may either adjudge the 4692 defendant guilty or stay and withhold the adjudication of guilt.
4693 In either case, the court may also stay and withhold the 4694 imposition of sentence and place the defendant on drug offender
4695 probation or into a postadjudicatory treatment-based drug court
4696 program if the defendant otherwise qualifies. As used in this 4697 section, the term "nonviolent felony" means a third degree
4698 felony violation under chapter 810 or any other felony offense
4699 that is not a forcible felony as defined in s. 776.08.

4700 Section 60. Paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section
4701 948.51, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

4702 948.51 Community corrections assistance to counties or 4703 county consortiums.—

4704 (2) ELIGIBILITY OF COUNTIES AND COUNTY CONSORTIUMS.—A
4705 county, or a consortium of two or more counties, may contract
4706 with the Department of Corrections for community corrections
4707 funds as provided in this section. In order to enter into a
4708 community corrections partnership contract, a county or county
4709 consortium must have a public safety coordinating council
4710 established under s. 951.26 and must designate a county officer
4711 or agency to be responsible for administering community
4712 corrections funds received from the state. The public safety
4713 coordinating council shall prepare, develop, and implement a 4714 comprehensive public safety plan for the county, or the

4718 comprehensive public safety plan, the public safety coordinating 4719 council shall cooperate with the juvenile justice circuit
4720 advisory board established under s. 985.664 in order to include
4721 programs and services for juveniles in the plan. To be eligible 4722 for community corrections funds under the contract, the initial 4723 public safety plan must be approved by the governing board of 4724 the county, or the governing board of each county within the 4725 consortium, and the Secretary of Corrections based on the 4726 requirements of this section. If one or more other counties
4727 develop a unified public safety plan, the public safety
4728 coordinating council shall submit a single application to the 4729 department for funding. Continued contract funding shall be 4730 pursuant to subsection (5). The plan for a county or county
4731 consortium must cover at least a 5-year period and must include:

4732 (c) Specific goals and objectives for reducing the 4733 projected percentage of commitments to the state prison system
4734 of persons with low total sentencing scores pursuant to the 4735 Public Safety Criminal Punishment Code.

4743 by the trial court judge which reasonably justify departure. A
4744 sentence imposed outside of the code is subject to appeal
4745 pursuant to s. 924.06 or s. 924.07.

4746 Section 62. Subsection (4) of section 985.465, Florida

4754 level must meet one of the following criteria:

4755 (4) The child is at least 13 years of age at the time of 4756 the disposition for the current offense, the child is eligible

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 1308 makes a number of changes to the criminal justice system, including:

- Modifying the list of enumerated offenses that exclude juvenile offenders convicted of capital murder from a sentence review hearing in accordance with section. 921.1402, Florida Statutes, enacted subsequent to the Graham v. Florida and Miller v. Alabama cases, to only murder.
- Retroactively applying the above modification to limit the prior offenses that serve as a bar for certain juvenile offenders to have a sentence review hearing to only murder.
- Providing that juvenile offenders who are no longer barred from a sentence review hearing due to the change to the list of enumerated prior offenses and who have served 25 years of the imprisonment imposed on the effective date of the bill must have a sentence review hearing conducted immediately.
- Providing all other juvenile offenders who are no longer barred from a sentence review hearing due to the change to the list of enumerated prior offenses must be given a sentence review hearing when 25 years of the imprisonment imposed have been served.
- Establishing a sentence review process similar to that created for juvenile offenders pursuant to section 921.1402, Florida Statutes, for “young adult offenders.”
- Defining the term “young adult offender.”
- Allowing certain young adult offenders to request a sentence review hearing with the original sentencing court if specified conditions are met, specifically:

- A young adult offender convicted of a life felony offense, or an offense reclassified as such, who was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment may request a sentence review after 20 years; and
- A young adult offender convicted of a first degree felony offense, or an offense reclassified as such, who was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment may request a sentence review after 15 years.
- Providing an exception to the requirement for prison releasee reoffenders to serve specified amounts of the term of imprisonment and allowing such prison releasee reoffenders that also qualify as juvenile offenders and young adult offenders to have sentence review hearings conducted by the court and be resentenced and released from imprisonment if deemed appropriate.
- Requiring the Department of Corrections (DOC) and county detention facilities to provide documentation to inmates upon release specifying the total length of the term of imprisonment at the time of release.
- Allowing time spent incarcerated in a county detention facility or state correctional facility to apply towards satisfaction of residing for a specified amount of time in Florida for designation as a resident for tuition purposes.
- Requiring the time spent incarcerated in a county detention facility or state correctional facility to be credited toward the residency requirement, with any combination of documented time living in Florida before and after incarceration.
- Requiring the Office of Program Policy and Governmental Accountability (OPPAGA) to conduct a study to evaluate the various opportunities available to persons returning to the community from imprisonment.
- Providing the study's scope and requiring the OPPAGA to submit a report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives by November 1, 2020.

To the extent that the bill increases the number of certain offenders being released from prison as a result of the sentence review hearings, the Criminal Justice Impact Conference estimates the bill will result in a negative significant prison bed impact. See Section V.

The bill is effective July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

Criminal Punishment Code

The Criminal Punishment Code (Code) is Florida's primary sentencing policy.¹ Noncapital felonies sentenced under the Code receive an offense severity level ranking (Levels 1-10).² Points are assigned and accrue based upon the level ranking assigned to the primary offense, additional offenses, and prior offenses. Sentence points escalate as the level escalates. Points may also be added or multiplied for other factors such as victim injury or the commission of certain offenses like a Level 7 or 8 drug trafficking offense. The lowest permissible sentence is any nonstate prison sanction in which total sentence points equal or are less than 44 points, unless the court determines that a prison sentence is appropriate. If total sentence points exceed 44 points, the lowest permissible sentence in prison months is calculated by subtracting 28 points from the total sentence points and decreasing the remaining total by 25 percent.³ Absent mitigation,⁴ the permissible sentencing range under the Code is generally the lowest permissible sentence scored up to and including the maximum penalty provided under s. 775.082, F.S.

¹ Sections 921.002-921.0027, F.S. See chs. 97-194 and 98-204, L.O.F. The Code is effective for offenses committed on or after October 1, 1998.

² Offenses are either ranked in the offense severity level ranking chart in s. 921.0022, F.S., or are ranked by default based on a ranking assigned to the felony degree of the offense as provided in s. 921.0023, F.S.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the statutory maximum sentence for an offense committed, which is classified as a:

- Capital felony is:
 - Death, if the proceeding held according to the procedure set forth in s. 921.141, F.S., results in a determination that it is appropriate for the person to be punished by death; or
 - Life imprisonment without the possibility of parole.
- Life felony is a term of imprisonment for life or by imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life imprisonment.
- First-degree felony is:
 - 30 years; or
 - Imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life imprisonment when specifically provided by statute.
- Second-degree felony is 15 years.
- Third degree felony is 5 years.⁵

Juvenile Offenders Convicted of Offenses Punishable by Life without Parole

In recent years, the U.S. Supreme Court issued several decisions addressing the application of the Eighth Amendment's prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment as it relates to the punishment of juvenile offenders.⁶ The first of these was Roper v. Simmons,⁷ in which the Court held that juvenile offenders cannot be subject to the death penalty for any offense. More recently, the Court expanded juvenile sentencing doctrine in *Graham v. Florida*⁸ and Miller v. Alabama.⁹

³ Section 921.0024, F.S. Unless otherwise noted, information on the Code is from this source.

⁴ The court may "mitigate" or "depart downward" from the scored lowest permissible sentence if the court finds a mitigating circumstance. Section 921.0026, F.S., provides a list of mitigating circumstances.

⁵ See s. 775.082, F.S.

⁶ The term "juvenile offender" refers to an offender who was less than 18 years of age at the time the offense was committed for which he or she was sentenced. Most crimes committed by juveniles are dealt with through delinquency proceedings as set forth in ch. 985, F.S. However, the law provides a mechanism for juveniles to be tried and handled as adults. A juvenile who commits a crime while 13 years old or younger may only be tried as an adult if a grand jury indictment is returned. A juvenile who is older than 13 years may be tried as an adult for certain felony offenses if a grand jury indictment is returned, if juvenile court jurisdiction is waived and the case is transferred for prosecution as an adult pursuant to s. 985.556, F.S., or if the state attorney direct files an information in adult court pursuant to s. 985.557, F.S. Regardless of age, s. 985.58, F.S., requires a grand jury indictment to try a juvenile as an adult for an offense that is punishable by death or life imprisonment.

Graham v. Florida

In Graham, the U.S. Supreme Court held that a juvenile offender may not be sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole for a non-homicide offense. More specifically, the Court found that if a non-homicide juvenile offender is sentenced to life in prison, the state must “provide him or her with some realistic opportunity to obtain release before the end of that term.”¹⁰ Because Florida abolished parole¹¹ and the possibility of executive clemency was deemed to be remote,¹² the Court held that a juvenile offender in Florida could not be given a life sentence for a non-homicide offense without a meaningful opportunity to obtain release.¹³

Graham applies retroactively to previously sentenced offenders because it established a fundamental constitutional right.¹⁴ Therefore, a juvenile offender who is serving a life sentence for a non-homicide offense that was committed after parole eligibility was eliminated is entitled to be resentenced to a term less than life.

The U.S. Supreme Court did not give any guidance as to the maximum permissible sentence for a non-homicide juvenile offender other than to exclude the possibility of life without parole. This led to different results among the District Courts in reviewing sentences for a lengthy term of years. Prior to the 2014 Legislative Session, there were conflicts in the case law regarding whether a term of years could be deemed to equate to a life without parole sentence. The Florida First District Court of Appeal held that a lengthy term of years is a de facto life sentence if it exceeds the juvenile offender’s life expectancy.¹⁵ On the other hand, the Florida Fourth and Fifth District Courts of Appeal strictly construed Graham to apply only to life sentences and not to affect sentences for a lengthy term of years.¹⁶

On March 19, 2015, the Florida Supreme Court issued opinions on two cases that had been certified for it to resolve, Gridine v. State, 89 So. 3d 909 (Fla. 1st DCA 2011) and Henry v. State, 82 So. 3d 1084 (Fla. 5th DCA 2012). The Court held that a sentence proscribing a lengthy term of years imprisonment, such as a 70-year sentence as was pronounced in Gridine or the 90-year sentence pronounced in Henry that does not provide a meaningful opportunity for release is a de facto life sentence that violates the Eighth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and the holding in Graham.¹⁷

¹⁰ Graham at 82.

¹¹ Parole was abolished in 1983 for all non-capital felonies committed on or after October 1, 1983, and was completely abolished in 1995 for any offense committed on or after October 1, 1995.

¹⁵ Adams v. State, 2012 WL 3193932 (Fla. 1st DCA 2012). The First District Court of Appeal has struck down sentences of 60 years (Adams) and 80 years (Floyd v. State, 87 So.3d 45 (Fla. 1st DCA 2012)), while approving sentences of 50 years (Thomas v. State, 78 So.3d 644 (Fla. 1st DCA 2011)) and 70 years (*Gridine v. Miller v. Alabama

In Miller, the U.S. Supreme Court held that juvenile offenders who commit homicide may not be sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole as the result of a mandatory sentencing scheme. The Court did not find that the Eighth Amendment prohibits sentencing a juvenile murderer to life without parole, but rather that individualized factors related to the offender's age must be considered before a life without parole sentence may be imposed. The Court also indicated that it expects few juvenile offenders will be found to merit life without parole sentences.

The majority opinion in Miller noted mandatory life-without-parole sentences “preclude a sentencer from taking account of an offender’s age and the wealth of characteristics and circumstances attendant to it.”¹⁸ Although the Court did not require consideration of specific factors, it highlighted the following concerns:

Mandatory life without parole for a juvenile precludes consideration of his chronological age and its hallmark features—among them, immaturity, impetuosity, and failure to appreciate risks and consequences. It prevents taking into account the family and home environment that surrounds him—and from which he cannot usually extricate himself—no matter how brutal or dysfunctional. It neglects the circumstances of the homicide offense, including the extent of his participation in the conduct and the way familial and peer pressures may have affected him. Indeed, it ignores that he might have been charged and convicted of a lesser offense if not for incompetencies associated with youth—for example, his inability to deal with police officers or prosecutors (including on a plea agreement) or his incapacity to assist his own attorneys....[A]nd finally, this mandatory punishment disregards the possibility of rehabilitation even when the circumstances most suggest it.¹⁹

In response to the above-mentioned cases, the 2014 Legislature passed and the Governor signed into law CS/HB 7035 (2014), codified in ch. 2014-220, L.O.F., ensuring Florida had a constitutional sentencing scheme for juvenile offenders who are convicted of offenses punishable by a sentence of life without parole.

CS/HB 7035 (2014) amended s. 775.082, F.S., requiring a court to sentence a juvenile offender who is convicted of a homicide offense²⁰ that is a capital felony or an offense that was reclassified as a capital felony (capital felony homicide) and where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim to:

- Life imprisonment, if, after conducting a sentencing hearing in accordance with the newly created s. 921.1401, F.S., the court concluded that life imprisonment is an appropriate sentence; or

¹⁸ Miller at 2467.

¹⁹ Miller at 2468.

²⁰ Section 782.04, F.S., establishes homicide offenses.

- A term of imprisonment of not less than 40 years, if the judge concluded at the sentencing hearing that life imprisonment is not an appropriate sentence.²¹

The court may sentence a juvenile offender to life imprisonment or a term of years equal to life imprisonment, if, after conducting a sentencing hearing in accordance with s. 921.1401, F.S., the court finds such sentence appropriate and the juvenile offender is convicted of a:

- Life or first degree felony homicide where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim;²²
- Capital, life, or first degree felony homicide offense where the person did not actually kill, intend to kill, or attempt to kill the victim;²³ or
- Nonhomicide offense.²⁴

Section 775.082(1)(b)1., F.S., requires the court to impose a minimum sentence (40 years) only in instances where the court determines that life imprisonment is not appropriate for a juvenile offender convicted of a capital felony homicide where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim.²⁵

Section 775.082(1) and (3), F.S., also provides that all juvenile offenders are entitled to have their sentence reviewed by the court of original jurisdiction after specified periods of imprisonment. However, a juvenile offender convicted of a capital felony homicide, where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim, is not entitled to review if he or she has previously been convicted of a list of enumerated offenses, or conspiracy to commit one of the enumerated offenses, if the offense for which the person was previously convicted was part of a separate criminal transaction or episode than that which resulted in the sentence for the capital felony homicide.²⁶

CS/HB 7035 (2014) created s. 921.1401, F.S., which authorized the court to conduct a separate sentencing hearing to determine whether life imprisonment or a term of years equal to life imprisonment is an appropriate sentence for a juvenile offender convicted of one of the above-described homicide or nonhomicide offenses that was committed on or after July 1, 2014.²⁷

When determining whether such sentence is appropriate, the court is required to consider factors relevant to the offense and to the juvenile offender's youth and attendant circumstances, including, but not limited to the:

- Nature and circumstances of offense committed by the juvenile offender;
- Effect of crime on the victim's family and on the community;
- Juvenile offender's age, maturity, intellectual capacity, and mental and emotional health at time of offense;

²¹ Section 775.082(1)(b)1., F.S.

²² Section 775.082(3)(a)5. and (b), F.S.

²³ Section 775.082(1)(b)2., F.S.

²⁴ Section 775.082(3)(c), F.S.

²⁵ Section 775.082(1)(b)1., F.S.

²⁶ See s. 775.082(1) and (3), F.S., providing that reviews of sentences will be conducted in accordance with s. 921.1402, F.S.

²⁷ Section 921.1401(1), F.S.

- Juvenile offender’s background, including his or her family, home, and community environment;
- Effect, if any, of immaturity, impetuosity, or failure to appreciate risks and consequences on the juvenile offender’s participation in the offense;
- Extent of the juvenile offender’s participation in the offense;
- Effect, if any, of familial pressure or peer pressure on the juvenile offender’s actions;
- Nature and extent of the juvenile offender’s prior criminal history;
- Effect, if any, of characteristics attributable to the juvenile offender’s youth on the juvenile offender’s judgment; and
- Possibility of rehabilitating the juvenile offender.²⁸

This sentencing hearing is mandatory when sentencing any juvenile offender for a capital felony homicide offense where the offender actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim. The hearing is not required in any of the other above-described offenses, but must be conducted before the court can impose a sentence of life imprisonment or a term of years equal to life imprisonment.

Sentence Review Proceedings

CS/HB 7035 (2014) also created s. 921.1402, F.S., which entitles certain juvenile offenders to a review of his or her sentence by the court of original jurisdiction after specified periods of time. The sentence review hearing is to determine whether the juvenile offender has been rehabilitated and is deemed fit to re-enter society.

Section 921.1402(1), F.S., defines “juvenile offender” to mean a person sentenced to imprisonment in the custody of the DOC for an offense committed on or after July 1, 2014, and committed before he or she was 18 years of age.

A juvenile offender convicted of a capital felony homicide offense where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim is entitled to a sentence review hearing after 25 years.²⁹ However, a juvenile offender is not entitled to review if he or she has previously been convicted of one of the following offenses, or conspiracy to commit one of the following offenses, if the offense for which the person was previously convicted was part of a separate criminal transaction or episode than that which resulted in the sentence for which he or she was sentenced to life:

- Murder;
- Manslaughter;
- Sexual battery;
- Armed burglary;
- Armed robbery;
- Armed carjacking;
- Home-invasion robbery;
- Human trafficking for commercial sexual activity with a child under 18 years of age;
- False imprisonment under s. 787.02(3)(a), F.S.; or

²⁸ Section 921.1401(2), F.S.

²⁹ Section 775.082(1)(b)1., F.S.

- Kidnapping.³⁰

A juvenile offender convicted of a life felony or first degree felony homicide offense where the person actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim, is entitled to a sentence review hearing after 25 years, if he or she is sentenced to a term of imprisonment for more than 25 years.³¹

A juvenile offender convicted of a capital felony, life felony, or first degree felony homicide offense where the person did not actually kill, intend to kill, or attempt to kill the victim is entitled to have the court review the sentence after 15 years, if he or she is sentenced to a term of imprisonment of more than 15 years.³²

A juvenile offender convicted of a nonhomicide offense is entitled to have the court review the sentence after 20 years if the juvenile is sentenced to a term of imprisonment of more than 20 years. The juvenile offender is eligible for one subsequent review hearing 10 years after the initial review hearing.³³

The juvenile offender must submit an application to the court of original jurisdiction requesting that a sentence review hearing be held. The DOC must notify a juvenile offender of his or her eligibility to request a sentencing review hearing 18 months before the juvenile offender becomes entitled to such review. Additionally, an eligible juvenile offender is entitled to be represented by counsel at the sentence review hearing, including a court appointed public defender, if the juvenile offender cannot afford an attorney.³⁴

Section 921.1402(6), F.S., requires the original sentencing court to consider any factor it deems appropriate during the sentence review hearing, including all of the following:

- Whether the offender demonstrates maturity and rehabilitation;
- Whether the offender remains at the same level of risk to society as he or she did at the time of the initial sentencing;
- The opinion of the victim or the victim's next of kin;³⁵
- Whether the offender was a relatively minor participant in the criminal offense or acted under extreme duress or the domination of another person;
- Whether the offender has shown sincere and sustained remorse for the criminal offense;
- Whether the offender's age, maturity, and psychological development at the time of the offense affected his or her behavior;

³³ Section 921.1402(2)(d), F.S.

³⁴ Section 921.1402(3)-(5), F.S.

³⁵ Section 921.1402(6)(c), F.S., further states that the absence of the victim or the victim's next of kin from the resentencing hearing may not be a factor in the court's determination. The victim or victim's next of kin is authorized to appear in person, in writing, or by electronic means. Additionally, if the victim or the victim's next of kin chooses not to participate in the hearing, the court may consider previous statements made by the victim or the victim's next of kin during the trial, initial sentencing phase, or subsequent sentence review hearings.

- Whether the offender has successfully obtained a general educational development certificate or completed another educational, technical, work, vocational, or self-rehabilitation program, if such a program is available;
- Whether the offender was a victim of sexual, physical, or emotional abuse before he or she committed the offense; and
- The results of any mental health assessment, risk assessment, or evaluation of the offender as to rehabilitation.³⁶

If a court, after conducting a sentence review hearing, finds that the juvenile offender has been rehabilitated and is reasonably fit to reenter society, the court must modify the offender's sentence and impose a term of probation of at least five years. If the court determines that the juvenile offender has not demonstrated rehabilitation or is not fit to reenter society, the court must issue an order in writing stating the reasons why the sentence is not being modified.³⁷

These sentencing provisions are limited to the juvenile offenders that fall under the strict findings in Graham and Miller.³⁸ Thus, the sentence review hearings do not currently apply to persons who were convicted and sentenced to very similar offenses and who are close in age to the juvenile offenders who have received sentence review hearings because of Graham and Miller.

Case Law Subsequent to CS/HB 7035 (2014)

Valid Sentence Options for Miller Offenders

Subsequent to the U.S. Supreme Court's holdings in Roper and Miller, the options for permissible sentences under Florida law for juveniles who were convicted of such capital and life offenses punishable by life imprisonment without the possibility of parole became unclear. The Florida Fifth District Court of Appeal in Horsley v. State,³⁹ held that the principal of statutory revival should be applied mandating that the last constitutional sentence, life with the possibility of parole after 25 years, should be imposed for convictions of such juveniles. However, in 2015, the Florida Supreme Court heard and overturned this decision in Horsley,⁴⁰ holding that the proper remedy for such juveniles convicted of offenses classified as capital offenses is to apply the sentencing provisions enacted by CS/HB 7035 (2014), which codified the above-mentioned ss. 775.082, 921.1401, and 921.1402, F.S., rather than utilize statutory revival principles and impose a sentence of life with the possibility of parole after 25 years.⁴¹

Retroactive Application of Miller

Another outstanding question at the time CS/HB 7035 (2014) was implemented was whether Miller applied retroactively in the same manner that Graham did. Other state and federal courts had issued differing opinions as to whether Miller applies retroactively. The question has turned on whether Miller is considered to be a procedural change in the law that does not apply retroactively to sentences that were final before the opinion was issued or an opinion of fundamental significance, similar to Graham.

The Florida Supreme Court decided this issue in Falcon v. State.⁴² The Court held that Miller applied retroactively because the ruling is a development of fundamental significance. The Court held that given, that Miller invalidated the only statutory means for imposing a sentence of life without the possibility of parole on juveniles convicted of a capital felony, it dramatically impacted the ability of Florida to impose a nondiscretionary sentence of life without parole on a juvenile convicted of a capital felony. Therefore, Falcon ensured that juvenile offenders whose convictions and sentences were final prior to the Miller decision could seek collateral relief based on it.⁴³

Impact of Parole or Conditional Release Options for Juvenile Offenders

The U.S. Supreme Court further distinguished the Graham and Miller progeny of cases with Virginia v. LeBlanc, which denied habeas corpus relief for the juvenile offender holding that release programs for prisoners that consider factors in a similar manner as parole, such as Virginia's geriatric release program, did not violate Graham or Miller because it provides a juvenile offender a meaningful opportunity for release. In LeBlanc, the Court reasoned that Virginia's geriatric release program considered individualized factors of the offender, such as the individual's rehabilitation and maturity, history and conduct before and during incarceration, his or her inter-personal relationships with staff and inmates, and development and growth in attitude toward himself, herself, and others.⁴⁴

The Florida Supreme Court has held that the Graham and Miller rules do not apply to juvenile offenders sentenced to life or lengthy terms of years equal to life, but who are eligible for parole.⁴⁵

Collateral Consequences of Felony Convictions

A collateral consequence is any adverse legal effect of a conviction that is not a part of a sentence.⁴⁶ If the consequence does not affect the range of punishment, it is said to be collateral to the plea.⁴⁷ Such consequences are legal and regulatory restrictions that limit or prohibit people convicted of crimes from accessing employment, business and occupational licensing, housing, voting, education, and other rights, benefits, and opportunities.⁴⁸ Some examples of collateral consequences that occur upon any felony conviction in Florida include the loss of the right to

Requirement to Provide Certain Information to Persons upon Release from Imprisonment

Entities that imprison persons convicted of offenses in violation of Florida law are required in certain circumstances to provide specified information to such persons upon release. For example, s. 944.705(6), F.S., requires the DOC to notify every inmate upon release, in no less than 18-point type in the inmate's release documents, that the inmate may be sentenced pursuant to s. 775.082(9), F.S., as a prison releasee reoffender as discussed below if the inmate commits any enumerated felony offense within 3 years after the inmate's release. Additionally, the notice must be prefaced by the word "WARNING" in boldfaced type.⁵⁶

Further, specified entities are required to provide inmates with certain information related to all outstanding terms of sentence in accordance with CS/SB 7066 (2019), related to voting rights restoration.⁵⁷ For example, ss. 944.705, and 948.041, F.S., require the DOC to notify an inmate or offender in writing of all outstanding terms of sentence at the time of release or termination of probation or community control.

Such entities are not currently required to provide inmates being released from their facilities information related to dates of his or her admission to and release from the custody of the facility, including the total length of the term of imprisonment from which he or she is being released.

Prison Releasee Reoffender

A prison releasee reoffender is a person who is being sentenced for committing or attempting to commit a qualifying offense, such as murder, manslaughter, sexual battery, or robbery,⁵⁸ within three years of being released from a:

- State correctional facility operated by the DOC or a private vendor;
- Correctional institution of another jurisdiction following incarceration for which the sentence is punishable by more than one year in Florida; or

The state is not be required to demonstrate that a person received any notice from the DOC in order for the court to impose a sentence pursuant to s. 775.082(9), F.S.

