18   Section 2. No county, municipality, or any other

19 political subdivision of the state may, whether by ordinance,

20 resolution, referendum, initiative, or as a condition of 21 bidding or contracting, or by any other means, require a

22 private employer to pay any employee a minimum wage higher

23 than that required by federal law. If it is determined by the 24 officer or agency responsible or distributing federal funds to

25 the state, or any political subdivision, agency, or

26 instrumentality of the state, that compliance with this

27 section will cause denial of these federal funds or would

28 otherwise be inconsistent with the federal requirements

29 pertaining to such funds, this section shall not apply, but

30 only to the extent necessary to prevent denial of the federal

31 funds or to eliminate the inconsistency with federal
