4	produce revenue subject to lump sum or other appropriation by
5	the Legislature, either for the State general revenue fund or
б	any trust fund, which tax or fee is not in effect on November
7	7, 1994 . including without limitation such taxes and fees as
8	are the subject of proposed constitutional amendments
9	appearing on the ballot on November 8, 1994. This section
10	shall apply to proposed constitutional amendments relating to
11	State taxes or fees which appear on the November 8, 1994
12	ballot, or later ballots, and Any such proposed amendment or
13	revision that which fails to gain the two-thirds vote required
14	hereby shall be null, void, and without effect.
15	(b) No amendment or revision to this constitution
16	which increases an existing State tax or fee shall become
17	effective unless the proposed amendment or revision is
18	approved by not fewer than two-thirds of the voters voting in 19	the election in which such proposed amendment or revision is 20	considered. For purposes of this section, the phrase "existing
21	State tax or fee" shall mean any tax or fee that produces
22	revenue subject to lump sum or other appropriation by the
23	Legislature, either for the State general revenue fund or any
24	trust fund, which tax or fee is in effect at the time of the 25	election at which the proposed amendment or revision is
26	considered. Any such proposed amendment or revision that fails
27	to gain the two-thirds vote required by this subsection shall
28	be null, void, and without effect.

10	one percent of the portion of the state budget appropriated
11	from the General Revenue Fund, as established in the General
12	Appropriations Act approved by the Governor, for the state
13	fiscal year ending in the year prior to the election in which 14	such proposed amendment or revision is considered. The
15	determination that a proposed amendment or revision imposes a
16	significant financial impact on state government shall be
17	certified pursuant to the process established in general law.
18	Any such proposed amendment or revision that fails to gain the
19	two-thirds vote required by this subsection shall be null,
20	void, and without effect.

1 state tax or fee" means any tax or fee that produces revenue subject to lump-sum or other appropriation by the Legislature, 2 either for the state general revenue fund or any trust fund, 3 4 if that tax or fee is in effect at the time of the election when the proposed amendment or revision is considered. The 5 amendment also requires that a proposed amendment to or 6 7 revision of the State Constitution which imposes a significant financial impact on state government must be approved by at 8 least two-thirds of those voters voting in the election in 9 10 which such amendment or revision is considered. For the 11 purposes of this amendment, a "significant financial impact" means a financial impact to the state, including requiring the 12 Legislature to increase taxes in order to maintain the state 13 budget at existing revenues and expenditures, in any state 14 15 fiscal year prior to and including the first state fiscal year of full implementation in an amount greater than two-tenths of 16 1 percent of the portion of the state budget appropriated from 17 the General Revenue Fund, as established in the General 18 19 Appropriations Act approved by the Governor, for the state 20 fiscal year ending in the year prior to the election in which such proposed amendment or revision is considered. Currently, 21 22 such a proposal must be approved by only a simple majority of 23 those voting on the proposal, unless it imposes a new state 2.4 tax or fee. This amendment repeals obsolete provisions in this section of the State Constitution relating to items on the 25 November 8, 1994, ballot. 26 27 28 29 ============ TITLE AMENDMENT =============== And the title is amended as follows: 30 31 Delete everything before the enacting clause 4:47 PM 04/29/05 h1741.25ee.001