- County detention facility following incarceration for an offense for which the sentence pronounced was a prison sentence,⁵⁹ if the person is otherwise eligible.⁶⁰

A prison releasee reoffender also includes a person who commits or attempts to commit a qualifying offense while serving a prison sentence or while on escape status from a state correctional facility operated by the DOC or a private vendor or from a correctional institution of another jurisdiction.⁶¹

A person who qualifies as a prison releasee reoffender is subject to a mandatory minimum sentence. Specifically, a court must sentence a prison releasee reoffender to:

- A 5-year mandatory minimum for a third degree felony;
- A 15-year mandatory minimum for a second degree felony;
- A 30-year mandatory minimum term for a first degree felony; and
- Life imprisonment for a first degree felony punishable by life or a life felony.⁶²

Probation Supervision through the Department of Corrections

At sentencing, a judge may place an offender on probation or community control in lieu of or in addition to incarceration.⁶³ The DOC supervises more than 164,000 offenders on active community supervision. This includes offenders released from prison on parole, conditional release, or conditional medical release and offenders placed on court ordered supervision including probation, drug offender probation, sex offender probation, and community control.⁶⁴

Probation

Probation is a form of community supervision requiring specified contacts with probation officers and other conditions a court may impose to ensure the offender's compliance with the terms of the sentence and the safety to the community.⁶⁵ Section 948.03, F.S., provides that a court must determine the terms and conditions of probation. Standard conditions of probation that are enumerated in s. 948.03, F.S., are not required to be announced on the record, but the court must orally pronounce, as well as provide in writing, any special conditions of probation imposed.

Violations of Probation or Community Control

If an offender violates the terms of his or her probation or community control, the supervision can be revoked in accordance with s. 948.06, F.S.⁶⁶ A violation of probation (VOP) can be the result of a new violation of law or a technical violation of the conditions imposed. If reasonable grounds exist to believe that an offender has violated his or her terms of supervision in a material respect, an offender may be arrested without a warrant by a:

⁵⁹ In December of 2018, the Florida Supreme Court held that a defendant released from a county jail after having been committed to the legal custody of the DOC was not a prison releasee reoffender within the current meaning of that term as provided in s. 775.082, F.S. CS/HB 7125 (2019), codified in ch. 2019-167, L.O.F., amended s. 775.082(9), F.S., to include language to cure this issue. See State v. Lewars, 259 So.3d 793 (Fla. 2018).

- Law enforcement officer who is aware of the inmate’s supervised community release status;
- Probation officer; or
- County or municipal law enforcement officer upon request by a probation officer.⁶⁷

The offender must be returned to the court granting such probation.⁶⁸ Additionally, the committing court judge may issue a warrant, upon the facts being made known to him or her by affidavit of one having knowledge of such facts, for the arrest of the offender.⁶⁹

Upon a finding through a VOP hearing, a court may revoke, modify, or continue the supervision. If the court chooses to revoke the supervision, it may impose any sentence originally permissible before placing the offender on supervision.⁷⁰ In addition, if an offender qualifies as a violent felony offender of special concern (VFOSC), the court must revoke supervision, unless it makes written findings that the VFOSC does not pose a danger to the community.⁷¹ The VFOSC status also accrues sentence points under the Code, which affects the scoring of the lowest permissible sentence.⁷²

Until recently, Article X, Section 9 of the State Constitution (Florida’s constitutional savings clause) expressly prohibited any repeal or amendment of a criminal statute that affected prosecution or punishment for any crime previously committed, and therefore, the Florida Legislature was “powerless to lessen penalties for past transgressions; to do so would require constitutional revision.”⁷³

In 2018, Florida voters adopted the following amendment to Article X, Section 9 of the State Constitution:

~~Repeal or amendment~~ of a criminal statute shall not affect prosecution or punishment for any crime ~~previously~~ committed before such repeal.

Revised Art. X, s. 9 of the State Constitution only prohibits applying the repeal of a criminal statute to any crime committed before such repeal if this retroactive application “affects prosecution.” The revised constitutional savings clause does not expressly prohibit retroactive application of a repeal that does not affect prosecution, a repeal that affects punishment, or an amendment of a criminal statute that affects prosecution or punishment.

⁶⁹ Section 948.06(1)(b), F.S. The committing trial court judge may also issue a notice to appear if the probationer or controllee has never been convicted of committing, and is not currently alleged to have committed, a qualifying offense as enumerated in s. 948.06(8)(c), F.S.

⁷³ Comment, Today’s Law and Yesterday’s Crime: Retroactive Application of Ameliorative Criminal Legislation, 121 U. Pa. L. Rev. 120, 129 (1972).

The elimination of the expressed prohibition on certain retroactive applications is not a directive to the Legislature to retroactively apply what was formerly prohibited. As the Florida Supreme Court recently stated: "... [T]here will no longer be any provision in the Florida Constitution that would prohibit the Legislature from applying an amended criminal statute retroactively to pending prosecutions or sentences. However, nothing in our constitution does or will require the Legislature to do so, and the repeal of the prohibition will not require that they do so."⁷⁴

In 2019, the Legislature created s. 775.022, F.S., a general savings statute for criminal statutes. The statute defines a "criminal statute" as a statute, whether substantive or procedural, dealing in any way with a crime or its punishment, defining a crime or a defense to a crime, or providing for the punishment of a crime.⁷⁵

The statute specifies legislative intent to preclude:

- Application of the common law doctrine of abatement to a reenactment or an amendment of a criminal statute; and
- Construction of a reenactment or amendment as a repeal or an implied repeal⁷⁶ of a criminal statute for purposes of Article X, Section 9 of the State Constitution (Florida's constitutional savings clause).⁷⁷

The statute also states that, except as expressly provided in an act of the Legislature or as provided in two specified exceptions, the reenactment or amendment of a criminal statute operates prospectively and does not affect or abate any of the following:

- The prior operation of the statute or a prosecution or enforcement under the criminal statute;
- A violation of the criminal statute based on any act or omission occurring before the effective date of the act; and
- A prior penalty, prior forfeiture, or prior punishment incurred or imposed under the statute.⁷⁸

The first exception is a retroactive amelioration exception that provides that if a penalty, forfeiture, or punishment for a violation of a criminal statute is reduced by a reenactment or an amendment of a criminal statute, the penalty, forfeiture, or punishment, if not already imposed, must be imposed according to the statute as amended.⁷⁹ This means the penalty, forfeiture, or punishment reduction must be imposed retroactively if the sentence has not been imposed, including the situation in which the sentence is imposed after the effective date of the amendment. However, nothing in the general savings statute precludes the Legislature from providing for a more extensive retroactive application either to legislation in the future or legislation that was enacted prior to the effective date of the general savings statute. This is because the general savings statute specifically provides for a legislative exception to the default position of prospectivity. The Legislature only has to “expressly provide” for this retroactive application.⁸⁰

The second exception relates to defenses and provides that the general savings statute does not limit the retroactive effect of any defense to a criminal statute enacted or amended by the Legislature to any criminal case that has not yet reached final judgment.⁸¹

In 2018, the Florida voters approved Amendment 6 on the ballot, which provided certain rights to victims in the Florida Constitution. In part, Article I, s. 16 of the Florida Constitution, provides that a victim must have the following rights upon request:

- Reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of, and to be present at, all public proceedings involving the criminal conduct, including, but not limited to, trial, plea, sentencing, or adjudication, even if the victim will be a witness at the proceeding, notwithstanding any rule to the contrary.
- To be heard in any public proceeding involving pretrial or other release from any form of legal constraint, plea, sentencing, adjudication, or parole, and any proceeding during which a right of the victim is implicated.
- To be informed of the conviction, sentence, adjudication, place and time of incarceration, or other disposition of the convicted offender, any scheduled release date of the offender, and the release of or the escape of the offender from custody.
- To be informed of all postconviction processes and procedures, to participate in such processes and procedures, to provide information to the release authority to be considered before any release decision is made, and to be notified of any release decision regarding the offender.⁸²

Florida law defines “tuition” to mean the basic fee charged to a student for instruction provided by a public postsecondary educational institution in the state.⁸³ Residency designations are used for assessing tuition in postsecondary educational programs offered by charter technical career centers or career centers operated by school districts, in Florida College System institutions, and in state universities.⁸⁴ Students who are not classified as “residents for tuition purposes”⁸⁵ are required to pay the full cost of instruction at a public postsecondary institution. A person is able to meet the definition of a “legal resident” if the person has maintained his or her residence in Florida for the preceding year, has purchased a home which is occupied by him or her as his or her residence, or has established a domicile in this state.⁸⁶

Specifically, to qualify as a resident for tuition purposes:

- Every applicant for admission to an institution of higher education is required to make a statement as to his or her length of residence and establish that his or her presence or, if the applicant is a dependent child, the presence of his or her parent or parents in Florida currently is, and during the requisite 12-month qualifying period was, for the purpose of maintaining a bona fide domicile.⁸⁷

A person must show certain proof that he or she should be classified as a resident for tuition purposes and may not receive the in-state tuition rate until clear and convincing evidence related to legal residence and its duration has been provided. Each institution of higher education must make a residency determination that is documented by the submission of written or electronic verification that includes two or more specified documents that:

- Must include at least one of the following:
 - A Florida voter's registration card.
 - A Florida driver license.
 - A State of Florida identification card.
 - A Florida vehicle registration.
 - Proof of a permanent home in Florida which is occupied as a primary residence by the individual or by the individual's parent if the individual is a dependent child.
 - Proof of a homestead exemption in Florida.
 - Transcripts from a Florida high school for multiple years if the Florida high school diploma or high school equivalency diploma was earned within the last 12 months.
 - Proof of permanent full-time employment in Florida for at least 30 hours per week for a 12-month period.
- May include one or more of the following:
 - A declaration of domicile in Florida.
 - A Florida professional or occupational license.
 - Florida incorporation.
 - A document evidencing family ties in Florida.
 - Proof of membership in a Florida-based charitable or professional organization.
 - Any other documentation that supports the student's request for resident status, including, but not limited to, utility bills and proof of 12 consecutive months of payments; a lease agreement and proof of 12 consecutive months of payments; or an official state, federal, or court document evidencing legal ties to Florida.⁸⁸

Florida law is silent as to whether time incarcerated in a Florida prison or county detention facility may count toward the 12-month legal residency requirements.

The DOC reports that this pilot program allows eligible inmates to access Pell Grant funds for post-secondary education. Such funds accessed through the grant must be used to cover the costs of tuition, fees, books, and supplies. The DOC is currently attempting to expand post-secondary opportunities for inmates in collaboration with several Florida colleges and universities.⁸⁹

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill provides that the act may be cited as “The Second Look Act.”

Sentence Review Hearings for Specified Offenders

Juvenile Offenders

As discussed above, a juvenile offender sentenced to a sentence of life without parole for a capital felony⁹⁰ where a finding was made that he or she actually killed, intended to kill, or attempted to kill the victim is entitled to a review of his or her sentence after 25 years if he or she has never previously been convicted of a specified enumerated felony.⁹¹ The bill amends the list of enumerated offenses that prohibit such juvenile offenders from having a sentence review hearing to only include murder. Therefore, the bill provides such a juvenile offender is only prohibited from having a sentence review hearing if he or she has previously been convicted of committing or conspiracy to commit murder, if the murder for which the person was previously convicted was part of a separate criminal transaction or episode than that which resulted in the sentence.

The bill also creates s. 921.14021, F.S., providing for the retroactive application of the above mentioned amendment to remove certain prior convictions as a prohibition for a juvenile offender to have a sentence review hearing in accordance with s. 921.1402(2)(a), F.S. The bill requires that a juvenile offender is entitled to a review of his or her sentence after 25 years or, if 25 years on the term of imprisonment has already been served by July 1, 2020, the sentence review hearing must be conducted immediately. The bill provides legislative findings related to the retroactive application of such provisions.

Because the bill expressly provides for retroactive application of the changes the bill makes, the bill has provided a legislative exception to the default position of prospectively.

Young Adult Offenders

The bill creates s. 921.1403, F.S., expanding the sentence review hearing process created by CS/HB 7035 (2014) for juveniles in response to the Graham and Miller cases to persons convicted of similar offenses, but who were not entitled to a sentence review hearing.

⁸⁹ The DOC, Agency Analysis for SB 1308, February 3, 2020, p. 4 (on file with the Senate Criminal Justice Committee) (hereinafter cited as “The DOC SB 1308 Analysis”).

⁹⁰ In violation of s. 782.04, F.S.

⁹¹ See ss. 775.082(1)(b)1. and 921.1402, F.S.

The bill defines the term “young adult offender” to mean a person who committed an offense before he or she reached 25 years of age and for which he or she is sentenced to a term of years in the custody of the DOC, regardless of the date of sentencing. The bill also provides that the provisions allowing sentence review hearings of young adult offenders applies retroactively.

The sentence review procedures and hearing process are substantively identical to those in place for juvenile offenders in accordance with s. 921.1402, F.S., and discussed above. However, the eligibility criteria for a young adult offender to have a sentence review hearing is different.

Eligibility

The bill prohibits a young adult offender convicted of a violation of s. 782.04, F.S., related to homicide, which is punishable by death from being eligible for a sentence review hearing. The bill only permits young adult offenders convicted of offenses that are life or first degree felony offenses to be eligible for a sentence review hearing in accordance with s. 921.1403, F.S.

The bill excludes a young adult offender convicted and sentenced for certain life felony or first degree felony⁹² offenses from a sentence review if he or she has previously been convicted of committing, or of conspiring to commit murder, if such prior offense was part of a separate criminal transaction or episode than the offense that resulted in the sentence.

The bill provides that a young adult offender who is convicted of an offense that is a:

- Life felony, or that was reclassified as a life felony, and who is sentenced to a term of more than 20 years⁹³ is entitled to a review of his or her sentence after 20 years.⁹⁴
- Felony of the first degree or that was reclassified as a felony of the first degree and who is sentenced to a term of more than 15 years⁹⁵ is entitled to a review of his or her sentence after 15 years.

Procedures for Initiating the Sentence Review Hearing Process

Similar to the process developed in s. 921.1402(3), F.S., applicable to a juvenile offender, the bill provides that the DOC must notify a young adult offender in writing of his or her eligibility to request a sentence review hearing:

- 18 months before the young adult offender is entitled to a sentence review hearing if such offender is not eligible when the bill becomes effective; or
- Immediately if the offender is eligible as of July 1, 2020.

A young adult offender seeking a sentence review must submit an application to the original sentencing court requesting that the court hold a sentence review hearing. The bill provides that such court retains jurisdiction for the duration of the sentence for this purpose. The bill also provides that a young adult offender who is eligible for a sentence review hearing may be represented by an attorney, who must be appointed by the court if the young adult offender cannot afford an attorney.

⁹⁴ The bill provides that this does not apply to a person who is eligible for sentencing under s. 775.082(3)(a)5., F.S., which only applies to an offender who committed the offense before attaining the age of 18 years.

⁹⁵ Pursuant to s. 775.082(3)(b)1., F.S.

Sentence Review Hearing

The bill requires the court to hold a sentence review hearing to determine whether to modify the young adult offender's sentence upon receiving an application for such hearing. The court is required to consider any factor it deems appropriate to determine the appropriateness of modifying the young adult offender's sentence, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

- Whether the young adult offender demonstrates maturity and rehabilitation.
- Whether the young adult offender remains at the same level of risk to society as he or she did at the time of the initial sentencing.
- The opinion of the victim or the victim's next of kin.⁹⁶
- Whether the young adult offender was a relatively minor participant in the criminal offense or whether he or she acted under extreme duress or under the domination of another person.
- Whether the young adult offender has shown sincere and sustained remorse for the criminal offense.
- Whether the young adult offender's age, maturity, or psychological development at the time of the offense affected his or her behavior.
- Whether the young adult offender has successfully obtained a high school equivalency diploma or completed another educational, technical, work, vocational, or self-rehabilitation program, if such a program is available.
- Whether the young adult offender was a victim of sexual, physical, or emotional abuse before he or she committed the offense.
- The results of any mental health assessment, risk assessment, or evaluation of the young adult offender as to rehabilitation.

These enumerated factors mirror the criteria used for the sentence review hearings conducted for juvenile offenders in accordance with s. 921.1402(6), F.S and applies retroactively to a young adult offender who is eligible.

Terms of Release for Young Adult Offenders Resentenced Pursuant to s. 921.1403, F.S.

The terms that a young adult offender must comply with if he or she is resentenced under the bill are similar to those that a juvenile offender must comply with if resentenced in accordance with s. 921.1402, F.S.

Upon conducting the sentence review hearing, the court may modify the young adult offender's sentence if the court makes a determination that the young adult offender is rehabilitated and is reasonably believed to be fit to reenter society. The court must modify the sentence to a term of probation for at least:

⁹⁶ The bill states that the absence of the victim or the victim's next of kin from the hearing may not be a factor in the determination of the court. The court must allow the victim or victim's next of kin to be heard in person, in writing, or by electronic means. Finally, if the victim or the victim's next of kin chooses not to participate in the hearing, the court may consider previous statements made by the victim or the victim's next of kin during the trial, initial sentencing phase, or previous sentencing review hearings.

- Five years, if the young adult offender was originally sentenced for a life felony, or an offense reclassified as a life felony; or
- Three years, if the young adult offender was originally sentenced for a first degree felony, or an offense reclassified as a first degree felony.

However, the bill prohibits the court from resentencing a young adult offender if the court determines that he or she has not demonstrated rehabilitation or is not fit to reenter society and requires the court to issue a written order stating the reasons why the sentence is not being modified.

Subsequent Reviews

The bill allows a young adult offender to have one subsequent sentence review hearing after five years if he or she is not resentenced at the initial sentence review hearing. The bill requires the young adult offender seeking a subsequent sentence review hearing to submit a new application to the original sentencing court to request a subsequent sentence review hearing.

Prison Releasee Reoffenders

As stated above, a person sentenced as a prison releasee reoffender:

- Must serve 100 percent of the court-imposed sentence;
- May only be released when his or her sentence expires; and
- Is not eligible for parole, control release, or any form of early release.

The bill amends s. 775.082(9)(b), F.S., providing an exception to this requirement that allows an inmate who meets the above definitions of a juvenile offender or young adult offender eligible for a sentence review hearing under s. 921.1402, F.S., or s. 921.1403, F.S., to be resentenced and released from imprisonment if a court deems the resentencing appropriate in accordance with the review requirements as discussed above.

Incarceration Counting Toward Tuition Residency Requirements

The bill amends s. 1009.21(2), F.S., authorizing time spent incarcerated in a county detention facility or state correctional facility to apply towards the requirement to reside in Florida through an authorized manner for 12 consecutive months immediately before enrollment for the designation as a resident for tuition purposes. The bill also amends s. 1009.21(3), F.S., requiring time spent incarcerated in a county detention facility⁹⁷ or state correctional facility⁹⁸ to be credited toward the residency requirement, with any combination of documented time living in Florida before and after incarceration.

Further, the bill amends s. 944.705, F.S., and creates s. 951.30, F.S., requiring the DOC and administrators of county detention facilities, respectively, to provide documentation to inmates

⁹⁷ Section 951.23(1)(a), F.S., defines “county detention facility” to mean a county jail, a county stockade, a county work camp, a county residential probation center, and any other place except a municipal detention facility used by a county or county officer for the detention of persons charged with or convicted of either felony or misdemeanor.

⁹⁸ Section 944.02(8), F.S., defines “state correctional institution” to mean any prison, road camp, prison industry, prison forestry camp, or any prison camp or prison farm or other correctional facility, temporary or permanent, in which prisoners are housed, worked, or maintained, under the custody and jurisdiction of the DOC.

upon release specifying the dates of the inmate's admission to and release from the custody of the facility. This notification must include the total length of the term of imprisonment from which he or she is being released.

This documentation will assist inmates with providing the proper evidence to satisfy residency requirements for tuition purposes pursuant to s. 1009.21(3), F.S.

Office of Program Policy and Governmental Accountability (OPPAGA) Study on Collateral Consequences

The bill requires the OPPAGA to conduct a study to evaluate the various opportunities available to persons returning to the community from imprisonment. The bill provides that the study's scope must include, but need not be limited to:

- Any barriers to such opportunities;
- The collateral consequences that are present, if applicable, for persons who are released from incarceration into the community; and
- Methods for reducing the collateral consequences identified.

The bill requires the OPPAGA to submit a report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives by November 1, 2020 on its findings.

The bill is effective July 1, 2020.

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference, which provides the final, official estimate of the prison bed impact, if any, of legislation reviewed the bill on February 10, 2020. The conference estimates the bill will have a “negative significant” prison bed impact (a decrease of more than 25 prison beds). The EDR provided the following information relevant to its estimate:⁹⁹

“Per DOC, there are currently 4,259 inmates who are potentially eligible for sentencing review under the amended language. It is not known how the courts will respond to those who are potentially eligible, therefore the impact on prison beds cannot be quantified. However, given the large number of inmates currently fitting this criteria, there is expected to be a significant impact.”¹⁰⁰

Based on the number of inmates that would require notification or resentencing, the DOC would need one Correctional Services Consultant to perform these duties. If these inmates are resentenced, this will increase the work load for the Victim Services to provide victim notification upon release. It is anticipated that the Department will need one position to notify the young adult offender in writing of their entitlement to a sentencing review hearing and technology impact due the changes that will need to be made to CPC and the sentencing screens in OBIS due to minimum mandatory sentencing changes at an estimated cost of $111,867.¹⁰¹

The DOC reports that there are 37 inmates eligible for review based on the changes made to s. 921.1402, F.S., and the retroactive application of such changes. Additionally, the DOC states that there are 5,312 potentially eligible young adult offenders that will require eligibility notification under the newly-created s. 921.1403, F.S.

The bill will increase judicial workload because there will be more re-sentencings. The amount of the increase is unclear. In addition, the fiscal impact of this legislation cannot be accurately determined due to the unavailability of data needed to quantifiably establish the increase in judicial workload resulting from resentencing cases.¹⁰²

The Public Defender Association states that they currently represent a large majority of the juvenile offenders who are seeking to be resentenced, but the bill adds adult offenders who committed their offenses between the ages of 18-25. Since this is also retroactive, it would apply to already-sentenced offenders who are currently serving life sentences. Just as it has been for the juvenile offenders who have been eligible for resentencing since 2014, there would be a significant time period requiring intense investigation, preparation, and advocacy for a large number of eligible offenders. Therefore, it is anticipated that this bill will create more workload for public defender staff for the next several fiscal years.¹⁰³

Juvenile and Young Adult Offenders Sentenced as Prison Releasee Reoffenders

The DOC provides that there are approximately 110 inmates that may be eligible for a sentence review hearing under the changes made to s. 775.082(9), F.S. To the extent that the bill results in juvenile or young adult offenders being released from prison earlier than otherwise may occur as a result of such sentence review hearings, the DOC provides that this provision of the bill result is an indeterminate prison bed impact (i.e. an unquantifiable decrease in prison beds) and an indeterminate impact on the supervision population managed by the DOC.¹⁰⁴

Notification of Certain Release Information

The bill requires the DOC and county detention facilities to provide inmates certain information related to the length of incarceration. The DOC states that inmates in its custody often have multiple sentences with various admission dates, release dates, and terms imposed. Further, each sentence length is calculated individually based on a number of factors and therefore an inmate may have multiple endpoints of their various sentences. The DOC provides that this provision of the bill will require significant programming changes, but such necessary changes are not specified by the DOC.¹⁰⁵

Residency for Tuition Purposes

The bill allows time incarcerated in a Florida facility to count towards the 12-month residency requirement for tuition purposes and requires the DOC and county detention facilities to provide certain information to inmates upon release from such facilities. To the extent that the requirement to provide such notification increases the workload of the DOC and county detention facilities, the bill may result in an indeterminate fiscal impact.

However, this provision will greatly benefit the DOC in its expansion efforts to offer post-secondary programming to this population.¹⁰⁶

Additionally, to the extent that the bill results in additional persons enrolling in postsecondary education in Florida that would otherwise have been unable to do so, there could be a positive fiscal impact to such postsecondary entities.

115 921.14021 Retroactive application relating to s. 921.1402;

20201308c1

117 (1) It is the intent of the Legislature to retroactively
 118 apply the amendments made to s. 921.1402 which are effective on 119 July 1, 2020, only as provided in this section, to juvenile
 120 offenders convicted of a capital offense and sentenced under s.
 121 775.082(1)(b)1. who have been ineligible for sentence review
 122 hearings because of a previous conviction of an offense
 123 enumerated in s. 921.1402(2)(a) thereby providing such juvenile 124 offenders with an opportunity for consideration by a court and
 125 an opportunity for release if deemed appropriate under law.

126 (2) A juvenile offender, as defined in s. 921.1402, who was
 127 convicted for a capital offense and sentenced under s.
 128 775.082(1)(b)1., and who was ineligible for a sentence review

 130 July 1, 2020, is entitled to a review of his or her sentence
 131 after 25 years or, if on July 1, 2020, 25 years have already
 132 passed since the sentencing, immediately.

133 Section 5. Section 921.1403, Florida Statutes, is created
 134 to read:

135 921.1403 Review of sentences for persons convicted of
 136 specified offenses committed while under 25 years of age.-

137 (1) As used in this section, the term "young adult
 138 offender" means a person who committed an offense before he or 139 she reached 25 years of age and for which he or she is sentenced
 140 to a term of years in the custody of the Department of
 141 Corrections, regardless of the date of sentencing.

142 (2) A young adult offender is not entitled to a sentence
 143 review under this section if he or she has previously been
 144 convicted of committing, or of conspiring to commit, murder if 145 the murder offense for which the person was previously convicted

591-03084-20

20201308c1

146 was part of a separate criminal transaction or episode than that 147 which resulted in the sentence under s. 775.082(3)(a)1., 2., 3.,
 148 4., or 6., or (b)1.

