4. Project/Program Description

Wayman Academy of the Arts (WAA) is a public Title I charter school that has served the children in the North and Westside of Jacksonville since 1999. With more than 400 children currently enrolled, WAA has found a unique way to put more dollars in the classroom and increase student achievement. Since 2016, WAA is the only Title I elementary school in Duval County to have consecutive "A" passing grades on the FSA. WAA is requesting $1,000,000.00 in funding to extend learning times, help with incremental costs associated with expanding access to technology in classroom, along with improving efficiency and access to a quality education for students living in high crime, low-income communities in Duval County's urban core.
