A bill to be entitled

An act relating to the Florida Housing Finance Corporation; amending s. 420.5099, F.S.; requiring that the corporation allocate a portion of low-income housing tax credits under the Internal Revenue Code to projects involving qualified nonprofit organizations; providing responsibilities of such organizations; defining such organizations; providing applicability to certain previously approved projects and requiring compliance; providing a retroactive effective date.

12 13 14

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

15 16

17

20

21

22

23

24 25

26

27

28

29

30

Section 1. Section 420.5099, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

18 420.5099 Allocation of the low-income housing tax credit.--19

- (1) The Florida Housing Finance Corporation is designated the housing credit agency for the state within the meaning of s. 42(h)(7)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and shall have the responsibility and authority to establish procedures necessary for proper allocation and distribution of low-income housing tax credits and shall exercise all powers necessary to administer the allocation of such credits.
- (2)(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b), the corporation shall adopt allocation procedures that will ensure the maximum use of available tax credits in order to encourage development of low-income housing in the state, taking into 31 consideration the timeliness of the application, the location of the proposed housing project, the relative need in the area for low-income housing and the availability of such housing, the economic feasibility of the project, and the ability of the applicant to proceed to completion of the project in the calendar year for which the credit is sought.

- housing projects, the corporation, in carrying out its responsibilities and obligations under s. 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall allocate at least 10 percent of the allocation authority for any calendar year to projects involving qualified nonprofit organizations. Once an application is submitted by a nonprofit organization to the corporation to qualify under the set-aside program, the project must meet all requirements of s. 42(h)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code and this paragraph, regardless of whether more than 10 percent of the state's annual credits are allocated to set-aside projects, through the entire applicable compliance period, as defined in s. 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. A "qualified nonprofit organization" means any nonprofit organization which:
- 1. Is described in s. 501(c)(3) or (4) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- 2. The corporation determines, prior to the allocation of tax credits and at all times thereafter during the compliance period, not to be affiliated with or controlled by a for-profit organization;
- 3. Owns an interest in the project, directly or indirectly, and materially participates in the development and operation of the project throughout the compliance period; and
- 4. Has as one of its exempt purposes the fostering of low-income housing.

1 2

> 3 4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12 13

14

15

16

17

18 19

20

21 22

23

24

25 26

27

28

29

30

For purposes of this paragraph, control by a for-profit organization is present if the nonprofit organization guarantees any form of economic or financial benefit to a for-profit investor; guarantees the return of a for-profit investor's capital contribution to the partnership or venture or is otherwise required to fund operating deficits; or can be removed as a general partner from the partnership or venture in the absence of fraud or gross negligence.

- (3) The corporation may request such information from applicants as will enable it to make the allocations according to the guidelines set forth in subsection (2), including, but not limited to, the information required to be provided the corporation by chapter 9I-21, Florida Administrative Code.
- (4) The executive director of the corporation shall administer the allocation procedures and determine allocations on behalf of the corporation. Any applicant disputing the amount of an allocation or the denial of a request for an allocation may request an appeal to the board of directors of the corporation.
- (5) For purposes of implementing this program in Florida and in assessing the property for ad valorem taxation under s. 193.011, neither the tax credits, nor financing generated by tax credits, shall be considered as income to the property, and the rental income from rent restricted units in a low-income tax credit development shall be recognized by the property appraiser.
- (6) The corporation is authorized to expend fees received in conjunction with the allocation of low-income housing tax credits only for the purpose of administration of 31 the program, including private legal services which relate to interpretation of s. 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Section 2. This act applies to all low-income housing projects approved for the low-income housing tax credit on or after the date this act becomes a law, and to all previously approved low-income housing projects which are within the applicable compliance period, as defined by s. 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, on or after January 1, 1997. Any partnership or venture participating in such a previously approved project with a qualified nonprofit organization under a governing agreement that does not conform to this act must amend or revise its governing agreement to conform to this act by December 31, 1998, or the project will become ineligible for the low-income housing tax credit.

Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law and shall apply retroactively to January 1, 1997.

**********

HOUSE SUMMARY

Requires that the Florida Housing Finance Corporation allocate at least 10 percent of low-income housing tax credits annually under the Internal Revenue Code to projects involving qualified nonprofit organizations, and defines such organizations. Provides for retroactive application to certain previously approved projects.