I. Summary:

This legislation re-creates the Operating Trust Fund without modification, effective November 4, 2004. The Operating Trust Fund, FLAIR #70-2-510, is administered by the Department of Corrections. This fund was re-created by Chapter 98-348.

II. Present Situation:

The Operating Trust Fund was created to receive funds from surcharges and fees generated by community supervision and electronic monitoring of offenders, cost of supervision payments and subsistence payments by inmates in community facilities, recycling proceeds and meal sales to counties.

These funds are used to offset costs of the department associated with community supervision programs and administrative services relative to the court ordered payment system.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

This bill re-creates the trust fund without modification.
