SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The bill requires the Department of Children and Families to enter into working agreements related to the criminal investigation of adult abuse, neglect, and exploitation with local law enforcement agencies by March 1, 2004. The CS provides that Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability (OPPAGA) must evaluate the effectiveness of those agreements by March 1, 2005. The requirement for these agreements has been in the statutes since 2000; the requirements that they be in place by a specific date and that they be evaluated are new.

There is no fiscal impact.

The bill takes effect July 1, 2003.

For any principle that received a "no" above, please explain:

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Requires the Department of Children and Families to enter into working agreements with local law enforcement agencies that specify how they will work together in cases of criminal investigation of adult abuse, neglect, or exploitation. OPPAGA is required to review the efficacy of those agreements by March 1, 2005. Further, the department must report to the Legislature on its compliance with the recommendations in OPPAGA Report No. 03-08.

The Legislature added the requirement for these working agreements without an effective date during the 2000 session; to date, however, the department has not executed agreements in all areas of the state.

C. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1 amends 415.1045(6) F.S. related to working agreements between the department and local law enforcement agencies.

Section 2 requires that DCF report to the Legislature.

Section 3 provides that the bill take effect on July 1, 2003.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

The subcommittee on Elder Affairs and Long Term Care recommended three amendments at its April 1, 2003 meeting. The CS includes these changes:

OPPAGA, not the Department of Children and Families (DCF), is to evaluate the working agreements between law enforcement and the department.

Revises the due date for the evaluation from September 1, 2004 to March 1, 2005.

Revises the date by which the agreements must be in place from September 1, 2003 to March 1, 2004.

Requires that DCF report to the Legislature on its compliance with the recommendations made by OPPAGA in Report NO. 03-08.
