BILL: SJR 244

INTRODUCER: Senator Gruters

SUBJECT: Partisan Elections for Members of District School Boards

DATE: November 15, 2021

I. Summary:

Senate Joint Resolution 244 proposes an amendment to the state constitution to require members of a district school board to be elected in a partisan race. If SJR 244 is adopted, members of district boards may not be elected on a partisan basis until the general election held in November 2024. Primary elections for purposes of nominating political party candidates to district school boards may occur before the 2024 general election.

SJR 244 requires three-fifths vote of the membership of each house of the Legislature for passage.¹

If adopted by 60% of the electors voting on the measure at the 2022 general election, the amendment will go into effect upon approval by the electors.

II. Present Situation:

District School Boards

Unless otherwise voted upon by electors, each county shall constitute a school district.² In Florida, there are 67 school districts to match the 67 counties in the state.³ Each school district shall have a school board composed of five or more members.⁴ The school boards operate,

² Fla. Const. art. IX, s. 4(a) (2021); s. 1001.30, F.S. Two or more contiguous counties, upon vote of the electors of each county pursuant to law, may be combined into one school district.

control, and supervise all free public schools within the school district and determine the rate of school district taxes within constitutional limits.⁵ The powers and duties of the district school board are further set forth in law.⁶

Election of School Board Members

School board members are chosen by vote of qualified electors in non-partisan elections and serve in appropriately staggered terms of four years, as provided by law.⁷

For election purposes, a school district is divided into at least five district school board member residence areas.⁸ For districts with more than five school board members, the district can be divided into five district school board member residence areas, with the remaining district school board members serving at large, or the district can be divided into district school board member residence areas for each member.⁹ A candidate for a district school board shall be a resident of the district board member residence area from which the candidate seeks election at the time he or she qualifies.¹⁰

Members of the district school board can be elected by either district-wide election or a single-member district election.¹¹ In a district-wide election, all qualified electors in the district shall be entitled to vote for one candidate from each district school board member residence area.¹² In school districts with single-member representation, candidates for the school board shall be elected only by qualified electors who reside in the same residence area as the candidate.¹³

Candidates for school board shall qualify to run for office with the supervisor of elections in their respective district.¹⁴ If two or more candidates, neither of whom is a write-in candidate, qualify, their names shall appear on the ballot at the primary election.¹⁵ Their names shall appear with no reference to political party affiliation.¹⁶ If none of the candidates receive a majority of the votes cast for school board, the names of the two candidates receiving the highest number votes shall be placed on the general election ballot with no reference to political party affiliation.¹⁷

⁵ Fla. Const. art. IX, s. 4(b) (2021).

⁶ Sections 1001.41 and 1001.42, F.S.

⁷ Section 1001.35, F.S. (2021), Fla. Const. art. IX s. 4(a) (2021), was amended as part of a larger election reform package offered by the 1997-98 Constitution Revision Commission. Prior to the amendment, school board members were elected in partisan races. William A. Buzzett and Deborah K. Kearney, Annotation, Fla. Const. art. IX, s. 4, West's Florida Statutes Annotated, Florida Constitution – 1968 Revision (2020).

⁹ Section 1001.36(1)(a), F.S.

¹⁰ Sections 1001.361 and 1001.362(2)(b)1.-2., F.S.

¹¹ In 43 school districts, school members are elected by a district-wide vote of electors. In 21 school districts, school board members are elected by a vote of the electors within their residence area (single member district election). In 4 school districts, some school board members are elected by a vote of the electors within their residence area and others are elected by a district wide vote. ¹⁶ Section 105.041(3), F.S.

¹⁷ Section 105.051(1)(b), F.S.

