A bill to be entitled An act relating to property or liability insurance contracts; providing that certain pollution-exclusion provisions may exclude only certain incidents and hazards; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. A clause in a property or liability insurance contract which excludes coverage for damage caused by the actual or threatened discharge or release of pollutants, including smoke, vapor, soot, fumes, acid, alkalis, chemicals, waste, or any other solid, liquid, gaseous, or thermal irritant or contaminant may exclude from coverage only incidents and hazards that involve long-term environmental degradation or an environment-wide exposure.

Section 2. This act shall take effect August 1, 2002, and shall apply to policies entered into or renewed on or after that date.
