Florida Senate - 2003

By Senator Dawson

29-930-03 A bill to be entitled 1 2 An act relating to homeless persons; defining 3 terms; providing for the appointment of shelter 4 capacity coordinators; requiring the 5 coordinator to supply certain information to 6 law enforcement agencies; prohibiting a law 7 enforcement officer from citing, arresting, or incarcerating an individual for committing, 8 9 under specified circumstances, certain life-sustaining acts that would ordinarily 10 constitute misdemeanors; allowing officers to 11 enforce certain other laws or misdemeanors and 12 to require an individual to submit to an 13 involuntary examination as specified; providing 14 responsibilities of shelter capacity 15 coordinators; requiring law enforcement 16 17 agencies to prepare annual reports; providing an effective date. 18 19 20 WHEREAS, the Legislature finds that the incidence of 21 homelessness continues to increase steadily throughout the 22 state, and 23 WHEREAS, increases in homelessness, coupled with a 24 critical shortage of treatment, income supports, and adequate 25 housing options, have resulted in a concomitant increase in the numbers of individuals and families that live on the 26 27 streets, and 28 WHEREAS, an increasing number of jurisdictions, in 29 attempts to deal with increased numbers of persons living on 30 the streets, have enacted local ordinances that make illegal 31 1

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1 certain actions or behaviors that are necessary for daily 2 living, and 3 WHEREAS, such ordinances have the effect of restricting 4 the basic freedoms of individuals simply because they do not 5 have a home, and б WHEREAS, a growing body of research shows that the cost 7 of providing outreach, shelter, services, and supportive housing to persons who are homeless and living on the street 8 9 is far exceeded by the cost borne by law enforcement, the 10 judicial system, and the correctional system, and 11 WHEREAS, in many communities, these systems have not been equipped to address the complex and multifaceted root 12 causes of homelessness, as evidenced by the "revolving door" 13 14 between jail and the streets, and WHEREAS, the success of numerous "best practices" 15 demonstrates that it is possible to protect the interests of 16 17 business and property owners without criminalizing 18 homelessness through the provision of such outreach, shelter, 19 services, and supportive housing, and 20 WHEREAS, such practices improve the quality of life for all residents of the community, including homeless persons, 21 and universally increase opportunities for participation in 22 commerce, recreation, and other activities essential to the 23 24 health and vibrancy of the community, NOW, THEREFORE, 25 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 26 27 28 Section 1. Shelter capacity coordinators; 29 responsibilities; restrictions on law enforcement; annual 30 report.--31 (1) As used in this section, the term:

2

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1	(a) "Life-sustaining misdemeanor" means a misdemeanor
2	offense committed as a result of the performance of an action
3	that is related to a natural function or task associated with
4	daily living and that would not be considered a criminal act
5	if performed under normal conditions in a private residence.
6	The term includes, but is not limited to the following
7	actions, regardless of how they are defined by local
8	ordinance:
9	1. Sleeping;
10	2. Lying down;
11	3. Camping;
12	4. Cooking;
13	5. Preparing food;
14	6. Eating;
15	7. Sitting;
16	8. Loitering on public property;
17	9. Bathing or washing;
18	10. Public nudity related to the changing or washing
19	of clothes;
20	11. Urinating;
21	12. Defecating; and
22	13. Carrying, placing, storing, stowing, or using
23	equipment or other items related to the performance of any of
24	the actions listed in subparagraphs 112.
25	(b) "Shelter" means a facility providing safe,
26	temporary lodging and other basic services needed by
27	individuals who are homeless, including, but not limited to,
28	sanitary facilities, showers, food, adequate space for
29	sleeping and storing personal belongings, and protection from
30	the elements.
31