149 (3)(a)1. A young adult offender who is convicted of an
 150 offense that is a life felony, that is punishable by a term of 151 years not exceeding life imprisonment, or that was reclassified
 152 as a life felony, which was committed after the person attained
 153 18 years of age and who is sentenced to a term of more than 20
 154 years under s. 775.082(3)(a)1., 2., 3., 4., or 6., is entitled
 155 to a review of his or her sentence after 20 years.

156 2. This paragraph does not apply to a person who is 157 eligible for sentencing under s. 775.082(3)(a)5.

158 (b) A young adult offender who is convicted of an offense
 159 that is a felony of the first degree or that was reclassified as 160 a felony of the first degree and who is sentenced to a term of 161 more than 15 years under s. 775.082(3)(b)1. is entitled to a
 162 review of his or her sentence after 15 years.

163 (4) The Department of Corrections must notify a young adult
 164 offender in writing of his or her eligibility to request a
 165 sentence review hearing 18 months before the young adult
 166 offender is entitled to a sentence review hearing or notify him
 167 or her immediately in writing if the offender is eligible as of 168 July 1, 2020.

169 (5) A young adult offender seeking a sentence review under 170 this section must submit an application to the original
 171 sentencing court requesting that the court hold a sentence
 172 review hearing. The young adult offender seeking a subsequent 173 sentence review hearing must submit a new application to the
 174 original sentencing court to request a subsequent sentence

591-03084-20

20201308c1

175 review hearing pursuant to subsection (7). The original 176 sentencing court retains jurisdiction for the duration of the 177 sentence for this purpose.

178 (6) A young adult offender who is eligible for a sentence
 179 review hearing under this section is entitled to be represented
 180 by an attorney, and the court must appoint a public defender to 181 represent the young adult offender if he or she cannot afford an 182 attorney.

183 (7) (a) If the young adult offender seeking sentence review
 184 under paragraph (3) (a) is not resentenced at the initial
 185 sentence review hearing, he or she is eligible for one
 186 subsequent review hearing 5 years after the initial review
 187 hearing.

188 (b) If the young adult offender seeking sentence review
 189 under paragraph (3) (b) is not resentenced at the initial
 190 sentence review hearing, he or she is eligible for one
 191 subsequent review hearing 5 years after the initial review
 192 hearing.

193 (8) Upon receiving an application from an eligible young
 194 adult offender, the original sentencing court must hold a
 195 sentence review hearing to determine whether to modify the young
 196 adult offender's sentence. When determining if it is appropriate
 197 to modify the young adult offender's sentence, the court must
 198 consider any factor it deems appropriate, including, but not
 199 limited to, any of the following:

200 (a) Whether the young adult offender demonstrates maturity
 201 and rehabilitation.

202 (b) Whether the young adult offender remains at the same
 203 level of risk to society as he or she did at the time of the

591-03084-20

20201308c1

204 initial sentencing.

205 (c) The opinion of the victim or the victim's next of kin.
 206 The absence of the victim or the victim's next of kin from the 207 sentence review hearing may not be a factor in the determination
 208 of the court under this section. The court must allow the victim
 209 or victim's next of kin to be heard in person, in writing, or by
 210 electronic means. If the victim or the victim's next of kin
 211 chooses not to participate in the hearing, the court may
 212 consider previous statements made by the victim or the victim's
 213 next of kin during the trial, initial sentencing phase, or
 214 previous sentencing review hearings.

215 (d) Whether the young adult offender was a relatively minor
 216 participant in the criminal offense or whether he or she acted
 217 under extreme duress or under the domination of another person.

218 (e) Whether the young adult offender has shown sincere and
 219 sustained remorse for the criminal offense.

220 (f) Whether the young adult offender's age, maturity, or
 221 psychological development at the time of the offense affected
 222 his or her behavior.

223 (g) Whether the young adult offender has successfully
 224 obtained a high school equivalency diploma or completed another
 225 educational, technical, work, vocational, or self-rehabilitation
 226 program, if such a program is available.

227 (h) Whether the young adult offender was a victim of 228 sexual, physical, or emotional abuse before he or she committed
 229 the offense.

230 (i) The results of any mental health assessment, risk
 231 assessment, or evaluation of the young adult offender as to
 232 rehabilitation.

591-03084-20

20201308c1

233 (9) (a) If the court determines at a sentence review hearing
 234 that the young adult offender who is seeking sentence review
 235 under paragraph (3) (a) has been rehabilitated and is reasonably
 236 believed to be fit to reenter society, the court may modify the 237 sentence and impose a term of probation of at least 5 years.

238 (b) If the court determines at a sentence review hearing
 239 that the young adult offender who is seeking sentence review
 240 under paragraph (3) (b) has been rehabilitated and is reasonably
 241 believed to be fit to reenter society, the court may modify the 242 sentence and impose a term of probation of at least 3 years.

243 (c) If the court determines that the young adult offender
 244 seeking sentence review under paragraph (3) (a) or (3) (b) has not
 245 demonstrated rehabilitation or is not fit to reenter society,

 258 as that term is defined in s. 98.0751. This subparagraph does
 259 not apply to inmates who are being released from the custody of 260 the department to any type of supervision monitored by the 261 department;

591-03084-20

20201308c1

262 2. Of the dates of admission to and release from the 263 custody of the department, including the total length of the 264 term of imprisonment for which he or she is being released; and 265 ~~3.2.~~ In not less than 18-point type, that the inmate may be

 269 "WARNING" in boldfaced type.

270 Section 7. Section 951.30, Florida Statutes, is created to 271 read:

272 951.30 Release documents requirements.—The administrator of 273 a county detention facility must provide to each inmate upon
 274 release from the custody of the facility the dates of his or her
 275 admission to and release from the custody of the facility,
 276 including the total length of the term of imprisonment from 277 which he or she is being released.

278 Section 8. Paragraph (a) of subsection (2) and paragraphs
 279 (b) and (c) of subsection (3) of section 1009.21, Florida
 280 Statutes, are amended to read:

281 1009.21 Determination of resident status for tuition
 282 purposes.—Students shall be classified as residents or

 284 postsecondary educational programs offered by charter technical 285 career centers or career centers operated by school districts,
 286 in Florida College System institutions, and in state
 287 universities.

288 (2) (a) To qualify as a resident for tuition purposes:

289 1. A person or, if that person is a dependent child, his or 290 her parent or parents must have established legal residence in

591-03084-20 20201308c1

291 this state and must have maintained legal residence in this
 292 state for at least 12 consecutive months immediately before

 295 enrollment may include time spent incarcerated in a county
 296 detention facility or state correctional facility.

297 2. Every applicant for admission to an institution of 298 higher education shall be required to make a statement as to his 299 or her length of residence in the state and, further, shall 300 establish that his or her presence or, if the applicant is a
 301 dependent child, the presence of his or her parent or parents in 302 the state currently is, and during the requisite 12-month
 303 qualifying period was, for the purpose of maintaining a bona
 304 fide domicile, rather than for the purpose of maintaining a mere 305 temporary residence or abode incident to enrollment in an 306 institution of higher education.

307 (3)

308 (b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, evidence
 309 of legal residence and its duration shall include clear and 310 convincing documentation that residency in this state was for a
 311 minimum of 12 consecutive months prior to a student's initial 312 enrollment in an institution of higher education. Time spent
 313 incarcerated in a county detention facility or state
 314 correctional facility must be credited toward the residency
 315 requirement, with any combination of documented time living in 316 Florida before and after incarceration.

317 (c) Each institution of higher education shall 318 affirmatively determine that an applicant who has been granted
 319 admission to that institution as a Florida resident meets the

591-03084-20 20201308c1

320 residency requirements of this section at the time of initial 321 enrollment. The residency determination must be documented by 322 the submission of written or electronic verification that 323 includes two or more of the documents identified in this

 333 parent if the individual is a dependent child.
- 334 f. Proof of a homestead exemption in Florida.
- 335 g. Transcripts from a Florida high school for multiple 336 years if the Florida high school diploma or high school
 337 equivalency diploma was earned within the last 12 months.
- 338 h. Proof of permanent full-time employment in Florida for 339 at least 30 hours per week for a 12-month period.

340 2. The documents may include one or more of the following:

- 341 a. A declaration of domicile in Florida.
- 342 b. A Florida professional or occupational license.
- 343 c. Florida incorporation.
- 344 d. A document evidencing family ties in Florida.
- 345 e. Proof of membership in a Florida-based charitable or 346 professional organization.

20201308c1

349 utility bills and proof of 12 consecutive months of payments; a
350 lease agreement and proof of 12 consecutive months of payments;
351 or an official local, state, federal, or court document
352 evidencing legal ties to Florida.

353 Section 9. The Office of Program Policy and Governmental 354 Accountability (OPPAGA) must conduct a study to evaluate the 355 various opportunities available to persons returning to the 356 community from imprisonment. The study's scope must include, but 357 need not be limited to, any barriers to such opportunities; the 358 collateral consequences that are present, if applicable, for 359 persons who are released from incarceration into the community;
360 and methods for reducing the collateral consequences identified.
361 OPPAGA must submit a report to the Governor, the President of 362 the Senate, the Minority Leader of the Senate, the Speaker of

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

PCS/SB 1344 establishes a new certificate of need (CON) exemption for an intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled (ICFDD) for use by individuals exhibiting severe maladaptive behaviors and co-occurring psychiatric diagnoses requiring increased levels of behavioral, medical, and therapeutic oversight. The bill specifies requirements that the ICFDD must meet in order to obtain the CON exemption and establishes additional licensure criteria for an ICFDD that has been granted the CON exemption.

The bill will have a negative yet indeterminate fiscal impact on the Florida Medicaid program and the Agency for Health Care Administration.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

Intermediate Care Facilities for the Developmentally Disabled

An intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled (ICFDD) provides care and residence for individuals with developmental disabilities. A developmental disability is a disorder or syndrome that is attributable to intellectual disability, cerebral palsy, autism, spina bifida, Down syndrome, Phelan-McDermid syndrome, or Prader-Willi syndrome; that manifests before the age of 18; and that constitutes a substantial handicap that can reasonably be expected to continue indefinitely.¹

The licensure of ICFDDs is controlled by Part VIII of ch. 400, F.S., and Chapter 59A-26, F.A.C. Additionally, as a health care facility, as defined in s. 408.032, F.S., prior to obtaining licensure, the ICFDD applicant must obtain a CON from the Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA).

CON Overview

In Florida, a CON is a written statement issued by the AHCA evidencing community need for a new, converted, expanded, or otherwise significantly modified health care facility or health service, including hospices. The Florida CON program has three levels of review: comparative, expedited, and exempt.² Florida's CON program has existed since July 1973. From 1974 through 1986, the specifics of the program were largely dictated by the federal National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974 (Act), which established minimum requirements regarding the type of services subject to CON review, review procedures, and review criteria.³ Each state was required to have a CON program in compliance with the Act as a condition for obtaining federal funds for health programs. The Act was repealed in 1986.⁴

Determination of Need, Application, and Review Processes

A CON is predicated on a determination of need. The future need for services and projects is known as the "fixed need pool,"⁵ which the AHCA publishes for each batching cycle. Rule 59C-1, F.A.C., provides need formulas to calculate the fixed need pool for certain services, including NICU services,⁶ adult and child psychiatric services,⁷ adult substance abuse services,⁸ and comprehensive rehabilitation services.⁹

Upon determining that a need exists, the AHCA accepts applications for CON based on batching cycles. CON application fees include a base fee of $10,000 and an additional fee of 1.5 cents for each dollar of the proposed project expenditures up to a maximum combined total of $50,000.¹⁰ A batching cycle is a means of grouping, for comparative review, of CON applications submitted for beds, services, or programs having a like CON need methodology or licensing category in the same planning horizon and the same applicable district or subdistrict.¹¹

Severe Maladaptive Behaviors

Maladaptive behaviors are those behaviors that are disruptive, destructive, aggressive, or significantly repetitive.¹² The Florida Agency for Persons with Disabilities (APD) has developed a Global Behavioral Service Need Matrix (Matrix) in order to classify the severity of person's maladaptive behavior.¹³ The Matrix categorizes symptoms of maladaptive behaviors such as behavior frequency, behavioral impact, physical aggression to others, police involvement, property destruction, and elopement/wandering, among others. Each symptom is ranked on a scale of one to six, with one being the least severe and six being the most severe. If a symptom is not present, it is ranked as a zero. Based on their behavior score, the person will be evaluated for services. The initial evaluation period is 12 months and then the frequency of evaluations afterwards depends on the severity of the person's score, with a need level of six being evaluated more frequently than a need level of one.¹⁴

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill amends s. 408.036, F.S., to create a CON exemption for a new ICFDD which has a total of 24 beds, comprising three eight-bed homes, for use by individuals exhibiting severe maladaptive behaviors and co-occurring psychiatric diagnoses requiring increased levels of behavioral, medical, and therapeutic oversight. In order to obtain the exemption, The ICFDD must not have had a license denied, revoked, or suspended within the 36 months preceding the request for an exemption and must have at least 10 years of experience serving individuals with severe maladaptive behaviors in this state. The AHCA is prohibited from granting an additional exemption to an ICFDD that has been granted an exemption under these provisions unless the facility has been licensed and operational for a period of at least two years. Additionally, the bill specifies that the exemption does not require a specific appropriation.

The bill also amends s. 400.962, F.S., to establish additional licensure and application requirements for an ICFDD that has been granted the CON exemption, including:

- The total number of beds per home within the facility may not exceed eight, with each resident having his or her own bedroom and bathroom. Each eight-bed home must be co-located on the same property with two other eight-bed homes and must serve individuals with severe maladaptive behaviors and co-occurring psychiatric diagnoses.
- A minimum of 16 beds within the facility must be designated for individuals with severe maladaptive behaviors who have been assessed using the Matrix with a score of at least Level 4 and up to Level 6, or assessed using criteria deemed appropriate by the AHCA regarding the need for a specialized placement in an ICFDD.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 1344 establishes a new certificate of need (CON) exemption for an intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled (ICFDD) for use by individuals exhibiting severe maladaptive behaviors and co-occurring psychiatric diagnoses requiring increased levels of behavioral, medical, and therapeutic oversight. The bill specifies requirements that the ICFDD must meet in order to obtain the CON exemption and establishes additional licensure criteria for an ICFDD that has been granted the CON exemption.

The bill prohibits the AHCA from granting more than three CON exemptions, and requires the CON exemptions to terminate 18 months after being issued, unless construction on the project has begun.

The bill will have a negative yet indeterminate fiscal impact on the Florida Medicaid program and the Agency for Health Care Administration.

The CON exemption provided under the bill sunsets on July 1, 2022, unless saved from repeal by the Legislature.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

Intermediate Care Facilities for the Developmentally Disabled

An intermediate care facility for the developmentally disabled (ICFDD) provides care and residence for individuals with developmental disabilities. A developmental disability is a disorder or syndrome that is attributable to intellectual disability, cerebral palsy, autism, spina bifida, Down syndrome, Phelan-McDermid syndrome, or Prader-Willi syndrome; that manifests before the age of 18; and that constitutes a substantial handicap that can reasonably be expected to continue indefinitely.¹

The licensure of ICFDDs is controlled by Part VIII of ch. 400, F.S., and Chapter 59A-26, F.A.C. Additionally, as a health care facility, as defined in s. 408.032, F.S., prior to obtaining licensure, the ICFDD applicant must obtain a CON from the Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA).

CON Overview

In Florida, a CON is a written statement issued by the AHCA evidencing community need for a new, converted, expanded, or otherwise significantly modified health care facility or health service, including hospices. The Florida CON program has three levels of review: comparative, expedited, and exempt.² Florida's CON program has existed since July 1973. From 1974 through 1986, the specifics of the program were largely dictated by the federal National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974 (Act), which established minimum requirements regarding the type of services subject to CON review, review procedures, and review criteria.³ Each state was required to have a CON program in compliance with the Act as a condition for obtaining federal funds for health programs. The Act was repealed in 1986.⁴

Determination of Need, Application, and Review Processes

A CON is predicated on a determination of need. The future need for services and projects is known as the "fixed need pool,"⁵ which the AHCA publishes for each batching cycle. Rule 59C-1, F.A.C., provides need formulas to calculate the fixed need pool for certain services, including NICU services,⁶ adult and child psychiatric services,⁷ adult substance abuse services,⁸ and comprehensive rehabilitation services.⁹

⁵ Rule 59C-1.002(19), F.A.C., defines "fixed need pool" as the identified numerical need, as published in the Florida Administrative Register, for new beds or services for the applicable planning horizon established by the AHCA in accordance with need methodologies which are in effect by rule at the time of publication of the fixed need pools for the applicable batching cycle.

⁸ Rule 59C-1.041(4), F.A.C.

⁹ Rule 59C-1.039(5), F.A.C.

Upon determining that a need exists, the AHCA accepts applications for CON based on batching cycles. CON application fees include a base fee of $10,000 and an additional fee of 1.5 cents for each dollar of the proposed project expenditures up to a maximum combined total of $50,000.¹⁰ A batching cycle is a means of grouping, for comparative review, of CON applications submitted for beds, services, or programs having a like CON need methodology or licensing category in the same planning horizon and the same applicable district or subdistrict.¹¹

Severe Maladaptive Behaviors

Maladaptive behaviors are those behaviors that are disruptive, destructive, aggressive, or significantly repetitive.¹² The Florida Agency for Persons with Disabilities (APD) has developed a Global Behavioral Service Need Matrix (Matrix) in order to classify the severity of person's maladaptive behavior.¹³ The Matrix categorizes symptoms of maladaptive behaviors such as behavior frequency, behavioral impact, physical aggression to others, police involvement, property destruction, and elopement/wandering, among others. Each symptom is ranked on a scale of one to six, with one being the least severe and six being the most severe. If a symptom is not present, it is ranked as a zero. Based on their behavior score, the person will be evaluated for services. The initial evaluation period is 12 months and then the frequency of evaluations afterwards depends on the severity of the person's score, with a need level of six being evaluated more frequently than a need level of one.¹⁴

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

In order to obtain the exemption, The ICFDD must not have had a license denied, revoked, or suspended within the 36 months preceding the request for an exemption and must have at least 10 years of experience serving individuals with severe maladaptive behaviors in this state. The AHCA is prohibited from granting an additional exemption to an ICFDD that has been granted an exemption under these provisions unless the facility has been licensed and operational for a period of at least two years. Additionally, the bill specifies that the exemption does not require a specific appropriation.

The bill also amends s. 400.962, F.S., to establish additional licensure and application requirements for an ICFDD that has been granted the CON exemption, including:

- The applicant must maintain a policy prohibiting the use of mechanical restraints.

The bill prohibits the AHCA from granting more than three CON exemptions to eligible ICFDDs, and requires the CON exemptions to terminate 18 months after being issued, unless construction on the project has begun. The bill also requires the AHCA to monitor CON exemption certificate holder construction projects and allows the AHCA to extend project time periods if the exemption holder demonstrates that the project is being delayed by:

- Litigation; or
- Governmental action or inaction regarding regulations or permitting.

The CON exemption provided under the bill sunsets on July 1, 2022, unless saved from repeal by the Legislature.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2020.

The bill will have a negative yet indeterminate fiscal impact on the Florida Medicaid program by incentivizing the creation of ICFDDs that accept individuals with developmental disabilities who have severe maladaptive behaviors or mental health issues. The negative fiscal impact to the Medicaid program may be offset by the positive fiscal impact to the Home and Community-Based Services (HCBS) Waiver as a result of transferring individuals from the HCBS Waiver to Medicaid.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Technical Changes

I. Summary:

PCS/CS/SB 1392 provides that a District Court of Appeal judge who lives more than 50 miles from his or her DCA's courthouse or other headquarters is eligible to have an alternative official headquarters and to be reimbursed for trips between these locations. Additionally, the bill expands the list of work-travel expenses for which a Supreme Court justice may be reimbursed.

A DCA judge who is approved for an alternative headquarters is eligible for reimbursement of the cost of the travel, lodging, and meals necessitated by travel to the DCA courthouse.

The alternative headquarters, which may serve only as judicial chambers and be used for official judicial business, may be in any appropriate facility, including a county courthouse. However, the bill expressly provides that no county is required to provide space to a DCA judge for his or her headquarters. And though the district court of appeal may enter into an agreement with a county regarding the use of courthouse space, the bill prohibits the payment of state funds for use of the space.

As to Supreme Court justices, the bill provides for reimbursement of additional expenses incurred on work-related trips compared to what is authorized under current law. These additional expenses include taxi fare, toll fees, and parking fees. Also, with the approval of the Chief Justice, a justice may choose between reimbursement for meals and lodging at the rates set forth in the main state-employee-reimbursement statute or at a fixed rate prescribed by the Chief Justice.

As part of its Fiscal Year 2020-2021 legislative budget request, the judicial branch has requested $125,000 in recurring funds for travel reimbursement for eligible district court of appeal (DCA) judges. Currently, SB 2500, Senate General Appropriations Bill for Fiscal Year 2020-2021, includes $125,000 recurring General Revenue funds for this purpose.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2020.

II. Present Situation:

DCA Headquarters

Section 35.05(1), F.S., provides the following official headquarters for the five DCAs:

- First DCA: Second Judicial Circuit, Tallahassee, Leon County.
- Second DCA: Tenth Judicial Circuit, Lakeland, Polk County.
 - Branch Office: Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, Tampa, Hillsborough County.
- Third DCA: Eleventh Judicial Circuit, Miami-Dade County.
- Fourth DCA: Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, Palm Beach County.
- Fifth DCA: Seventh Judicial Circuit, Daytona Beach, Volusia County.

A DCA judge is entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred in work-related trips away from his or her headquarters—which by default is each judge’s DCA courthouse. The Second DCA is headquartered in Lakeland, Florida.¹ However, s. 35.05(2), F.S., provides that a “district court of appeal may designate other locations within its district as branch headquarters for the conduct of the business of the court and as the official headquarters of its officers or employees pursuant to s. 112.061.”² Currently, the Second DCA is the only DCA in Florida which has a designated branch headquarters.

State Employee and Officer Reimbursement for Work-Related Travel

Section 112.061, F.S., is the main statute governing state employee and officer reimbursement for work-related travel. This section provides for reimbursement of travel, subsistence, and lodging in differing amounts based on several factors, including the duration and distance of a trip.

In regards to “headquarters for purposes of travel reimbursement,” s. 112.061(4), F.S., provides that “[t]he official headquarters of an officer or employee assigned to an office shall be the city or town in which the office is located,” with the following exceptions:

- The official headquarters of a person located in the field is the city or town nearest to the area where the majority of the person’s work is performed, or such other city, town, or area designated by the agency head provided that the designation is in the best interests of the agency and not for the convenience of the employee.

² Emphasis added.

- When any state employee is stationed in a city or town for a period of over 30 continuous workdays, that city or town is the employee's official headquarters, and he or she is not allowed per diem or subsistence, after the 30 continuous workdays have elapsed, unless that time period is extended by the agency head or his or her designee.
- Additionally, s. 112.061(1)(b)1., F.S., provides that: employee may leave his or her assigned post to return home overnight, over a weekend, or during a holiday, but time lost from work must be taken as annual leave. The employee cannot be reimbursed for travel expenses other than per diem allowable had he or she remained at the temporary post. However, when an employee is temporarily assigned away from his or her official headquarters for more than 30 days, he or she can receive reimbursement for travel expenses for one round trip for each 30-day period actually taken to his or her home.³

An employee may leave his or her assigned post to return home overnight, over a weekend, or during a holiday, but time lost from work must be taken as annual leave. The employee cannot be reimbursed for travel expenses other than per diem allowable had he or she remained at the temporary post. However, when an employee is temporarily assigned away from his or her official headquarters for more than 30 days, he or she can receive reimbursement for travel expenses for one round trip for each 30-day period actually taken to his or her home. Additionally, s. 112.061(1)(b)1., F.S., provides that:

To preserve the standardization established by this law . . . The provisions of this section shall prevail over any conflicting provisions in a general law, present or future, to the extent of the conflict; but if any such general law contains a specific exemption from this section, including a specific reference to this section, such general law shall prevail, but only to the extent of the exemption.

Alternative Official Headquarters for Supreme Court Justices

In 2019, the Legislature enacted s. 25.025, F.S., authorizing alternative official headquarters for justices who reside outside of Leon County. More particularly, under this statute a justice who resides outside of Leon County may:

- Request that a district court of appeal courthouse, a county courthouse, or other appropriate facility in the justice's district be designated as his or her official headquarters and serve as the justice's private chambers; and
- Be reimbursed for travel and subsistence while in Tallahassee to the extent funding is available, as determined by the Chief Justice.

Section 25.025, F.S., also provides that the Chief Justice is required to coordinate with the justice seeking private chambers in his or her district and any state and local officials as necessary. The Supreme Court and a county courthouse may enter into an agreement to establish private chambers at the county courthouse for a justice, but the courthouse is under no obligation to provide space for the justice. Additionally, the Supreme Court may not use state funds to lease space in a county courthouse for use as a private chamber.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill provides that a District Court of Appeal judge who lives more than 50 miles from his or her DCA's courthouse or other headquarters is eligible to have an alternative official headquarters and to be reimbursed for trips between these locations. Additionally, the bill expands the list of work-travel expenses for which a Supreme Court justice may be reimbursed.

A DCA judge who is approved for an alternative headquarters is eligible for reimbursement of the cost of the travel, lodging, and meals necessitated by travel to the DCA courthouse.

The alternative headquarters, which may serve only as judicial chambers and be used for official judicial business, may be in any appropriate facility, including a county courthouse. However, the bill expressly provides that no county is required to provide space to a DCA judge for his or her headquarters. And though the district court of appeal may enter into an agreement with a county regarding the use of courthouse space, the bill prohibits the payment of state funds for use of the space.

