Subsection (4) of section 39.001, Florida

Statutes, is amended to read:

30

39.001 Purposes and intent; personnel standards and screening.--

- (4) SUBSTANCE ABUSE SERVICES. --
- (a) The Legislature recognizes that substance abuse is a primary cause of the dramatic rise in cases of child abuse and neglect, immeasurably increases the complexity of cases in the dependency system, severely compromises or destroys the ability of parents to provide a safe and nurturing home for children, and severely confounds the dependency system's ability to protect children. The Legislature also recognizes that early referral and comprehensive treatment can help combat substance abuse in families and that treatment is cost-effective. The Legislature further recognizes that treatment-based drug court program models that integrate judicial supervision, treatment, accountability, sanctions, and community support greatly increase the effectiveness of substance-abuse treatment and reduce the number of cases of child abuse and neglect.
- (b) The substance-abuse treatment and family safety programs of the Department of Children and Family Services have identified the following goals for this state:
 - 1. Ensure the safety of children;
- 2. Prevent and remediate the consequences of substance abuse on families involved in protective supervision or foster care and reduce substance abuse, including alcohol abuse, for families who are at risk of being involved in protective supervision or foster care;
- 3. Expedite permanency for children and reunify healthy, intact families, when appropriate; and
 - 4. Support families in recovery.

- (c) The Legislature finds that children in the care of the state's dependency system need appropriate health care services, that the impact of substance abuse on health indicates the need for health care services to include substance-abuse substance abuse services to children and parents where appropriate, and that it is in the state's best interest that such children be provided the services they need to enable them to become and remain independent of state care. In order to provide these services, the state's dependency system must have the ability to identify and provide appropriate intervention and treatment for children with personal or family-related substance-abuse substance abuse problems.
- (d) Parents and children should be assessed early and continually in the process, but not later than the conference date of the case-planning process, to identify substance-abuse problems and appropriately address the severity of the substance-abuse problem. Participation in treatment, including a treatment-based drug court program, may be required by the court following adjudication. This subsection does not prevent a child's parent, and, when appropriate, the legal custodian, from voluntarily entering treatment, including a treatment-based drug court program, at the earliest stage of the process.
- (e) It is therefore the purpose of the Legislature to provide authority for the state to contract with community substance-abuse substance abuse treatment providers for the development and operation of specialized support and overlay services for the dependency system, which will be fully implemented and used utilized as resources permit.

the Department of Children and Family Services, in conjunction with community agencies; treatment-based facilities; facilities dedicated to child welfare, child development, and mental health services; the Department of Health; other similar agencies; local governments; law enforcement agencies; and other interested public or private sources to support the drug court program model. Participation in the treatment-based drug court program does not divest any public or private agency of its responsibility for a child or adult, but enables these agencies to better meet their needs through shared responsibility and resources.

Section 2. Present subsections (11) through (16) of section 39.402, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as subsections (12) through (17), respectively, and a new subsection (11) is added to that section, to read:

39.402 Placement in a shelter.-- condition of a child or the child's parent, caregiver, legal custodian, or other person requesting custody of the child is in controversy, the court may order the person to submit to a substance-abuse assessment or evaluation. The assessment or evaluation must be administered by a qualified professional, as defined in s. 397.311. The order may be made only upon good cause shown and pursuant to the notice and procedures set forth in the Florida Rules of Juvenile Procedure.

Section 3. Section 39.407, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

39.407 Medical, psychiatric, and psychological examination and treatment of child; physical, or mental, or substance-abuse examination of parent or person requesting custody of child.--

- (1) When any child is removed from the home and maintained in an out-of-home placement, the department is authorized to have a medical screening performed on the child without authorization from the court and without consent from a parent or legal custodian. Such medical screening shall be performed by a licensed health care professional and shall be to examine the child for injury, illness, and communicable diseases and to determine the need for immunization. The department shall by rule establish the invasiveness of the medical procedures authorized to be performed under this subsection. In no case does this subsection authorize the department to consent to medical treatment for such children.
- (2) When the department has performed the medical screening authorized by subsection (1), or when it is otherwise determined by a licensed health care professional that a child who is in an out-of-home placement, but who has not been committed to the department, is in need of medical treatment, including the need for immunization, consent for medical treatment shall be obtained in the following manner:
- (a)1. Consent to medical treatment shall be obtained from a parent or legal custodian of the child; or
 - 2. A court order for such treatment shall be obtained.
- (b) If a parent or legal custodian of the child is unavailable and his or her whereabouts cannot be reasonably ascertained, and it is after normal working hours so that a court order cannot reasonably be obtained, an authorized agent of the department shall have the authority to consent to necessary medical treatment, including immunization, for the child. The authority of the department to consent to medical treatment in this circumstance shall be limited to the time reasonably necessary to obtain court authorization.