A school board member's term begins on the second Tuesday following the general election in which the school board member is elected.¹⁸

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

SJR 244 requires a candidate for school board to be elected in a partisan race. At the time of qualifying, a partisan candidate for school board would be required to file a written statement identifying the political party of which they are a member.¹⁹ They must also state they have been a member of the political party for 365 days before the beginning of qualifying preceding the general election for which they seek to qualify and they have paid any assessment levied against them by the executive committee of their political party.²⁰ A school board candidate with no party affiliation must state they have not been a registered member of any political party for 365 day before the beginning of the qualifying preceding the general election for which the person seeks to qualify.²¹

In a primary election with a partisan race, qualified electors will be entitled to vote for school board candidates of the political party designated in the elector's registration, and no other.²² If all candidates in a partisan race for school board have the same party affiliation and the winner will have no opposition in the general election, all qualified electors, regardless of party affiliation, may vote in the primary election for that office.²³

On a general election ballot, the appropriate three-letter abbreviation of a political party or no party affiliation (NPA) in capital letters will be included for each school board candidate.²⁴

If SJR 244 is adopted, members of district boards may not be elected on a partisan basis until the general election held in November 2024. Primary elections for purposes of nominating political party candidates to district school boards may occur before the 2024 general election. The amendment will go into effect upon approval of the electors.

BILL ANALYSIS AND FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

(This document is based on the provisions contained in the legislation as of the latest date listed below.)

Prepared By: The Professional Staff of the Committee on Ethics and Elections

BILL: CS/SB 510

INTRODUCER: Ethics and Elections Committee and Senator Brodeur

SUBJECT: Financial Disclosures for Elected Local Officers

DATE: December 1, 2021

REVISED: 11/30/21

Please see Section IX. for Additional Information:

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE - Substantial Changes

I. Summary:

CS/SB 510 requires the following local officers to file full and public disclosure of financial interests pursuant to the Florida Constitution:¹

- Mayors.
- City Commissioners.
- Elected members of a city council; town council; village council; or other governing body of a city, town, or village.
- City, county, town, or village managers.

The bill revises the definition of “local officers” to conform to the changes proposed in the bill.

This bill will take effect on July 1, 2022.

II. Present Situation:

Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests (CE Form 6)

The Florida Constitution requires all elected constitutional officers, candidates for such offices, and statewide elected officers, to file a full and public disclosure of their financial interest.²

² Fla. Const., art. II, ss. 8(a) and 8(i)(2) (2021).

Other public officers, candidates, and public employees may be required to file a full and public disclosure of their financial interests as determined by law.³

Pursuant to the Constitution, the term “full and public disclosure of financial interests” means the reporting individual must disclose his or her net worth and the value of each asset and liability in excess of $1,000.⁴ The disclosure must be accompanied by either a sworn statement with this information or a copy of the reporting individual’s most recent federal income tax return.⁵

Pursuant to general law, the Commission on Ethics (Commission) has created by rule CE Form 6 to be used to make the required full and public financial disclosure.⁶

According to the Commission, and as articulated in the form, individuals holding the following positions must file CE Form 6: governor; lieutenant governor; cabinet members; legislators; state attorneys; public defenders; clerks of circuit courts; sheriffs; tax collectors; property appraisers; supervisors of elections; county commissioners; elected superintendents of schools; district school board members; Jacksonville City Council members (including the mayor); compensation claims judges; Duval County superintendent of schools; Florida Housing Finance Corporation Board members; Florida Prepaid College Board members; and each expressway authority, transportation authority (except the Jacksonville Transportation Authority), bridge authority, or toll authority created pursuant to Chapter 348 or 343, F.S., or any other general law.⁷

Reporting individuals are required to file CE Form 6 annually with the Commission by July 1.⁸ Additionally, candidates for a constitutional officer are required to make a full and public disclosure of their financial interests at the time of qualifying.⁹

Beginning January 1, 2022, all disclosures filed with the Commission must be filed electronically through an electronic filing system that is created and maintained by the Commission as provided in s. 112.31446, Florida Statutes.¹⁰

Statement of Financial Interests (CE Form 1)

While elected local officers¹¹ may have the same spending power as county commissioners and other public officers that are required to file CE Form 6, state law only requires local officers to file CE Form 1, which is less detailed form of financial disclosure.¹² Elected local officers, municipal officers, and candidates for such offices, must file this form at the time of qualifying and annually by July 1.¹³

³ Fla. Const., art. II, s. 8(a) (2021).

⁴ Fla. Const., art. II, s. 8(i)(1) (2021).

⁵ Section 112.3144, F.S. (2021), beginning January 1, 2022, individuals required to file full and public disclosure of financial interests may not use federal income tax returns for the purposes of reporting income.

⁶ Rule 34-8.002, F.A.C.

