Section 1. Paragraph (o) of subsection (3), paragraph (b) of subsection (4), paragraph (f) of subsection (7), and subsections (15), (16), and (17) of section 288.99, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

288.99 Certified Capital Company Act. --

- (3) DEFINITIONS.--As used in this section, the term:
- (o) "Program Two" means the $150 million in premium tax credits to be issued under subsection (16) (17), the allocation of such credits under this section, and the regulation of certified capital companies and investments made by them hereunder.
- (4) CERTIFICATION; GROUNDS FOR DENIAL OR DECERTIFICATION. --
- (b) An applicant for certification as a certified capital company must file a verified application with the Department of Banking and Finance on or before December 1, 1998, a date determined in rules adopted pursuant to subsection(16)(17) in the case of applicants for Program Two, in a form which the commission may prescribe by rule. The applicant shall submit a nonrefundable application fee of $7,500 to the office. The applicant shall provide:
- 1. The name of the applicant and the address of its principal office and each office in this state.
- 2. The applicant's form and place of organization and the relevant organizational documents, bylaws, and amendments or restatements of such documents, bylaws, or amendments.
- 3. Evidence from the Department of State that the applicant is registered with the Department of State as required by law, maintains an active status with the Department of State, and has not been dissolved or had its registration revoked, canceled, or withdrawn.

4. The applicant's proposed method of doing business.

5. The applicant's financial condition and history, including an audit report on the financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The applicant must have, at the time of application for certification, an equity capitalization of at least $500,000 in the form of cash or cash equivalents. The applicant must maintain this equity capitalization until the applicant receives an allocation of certified capital pursuant to this act. If the date of the application is more than 90 days after preparation of the applicant's fiscal year-end financial statements, the applicant may file financial statements reviewed by an independent certified public accountant for the period subsequent to the audit report, together with the audited financial statement for the most recent fiscal year. If the applicant has been in business less than 12 months, and has not prepared an audited financial statement, the applicant may file a financial statement reviewed by an independent certified public accountant.

- 6. Copies of any offering materials used or proposed to be used by the applicant in soliciting investments of certified capital from certified investors.
- (7) ANNUAL TAX CREDIT; MAXIMUM AMOUNT; ALLOCATION PROCESS.--
- (f) If the total amount of capital committed by all certified investors to certified capital companies in premium tax allocation claims under Program Two exceeds the aggregate cap on the amount of credits that may be awarded under Program Two, the premium tax credits that may be allowed to any one certified investor under Program Two shall be allocated using the following ratio:

where the letter "A" represents the total amount of certified capital certified investors have agreed to invest in any one certified capital company under Program Two, the letter "B" represents the aggregate amount of certified capital that all certified investors have agreed to invest in all certified capital companies under Program Two, the letter "X" is the numerator and represents the total amount of premium tax credits and certified capital that may be allocated to a certified capital company on a date determined by rule adopted by the commission pursuant to subsection (16) (17), and $150 million is the denominator and represents the total amount of premium tax credits and certified capital that may be allocated to all certified investors under Program Two. Any such premium tax credits are not first available for utilization until annual filings are made in 2001 for calendar year 2000 in the case of Program One, and the tax credits may be used at a rate not to exceed 10 percent annually per program.

(15)(a) CONFIDENTIALITY OF INVESTIGATION AND REVIEW INFORMATION.—Except as otherwise provided by this section, any information relating to an investigation or office review of a certified capital company, including any consumer complaint, is confidential and exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution until the investigation or review is complete or ceases to be active. Such information shall remain confidential and exempt complete or ceases to be active if the information is 2 submitted to any law enforcement or administrative agency for further investigation, and shall remain confidential and 3 exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. 4 I of the State Constitution until that agency's investigation 5 6 is complete or ceases to be active. For purposes of this 7 subsection, an investigation or review shall be considered 8 "active" so long as the office, a law enforcement agency, or 9 an administrative agency is proceeding with reasonable dispatch and has a reasonable good faith belief that the 10 investigation may lead to the filing of an administrative, 11 12 civil, or criminal proceeding. This section shall not be 13 construed to prohibit disclosure of information which is required by law to be filed with the office and which, but for 14 the investigation, would otherwise be subject to s. 119.07(1). 15

