B. PRESENT SITUATION:

The Empowerment Zone/Enterprise Community (EZ/EC) program is a federal initiative designed to create jobs and economic growth in distressed urban and rural communities. Empowerment Zones and Enterprise Communities receive federal grant funding to assist in the implementing of strategic plans.

In December 1994, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) named nine "empowerment zones" (six urban and three rural) and nearly 100 "enterprise communities." The selection entitled each of the six urban empowerment zones to approximately $100 million over 10 years. Although no Florida communities were then selected as empowerment zones, three Florida communities were named enterprise communities: Jackson County (Marianna), Miami-Dade County, and Tampa. Each enterprise community was entitled to receive approximately $3 million in federal aid over 10 years. Under the second round of the program, two Florida communities were selected under the program, including the Miami/Miami-Dade County Empowerment Zone (urban) and the Empowerment Alliance of Southwest Florida Enterprise Community (rural). HUD announced new funding for Renewal Communities and Round III Empowerment Zones, authorizing nine new Empowerment Zones (7 urban and 2 rural), and 40 new Renewal Communities (28 urban and 12 rural) effective through December 31, 2009. Applications were due by October 22, 2001. HUD has not announced designations at this time but will before January 1, 2002.

Eight Florida communities applied under this third round of EZ/EC awards, including: City of West Palm Beach Empowerment Zone, Dunbar Renewal Community, Jacksonville Empowerment Zone, Palm Beach County Renewal Community, Miami-Dade Renewal Community, Empowerment Alliance of SW Florida (Rural Empowerment Zone), Hamilton County (Rural Empowerment Zone), and Gadsden County (Rural Empowerment Zone).

C. OTHER COMMENTS:

This bill may both mandate a future legislature to appropriate at least $7 million on a recurring annual basis in s. 290.0491(1)(5), F.S., and appropriate twice in the same bill, since s. 290.049 (2) F.S. appropriates $7 million for the current fiscal year and s. 290.0491(1)(5) could be interpreted to do so for future years.
