I. SUMMARY:

THIS DOCUMENT IS NOT INTENDED TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF CONSTRUING STATUTES, OR TO BE CONSTRUED AS AFFECTING, DEFINING, LIMITING, CONTROLLING, SPECIFYING, CLARIFYING, OR MODIFYING ANY LEGISLATION OR STATUTE.

This bill amends s. 683.17, F.S., by renaming "Children's Day" as "Parents' and Children's Day" and changing the date to first Sunday in April, with the intent that Florida's "Parents' and Children's Day" becomes the model for a National Parents' and Children's Day. It also encourages observation of this day by wearing a white ribbon and with appropriate activities, ceremonies, public awareness materials, and programs.

With the change of the name, the bill is introducing a public awareness component that would give parents the informational resources they need to raise healthy and productive children. This will be done by utilizing resources already provided by the state in partnership with private organizations that will fund the coordination of a statewide public awareness campaign.

This bill has no fiscal impact. If enacted, the bill takes effect July 1, 2002.

II. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS:

A. DOES THE BILL SUPPORT THE FOLLOWING PRINCIPLES:

- | | | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|-----------------------------|---|
| 1. Less Government | Yes ☐ | No ☐ | N/A ☒ |

For any principle that received a "no" above, please explain:

B. PRESENT SITUATION:

Section 683.17, F.S., enacted in 1988, currently recognizes the second Tuesday in April as "Children's Day."

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

The bill changes the designated date to the first Sunday in April and includes parents in the celebration of this day. It will also call attention to critical issues facing our children and families in Florida by implementing a public awareness campaign, coordinated with private funds, which will utilize resources already provided by the state.

D. SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS:

Section 1. Amends s. 683.17, F.S., by renaming "Children's Day" as "Parents' and Children's Day" and changing the date to first Sunday in April, with the intent that Florida's "Parents' and Children's Day" becomes the model for a National Parents' and Children's Day. It also encourages observation of this day by wearing a white ribbon and with appropriate activities, ceremonies, public awareness materials, and programs.

Section 2. If enacted the bill takes effect July 1, 2002.