(c) If a parent or legal custodian of the child is available but refuses to consent to the necessary treatment, including immunization, a court order shall be required unless the situation meets the definition of an emergency in s. 743.064 or the treatment needed is related to suspected abuse, abandonment, or neglect of the child by a parent, caregiver, or legal custodian. In such case, the department shall have the authority to consent to necessary medical treatment. authority is limited to the time reasonably necessary to obtain court authorization.

- (3)(a) A judge may order a child in an out-of-home placement to be examined by a licensed health care professional.
- (b) The judge may also order such child to be evaluated by a psychiatrist or a psychologist or, if a developmental disability is suspected or alleged, by the developmental disability diagnostic and evaluation team of the department. If it is necessary to place a child in a residential facility for such evaluation, the criteria and procedure established in s. 394.463(2) or chapter 393 shall be used, whichever is applicable.
- (c) The judge may also order such child to be evaluated by a district school board educational needs assessment team. The educational needs assessment provided by the district school board educational needs assessment team 31 | shall include, but not be limited to, reports of intelligence and achievement tests, screening for learning disabilities and other handicaps, and screening for the need for alternative education as defined in s. 230.23.

- (4) A judge may order a child in an out-of-home placement to be treated by a licensed health care professional based on evidence that the child should receive treatment. The judge may also order such child to receive mental health or developmental disabilities services from a psychiatrist, psychologist, or other appropriate service provider. Except as provided in subsection (5), if it is necessary to place the child in a residential facility for such services, the procedures and criteria established in s. 394.467 or chapter 393 shall be used, whichever is applicable. A child may be provided developmental disabilities or mental health services in emergency situations, pursuant to the procedures and criteria contained in s. 394.463(1) or chapter 393, whichever is applicable.
- (5) Children who are in the legal custody of the department may be placed by the department in a residential treatment center licensed under s. 394.875 or a hospital licensed under chapter 395 for residential mental health treatment only pursuant to this section or may be placed by the court in accordance with an order of involuntary examination or involuntary placement entered pursuant to s. 394.463 or s. 394.467. All children placed in a residential treatment program under this subsection must have a guardian ad litem appointed.
 - (a) As used in this subsection, the term:
- 1. "Residential treatment" means placement for observation, diagnosis, or treatment of an emotional disturbance in a residential treatment center licensed under s. 394.875 or a hospital licensed under chapter 395.

- "Least restrictive alternative" means the treatment and conditions of treatment that, separately and in combination, are no more intrusive or restrictive of freedom than reasonably necessary to achieve a substantial therapeutic benefit or to protect the child or adolescent or others from physical injury.
- "Suitable for residential treatment" or "suitability" means a determination concerning a child or adolescent with an emotional disturbance as defined in s. 394.492(5) or a serious emotional disturbance as defined in s. 394.492(6) that each of the following criteria is met:
 - The child requires residential treatment.
- The child is in need of a residential treatment program and is expected to benefit from mental health treatment.
- c. An appropriate, less restrictive alternative to residential treatment is unavailable.
- (b) Whenever the department believes that a child in its legal custody is emotionally disturbed and may need residential treatment, an examination and suitability assessment must be conducted by a qualified evaluator who is appointed by the Agency for Health Care Administration. This suitability assessment must be completed before the placement of the child in a residential treatment center for emotionally disturbed children and adolescents or a hospital. The qualified evaluator must be a psychiatrist or a psychologist licensed in Florida who has at least 3 years of experience in the diagnosis and treatment of serious emotional disturbances 31 in children and adolescents and who has no actual or perceived conflict of interest with any inpatient facility or residential treatment center or program.

- (c) Before a child is admitted under this subsection, the child shall be assessed for suitability for residential treatment by a qualified evaluator who has conducted a personal examination and assessment of the child and has made written findings that:
- The child appears to have an emotional disturbance serious enough to require residential treatment and is reasonably likely to benefit from the treatment.
- The child has been provided with a clinically appropriate explanation of the nature and purpose of the treatment.
- 3. All available modalities of treatment less restrictive than residential treatment have been considered, and a less restrictive alternative that would offer comparable benefits to the child is unavailable.