As to Supreme Court justices, the bill provides for reimbursement of additional expenses incurred on work-related trips compared to what is authorized under current law. These additional expenses include taxi fare, toll fees, and parking fees. Also, with the approval of the Chief Justice, a justice may choose between reimbursement for meals and lodging at the rates set forth in the main state-employee-reimbursement statute or at a fixed rate prescribed by the Chief Justice.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2020.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:A. Tax/Fee Issues:

B. Private Sector Impact:

C. Government Sector Impact:

The bill amends an existing statute that authorizes the payment of travel expenses for eligible justices who travel between an alternate headquarters and the Supreme Court's headquarters. As part of the Fiscal Year 2018-2019 General Appropriations Act (Specific Appropriation 3129, s. 7, ch. 2018-9, Laws of Fla.), the Legislature appropriated $209,930 in recurring funds for reimbursement of such travel expenses by justices. Thus, the judicial branch's base budget includes funding for this purpose. The State Courts System does not anticipate that the refinements to the existing statute related to the reimbursement of additional expenses incurred on work-related trips for Supreme Court justices will necessitate additional funding.

The bill also creates comparable statutory authority to reimburse eligible district court of appeal judges for travel between an alternate headquarters and the headquarters of the court. As part of its Fiscal Year 2020-2021 legislative budget request, the judicial branch requested $125,000 in recurring funds for travel reimbursement for eligible district court of appeal (DCA) judges. Currently, SB 2500, the Senate General Appropriations Bill for Fiscal Year 2020-2021, includes $125,000 recurring General Revenue funds for this purpose.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends section 25.025 of the Florida Statutes.

This bill creates section 35.051 of the Florida Statutes.

IX. Additional Information:

- A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

Recommended CS/CS by Appropriations Subcommittee on Criminal and Civil Justice on February 13, 2020:

The committee substitute makes a technical change to correct the placement of the reference to “branch headquarters,” so that it is consistent with other references in the bill.

CS by Judiciary on January 21, 2020:

The committee substitute authorizes the Chief Justice to set policies and parameters for the use of alternative headquarters and travel reimbursement by eligible justices. Additionally, the committee substitute specifies that its provisions control over any conflicting provision in the travel-reimbursement statute that applies to all state employees and officers.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

Official Headquarters of Judicial Officers

CS/CS/SB 1392 provides that a District Court of Appeal (DCA) judge who lives more than 50 miles from his or her DCA's courthouse or other headquarters is eligible to have an alternative official headquarters and to be reimbursed for trips between these locations. Additionally, the bill expands the list of work-travel expenses for which a Supreme Court justice may be reimbursed.

A DCA judge who is approved for an alternative headquarters is eligible for reimbursement of the cost of the travel, lodging, and meals necessitated by travel to the DCA courthouse.

The alternative headquarters, which may serve only as judicial chambers and be used for official judicial business, may be in any appropriate facility, including a county courthouse. However, the bill expressly provides that no county is required to provide space to a DCA judge for his or her headquarters. And though the district court of appeal may enter into an agreement with a county regarding the use of courthouse space, the bill prohibits the payment of state funds for use of the space.

As to Supreme Court justices, the bill provides for reimbursement of additional expenses incurred on work-related trips compared to what is authorized under current law. These additional expenses include taxi fare, toll fees, and parking fees. Also, with the approval of the Chief Justice, a justice may choose between reimbursement for meals and lodging at the rates set forth in the main state-employee-reimbursement statute or at a fixed rate prescribed by the Chief Justice.

As part of its Fiscal Year 2020-2021 legislative budget request, the judicial branch has requested $125,000 in recurring funds for travel reimbursement for eligible district court of appeal (DCA) judges. Currently, SB 2500, Senate General Appropriations Bill for Fiscal Year 2020-2021, includes $125,000 recurring General Revenue funds for this purpose.

The sections of the bill related to judicial headquarters take effect July 1, 2020.

Jurisdiction of Courts

The bill changes court jurisdiction limits by:

- Broadly eliminating the authority of the circuit courts to hear appeals from county courts in civil and criminal cases. Circuit courts, however, retain jurisdiction to hear appeals from final administrative orders of local code enforcement boards and to hear appeals and review other matters as expressly provided by law. By operation of Article V, s. 4(b)(1) of the State Constitution, the district courts of appeal will have jurisdiction on appeals from final orders of county courts in civil and criminal cases by default;
- Allowing a county court to certify important questions to a district court of appeal only in a final judgment that is appealable to a circuit court;
- Allowing a district court of appeal to review any order or judgment of a county court which is certified by the county court to be of great public importance; and
- Repealing a statute that gives jurisdiction to circuit courts to hear appeals of judgments in misdemeanor cases.

The sections of the bill related to jurisdiction of courts take effect January 1, 2021.

II. Present Situation:

DCA Headquarters

Section 35.05(1), F.S., provides the following official headquarters for the five DCAs:

- First DCA: Second Judicial Circuit, Tallahassee, Leon County.
- Second DCA: Tenth Judicial Circuit, Lakeland, Polk County.
 - Branch Office: Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, Tampa, Hillsborough County.
- Third DCA: Eleventh Judicial Circuit, Miami-Dade County.
- Fourth DCA: Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, Palm Beach County.
- Fifth DCA: Seventh Judicial Circuit, Daytona Beach, Volusia County.

A DCA judge is entitled to reimbursement for expenses incurred in work-related trips away from his or her headquarters—which by default is each judge’s DCA courthouse. The Second DCA is headquartered in Lakeland, Florida.¹ However, s. 35.05(2), F.S., provides that a “district court of appeal may designate other locations within its district as branch headquarters for the conduct of the business of the court and as the official headquarters of its officers or employees pursuant to s. 112.061.”² Currently, the Second DCA is the only DCA in Florida which has a designated branch headquarters.

State Employee and Officer Reimbursement for Work-Related Travel

Section 112.061, F.S., is the main statute governing state employee and officer reimbursement for work-related travel. This section provides for reimbursement of travel, subsistence, and lodging in differing amounts based on several factors, including the duration and distance of a trip.

In regards to “headquarters for purposes of travel reimbursement,” s. 112.061(4), F.S., provides that “[t]he official headquarters of an officer or employee assigned to an office shall be the city or town in which the office is located,” with the following exceptions:

- The official headquarters of a person located in the field is the city or town nearest to the area where the majority of the person’s work is performed, or such other city, town, or area designated by the agency head provided that the designation is in the best interests of the agency and not for the convenience of the employee.
- When any state employee is stationed in a city or town for a period of over 30 continuous workdays, that city or town is the employee’s official headquarters, and he or she is not allowed per diem or subsistence, after the 30 continuous workdays have elapsed, unless that time period is extended by the agency head or his or her designee.
- Additionally, s. 112.061(1)(b)1., F.S., provides that: employee may leave his or her assigned post to return home overnight, over a weekend, or during a holiday, but time lost from work must be taken as annual leave. The employee cannot be reimbursed for travel expenses other than per diem allowable had he or she remained at the temporary post. However, when an employee is temporarily assigned away from his or her official headquarters for more than 30 days, he or she can receive reimbursement for travel expenses for one round trip for each 30-day period actually taken to his or her home.³

Additionally, s. 112.061(1)(b)1., F.S., provides that:

To preserve the standardization established by this law . . . The provisions of this section shall prevail over any conflicting provisions in a general law, present or future, to the extent of the conflict; but if any such general law contains a specific exemption from this section, including a specific

Alternative Official Headquarters for Supreme Court Justices

In 2019, the Legislature enacted s. 25.025, F.S., authorizing alternative official headquarters for justices who reside outside of Leon County. More particularly, under this statute a justice who resides outside of Leon County may:

- Request that a district court of appeal courthouse, a county courthouse, or other appropriate facility in the justice’s district be designated as his or her official headquarters and serve as the justice’s private chambers; and
- Be reimbursed for travel and subsistence while in Tallahassee to the extent funding is available, as determined by the Chief Justice.

Section 25.025, F.S., also provides that the Chief Justice is required to coordinate with the justice seeking private chambers in his or her district and any state and local officials as necessary. The Supreme Court and a county courthouse may enter into an agreement to establish private chambers at the county courthouse for a justice, but the courthouse is under no obligation to provide space for the justice. Additionally, the Supreme Court may not use state funds to lease space in a county courthouse for use as a private chamber.

Jurisdiction of Courts

The State Constitution establishes a four-level court system consisting of a Supreme Court, five district courts of appeal, 20 circuit courts, and 67 county courts. The circuit courts and county courts primarily serve as trial courts, but the circuit courts also hear appeals from county courts involving many different types of cases and appeals from administrative bodies.

The Constitution also permits the Legislature to substantially define the jurisdictions of the circuit courts and county courts by statute.⁴ As defined by statute, the circuit courts have exclusive jurisdiction over several case types, including felony cases and probate matters, but the primary distinction between the jurisdictions of the courts is a monetary threshold.⁵

Recent Legislative Changes to Trial Court Jurisdiction

During the 2019 Legislative Session, the Legislature increased the monetary threshold in a way that expands the jurisdiction of the county courts. Since 1995, this threshold had been set at $15,000.⁶ Claims exceeding $15,000 were to be filed in the circuit court, and county courts had jurisdiction to hear claims valued up to that amount. With the 2019 legislation, effective January

⁴ Article V, s. 6(b) states that “[t]he county courts shall exercise the jurisdiction prescribed by general law.” Under Article V, s. 5(b), the jurisdiction the circuit courts includes “original jurisdiction not vested in the county courts, and jurisdiction of appeals when provided by general law.” Circuit courts also “shall have the power of direct review of administrative action prescribed by general law.” Id.

1, 2020, the threshold became $30,000. The threshold increases again, effective January 1, 2023, to $50,000.

Although the 2019 legislation increased the value of claims that could be litigated in a county court, the legislation did not similarly or contemporaneously increase the jurisdiction of circuit courts to hear appeals from county courts. “Appeals of county court orders or judgments where the amount in controversy is greater than $15,000,” according to the 2019 legislation, will continue to be heard by a district court of appeal until January 1, 2023.⁷ Appeals of county court orders or judgments involving amounts of $15,000 or less will continue to be heard by a circuit court.

The Florida Supreme Court has described the jurisdictions of Florida’s courts as shown.⁸

⁷ Chapter 2019-58, s. 1, Laws of Fla., amending s. 26.012(1), F.S., provides that limitation on the appellate jurisdiction of circuit courts to matters where the amount in controversy is $15,000 or less is repealed on January 1, 2023.

Recommended Changes to Appellate Court Jurisdiction

About the same time the 2019 legislation was filed increasing the monetary jurisdictional threshold, the Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court issued an administrative order directing the Workgroup on Appellate Review of County Court Decisions to:

1. Study whether the circuit courts should be uniformly required to hear appeals in panels and propose appropriate amendments to the Rules of Judicial Administration or the Rules of Appellate Procedure if the Workgroup determines that such amendments are necessary.
2. Review the following recommendation made by the Judicial Management Council's Work Group on County Court Jurisdiction, and propose appropriate amendments to law or rule if the Workgroup determines that such amendments are necessary:
 - 2.3 The Work Group recommends that any modification to the [county court] jurisdictional amount include a provision allowing intra- and intercircuit conflicts in circuit court appellate decisions within the same district to be certified to the district court of appeal for that district.
3. Consider whether other changes to the process for appellate review of county court decisions would improve the administration of justice. If so, the Workgroup may propose any revisions in the law and rules necessary to implement such recommended changes.⁹

In October 2019, the Workgroup issued a report containing its recommendations. The Workgroup's primary recommendation was that the Supreme Court:

Approve the proposal of statutory amendments to transfer the circuit courts' appellate and related extraordinary writ authority to the DCAs in county civil cases, including non-criminal violations, county, criminal cases, and administrative cases. If the new law is adopted during the 2021 Regular Legislative Session, an effective date of January 1, 2022, is recommended to allow time to make operational changes for the court system and to adopt conforming amendments to the Florida Rules of Court.¹⁰

The Supreme Court agreed with the recommendation, but supported more expeditious changes:

The Supreme Court supports the Legislature's consideration of proposed legislation during the 2020 Regular Session to transfer the referenced circuit court appellate and related extraordinary writ authority to the DCAs. Further, the Supreme Court supports an effective date for the legislation that is no earlier than January 1, 2021, to allow adequate time for implementation.¹¹

Authority to Define Appellate Court Jurisdiction

Although the Legislature has broad authority to define the jurisdiction of the circuit and county courts, its authority to define the jurisdiction of the district courts of appeal is more limited.

Under Article V, s. (4)(b)(1) and (2) of the State Constitution:

(1) District courts of appeal shall have jurisdiction to hear appeals that may be taken as a matter of right, from final judgments or orders of trial courts, including those entered on review of administrative action, not directly appealable to the Supreme Court or a circuit court. They may review interlocutory orders in such cases to the extent provided by rules adopted by the Supreme Court.

(2) District courts of appeal shall have the power of direct review of administrative action, as prescribed by general law.

These provisions mean that a litigant has a right to only one appeal. As such, a litigant may appeal a final order of a county court or an administrative entity to a circuit court, but the litigant has no right to further appeal to a district court of appeal.¹² The order may be reviewed by a district court only by a writ of certiorari, which means that the district court has the discretion to hear the case.¹³ Moreover, a review by certiorari is much more limited in scope than a review by appeal.¹⁴

The certiorari jurisdiction of the district courts is defined, not by statute, but by the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.¹⁵ Similarly, the authority for a district court to hear the appeal of an interlocutory order, which is a non-final order from a lower tribunal, is defined by court rules and not by statutes.

Because the Constitution divides the authority to define the appellate jurisdiction of the courts between the Supreme Court and the Legislature, expanding the appellate jurisdiction of the district courts of appeal while reducing the appellate jurisdiction of the circuit courts requires cooperation between the judiciary and the Legislature. The Legislature must make some statutory changes, and the Supreme Court must make changes to the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.

For example, the Legislature, in many cases, can provide for the appeal of a final order of a county court to a district court of appeal by eliminating the statutory authority for the appeal to be heard by a circuit court. By default, the appeal would have to be heard by a district court of

In contrast, “[c]ertiorari review is ‘intended to fill the interstices between direct appeal and the other prerogative writs’ and allow a court to reach down and halt a miscarriage of justice where no other remedy exists; it ‘was never intended to redress mere legal error.’” *Broward County v. appeal. However, without changes to the court rules, interlocutory appeals from a county court case would continue to be heard by a circuit court that would not have jurisdiction to hear the appeal of a final order from the case.¹⁶ This result would seem to be inefficient.

Problem of Conflicting Circuit Court Appellate Decisions

Decisions of circuit courts in their appellate capacity are binding on all county courts within their circuit.¹⁷ However, circuit courts are not bound by decisions of other courts within their circuits. As a result, conflicting appellate decisions within a circuit court create instability in the law. County court judges and non-parties to the prior litigation do not know how or which appellate decisions to follow.¹⁸

When conflicting decisions are rendered by different panels of judges within the same district court of appeal, the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure permit the court to conduct an en banc proceeding.¹⁹ These proceedings allow the full court to reconcile its potentially conflicting decisions.²⁰ In contrast, judicial circuits have no similar mechanism that enables them to reconcile their intra-circuit conflicting opinions. Moreover, a circuit court is not authorized to certify intra-circuit court conflicting opinions to a district court of appeal for review.²¹

Appellate Filing Fees

For appeals from the county to the circuit court, the clerk of the circuit court may collect up to $280 of which, $260 is retained by the clerk of the court and $20 is remitted to the Department of Revenue for deposit into the General Revenue Fund.²²

For appeals to the district court of appeal, the circuit court charges a $100 fee for filing a notice of appeal,²³ and the clerk of the district court of appeal collects a filing fee of $300 for each case docketed.²⁴ Of the $100 circuit court fee, $80 is retained by the clerk and $20 is deposited into the General Revenue Fund.²⁵ Of the district court filing fee, $50 is deposited into the State

¹⁶ Similarly, the State Constitution does not allow the Legislature to authorize a party to take an interlocutory appeal of an order of a circuit court to a district court of appeal. Any statute purporting to grant the right to take an interlocutory appeal is merely a declaration of legislative policy and is ineffective to accomplish its purpose; only if the Florida Supreme Court incorporates the statutory language into the appellate rules can appellate jurisdiction be broadened.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Official Headquarters of Judicial Officers

The bill provides that a District Court of Appeal judge who lives more than 50 miles from his or her DCA's courthouse or other headquarters is eligible to have an alternative official headquarters and to be reimbursed for trips between these locations. Additionally, the bill expands the list of work-travel expenses for which a Supreme Court justice may be reimbursed.

A DCA judge who is approved for an alternative headquarters is eligible for reimbursement of the cost of the travel, lodging, and meals necessitated by travel to the DCA courthouse.

The alternative headquarters, which may serve only as judicial chambers and be used for official judicial business, may be in any appropriate facility, including a county courthouse. However, the bill expressly provides that no county is required to provide space to a DCA judge for his or her headquarters. And though the district court of appeal may enter into an agreement with a county regarding the use of courthouse space, the bill prohibits the payment of state funds for use of the space.

As to Supreme Court justices, the bill provides for reimbursement of additional expenses incurred on work-related trips compared to what is authorized under current law. These additional expenses include taxi fare, toll fees, and parking fees. Also, with the approval of the Chief Justice, a justice may choose between reimbursement for meals and lodging at the rates set forth in the main state-employee-reimbursement statute or at a fixed rate prescribed by the Chief Justice.

The sections of the bill related to judicial headquarters take effect July 1, 2020.

Jurisdiction of Courts

This bill transfers to the district courts of appeal the jurisdiction to hear appeals of decisions of county courts in civil and criminal cases. Under current law, these appeals are heard by circuit courts. The bill is based on the recommendations of a recent report by the Judicial Management Council's Workgroup on Appellate Review of County Court Decisions. The specific changes made by each section of the bill are described below.

Jurisdiction of the circuit court (s. 26.012, F.S.)

The changes made by section 1 broadly eliminate the authority of the circuit courts to hear appeals from county courts in civil and criminal cases. Circuit courts, however, retain jurisdiction to hear appeals from final administrative orders of local code enforcement boards and to hear appeals and review other matters as expressly provided by law. By operation of ²⁶ Section 35.22(5), F.S. The clerk of the district court of appeal also collects $295 for cross-appeals or additional parties, and this fee is remitted entirely to the DOR for deposit into the General Revenue fund. Section 35.255(2)(b), F.S.

Article V, s. 4(b)(1) of the State Constitution, the district courts of appeal will have jurisdiction on appeals from final orders of county courts in civil and criminal cases by default.

Certification of questions to district court of appeal (s. 34.017, F.S.)

Currently s. 34.017, F.S., authorizes a county court to certify important questions to a district court of appeal in a final judgment. The district court has absolute discretion to answer the certified question or transfer the case back to the circuit court having appellate jurisdiction.

As amended by the bill, s. 34.017, F.S., a county court may certify important questions to a district court of appeal only in a final judgment that is appealable to a circuit court. This conforming change recognizes that there is no need for a county court to certify questions relating to matters that a litigant may appeal to a district court as a matter of right.

Review of judgment or order certified by county court to be of great public importance (s. 35.065, F.S.)

Currently s. 35.065, F.S., allows a district court of appeal to review any order or judgment of a county court which is certified by the county court to be of great public importance.

As amended by the bill, s. 35.065, F.S., a district court of appeal may review an order or judgment of a county court that is certified to be of great public importance only in an order or judgment that is appealable to a circuit court. This conforming change recognizes that there is no need for a county court to certify questions relating to matters that a litigant may appeal to a district court as a matter of right.

Courts of appeal (s. 924.08, F.S.)

This section repeals a statute that gives jurisdiction to circuit courts to hear appeals of judgments in misdemeanor cases.

The sections of the bill related to jurisdiction of courts take effect January 1, 2021.

C. Government Sector Impact:Official Headquarters of Judicial Officers

The bill amends an existing statute that authorizes the payment of travel expenses for eligible justices who travel between an alternate headquarters and the Supreme Court's headquarters. As part of the Fiscal Year 2018-2019 General Appropriations Act (Specific Appropriation 3129, s. 7, ch. 2018-9, Laws of Fla.), the Legislature appropriated $209,930 in recurring funds for reimbursement of such travel expenses by justices. Thus, the judicial branch's base budget includes funding for this purpose. The State Courts System does not anticipate that the refinements to the existing statute related to the reimbursement of additional expenses incurred on work-related trips for Supreme Court justices will necessitate additional funding.

The bill also creates comparable statutory authority to reimburse eligible district court of appeal judges for travel between an alternate headquarters and the headquarters of the court. As part of its Fiscal Year 2020-2021 legislative budget request, the judicial branch requested $125,000 in recurring funds for travel reimbursement for eligible district court of appeal (DCA) judges. Currently, SB 2500, the Senate General Appropriations Bill for Fiscal Year 2020-2021, includes $125,000 recurring General Revenue funds for this purpose.

Jurisdiction of Courts

The revenue impact to various funds based on the differences in the appellate filing fees described in the "Present Situation" are expected to result in a negative revenue impact to the Clerks of Court Trust Fund and a positive impact to the State Courts Revenue Trust Fund and the General Revenue Fund.²⁷

Estimated Impact in Filing Fee Revenue Generated by Changing the County Court Appellate Process

| | Fee Distribution | Revenue Impact Based on 1,836 Appellate Cases |
|---|------------------|---|
| Revenue Generating Appellate Cases Filed in District Court of Appeal | | |
| Clerks of Court | $80.00 | $146,896 |
| State Courts Revenue Trust Fund | $50.00 | $91,810 |
| General Revenue | $270.00 | $495,775 |
| Total | $400.00 | $734,482 |
| Revenue Generating Appellate Cases Filed in Circuit Court | | |
| Clerks of Court | $260.00 | $477,413 |
| State Courts Revenue Trust Fund | $1.00 | $1,836 |
| General Revenue | $20.00 | $36,724 |
| Total | $281.00 | $515,973 |

| Clerks of Court | | -$330,517 |
| State Courts Revenue Trust Fund | | $89,974 |
| General Revenue | | $459,051 |
| Total | | $218,508 |

These estimates were derived based on the following Fiscal Year 2018-2019 eligible filings currently appealed to a circuit court. This is likely a worse-case estimate. Also, as more issues become settled in the district courts, the number of appeals are expected to trend downward.

| FY 2018-2019 Eligible Filings Appealed to a Circuit Court | | | |
|--|--|--|--|
| Threshold | Criminal (501 cases less 27.48% of cases filed by an indigent person) | Civil (1,609 cases less 8.46% of cases filed by an indigent person) | Criminal and Civil Appeals FY 2019-19 |
| County Civil and Criminal Cases Up to $15,000 (current law in FY 2018-19) | 363 | 1,473 | 1,836 |

Jurisdiction Workload Impact

Courts

The jurisdictional changes in the bill will result in some level of increased workload for the DCAs. Assuming the number of appeals remains the same, at least in the beginning of the jurisdictional change, the courts indicated a need for Other Personal Services (OPS) staff as follows:

12-Month Funding Need

Six OPS Positions (five appellate staff attorneys and one deputy clerk III)
Salaries & Benefits: $417,421
HR Services: $1,218
Total: $418,639 (recurring)

However, the bill will also lead to a decrease in the workloads of the circuit courts. Additionally, conforming amendments to the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, Appellate Procedure, Judicial Administration, and other rules of court would be required upon passage.

Public Defenders

The public defenders do not anticipate the need for additional resources at this time. A realignment of resources may be required at a later date between the trial and appellate entities.

State Attorneys and the Department of Legal Affairs

The state attorneys are responsible for handling appeals of county court decisions in criminal cases to circuit courts. Pursuant to Section 16.01(4), Fla. Stat. the Criminal Appeals Division of the Office of the Attorney General is the sole government entity that handles all criminal appeals arising from judgments and sentences entered by the state trial courts. Because the bill provides for the appeals from county courts to bypass circuit courts, the bill will increase the appellate workload of the Department of Legal Affairs (DLA). The DLA believes that their Criminal Appeals Division could initially absorb a yearly increase of 500 cases generated from the changes to the appellate court jurisdictions. However, if the numbers of appeals increase based on more recent data and additions to the types of cases or increases in certified cases to the district courts caseloads, reconsideration of personnel needs could be required. To minimize this workload shift, the Legislature may wish to consider whether state attorneys should remain responsible for some or all of the appeals originating from county courts.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends the following sections of the Florida Statutes: 25.025, 26.012, 27.51, 27.511, 34.017, and 35.065.

This bill creates section 35.051 of the Florida Statutes.

This bill repeals section 924.08 of the Florida Statutes.

IX. Additional Information:

A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS/CS by Appropriations on March 3, 2020:

The committee substitute makes a technical change to correct the placement of the reference to “branch headquarters,” so that it is consistent with other references in the bill.

The committee substitute also incorporates the changes to court jurisdiction limits from PCS/CS SB 1510. These changes include:

- Broadly eliminating the authority of the circuit courts to hear appeals from county courts in civil and criminal cases. Circuit courts, however, retain jurisdiction to hear appeals from final administrative orders of local code enforcement boards and to hear appeals and review other matters as expressly provided by law. By operation of Article V, s. 4(b)(1) of the State Constitution, the district courts of appeal will have jurisdiction on appeals from final orders of county courts in civil and criminal cases by default;
- Allowing a county court to certify important questions to a district court of appeal only in a final judgment that is appealable to a circuit court;
- Allowing a district court of appeal to review any order or judgment of a county court which is certified by the county court to be of great public importance; and
- Repealing a statute that gives jurisdiction to circuit courts to hear appeals of judgments in misdemeanor cases.

Additionally, the title of the bill is amended to, “An act relating to courts.”

