d. What are the direct services to be provided to citizens by the appropriations project?

Through the provision of congregate and home-delivered meals, this funding can enrich the quality of life of the elderly citizens of Hialeah by nurturing healthy eating habits. Funding will also contribute to education with mass educational nutrition presentations and one-on-one nutrition counseling.

e. Who is the target population served by this project? How many individuals are expected to be served?

The elderly population of the City of Hialeah will undoubtedly benefit from this program, that will provide around 255,000 free meals in a year, as well as a source of employment for several employees.

f. What is the expected benefit or outcome of this project? What is the methodology by which this outcome will be measured?

Main benefit of the program is to provide free lunch for the elderly, contributing to the improvement of the life of the participants. Financially, we expect a very close Expense to Income result. The performance data to be used to document the project operation will be 255,000 free lunch meals that will be provided to close to 1,000 elderly citizens. Other performance measures will be Nutritional Education classes, estimated to be around 9,000 and Nutritional Screenings, close to 1,000 for the period.

g. What are the suggested penalties that the contracting agency may consider in addition to its standard penalties for failing to meet deliverables or performance measures provided for in the contract?
