Florida Senate - 2004

By Senator Peaden

1A bill to be entitled2An act relating to firearm records; creating s.3790.335, F.S.; providing legislative findings4and intent; prohibiting the creation or5maintenance of any list, record, or registry of6privately owned firearms or any list, record,7or registry of the owners of those firearms;8providing exceptions; providing criminal9penalties for a violation of the act; providing10for the imposition of civil fines on certain11governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney12General to enforce the civil penalties against13governmental agencies; requiring the state14attorney to prosecute violators of this act;15prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for16defense counsel for persons charged with a17violation of this act; providing exceptions;18requiring liberal construction of the act;19providing for application to records already in20existence; providing an effective date.21WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that23since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling24them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth25Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S.,26390 U.S. 85 (1968)) and, as a consequence, criminals may not
790.335, F.S.; providing legislative findings and intent; prohibiting the creation or maintenance of any list, record, or registry of privately owned firearms or any list, record, or registry of the owners of those firearms; providing exceptions; providing criminal penalties for a violation of the act; providing for the imposition of civil fines on certain governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney General to enforce the civil penalties against governmental agencies; requiring the state attorney to prosecute violators of this act; prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for defense counsel for persons charged with a violation of this act; providing exceptions; requiring liberal construction of the act; providing for application to records already in existence; providing an effective date.
4 and intent; prohibiting the creation or 5 maintenance of any list, record, or registry of 6 privately owned firearms or any list, record, 7 or registry of the owners of those firearms; 8 providing exceptions; providing criminal 9 penalties for a violation of the act; providing 10 for the imposition of civil fines on certain 11 governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney 12 General to enforce the civil penalties against 13 governmental agencies; requiring the state 14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., maintenance of any list, record, or registry of privately owned firearms or any list, record, or registry of the owners of those firearms; providing exceptions; providing criminal penalties for a violation of the act; providing for the imposition of civil fines on certain governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney General to enforce the civil penalties against governmental agencies; requiring the state attorney to prosecute violators of this act; prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for defense counsel for persons charged with a violation of this act; providing exceptions; requiring liberal construction of the act; providing for application to records already in existence; providing an effective date. WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 6 privately owned firearms or any list, record, 7 or registry of the owners of those firearms; 8 providing exceptions; providing criminal 9 penalties for a violation of the act; providing 10 for the imposition of civil fines on certain 11 governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney 12 General to enforce the civil penalties against 13 governmental agencies; requiring the state 14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 7 or registry of the owners of those firearms; 8 providing exceptions; providing criminal 9 penalties for a violation of the act; providing 10 for the imposition of civil fines on certain 11 governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney 12 General to enforce the civil penalties against 13 governmental agencies; requiring the state 14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S.,
8 providing exceptions; providing criminal 9 penalties for a violation of the act; providing 10 for the imposition of civil fines on certain 11 governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney 12 General to enforce the civil penalties against 13 governmental agencies; requiring the state 14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 9 penalties for a violation of the act; providing 10 for the imposition of civil fines on certain 11 governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney 12 General to enforce the civil penalties against 13 governmental agencies; requiring the state 14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 10 for the imposition of civil fines on certain 11 governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney 12 General to enforce the civil penalties against 13 governmental agencies; requiring the state 14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 11 governmental entities; authorizing the Attorney 12 General to enforce the civil penalties against 13 governmental agencies; requiring the state 14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 12 General to enforce the civil penalties against 13 governmental agencies; requiring the state 14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 13 governmental agencies; requiring the state 14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., <pre>14 attorney to prosecute violators of this act; 15 prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for 16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S.,</pre> prohibiting the expenditure of public funds for defense counsel for persons charged with a violation of this act; providing exceptions; requiring liberal construction of the act; providing for application to records already in existence; providing an effective date. WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., <pre>16 defense counsel for persons charged with a 17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S.,</pre> <pre>17 violation of this act; providing exceptions; 18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S.,</pre>
18 requiring liberal construction of the act; 19 providing for application to records already in 20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 19 providing for application to records already in existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., <pre>20 existence; providing an effective date. 21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S.,</pre>
21 22 WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 23 since felons are prohibited from owning firearms, compelling 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 24 them to register their firearms would violate their Fifth 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 25 Amendment rights against self-incrimination (Haynes v. U.S., 26 390 U.S. 85 (1968)) and, as a consequence, criminals may not 27 be forced to register firearms and may not be prosecuted for 28 failure to register firearms, and
29 WHEREAS, 18 U.S.C. s. 926, the Firearms Owner's 30 Protection Act, prohibits the establishment of "any system of 31
1