CS by Judiciary on January 21, 2020:

The committee substitute authorizes the Chief Justice to set policies and parameters for the use of alternative headquarters and travel reimbursement by eligible justices. Additionally, the committee substitute specifies that its provisions control over any conflicting provision in the travel-reimbursement statute that applies to all state employees and officers.

Division of Public Assistance Fraud

The Division of Public Assistance Fraud (PAF) is responsible for enforcing state laws regarding program eligibility and proper use of public assistance benefits. PAF is responsible for investigating allegations of fraud related to the Cash Assistance/Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program, the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP); Medicaid recipients; disaster assistance/emergency benefits; the School Readiness and Voluntary Pre-Kindergarten programs; and Social Security Disability benefits.³

PAF has operated as a criminal justice agency since its inception in 1972. However, when the Division of Investigative and Forensic Services (DIFS) was created in 2016, under ch. 20, F.S., PAF was not designated as a criminal justice agency⁴, thereby limiting access to information within criminal records systems. Under Florida law, a criminal justice agency is defined, in part, as any governmental agency or subunit thereof that performs the administration of criminal justice pursuant to a statute or rule of court and that allocates a substantial part of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice.^{5,6} PAF currently operates, in part, as a criminal justice agency. However, current statute does not appropriately reflect this designation.

State Risk Management

The State Risk Management Trust Fund (Fund) is administered by the DFS and is a self-insurance fund.⁷ The Fund provides various types of insurance to all departments of the State of Florida, including their employees, agents, and volunteers.⁸ The Fund provides the following insurance coverage:

 - Loss from removal of personal property from such properties when endangered by covered perils;
 - Flood insurance to the extent necessary to meet self-insurance requirements under the National Flood Insurance Program;
 - All buildings, whether financed in whole or in part by revenue bonds or certificates, and the contents thereof of any other buildings leased or rented by the state, to include manufactured homes and contents;
 - Rental value insurance is provided to indemnify the state or its agencies for loss of income when such rental income insurance is required to be carried by bonding or revenue certificates or resolutions; and

Separate accounts must be kept for workers' compensation, general liability, fleet automotive liability, federal civil rights actions under 42 U.S.C. 1983 or similar federal statutes, and court-awarded attorney's fees barring exceptions.¹²

Each entity covered by the Fund must develop and implement a loss prevention program,¹³ provide for regular and periodic facility and equipment inspections,¹⁴ investigate job-related employee accidents,¹⁵ and establish a program to promote increased safety awareness among employees.¹⁶ The Division of Risk Management, within the DFS, provides loss prevention services and technical assistance to state agencies and universities for managing risk.¹⁷

Premiums, as calculated on all coverages, are billed and charged to each state agency according to coverages obtained from the Fund.^{18, 19} All premiums paid into the Fund and all moneys received from the Fund from investment or any other source is held by the DFS for the purpose of paying: losses, expenses incurred in adjustment of losses, premiums for reinsurance, risk and claims management and operating expenses.^{20, 21}

Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services

Composition and Business of Board of Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services

Section 20.121(4), F.S., creates the Board of Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services (Board) within the Division of Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services of the Department of Financial Services. The board acts as the licensing authority for the purposes of certain matters related to examinations and other substantive requirements for licensure within the death care industry under ch. 497, F.S., including facility requirements.²²

Currently, the board must have 10 members; one member must be the State Health Officer, or their designee, and the remaining nine members must be nominated by the Chief Financial Officer (CFO), appointed by the Governor, and confirmed by the Senate.²³ The composition of the board must be as follows:

- The State Health Officer.
- Two funeral directors who are:
 - Licensed under part III of ch. 497, F.S., as funeral directors, and
 - Associated with a funeral establishment;
- One funeral director who is:
 - Licensed under part III of ch. 497, F.S.,
 - Associated with a funeral establishment licensed under part III of ch. 497, F.S., that has a valid preneed license issued pursuant to ch. 497, F.S., and
 - Operates a incinerator facility that is approved under ch. 403, F.S., and licensed under part IV of ch. 497, F.S.;
- Two persons whose primary occupation is associated with a licensed cemetery;
- Three consumers who:
 - Are residents of Florida;
 - Have never been licensed funeral directors or embalmers;
 - Are not connected with a cemetery or licensed cemetery company;
 - Are not connected to the death care industry or the practice of embalming, funeral directing, or direct disposition;
 - At least one of which is at least 60 years of age; and
 - At least one of which is a licensed certified public accountant; and
- One principal of a monument establishment licensed under ch. 497, F.S., as a monument builder.

Members must not be principals or employees of the same company or partnership, or group of companies or partnerships under common control.²⁴ The DFS reports that the CFO often does not receive a sufficient amount of applications to fill member positions.²⁵ For example, the

²² See s. 497.103(1)(a)-(cc), F.S. Section 497.141(12)(a), F.S. Licenses available to natural persons, corporations, limited liability companies, and partnerships include: funeral establishment, centralized embalming facility, refrigeration facility, direct disposal establishment, monument establishment, cinerator facility, removal service, preneed sales business under s. 497.453, F.S., and cemetery. position that must be filled by a certified public accountant has remained vacant since September 2017.²⁶

Board members are appointed for four-year terms, except for the State Health Officer, who serves as long as they hold office.²⁷ The CFO is authorized to stagger the terms of members after the terms of the initial members expire.²⁸ The terms have already been staggered at the initiation of the board.²⁹

A quorum is necessary to conduct the business of the board. A quorum consists of six members of the board.³⁰ The DFS indicates that it can be difficult to obtain this number due to board vacancies, absenteeism, and necessary recusal.³¹

The DFS is required to adopt rules regarding application forms and procedures for appointment to the board.³²

Disqualification of Licensure Applicants

Section 497.142(10), F.S., requires all licensure and licensure renewal applicants to disclose criminal history. The following crimes must be disclosed:

- Any felony or misdemeanor, no matter when committed, that was directly or indirectly related to or involving any aspect of the practice or business of funeral directing, embalming, direct disposition, cremation, funeral or cemetery preneed sales, funeral establishment operations, cemetery operations, or cemetery monument or marker sales or installation;
- Any other felony committed within 20 years preceding the application; and
- Any other misdemeanor committed within five years preceding the application.

Licensing Background Checks

Applicants for licensure under ch. 497, F.S., relating to Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services, must provide certified true copies of any crime committed in any jurisdiction, within the 10 years preceding their application, in order to deem the application complete.³³ Currently, regardless of adjudication, disclosure of the following crimes is required:

- Any felony or misdemeanor, no matter when committed, that was directly or indirectly related to the practice or business of funeral directing, embalming, direct disposition, cremation, funeral or cemetery preneed sales, funeral establishment operations, cemetery operations, or cemetery monument or marker sales or installation;³⁴
- Any other felony that was committed within the 20 years immediately preceding the application under this chapter;³⁵ and

Unlicensed Practice

Chapter 497, F.S., requires individuals to maintain a license for specified death care industry practices. The DFS is authorized to issue administrative complaints against entities believed to be in violation of licensure requirements.³⁷ Section 497.159, F.S., provides for criminal penalties; unlicensed activity is a second degree misdemeanor, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, F.S., or s. 775.083, F.S.³⁸

Preneed Contract – Notice to Purchaser

A preneed contract is any arrangement or method, of which the provider of funeral merchandise or services has actual knowledge, whereby any person agrees to furnish funeral merchandise or service in the future.³⁹ To ensure performance of unfulfilled preneed contracts, a preneed licensee must provide written notice to the purchaser or the beneficiary's legally authorized person, with the intent to distribute funds in accordance with the terms of the contract if:

- Fifty years have passed since the date of the preneed contract execution;⁴⁰
- The beneficiary of the preneed contract reaches the age of 105 or older;⁴¹ or
- The social security number of the beneficiary, as shown on the contract, is contained within the United States Social Security Administration Death Master File.⁴²

This written notice must be provided by certified mail, registered mail, or permitted delivery service, return receipt requested.⁴³ Currently, the purchaser or the beneficiary's legally authorized person must respond to such notice within 120 days after delivery, otherwise the funds held in trust will be distributed in accordance with the terms of the preneed contract, the trust agreement, and any applicable provisions of ch. 717, F.S., relating to the disposition of unclaimed property.

Continuing Education Requirements

Individuals licensed to engage in the sale of insurance or adjustment of insurance claims in this state are required to fulfill continuing education requirements, pursuant to s. 626.2815, F.S. Currently, licensees, except title insurance agents, are required to complete a 5-hour update course every two years, specific to the license they hold.⁴⁴ Unless otherwise provided, licensees must also complete 19 hours of elective continuing education courses every two years.⁴⁵ If a licensee has been licensed for six years or more, this requirement drops to 15 hours.⁴⁶ An

If continuing education requirements are not met, DFS has the authority to immediately terminate or refuse to renew the appointment of an agent or adjuster, following notification from DFS, unless an extension or waiver has been granted.⁴⁸

State Fire Marshal

Explosives

Chapter 552, F.S., sets forth the requirements to lawfully engage in the business of a manufacturer-distributor, or to acquire, sell, possess, store, or engage in the use of explosives in this state. The chapter's current definition of a two-component explosive requires the use of a "No. 6 blasting cap" for detonation.⁴⁹ No. 6 blasting caps went out of production several years ago and current blasting caps no longer use the same rating system.⁵⁰

Uniform Fire Alarm Permit Application

Contractors are required to file a Uniform Fire Alarm Permit Application with a local law enforcement agency, and must receive the permit before installing, replacing, or repairing an existing fire alarm that was previously permitted by the local enforcement agency, if the local enforcement agency requires a permit for the repair.⁵¹

Doorstep Refuse and Recycling Collection

The State Fire Marshal, by rule, adopts the Florida Fire Prevention Code (Fire Code), which contains all fire safety laws and rules that pertain to the design, construction, erection, alteration, modification, repair, and demolition of public and private buildings, structures, and facilities, and the enforcement of such fire safety laws and rules.⁵² The State Fire Marshal adopts a new edition of the Fire Code every three years.⁵³ The 6th edition of the Fire Code took effect on January 1, 2018.

State law requires all municipalities, counties, and special districts with fire safety responsibilities to enforce the Fire Code as the minimum fire prevention code to operate uniformly among local governments and in conjunction with the Florida Building Code⁵⁴ requirements in s. 633.208, F.S., as long as they do not conflict with ch. 633, F.S., relating to fire prevention and control, or any other state law.⁵⁵

- Doorstep refuse and recycling collection containers do not reduce the exit access corridor's width below the width required by the Fire Code;
- Doorstep refuse and recycling collection containers are able to stand upright on their own and may not leak fluids when standing upright; and
- The apartment's management staff have written policies and procedures to ensure compliance with the above conditions. Management staff must enforce the policies and must provide a copy of the policies to the authority having jurisdiction upon request.⁵⁶

Currently, this provision expires on July 1, 2021.

Fire and Emergency Incident Information Reporting Program

The Florida Fire Incident Reporting System (FFIRS) is located within the Division of State Fire Marshal. The FFIRS was created by rule and is a means for fire protection agencies to report and maintain computerized records of fires and other fire department incidents in a uniform manner.⁵⁷ Annual reports are furnished to the Governor, Legislature and fire protection agencies, and upon request, the public.⁵⁸

Established in 2005, the Fire and Emergency Incident Reporting Program (Program), included the creation of the Fire and Emergency Incident Information Technical Advisory Panel (Panel) and codified FFIRS language. The FFIRS is the Florida coordinating officer for the National Fire Incident Reporting Section (NFIRS)⁵⁹. The NFIRS provides system resources and an overview of the standard national reporting system used by the United States fire departments to report fires and other incidents to which they respond and to maintain records of such incidents in a uniform manner.⁶⁰ The NFIRS provides software and training at no cost to fire departments.⁶¹

The Panel was created to advise, review and make recommendations to the State Fire Marshal. Currently, the membership is comprised of 15 members:

Fire Sprinkler Systems

A licensed fire protection engineer or architect, with fire protection design experience, may design any type of fire protection system.⁶⁴ A person certified as a Contractor I,⁶⁵ Contractor II,⁶⁶ or Contractor IV,⁶⁷ under ch. 633, F.S., relating to fire prevention and control, may design fire protection systems of 49 or fewer sprinklers. These designated contractors may also design the alteration of an existing fire sprinkler system, as long as no more than 49 sprinklers are relocated, added, or deleted.⁶⁸

Firesafety Inspectors

Section 633.216, F.S., requires each county, municipality, and special district that has firesafety enforcement responsibilities to employ or contract with a firesafety inspector. Subject to certain exceptions⁶⁹, the firesafety inspector is responsible for conducting all firesafety inspections required by law.⁷⁰ These firesafety inspections include the inspection of buildings and facilities, on a recurring or regular basis, on behalf of the state or any county, municipality, or special district with fire safety responsibilities.⁷¹ The Florida Fire Prevention Code⁷² governs design, construction, erection, alteration, modification, repair, and demolition of public and private buildings, structures, and facilities and the enforcement of such firesafety laws and rules. These local enforcing authorities may adopt more stringent firesafety standards, subject to certain

A person who violates any provision of ch. 633, F.S., Fire Prevention and Control, any order or rules of the State Fire Marshal, or any order to cease and desist or to correct conditions commits a misdemeanor of the second degree.⁷⁶

It is illegal to impersonate the State Fire Marshal or a firesafety inspector. A person who impersonates either official commits a felony of the third degree, and if the impersonation occurs during the commission of a separate felony, a person commits a felony of the first degree.⁷⁷ Section 468.629, F.S., makes it illegal for a person to influence a building code enforcement official by coercion or compensation.⁷⁸ Any person who commits such acts commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, and, if the person was previously convicted of such act, a felony of the third degree.⁷⁹

Volunteer Firefighter Employment

The National Fire Prevention Association estimates that there were approximately 1,056,200 local firefighters in the United States as of 2017.⁸⁰ Of the total number of firefighters, 35 percent were career firefighters, and 65 percent were volunteer firefighters.⁸¹ Florida has 528 fire departments.⁸² At least 315 Florida fire departments utilize volunteers to sustain operations.⁸³ Approximately 12 million Florida residents depend on volunteer firefighters to protect their communities.⁸⁴ The Firefighter Assistance Grant Program, created in 2016 to improve the emergency response capability of fire departments reliant on volunteer firefighters, provides grant money to such fire departments to provide volunteer firefighter training and procure equipment. In 2018, 29 fire departments were awarded such grants.⁸⁵

Florida fire service providers are currently prohibited from employing an individual to extinguish fires or to supervise those who do unless the individual holds a current and valid Firefighter Certificate of Compliance.⁸⁶ Thus, fire service providers are currently prohibited from employing volunteer firefighters, who hold a Volunteer Firefighter Certificate of Completion.⁸⁷ Volunteer firefighters can enter immediately dangerous to life and health (IDLH) environments. However, if employed by the same department prior to achieving a Firefighter Certificate of Compliance they would not be allowed to enter the IDLH environments they were authorized to enter the day before beginning career employment.⁸⁸

False Personation

Pursuant to s. 843.08, F.S., any person who falsely assumes or pretends to be an officer of a specified type commits a felony of the third degree, a felony of the second degree when committed with another felony, and a felony in the first degree if the felony is the cause of death or personal injury of another individual.⁸⁹ A person who impersonates an officer of the DFS is subject to these criminal penalties.⁹⁰ However, there is no criminal penalty for impersonating an investigator or personnel of the DFS. The DFS employs personnel who are not officers but have access to active criminal cases and conduct criminal investigations.⁹¹

Firefighters Employment, Standards and Training Council (Council)

The Council is comprised of fifteen members and are appointed as follows:

- Two fire chiefs appointed by the Florida Fire Chiefs Association;
- Two firefighters, who are not officers, appointed by the Florida Professional Firefighters Association;
- Two firefighter officers, who are not fire chiefs, appointed by the State Fire Marshal;
- One individual appointed by the Florida League of Cities;

The Council has special powers in connection with the employment and training of firefighters⁹⁷ to recommend for adoption by the Division of State Fire Marshal:

- Uniform minimum standards for the employment and training of firefighters and training of volunteer firefighters;⁹⁸
- Minimum curriculum requirements for schools operated by or for any fire service provider for the specific purpose of training firefighter trainees, firefighters, and volunteer firefighters;⁹⁹

Consisting of 13 appointed members, the task force's master plan must do the following: Identify the economic growth and development opportunities presented by blockchain technology;

- Assess the existing blockchain industry in the state;
- Identify innovative and successful blockchain applications currently used by industry and other governments to determine viability for state applications;
- Review workforce needs and academic programs required to build blockchain technology expertise across all relevant industries; and

- Make recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature that will promote innovation and economic growth by reducing barriers to and expediting the expansion of the state's blockchain industry.¹⁰⁴

The task force is required to submit a report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as well as present its findings to the appropriate legislative committees in each house of the Florida Legislature. The report must include the following:

- A general description of the costs and benefits of state and local government agencies using blockchain technology;
- Recommendations concerning the feasibility of implementing blockchain technology in the state and the best approach to finance the cost of implementation;
- Recommendations for specific implementations to be developed by relevant state agencies;
- Any draft legislation the task force deems appropriate to implement such blockchain technologies;
- Identification of one pilot project that may be implemented in the state; and
- Any other information deemed relevant by the task force.

The report is to be submitted within 180 days after the initial meeting. The task force's initial meeting was September 23, 2019, making the current due date for the report March 21, 2020.

Public Records Law

Overview

The Florida Constitution provides that the public has the right to inspect or copy records made or received in connection with official governmental business.¹⁰⁵ This applies to the official business of any public body, officer, or employee of the state, including all three branches of state government, local governmental entities, and any person acting on behalf of the government.¹⁰⁶

Chapter 119, F.S., known as the Public Records Act, constitutes the main body of public records laws.¹⁰⁷ The Public Records Act states:

It is the policy of this state that all state, county, and municipal records are open for personal inspection and copying by any person. Providing access to public records is a duty of each agency.¹⁰⁸

The Public Records Act typically contains general exemptions that apply across agencies. Agency- or program-specific exemptions often are placed in the substantive statutes relating to that particular agency or program.

¹⁰⁸ Section 119.01(1), F.S.

Legislative and Judicial Records

The Public Records Act does not apply to legislative or judicial records.¹⁰⁹ Legislative records are public pursuant to s. 11.0431, F.S. Public records exemptions for the Legislature are codified primarily in s. 11.0431(2)-(3), F.S., and adopted in the rules of each house of the Legislature.

Definition

A public record includes virtually any document or recording, regardless of its physical form or how it may be transmitted.¹¹⁰ The Florida Supreme Court has interpreted public records as being “any material prepared in connection with official agency business which is intended to perpetuate, communicate, or formalize knowledge of some type.”¹¹¹

Access

The Florida Statutes specify conditions under which public access to governmental records must be provided. The Public Records Act guarantees every person’s right to inspect and copy any state or local government public record at any reasonable time, under reasonable conditions, and under supervision by the custodian of the public record.¹¹² A violation of the Public Records Act may result in civil or criminal liability.¹¹³

Exemptions

The Legislature has the sole authority to create an exemption to public records requirements.¹¹⁴ An exemption must be created by general law and must specifically state the public necessity justifying the exemption.¹¹⁵ An exemption serves an identifiable purpose if it meets one of the following statutory purposes, the Legislature finds that the purpose of the exemption outweighs open government policy, and the purpose cannot be accomplished without the exemption:

- It allows the state or its political subdivisions to effectively and efficiently administer a program, and administration would be significantly impaired without the exemption;¹¹⁶
- Releasing sensitive personal information would be defamatory or would jeopardize an individual’s safety. If this public purpose is cited as the basis of an exemption, however, only personal identifying information is exempt;¹¹⁷ or ¹¹⁰ Section 119.011(12), F.S., defines “public record” to mean “all documents, papers, letters, maps, books, tapes, photographs, films, sound recordings, data processing software, or other material, regardless of the physical form, characteristics, or means of transmission, made or received pursuant to law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by any agency.” Section 119.011(2), F.S., defines “agency” as “any state, county, district, authority, or municipal officer, department, division, board, bureau, commission, or other separate unit of government created or established by law including, for the purposes of this chapter, the Commission on Ethics, the Public Service Commission, and the Office of Public Counsel, and any other public or private agency, person, partnership, corporation, or business entity acting on behalf of any public agency.

Further, the exemption must be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the law. Additionally, a bill enacting an exemption may not contain other substantive provisions¹¹⁹ and must pass by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting in each house of the Legislature.¹²⁰

“Confidential and Exempt” or “Exempt” Designations

When creating or expanding a public records exemption, the Legislature may provide that a record is “confidential and exempt” or “exempt.”¹²¹ Records designated as “confidential and exempt” may be released by the records custodian only under the circumstances defined by the Legislature or pursuant to a court order. Records designated as “exempt” may be released at the discretion of the records custodian under certain circumstances.¹²²

Open Government Sunset Review Act

The Open Government Sunset Review Act (the Act) prescribes a legislative review process for newly created or substantially amended public records or open meetings exemptions,¹²³ with specified exceptions.¹²⁴ It requires the automatic repeal of the exemption on October 2nd of the fifth year after creation or substantial amendment, unless the Legislature reenacts the exemption.¹²⁵ The Act provides that a public records or open meetings exemption may be created or maintained only if it serves an identifiable public purpose and is no broader than is necessary to meet such public purpose.¹²⁶

¹¹⁸ Section 119.15(6)(b)3., F.S.

¹¹⁹ The bill may, however, contain multiple exemptions that relate to one subject.

¹²³ Section 119.15, F.S. An exemption is substantially amended if the amendment expands the scope of the exemption to include more records or information or to include meetings as well as records (s. 119.15(4)(b), F.S.). The requirements of the Act do not apply to an exemption that is required by federal law or that applies solely to the Legislature or the State Court System (s. 119.15(2), F.S.).

¹²⁴ Section 119.15(2)(a) and (b), F.S., provide that exemptions that are required by federal law or are applicable solely to the Legislature or the State Court System are not subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act.

¹²⁵ Section 119.15(3), F.S.

¹²⁶ Section 119.15(6)(b), F.S. Section 119.15(6)(a), F.S., asks the Legislature to carefully question the purpose and necessity of reenacting the exemption, and specifically requires that the Legislature consider the following questions:

- What specific records or meetings are affected by the exemption?
- Whom does the exemption uniquely affect, as opposed to the general public?
- What is the identifiable public purpose or goal of the exemption?
- Can the information contained in the records or discussed in the meeting be readily obtained by alternative means? If so, how?
- Is the record or meeting protected by another exemption?
- Are there multiple exemptions for the same type of record or meeting that it would be appropriate to merge?

General Public Records Exemptions for State Agency Personnel

There are three general public records exemptions that apply to all state agency personnel: disclosure of an employee's (1) social security number, (2) medical information, and (3) personal identifying information of dependent children who are insured by an agency group insurance plan.¹²⁷

(1) Social Security Numbers

Social security numbers of all current and former agency personnel are confidential and exempt when held by the employing agency.¹²⁸ An employing agency may only release social security numbers for the following reasons:

- It is required by law.
- A receiving government agency needs the social security number to perform its duties.
- The employee consents to disclose his or her social security number.¹²⁹

In addition, there is a general exemption for social security numbers which applies to the public that makes social security numbers confidential and exempt.¹³⁰ This exemption applies to any agency that holds anyone's social security number, including those belonging to the personnel of that agency. This exemption, however, permits the agency to disclose social security numbers of agency personnel in order to administer health or retirement benefits.¹³¹

(2) Medical Information

An agency employee's medical information is also exempt from public disclosure if the medical information could identify the employee. This exemption applies to prospective, current, and former employees.¹³²

(3) Personal Identifying Information

The personal identifying information of a dependent child of an agency employee who is insured by an agency group insurance plan is exempt from public disclosure. This exemption applies to the children of current and former employees and is also retroactively applied.¹³³

Public Records Exemptions for Enumerated Personnel

Provisions in s. 119.071(4)(d), F.S., exempt from public disclosure the personal identification and location information of enumerated agency personnel, their spouses, and their children. The employing agency as well as the employee may assert the right to the exemption by submitting a written request to each agency which holds the employee's information.¹³⁴ Additionally, all of these exemptions have retroactive application.¹³⁵ In order to have such exemption applied to a

Confidential and Exempt –Alleged Sexual Harassment Victim

Section 119.071(2)(n), F.S., provides that personal identifying information of the alleged victim in an allegation of sexual harassment is confidential and exempt.¹³⁸ Such information may be disclosed to another governmental entity in the furtherance of its official duties.¹³⁹

Section 119.10(2)(a), F.S. provides that any person who willfully and knowingly violates any provisions of chapter 119 commits a first degree misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment up to one year or a fine up to $1,000.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Division of Public Assistance Fraud (Sections 1 and 20)

Section 1 amends s. 20.121(2)(f), F.S., to designate the Division of Public Assistance Fraud (PAF) as a criminal justice agency for the purposes of ss. 943.045-943.08, F.S. The designation allows the PAF to continue having access to criminal justice information contained in Florida Crime Information Center (FCIC) and National Crime Center Information Center (NCIC) systems of criminal records when conducting criminal investigations and other law enforcement support functions.¹⁴⁰

Section 20 amends s. 943.045, F.S., to include the PAF in the definition of “criminal justice agency.”

State Risk Management

Section 2 creates s. 284.45, F.S., to define a sexual harassment victim as an individual employed with or being considered for employment with an entity participating in the State Risk Management Trust Fund (FUND), who becomes a victim of workplace sexual harassment within the entity. The bill prohibits individuals working for an entity covered by the Fund from engaging in retaliatory conduct, of any kind, toward a sexual harassment victim. The PCS also prohibits the willful and knowing distribution of personal identifying information of a sexual harassment victim, and specifically provides that personal identifying information includes the victim’s name and his or her:

- Home address;
- Home phone number;
- Cellular phone number;

- E-mail address;
- Social media account username or uniform resource locator (URL); or
- Any other information that could reasonably be used to identify the alleged sexual harassment victim.

