

DELIVERING FOR DISTRICT 35

Real results. Real representation.

September 2026 Edition

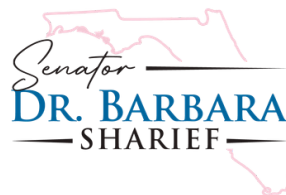

As we move into September, the work continues across District 35 with a focus on staying connected to our communities and bringing important resources and information directly to the residents we serve.

This month, our office will host a DMV FLOW event on September 16, providing residents with convenient access to essential driver license and motor vehicle services. We are also continuing preparations for the 2027 Legislative Session and look forward to sharing legislative updates with cities throughout District 35 in the weeks ahead.

As we continue listening, preparing, and working across our district, I remain committed to ensuring our communities are informed, engaged, and represented as we look toward the work ahead.

Delivering for Boulevard Heights

I was proud to present the City of Hollywood with $170,000 in state funding to expand the Boulevard Heights Community Center Senior Program.

Working alongside Representative Marie Woodson, who championed the request in the House, we secured this investment to strengthen a program that keeps older residents active, connected, and engaged in their community.

Getting Students Ready for Back to School

The Weston YMCA brought families together for its Back-to-School event, helping local students prepare for the new school year with free school supplies.

I loved welcoming families to my table, handing out goodies to the children, and sharing in their excitement for the year ahead. Moments like these are what community is all about.