- (b) Except as necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter, a consumer complaint or information relating to an investigation or review shall remain confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) after an investigation or review is complete or ceases to be active to the extent disclosure would:
- 1. Reveal a trade secret as defined in s. 688.002 or s. 812.081.
 - 2. Jeopardize the integrity of another active investigation or review.
 - 3. Disclose the identity of a confidential source or investigative techniques or procedures.
 - (c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the office from providing information to any law enforcement or administrative agency. Any law enforcement or administrative agency receiving confidential information in connection with its official duties shall maintain the confidentiality of the information so long as it would otherwise be confidential.

(d) In the event office personnel are or have been involved in an investigation or review of such nature as to endanger their lives or physical safety or that of their families, the home addresses, telephone numbers, places of employment, and photographs of such personnel, together with the home addresses, telephone numbers, photographs, and places of employment of spouses and children of such personnel and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such personnel are confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1).

(e) All information obtained by the office from any person which is only made available to the office on a confidential or similarly restricted basis shall be confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1). This exemption shall not be construed to prohibit disclosure of information which is specifically required by law to be filed with the office or which is otherwise subject to s. 119.07(1).

(d)(f) If information subject to this subsection is offered in evidence in any administrative, civil, or criminal proceeding, the presiding officer may, in his or her discretion, prevent the disclosure of information which would be confidential pursuant to paragraph (b).

(e)(g) A privilege against civil liability is granted to a person with regard to information or evidence furnished to the office, unless such person acts in bad faith or with malice in providing such information or evidence.

(h) This subsection is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act of 1995 in accordance with s. 119.15, and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2005, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

(16) CONFIDENTIALITY OF SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS. The social security number of any customer of a certified capital company, complainant, or person associated with a certified capital company or qualified business, is exempt from s.

119.07(1). This subsection is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act of 1995 in accordance with s. 119.15, and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2005, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

(16)(17) Notwithstanding the limitations set forth in paragraph (7)(a), in the first fiscal year in which the total insurance premium tax collections as determined by the Revenue Estimating Conference exceed collections for fiscal year 2000-2001 by more than the total amount of tax credits issued pursuant to this section which were used by certified investors in that year, the Office of Tourism, Trade, and Economic Development may allocate to certified investors in accordance with paragraph (7)(a) tax credits for Program Two. The commission shall establish, by rule, a date and procedures by which certified capital companies must file applications for allocations of such additional premium tax credits, which date shall be no later than 180 days from the date of determination by the Revenue Estimating Conference. With respect to new certified capital invested and premium tax credits earned pursuant to this subsection, the schedule specified in subparagraphs (5)(a)1.-4. is satisfied by investments by December 31 of the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th calendar year, respectively, after the date established by the commission for applications of additional premium tax credits.

The commission shall adopt rules by which an entity not already certified as a certified capital company may apply for 2 certification as a certified capital company for participation in this additional allocation. The insurance premium tax 3 credit authorized by Program Two may not be used by certified 4 5 investors until the annual return due March 1, 2004, and may be used on all subsequent returns and estimated payments; however, notwithstanding the provisions of s. 624.5092(2)(b), 8 the installments of taxes due and payable on April 15, 2004, and June 15, 2004, shall be based on the net tax due in 2003 9 not taking into account credits granted pursuant to this 10 11 section for Program Two. 12 Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a 13 law. 14 15 16 SENATE SUMMARY 17 Revises certain exemptions from the public-records law provided for specified information relating to an 18 investigation or review of a certified capital company by the Office of Financial Regulation of the Financial 19 Services Commission. Removes the repeal of certain exemptions scheduled on October 2, 2005, under the Open 2.0 Government Sunset Review Act. (See bill for details.) 21 22 23 2.4 2.5 26 27 2.8 29