Personal identifying information of a victim may not be distributed to any party other than a government entity, in furtherance of its official duties, or pursuant to a court order. Any violation results in a first degree misdemeanor, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, F.S.

Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services

Composition and Business of Board of Funeral, Cemetery, and Consumer Services (Board)

Section 3 amends s. 497.101, F.S., to reduce the minimum number of nominations the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) must make for nine board member positions from three nominations to one. The bill also reduces from three to two the number of positions on the Board that must be filled by consumers who are residents of Florida; have never been licensed funeral directors or embalmers; are not connected with a cemetery or licensed cemetery company nor connected to the death care industry or the practice of embalming, funeral directing, or direct disposition. The Board must also now have a consumer member who is: a resident; a licensed certified public accountant who has never been licensed as a funeral director or embalmer; not a principal or employee of any ch. 497, F.S., licensee; and not otherwise in control (as defined in s. 497.005, F.S.) over any ch. 497, F.S., licensee. This change requires the appointment of a licensed CPA who has some knowledge of and association with, but not a controlling interest in, licensees in the death care industry.

The definition of a “quorum” for the purposes of conducting Board business is amended to constitute a simple majority of eligible members instead of six members.

The section eliminates unnecessary statutory provisions regarding the staggered terms of board members, which have already been established. The statutory change will also eliminate the Department of Financial Services’ (DFS) rulemaking responsibilities concerning the application process, which the DFS asserts is unnecessary, as the Governor makes the appointments.¹⁴¹

Disqualification of Licensure Applicants

Section 4 of the bill creates s. 497.1411, F.S., to provide and clarify grounds for disqualification of licensure applicants based on criminal history. Subsection (1) provides definitions of “applicant,” “felony of the first degree,” “capital felony,” and “financial services business.” Subsection (2) provides an enumerated list of crimes which, if an applicant is found guilty of or pleads nolo contendere to, regardless of adjudication, permanently bars the applicant from licensure under ch. 497, F.S. These crimes are a first degree felony, a capital felony, a felony money laundering offense, or a felony embezzlement.

Subsection (3) provides the following disqualifying periods for other specified crimes:

¹⁴¹ Id.

- A 10-year disqualifying period for all felonies involving moral turpitude not subject to a permanent bar on licensure; and
- A five-year disqualifying period for all other felonies and for all misdemeanors directly related to the financial services business, defined as any financial activity regulated by the DFS, the Office of Insurance Regulation, or the Office of Financial Regulation.

These specifications are intended to provide clarity beyond the current statutory scheme, which provides no guidelines to determine whether a specific crime is considered “directly or indirectly related to or involving any aspect of the practice or business” of death care industry functions. The DFS suggests that the lack of clarity and guidance in current statute has led to inconsistencies in recommendations and Board rulings on applications.¹⁴²

Subsection (4) requires the DFS to adopt rules to administer the section. The rules must provide for additional disqualifying periods due to the commitment of multiple crimes and may include other factors reasonably related to the applicant’s criminal history. The rules must also provide mitigating and aggravating factors, except that mitigation may not result in a disqualification period of less than five years.

Subsection (5) specifies that a disqualifying period begins upon an applicant’s final release from supervision or upon completion of the applicant’s criminal sentence. The subsection further prohibits the DFS from issuing a license unless all related fines, court costs and fees, and court-ordered restitutions have been paid. Subsection (6) places the burden of proof for rehabilitation on the applicant.

Subsection (7) allows the DFS to award a license, despite a conviction, upon a grant of a pardon or restoration of civil rights. Subsection (8) authorizes the Board to grant an exemption from a criminal record related disqualification, and provides standards for mitigating factors. Chapter 120, F.S., provides administrative remedies available to applicants for whom the Board has granted or denied an exemption. Subsection (9) clarifies the disqualification periods provided in this section do not apply to the renewal of a license or to a new licensure application if the applicant has an active license as of July 1, 2020 and the applicable criminal history was considered by the Board on the prior active license approval.

Licensing Background Checks

Section 5 amends s. 497.142, F.S., to require certified true copies of any crime committed in any jurisdiction in order to deem an application complete, regardless of how many years have passed. The bill requires disclosure of all felonies, regardless of when committed and regardless of adjudication. It also requires disclosure of any misdemeanor directly or indirectly related to the financial services business,¹⁴³ no matter when committed.

¹⁴² Id.

¹⁴³ The bill defines financial services business as “any financial activity regulated by the Department of Financial Services, the Office of Insurance Regulation, or the Office of Financial Regulation.”

Unlicensed Practice

Section 6 of the bill amends s. 497.157, F.S., to increase penalties for unlicensed activity from a misdemeanor to a felony of the third degree. Section 6 also expands unlicensed activity to include acting, advertising, or otherwise holding oneself out to be a funeral director, embalmer, direct disposer, or preneed sales agent, unless currently licensed or appointed as such.

Section 7 of the bill amends s. 497.159, F.S., by removing the second-degree misdemeanor penalty for unlicensed activity under ch. 497, F.S.

Preneed Contract and Notice to Purchaser

Section 8 amends s. 497.459, F.S., to require a preneed licensee to conduct an analysis of his or her preneed contracts at least every three years. The three year period will begin when the first analysis pursuant to this section is conducted, which must occur at least by July 1, 2021. If an analysis finds the contract was executed at least 50 years ago or the beneficiary has reached 105 years of age, the preneed licensee must provide written notice with intent to distribute funds in accordance with the contract. The bill removes the written notice requirement when the social security number of the beneficiary of the contract is contained within the United States Social Security Administration Death Master File. The bill clarifies that such notice is to be provided by the preneed licensee, instead of the trustee.

The bill allows the purchaser or the beneficiary's legally authorized person three years to respond to the written notice. If the purchaser or the beneficiary's legally authorized person fails to respond, the funds held in trust will be distributed within 60 days of the end of the three year period as follows:

- The principle deposited into trust will be remitted to the Unclaimed Property Trust Fund; and
- Any additional funds in trust will be remitted to the preneed licensee.

If funds are distributed from trust, the preneed licensee is absolved of all liability associated with the preneed contract for which the funds were distributed, including any obligation to refund any monies paid by a purchaser. At the time funds are remitted to the Unclaimed Property Trust Fund, the names of the purchaser and beneficiary will be provided to the Division of Unclaimed Property.

The bill clarifies that any purchaser and beneficiary, or legally authorized persons of such, who receives written notice from a preneed licensee, retains all rights to both cancellation and fulfillment between the time of written notice and the distribution of funds. Fulfillment may include identifying a new beneficiary on the preneed contract, which makes the contract effective as of the date of the identification of the new beneficiary.

Explosives

Section 9 updates the definition of "two-component explosives" in s. 552.081, F.S., by removing the requirement of a "No. 6 cap," which is no longer manufactured.

Fire Alarm Permits

Section 10 amends s. 553.7921, F.S., to authorize contractors to begin repairs on existing permitted fire alarms upon filing a Uniform Fire Alarm Permit Application but prior to receiving the permit for the repair. Fire alarms repaired under such circumstances are not considered compliant until the permit is issued and the local law enforcement agency approves the repair.

Continuing Education Requirements

Section 11 amends s. 626.2815, F.S., by lowering the update course requirement to four hours for individuals licensed to solicit, sell, or adjust insurance in the state, barring title insurance agents. The update course is raised to six hours for an individual who holds a license as a customer representative, and who is not a licensed life or health agent. Licensees must complete 20 hours of elective continuing education every two years, and if a licensee has been licensed for six years or more, he or she must complete 16 hours of continuing education every two years. Lastly, individuals who fall under chapter 648, F.S., relating to bail bond agents, are required to complete a four hour update course and a minimum of ten hours of continuing education every two years.

Florida Fire Marshal - Florida Fire Prevention and Control

Fire Sprinkler Systems

Section 12 amends s. 633.102, F.S., to allow a person certified as a Contractor I or a Contractor II to design new fire protection systems of 49 or fewer sprinklers, and to design the alteration of an existing system if it adds 49 or fewer sprinklers. A person certified as a Contractor IV can no longer design or alter fire protection systems. Additionally, the bill allows a Contractor I or II to alter an existing fire sprinkler system, as long as it entails the relocation or deletion of 249 or fewer sprinklers, and such alteration requires no change in occupancy as defined in the Florida Building Code, no change in water demand as defined in National Fire Protection Association Publication (NFPA) No. 13, and the occupancy hazard classification, as defined in NFPA No. 13, is either reduced or remains the same following the alteration.

Fire and Emergency Incident Information Reporting Program

Section 13 amends s. 633.136, F.S., by replacing “fire protection agencies” with “fire service providers” and defines the term “fire service provider.” This section also revises the composition of the Fire and Emergency Incident Information System Technical Advisory Panel (Panel) to:

- Retain 15 members on the Panel;
- Remove one member from the Florida Forest Service, Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services; and
- Remove one member from the Department of Health.

Fire services provider is defined as a municipality or county, the state, the division, or any political subdivision of the state, including authorities and special districts, that employs firefighters or uses volunteer firefighters to provide fire extinguishment or fire prevention services for the protection of life and property. The term includes any organization under contract or other agreement with such entity to provide such services.¹⁴⁴

Florida Fire Prevention Code

Section 14 amends s. 633.202(18), F.S., to extend the deadlines for certain buildings to comply with requirements for minimum radio strength for fire department communications by three years.

The bill also amends s. 633.202(20), F.S., to extend, by three years, the current expiration of exemptions that allow doorstep refuse and recycling collection containers in apartments with enclosed corridors under certain circumstances.

Influencing a Firesafety Inspector

Section 15 creates s. 633.217, F.S., to prohibit influencing or attempting to influence a firesafety inspector by threatening, coercing, tricking, or offering compensation for the purpose of inducing the firesafety inspector to violate any provision of the Florida Fire Prevention Code, any rule adopted by the State Fire Marshal, or any provision of ch. 633, F.S. Subsection (2) prohibits a firesafety inspector from knowingly and willingly accepting an attempt by a person to influence them into violating any provision of the Florida Fire Prevention Code, any rule adopted by the State Fire Marshal, or any provision of ch. 633, F.S. Section 633.124(1), F.S., provides that any person who violates any provision of ch. 633, F.S., commits a misdemeanor of the second degree. Violations of s. 633.217, F.S., relating to influencing a firesafety inspector carry the criminal penalty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, F.S., or s. 775.083, F.S.

State Fire College Training

Section 16 amends s. 633.304, F.S., to require any organization or individual engaging in the business of servicing, repairing, recharging, testing, marking, inspecting, installing, or hydrotesting any fire extinguisher or preengineered system seeking licensure in this state to complete a prescribed training course that:

- Includes both written and practical training;
- Is offered at the State Fire College; and
- Is approved by the State Fire Marshal, as applicable to the class of license being sought.

Firefighters Employment, Standards and Training Council

Section 17 amends s. 633.402, F.S., to revise the composition of the Firefighters Employment, Standards, and Training Council to include:

- One member appointed by the State Fire Marshal, who may not be a representative of the firefighting profession or of any local government; and
- One individual from the Department of Health, appointed by the Surgeon General.

¹⁴⁴ Fire service provider is defined in s. 633.102, F.S.

Volunteer Firefighter Employment

Section 18 amends s. 633.416, F.S., to authorize fire service providers to employ volunteer firefighters and allow them to act in volunteer firefighter capacity for up to one year under the direct supervision of an individual holding a valid firefighter certificate of compliance while they obtain career firefighter certifications. This will increase the availability of firefighters capable of entering immediately dangerous to life and health (IDLH) environments and protecting their communities. The DFS anticipates that this change will improve rural and small agency recruitment and retention efforts by facilitating the hiring of local candidates who are more inclined to remain in the area instead of hiring candidates from other parts of the state who are inclined to return to their home communities once gaining some experience.¹⁴⁵

False Personation

Section 19 of the bill amends s. 843.08, F.S., to expand the applicability of criminal penalties associated with false personation of a fire or arson investigator of the DFS to any personnel or representative of the Division of Investigative and Forensic Services.

Florida Blockchain Task Force

Section 21 amends ch. 2019-140, L.O.F., to rename the Florida Blockchain Task Force to the “Florida Financial Technology and Blockchain Task Force.” The bill incorporates financial technology throughout the duties of the task force, including a requirement that the task force consider financial technology innovations related to money transmitters¹⁴⁶ and payment instrument sellers.¹⁴⁷ Specifically, this requirement includes consideration of mediums of exchange that are in electronic or digital form, and identifying new products and services that could lead to business growth in the state.

The bill extends the due date for the task force’s report from March 21, 2020, to January 21, 2021. All other aspects of the task force remain unchanged.

Section 22 provides an effective date of July 1, 2020.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

¹⁴⁵ See supra note 4.

¹⁴⁶ “Money transmitter” means a corporation, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, or foreign entity qualified to do business in this state which receives currency, monetary value, or payment instruments for the purpose of transmitting the same by any means, including transmission by wire, facsimile, electronic transfer, courier, the Internet, or through bill payment services or other businesses that facilitate such transfer within this country, or to or from this country.” s. 560.103(23), F.S.

¹⁴⁷ “Payment instrument seller” means a corporation, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, or foreign entity qualified to do business in this state which sells a payment instrument.” s. 560.103(30), F.S.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

To the extent that an email address or social media account username or uniform resource locator may not actually identify a person, this provision may constitute an expansion of the public records exemption which requires a standalone bill and a two-thirds vote to pass.

Vote Requirement

Article I, s. 24(c), of the State Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of each house for final passage of a bill creating an exemption to the public records requirements.¹⁴⁸ This bill may create an exemption for certain information relating to alleged sexual harassment victims, if it does, the bill requires a two-thirds vote of each house to be enacted.

Public Necessity Statement

Article I, s. 24(c), of the State Constitution requires a bill that creates an exemption to the public records requirements to state with specificity the public necessity justifying the exemption. The bill, in its current form, does not address public necessity for an exemption.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

Article 1, s. 24(a) of the State Constitution provides that the public has the right to inspect or copy records made or received in connection with official governmental business. This applies to the official business of any public body, officer, or employee of the state, including all three branches of state government, local governmental entities, and any person acting on behalf of the government. Public records laws are codified in Chapter 119, F.S., the Public Records Act. Section 119.071(2)(n), F.S., makes confidential and exempt from the public disclosure personal identifying information of an alleged victim of sexual harassment. For the purposes of this public records exemption, “personal identifying information” is undefined.

Section 2 of the bill prohibits an individual working for certain agencies from disseminating “personal identifying information” of a sexual harassment victim to any party other than a governmental entity or pursuant to a court order, under threat of criminal punishment. Section 2 of the bill defines “personal identifying information” for the purposes of s. 284.45, F.S., to include the victim's name, home address, home and cellular phone numbers, E-mail address, social media account username or URL, or any other information that could reasonably be used to identify the victim.

¹⁴⁸ Article X, s. 12(e), of the State Constitution, Rules of Construction, states that a “Vote or other action of a legislative house . . . means the vote or action of a majority or other specified percentage of those members voting on the matter.” Accordingly, this two-thirds vote requirement means a favorable two-thirds vote of the members present and voting for final passage.

In some instances, an e-mail address or social media account information may not, in reality, be personally identifying information under the public records exemption codified in s. 119.071(2)(n), F.S. If that is the case, then the language contained in section 2 of the bill may be viewed as an expansion of the public records exemption. If that is the legislative intent, the Legislature should consider the expanded exemption in a separate bill that otherwise meets the constitutional requirements of an exemption to Art. I, s. 24(a) of the State Constitution – namely a public necessity statement and a two-thirds vote of each chamber of the legislature to be enacting.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The bill does not impact state revenues or expenditures. However, in section 6 of the PCS, s. 497.157, F.S., is amended to increase the criminal penalty to a third degree felony for impersonating a funeral director, embalmer, direct disposer, or a preneed sales agent. Also, in section 19 of the PCS, s. 843.08, F.S., relating to false impersonation is amended by expanding the subjects of false impersonation from fire or arson investigators within the Department of Financial Services to all personnel or representatives of the Division of Investigative and Forensic Services. These changes could increase the number of people subject to a felony penalty, but would seem to be insignificant. The Criminal Justice Impact Conference (CJIC) has not adopted a prison bed impact for this legislation.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

Section 119.071(2)(n), F.S., provides that personal identifying information of the alleged victim in an allegation of sexual harassment is confidential and exempt. The bill creates s. 284.45, F.S., which defines "personal identifying information" for sexual harassment victims to include the victim's name, home address, home and cellular phone numbers, E-mail address, social media account username or URL, or any other information that could reasonably be used to identify the victim.

In some instances, an e-mail address or social media account information may not, in reality, be personally identifying information under the public records exemption codified in s. 119.071(2)(n), F.S. If that is the case, then the language contained in the newly created s. 284.45, F.S., may be viewed as an expansion of the public records exemption. If that is the legislative intent, the Legislature should consider the expanded exemption in a separate bill that otherwise meets the constitutional requirements of an exemption to Art. I, sec. 24(a) of the State Constitution – namely a public necessity statement and a 2/3 vote of each chamber of the legislature to be enacting.

VII. Related Issues:

136 Section 4. Section 497.1411, Florida Statutes, is created
137 to read:

138 497.1411 Disqualification of applicants and licensees;
139 penalties against licensees; rulemaking.-

140 (1) For purposes of this section, the term:

141 (a) "Applicant" means an individual applying for licensure
142 or relicensure under this chapter, and an officer, a director, a
143 majority owner, a partner, a manager, or other person who
144 manages or controls an entity applying for licensure or
145 relicensure under this chapter.

146 (b) "Felony of the first degree" and "capital felony"
147 include all felonies designated as such in this state at the 148 time of the commission of the offense, as well as any offense in 149 another jurisdiction that is substantially similar to an offense
150 so designated in this state.

151 (c) "Financial services business" means any financial
152 activity regulated by the department, the Office of Insurance
153 Regulation, or the Office of Financial Regulation.

154 (2) An applicant who has been found guilty of or has 155 pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to any of the following

489504

156 crimes, regardless of adjudication, is permanently barred from
157 licensure under this chapter:

158 (a) A felony of the first degree.

159 (b) A capital felony.

160 (c) A felony money laundering offense.

161 (d) A felony embezzlement.

162 (3) An applicant who has been found guilty of or has 163 pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to a crime not included in 164 subsection (2), regardless of adjudication, is subject to:

165 (a) A 10-year disqualifying period for all felonies
166 involving moral turpitude that are not specifically included in 167 the permanent bar contained in subsection (2).

168 (b) A 5-year disqualifying period for all felonies to which
169 neither the permanent bar in subsection (2) nor the 10-year
170 disqualifying period in paragraph (a) applies.

171 (c) A 5-year disqualifying period for all misdemeanors
172 directly related to the financial services business.

173 (4) The board shall adopt rules to administer this section.
174 The rules must provide for additional disqualifying periods due
175 to the commitment of multiple crimes and may include other
176 factors reasonably related to the applicant's criminal history.
177 The rules shall provide for mitigating and aggravating factors.
178 However, mitigation may not result in a period of 179 disqualification of less than 5 years and may not mitigate the 180 disqualifying periods in paragraphs (3) (b) and (c).

181 (5) For purposes of this section, a disqualifying period
182 begins upon the applicant's final release from supervision or 183 upon completion of the applicant's criminal sentence. The 184 department may not issue a license to an applicant unless all

489504

185 related fines, court costs and fees, and court-ordered
186 restitution have been paid.

187 (6) After the disqualifying period has expired, the burden
188 is on the applicant to demonstrate that he or she has been
189 rehabilitated, does not pose a risk to the public, is fit and 190 trustworthy to engage in business regulated by this chapter, and
191 is otherwise qualified for licensure.

192 (7) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3), an applicant
193 who has been found guilty of, or has pleaded guilty or nolo
194 contendere to, a crime in subsection (2) or subsection (3) and 195 who has subsequently been granted a pardon or the restoration of 196 civil rights pursuant to chapter 940 and s. 8, Art. IV of the 197 State Constitution, or a pardon or the restoration of civil
198 rights under the laws of another jurisdiction with respect to a
199 conviction in that jurisdiction, is not barred or disqualified
200 from licensure under this chapter. However, such a pardon or 201 restoration of civil rights does not require the department to 202 award such license.

203 (8) (a) The board may grant an exemption from 204 disqualification to any person disqualified from licensure under 205 subsection (3) if:

206 1. The applicant has paid in full any fee, fine, fund,
207 lien, civil judgment, restitution, or cost of prosecution
208 imposed by the court as part of the judgment and sentence for 209 any disqualifying offense; and

210 2. At least 5 years have elapsed since the applicant
211 completed or has been lawfully released from confinement,
212 supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by the court for a
213 disqualifying offense.

489504

214 (b) For the board to grant an exemption under this
215 subsection, the applicant must clearly and convincingly
216 demonstrate that he or she would not pose a risk to persons or 217 property if licensed under this chapter, evidence of which must
218 include, but need not be limited to, facts and circumstances
219 surrounding the disqualifying offense, the time that has elapsed
220 since the offense, the nature of the offense and harm caused to 221 the victim, the applicant's history before and after the 222 offense, and any other evidence or circumstances indicating that 223 the applicant will not present a danger if licensed or
224 certified.

225 (c) The board has discretion whether to grant or deny an
226 exemption under this subsection. The board's decision is subject
227 to chapter 120.

228 (9) The disqualification periods provided in this section
229 do not apply to the renewal of a license or to a new application
230 for licensure if the applicant has an active license as of July
231 1, 2020, and the applicable criminal history was considered by 232 the board on the prior approval of any active license held by 233 the applicant. This subsection does not affect any criminal
234 history disclosure requirement of this chapter.

235 Section 5. Subsection (9) and paragraph (c) of subsection
236 (10) of section 497.142, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

237 497.142 Licensing; fingerprinting and criminal background
238 checks.—

239 (9) If any applicant under this chapter has been, ~~within~~
240 ~~the 10 years preceding the application under this chapter,~~
241 convicted or found guilty of, or entered a plea of nolo
242 contendere to, regardless of adjudication, any crime in any

489504

243 jurisdiction, the application shall not be deemed complete until 244 such time as the applicant provides such certified true copies
245 of the court records evidencing the conviction, finding, or plea
246 as required by this section or, as the licensing authority may
247 by rule require.

248 (10) (c) Crimes to be disclosed are:

249 1. Any felony ~~or misdemeanor~~, no matter when committed,
250 ~~that was directly or indirectly related to or involving any~~
251 ~~aspect of the practice or business of funeral directing,~~
252 ~~embalming, direct disposition, cremation, funeral or cemetery~~
253 ~~preneed sales, funeral establishment operations, cemetery~~
254 ~~operations, or cemetery monument or marker sales or~~
255 ~~installation.~~

256 2. Any misdemeanor, no matter when committed, which was 257 directly or indirectly related to the financial services
258 business as defined in s. 497.1411 ~~Any other felony not already~~
259 ~~disclosed under subparagraph 1. that was committed within the 20~~
260 ~~years immediately preceding the application under this chapter.~~

261 3. Any other misdemeanor not already disclosed under
262 subparagraph 2. ~~subparagraph 1.~~ that was committed within the 5
263 years immediately preceding the application under this chapter.

264 Section 6. Present subsections (2) through (5) of section
265 497.157, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as subsections (4)
266 through (7), respectively, new subsections (2) and (3) and 267 subsection (8) are added to that section, and present subsection
268 (3) of that section is amended, to read:

270 by unlicensed persons.-

271 (2) A person may not be, act as, or advertise or hold

279 contracts.

280 (5)~~(3)~~ Where the department determines that an emergency
281 exists regarding any violation of this chapter by any unlicensed
282 person or entity, the department may issue and serve an 283 immediate final order upon such unlicensed person or entity, in
284 accordance with s. 120.569(2)(n). Such an immediate final order
285 may impose such prohibitions and requirements as are reasonably
286 necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare, and 287 shall be effective when served.

288 (a) For the purpose of enforcing such an immediate final
289 order, the department may file an emergency or other proceeding
290 in the circuit courts of the state seeking enforcement of the 291 immediate final order by injunctive or other order of the court.
292 The court shall issue its injunction or other order enforcing
293 the immediate final order pending administrative resolution of 294 the matter under subsection (4) ~~(2)~~, unless the court determines 295 that such action would work a manifest injustice under the 296 circumstances. Venue for judicial actions under this paragraph
297 shall be, at the election of the department, in the courts of 298 Leon County, or in a county where the respondent resides or has 299 a place of business.

300 (b) After serving an immediate final order to cease and

489504

301 desist upon any person or entity, the department shall within 10
302 days issue and serve upon the same person or entity an
303 administrative complaint as set forth in subsection (4) ~~(2)~~,

312 Statutes, is amended to read:

313 497.159 Crimes.—

314 ~~(6) Any person who is not licensed under this chapter who~~

336 enforcement agency requires a plan review for the installation
337 or replacement; ~~or~~

340 ~~enforcement agency requires a fire alarm permit for the repair.~~

341 (2) If the local enforcement agency requires a fire alarm
342 permit to repair an existing alarm system that was previously
343 permitted by the local enforcement agency, a contractor may
344 begin work after filing a Uniform Fire Alarm Permit Application

346 this subsection may not be considered compliant until the
347 required permit is issued and the local enforcement agency
348 approves the repair.

364 the license granted. A licensee who holds multiple insurance
365 licenses must complete an update course that is specific to at 366 least one of the licenses held. Except as otherwise specified,
367 any remaining required hours of continuing education are
368 elective and may consist of any continuing education course
369 approved by the department under this section.