CODING:Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1 registration of firearms, firearms owners, or firearms 2 transactions or dispositions, " and 3 WHEREAS, the Firearms Owner's Protection Act prohibits 4 any rule or regulation that may require that records required 5 to be maintained by firearms dealers under federal law or any б portion of the contents of such firearms records from being 7 recorded at or transferred to a facility owned, managed, or controlled by the United States or any state or political 8 9 subdivision thereof, and 10 WHEREAS, history has shown that the registration of 11 firearms in Cuba enabled Fidel Castro to confiscate firearms and render the disarmed population helpless under his tyranny, 12 13 and 14 WHEREAS, history has also shown that the registration 15 of firearms in Nazi Germany enabled Adolph Hitler to confiscate firearms and render the disarmed population 16 17 helpless in the face of Nazi atrocities, and WHEREAS, firearm registration lists have led to gun 18 19 confiscation in Australia, Bermuda, Cuba, Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Ireland, Jamaica, the former Soviet Union, 20 and other countries, and 21 WHEREAS, history has shown that registration of 22 firearms in California, New York City, Chicago, and 23 24 Washington, D.C., has led to the banning and confiscation of 25 firearms, and WHEREAS, repeated attempts to accumulate firearms data 26 into computerized databases by some of Florida's agencies and 27 28 political subdivisions have placed the privacy rights of 29 law-abiding firearm owners at risk, thereby making legislative protection necessary, NOW, THEREFORE, 30 31 2

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 2 3 Section 1. Section 790.335, Florida Statutes, is created to read: 4 5 790.335 Prohibition of registration of firearms.-б (1) LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND INTENT.--7 The Legislature finds and declares that: (a) 8 The right of individuals to keep and bear arms is 1. 9 guaranteed under both the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution and s. 8, Art. I of the State 10 11 Constitution, and keeping a list, record, or registry of those exercising that right is not only a violation of the right to 12 keep and bear arms, but also a violation of the firearm 13 14 owner's right to privacy. 2. A list, record, or registry of legally owned 15 firearms or law-abiding firearm owners is not a law 16 enforcement tool and can become an instrument for profiling, 17 harassing, or abusing law-abiding citizens based on their 18 19 choice to own a firearm and exercise their Second Amendment right to keep and bear arms as guaranteed under the United 20 States Constitution. Further, such a list, record, or registry 21 has the potential to fall into the wrong hands and become a 22 shopping list for thieves. 23 24 3. A list, record, or registry of legally owned firearms or law-abiding firearm owners is not a tool for 25 fighting terrorism, but rather is an instrument that can be 26 27 used as a means to profile innocent citizens using terrorism 28 as an excuse to harass and abuse United States citizens based 29 solely on their choice to own firearms and exercise their Second Amendment right to keep and bear arms as guaranteed 30 31 under the United States Constitution.

3

CODING:Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1 4. Law-abiding firearm owners whose names have been recorded in a list, record, or registry are entitled to 2 3 redress. 4 (b) The Legislature intends through the provisions of 5 this section to: 6 1. Protect the right of individuals to keep and bear 7 arms as guaranteed under both the Second Amendment to the 8 United States Constitution and s. 8, Art. I of the State 9 Constitution. 10 2. Protect the privacy rights of law-abiding firearm 11 owners. (2) PROHIBITIONS.--No state governmental agency or 12 local government, special district, or other political 13 subdivision or official, agent, or employee of such state or 14 other governmental entity or any other person, public or 15 private, shall keep or cause to be kept any list, record, or 16 17 registry of privately owned firearms or any list, record, or registry of the owners of those firearms. 18 19 (3) EXCEPTIONS.--The provisions of this section shall 20 not apply to: 21 (a) Records of firearms that have been used in 22 committing any crime. (b) Records relating to persons who have been 23 24 convicted of a crime. 25 (c) Records of a firearm that has been reported stolen which are retained for a period not in excess of 30 days after 26 27 such firearm is recovered. (d) Firearm records that must be retained by firearm 28 29 dealers under federal law, including copies of such records 30 transmitted to law enforcement agencies. However, no state 31 governmental agency or local government, special district, or 4

