Senate Majority Leader Jim Boyd on the 2025 Legislative Session Opening Day

Florida Senate Republicans Focus on Child Welfare, Economic Prosperity, Government Efficiency, and Cost Savings for Floridians

Tallahassee –Senate Majority Leader Jim Boyd (R-Bradenton) issued the following statement on the 2025 Legislative Session Opening Day.

“As the Florida Legislature embarks on the 2025 Legislative Session, the Florida Senate Republican Caucus remains steadfast in advancing policy that supports Floridians. The robust initiatives of Senate President Ben Albritton will create a stronger and more prosperous Florida, improving Florida’s child welfare system, bolstering rural economic development and infrastructure, enhancing government efficiency and accountability, and identifying tax relief opportunities for hardworking Florida families. This session is expected to be productive as Senate Republicans collaborate to pass a balanced budget and enact conservative legislation that addresses the needs and protects the freedoms of the great citizens of Florida.”
