Senator Aronberg moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 2, lines 10-19, delete those lines and insert: necessity that any information that would identify or help to locate a child who participates in government-sponsored recreation programs or camps or the parents or guardians of such child, including, but not limited to, the name, home address, telephone number, social security number, and photograph of such child, the names, home addresses, and social security numbers of the parents or guardians of such child, be held exempt from public records requirements because revealing such information could create the opportunity for stalking, harassment, abduction, or abuse of such children. Information that identifies a parent or guardian of such a child could be used indirectly to lead to the location of the child. As the public availability of this information could create the opportunity for stalking, harassment, abduction, or abuse of these children, it would be contrary to the state's compelling interest in preserving the 1 public safety to permit the release of such information.

2 Protecting such personal information of these children and 3 their parents or guardians helps to minimize the opportunity 4 for stalking, harassment, abduction, or abuse and thus it is a 5 public necessity that such information be held confidential 6 and exempt from public records requirements.
