31

A resolution recognizing March as Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month and urging all men and women to become aware of the risks and symptoms associated with colorectal cancer. WHEREAS, colorectal cancer is the second-leading cause of cancer deaths in Florida, and WHEREAS, it is estimated that this year physicians widiagnose 9,400 cases of colorectal cancer in this state and 4,000 Floridians will die from colorectal cancer, and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:
Cancer Awareness Month and urging all men and women to become aware of the risks and symptoms associated with colorectal cancer. WHEREAS, colorectal cancer is the second-leading caus of cancer deaths in Florida, and WHEREAS, it is estimated that this year physicians widiagnose 9,400 cases of colorectal cancer in this state and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Florida:	1
women to become aware of the risks and symptoms associated with colorectal cancer. WHEREAS, colorectal cancer is the second-leading cause of cancer deaths in Florida, and WHEREAS, it is estimated that this year physicians we diagnose 9,400 cases of colorectal cancer in this state and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	2
associated with colorectal cancer. WHEREAS, colorectal cancer is the second-leading cause of cancer deaths in Florida, and WHEREAS, it is estimated that this year physicians with diagnose 9,400 cases of colorectal cancer in this state and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	3
WHEREAS, colorectal cancer is the second-leading cause of cancer deaths in Florida, and WHEREAS, it is estimated that this year physicians we diagnose 9,400 cases of colorectal cancer in this state and 4,000 Floridians will die from colorectal cancer, and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	4
WHEREAS, colorectal cancer is the second-leading cause of cancer deaths in Florida, and WHEREAS, it is estimated that this year physicians will diagnose 9,400 cases of colorectal cancer in this state and 4,000 Floridians will die from colorectal cancer, and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	5
of cancer deaths in Florida, and WHEREAS, it is estimated that this year physicians will diagnose 9,400 cases of colorectal cancer in this state and 4,000 Floridians will die from colorectal cancer, and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	6
WHEREAS, it is estimated that this year physicians will diagnose 9,400 cases of colorectal cancer in this state and 4,000 Floridians will die from colorectal cancer, and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	7
diagnose 9,400 cases of colorectal cancer in this state and 4,000 Floridians will die from colorectal cancer, and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	8
4,000 Floridians will die from colorectal cancer, and WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	9
WHEREAS, nationally less than 50 percent of individual above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	10
above age 50 receive annual screenings for colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	11
14 and 15 WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can 16 significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cance 17 and 18 WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the 19 number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and 20 WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and 21 WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of 22 methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, 23 THEREFORE, 24 25 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	12
WHEREAS, adopting a healthy diet at a young age can significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	13
significantly reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer and WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	14
17 and 18 WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and 20 WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and 21 WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of 22 methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, 23 THEREFORE, 24 25 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	15
WHEREAS, following screening guidelines can lower the number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	16
number of cases by detecting precancerous polyps, and WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	17
WHEREAS, regular screenings can save many lives, and WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	18
WHEREAS, education can help inform the public of methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	19
methods of prevention and symptoms of early detection, NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	20
THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	21
24 25 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	22
25 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:	23
	24
26	25
	26
That the Florida Senate recognizes March as Colorecta	27
28 Cancer Awareness Month in Florida, and urges all men and	28
29 women, and particularly members of high-risk populations, to	29
30 become aware of the risks and symptoms associated with	30

```
colorectal cancer and to become informed concerning screening tests and methods for early detection and treatment.
 2
 3
 4
 5
 6
 7
 8
 9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
```