The child must be involved in the preparation of the plan to the maximum feasible extent consistent with his or her ability to understand and participate, and the guardian ad litem and the child's foster parents must be involved to the maximum extent consistent with the child's treatment needs. The plan must include a preliminary plan for residential treatment and aftercare upon completion of residential treatment. The plan must include specific behavioral and emotional goals against which the success of the residential treatment may be measured. A copy of the plan must be provided to the child, to the guardian ad litem, and to the department.

(f) Within 30 days after admission, the residential treatment program must review the appropriateness and suitability of the child's placement in the program. The residential treatment program must determine whether the child is receiving benefit towards the treatment goals and whether the child could be treated in a less restrictive treatment program. The residential treatment program shall prepare a written report of its findings and submit the report to the guardian ad litem and to the department. The department must submit the report to the court. The report must include a discharge plan for the child. The residential treatment program must continue to evaluate the child's treatment progress every 30 days thereafter and must include its findings in a written report submitted to the department. The department may not reimburse a facility until the facility has submitted every written report that is due.

Administration must adopt rules for the registration of qualified evaluators, the procedure for selecting the evaluators to conduct the reviews required under this section, and a reasonable, cost-efficient fee schedule for qualified evaluators.

- (6) When a child is in an out-of-home placement, a licensed health care professional shall be immediately called if there are indications of physical injury or illness, or the child shall be taken to the nearest available hospital for emergency care.
- (7) Except as otherwise provided herein, nothing in this section shall be deemed to eliminate the right of a parent, legal custodian, or the child to consent to examination or treatment for the child.
- (8) Except as otherwise provided herein, nothing in this section shall be deemed to alter the provisions of s. 743.064.
- (9) A court shall not be precluded from ordering services or treatment to be provided to the child by a duly accredited practitioner who relies solely on spiritual means for healing in accordance with the tenets and practices of a church or religious organization, when required by the child's health and when requested by the child.
- (10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the permanent sterilization of the child unless such sterilization is the result of or incidental to medically necessary treatment to protect or preserve the life of the child.
- (11) For the purpose of obtaining an evaluation or examination, or receiving treatment as authorized pursuant to 31 this section, no child alleged to be or found to be dependent shall be placed in a detention home or other program used primarily for the care and custody of children alleged or found to have committed delinquent acts.

- (12) The parents or legal custodian of a child in an out-of-home placement remain financially responsible for the cost of medical treatment provided to the child even if either one or both of the parents or if the legal custodian did not consent to the medical treatment. After a hearing, the court may order the parents or legal custodian, if found able to do so, to reimburse the department or other provider of medical services for treatment provided.
- (13) Nothing in this section alters the authority of the department to consent to medical treatment for a dependent child when the child has been committed to the department and the department has become the legal custodian of the child.
- (14) At any time after the filing of a shelter petition or petition for dependency, when the mental or physical condition, including the blood group, of a parent, caregiver, legal custodian, or other person requesting custody of a child is in controversy, the court may order the person to submit to a physical or mental examination by a qualified professional. The order may be made only upon good cause shown and pursuant to notice and procedures as set forth by the Florida Rules of Juvenile Procedure.
- (15) At any time after a shelter petition or petition for dependency is filed, if the mental or physical condition of a child or the child's parent, caregiver, legal custodian, or other person requesting custody of the child is in controversy, the court, if it has not already done so, may order the person to submit to a substance-abuse assessment and evaluation. The assessment or evaluation must be administered by a qualified professional, as defined in s. 397.311. The 1 2 order may be made only upon good cause shown and pursuant to the notice and procedures set forth in the Florida Rules of 3 Juvenile Procedure. 4 5 Section 4. Subsection (9) is added to section 39.507, 6 Florida Statutes, to read: 7 39.507 Adjudicatory hearings; orders of 8 adjudication. --9 (9) If the mental or physical condition of a child or the child's parent, caregiver, legal custodian, or other 10 person requesting custody of the child is in controversy, the 11 12 court, if it has not already done so, may require the person 13 to submit to a substance-abuse assessment or evaluation. The 14 assessment or evaluation must be administered by a qualified 15 professional, as defined in s. 397.311. The court may also 16 require such person to participate in and comply with treatment and services identified as necessary, including, 17 when appropriate and available, participation and compliance 18 19 with a treatment-based drug court program. The court, 20 including the treatment-based drug court program, shall oversee the progress and compliance with treatment by the 21 22 child or the child's parent, legal custodian, caregiver, or other person requesting custody of the child, and shall impose 23 appropriate available sanctions for noncompliance upon the 24 child's parent, legal custodian, caregiver, or other person 25 26 requesting custody of the child. Any order entered under this 27 subsection may be made only upon good cause shown and pursuant 28 to the notice and procedures set forth in the Florida Rules of 29 Juvenile Procedure. Section 5. - 39.521 Disposition hearings; powers of disposition.--