3

CODING:Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1(c) "Available bed" means appropriate accommodations2within a shelter or private residence to which a particular3individual who seeks access is guaranteed admission, without4expectation of payment or of participation in nonessential5services or religious activities. The term does not include6any accommodations provided in a jail or other setting in7which the individual is involuntarily placed or detained8without his or her consent nor accommodations provided in a9facility that lacks a valid certificate of occupancy, exceeds10the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise16fails to comply with local housing codes.11(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation designated by a law enforcement agency as the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional33supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant23information needed by l
3individual who seeks access is guaranteed admission, without4expectation of payment or of participation in nonessential5services or religious activities. The term does not include6any accommodations provided in a jail or other setting in7which the individual is involuntarily placed or detained8without his or her consent nor accommodations provided in a9facility that lacks a valid certificate of occupancy, exceeds10the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise11fails to comply with local housing codes.12(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional33supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25to make attempted placements to available beds within the26community or region.27(2) Each law enforcement agency s	1	(c) "Available bed" means appropriate accommodations
4Expectation of payment or of participation in nonessential5services or religious activities. The term does not include6any accommodations provided in a jail or other setting in7which the individual is involuntarily placed or detained8without his or her consent nor accommodations provided in a9facility that lacks a valid certificate of occupancy, exceeds10the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise11fails to comply with local housing codes.12(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant23information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents24to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region.25Kalter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made39<	2	within a shelter or private residence to which a particular
5services or religious activities. The term does not include6any accommodations provided in a jail or other setting in7which the individual is involuntarily placed or detained8without his or her consent nor accommodations provided in a9facility that lacks a valid certificate of occupancy, exceeds10the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise11fails to comply with local housing codes.12(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional33supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant23information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents24to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region.25information needed by law enforcement officers, as26in make attempted placement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator	3	individual who seeks access is guaranteed admission, without
6any accommodations provided in a jail or other setting in7which the individual is involuntarily placed or detained8without his or her consent nor accommodations provided in a9facility that lacks a valid certificate of occupancy, exceeds10the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise11fails to comply with local housing codes.12(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25to make attempted placement agency shall designate a26(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a27shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made28with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as31defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	4	expectation of payment or of participation in nonessential
7which the individual is involuntarily placed or detained8without his or her consent nor accommodations provided in a9facility that lacks a valid certificate of occupancy, exceeds10the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise11fails to comply with local housing codes.12(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25to make attempted placement agency shall designate a26(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a27shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made32with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as33defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	5	services or religious activities. The term does not include without his or her consent nor accommodations provided in a facility that lacks a valid certificate of occupancy, exceeds the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise fails to comply with local housing codes. (d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific point in time to secure admission of a particular individual to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of transportation to the shelter or private residence for the individual. (e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents to make attempted placement sto available beds within the community or region. (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	6	any accommodations provided in a jail or other setting in 9facility that lacks a valid certificate of occupancy, exceeds10the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise11fails to comply with local housing codes.12(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25to make attempted placements to available beds within the26community or region.27(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a39shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made30with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as31defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	7	which the individual is involuntarily placed or detained the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise fails to comply with local housing codes. (d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific point in time to secure admission of a particular individual to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of transportation to the shelter or private residence for the individual. (e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region. (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	8	without his or her consent nor accommodations provided in a
11fails to comply with local housing codes.12(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents26to make attempted placements to available beds within the27community or region.28(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a39shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made30with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as31defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	9	facility that lacks a valid certificate of occupancy, exceeds
12(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents26to make attempted placements to available beds within the27community or region.28(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a29shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made30with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as31defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	10	the occupancy limit posted by the fire marshal, or otherwise
13law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents26to make attempted placements to available beds within the27community or region.28(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a29shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made30with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as31defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	11	fails to comply with local housing codes.
14point in time to secure admission of a particular individual15to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence16within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents26to make attempted placements to available beds within the27community or region.28(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a30with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as31defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	12	(d) "Attempted placement" means an effort made by a
15 to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of transportation to the shelter or private residence for the individual. 20 (e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region. 28 (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	13	law enforcement officer or his or her agent at a specific within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of transportation to the shelter or private residence for the individual. (e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region. (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	14	point in time to secure admission of a particular individual
17officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents26to make attempted placements to available beds within the27community or region.28(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a30with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as31defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	15	to occupy an available bed in a shelter or private residence
18transportation to the shelter or private residence for the19individual.20(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual21or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the22entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional23supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,24restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant25information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents26to make attempted placements to available beds within the27community or region.28(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a30with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as31defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	16	within or in reasonable proximity to the jurisdiction of the individual. (e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region. (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement 	17	officer, as well as to provide or ensure the provision of
 (e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region. (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement 	18	transportation to the shelter or private residence for the or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region. (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as	19	individual.
<pre>22 entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional 23 supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, 24 restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant 25 information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents 26 to make attempted placements to available beds within the 27 community or region. 28 (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a 29 shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made 30 with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as 31 defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement</pre>	20	(e) "Shelter capacity coordinator" means an individual
Supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations, restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region. (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	21	or organization designated by a law enforcement agency as the restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents to make attempted placements to available beds within the community or region. 10 (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	22	entity responsible for inventorying the local or regional
25 information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents 26 to make attempted placements to available beds within the 27 community or region. 28 (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a 29 shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made 30 with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as 31 defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	23	supply of shelter beds and their relevant target populations,
26 to make attempted placements to available beds within the 27 community or region. 28 (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a 29 shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made 30 with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as 31 defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	24	restrictions, requirements, fee structures, and other relevant
27 community or region. 28 (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a 29 shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made 30 with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as 31 defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	25	information needed by law enforcement officers or their agents
 28 (2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a 29 shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made 30 with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as 31 defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement 	26	to make attempted placements to available beds within the
29 shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made 30 with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as 31 defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	27	community or region.
30 with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as 31 defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	28	(2) Each law enforcement agency shall designate a
31 defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement	29	shelter capacity coordinator. The designation must be made
	30	with the input of the local coalition for the homeless, as
4	31	defined in section 420.623, Florida Statutes. Law enforcement
_		4

