The division may contract with a private entity for the collection of policy information б 7 required to be filed by carriers under this subsection and the receipt of notices of cancellation or expiration of a policy 8 required to be filed by carriers under s. 440.42(3). The 9 10 submission of policy information or notices of cancellation or expiration to the contracted private entity satisfies the 11 12 filing requirements of this subsection and s. 440.42(3). (5) All motions to dismiss must state with 11 12 particularity the basis for the motion. The judge of 13 compensation claims shall enter an order upon such motions without hearing, unless good cause for hearing is shown. When 14 15 any petition or portion of a petition is dismissed for lack of specificity under this subsection, the claimant must be 16 17 allowed 20 days after the date of the order of dismissal in which to file an amended petition. Any grounds for dismissal 18 for lack of specificity under this section which are not 19 asserted within 30 days after receipt of the petition for 20 21 benefits are thereby waived. (8) Within 14 days after receipt of a petition for 22 benefits by certified mail, the carrier must either pay the 23 24 requested benefits without prejudice to its right to deny 25 within 120 days from receipt of the petition or file a 26 response to petition notice of denial with the Office of the 27 Judges of Compensation Claims division. The carrier must list 28 all benefits requested but not paid and explain its 29 justification for nonpayment in the response to petition 30 notice of denial. A carrier that does not deny compensability 31 in accordance with s. 440.20(4) is deemed to have accepted the employee's injuries as compensable, unless it can establish 1 2 material facts relevant to the issue of compensability that 3 could not have been discovered through reasonable 4 investigation within the 120-day period. The carrier shall 5 provide copies of the response notice to the filing party, 6 employer, and claimant by certified mail. 7 Section 17. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) and subsections (4), (6), and (11) of section 440.20, Florida 8 9 Statutes, are amended to read: 10 440.20 Time for payment of compensation; penalties for 11 late payment. --12 (1)(a) Unless it denies compensability or entitlement 13 to benefits, the carrier shall pay compensation directly to 14 the employee as required by ss. 440.14, 440.15, and 440.16, in 15 accordance with the obligations set forth in such sections. If 16 authorized by the employee, the carrier's obligation to pay 17 compensation directly to the employee is satisfied when the 18 carrier directly deposits, by electronic transfer or other 19 means, compensation into the employee's account at a financial institution. As used in this paragraph, the term "financial 20 21 institution" means a financial institution as defined in s. 655.005(1)(h). Compensation by direct deposit is considered 22 paid on the date the funds become available for withdrawal by 23 24 the employee. (4) If the carrier is uncertain of its obligation to 25 provide benefits or compensation, it may initiate payment 26 27 without prejudice and without admitting liability. The carrier shall immediately and in good faith commence investigation of 28 the employee's entitlement to benefits under this chapter and 29 30 shall admit or deny compensability within 120 days after the 31 initial provision of compensation or benefits as required under subsection (2) or s. 440.192(8). Upon commencement of 1 2 payment as required under subsection (2) or s. 440.192(8), the 3 carrier shall provide written notice to the employee that it 4 has elected to pay all or part of the claim pending further 5 investigation, and that it will advise the employee of claim 6 acceptance or denial within 120 days. A carrier that fails to 7 deny compensability within 120 days after the initial provision of benefits or payment of compensation as required 8 under subsection (2) or s. 440.192(8) waives the right to deny 9 10 compensability, unless the carrier can establish material 11 facts relevant to the issue of compensability that it could 12 not have discovered through reasonable investigation within the 120-day period. The initial provision of compensation or 13 benefits, for purposes of this subsection, means the first 14 15 installment of compensation or benefits to be paid by the carrier under subsection (2) or pursuant to a petition for 16 17 benefits under s. 440.192(8). (6) If any installment of compensation for death or 18 dependency benefits, disability, permanent impairment, or wage 19 20 loss payable without an award is not paid within 7 days after 21 it becomes due, as provided in subsection (2), subsection (3), or subsection (4), there shall be added to such unpaid 22 installment a punitive penalty of an amount equal to 20 23 24 percent of the unpaid installment or $5, which shall be paid at the same time as, but in addition to, such installment of 25 compensation, unless notice is filed under subsection (4) or 26 27 unless such nonpayment results from conditions over which the 28 employer or carrier had no control. When any installment of compensation payable without an award has not been paid within 29 30 7 days after it became due and the claimant concludes the 31 prosecution of the claim before a judge of compensation claims without having specifically claimed additional compensation in 1 2 the nature of a penalty under this section, the claimant will be deemed to have acknowledged that, owing to conditions over 3 4 which the employer or carrier had no control, such installment 5 could not be paid within the period prescribed for payment and to have waived the right to claim such penalty. However, 6 7 during the course of a hearing, the judge of compensation claims shall on her or his own motion raise the question of 8 whether such penalty should be awarded or excused. The 9 10 division may assess without a hearing the punitive penalty 11 against either the employer or the insurance carrier, 12 depending upon who was at fault in causing the delay. The 13 insurance policy cannot provide that this sum will be paid by the carrier if the division or the judge of compensation 14 15 claims determines that the punitive penalty should be made by 16 the employer rather than the carrier. Any additional 17 installment of compensation paid by the carrier pursuant to this section shall be paid directly to the employee by check 18 or, if authorized by the employee, by direct deposit into the 19 employee's account at a financial institution. As used in this 20 21 subsection, the term "financial institution" means a financial institution as defined in s. 655.005(1)(h). 22 (11)(a) When a claimant is not represented by counsel, 23 24 upon joint petition of all interested parties, a lump-sum 25 payment in exchange for the employer's or carrier's release from liability for future medical expenses, as well as future 26