- (1) A disposition hearing shall be conducted by the court, if the court finds that the facts alleged in the petition for dependency were proven in the adjudicatory hearing, or if the parents or legal custodians have consented to the finding of dependency or admitted the allegations in the petition, have failed to appear for the arraignment hearing after proper notice, or have not been located despite a diligent search having been conducted.
- (b) When any child is adjudicated by a court to be dependent, the court having jurisdiction of the child has the power by order to:
- 1. Require, if the court has not already done so, a child or the child's parent, caregiver, legal custodian, or other person requesting custody of the child to submit to a substance-abuse assessment or evaluation when such person's mental or physical condition is in controversy. The assessment or evaluation must be administered by a qualified professional, as defined in s. 397.311. The court may also require such person to participate in treatment and services identified as necessary, including participation and compliance with a treatment-based drug court program, when appropriate and if available. The court, including the treatment-based drug court program, shall oversee the progress and compliance with treatment by the child or the child's parent, legal custodian, caregiver, or other person requesting custody of the child, and shall impose appropriate available sanctions for noncompliance upon the child's parent, legal custodian, caregiver, or other person requesting custody of the child. - Require placement of the child either under the protective supervision of an authorized agent of the department in the home of one or both of the child's parents or in the home of a relative of the child or another adult approved by the court, or in the custody of the department. 12 Protective supervision continues until the court terminates it 13 or until the child reaches the age of 18, whichever date is 14 first. Protective supervision shall be terminated by the court whenever the court determines that permanency has been 15 16 achieved for the child, whether with a parent, another relative, or a legal custodian, and that protective 17 supervision is no longer needed. The termination of 18 19 supervision may be with or without retaining jurisdiction, at the court's discretion, and shall in either case be considered a permanency option for the child. The order terminating 21 22 supervision by the department shall set forth the powers of the custodian of the child and shall include the powers 23 ordinarily granted to a guardian of the person of a minor 24 25 unless otherwise specified. Upon the court's termination of 26 supervision by the department, no further judicial reviews are required, so long as permanency has been established for the 28 child.

(d) The court may extend the time limitation of the case plan, or may modify the terms of the plan, which, in addition to other modifications, may include a requirement that the parent, foster parent, or legal custodian participate in a treatment-based drug court program, based upon information provided by the social service agency, and the guardian ad litem, if one has been appointed, the parent or parents, and the foster parents or legal custodian, and any other competent information on record demonstrating the need for the amendment. If the court extends the time limitation of the case plan, the court must make specific findings concerning the frequency of past parent-child visitation, if any, and the court may authorize the expansion or restriction of future visitation. Modifications to the plan must be handled as prescribed in s. 39.601. Any extension of a case plan must comply with the time requirements and other requirements specified by this chapter.

Section 7. Section 397.334, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

397.334 Treatment-based drug court programs.--

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to implement treatment-based drug court programs in each judicial circuit in an effort to reduce crime and recidivism, abuse and neglect cases, and family dysfunction by breaking the cycle of addiction, which is the most predominant cause of cases entering the justice system. The Legislature recognizes that the integration of judicial supervision, treatment, accountability, and sanctions, and community support greatly increases the effectiveness of substance-abuse substance abuse 31 treatment. The Legislature also seeks to ensure that there is a coordinated, integrated, and multidisciplinary response to the substance-abuse substance abuse problem in this state, with special attention given to the creation of creating partnerships among between the public, community, and private sectors and to the coordinated, supported, and integrated delivery of multiple-system services for substance abusers, including a multiagency team approach to service delivery and aftercare services.