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1 other political subdivision or official, agent, or employee of such state or other governmental entity or any other person, 2 3 private or public, shall accumulate, compile, computerize, or otherwise collect or convert such written records into any 4 5 form of list, registry, or database for any purpose. б (e)1. Records kept pursuant to the recordkeeping 7 provisions of s. 790.065; however, nothing in this section 8 shall be construed to authorize the public release or 9 inspection of records that are made confidential and exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07(1) by s. 790.065(4)(a). 10 11 2. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the maintaining of records containing the names of 12 purchasers or transferees who receive unique approval numbers 13 or the maintaining of records of firearm transactions. 14 Firearms records required by chapter 538 or 15 (f) chapter 539. 16 17 1. Electronic firearms records held pursuant to 18 chapter 538 may only be kept by a secondhand dealer for 30 19 days after the date of the purchase of the firearm by the 20 secondhand dealer. 21 2. Electronic firearms records held pursuant to 22 chapter 539 may only be kept by a pawnbroker for 30 days after 23 the expiration of the loan that is secured by a firearm. 24 3. Except as required by federal law, any firearms records kept pursuant to chapter 538 or chapter 539 shall not, 25 26 at any time, be electronically transferred to any public or 27 private entity, agency, business, or enterprise, nor shall any such records be copied or transferred for purposes of 28 29 accumulation of such records into lists, registries, or 30 databases. 31

CODING:Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1	4. Notwithstanding subparagraph 3., secondhand dealers
2	and pawnbrokers may electronically submit firearm transaction
3	records to the appropriate law enforcement agencies as
4	required by chapter 538 or chapter 539; however, the law
5	enforcement agency may not electronically submit such record
6	to any other person or entity and must destroy such record
7	within 30 days after receipt of such record.
8	(g) Records kept by the Department of Law Enforcement
9	of NCIC transactions to the extent required by federal law and
10	a log of dates of requests for criminal history records
11	checks, unique approval and nonapproval numbers, license
12	identification numbers, and transaction numbers corresponding
13	to such dates.
14	(h) Records of an insurer received as a condition to
15	obtaining insurance against theft or loss of a firearm which
16	would identify such firearm. Such record may not be sold,
17	commingled with records relating to other firearms, or
18	transferred to any other person or entity. The insurer may not
19	keep a record of such firearm more than 60 days after the
20	policy of insurance expires or after notification by the
21	insured that the insured is no longer the owner of such
22	firearm.
23	(i) Lists of customers of a firearm dealer by such
24	dealer, provided that such lists do not disclose the
25	particular firearms purchased. Such lists, or any part
26	thereof, may not be sold, commingled with records relating to
27	other firearms, or transferred to any other person or entity.
28	(j) Sales receipts by the seller of firearms or by a
29	person providing credit for such purchase, provided that such
30	receipts shall not serve as or be used for the creation of a
31	database for registration of firearms.
	6

6

CODING:Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

1	(k) Personal records of firearms maintained by the
2	owner of such firearms.
3	(1) Records maintained by a business that stores or
4	acts as the selling agent of firearms on behalf of the lawful
5	owner of the firearms.
6	(m) Membership lists of organizations comprised of
7	firearm owners.
8	(n) Records maintained by an employer or contracting
9	entity of the firearms owned by its officers, employees, or
10	agents, if such firearms are used in the course of business
11	performed on behalf of the employer.
12	(o) Records maintained pursuant to s. 790.06 by the
13	Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services of a person
14	who was a licensee within the prior 2 years.
15	(4) PENALTIES
16	(a) Any person who violates a provision of this
17	section commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as
18	provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.
19	(b) Except as required by the provisions of s. 16,
20	Art. I of the State Constitution or the Sixth Amendment to the
21	United States Constitution, no public funds shall be used to
22	defend the unlawful conduct of any person charged with a
23	violation of this section, unless the charges against such
24	person are dismissed or such person is determined to be not
25	guilty at trial.
26	(c) The governmental entity, or the designee of such
27	governmental entity, in whose service or employ a list,
28	record, or registry was compiled in violation of this section
29	shall be assessed a fine of up to $5 million, if the court
30	determines that the evidence shows that the list, record, or
31	registry was compiled or maintained with the knowledge or
	7

CODING:Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

complicity of the management of the governmental entity. The 1 Attorney General may bring a civil cause of action to enforce 2 3 the fines under this paragraph. (d) The state attorney in the appropriate jurisdiction 4 5 shall investigate complaints of criminal violations of this б section and, where evidence indicates a violation may have 7 occurred, shall vigorously prosecute violators. 8 (5) LIBERAL CONSTRUCTION. -- This section shall be 9 liberally construed to effectuate its remedial and deterrent 10 purposes. 11 Section 2. Any list, record, or registry maintained or under construction on the effective date of this act shall be 12 destroyed, unless prohibited by law, within 60 calendar days 13 after this act becomes law. Thereafter, failure to destroy any 14 such list, record, or registry may result in prosecution under 15 this act. 16 17 Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a 18 law. 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.