370 (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e),

393 insurance are not required to take continuing education courses
394 pursuant to this section.

398 instruction or lecturing at any approved seminar and attending
399 the entire course or seminar qualifies for the same number of

423 Section 11. Section 627.70132, Florida Statutes, is amended
424 to read:

425 627.70132 Notice of windstorm or hurricane claim.—A claim,
426 supplemental claim, or reopened claim under an insurance policy
427 that provides property insurance, as defined in s. 624.604, for 428 loss or damage caused by the peril of windstorm or hurricane is 429 barred unless notice of the claim, supplemental claim, or 430 reopened claim was given to the insurer in accordance with the 431 terms of the policy within 24 months ~~3 years~~ after the hurricane
432 first made landfall or the windstorm caused the covered damage.
433 For purposes of this section, the term "supplemental claim" or 434 "reopened claim" means any additional claim for recovery from
435 the insurer for losses from the same hurricane or windstorm
436 which the insurer has previously adjusted pursuant to the
437 initial claim. This section does not affect any applicable
438 limitation on civil actions provided in s. 95.11 for claims,
439 supplemental claims, or reopened claims timely filed under this
440 section.

441 Section 12. Section 627.7154, Florida Statutes, is created
442 to read:

443 627.7154 Water damage limitation.—

444 (1) As used in this section, the term "water damage" means
445 damage caused by any of the following:

489504

446 (a) Water, waterborne material, sewage, or any other
447 substance that backs up, overflows, or is discharged through or 448 from a sewer, sewer system, drain, septic tank system, drain
449 field, sump, sump pump, or related equipment.

450 (b) Water, waterborne material, sewage, or any other
451 substance that overflows from a sump pump, sump pump well, or 452 any other system designed for the removal of subsurface water
453 that is drained from foundation areas of a structure.

454 (c) Water, waterborne material, sewage, or any other
455 substance on or below the surface of the ground, regardless of 456 its source, including water or any other substance that exerts
457 pressure on or flows, seeps, or leaks through a building,
458 sidewalk, driveway, foundation, swimming pool, or other
459 structure.

460 (d) Discharge or overflow of water or steam from within a
461 plumbing, heating, air conditioning, or automatic fire sprinkler
462 system or from within a household appliance.

463 (e) Water penetration through the roof system or exterior
464 walls or windows, unless water penetration is a direct result of 465 damage caused by a peril other than water.

466 (f) Escape, overflow, or discharge, for any reason, of 467 water or waterborne material from a dam, levee, seawall, or any 468 other boundary or containment system.

469 (2) (a) An insurer offering homeowners' policies or 470 endorsements may offer the option of a policy or endorsement
471 with a policy limit for water damage as low as 5 percent of the 472 coverage A policy limit per occurrence, and may also offer
473 homeowners' policies or endorsements with greater policy limits
474 for water damage. Such policy or endorsement may be offered on

489504

475 all new business and on all renewals. Except as provided in 476 paragraph (b), an insurer may not condition renewals upon
477 acceptance of the base 5 percent of the coverage A policy limit
478 per occurrence or upon acceptance of an optional higher limit. A
479 policyholder who accepts the base 5 percent of the coverage A
480 policy limit per occurrence option must receive at least a 10
481 percent discount on the non-wind portion of the premium, and a
482 policyholder who accepts a limit that is greater than 5 percent
483 of the coverage A policy limit must be provided an actuarially
484 reasonable premium credit or discount. An insurer that issues or 485 renews a homeowner's policy with a sublimit pursuant to this 486 subsection must include within the policy documents at initial 487 issuance and at every renewal, in no smaller than 18-point bold
488 type, the following statement: "THIS POLICY LIMITS COVERAGE FOR 489 WATER DAMAGE. YOU MAY WISH TO PURCHASE FULL COVERAGE FOR WATER
490 DAMAGE. PLEASE DISCUSS WITH YOUR INSURANCE AGENT."

491 (b) An insurer may condition the issuance or renewal of a
492 homeowner's insurance policy on a home older than 40 years of 493 age on the policyholder's acceptance of a policy limit for water
494 damage which is less than the coverage A policy limit.

495 (c) An insurer may condition the provision of full water
496 damage coverage under a homeowner's insurance policy on the use
497 of a managed repair or preferred vendor program approved by the 498 office.

499 (d) An insurer may require a water intrusion inspection
500 before binding full water damage coverage under a homeowner's
501 insurance policy.

502 Section 13. Subsection (3) of section 633.102, Florida
503 Statutes, is amended to read:

489504

504 633.102 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the term:
505 (3) (a) “Contractor I” means a contractor whose business
506 includes the execution of contracts requiring the ability to lay
507 out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service all
508 types of fire protection systems, excluding preengineered
509 systems.
510 (b) “Contractor II” means a contractor whose business is
511 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to
512 lay out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service
513 water sprinkler systems, water spray systems, foam-water
514 sprinkler systems, foam-water spray systems, standpipes,
515 combination standpipes and sprinkler risers, all piping that is
516 an integral part of the system beginning at the point of service
517 as defined in this section, sprinkler tank heaters, air lines,
518 thermal systems used in connection with sprinklers, and tanks
519 and pumps connected thereto, excluding preengineered systems.
520 (c) “Contractor III” means a contractor whose business is
521 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to 522 fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service carbon
523 dioxide systems, foam extinguishing systems, dry chemical
524 systems, and Halon and other chemical systems, excluding
525 preengineered systems.
526 (d) “Contractor IV” means a contractor whose business is
527 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to
528 lay out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service
529 automatic fire sprinkler systems for detached one-family
530 dwellings, detached two-family dwellings, and mobile homes,
531 excluding preengineered systems and excluding single-family
532 homes in cluster units, such as apartments, condominiums, and

489504

533 assisted living facilities or any building that is connected to 534 other dwellings. A Contractor IV is limited to the scope of 535 practice specified in NFPA 13D.

536 (e) "Contractor V" means a contractor whose business is
537 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to 538 fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service the

540 the extinguishing agent beginning at the point of service as 541 defined in this act and ending no more than 1 foot above the 542 finished floor.

543
544 The definitions in this subsection may not be construed to
545 include engineers or architects and do not limit or prohibit a
546 licensed fire protection engineer or architect with fire
547 protection design experience from designing any type of fire
548 protection system. A distinction is made between system design
549 concepts prepared by the design professional and system layout
550 as defined in this section and typically prepared by the 551 contractor. However, a person certified as a Contractor I or
552 Contractor II, ~~or Contractor IV~~ under this chapter may design
553 new fire protection systems of 49 or fewer sprinklers; ~~and~~ may

556 of ~~not more than~~ 49 or fewer sprinklers, notwithstanding the 557 size of the existing fire sprinkler system; or may design the 558 alteration of an existing fire sprinkler system if the 559 alteration consists of the relocation or deletion of 249 or
560 fewer sprinklers, notwithstanding the size of the existing fire
561 sprinkler system, if there is no change of occupancy, as defined

489504

562 in the Florida Building Code, of the affected areas and there is
563 no change in the water demand as defined in National Fire
564 Protection Association publication NFPA 13 "Standard for the 565 Installation of Sprinkler Systems," and if the occupancy hazard
566 classification as defined in NFPA 13 is reduced or remains the 567 same as a result of the alteration. A person certified as a
568 Contractor I, Contractor II, or Contractor IV may design or 569 alter a fire protection system, the scope of which complies with 570 NFPA 13D, Standard for the Installation of Sprinkler Systems in
571 One- and Two-Family Dwellings and Manufactured Homes, as adopted
572 by the State Fire Marshal, notwithstanding the number of fire
573 sprinklers. Contractor-developed plans may not be required by
574 any local permitting authority to be sealed by a registered
575 professional engineer.

576 Section 14. Section 633.136, Florida Statutes, is amended
577 to read:

599 3. Adopt rules to effectively and efficiently implement,
600 administer, manage, maintain, and use the Fire and Emergency
601 Incident Information Reporting Program. The rules shall be

604 requirements which may not conflict with the rules of the 605 division.

633 ~~"fire protection agency" shall be defined by rule by the~~
634 ~~division.~~

714 rule adopted by the State Fire Marshal, or any provision of this
715 chapter.

716 (b) Offering any compensation to the firesafety inspector
717 to induce a violation of the Florida Fire Prevention Code, any

725 Section 17. Paragraphs (d), (g), and (h) of subsection (4)
726 of section 633.304, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

727 633.304 Fire suppression equipment; license to install or 728 maintain.—

729 (4)

730 (d) A license of any class may not be issued or renewed by
731 the division and a license of any class does not remain
732 operative unless:

733 1. The applicant has submitted to the State Fire Marshal
734 evidence of registration as a Florida corporation or evidence of 735 compliance with s. 865.09.

489504

736 2. The State Fire Marshal or his or her designee has by
737 inspection determined that the applicant possesses the equipment
738 required for the class of license sought. The State Fire Marshal
739 shall give an applicant a reasonable opportunity to correct any 740 deficiencies discovered by inspection. To obtain such 741 inspection, an applicant with facilities located outside this
742 state must:

743 a. Provide a notarized statement from a professional
744 engineer licensed by the applicant's state of domicile
745 certifying that the applicant possesses the equipment required
746 for the class of license sought and that all such equipment is 747 operable; or

748 b. Allow the State Fire Marshal or her or his designee to

765 any class of license held in conjunction with a Class D license
766 may not be less than $300,000. The State Fire Marshal may, at 767 any time after the issuance of a license or its renewal, require
768 upon demand, and in no event more than 30 days after notice of 769 such demand, the licensee to provide proof of insurance, on the 770 insurer's form, containing confirmation of insurance coverage as 771 required by this chapter. Failure, for any length of time, to 772 provide proof of insurance coverage as required must result in 773 the immediate suspension of the license until proof of proper
774 insurance is provided to the State Fire Marshal. An insurer that

776 any change in coverage or of any termination, cancellation, or
777 nonrenewal of any coverage.

778 4. The applicant applies to the State Fire Marshal,
779 provides proof of experience, and successfully completes a
780 prescribed training course that includes both written and
781 practical training offered at by the State Fire College and ~~or~~
782 an equivalent course approved by the State Fire Marshal as 783 applicable to the class of license being sought. This 784 subparagraph does not apply to any holder of or applicant for a

786 governmental entity seeking initial licensure or renewal of an 787 existing license solely for the purpose of inspecting,
788 servicing, repairing, marking, recharging, and maintaining fire
789 extinguishers used and located on the premises of and owned by 790 such organization or entity.

791 5. The applicant has a current retestor identification
792 number that is appropriate for the license for which the 793 applicant is applying and that is listed with the United States

489504

794 Department of Transportation.

795 6. The applicant has passed, with a grade of at least 70
796 percent, a written examination testing his or her knowledge of 797 the rules and statutes governing the activities authorized by
798 the license and demonstrating his or her knowledge and ability
799 to perform those tasks in a competent, lawful, and safe manner.
800 Such examination must be developed and administered by the State
801 Fire Marshal, or his or her designee in accordance with policies
802 and procedures of the State Fire Marshal. An applicant shall pay
803 a nonrefundable examination fee of $50 for each examination or
804 reexamination scheduled. A reexamination may not be scheduled
805 sooner than 30 days after any administration of an examination
806 to an applicant. An applicant may not be permitted to take an
807 examination for any level of license more than a total of four 808 times during 1 year, regardless of the number of applications
809 submitted. As a prerequisite to licensure of the applicant, he 810 or she:

811 a. Must be at least 18 years of age.

812 b. Must have 4 years of proven experience as a fire
813 equipment permittee at a level equal to or greater than the

220 to read:

221 497.1411 Disqualification of applicants and licensees;
222 penalties against licensees; rulemaking.—

223 (1) For purposes of this section, the term:

224 (a) "Applicant" means an individual applying for licensure
225 or relicensure under this chapter, and an officer, a director, a
226 majority owner, a partner, a manager, or other person who
227 manages or controls an entity applying for licensure or
228 relicensure under this chapter.

229 (b) "Felony of the first degree" and "capital felony"
230 include all felonies designated as such in this state at the 231 time of the commission of the offense, as well as any offense in
232 another jurisdiction that is substantially similar to an offense
233 so designated in this state.

234 (c) "Financial services business" means any financial
235 activity regulated by the department, the Office of Insurance
236 Regulation, or the Office of Financial Regulation.

237 (2) An applicant who has been found guilty of or has
238 pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to any of the following
239 crimes, regardless of adjudication, is permanently barred from
240 licensure under this chapter:

241 (a) A felony of the first degree.

242 (b) A capital felony.

743900

243 (c) A felony money laundering offense.
244 (d) A felony embezzlement.
245 (3) An applicant who has been found guilty of or has 246 pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to a crime not included in 247 subsection (2), regardless of adjudication, is subject to:
248 (a) A 10-year disqualifying period for all felonies
249 involving moral turpitude that are not specifically included in
250 the permanent bar contained in subsection (2).
251 (b) A 5-year disqualifying period for all felonies to which
252 neither the permanent bar in subsection (2) nor the 10-year
253 disqualifying period in paragraph (a) applies.
254 (c) A 5-year disqualifying period for all misdemeanors
255 directly related to the financial services business.
256 (4) The board shall adopt rules to administer this section.
257 The rules must provide for additional disqualifying periods due
258 to the commitment of multiple crimes and may include other
259 factors reasonably related to the applicant's criminal history.
260 The rules shall provide for mitigating and aggravating factors.
261 However, mitigation may not result in a period of 262 disqualification of less than 5 years and may not mitigate the
263 disqualifying periods in paragraphs (3) (b) and (c).
264 (5) For purposes of this section, a disqualifying period
265 begins upon the applicant's final release from supervision or
266 upon completion of the applicant's criminal sentence. The
267 department may not issue a license to an applicant unless all
268 related fines, court costs and fees, and court-ordered
269 restitution have been paid.
270 (6) After the disqualifying period has expired, the burden
271 is on the applicant to demonstrate that he or she has been

272 rehabilitated, does not pose a risk to the public, is fit and 273 trustworthy to engage in business regulated by this chapter, and 274 is otherwise qualified for licensure.

275 (7) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3), an applicant
276 who has been found guilty of, or has pleaded guilty or nolo
277 contendere to, a crime in subsection (2) or subsection (3) and 278 who has subsequently been granted a pardon or the restoration of 279 civil rights pursuant to chapter 940 and s. 8, Art. IV of the 280 State Constitution, or a pardon or the restoration of civil
281 rights under the laws of another jurisdiction with respect to a
282 conviction in that jurisdiction, is not barred or disqualified
283 from licensure under this chapter. However, such a pardon or 284 restoration of civil rights does not require the department to 285 award such license.

286 (8) (a) The board may grant an exemption from 287 disqualification to any person disqualified from licensure under 288 subsection (3) if:

289 1. The applicant has paid in full any fee, fine, fund,
290 lien, civil judgment, restitution, or cost of prosecution
291 imposed by the court as part of the judgment and sentence for 292 any disqualifying offense; and

293 2. At least 5 years have elapsed since the applicant
294 completed or has been lawfully released from confinement,
295 supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by the court for a
296 disqualifying offense.

297 (b) For the board to grant an exemption under this
298 subsection, the applicant must clearly and convincingly
299 demonstrate that he or she would not pose a risk to persons or 300 property if licensed under this chapter, evidence of which must

743900

301 include, but need not be limited to, facts and circumstances
302 surrounding the disqualifying offense, the time that has elapsed
303 since the offense, the nature of the offense and harm caused to 304 the victim, the applicant's history before and after the 305 offense, and any other evidence or circumstances indicating that 306 the applicant will not present a danger if licensed or
307 certified.

308 (c) The board has discretion whether to grant or deny an
309 exemption under this subsection. The board's decision is subject
310 to chapter 120.

311 (9) The disqualification periods provided in this section
312 do not apply to the renewal of a license or to a new application
313 for licensure if the applicant has an active license as of July
314 1, 2020, and the applicable criminal history was considered by 315 the board on the prior approval of any active license held by
316 the applicant. This subsection does not affect any criminal
317 history disclosure requirement of this chapter.

318 Section 8. Subsection (9) and paragraph (c) of subsection
319 (10) of section 497.142, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:
320 497.142 Licensing; fingerprinting and criminal background
321 checks.—

322 (9) If any applicant under this chapter has been, ~~within~~
323 ~~the 10 years preceding the application under this chapter,~~
324 convicted or found guilty of, or entered a plea of nolo
325 contendere to, regardless of adjudication, any crime in any
326 jurisdiction, the application shall not be deemed complete until 327 such time as the applicant provides such certified true copies
328 of the court records evidencing the conviction, finding, or plea
329 as required by this section or, as the licensing authority may

743900

330 by rule require.

331 (10)(c) Crimes to be disclosed are:

332 1. Any felony ~~or misdemeanor~~, no matter when committed,
333 ~~that was directly or indirectly related to or involving any~~
334 ~~aspect of the practice or business of funeral directing,~~
335 ~~embalming, direct disposition, cremation, funeral or cemetery~~
336 ~~preneed sales, funeral establishment operations, cemetery~~
337 ~~operations, or cemetery monument or marker sales or~~
338 ~~installation.~~

339 2. Any misdemeanor, no matter when committed, which was 340 directly or indirectly related to the financial services
341 business as defined in s. 497.1411 ~~Any other felony not already~~
342 ~~disclosed under subparagraph 1. that was committed within the 20~~
343 ~~years immediately preceding the application under this chapter.~~

344 3. Any other misdemeanor not already disclosed under
345 subparagraph 2. ~~subparagraph 1.~~ that was committed within the 5
346 years immediately preceding the application under this chapter.

368 may impose such prohibitions and requirements as are reasonably
369 necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare, and 370 shall be effective when served.

371 (a) For the purpose of enforcing such an immediate final
372 order, the department may file an emergency or other proceeding
373 in the circuit courts of the state seeking enforcement of the 374 immediate final order by injunctive or other order of the court.
375 The court shall issue its injunction or other order enforcing
376 the immediate final order pending administrative resolution of 377 the matter under subsection (4) ~~(2)~~, unless the court determines 378 that such action would work a manifest injustice under the 379 circumstances. Venue for judicial actions under this paragraph
380 shall be, at the election of the department, in the courts of

513 ~~reopened claim~~ was given to the insurer in accordance with the 514 terms of the policy within 24 months ~~3 years~~ after the hurricane
515 first made landfall or the windstorm caused the covered damage.
516 For purposes of this section, the term "supplemental claim" or 517 "reopened claim" means any additional claim for recovery from
518 the insurer for losses from the same hurricane or windstorm
519 which the insurer has previously adjusted pursuant to the
520 initial claim. This section does not affect any applicable
521 limitation on civil actions provided in s. 95.11 for claims,

523 section.

524 Section 15. Subsection (3) of section 633.102, Florida
525 Statutes, is amended to read:

526 633.102 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the term:

527 (3) (a) "Contractor I" means a contractor whose business
528 includes the execution of contracts requiring the ability to lay
529 out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service all
530 types of fire protection systems, excluding preengineered
531 systems.

532 (b) "Contractor II" means a contractor whose business is

743900

533 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to
534 lay out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service
535 water sprinkler systems, water spray systems, foam-water
536 sprinkler systems, foam-water spray systems, standpipes,
537 combination standpipes and sprinkler risers, all piping that is 538 an integral part of the system beginning at the point of service
539 as defined in this section, sprinkler tank heaters, air lines,
540 thermal systems used in connection with sprinklers, and tanks
541 and pumps connected thereto, excluding preengineered systems.

542 (c) "Contractor III" means a contractor whose business is
543 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to 544 fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service carbon
545 dioxide systems, foam extinguishing systems, dry chemical
546 systems, and Halon and other chemical systems, excluding
547 preengineered systems.

548 (d) "Contractor IV" means a contractor whose business is
549 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to
550 lay out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service

563 defined in this act and ending no more than 1 foot above the 564 finished floor.

565
566 The definitions in this subsection may not be construed to
567 include engineers or architects and do not limit or prohibit a
568 licensed fire protection engineer or architect with fire
569 protection design experience from designing any type of fire
570 protection system. A distinction is made between system design
571 concepts prepared by the design professional and system layout
572 as defined in this section and typically prepared by the

580 alteration of an existing fire sprinkler system if the
581 alteration consists of the relocation or deletion of 249 or
582 fewer sprinklers, notwithstanding the size of the existing fire

584 in the Florida Building Code, of the affected areas and there is
585 no change in the water demand as defined in National Fire
586 Protection Association publication NFPA 13 "Standard for the 587 Installation of Sprinkler Systems," and if the occupancy hazard
588 classification as defined in NFPA 13 is reduced or remains the 589 same as a result of the alteration. A person certified as a
590 Contractor I, Contractor II, or Contractor IV may design or

743900

591 alter a fire protection system, the scope of which complies with
592 NFPA 13D, Standard for the Installation of Sprinkler Systems in
593 One- and Two-Family Dwellings and Manufactured Homes, as adopted
594 by the State Fire Marshal, notwithstanding the number of fire
595 sprinklers. Contractor-developed plans may not be required by 596 any local permitting authority to be sealed by a registered
597 professional engineer.

598 Section 16. Section 633.136, Florida Statutes, is amended
599 to read:

758 2. The State Fire Marshal or his or her designee has by
759 inspection determined that the applicant possesses the equipment
760 required for the class of license sought. The State Fire Marshal

763 inspection, an applicant with facilities located outside this
764 state must:

823 Fire Marshal, or his or her designee in accordance with policies
824 and procedures of the State Fire Marshal. An applicant shall pay

849 licensure for a period of 4 years after expiration of sentence
850 or final release by the Florida Commission on Offender Review
851 unless the applicant, before the expiration of the 4-year

876 must be developed and administered by the State Fire Marshal in 877 accordance with the policies and procedures of the State Fire
878 Marshal. An examination fee must be paid for each examination
879 scheduled. A reexamination may not be scheduled sooner than 30
880 days after any administration of an examination to an applicant.

743900

881 An applicant may not be permitted to take an examination for any 882 level of permit more than four times during 1 year, regardless

228 relicensure under this chapter.

229 (b) "Felony of the first degree" and "capital felony"
230 include all felonies designated as such in this state at the 231 time of the commission of the offense, as well as any offense in
232 another jurisdiction that is substantially similar to an offense
233 so designated in this state.

234 (c) "Financial services business" means any financial
235 activity regulated by the department, the Office of Insurance
236 Regulation, or the Office of Financial Regulation.

237 (2) An applicant who has been found guilty of or has
238 pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to any of the following
239 crimes, regardless of adjudication, is permanently barred from
240 licensure under this chapter:

241 (a) A felony of the first degree.

242 (b) A capital felony.

810530

243 (c) A felony money laundering offense.
244 (d) A felony embezzlement.
245 (3) An applicant who has been found guilty of or has 246 pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to a crime not included in 247 subsection (2), regardless of adjudication, is subject to:
248 (a) A 10-year disqualifying period for all felonies
249 involving moral turpitude that are not specifically included in
250 the permanent bar contained in subsection (2).
251 (b) A 5-year disqualifying period for all felonies to which
252 neither the permanent bar in subsection (2) nor the 10-year
253 disqualifying period in paragraph (a) applies.
254 (c) A 5-year disqualifying period for all misdemeanors
255 directly related to the financial services business.
256 (4) The board shall adopt rules to administer this section.
257 The rules must provide for additional disqualifying periods due
258 to the commitment of multiple crimes and may include other
259 factors reasonably related to the applicant's criminal history.
260 The rules shall provide for mitigating and aggravating factors.
261 However, mitigation may not result in a period of 262 disqualification of less than 5 years and may not mitigate the
263 disqualifying periods in paragraphs (3) (b) and (c).
264 (5) For purposes of this section, a disqualifying period
265 begins upon the applicant's final release from supervision or
266 upon completion of the applicant's criminal sentence. The
267 department may not issue a license to an applicant unless all
268 related fines, court costs and fees, and court-ordered
269 restitution have been paid.
270 (6) After the disqualifying period has expired, the burden
271 is on the applicant to demonstrate that he or she has been

810530

272 rehabilitated, does not pose a risk to the public, is fit and 273 trustworthy to engage in business regulated by this chapter, and 274 is otherwise qualified for licensure.

275 (7) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3), an applicant
276 who has been found guilty of, or has pleaded guilty or nolo
277 contendere to, a crime in subsection (2) or subsection (3) and 278 who has subsequently been granted a pardon or the restoration of 279 civil rights pursuant to chapter 940 and s. 8, Art. IV of the 280 State Constitution, or a pardon or the restoration of civil
281 rights under the laws of another jurisdiction with respect to a
282 conviction in that jurisdiction, is not barred or disqualified
283 from licensure under this chapter. However, such a pardon or 284 restoration of civil rights does not require the department to 285 award such license.

286 (8) (a) The board may grant an exemption from 287 disqualification to any person disqualified from licensure under 288 subsection (3) if:

289 1. The applicant has paid in full any fee, fine, fund,
290 lien, civil judgment, restitution, or cost of prosecution
291 imposed by the court as part of the judgment and sentence for 292 any disqualifying offense; and

293 2. At least 5 years have elapsed since the applicant
294 completed or has been lawfully released from confinement,
295 supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by the court for a
296 disqualifying offense.

297 (b) For the board to grant an exemption under this
298 subsection, the applicant must clearly and convincingly
299 demonstrate that he or she would not pose a risk to persons or 300 property if licensed under this chapter, evidence of which must

810530

301 include, but need not be limited to, facts and circumstances
302 surrounding the disqualifying offense, the time that has elapsed
303 since the offense, the nature of the offense and harm caused to 304 the victim, the applicant's history before and after the 305 offense, and any other evidence or circumstances indicating that 306 the applicant will not present a danger if licensed or
307 certified.

