1 The Declaration of Domestic Partnership form must (4) 2 require each person who seeks to become a domestic partner to: (a) State that he or she meets the requirements of 3 4 this act at the time the form is signed; 5 (b) Provide his or her mailing address; 6 (c) Sign the form under penalty of perjury; and 7 (d) Have a notary public notarize his or her 8 signature. 9 Section 4. Filing.--10 (1) Two persons seeking to become domestic partners may complete and file a Declaration of Domestic Partnership 11 12 with the Secretary of State. 13 (2) No person who has filed a Declaration of Domestic 14 Partnership may file a new Declaration of Domestic Partnership 15 until at least 30 days after the date that a Notice of 16 Termination of Domestic Partnership was filed with Secretary of State under this act in connection with the termination of 17 the most recent domestic partnership. This prohibition does 18 19 not apply if the previous domestic partnership ended because 20 one of the partners died. Section 5. Termination.--21 22 (1) Either partner to a registered domestic 23 partnership may terminate such partnership by filing a 24 notarized declaration of termination of domestic partnership with the Secretary of State. Upon the payment of the required 25 26 fee, the Secretary of State shall file the declaration and issue a certificate of termination of domestic partnership to 27 28 each partner. The termination shall become effective 30 days from the date the certificate of termination is issued. 29 (2) If any partner to a domestic partnership enters 30 into a legal marriage, the domestic partnership shall 31 terminate automatically, and all rights, benefits, and 1 2 entitlements thereunder shall cease as of the effective date of the marriage. The marrying domestic partner shall file a 3 declaration terminating the domestic partnership within 10 4 5 days after entering into a legal marriage. б (3) The death of either domestic partner shall 7 automatically terminate the domestic partnership. 8 Section 6. Legal effect. --9 The obligations that two people have to each other (1) as a result of creating a domestic partnership are those 10 described in section 1. Registration as a domestic partner 11 12 under this act is not evidence of and does not establish any 13 rights existing under law other than those expressly provided 14 to domestic partners in this act. The provisions relating to domestic partners provided in this act, shall not diminish any 15 16 right under any other provision of law. (2) Upon the termination of a domestic partnership, 17 the partners, from that time forward, incur none of the 18 19 obligations to each other as domestic partners that are 20 created by this act. (3) Any domestic partnership entered into outside this 21 state which is valid under the laws of the jurisdiction under 22 which the partnership was created is valid in this state. 23 24 Section 7. Visitation .--(1) A health care facility shall allow a patient's 25 26 domestic partner, the children of the patient's domestic 27 partner, and the domestic partner of the patient's parent or 28 child to visit, unless one of the following is met: 29 (a) No visitors are allowed; (b) The facility reasonably determines that the 30 presence of a particular visitor would endanger the health or 31
