4. Project/Program Description

The Arc of Palm Beach County, a premier agency serving people with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Florida, will rebuild its facility on the Research Park campus of Florida Atlantic University into the ArtWorks Gallery Experience. ArtWorks is a fully integrated hub of social, cultural, and intellectual activity that will aid the Research Park's transformation into an "innovation district" and contribute to the emerging arts and culture scene of Boca Raton. Artworks will feature: (1) a rotating gallery of art produced by artists with disabilities; (2) interactive performances and events; (3) presentations and lectures by thought leaders of the disability community; and (4) a café and gift shop for workforce development programming. ArtWorks aims to convey the stories, accomplishments, and lived experiences of people with disabilities to advance their ability to flourish in the community and promote acceptance for all.

12. Program Performance

a. What specific purpose or goal will be achieved by the funds requested?

The requested funds will provide capital support for the rebuild of the Arc's current facility on Florida Atlantic University's Research Park campus into the ArtWorks Gallery Experience. The purpose of ArtWorks is to evolve the conversation around disabilities through a multifaceted exploration of their individual and collective lives that helps our community embrace acceptance and inclusion for people with disabilities, including those with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

b. What activities and services will be provided to meet the intended purpose of these funds?

ArtWorks will feature: (1) curated collections of art by amateurs and professionals with disabilities, (2) interactive exhibitions, lectures, events to convey the stories, accomplishments, and lived experiences of people with disabilities, (3) presentations and lectures by thought leaders and change agents, and (4) daily 1-on-1 interactions with people with disabilities through art classes and workforce development programs. Visitors will explore central concepts including acceptance, belonging, bias, fear, diversity, and inclusion. The Arc will partner with local organizations to support research endeavors into disability studies.

c. What direct services will be provided to citizens by the appropriation project?

Services include direct engagement in arts and culture for citizens with and without disabilities. Services aimed at improving the lives of people with developmental disabilities include art therapy and education, life skills education, vocational training, and paid work opportunities at the café, gift shop, and other operational jobs at ArtWorks. Opportunities for daily engagement between people with and without disabilities are a cornerstone of the project.

d. Who is the target population served by this project? How many individuals are expected to be served?

This project aims to engage citizens of Palm Beach County from all walks of life in project activities. Marketing will target the 1.5 million residents of the county, including 28,500 individuals with disabilities, and the 8 million vacationers that visit Palm Beach County each year (4.5 million of whom come from out of state). Arc will engage 175-210 citizens per week and 30 individuals with disabilities per day in ArtWorks activities and services.

e. What is the expected benefit or outcome of this project? What is the methodology by which this outcome will be measured?

The ultimate project goal is to create a fundamental change in acceptance of persons with disabilities. The following project outcomes will determine success: (1) execution of 3-4 curated art collections/exhibitions per year, (2) identification and analysis of track-able qualitative data to record changes in perceptions of people with disabilities, and (3) quantitative tracking of activity engagement with people with disabilities and the greater public.

f. What are the suggested penalties that the contracting agency may consider in addition to its standard penalties for failing to meet deliverables or performance measures provided for the contract?

If the Arc fails to meet deliverables or performance measures needed to commence the building of this facility, the Arc is prepared to return funds back to the state.

13. The owners of the facility to receive, directly or indirectly, any fixed capital outlay funding. Include the relationship between the owners of the facility and the entity.

The Arc of Palm Beach County owns the facility to be rebuilt with the requested funds and will receive the fixed capital outlay funding.