CODING:Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1 agencies are encouraged to coordinate the designation of 2 shelter capacity coordinators with their counterparts from 3 neighboring jurisdictions. The shelter capacity coordinator shall, at least 4 (3) 5 daily, provide to the law enforcement agency current б information regarding the inventory and status of available 7 beds in shelters within the county or metropolitan area. The 8 shelter capacity coordinator shall ideally make current 9 information available to law enforcement officers in real time. 10 11 (4) A law enforcement officer may not cite, arrest, or incarcerate an individual for committing a life-sustaining 12 13 misdemeanor unless: (a) Based on the most recent information provided by 14 the shelter capacity coordinator which is available to the law 15 enforcement officer, there is an available bed for that 16 17 individual; (b) The officer or his or her agent makes an attempted 18 19 placement of that individual to an available bed; and 20 (C) That individual refuses to accept the attempted 21 placement. 22 (5) A law enforcement officer may not cite, arrest, or 23 incarcerate an individual for committing a life-sustaining 24 misdemeanor if an attempted placement of that individual is 25 unsuccessful as a result of: 26 The provision of inaccurate or incomplete (a) 27 information by the shelter capacity coordinator; or 28 (b) A change in the status of an available bed prior 29 to the placement of that individual. 30 This section does not preclude or restrict a law (6) enforcement officer from enforcing other laws or ordinances 31

5

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1 that are violated simultaneously with the commission of the life-sustaining misdemeanor nor from requiring an individual 2 3 to submit to an involuntary examination as described in section 394.463, Florida Statutes, or part V of chapter 397, 4 5 Florida Statutes. б (7) Each shelter capacity coordinator shall establish 7 a procedure for reviewing the need to add, delete, or modify 8 information regarding the status of available beds in relation to a particular individual or category of individuals, based 9 10 on information provided by the law enforcement agency or the 11 local coalition for the homeless. (8) Each shelter capacity coordinator shall, to the 12 greatest extent practical, provide or facilitate the provision 13 of additional information or training to law enforcement 14 officers in order to promote access to other services and 15 resources that may be needed by individuals committing 16 17 life-sustaining misdemeanors or by other homeless individuals. Each law enforcement agency shall annually prepare 18 (9) 19 a report that summarizes its activities relating to the shelter capacity coordinator, including the number and nature 20 of successful and unsuccessful attempted placements, as well 21 as the number of citations and arrests for life-sustaining 22 misdemeanors. 23 24 Section 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2004. 25 26 27 28 29 30 31

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

б

Florida Senate - 2003 29-930-03

1	****
2	SENATE SUMMARY
3	Prohibits law enforcement officers from arresting
4	homeless persons under specified circumstances for committing certain acts related to fulfilling
5	life-sustaining needs which would otherwise be misdemeanors. Provides for the appointment of shelter
6	capacity coordinators. Provides for exchanges of information between the coordinators and law enforcement
7	agencies. Requires agencies to prepare annual reports relating to their activities under this section.
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24 25
25 26
20 27
27 28
20 29
30
31
	7

CODING:Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

SB 1288