27 payments of compensation expenses and any other benefits 28 provided under this chapter, shall be allowed at any time in 29 any case in which the employer or carrier has filed a written 30 notice of denial within 120 days after the employer receives 31 notice date of the injury, and the judge of compensation claims at a hearing to consider the settlement proposal finds 1 2 a justiciable controversy as to legal or medical 3 compensability of the claimed injury or the alleged accident. 4 The employer or carrier may not pay any attorney's fees on 5 behalf of the claimant for any settlement under this section 6 unless expressly authorized elsewhere in this chapter. Upon 7 the joint petition of all interested parties and after giving due consideration to the interests of all interested parties, 8 9 the judge of compensation claims may enter a compensation 10 order approving and authorizing the discharge of the liability 11 of the employer for compensation and remedial treatment, care, 12 and attendance, as well as rehabilitation expenses, by the 13 payment of a lump sum. Such a compensation order so entered upon joint petition of all interested parties is not subject 14 15 to modification or review under s. 440.28. If the settlement 16 proposal together with supporting evidence is not approved by 17 the judge of compensation claims, it shall be considered void. Upon approval of a lump-sum settlement under this subsection, 18 the judge of compensation claims shall send a report to the 19 Chief Judge of the amount of the settlement and a statement of 20 21 the nature of the controversy. The Chief Judge shall keep a record of all such reports filed by each judge of compensation 22 claims and shall submit to the Legislature a summary of all 23 24 such reports filed under this subsection annually by September 15. 25 When a claimant is not represented by counsel, 26 (b)

20 upon joint petition of all interested parties, a lump-sum 28 payment in exchange for the employer's or carrier's release 29 from liability for future medical expenses, as well as future 30 payments of compensation and rehabilitation expenses, and any 31 other benefits provided under this chapter, may be allowed at any time in any case after the injured employee has attained 1 2 maximum medical improvement. An employer or carrier may not 3 pay any attorney's fees on behalf of the claimant for any 4 settlement, unless expressly authorized elsewhere in this 5 chapter. A compensation order so entered upon joint petition 6 of all interested parties shall not be subject to modification 7 or review under s. 440.28. However, a judge of compensation claims is not required to approve any award for lump-sum 8 9 payment when it is determined by the judge of compensation 10 claims that the payment being made is in excess of the value of benefits the claimant would be entitled to under this 11 12 chapter. The judge of compensation claims shall make or cause 13 to be made such investigations as she or he considers 14 necessary, in each case in which the parties have stipulated 15 that a proposed final settlement of liability of the employer 16 for compensation shall not be subject to modification or review under s. 440.28, to determine whether such final 17 disposition will definitely aid the rehabilitation of the 18 injured worker or otherwise is clearly for the best interests 19 20 of the person entitled to compensation and, in her or his 21 discretion, may have an investigation made by the Rehabilitation Section of the Division of Workers' 22 Compensation. The joint petition and the report of any 23 24 investigation so made will be deemed a part of the proceeding. 25 An employer shall have the right to appear at any hearing pursuant to this subsection which relates to the discharge of 26 27 such employer's liability and to present testimony at such 28 hearing. The carrier shall provide reasonable notice to the employer of the time and date of any such hearing and inform 29 30 the employer of her or his rights to appear and testify. When 31 the claimant is represented by counsel or when the claimant