⁷ Rule 34-8.003, F.A.C., http://www.ethics.state.fl.us/Documents/Forms/Form1.html#form_6 (last accessed on 11/19/2021).

⁸ Rule 34-8.002, F.A.C.

⁹ Section 99.061(5), F.S. (2021).

¹⁰ Section 112.3144, F.S. (2021).

¹¹ Section 112.3145(1) (2021).

¹² Section 112.3145(3), F.S. (2021); see also Rule 34-8.202, F.A.C.

¹³ Rule 34-8.202, F.A.C.

Those who are required to file a statement of financial interests pursuant to s. 112.3145, F.S., are required to disclose primary sources of income (other than from his or her public position), secondary sources of income (in certain circumstances), real property (other than a residence or vacation home in Florida), intangible personal property, liabilities, and interests in specified businesses.¹⁴ The law permits a filer to report the required interest based upon one of two thresholds. First, the filer may calculate whether an interest is required to be reported based upon whether that interest exceeds a specified percentage of his or her net worth. This is referred to as the “comparative (percentage) threshold.” Because the law permits a filer to choose which threshold he or she is going to use, the CE Form 1 promulgated by the Commission requires the filer to identify the threshold used by checking a box. The statute does not expressly require this designation on the CE Form 1. The CE Form 1 is due July 1. A grace period is provided until September 1 of each year.¹⁵

A candidate for an office subject to the CE Form 1 filing requirement must file a CE Form 1 with his or her qualifying papers.¹⁶ If the candidate qualifies prior to the annual CE Form 1 filing deadline, the CE Form 1 that is filed with the candidate’s qualifying papers will satisfy the annual disclosure requirement.¹⁷ If the candidate qualifies after the annual CE Form 1 filing deadline, the candidate must file a copy of the CE Form 1 with the qualifying officer.¹⁸ General law also requires an individual subject to the CE Form 1 filing requirement to file a final disclosure statement within 60 day after leaving his or her public position.¹⁹ The final disclosure must cover the period between January 1 of the year in which the person leaves and the last day of office or employment, unless the person takes another public position for which a CE Form 1 or CE Form 6 is required within the 60-day period, or if the person is otherwise required to file CE Form 1.²⁰

Beginning January 1, 2023, all statements filed with the Commission must be filed electronically through an electronic filing system that is created and maintained by the commission as provided in s. 112.31446, Florida Statutes.²¹

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill requires the following local officers to file the more detailed CE Form 6 annually, beginning with the 2022 filing year: mayors; city commissioners; elected members of a city council; town council; village council; or other governing body of a city, town or village; and city, county, town, or village.

The bill revises the definition of “local officers” in s. 112.3145, F.S., to exclude mayors; city commissioners; elected members of a city council; town council; village council; or other governing body of a city, town or village; and city, county, town, or village. The excluded local officers will not be subject to filing the CE Form 1 or filing a quarterly report of the names of clients represented for a fee or commission, except for appearances in ministerial matter, before agencies at this or her level of government.²²

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

D. State Tax or Fee Increases:

None.

E. Other Constitutional Issues:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

CS/SB 510 requires mayors; city commissioners; elected members of a city council; town council; village council; or other governing body of a city, town or village; and city, county, town, or village managers to file the more detailed CE Form 6 in lieu of the currently required CE 1. The expense to the Commission associated with mailing these individuals a CE Form 6 instead of a CE Form 1 is indeterminate, but likely insignificant and can be absorbed by current resources.

²² Section 112.3145(6), F.S.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

Excluding mayors; city commissioners; elected members of a city council; town council; village council; or other governing body of a city, town or village; and city, county, town, or village managers from the definition of “local officer” in s. 112.3145, F.S., will eliminate their obligation of reporting clients they have represented for a fee or commission before agencies at their level of government. The exclusion should be narrowed to only address their obligation of filing a CE Form 1.

VII. Related Issues:

None.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends sections 112.3144 and 112.3145 of the Florida Statutes.

IX. Additional Information:A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:

(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

The CS excludes mayors; city commissioners; elected members of a city council; town council; village council; or other governing body of a city, town or village; and city, county, town, or village managers from the term “local officer” as used in s. 112.3145(2)(b), F.S., which addresses their obligation to file a CE Form 1. The aforementioned “local officers” must still comply with the other obligations in s. 112.3145, F.S.
