SUMMARY ANALYSIS

This bill amends s. 4, Art. VII, State Constitution, to create s. 4(f) to authorize legislation which would freeze the assessed value of homestead property owned by certain persons who are 65 years of age or older.

The bill provides that the amendment be submitted to the electors of Florida for approval or rejection at the general election in November 2004.

The bill provides authority for a county to, by ordinance, prohibit an increase in the assessed value of homestead property located in that county which is owned by any person who is age 65 and whose household income does not exceed $20,000.

The bill provides ballot language.

The bill was referred to the Impact Conference which has not yet considered the fiscal impact of the bill.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

The bill does not require a city or county to expend funds or to take any action requiring the expenditure of funds.

It is indeterminate whether or not the bill reduces the authority that municipalities or counties have to raise revenues in the aggregate. The bill has been submitted to the Impact Conference for review.

This bill does not reduce the percentage of state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

2. Other:

Constitutional Provision for Amending the Constitution

Article XI, Section 1, of the Florida Constitution, provides the Legislature the authority to propose amendments to the Constitution by joint resolution approved by three-fifths of the membership of each house. The amendment must be placed before the electorate at the next general election held after the proposal has been filed with Secretary of State's office or may be placed at a special election held for that purpose.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

Drafting Issues