1 and carrier or employer are represented by counsel, final 2 approval of the lump-sum settlement agreement, as provided for 3 in a joint petition and stipulation, shall be approved by 4 entry of an order within 7 days after the filing of such joint 5 petition and stipulation without a hearing, unless the judge 6 of compensation claims determines, in her or his discretion, 7 that additional testimony is needed before such settlement can be approved or disapproved and so notifies the parties. The 8 9 probability of the death of the injured employee or other 10 person entitled to compensation before the expiration of the period during which such person is entitled to compensation 11 12 shall, in the absence of special circumstances making such course improper, be determined in accordance with the most 13 14 recent United States Life Tables published by the National 15 Office of Vital Statistics of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. The probability of the happening of 16 17 any other contingency affecting the amount or duration of the compensation, except the possibility of the remarriage of a 18 surviving spouse, shall be disregarded. As a condition of 19 20 approving a lump-sum payment to a surviving spouse, the judge 21 of compensation claims, in the judge of compensation claims' discretion, may require security which will ensure that, in 22 the event of the remarriage of such surviving spouse, any 23 24 unaccrued future payments so paid may be recovered or recouped 25 by the employer or carrier. Such applications shall be considered and determined in accordance with s. 440.25. 26 27 (c) Notwithstanding s. 440.21(2), when a claimant is 28 represented by counsel, the claimant may waive all rights to 29 any and all benefits under this chapter by entering into a 30 settlement agreement releasing the employer and the carrier from liability for workers' compensation benefits in exchange 31 30 for a lump-sum payment to the claimant. The settlement 1 2 agreement requires approval by the judge of compensation 3 claims only as to the attorney's fees paid to the claimant's 4 attorney by the claimant. The parties need not submit any information or documentation in support of the settlement, 5 6 except as needed to justify the amount of the attorney's fees. 7 Neither the employer nor the carrier is responsible for any attorney's fees relating to the settlement and release of 8 claims under this section. Payment of the lump-sum settlement 9 10 amount must be made within 14 days after the date the judge of 11 compensation claims mails the order approving the attorney's 12 fees. Any order entered by a judge of compensation claims approving the attorney's fees as set out in the settlement 13 under this subsection is not considered to be an award and is 14 15 not subject to modification or review. The judge of compensation claims shall report these settlements to the 16 17 Deputy Chief Judge in accordance with the requirements set 18 forth in paragraphs (a) and (b). Settlements entered into under this subsection are valid and apply to all dates of 19 20 accident. 21 (d) With respect to any payment provision under this chapter, a judge of compensation claims must consider whether 22 any and all benefits, including settlements, provide for 23 24 appropriate recovery of any child support arrearage. 25 (e) (c) This section applies to all claims that the parties have not previously settled, regardless of the date of 26 27 accident. 28 Section 18. Section 440.22, Florida Statutes, is 29 amended to read: 30 440.22 Assignment and exemption from claims of 31 creditors.--No assignment, release, or commutation of 31 4:58 PM 05/01/01 s1926c1c-08k0q

However, the exemption of workers' 7 compensation claims from creditors does not extend to claims based on an award of child support or alimony. 8 9 Section 19. Subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) and 10 paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of section 440.25, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 11 12 440.25 Procedures for mediation and hearings .--(1) Within 21 days after a petition for benefits is 13 14 filed under s. 440.192, a mediation conference concerning such 15 petition shall be held. Within 7 days after such petition is 16 filed, the judge of compensation claims shall notify the 17 interested parties that a mediation conference concerning such petition will be held. Such notice shall give the date, time, 18 and location of the mediation conference. Such notice may be 19 20 served personally upon the interested parties or may be sent 21 to the interested parties by mail. The claimant or the adjuster of the employer or carrier may, at the mediator's 22 discretion, attend the mediation conference by telephone or, 23 24 if agreed to by the parties, other electronic means. 25 (2) Any party who participates in a mediation conference shall not be precluded from requesting a hearing 26 27 following the mediation conference should both parties not agree to be bound by the results of the mediation conference. 28 A mediation conference is required to be held unless this 29 30 requirement is waived by the Deputy Chief Judge. No later than 31 3 days prior to the mediation conference, all parties must submit any applicable motions, including, but not limited to, a motion to waive the mediation conference, to the judge of compensation claims.

