Drone Threats

- Prolific use of drones for recreational, commercial, and military purposes has changed the threat landscape. Malicious use is now a global concern especially for publicly accessible soft targets.
- Weaponization
 - Programming an Unmanned Aircraft System (UAS) to collide with a target
 - Swarming capabilities are possible
 - UAS modification to include removing software and adding improvised explosive devices is simple.
 - Agriculture drones used to spray chemicals

Drone Threats

- Drones in Florida were manipulated with the intent to drop narcotics and contraband into Georgia Department of Corrections facilities. Through various investigative means, two businesses in Florida were identified as being complicit in the conspiracy.
- Florida legislation was established to make altering drones a felony: s. 330.411, F.S., - 3rd degree felony
 - Alter, manipulate, tamper with, or otherwise change an unmanned aircraft system's hardware or software to purposefully frustrate any tool, system, or technology intended to satisfy the remote identification requirements established by the Federal Aviation Administration as they relate to any unmanned aircraft or unmanned aircraft system;
 - Possess or operate an altered unmanned aircraft system as described above; or
 - Knowingly or willfully possess or operate an unmanned aircraft system with an attached weapon, firearm, explosive, destructive device, or ammunition as those terms are defined in s. 790.001.

Drone Threat Mitigation

- FDLE is strengthening the response to drones as a threat through drone detection capabilities.
 - The agency currently maintains both fixed and relocatable drone detection systems.
 - These systems are able to identify drones, assess the speed, direction, and altitude of the drone, provide remote identification information as required by the Federal Aviation Administration, and locate the pilot.

Florida Fusion Center (FFC) – Military Base Incursions

- The FFC remains concerned about attempted military base incursions by foreign nationals, including from adversarial countries such as China, Russia, Iran, and Venezuela.
- The FFC works closely with some bases within the state to track these attempts and monitor for suspicious activity.

FFC – Trusted Infrastructure Protection Partners (TIPPs)

- The FFC implemented the TIPP program. The goal of this initiative is to expand the information sharing relationship typically dominated by public sector partners to the private sector.
- TIPPs are fully backgrounded and vetted. They are recruited from trade associations and corporations that operate in multiple regions within the state of Florida.
- Since January of 2025, the FFC has onboarded 25 TIPPs from 17 entities.
- As the FFC continues to build its statewide Critical Infrastructure and Key Resources database, recruiting and onboarding additional TIPPs is a priority.

Critical Infrastructure Assessment and Evaluation Software

- FDLE continues to coordinate the implementation of the Critical Infrastructure Risk Management database known as FL-CIKR.
- The FFC has forward-deployed the following personnel in several regions throughout the state with the mission of identifying, cataloging, and assessing critical infrastructure facilities:
 - 3 FDLE sworn Inspectors
 - 3 FDLE non-sworn Critical Infrastructure Specialists
 - 3 non-sworn Critical Infrastructure Specialist pass-through positions at local agencies
- After one year of use, FL-CIKR has grown to over 30,000 sites catalogued. However, FDLE continues to be challenged by minimal staffing to address the volume of critical infrastructure in the state of Florida.