308 (c) The board has discretion whether to grant or deny an
309 exemption under this subsection. The board's decision is subject
310 to chapter 120.

311 (9) The disqualification periods provided in this section
312 do not apply to the renewal of a license or to a new application
313 for licensure if the applicant has an active license as of July
314 1, 2020, and the applicable criminal history was considered by 315 the board on the prior approval of any active license held by
316 the applicant. This subsection does not affect any criminal
317 history disclosure requirement of this chapter.

318 Section 8. Subsection (9) and paragraph (c) of subsection
319 (10) of section 497.142, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:
320 497.142 Licensing; fingerprinting and criminal background
321 checks.—

322 (9) If any applicant under this chapter has been, ~~within~~
323 ~~the 10 years preceding the application under this chapter,~~
324 convicted or found guilty of, or entered a plea of nolo
325 contendere to, regardless of adjudication, any crime in any
326 jurisdiction, the application shall not be deemed complete until 327 such time as the applicant provides such certified true copies
328 of the court records evidencing the conviction, finding, or plea
329 as required by this section or, as the licensing authority may

810530

330 by rule require.

331 (10)(c) Crimes to be disclosed are:

332 1. Any felony ~~or misdemeanor~~, no matter when committed,
333 ~~that was directly or indirectly related to or involving any~~
334 ~~aspect of the practice or business of funeral directing,~~
335 ~~embalming, direct disposition, cremation, funeral or cemetery~~
336 ~~preneed sales, funeral establishment operations, cemetery~~
337 ~~operations, or cemetery monument or marker sales or~~
338 ~~installation.~~

339 2. Any misdemeanor, no matter when committed, which was 340 directly or indirectly related to the financial services
341 business as defined in s. 497.1411 ~~Any other felony not already~~
342 ~~disclosed under subparagraph 1. that was committed within the 20~~
343 ~~years immediately preceding the application under this chapter.~~

344 3. Any other misdemeanor not already disclosed under
345 subparagraph 2. ~~subparagraph 1.~~ that was committed within the 5
346 years immediately preceding the application under this chapter.

347 Section 9. Present subsections (2) through (5) of section
348 497.157, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as subsections (4)
349 through (7), respectively, new subsections (2) and (3) and
350 subsection (8) are added to that section, and present subsection
351 (3) of that section is amended, to read:

362 contracts.

363 (5)~~(3)~~ Where the department determines that an emergency
364 exists regarding any violation of this chapter by any unlicensed
365 person or entity, the department may issue and serve an
366 immediate final order upon such unlicensed person or entity, in
367 accordance with s. 120.569(2) (n). Such an immediate final order
368 may impose such prohibitions and requirements as are reasonably
369 necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare, and 370 shall be effective when served.

371 (a) For the purpose of enforcing such an immediate final
372 order, the department may file an emergency or other proceeding
373 in the circuit courts of the state seeking enforcement of the 374 immediate final order by injunctive or other order of the court.
375 The court shall issue its injunction or other order enforcing
376 the immediate final order pending administrative resolution of 377 the matter under subsection (4) ~~(2)~~, unless the court determines 378 that such action would work a manifest injustice under the 379 circumstances. Venue for judicial actions under this paragraph
380 shall be, at the election of the department, in the courts of 381 Leon County, or in a county where the respondent resides or has 382 a place of business.

383 (b) After serving an immediate final order to cease and
384 desist upon any person or entity, the department shall within 10
385 days issue and serve upon the same person or entity an
386 administrative complaint as set forth in subsection (4) ~~(2)~~,
387 except that, absent order of a court to the contrary, the 810530

388 immediate final order shall be effective throughout the pendency
389 of proceedings under subsection (4) ~~(2)~~.

390 (8) Any person who is not licensed under this chapter and
391 who engages in activity requiring licensure under this chapter
392 commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in 393 s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

394 Section 10. Subsection (6) of section 497.159, Florida
395 Statutes, is amended to read:

401 Section 11. Subsection (13) of section 552.081, Florida
402 Statutes, is amended to read:

403 552.081 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

404 (13) "Two-component explosives" means any two inert
405 components which, when mixed, become capable of detonation by 406 any detonator ~~a No. 6 blasting cap~~, and shall be classified as a

413 agency.—

414 (1) A contractor must file a Uniform Fire Alarm Permit
415 Application as provided in subsection (3) ~~(2)~~ with the local 416 enforcement agency and must receive the fire alarm permit

810530

417 before:

418 ~~(a) installing or replacing a fire alarm, if the local~~
419 ~~enforcement agency requires a plan review for the installation~~
420 ~~or replacement; or~~

421 ~~(b) Repairing an existing alarm system that was previously~~
422 ~~permitted by the local enforcement agency if the local~~
423 ~~enforcement agency requires a fire alarm permit for the repair.~~

424 (2) If the local enforcement agency requires a fire alarm
425 permit to repair an existing alarm system that was previously
426 permitted by the local enforcement agency, a contractor may
427 begin work after filing a Uniform Fire Alarm Permit Application
428 as provided in subsection (3). A fire alarm repaired pursuant to 429 this subsection may not be considered compliant until the 430 required permit is issued and the local enforcement agency
431 approves the repair.

432 Section 13. Effective January 1, 2021, subsection (3) of 433 section 626.2815, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

440 insurance for which examination and licensure are required and
441 include the following subject areas: insurance law updates,
442 ethics for insurance professionals, disciplinary trends and case
443 studies, industry trends, premium discounts, determining
444 suitability of products and services, and other similar
445 insurance-related topics the department determines are relevant

810530

446 to legally and ethically carrying out the responsibilities of 447 the license granted. A licensee who holds multiple insurance
448 licenses must complete an update course that is specific to at
449 least one of the licenses held. Except as otherwise specified,
450 any remaining required hours of continuing education are
451 elective and may consist of any continuing education course
452 approved by the department under this section.

453 (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e),
454 (i), and (j), each licensee must also complete 20 ~~19~~ hours of 474 approved by the department. Notwithstanding this subsection,

810530

475 public adjusters for workers' compensation insurance or health
476 insurance are not required to take continuing education courses
477 pursuant to this section.

478 (g) Excess hours accumulated during any 2-year compliance
479 period may be carried forward to the next compliance period.

480 (h) An individual teaching an approved course of 481 instruction or lecturing at any approved seminar and attending
482 the entire course or seminar qualifies for the same number of 483 classroom hours as would be granted to a person taking and 484 successfully completing such course or seminar. Credit is 485 limited to the number of hours actually taught unless a person
486 attends the entire course or seminar. An individual who is an 487 official of or employed by a governmental entity in this state
488 and serves as a professor, instructor, or in another position or

497 specific to this state and approved by the department, which 498 shall include at least 3 hours of continuing education on the 499 subject matter of ethics, rules, or compliance with state and 500 federal regulations relating specifically to title insurance and 501 closing services.

502 (j) For a licensee who is an active participant in an 503 association, 2 hours of elective continuing education credit per

810530

504 calendar year may be approved by the department, if properly
505 reported by the association.

506 Section 14. Section 627.70132, Florida Statutes, is amended
507 to read:

508 627.70132 Notice of windstorm or hurricane claim.—An
509 initial claim under an insurance policy that provides property
510 insurance, as defined in s. 624.604, for loss or damage caused
511 by the peril of windstorm or hurricane is barred unless notice
512 of the initial claim was given to the insurer in accordance with 513 the terms of the policy within 24 months after the hurricane 514 first made landfall or the windstorm caused the covered damage.

515 A ~~claim~~, supplemental claim~~7~~ or reopened claim under an 516 insurance policy that provides property insurance, as defined in 517 s. 624.604, for loss or damage caused by the peril of windstorm
518 or hurricane is barred unless notice of the ~~claim~~, supplemental 519 claim~~7~~ or reopened claim was given to the insurer in accordance 520 with the terms of the policy within 3 years after the hurricane 521 first made landfall or the windstorm caused the covered damage.
522 For purposes of this section, the term "supplemental claim" or 523 "reopened claim" means any additional claim for recovery from
524 the insurer for losses from the same hurricane or windstorm
525 which the insurer has previously adjusted pursuant to the
526 initial claim. This section does not affect any applicable
527 limitation on civil actions provided in s. 95.11 for claims,
528 supplemental claims, or reopened claims timely filed under this
529 section.

530 Section 15. Subsection (3) of section 633.102, Florida
531 Statutes, is amended to read:

532 633.102 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the term:

810530

533 (3) (a) "Contractor I" means a contractor whose business
534 includes the execution of contracts requiring the ability to lay
535 out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service all
536 types of fire protection systems, excluding preengineered
537 systems.

538 (b) "Contractor II" means a contractor whose business is
539 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to
540 lay out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service
541 water sprinkler systems, water spray systems, foam-water
542 sprinkler systems, foam-water spray systems, standpipes,
543 combination standpipes and sprinkler risers, all piping that is
544 an integral part of the system beginning at the point of service
545 as defined in this section, sprinkler tank heaters, air lines,
546 thermal systems used in connection with sprinklers, and tanks
547 and pumps connected thereto, excluding preengineered systems.

548 (c) "Contractor III" means a contractor whose business is
549 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to 550 fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service carbon
551 dioxide systems, foam extinguishing systems, dry chemical
552 systems, and Halon and other chemical systems, excluding
553 preengineered systems.

554 (d) "Contractor IV" means a contractor whose business is
555 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to
556 lay out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service
557 automatic fire sprinkler systems for detached one-family
558 dwellings, detached two-family dwellings, and mobile homes,
559 excluding preengineered systems and excluding single-family
560 homes in cluster units, such as apartments, condominiums, and 561 assisted living facilities or any building that is connected to 810530

562 other dwellings. A Contractor IV is limited to the scope of 563 practice specified in NFPA 13D.

564 (e) "Contractor V" means a contractor whose business is
565 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to 566 fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service the
567 underground piping for a fire protection system using water as 568 the extinguishing agent beginning at the point of service as 569 defined in this act and ending no more than 1 foot above the 570 finished floor.

571
572 The definitions in this subsection may not be construed to
573 include engineers or architects and do not limit or prohibit a
574 licensed fire protection engineer or architect with fire
575 protection design experience from designing any type of fire
576 protection system. A distinction is made between system design
577 concepts prepared by the design professional and system layout
578 as defined in this section and typically prepared by the 579 contractor. However, a person certified as a Contractor I or
580 Contractor II, ~~or Contractor IV~~ under this chapter may design
581 new fire protection systems of 49 or fewer sprinklers; ~~and~~ may 582 design the alteration of an existing fire sprinkler system if
583 the alteration consists of the relocation, addition, or deletion
584 of ~~not more than~~ 49 or fewer sprinklers, notwithstanding the 585 size of the existing fire sprinkler system; or may design the
586 alteration of an existing fire sprinkler system if the 587 alteration consists of the relocation or deletion of 249 or
588 fewer sprinklers, notwithstanding the size of the existing fire
589 sprinkler system, if there is no change of occupancy, as defined
590 in the Florida Building Code, of the affected areas and there is 810530

591 no change in the water demand as defined in National Fire
592 Protection Association publication NFPA 13 "Standard for the 593 Installation of Sprinkler Systems," and if the occupancy hazard
594 classification as defined in NFPA 13 is reduced or remains the 595 same as a result of the alteration. A person certified as a
596 Contractor I, Contractor II, or Contractor IV may design or 597 alter a fire protection system, the scope of which complies with 598 NFPA 13D, Standard for the Installation of Sprinkler Systems in
599 One- and Two-Family Dwellings and Manufactured Homes, as adopted
600 by the State Fire Marshal, notwithstanding the number of fire
601 sprinklers. Contractor-developed plans may not be required by
602 any local permitting authority to be sealed by a registered
603 professional engineer.

604 Section 16. Section 633.136, Florida Statutes, is amended
605 to read:

606 633.136 Fire and Emergency Incident Information Reporting

626 agencies with fire and emergency incident data of this state.

627 3. Adopt rules to effectively and efficiently implement,
628 administer, manage, maintain, and use the Fire and Emergency
629 Incident Information Reporting Program. The rules shall be
630 considered minimum requirements and shall not preclude a fire
631 service provider ~~protection agency~~ from implementing its own
632 requirements which may not conflict with the rules of the 633 division.

634 4. By rule, establish procedures and a format for each fire
635 service provider ~~protection agency~~ to voluntarily monitor its 636 records and submit reports to the program.

659 (3) As used in ~~For the purpose of~~ this section, the term
660 "fire service provider" has the same meaning as in s. 633.102
661 ~~"fire protection agency" shall be defined by rule by the~~ 662 ~~division.~~

663 Section 17. Subsections (18) and (20) of section 633.202,
664 Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

671 enhancement communications as required by the Florida Fire
672 Prevention Code until January 1, 2023 ~~2022~~. However, by January
673 1, 2022 ~~December 31, 2019~~, an existing building that is not in 674 compliance with the requirements for minimum radio strength for 675 fire department communications must have completed a minimum
676 radio strength assessment ~~apply for an appropriate permit~~ for 677 the required installation with the local government agency

810530

678 having jurisdiction and must demonstrate that the building will 679 become compliant by January 1, 2023 ~~2022~~. Existing apartment
680 buildings are not required to comply until January 1, 2025.
681 However, existing apartment buildings are required to apply for

31 begin work after filing a Uniform Fire Alarm Permit Application
32 as provided in subsection (3). A fire alarm repaired pursuant to 33 this subsection may not be considered compliant until the 34 required permit is issued and the local enforcement agency
35 approves the repair.

36 Section 3. Effective January 1, 2021, subsection (3) of
37 section 626.2815, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

38 626.2815 Continuing education requirements.-

41 specific to the license held by the licensee. The course must be 42 developed and offered by providers and approved by the

47 studies, industry trends, premium discounts, determining

51 the license granted. A licensee who holds multiple insurance
52 licenses must complete an update course that is specific to at
53 least one of the licenses held. Except as otherwise specified,
54 any remaining required hours of continuing education are
55 elective and may consist of any continuing education course
56 approved by the department under this section.

57 (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e),

113 (3) (a) "Contractor I" means a contractor whose business
114 includes the execution of contracts requiring the ability to lay
115 out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service all
116 types of fire protection systems, excluding preengineered
117 systems.

118 (b) "Contractor II" means a contractor whose business is
119 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to
120 lay out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service
121 water sprinkler systems, water spray systems, foam-water
122 sprinkler systems, foam-water spray systems, standpipes,
123 combination standpipes and sprinkler risers, all piping that is
124 an integral part of the system beginning at the point of service
125 as defined in this section, sprinkler tank heaters, air lines,

127 and pumps connected thereto, excluding preengineered systems.

128 (c) "Contractor III" means a contractor whose business is
129 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to 130 fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service carbon
131 dioxide systems, foam extinguishing systems, dry chemical
132 systems, and Halon and other chemical systems, excluding
133 preengineered systems.

134 (d) "Contractor IV" means a contractor whose business is
135 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to
136 lay out, fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service
137 automatic fire sprinkler systems for detached one-family

139 excluding preengineered systems and excluding single-family
140 homes in cluster units, such as apartments, condominiums, and
141 assisted living facilities or any building that is connected to 142 other dwellings. A Contractor IV is limited to the scope of 143 practice specified in NFPA 13D.

144 (e) "Contractor V" means a contractor whose business is
145 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to 146 fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service the

149 defined in this act and ending no more than 1 foot above the 150 finished floor.

151
152 The definitions in this subsection may not be construed to
153 include engineers or architects and do not limit or prohibit a
154 licensed fire protection engineer or architect with fire
155 protection design experience from designing any type of fire

233344

156 protection system. A distinction is made between system design
157 concepts prepared by the design professional and system layout

165 size of the existing fire sprinkler system; or may design the 166 alteration of an existing fire sprinkler system if the 167 alteration consists of the relocation or deletion of 249 or
168 fewer sprinklers, notwithstanding the size of the existing fire
169 sprinkler system, if there is no change of occupancy, as defined
170 in the Florida Building Code, of the affected areas and there is
171 no change in the water demand as defined in National Fire
172 Protection Association publication NFPA 13 "Standard for the 173 Installation of Sprinkler Systems," and if the occupancy hazard
174 classification as defined in NFPA 13 is reduced or remains the 175 same as a result of the alteration. A person certified as a
176 Contractor I, Contractor II, or Contractor IV may design or 177 alter a fire protection system, the scope of which complies with 178 NFPA 13D, Standard for the Installation of Sprinkler Systems in
179 One- and Two-Family Dwellings and Manufactured Homes, as adopted
180 by the State Fire Marshal, notwithstanding the number of fire

323 chapter.

324 (b) Offering any compensation to the firesafety inspector
325 to induce a violation of the Florida Fire Prevention Code, any

337 (4)

338 (d) A license of any class may not be issued or renewed by
339 the division and a license of any class does not remain
340 operative unless:

341 1. The applicant has submitted to the State Fire Marshal
342 evidence of registration as a Florida corporation or evidence of 343 compliance with s. 865.09.

344 2. The State Fire Marshal or his or her designee has by
345 inspection determined that the applicant possesses the equipment
346 required for the class of license sought. The State Fire Marshal
347 shall give an applicant a reasonable opportunity to correct any

349 inspection, an applicant with facilities located outside this
350 state must:

356 b. Allow the State Fire Marshal or her or his designee to 357 inspect the facility. All costs associated with the State Fire

376 upon demand, and in no event more than 30 days after notice of 377 such demand, the licensee to provide proof of insurance, on the 378 insurer's form, containing confirmation of insurance coverage as

384 any change in coverage or of any termination, cancellation, or
385 nonrenewal of any coverage.

386 4. The applicant applies to the State Fire Marshal,
387 provides proof of experience, and successfully completes a

233344

388 prescribed training course that includes both written and
389 practical training offered at by the State Fire College and or 390 an equivalent course approved by the State Fire Marshal as

396 servicing, repairing, marking, recharging, and maintaining fire
397 extinguishers used and located on the premises of and owned by
398 such organization or entity.

399 5. The applicant has a current retestor identification
400 number that is appropriate for the license for which the 401 applicant is applying and that is listed with the United States
402 Department of Transportation.

403 6. The applicant has passed, with a grade of at least 70
404 percent, a written examination testing his or her knowledge of 405 the rules and statutes governing the activities authorized by
406 the license and demonstrating his or her knowledge and ability
407 to perform those tasks in a competent, lawful, and safe manner.
408 Such examination must be developed and administered by the State
409 Fire Marshal, or his or her designee in accordance with policies
410 and procedures of the State Fire Marshal. An applicant shall pay
411 a nonrefundable examination fee of $50 for each examination or
412 reexamination scheduled. A reexamination may not be scheduled
413 sooner than 30 days after any administration of an examination
414 to an applicant. An applicant may not be permitted to take an 415 examination for any level of license more than a total of four

251 (1) For purposes of this section, the term:

252 (a) "Applicant" means an individual applying for licensure
253 or relicensure under this chapter, and an officer, a director, a
254 majority owner, a partner, a manager, or other person who
255 manages or controls an entity applying for licensure or
256 relicensure under this chapter.

257 (b) "Felony of the first degree" and "capital felony"
258 include all felonies designated as such in this state at the

863198

576-03880-20

259 time of the commission of the offense, as well as any offense in
260 another jurisdiction that is substantially similar to an offense
261 so designated in this state.

262 (c) "Financial services business" means any financial
263 activity regulated by the department, the Office of Insurance
264 Regulation, or the Office of Financial Regulation.

265 (2) An applicant who has been found guilty of or has
266 pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to any of the following
267 crimes, regardless of adjudication, is permanently barred from
268 licensure under this chapter:

269 (a) A felony of the first degree.

270 (b) A capital felony.

271 (c) A felony money laundering offense.

272 (d) A felony embezzlement.

273 (3) An applicant who has been found guilty of or has
274 pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to a crime not included in 275 subsection (2), regardless of adjudication, is subject to:

276 (a) A 10-year disqualifying period for all felonies
277 involving moral turpitude that are not specifically included in 278 the permanent bar contained in subsection (2).

279 (b) A 5-year disqualifying period for all felonies to which
280 neither the permanent bar in subsection (2) nor the 10-year

282 (c) A 5-year disqualifying period for all misdemeanors
283 directly related to the financial services business.

284 (4) The board shall adopt rules to administer this section.
285 The rules must provide for additional disqualifying periods due
286 to the commitment of multiple crimes and may include other
287 factors reasonably related to the applicant's criminal history.

863198

576-03880-20

288 The rules shall provide for mitigating and aggravating factors.
289 However, mitigation may not result in a period of 290 disqualification of less than 5 years and may not mitigate the 291 disqualifying periods in paragraphs (3) (b) and (c).

292 (5) For purposes of this section, a disqualifying period
293 begins upon the applicant's final release from supervision or 294 upon completion of the applicant's criminal sentence. The
295 department may not issue a license to an applicant unless all
296 related fines, court costs and fees, and court-ordered
297 restitution have been paid.

298 (6) After the disqualifying period has expired, the burden
299 is on the applicant to demonstrate that he or she has been 300 rehabilitated, does not pose a risk to the public, is fit and 301 trustworthy to engage in business regulated by this chapter, and 302 is otherwise qualified for licensure.

303 (7) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3), an applicant
304 who has been found guilty of, or has pleaded guilty or nolo
305 contendere to, a crime in subsection (2) or subsection (3) and 306 who has subsequently been granted a pardon or the restoration of 307 civil rights pursuant to chapter 940 and s. 8, Art. IV of the 308 State Constitution, or a pardon or the restoration of civil
309 rights under the laws of another jurisdiction with respect to a
310 conviction in that jurisdiction, is not barred or disqualified
311 from licensure under this chapter. However, such a pardon or 312 restoration of civil rights does not require the department to 313 award such license.

314 (8) (a) The board may grant an exemption from
315 disqualification to any person disqualified from licensure under 316 subsection (3) if:

863198

576-03880-20

317 1. The applicant has paid in full any fee, fine, fund,
318 lien, civil judgment, restitution, or cost of prosecution
319 imposed by the court as part of the judgment and sentence for 320 any disqualifying offense; and

321 2. At least 5 years have elapsed since the applicant
322 completed or has been lawfully released from confinement,
323 supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by the court for a
324 disqualifying offense.

325 (b) For the board to grant an exemption under this
326 subsection, the applicant must clearly and convincingly
327 demonstrate that he or she would not pose a risk to persons or 328 property if licensed under this chapter, evidence of which must 329 include, but need not be limited to, facts and circumstances
330 surrounding the disqualifying offense, the time that has elapsed
331 since the offense, the nature of the offense and harm caused to
332 the victim, the applicant's history before and after the
333 offense, and any other evidence or circumstances indicating that 334 the applicant will not present a danger if licensed or
335 certified.

336 (c) The board has discretion whether to grant or deny an
337 exemption under this subsection. The board's decision is subject
338 to chapter 120.

339 (9) The disqualification periods provided in this section
340 do not apply to the renewal of a license or to a new application
341 for licensure if the applicant has an active license as of July
342 1, 2020, and the applicable criminal history was considered by 343 the board on the prior approval of any active license held by
344 the applicant. This subsection does not affect any criminal
345 history disclosure requirement of this chapter.

863198

576-03880-20

346 Section 5. Subsection (9) and paragraph (c) of subsection
347 (10) of section 497.142, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

352 convicted or found guilty of, or entered a plea of nolo
353 contendere to, regardless of adjudication, any crime in any

355 such time as the applicant provides such certified true copies
356 of the court records evidencing the conviction, finding, or plea
357 as required by this section ~~or,~~ as the licensing authority may 358 by rule require.

359 (10) (c) Crimes to be disclosed are:

663 practice specified in NFPA 13D.

664 (e) "Contractor V" means a contractor whose business is

863198

576-03880-20

665 limited to the execution of contracts requiring the ability to
666 fabricate, install, inspect, alter, repair, and service the 667 underground piping for a fire protection system using water as 668 the extinguishing agent beginning at the point of service as 669 defined in this act and ending no more than 1 foot above the 670 finished floor.

671
672 The definitions in this subsection may not be construed to
673 include engineers or architects and do not limit or prohibit a
674 licensed fire protection engineer or architect with fire
675 protection design experience from designing any type of fire
676 protection system. A distinction is made between system design
677 concepts prepared by the design professional and system layout
678 as defined in this section and typically prepared by the
679 contractor. However, a person certified as a Contractor I ~~or~~
680 Contractor II, ~~or Contractor IV~~ under this chapter may design
681 new fire protection systems of 49 or fewer sprinklers; ~~and~~ may 682 design the alteration of an existing fire sprinkler system if
683 the alteration consists of the relocation, addition, or deletion
684 of ~~not more than 49~~ or fewer sprinklers, notwithstanding the 685 size of the existing fire sprinkler system; or may design the 686 alteration of an existing fire sprinkler system if the
687 alteration consists of the relocation or deletion of 249 or
688 fewer sprinklers, notwithstanding the size of the existing fire
689 sprinkler system, if there is no change of occupancy, as defined
690 in the Florida Building Code, of the affected areas and there is
691 no change in the water demand as defined in National Fire
692 Protection Association publication NFPA 13 "Standard for the 693 Installation of Sprinkler Systems," and if the occupancy hazard

863198

576-03880-20

694 classification as defined in NFPA 13 is reduced or remains the 695 same as a result of the alteration. A person certified as a
696 Contractor I, Contractor II, or Contractor IV may design or 697 alter a fire protection system, the scope of which complies with 698 NFPA 13D, Standard for the Installation of Sprinkler Systems in
699 One- and Two-Family Dwellings and Manufactured Homes, as adopted
700 by the State Fire Marshal, notwithstanding the number of fire
701 sprinklers. Contractor-developed plans may not be required by
702 any local permitting authority to be sealed by a registered
703 professional engineer.

863198

576-03880-20

955 licensure for a period of 4 years after expiration of sentence