Each judicial circuit shall establish a model of a treatment-based drug court program under which persons in the justice system assessed with a substance-abuse substance abuse problem will be processed in such a manner as to appropriately address the severity of the identified substance-abuse substance abuse problem through treatment services plans tailored to the individual needs of the participant. These treatment-based drug court program models may be established in the misdemeanor, felony, family, delinquency, and dependency divisions of the judicial circuits. It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage the Department of Corrections, the Department of Children and Family Services, the Department of Juvenile Justice, the Department of Health, the Department of Law Enforcement, the Department of Education, and other such other agencies, local governments, law enforcement agencies, and other interested public or private sources, and individuals to support the creation and establishment of these problem-solving court programs. Participation in the treatment-based drug court programs does not divest any public or private agency of its responsibility for a child or adult, but enables allows these agencies to better meet their needs through shared responsibility and resources.

- (3) The treatment-based drug court programs shall include therapeutic jurisprudence and restorative-justice principles and adhere to the following 10 key components, recognized by the Drug Courts Program Office of the Office of Justice Programs of the United States Department of Justice and adopted by the Florida Supreme Court Treatment-Based Drug Court Steering Committee:
- (a) Drug court programs integrate alcohol and other drug treatment services with justice system case processing.
- (b) Using a nonadversarial approach, prosecution and defense counsel promote public safety while protecting participants' due process rights.
- (c) Eligible participants are identified early and promptly placed in the drug court program.
- (d) Drug court programs provide access to a continuum of alcohol, drug, and other related treatment and rehabilitation services.
- (e) Abstinence is monitored by frequent testing for alcohol and other drugs.
- (f) A coordinated strategy governs drug court program responses to participants' compliance.
- (g) Ongoing judicial interaction with each drug court program participant is essential.
- (h) Monitoring and evaluation measure the achievement of program goals and gauge program effectiveness.
- (i) Continuing interdisciplinary education promotes effective drug court program planning, implementation, and operations.
- (j) Forging partnerships among drug court programs, public agencies, and community-based organizations generates 31 | local support and enhances drug court program effectiveness.

- (4) Treatment-based drug court programs may include pretrial intervention programs as provided in ss. 948.08, 948.16, and 985.306; postadjudicatory programs; and the monitoring of sentenced offenders through a treatment-based drug court program. Supervision may also be provided for offenders who transfer from jail or a prison-based treatment program into the community.
- (5) Contingent upon an annual appropriation by the Legislature, each judicial circuit shall establish, at a minimum, one coordinator position for the treatment-based drug court program within the state courts system to coordinate the responsibilities of the participating agencies and service providers. relating to the expansion, operation, and institutionalization of treatment-based drug court programs. The chair is responsible for providing the association's recommendations to the Supreme Court Treatment-Based Drug Court Steering Committee, and shall submit a report each year, on or before October 1, to the steering committee.

(7) The chief judge of each judicial circuit may appoint an advisory committee for the treatment-based drug court program. The committee shall be composed of the chief judge or his or her designee, who shall serve as chairperson; the judge of the treatment-based drug court program, if not otherwise designated by the chief judge as his or her designee; the state attorney, or his or her designee; the public defender, or his or her designee; the treatment-based drug court program coordinators; community representatives; and any other persons the chairperson finds are appropriate.

Section 8. Subsections (6), (7), and (8) of section 948.08, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

948.08 Pretrial intervention program. --

(6)(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, a person who is charged with a felony of the second or third degree for purchase or possession of a controlled substance under chapter 893, tampering with evidence, solicitation for purchase of a controlled substance, or obtaining a prescription by fraud; who has not been charged with a crime involving violence, including, but not limited to, murder, sexual battery, robbery, carjacking, home-invasion robbery, or any other crime involving violence; and who has not previously been convicted of a felony nor been admitted to a felony pretrial program referred to in this section is eliqible for 31 admission into a pretrial substance-abuse substance abuse education and treatment intervention program approved by the chief judge of the circuit, for a period of not less than 1 year in duration, upon motion of either party or the court's own motion, except:

