I. Summary:

This legislation re-creates the Displaced Homemaker Trust Fund without modification, effective November 4, 2004. The Displaced Homemaker Trust Fund, FLAIR #75-2-160, is administered by the Agency for Workforce Innovation. This fund was last re-created effective November 4, 2000, by Chapter 99-23, Laws of Florida, in the Department of Education and was revised by Chapter 2000-165, Laws of Florida.

II. Present Situation:

The Displaced Homemaker Trust Fund was established to receive funds generated from an additional fee on marriage license applications and dissolution of marriage filings as specified in s. 28.101, F.S., and s. 741.01(3), F.S., and may receive funds from any other public or private source. These funds are to carry out the provisions of s. 446.50, F.S. to provide multi-purpose service programs for job training, counseling, and service provisions for displaced homemakers to achieve independence and economic security.