4 (3) Such mediation conference shall be conducted 5 informally and does not require the use of formal rules of 6 evidence or procedure. Any information from the files, 7 reports, case summaries, mediator's notes, or other communications or materials, oral or written, relating to a 8 9 mediation conference under this section obtained by any person 10 performing mediation duties is privileged and confidential and may not be disclosed without the written consent of all 11 12 parties to the conference. Any research or evaluation effort 13 directed at assessing the mediation program activities or performance must protect the confidentiality of such 14 15 information. Each party to a mediation conference has a 16 privilege during and after the conference to refuse to 17 disclose and to prevent another from disclosing communications made during the conference whether or not the contested issues 18 are successfully resolved. This subsection and paragraphs 19 (4)(a) and (b) shall not be construed to prevent or inhibit 20 21 the discovery or admissibility of any information that is otherwise subject to discovery or that is admissible under 22 applicable law or rule of procedure, except that any conduct 23 24 or statements made during a mediation conference or in negotiations concerning the conference are inadmissible in any 25 proceeding under this chapter. The Deputy Chief Judge shall 26 27 select a mediator. The mediator shall be employed on a 28 full-time basis by the Office of the Judges of Compensation Claims. A mediator must be a member of The Florida Bar for at 29 30 least 5 years and must complete a mediation training program 31 approved by the Deputy Chief Judge. Adjunct mediators may be

An adjunct mediator must be 4 independent of all parties participating in the mediation conference. An adjunct mediator must be a member of The 5 Florida Bar for at least 5 years and must complete a mediation 6 7 training program approved by the Deputy Chief Judge. An adjunct mediator shall have access to the office, equipment, 8 9 and supplies of the judge of compensation claims in each 10 district. In the event both parties agree, the results of the mediation conference shall be binding and neither party shall 11 12 have a right to appeal the results. In the event either party 13 refuses to agree to the results of the mediation conference, 14 the results of the mediation conference as well as the 15 testimony, witnesses, and evidence presented at the conference 16 shall not be admissible at any subsequent proceeding on the 17 claim. The mediator shall not be called in to testify or give deposition to resolve any claim for any hearing before the 18 judge of compensation claims. The employer may be represented 19 by an attorney at the mediation conference if the employee is 20 21 also represented by an attorney at the mediation conference. (4)(a) If, on the 10th day following commencement of 22 mediation, the questions in dispute have not been resolved, 23 24 the judge of compensation claims shall hold a pretrial 25 hearing. The judge of compensation claims shall give the 26 interested parties at least 7 days' advance notice of the 27 pretrial hearing by mail. At the pretrial hearing, the judge of compensation claims shall, subject to paragraph (b), set a 28 date for the final hearing that allows the parties at least 30 29 30 days to conduct discovery unless the parties consent to an 31 earlier hearing date.

(b) The final hearing must be held and concluded 1 2 within 45 days after the pretrial hearing. Continuances may be 3 granted only if the requesting party demonstrates to the judge 4 of compensation claims that the reason for requesting the 5 continuance arises from circumstances beyond the party's 6 control. The written consent of the claimant must be obtained 7 before any request is granted for an additional continuance after the initial continuance has been granted. 8 9 (c) The judge of compensation claims shall give the 10 interested parties at least 7 days' advance notice of the 11 final hearing, served upon the interested parties by mail. 12 (d) The hearing shall be held in the county where the 13 injury occurred, if the injury occurred in this state, unless 14 otherwise agreed to between the parties and authorized by the 15 judge of compensation claims in the county where the injury 16 occurred. If the injury occurred without the state and is one 17 for which compensation is payable under this chapter, then the hearing above referred to may be held in the county of the 18 employer's residence or place of business, or in any other 19 county of the state which will, in the discretion of the 20 21 Deputy Chief Judge, be the most convenient for a hearing.