- 1. If a defendant was previously offered admission to a pretrial substance abuse education and treatment intervention program at any time prior to trial and the defendant rejected that offer on the record, then the court or the state attorney may deny the defendant's admission to such a program.
- 1.2. If the state attorney believes that the facts and circumstances of the case suggest the defendant's involvement in the dealing and selling of controlled substances, the court shall hold a preadmission hearing. If the state attorney establishes, by a preponderance of the evidence at such hearing, that the defendant was involved in the dealing or selling of controlled substances, the court shall deny the defendant's admission into a pretrial intervention program.
- 2. A defendant assessed with a substance-abuse problem who is charged for the first time with a nonviolent third-degree felony and a defendant assessed with a substance-abuse problem who has previously been convicted of a nonviolent third-degree felony who is charged with a second or subsequent nonviolent third-degree felony may, with the approval of the state attorney, be referred to the program outlined in this subsection. Upon successful completion of the program, the defendant is entitled to dismissal of the pending charge involving a nonviolent third-degree felony.
- (b) At the end of the pretrial intervention period, the court shall consider the recommendation of the administrator pursuant to subsection (5) and the recommendation of the state attorney as to disposition of the pending charges. The court shall determine, by written finding, whether the defendant has successfully completed the pretrial intervention program.

- (c)1. If the court finds that the defendant has not successfully completed the pretrial intervention program, the court may order the person to continue in education and treatment or order that the charges revert to normal channels for prosecution.
- 2. The court shall dismiss the charges upon a finding that the defendant has successfully completed the pretrial intervention program.
- (d) Any entity, whether public or private, providing a pretrial substance-abuse substance abuse education and treatment intervention program under this subsection must contract with the county or appropriate governmental entity, and the terms of the contract must include, but need not be limited to, the requirements established for private entities under s. 948.15(3).
- advisory committee for the pretrial intervention program composed of the chief judge or his or her designee, who shall serve as chair; the state attorney, the public defender, and the program administrator, or their designees; and such other persons as the chair deems appropriate. The advisory committee may not designate any defendant eligible for a pretrial intervention program for any offense that is not listed under paragraph (6)(a) without the state attorney's recommendation and approval. The committee may also include persons representing any other agencies to which persons released to the pretrial intervention program may be referred.

(b) A child assessed with a substance-abuse problem who is charged for the first time with a nonviolent third-degree felony and a child assessed with a substance-abuse problem who has previously been adjudicated guilty of or delinquent for a nonviolent third-degree felony who is charged with a second or subsequent nonviolent third-degree felony may, with the approval of the state attorney, be referred to the program outlined in this subsection. Upon successful completion of the program, the child is entitled to dismissal of the pending charge as provided in paragraph (3)(b).

(2) (b) At the end of the delinquency pretrial intervention period, the court shall consider the recommendation of the state attorney and the program administrator as to disposition of the pending charges. court shall determine, by written finding, whether the child has successfully completed the delinquency pretrial intervention program.

 $(3)(a)\frac{(c)1}{(c)1}$. If the court finds that the child has not successfully completed the delinquency pretrial intervention program, the court may order the child to continue in an education, treatment, or urine monitoring program if resources and funding are available or order that the charges revert to normal channels for prosecution.

(b)2. The court may dismiss the charges upon a finding that the child has successfully completed the delinquency pretrial intervention program.

(4)(d) Any entity, whether public or private, providing pretrial substance-abuse substance abuse education, treatment intervention, and a urine monitoring program under 31 this section must contract with the county or appropriate governmental entity, and the terms of the contract must include, but need not be limited to, the requirements established for private entities under s. 948.15(3). It is the intent of the Legislature that public or private entities providing substance-abuse substance abuse education and treatment intervention programs involve the active participation of parents, schools, churches, businesses, law enforcement agencies, and the department or its contract providers.

(2) The chief judge in each circuit may appoint an advisory committee for the delinquency pretrial intervention program composed of the chief judge or designee, who shall serve as chair; the state attorney, the public defender, and the program administrator, or their designees; and such other persons as the chair deems appropriate. The committee may also include persons representing any other agencies to which children released to the delinquency pretrial intervention program may be referred.

Section 10. This act shall take effect July 1, 2002.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY

Provides for a child or the child's parent, caregiver, or legal custodian before the court in a shelter hearing, petition for dependency, or other disposition hearing to be subject to assessment and treatment for substance abuse. Requires that such evaluation be administered by a qualified professional. Requires notice and a showing of good cause. Authorizes the court to impose sanctions against the child's parent or other caregiver for noncompliance with a treatment-based drug court program. Authorizes the court to extend the time for completing a case plan upon participation in a treatment-based drug court program. Contingent upon funding, provides for a coordinator of the treatment-based drug court program. Requires the chief judge of each judicial circuit to appoint an advisory committee for the treatment-based drug court program. Authorizes the court to refer certain adult and juvenile defendants who are assessed with a substance-abuse problem to a pretrial intervention program with the approval of the state attorney. See bill for details.
