2. Senate Sponsor

3. Date of Request

4. Project/Program Description

The Senior Kosher Meals Program at the David Posnack Jewish Community Center (DPJCC) serves a nutritious kosher lunch to area residents 60+.

Meals from the grant are also served at the Daniel Cantor Senior Center + Adult Day Care/Alzheimers Respite Program through a partnership with Meals on Wheels South FL.

The program provides a pleasant atmosphere where seniors can come together for services/activities that enhance dignity, support their independence and encourage their involvement in and with their community.

The LSP strives to meet the needs of the 60+ community so they can maintain an acceptable quality of life in their own homes and avoid or delay nursing home placement.

The DPJCC has the facilities to promote healthy living and has specific classes designed to engage the 60+ community. Classes and the addition of part time social workers in 2018-19 to facilitate support groups have encouraged social interaction made a big impact on meeting the increasingly changing needs.
